Ibn Ad-Darāwirdī said: We asked about it and they said, “It does not intoxicate; there is no harm in it.”

5585. Narrated ʿAishah: Allah’s Messenger was asked about Al-Bīr. He said, “All drinks that intoxicate are unlawful (to drink.)”

5586. Narrated ʿAishah: Allah’s Messenger was asked about Al-Bīr, a liquor prepared from honey which the Yemenites used to drink. Allah’s Messenger said, “All drinks that intoxicate are unlawful (to drink.)”

5587. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger said, “Neither make drinks in Ad-Dubbā’ nor in Al-Muzaffat.” (2)

Abū Hurairah used to add to them Al-Hantam and An-Naqir. (2)

(1) (Chap. 4) A drink prepared from honey or grapes. It is permissible to drink as long as it is fresh (not fermented).

(2) (H. 5587) Ad-Dubbā’, Al-Muzaffat, Al-Hantam and An-Naqir are four different containers in which wine used to be prepared. Ad-Dubbā’ is the empty skin of gourd; Al-Muzaffat is a bowl coated with pitch; Al-Hantam is a kind of jar; and An-Naqir is a piece of date-palm trunk, hollowed out in the shape of a bowl.
(5) CHAPTER. What has been said (about the statement). Alcoholic drink is any drink that disturbs the mind.

5588. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: ‘Umar delivered a Khutba on the pulpit of Allâh’s Messenger , saying, “Alcoholic drinks were prohibited by Divine Order, and these drinks used to be prepared from five things, i.e., grapes, dates, wheat, barley and honey. Alcoholic drink is that, that disturbs the mind.” ‘Umar added, “I wish Allâh’s Messenger had not left us (died) before he had given us definite verdicts concerning three matters, i.e., how much a grandfather may inherit (of his grandson), the inheritance of Al-Kalâla (a person who has neither descendents nor ascendents as heirs) and the gates (various types) from the gates (types) of Ribâ(1) (usury).”

5589. Narrated ‘Umar: “Alcoholic drinks are prepared from five things, i.e., raisins, dates, wheat, barley and honey.”

(1) (H. 5588) Ribâ: See the glossary.
(6) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the one who regards an alcoholic drink lawful to drink, and calls it by another name.

5590. Narrated Abū 'Āmir or Abū Mālik Al-Asḥ'arī that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "From among my followers there will be some people who will consider illegal sexual intercourse, the wearing of silk, the drinking of alcoholic drinks and the use of musical instruments, as lawful. And (from them) there will be some who will stay near the side of a mountain and in the evening their shepherd will come to them with their sheep and ask them for something, but they will say to him, 'Return to us tomorrow.' Allāh will destroy them during the night and will let the mountain fall on them, and He will transform the rest of them into monkeys and pigs and they will remain so till the Day of Resurrection.”

(7) CHAPTER. To prepare non-alcoholic drinks in bowls or Taūr (a bowl made of stone, copper or wood).

5591. Narrated Sahl: Abū Usaid Abū Chatib came and invited Allāh's Messenger ﷺ on the occasion of his wedding. His wife who was the bride, was serving them. Do you know what drink she prepared for Allāh's Messenger ﷺ? She had soaked some dates in water in a Taūr overnight.
(8) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ re-allowed the use of (certain kinds of) bowls and containers after he had forbidden their use.

5592. Narrated Jābir: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the use of (certain) containers, but the Anṣār said, “We cannot dispense with them.” The Prophet ﷺ then said, “If so, then use them.”

5593. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: When the Prophet ﷺ forbade the use of certain containers (that were used for preparing alcoholic drinks), somebody said to the Prophet ﷺ, “But not all the people can find skins.” So he allowed them to use clay jars not covered with pitch.

(1) (H. 5594) See the footnote of H. 5587.
5595. Narrated Ibrāhim: I asked Al-Aswad, “Did you ask ‘Āishah, (Mother of the believers), about the containers in which it is disliked to prepare (non-alcoholic) drinks?” He said, “Yes, I said to her, ‘O Mother of the believers! What containers did the Prophet forbid to use for preparing (non-alcoholic) drinks?’ She said, ‘The Prophet forbade us (his family), to prepare (non-alcoholic) drinks in Ad-Dubbā’ and Al-Muzaffat.’ I asked, ‘Didn’t you mention Al-Jar and Al-Hantam?’ She said, ‘I tell what I have heard; shall I tell you what I have not heard?’”

(9) CHAPTER. (One can drink) date-syrup as long as it does not intoxicate (not fermented).

5597. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Abū Usaid As-Sā’idī invited the Prophet to his wedding banquet. At that time his wife was serving them, and she was the bride. She said, “Do you know what (kind of syrup) I soaked (made) for Allāh’s Messenger? I soaked some dates in water in a Ta‘ūr (bowl) overnight.”

(10) CHAPTER. Al-Badhaq (a kind of alcoholic drink). \(^{(1)}\)

And whoever forbade all kinds of (alcoholic) drinks which caused intoxication.

‘Umar, Abū ‘Ubaida and Mu‘ādh gave the verdict that At-Tila was permissible to drink if its amount decreased to one-third by cooking.

Al-Barā‘ and Abī Juhaifa drink it when its amount diminished by half by cooking.

Ibn ‘Abbās said: Drink the fruit juice as long as it is fresh.

‘Umar said: I perceived the smell of some drink from ‘Ubaidullāh, so I am going to ask him about it. If it was intoxicant, I will give him the legal lashing.

5598. Narrated Abū Al-Juwairiya: I asked Ibn ‘Abbās about Al-Badhaq. He said, “Muhammad prohibited alcoholic drinks before it was called Al-Badhaq (by saying), ‘Any drink that intoxicates is unlawful.’ I said, ‘What about good lawful drinks?’ He said, ‘Apart from what is lawful and good, all other things are unlawful and not good (unclean Al-Khabīth).’” 5599. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet used to like sweet edible things and honey.

(1) (Chap. 10) Al-Badhaq which is also called At-Tila’. It is a drink which is prepared from the syrup of grapes which is cooked so that it becomes as thick as the grease used for treating camels.
(11) CHAPTER. Whoever considers that the unripe-date drink and the ripe-date drink should not be mixed with each other if it is an intoxicant, and that two kinds of cooked food should not be put in one dish.

5600. Narrated Anas: While I was serving Abū Talḥa, Abū Dujāna and Abū Suhail bin Al-Baidā’ with a drink made from a mixture of unripe and ripe dates, alcoholic drinks, were made unlawful, whereupon I threw it away, and I was their butler and the youngest of them, and we used to consider that drink as an alcoholic drink in those days.

5601. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet forbade the drinking of alcoholic drinks prepared from raisins, dates, unripe dates and fresh ripe dates.

5602. Narrated Abū Qatāda: The Prophet forbade the mixing of ripe and unripe dates and also the mixing of dates and raisins (for preparing a syrup) but the syrup of each kind of fruit should be prepared separately. (One may drink such drinks as long as it is fresh).
(12) CHAPTER. The drink of milk. And the Statement of Allah:

"We give you to drink of that which is in their bellies, from between excretions and blood, pure milk palatable to the drinkers..."

(V.16:66)

5603. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was presented a bowl of milk and a bowl of wine on the night he was taken on a journey (Al-Isra).

5604. Narrated Umm Al-Fadl: The people doubted whether Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was observing Saum (fast) on the day of ‘Arafāt or not. So I sent a cup containing milk to him and he drank it.

5605. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: Abū Ḥumaid brought a cup of milk from (a place called) An-Naqī. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Will you not cover it, even by placing a stick across it?”
5606. Narrated Jābir: Abū Ḥumaid, (an Anṣārī man), came from An-Naqî carrying a cup of milk to the Prophet. The Prophet said, “Will you not cover it even by placing a stick across it?”

5607. Narrated Al-Bara: The Prophet came from Makkah with Abū Bakr. Abū Bakr said, “We passed by a shepherd, and at that time Allah’s Messenger was thirsty. I milked a little milk in a bowl and Allah’s Messenger drank till I was pleased.

Surāqā bin Ju’shum came to us riding a horse (chasing us). The Prophet invoked evil upon him, whereupon Surāqā requested him not to invoke evil upon him, in which case he would go back. The Prophet agreed.

[See Vol.5, H. No.3905 and 3906]

5608. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The best object of charity is a she-camel which has (newly) given birth and gives plenty of milk, or a she-goat which gives plenty of milk, and is given to somebody to utilize its milk by milking one bowl in the morning and one in the evening.”
5609. Narrated Ibn 'Abbãs ﷺ. Allah's Messenger ﷺ drank milk and then rinsed his mouth and said, “It contains fat.”

5610. The Prophet ﷺ added: I was raised to the Lote Tree and saw four rivers, two of which were coming out and two going in. Those which were coming out were the Nile and the Euphrates, and those which were going in were two rivers in Paradise. Then I was given three bowls, one containing milk, another containing honey, and a third containing wine. I took the bowl containing milk and drank it. It was said to me, “You and your followers will remain on the right path (Islãm).”

(13) CHAPTER. To seek fresh water.

5611. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik ﷺ: Abû Talha had the largest number of date-palms from amongst the Anṣûr of Al-Madîna.
The dearest of his property to him was Bairuha garden which was facing the (Prophet’s) Mosque. Allâh’s Messenger used to enter it and drink of its good fresh water. When the Holy Verse: “By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness – it means here Allâh’s Reward, i.e., Paradise) unless you spend (in Allâh’s Cause) of that which you love”. (V.3:92) was revealed, Abû _TD.Talha_ got up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Allâh says: ‘By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness – it means here Allâh’s Reward, i.e., Paradise) unless you spend of that which you love? And the most dear property to me is the Bairuha garden and I want to give it in charity in Allâh’s Cause, seeking to be rewarded by Allâh for that. So you can spend it, O Allâh’s Messenger, wherever Allâh instructs you.”

Allâh’s Messenger said, “Good! That is a perishable (or profitable) wealth.”

(‘Abdullah) is in doubt as to which word was used.) He said, “I have heard what you have said, but in my opinion you’d better give it to your kith and kin.” On that Abû _TD.Talha_ said, “I will do so, O Allâh’s Messenger!” Abû _TD.Talha_ distributed that garden among his kith and kin and cousins.

(14) CHAPTER. The drinking of milk (mixed) with water.

5612. Narrated Anas bin Malik: I saw Allâh’s Messenger drinking milk. He came to my house and I milked a sheep and then mixed the milk with water from the well for Allâh’s Messenger. He took the bowl and drank while on his left there was sitting Abū Bakr, and on his right there was a bedouin. He then gave the remaining milk to the bedouin and said, “The right! The right (first).”

5613. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and one of his Companions entered upon an Ansārī man and the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “If you have water kept overnight in a water-skin, (give us), otherwise we will drink water by putting our mouth in it (a basin).” The man was watering his garden then. He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have water kept overnight; let us go to the shade.” So he took them both there and poured water into a bowl and milked a domestic goat of his in it. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ drank, and then the man who had come along with him, drank. [See H.No.5621].

(15) CHAPTER. The drinking of sweet edible things (syrups etc.) and honey.

Az-Zuhri said: The drinking of human urine because of great necessity is unlawful, for it is a foul thing. Allāh says:

“Lawful for you are At-Tayyibāt…” (V.5:4)

Ibn Mas‘ūd said (about wine): Allāh does not cure your diseases with what he has made unlawful.

5614. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to like sweet edible things (syrup, etc.) and honey.

(16) CHAPTER. To drink while standing.

5615. Narrated An-Nazzāl: ‘Āli came to the gate of courtyard (of the mosque) and drank (water) while he was standing and said, “Some people dislike to drink while standing, but I saw the Prophet doing (drinking water) as you have seen me doing now.”

5616. Narrated An-Nazzāl bin Sabra: ‘Āli offered the Zuhr prayer and then sat down in the wide courtyard (of the mosque) of Kūfa in order to deal with the affairs of the people till the ‘Asr prayer became due. Then water was brought to him and he drank of it, washed his face, hands, head and feet. Then he stood up and drank the remaining water while he was standing, and said, “Some people dislike to drink water while standing although the Prophet did as I have just done.”
5617. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs ﴾: The Prophet ﴿ drank Zamzam (water) while standing.

5618. Narrated Umm Al-Fadl, daughter of Al-Ḥãrith, that she sent a bowl of milk to the Prophet ﴿ while he was standing (at ‘Arafát) in the afternoon of the day of ‘Arafát. He took it in his hands and drank it. Narrated AbU An-Naçlr: The Prophet ﴿ was on the back of his camel.

5619. Narrated Anas bin Mlik ﴾: Milk mixed with water was brought to Allah’s Messenger ﴿ while a bedouin was on his right and Abû Bakr was on his left. He drank (of it) and then gave (it) to the bedouin and said, “The right”. “The right (first).”

(17) CHAPTER. Whoever drank while he was on the back of his camel.

(18) CHAPTER. The one on the right should drink first.

(19) CHAPTER. Should one ask the permission of the one sitting on one’s right so as to give the drink to an elder person first?
5620. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Allah’s Messenger was offered something to drink. He drank of it while on his right was a boy and on his left were some elderly people. He said to the boy, “May I give these (elderly) people first?” The boy said, “By Allah, O Allah’s Messenger! I will not give up my share from you to somebody else.” On that Allah’s Messenger placed the cup in the hand of that boy.

(20) CHAPTER. To drink water from a basin by putting one’s mouth in it.

5621. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah: The Prophet and one of his Companions entered upon an Ansārī man. The Prophet and his Companion greeted (the man) and he replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! It is hot,” while he was watering his garden. The Prophet asked him, “If you have water kept overnight in a water-skin, (give us), or else we will sip by putting our mouths in the basin.” The man was watering the garden. The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have water kept overnight in a water-skin.” He went to the shade and poured some water into a bowl and milked some milk from a domestic goat in it. The Prophet drank and then gave the bowl to the man who had come along with him to drink.
(21) CHAPTER. The younger should serve the older.

5622. Narrated Anas: I was waiting on my uncles, serving them with an alcoholic drink prepared from dates, and I was the youngest of them. (Suddenly) it was said that alcoholic drinks had been prohibited. So they said (to me), "Throw it away." And I threw it away. The sub-narrator said: I asked Anas what their drink was (made from). He replied, "(From) ripe dates and unripe dates."

(22) CHAPTER. Covering the containers.

5623. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger said, “When night falls (or when it is evening), stop your children from going out, for the devils spread out at that time. But when an hour of the night has passed, release them and close the doors and mention Allah’s Name, for Satan does not open a closed door. Tie the mouth of your water-skin and mention Allah’s Name; cover your containers and utensils and mention Allah’s Name. Cover them even by placing something across it, and extinguish your lamps.”
Allah's lamps tie the mouth when you go to bed; close your doors, tie the mouths of your water-skins, and cover the food and drinks.” I think he added, “... even with a stick you place across the container.”

(23) CHAPTER. The bending of the mouths of the water-skins for the sake of drinking from them.

5624. Narrated Jābir: Allah’s Messenger said, “Extinguish the lamps when you go to bed; close your doors, tie the mouths of your water-skins, and cover the food and drinks.” I think he added, “… even with a stick you place across the container.”

5625. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger forbade the bending of the mouths of water-skins for the sake of drinking from them.

5626. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: I heard Allah’s Messenger forbidding the drinking of water by bending the mouths of water-skins, i.e., drinking from the mouths directly.
(24) CHAPTER. To drink water from the mouth of a water-skin.

5627. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger forbade drinking (directly) from the mouth of a water-skin or other leather containers, and forbade preventing one’s neighbour from fixing a peg in (the wall of) one’s house.

5628. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet forbade the drinking of water (directly) from the mouth of a water-skin.

5629. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet forbade the drinking of water (direct) from the mouth of a water-skin.

(25) CHAPTER. It is forbidden to breathe in the vessel (while drinking water).

5630. Narrated Abū Qatāda: Allāh’s Messenger said, “When you drink (water), do not breathe in the vessel; and when you urinate, do not touch your penis with your right hand; and when you cleanse yourself after defecation, do not use your right hand.”
(26) CHAPTER. Breathing twice or thrice while drinking.

5631. Narrated Thumâma bin ‘Abdullâh: Anas used to breathe twice or thrice (while drinking) in a vessel and used to say that the Prophet used to take three breaths while drinking.

(27) CHAPTER. To drink in gold utensils.

5632. Narrated Ibn Abî Lailâ: While Ḥudhaifa was at Madâ’in, he asked for water. The chief of the village brought him a silver vessel. Hudhaifa threw it away and said, “I have thrown it away because I told him not to use it, but he has not stopped using it. The Prophet forbade us to wear clothes of silk or Dibaj, and to drink in gold or silver utensils, and said, ‘These things are for them (disbelievers) in this world and for you (Muslims) in the Hereafter.’”

(28) CHAPTER. Silver utensils.

5633. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet said, “Do not drink in gold or silver utensils, and do not wear clothes of silk or Dibaj, for these things are for them (disbelievers) in this world and for you (Muslims) in the Hereafter.”

5634. Narrated Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He who drinks in silver utensils is only filling his abdomen with Hell-fire.”

5635. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Azib: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered us to do seven things and forbade us from seven. He ordered us to visit the sick, to follow funeral processions, (to say) to a sneezer (May Allah bestow His Mercy on you, if he says, Praise be to Allah), to accept invitations, propagate As-Salâm [(greeting) i.e. to greet one another], to help the oppressed and to help others to fulfil their oaths. He forbade us to wear gold rings, to drink in silver (utensils), to use Mayâthir (silken carpets placed on saddles), to wear Al-Qissiy (a kind of silken cloth), to wear silk, Dîbaj or Istabraq (two kinds of silk).

(29) CHAPTER. To drink in wooden utensils.

5636. Narrated Umm Al-Fadl that the people were in doubt whether the Prophet ﷺ was observing Saum (fast) on the day of ‘Arafât or not, so a (wooden) drinking vessel full of milk was sent to him, and he drank it.
CHAPTER. To drink (water) in the (wooden) drinking bowl of the Prophet and his other utensils.

Abū Burda said: ‘Abdullāh bin Salām said to me, “Shall I make you drink in the owl in which the Prophet drank?”

5637. Narrated Sahīl bin S’ad: An Arab lady was mentioned to the Prophet so he asked Abū Usaid As-Sā’idi to send for her, and he sent for her and she came and stayed in the castle of Banī Sā’ida. The Prophet came out and went to her and entered upon her. Behold, it was a lady sitting with a drooping head. When the Prophet spoke to her, she said, “I seek refuge with Allah from you.” He said, “I grant you refuge from me.” They sal to her, “Do you know who he is?” She said, “No.” They said, “He is Allah’s Messenger who has come to demand your hand in marriage.” he said, “I am very unlucky to lose this chance.” Then the Prophet and his Companions went towards the shed of Banī Sā’ida and sat there. Then he said, “Give us water, 0 Sahīl!” So I took out this drinking bowl and gave them water in it. The sub-narrator added: Sahīl took out for us that very drinking bowl and we all drank from it. Later on ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azīz requested Sahīl to give it to him as a present, and he gave it to him as a present.
5638. Narrated ‘Āsim Al-Ahwal: I saw the drinking bowl of the Prophet ﷺ with Anas bin Malik, and it had been broken, and he had mended it with silver plates. That drinking bowl was quite wide and made of Nudār wood. Anas said, “I gave water to the Prophet ﷺ in that bowl more than so-and-so (for a long period).” Ibn Sirin said: Around that bowl there was an iron ring, and Anas wanted to replace it with a silver or gold ring, but Abū Ṭalhā said to him, “Do not change a thing that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has made.” So Anas left it as it was.

5639. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: I was with the Prophet ﷺ and the time for the ‘Aṣr prayer became due. We had no water with us except a little which was put in a vessel and was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. He put his hand into it and spread out his fingers and then said, “Come along! Hurry up! All those who want to perform ablution. The blessing is from Allāh.” I saw the water gushing out from his fingers. So the people performed the ablution and drank, and I tried to drink more of that water (beyond my thirst and capacity), for I knew that it was a blessing. The subnarrator said: I asked Jābir, “How many persons were you then?” He replied, “We were one thousand and four hundred men.” Sālim said: Jābir said, “1500.” (See H. 3576) فلَقَدْ رأيت العَمَاة يَنفَجِرُ عَنْ بَيْنِ أَصَابِبِهِ، فَنُوْضَأ النَّاس وَسَرَبُوا، فَجَعِلَت لا آلو ما جَعِلْت في بَطْنِي مَثْلُه فَعَلَّمَتَ الْحَرُوكَةَ. فَلَت لجَابِر: كَمْ كُنْتُ ظَوْمًَ؟ قَالَ: أَلْفٌ وَأَزْبِعَمَائِهِ.

تَابَعَهُ عُمَّرُ بْنُ دِينَارٍ عَنْ جَابِر. وَقَالَ حُصَيْنٌ وَعُمَّرُ بْنُ مُرْدَة، عَنْ سَالِم، عَنْ جَابِر: خَمْسَ عَشَرَة مَايَة. وَتَابَعَهُ سَعِيْدُ بْنُ المُسْبِبٍ عَنْ جَابِر.

(1) CHAPTER. The saying that sickness is expiation for sins.

And the Statement of Allāh:
“Whoever works evil will have the recompense thereof.” (V.4:123)

5640. Narrated `Āishah رضي الله عنها, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No calamity befalls a Muslim but that Allāh expiates some of his sins because of it, even though it were the prick he receives from a thorn.”

5641, 5642. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī and Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No fatigue, nor disease, nor sorrow, nor sadness, nor hurt, nor distress befalls a Muslim, even if it were the prick he receives from a thorn, but that Allāh expiates some of his sins for that”.

5643. Narrated Ka`b: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of a believer is that of a fresh tender plant, which the wind bends it sometimes and some other time it makes it straight. And the example of a hypocrite is...” that of a pine tree which keeps straight till once it is uprooted suddenly”.

5644. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The example of a believer is that of a fresh tender plant; from whatever direction the wind comes, it bends it, but when the wind becomes quiet, it becomes straight again. Similarly, a believer is afflicted with calamities (but he remains patient till Allāh removes his difficulties). And Al-Fājir (an impious wicked evil-doer) is like a pine tree which keeps hard and straight till Allāh cuts (breaks) it down when He wishes.” (See Hadith No.7466, Vol. 9.)

5645. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If Allāh wants to do good to somebody, He afflicts him with trials.”

(2) CHAPTER. The severity of disease.

5647. Narrated ‘Abdullãh ﷺ: I visited the Prophet ﷺ during his ailments and he was suffering from a high fever. I said, “You have a high fever. Is it because you will have a double reward for it?” He said, “Yes, for no Muslim is afflicted with any harm but that Allah will remove his sins as the leaves of a tree fall down.”

5648. Narrated ‘Abdullãh ﷺ: I visited Allah’s Messenger ﷺ while he was suffering from a high fever. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You have a high fever.” He said, “Yes, I have as much fever as two men of you.” I said, “Is it because you will have a double reward?” He said, “Yes, it is so. No Muslim is afflicted with any harm, even if it were the prick of a thorn, but that Allah expiates his sins because of that, as a tree sheds its leaves.”

(3) CHAPTER. The people most prone to trials are Prophets, and then the most pious people, and then the less pious and so on.
(4) CHAPTER. It is compulsory to visit the sick.

5649. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'ārī:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Feed the hungry, visit the sick, and set free the captives.”

5650. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azib:
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered us to do seven things and forbade us to do seven other things. He forbade us to wear gold rings, silk, Dibāj, Istabraq, Qissiy, and Maithara (1) and ordered us to accompany funeral processions, visit the sick and greet everybody.

(See Hadith No. 5175)

(5) CHAPTER. To visit an unconscious person.

5651. Narrated Jābīr bin ‘Abdullāh:
Once I fell ill. The Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr came walking to pay me a visit and found me unconscious. The Prophet ﷺ

(1) (H. 5650) Dibāj, Istabraq and Qissiy are different kinds of silk; Maithara is a kind of cushion.
performed ablution and then poured the remaining water on me, and I came to my senses to see the Prophet ﷺ. I said, "O Allah’s Messenger! What shall I do with my property? How shall I dispose of (distribute) my property?" He did not reply till the Verse of Inheritance was revealed.

(6) CHAPTER. The superiority of a person who is suffering from epilepsy.

5652. Narrated ‘Atā bin Abī Rabāḥ: Ibn ‘Abbās said to me, “Shall I show you a woman of the people of Paradise?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “This black lady came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘I get attacks of epilepsy and my body becomes uncovered; please invoke Allâh for me.’ The Prophet ﷺ said (to her), ‘If you wish, be patient and you will have (enter) Paradise; and if you wish, I will invoke Allâh to cure you.’ She said, ‘I will remain patient,’ and added, ‘but I become uncovered, so please invoke Allâh for me that I may not become uncovered.’ So he invoked Allâh for her.”

Narrated ‘Atā that he had seen Umm Zufar, the tall black lady, holding the curtain of the Ka’bah.

(7) CHAPTER. The superiority of a person who has lost his sight.
5653. Narrated Anas bin Malik: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Allah said, ‘If I deprive my slave of his two beloved things (i.e., his eyes) and he remains patient, I will let him enter Paradise in compensation for them’.”

(8) CHAPTER. The visiting of sick men by women.

Umm Ad-Darda’ visited an Ansârî man who was sick in the mosque.

5654. Narrated ‘A‘ishah: When Allah’s Messenger emigrated to Al-Madina, Abû Bakr and Bilâl became ill (got a fever). I entered upon them and asked, “O my father! How are you? O Bilâl! How are you?” Whenever the fever of Abû Bakr got worse, he would recite the following poetic verses: ‘Everybody is staying alive among his people, yet death is nearer to him than his shoe laces.” And whenever the fever deserted Bilâl, he would recite (two poetic lines): ‘Would that I could stay overnight in a valley wherein I would be surrounded by Idhkîrî and Jâtil (two kinds of good smelling grass). Would that one day I could drink of the water of Majanna and that Shâma and Tâfîl (two mountains at Makkah) would appear to me’. Then I came and informed Allah’s Messenger about that, whereupon he said, “O Allah! Make us love Al-Madina as much or more than we love Makkah. O Allah! Make it healthy and bless its Mudd and Sâ’ for us, and take away its fever and put it in
(9) CHAPTER. To visit sick children.

5655. Narrated Abū 'Uthmān: Usāma bin Zaid (رضي الله عنهما) said that while he, Sa'd and Ubayy bin Ka'b were with the Prophet (ﷺ), a daughter of the Prophet (ﷺ) sent a message to him, saying, “My daughter is dying; please come to us.” The Prophet (ﷺ) sent her his greetings and added, “It is for Allah what He takes, and what He gives; and everything before His Sight has a limited period. So she should hope for Allah’s reward and remain patient.” She again sent a message, beseeching him, by Allah, to come. So the Prophet (ﷺ) got up, and so did we (and went there). The child was placed on his lap while his breath was irregular. Tears flowed from the eyes of the Prophet (ﷺ). Sa'd said to him, “What is this, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “This is mercy which Allah has embedded in the hearts of whomever He wished of His slaves. And Allah does not bestow His Mercy, except on those among His slaves who are merciful (to others).” (See Hadith No. 1284, Vol. 2)

(10) CHAPTER. To visit a (sick) bedouin.

5656. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The Prophet (ﷺ) went to visit a sick bedouin. Whenever the Prophet (ﷺ) went to a patient, he used to say to him, “No harm will befall on you, if Allâh will, it will be an expiation (for your sins).” So he said that to the bedouin who said, “You say an expiation? No, it is but a fever that is boiling or harassing an old man and will lead him to his grave without his will.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then, yes, it is so.” (See H. 3616)

(11) CHAPTER. To visit a (sick) Mushrik(1).
5657. Narrated Anas: A Jewish boy used to serve the Prophet ﷺ and became ill. The Prophet ﷺ went to pay him a visit and said to him, “Embrace Islâm,” and he did embrace Islâm.

Al-Musaiyab said: When Abû Ṭâlib was on his deathbed, the Prophet ﷺ visited him.

(12) CHAPTER. If one visited a patient and when the time of the Šalât (prayer) became due, he led the people present there, in a congregational Šalât (prayer).

5658. Narrated ‘Aishah: During the ailment of the Prophet ﷺ some people came to visit him. He led them in Šalât (prayer) while sitting, but they offered Šalât (prayer) standing, so he waved to them to sit down. When he had finished the Šalât (prayer), he said, “An Imâm is to be followed, so when he bows, you should bow, and when he raises his head, you should raise yours, and if he offers Salāt (prayer) sitting, you should pray sitting.”

(1) (Chap 11) Al-Mushrikûn: polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ṣa).

Abū ‘Abdullāh said: Al-Ḥumaidī said, “(The order of) this narration has been abrogated by the last action of the Prophet ﷺ, as he led the Salāt (prayer) sitting, while the people offered Salāt (prayer) standing behind him.”

(13) CHAPTER. Placing the hand on the patient.

5659. Narrated Sa’d: I became seriously ill at Makkah and the Prophet ﷺ came to visit me. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I shall leave behind me a good fortune, but my heir is my only daughter, shall I bequeath two-third of my property to be spent in charity and leave one-third (for my heir)?” He said, “No.” I said, “Shall I bequeath half and leave half?” He said, “No”. I said, “Shall I bequeath one-third and leave two-third?” He said, “One-third is alright, though even one-third is too much.” Then he placed his hand on his forehead and passed it over my face and abdomen and said, “O Allah! Cure Sa’d and complete his migration.” I feel as if I have been feeling the coldness of his hand on my liver ever since.

(1) (H. 5659) To complete his emigration means to let him return to Al-Madīna and die there rather than in Makkah whence he had emigrated.
5660. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin Mas'ûd: I visited Allãh's Messenger while he was suffering from a high fever. I touched him with my hand and said, "O Allãh's Messenger! You have a high fever." Allãh's Messenger said, "Yes, I have as much fever as two men of you have." I said, "Is it because you will get a double reward?" Allãh's Messenger said, "Yes, no Muslim is afflicted with harm because of sickness or some other inconvenience, but that Allãh will remove his sins for him as a tree sheds its leaves."

(14) CHAPTER. What (a visitor) should say to a patient and what should be the answer of the patient.

5661. Narrated 'Abdullah: I visited the Prophet during his illness and touched him while he was having a fever. I said to him,"You have a high fever; is it because you will get a double reward?" He said, "Yes. No Muslim is afflicted with any harm, but that his sins will be removed (annulled) as the leaves of a tree fall down."
5662. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Messenger entered upon a sick to pay him a visit, and said to him, “No harm will befall on you, if Allah will (your sickness will be) an expiation for your sins.” The man said, “No, it is but a fever that is boiling within an old man and will lead him to his grave.” On that, the Prophet said, “Then yes, it is so.”

(15) CHAPTER. To visit a patient riding, walking or sitting with another person on a donkey.

5663. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid: The Prophet rode a donkey having a saddle with a Fadakiya velvet covering. He mounted me behind him and went to visit Sa’d bin ‘Ubād, and that was before the battle of Badr. The Prophet proceeded till he passed by a gathering in which ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl was present, and that had been before ‘Abdullāh embraced Islām. The gathering comprised of Muslims, polytheists, i.e., idolaters and Jews. ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāha was also present in that gathering. When dust raised by the donkey covered the gathering, ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy covered his nose with his upper garment and said, “Do not trouble us with dust.” The Prophet greeted them, stopped and dismounted. Then he invited them to Allāh (i.e., to embrace Islām) and recited to them some verses of the Qur’ān. On that, ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy said, “O man! There is nothing better than what you say if it is true. Do not trouble us with it in our gathering, but return to your mount (or residence), and if somebody comes to you, relate (your tales) to him.” On that ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāha said, “Yes. O Alläh’s Messenger! Bring your teachings to our gathering, for we love that.” So the Muslims, Al-Mushrikûn and the Jews started abusing each other till they were about to fight. The Prophet  kept on quietening them till they became calm. Thereupon the Prophet  mounted his animal and proceeded till he entered upon Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda. He said to him “O Sa’d! Have you not heard what Abû Ḥubâb (i.e., ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy) said?” Sa’d said, “O Alläh’s Messenger! Excuse and forgive him, for Alläh has given you what He has given you. The people of this town (Al-Madîna) decided unanimously to crown him and make him their chief by placing a turban on his head, but when that was prevented by the Truth which Alläh had given you, he (‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy) was grieved out of jealousy, and that was the reason which caused him to behave in the way you have seen.” (See H. 4566)

5664. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet  came to visit me (while I was sick) and he was riding neither a mule, nor a horse.

(16) CHAPTER. It is permissible for a patient to say: “I am sick,” or “Oh, my head!” or “My ailment has been aggravated.”
And the saying of Ayyub (Job),

“Verily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy.” (V.21:83)

5665. Narrated Ka'b bin 'Ujra:
The Prophet {QS} passed by me while I was kindling a fire under a (cooking) pot. He said, “Do the lice of your head trouble you?” I said, “Yes.” So he called a barber to shave my head and ordered me to make expiation for that.” (1) (See H. 1814) 5666. Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Muḥammad: ‘Aishah, (complaining of headache) said, “Oh, my head”! Allah's Messenger {Q} said, “I wish that had happened while I was still living, for then I would ask Allah's forgiveness for you and invoke Allah for you.” (2) ‘Aishah said, “Wa thukāyah!” By Allah, I think you want me to die; and if this should happen, you would spend the last part of the day sleeping with one of your wives!” The Prophet {Q} said, “Nay, I should say, ‘Oh my head!’ I felt like sending for Abū Bakr and his son, and appoint him as my successor lest some people claimed something or some others wished something, but then I said (to myself), Allah would not allow it to be otherwise, and the Muslims would prevent it to be otherwise”.

(1) (H. 5665) Ka'b was in a state of Ihram.

(2) (H. 5666) The Prophet {Q} wished that he would survive her so that he might invoke Allah for her.

(3) (H. 5666) An exclamation, meaning: “Alas I have lost my son!” The literal meaning is not meant here; it only expresses the distress and discomfort of the speaker.
5667. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd: I visited the Prophet while he was having a high fever. I touched him and said, "You have a very high fever." He said, "Yes as much fever as two men of you may have." I said, "You will have a double reward?" He said, "Yes. No Muslim is afflicted with hurt caused by disease or some other inconvenience, but that Allah will remove his sins as a tree sheds its leaves."

5668. Narrated Sa'd: Allah's Messenger came to visit me during my ailment which had been aggravated during Hajjat-al-Wadā’. I said to him, "You see how sick I am. I have much property but have no heir except my only daughter. May I give two-third of my property in charity?" He said, "No." I said, "Half of it?" He said, "No." I said, "One-third?" He said, "One-third is too much, for to leave your heirs rich is better than to leave them poor, begging of others. Nothing you spend seeking Allah's Pleasure but you shall get a reward for it, even for what you put in the mouth of your wife."
(17) CHAPTER. The saying of the patient: "Get up from me!"

5669. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When Allāh’s Messenger was on his deathbed and in the house there were some people among whom was ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, the Prophet said, “Come, let me write for you a statement after which you will not go astray.” ‘Umar said, “The Prophet is seriously ill and you have the Qur’ān; so the Book of Allāh is enough for us.” The people present in the house differed and quarrelled. Some said, “Go near so that the Prophet may write for you a statement after which you will not go astray,” while the others said as ‘Umar said. When they caused a hue and cry before the Prophet, Allāh’s Messenger said, “Get up (leave me alone).”

Narrated ‘Ubaidullāh: Ibn ‘Abbās used to say, “It was very unfortunate that Allāh’s Messenger was prevented from writing that statement for them because of their disagreement and noise.” (See H.114)
(18) CHAPTER. Whoever took the sick boy (to someone) to invoke Allâh for him.

5670. Narrated As-Sâ'ib: My aunt took me to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! My nephew is ill.” The Prophet ﷺ touched my head with his hand and invoked Allâh to bless me. He then performed ablution and I drank of the remaining water of his ablution and then stood behind his back and saw “Khatam An-Nubuwâ” (The Seal of Prophethood) between his shoulders like a button of Al-Hajala (a button of a small tent, which some said: egg of a partridge). (See H. 190)

(19) CHAPTER. The patient’s wish for death.

5671. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should wish for death because of a calamity befalling him; but if he has to wish for death, he should say:

O Allâh! Keep me alive as long as life is better for me, and let me die if death is better for me’.”

5672. Narrated Qais bin Abu Häzím: We went to pay a visit to Khabbâb (who was sick) and he had been branded (cauterized) at seven places in his body. He said, “Our companions who died (during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ) left (this world) without having their rewards reduced through enjoying the pleasures of this life, but we have got (so much) wealth that we find no way to spend it except on the construction of buildings. Had the Prophet not forbidden us to wish for death, I would have wished for it." We visited him for the second time while he was building a wall. He said, "A Muslim is rewarded (in the Hereafter) for whatever he spends except for something that he spends on building."\(^{(1)}\) 5673. Narrated Abu Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, "The good deeds of any person will not make him enter Paradise." (i.e., None can enter Paradise through his good deeds). They (the Prophet’s Companions) said, "Not even you, O Allah’s Messenger?" He said, "Not even I, unless Allah bestows His Favour and Mercy on me." So be moderate in your religious deeds and do the deeds that are within your ability; and none of you should wish for death, for if he is a gooddoer, he may increase his good deeds, and if he is an evildoer, he may repent to Allah."

5674. Narrated ‘Aishah: I heard the Prophet, who was resting against me, saying, "O Allah! Forgive (excuse) me and bestow Your Mercy on me and let me join with the highest companions (in Paradise)."" See Qur’ān (V.4:69)

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 5672) If he spends too much needlessly.
(20) CHAPTER. The invocation for the patient by the one who pays a visit to him.

And Sa’d said: The Prophet ﷺ came to visit me and said, “O Allah! (Please) cure Sa’d.”

5675. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ:
Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ paid a visit to a patient, or a patient was brought to him, he used to invoke Allah, saying, “Take away the disease, O Lord of the people! Cure him as You are the One Who cures. There is no cure but Yours, a cure that leaves no disease.”

(21) CHAPTER. The performing of ablution by a person who pays a visit to a patient.

5676. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ came to me while I was ill. He performed ablution and threw the remaining water on me (or said, “Pour it on him”). When I came to my senses I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have no son or father to be my heir, so how will be my inheritance?” Then the Verse of Inheritance was revealed.
(22) CHAPTER. Whoever invoked Allāh to remove epidemics and fever.

5677. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ emigrated to Al-Madīna, Abū Bakr and Bilāl became ill (had a fever). I entered upon them and said, “O my father! How are you? O Bilāl! How are you?” Whenever the fever of Abū Bakr got worse he used to say, “Everybody is staying alive with his people, yet death is nearer to him than his shoe laces.” And whenever fever deserted Bilāl, he would recite (two poetic verses): “Would that I could stay overnight in a valley wherein I would be surrounded by Idhkhir and Jail (two kinds of good smelling grass). Would that one day I could drink of the water of Majānna, and would that Shāmā and Tāfīl (two mountains at Makkah) would appear to me!” I went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and informed him about that. He said, “O Allāh! Make us love Al-Madīna as much or more than we love Makkah, and make it healthy, and bless its Sā‘ and its Mudd, and take away its fever and put it in Al-Juhfā.” (See Hadith No. 5654).
(1) CHAPTER. There is no disease that Allah has sent down except that He also has sent down its treatment.

5678. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There is no disease that Allah has sent down except that He also has sent down its treatment.”

(2) CHAPTER. May a man treat a woman or a woman treat a man?

5679. Narrated Rubai' bint Mu'awwidh bin 'Afra: We used to go for military expeditions along with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and provide the people with water, serve them and bring the dead and the wounded back to Al-Madina.

(3) CHAPTER. There is cure in three things.

5680. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: (The Prophet ﷺ said) “Healing is in three things: A gulp of honey, cupping, and branding with fire, (cauterizing). But I forbid my followers to use (cauterization) branding with fire.”
5681. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Healing is in three things: cupping, a gulp of honey or cauterization, (branding with fire) but I forbid my followers to use cauterization (branding with fire).”

(4) CHAPTER. Treatment with honey, And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “Wherein is healing for men.” (V.16:69)

5682. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ used to like Al-Halwa (sweet edible things) and honey.

5683. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “If there is any healing in your medicines, then it is in cupping, a gulp of honey or branding with fire (cauterization), (one of three) according to that suits the ailment, but I don’t like to be (cauterized) branded with fire.”
5684.Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī

A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “My brother has some abdominal trouble.” The Prophet ﷺ said to him “Let him drink honey.” The man came for the second time and the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Let him drink honey.” He came for the third time and the Prophet ﷺ said, “Let him drink honey.” He returned again and said, “I have done that.” The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Allāh has said the truth, but your brother’s abdomen has told a lie. Let him drink honey.” So he made him drink honey and he was cured.

(5) CHAPTER. To treat with the milk of camels.

5685. Narrated Anas

Some people were sick and they said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Give us shelter and food”. So when they became healthy they said, “The weather of Al-Madīnā is not suitable for us.” So he sent them to Al-Harra with some she-camels of his and said, “Drink of their milk.” But when they became healthy, they killed the shepherd of the Prophet ﷺ and drove away his camels. The Prophet ﷺ sent some people in their pursuit. Then he got their hands and feet cut and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron. I saw one of them licking the earth with his tongue till he died. (See H. 233)
(6) CHAPTER. To treat with the urine of camels.

5686. Narrated Anas: The climate of Al-Madina did not suit some people, so the Prophet ordered them to proceed along with his shepherd, i.e. his camels, and drink their milk and urine (as a medicine). So they proceeded along with the shepherd (and the camels) and drank their milk and urine, till their bodies became healthy. Then they killed the shepherd and drove away the camels. When the news reached the Prophet, he sent some people in their pursuit. When they were brought, he cut their hands and feet and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron.

(7) CHAPTER. (To treat with) black cumin (Nigella seeds).

5687. Narrated Khalid bin Sa’d: We went out and Ghalib bin Abjar was accompanying us. He fell ill on the way and when we arrived at Al-Madina, he was still sick. Ibn Abu ‘Atiq came to visit him and said to us, “Treat him with black cumin. Take five or seven seeds and crush them (mix the powder with oil) and drop the resulting mixture into both nostrils, for ‘Aishah has narrated to me...”
that she heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, 'This black cumin is healing for all diseases except As-Sâm.' ‘Aishah asked, 'What is As-Sâm?' He ﷺ said, 'Death'."

5688. Narrated Abü Hurairah ﷺ: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, "There is healing in black cumin for all diseases except death."

(8) CHAPTER. At-Talbīna (a kind of porridge prepared from milk, honey and white flour, etc.) for the patient.

5689. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah used to recommend At-Talbīna for the sick and for such a person as grieved over a dead person. She used to say, “I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘At-Talbīna gives rest to the heart of the patient and makes it active and relieves some of his sorrow and grief.”
5690. Narrated Hishâm's father: 'Aishah used to recommend Al-Talbîna and used to say, “It is disliked (by the patient) although it is beneficial.”

(9) CHAPTER. Sa'ūṭ.

5691. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet was cupped and he paid the wages to the one who had cupped him and then took Sa'ūṭ (medicine sniffed by nose).

(10) CHAPTER. To sniff the Indian and sea Qust (kind of incense).

5692. Narrated 'Umm Qays bint Mihsân: I heard the Prophet saying, “Treat with the Indian incense, for it has healing for seven diseases; it is to be sniffed by one having throat trouble, and to be put into one side of the mouth of one suffering from pleurisy.”

(1) (Chap. 9) Any medicine taken by the nose.
5693. Once I (Umm Qais) went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ with a son of mine who would not eat any food, and the boy passed urine on him whereupon he asked for some water and sprinkled it over the place of urine. (See H.223)

(11) CHAPTER. What time one should be cupped.
Abū Mūsā was cupped at night.

5694. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ, 4:41
The Prophet ﷺ was cupped while he was fasting.

(12) CHAPTER. To be cupped while on a journey or while in a state of Ihram.

Ibn Buḥaina narrated that on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5695. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ, 4:41
The Prophet ﷺ was cupped while he was in a state of Ihram.

(13) CHAPTER. To be cupped (as a treatment) for a disease.

5696. Narrated Anas ﷺ, that he was asked about the wages of the one who cups others. He said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was cupped by Abū Ṭaibā, to whom he gave two Sā‘ of food and interceded for him with his masters who consequently reduced what they used to charge him daily. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “The best medicines you may treat yourselves with are cupping and sea incense.” He added, “You should not torture your children by treating tonsillitis by pressing the tonsils (or the palate with the finger), but use incense.”

5697. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهم that he paid Al-Muqanna’ a visit during his illness and said, “I will not leave till he gets cupped, for I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “There is healing in cupping.”

5698. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Buhaina: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was cupped on the middle of his head at Lahye Jamal on his way to Makkah while he was in a state of Iḥrãm.

5699. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs رضي الله عنهم: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was cupped on his head.

(14) CHAPTER. Cupping on the head.

(15) CHAPTER. To perform the operation of cupping for treating unilateral or bilateral headache.
5700. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: The Prophet was cupped on his head for an ailment he was suffering from while he was in a state of Ihrām, at a water place called Lahye Jamal.

5701. Ibn 'Abbás further said: Allāh's Messenger was cupped on his head for unilateral headache while he was in a state of Ihrām.

5702. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: I heard the Prophet saying, "If there is any good in your medicines, then it is in a gulp of honey, a cupping operation, or branding (cauterization), but I do not like to be (cauterized) branded".

(16) CHAPTER. To get one's head shaved because of some ailment.

5703. Narrated Ka'b bin 'Ujrah: The Prophet came to me during the period of Al-Hudaiyiya, while I was lighting fire underneath a cooking pot and lice were falling down from my head. He said, "Do your lice hurt you?" I said, "Yes." He said, "Shave your head and observe Saum (fast) for three days or feed six poor persons or slaughter a sheep as a sacrifice."
(17) CHAPTER. Whoever gets himself branded (cauterized) or branded (cauterized) someone else, and the superiority of one who does not get branded (cauterized).

5704. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet said, “If there is any healing in your medicines then it is a cupping operation, or branding (cauterization), but I do not like to be branded.”

5705. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Nations were displayed before me; one or two Prophets would pass by along with a few followers. A Prophet would pass by accompanied by nobody. Then a big crowd of people passed in front of me and I asked, “Who are they? Are they my followers?” It was said, “No. It is Moses and his followers.” It was said to me, “Look at the horizon.” Behold! There was a multitude of people filling the horizon. Then it was said to me, ‘Look this way and that way in the vastness of the horizon! Behold! There was a multitude filling the horizon.” It was said to me, ‘This is your nation out of whom seventy thousand shall enter Paradise without reckoning.” Then the Prophet entered his house without telling..." his Companions who they (the 70,000) were. So the people started talking about the issue and said, “It is we who have believed in Allâh and followed His Messenger; therefore those people are either ourselves or our children and they are born in the Islamic era, for we were born in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.” When the Prophet ﷺ heard of that, he came out and said, “Those people are those who do not treat themselves with Ruqya, nor do they believe in bad or good omen (from birds etc.) nor do they get themselves branded (cauterized), but they put their trust only in their Lord.” On that ‘Ukãsha bin Mihsan said, “Am I one of them, O Allâh’s Messenger?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” Then another person got up and said, “Am I one of them?” The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Ukãsha has preceded you.’

18) CHAPTER. To treat ophthalmia (inflammation or soreness of the eyes) with antimony or kohl.

Umm ‘Atiyya narrated this.

5706. Narrated Umm Salama ﷺ:
The husband of a lady died and her eyes became sore and the people mentioned her story to the Prophet ﷺ. They asked him whether it was permissible for her to use kohl as her eyes were exposed to danger. He said, “Previously, when one of you was bereaved of her husband she would stay in her dirty clothes in a bad unhealthy house (for one year), and when a dog passed by, she would throw a globe of dung. No, (she should observe the prescribed period ‘Iddah) for four months and ten days.” (See H. 5336)

(19) CHAPTER. Leprosy.

5707. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, “(There is) no 'Adwa (no contagious disease is conveyed without Allah's Permission), nor Tiyara [nor is there any bad omen (from birds)], nor (is there any) Hāma, Safar, and one should run away from the leper as one runs away from a lion.” (See H. 5717 and its Chap. 25, H. 5753 and its Chap. 43, and also see H. 5757 and its Chap. 45)

(20) CHAPTER. Al-Mann heals eye diseases.

5708. Narrated Sa'id bin Zaid: I heard the Prophet saying, Al-Kama (truffles)are like Mann (i.e they grow naturally without man's care) and their water heals eye diseases.” (See H. 4478)

(21) CHAPTER. Al-Ladūd (the medicine which is poured or inserted into one side of a patient's mouth).

5709, 5710, 5711. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Abū Bakr kissed (the forehead of) the Prophet when he was dead. Narrated ‘Āishah: ‘Abdū bin ‘Abbās: ‘Āishah added: We poured medicine in one side of the Prophet’s mouth during his illness but he started waving us not to insert the medicine into his mouth. We said, “He dislikes the medicine as a patient usually does.” But when he improved and felt a little better he said, “Did I not forbid you to put medicine (by force) in the side of my mouth?” We said, “We thought it was just because a patient usually dislikes medicine.” He said, “None of those who are in the house but will be forced to pour medicine in the side of his mouth while I am watching, except A’-Abbās, for he had not witnessed your deed.” (See H.4458)

5712. ‘Āishah added: We poured medicine in one side of the Prophet’s mouth during his illness but he started waving us not to insert the medicine into his mouth. We said, “He dislikes the medicine as a patient usually does.” But when he improved and felt a little better he said, “Did I not forbid you to put medicine (by force) in the side of my mouth?” We said, “We thought it was just because a patient usually dislikes medicine.” He said, “None of those who are in the house but will be forced to pour medicine in the side of his mouth while I am watching, except A’-Abbās, for he had not witnessed your deed.” (See H.4458)

5714. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: When the health of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ deteriorated and his condition became serious, he asked the permission of all his wives to allow him to be treated in my house, and they allowed him. He came out, supported by two men and his legs were dragging on the ground between ‘Abbās and another man. (The subnarrator told Ibn ‘Abbās who said: Do you know who was the other man whom ‘Āishah did not mention? The subnarrator said: No. Ibn ‘Abbās said: It was ‘Alî). ‘Āishah added: When the Prophet entered my house and his disease became aggravated, he said, “Pour on me seven water-skins full of water (the tying ribbons of which had not been untied) so that I may give some advice to the people.” So we made him sit in a tub belonging to Ḥafṣa, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ and started pouring water on him from those waterskins till he waved us to stop. Then he went out to the people and led them of one suffering from pleurisy.”
76 – THE BOOK OF MEDICINE in Salāt (prayer) and delivered a Khuṭba (religious speech) before them.

(23) CHAPTER. Al-‘Udrā (throat or tonsil diseases).

5715. Narrated Umm Qais that she took to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ one of her sons whose palate and tonsils she had pressed because he had throat trouble. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Why do you pain your child by getting the tonsils and palate pressed like that? Use Al-‘Ud Al-Hindi (certain Indian incense) for it cures seven diseases one of which is pleurisy.”

(24) CHAPTER. The treatment for a person suffering from diarrhea.

5716. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “My brother has got loose motions.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Let him drink honey.” The man again (came) and said, “I made him drink (honey) but that made him worse.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has said the Truth, and the abdomen of your brother has told a lie.” (See Ḥadīth No.5684)

(25) CHAPTER. There is no Ṣafar (i.e. it is not a contagious disease). Ṣafar is a disease that afflicts the abdomen. [See Fath Al-Bārī]

5717. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is no ḍawḥā (no disease is conveyed from the sick to the healthy without Allāh’s Permission), nor Ṣafar, nor Ḥāma.” A bedouin stood up and said, “Then what about my camels? They are like deer on the sand, but when a mangy camel comes and mixes with them, they all get infected with mange.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then who conveyed the (mange) disease to the first one?” (See H. 5707)

(26) CHAPTER. Pleurisy.

5718. Narrated Umm Qais that she took to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ one of her sons whose palate and tonsils she had pressed to treat a throat trouble. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Be afraid of Allāh! Why do you pain your children by having their tonsils pressed like that? Use Al-‘Ud Al-Hindi (a certain Indian incense) for it cures seven diseases, one of which is pleurisy.”

5719, 5720, 5721. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allah's Messenger allowed one of the Ansâr families to treat persons who have taken poison and also who are suffering from ear ailment with Ruqya. Anas added: I got myself branded (cauterized) for pleurisy, when Allah's Messenger was still alive. Abû Tâlîh, Anas bin An-Nâdr and Zaid bin Thâbit witnessed that, and it was Abû Tâlîh who branded (cauterized) me.

(27) CHAPTER. To burn a mat made of palm-tree leaves (and put its ashes into a wound) to stop bleeding.
5722. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d As-Sa’idi:
When the helmet broke on the head of the Prophet ﷺ and his face became covered with blood and his incisor tooth broke (i.e. during the battle of Uhud), ‘Ali used to bring water in his shield while Fāṭima was washing the blood off his face. When Fāṭima saw that the bleeding increased because of the water, she took a mat (of palm leaves), burnt it, and stuck it (the burnt ashes) on the wound of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, whereupon the bleeding stopped.

5723. Narrated Nafi‘: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Fever is from the heat of Hell, so abate fever, with water’.”

Nafi‘ added: ‘Abdullāh used to say, “O Allāh! Relieve us from the punishment,” (when he suffered from fever).

5724. Narrated Fāṭima bint Al-Mundhir:
Whenever a lady suffering from fever was brought to Asmā‘ bint Abū Bakr, she used to invoke Allāh for her and then sprinkle some water on her body at the chest and say, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to order us to abate fever with water.”
5725. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, “Fever is from the heat of Hell, so abate fever with water.”

5726. Narrated Rāfi' bin Khadij: I heard Allah's Messenger saying, “Fever is from the heat of Hell, so abate fever with water.”

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever went out of a land because its climate and water did not suit him.

5727. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Some people from the tribes of 'Ukl and 'Uraina came to Allah's Messenger and embraced Islam and said, “O Allah's Messenger! We are owners of livestock and have never been farmers,” and they found the climate of Al-Madina unsuitable for them. So Allah's Messenger ordered that they be given some camels and a shepherd, and ordered them to go out with those camels and drink their milk and urine. So they set out, but when they reached a place called Al-Ḥarra, they reverted to disbelief after their conversion to Islam, killed the shepherd and drove away the camels. When this news reached the Prophet he sent in their pursuit (and they were caught and brought).
The Prophet ordered that their eyes be branded with heated iron bars and their hands be cut off, and they were left at Al-Harra till they died in that state. (See H. 233)

(30) CHAPTER. What has been mentioned about the plague.

5728. Narrated Sa’d: The Prophet said, “If you hear of an outbreak of plague in a land, do not enter it; but if the plague breaks out in a place while you are in it, do not leave that place.”

5729. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbas: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb departed for Shām and when he reached Sarq, the commanders of the (Muslim) army, Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ and his companions met him and told him that an epidemic had broken out in Shām. ‘Umar said, “Call for me the early emigrants.” So ‘Umar called them, consulted them and informed them that an epidemic had broken out in Shām. Those people differed in their opinions. Some of them said, “We have come out for a purpose and we do not think that it is proper to give it up,” while others said (to ’Umar), “You have along with you, other people and the Companions of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, so we do not advise that we take them to this epidemic.” ‘Umar said to them, “Leave me now.” Then he said, “Call the Ansâr for me.” I called them and he consulted them and they followed the way of the emigrants and differed as they did. He then said to them, “Leave me now.” and added, “Call for me the old people of Quraish who emigrated in the year of the conquest of Makkah.” I called them and they gave a unanimous opinion saying, “We advise that you should return with the people and do not take them to that (place) of epidemic.” So ‘Umar made an announcement, “I will ride back to Al-Madînâ in the morning, so you should do the same.” Abu ’Ubaida bin Al-Jarrâh said (to ‘Umar), “Are you running away from what Allâh had ordained?” ‘Umar said, “Would that someone else had said such a thing, O Abu ’Ubaida! Yes, we are running from what Allâh had ordained to what Allâh has ordained. Don’t you agree that if you had camels that went down a valley having two places, one green and the other dry, you would graze them on the green one only if Allâh had ordained that, and you would graze them on the dry one only if Allâh had ordained that?” At that time ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf, who had been absent because of some job, came and said, “I have some knowledge about this. I have heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘If you hear about it (an outbreak of plague) in a land, do not go to it; but if plague breaks out in a country where you are staying, do not run away from it.’” ‘Umar thanked Allâh and returned to Al-Madînâ.
5730. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Āmīr رضي الله عنه: ‘Umar went to Shām and when he reached Sargh, he got the news that an epidemic (of plague) had broken out in Shām. ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Aīf told him that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If you hear that it (plague) has broken out in a land, do not go to it; but if it breaks out in a land where you are present, do not go out in order to run away from it.”

5732. Narrated Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “(Death from) plague is martyrdom for every Muslim.”
5733. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "He (a Muslim) who dies of an abdominal disease is a martyr, and he who dies of plague is a martyr."

(31) CHAPTER. The reward of a person who suffers from plague (or lives in a plague-stricken land) and remains patient.

5734. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that she asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about plague, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ informed her saying, "Plague was a punishment which Allah used to send on whom He wished, but Allah made it a blessing for the believers. None (among the believers) remains patient in a land in which plague has broken out and considers that nothing will befall him except what Allah has ordained for him, but that Allah will grant him a reward similar to that of a martyr."

(32) CHAPTER. Ar-Ruqa(1) with the Qur’ān and the Mu‘awwidhāt (the last two Sūrah of the Qur’ān).

5735. Narrated ‘Āishah ﷺ: "The reward of a person who suffers from plague (or lives in a plague-stricken land) and remains patient.

(1) (Chap. 32) Ruqa (sing. Ruqya) is the recitation of some Divine verses as a treatment for a disease.
During the Prophet’s fatal illness, he used to recite the Mu’awwidhat (Sūrat An-Nās and Sūrat Al-Falaq) and then blow his breath over his body. When his illness was aggravated, I used to recite those two Sūrah and blow my breath over him and make him rub his body with his own hand for its blessings."

Ma’mar asked Az-Zuhri: How did the Prophet use to blow? Az-Zuhri said: He used to blow on his hands and then passed them over his face.

(33) CHAPTER. To do Ruqya by reciting Sūrat Al-Fātiha (the Opening of the Book).

And this has been narrated by Ibn ‘Abbas on the authority of the Prophet .

5736. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī: Some of the companions of the Prophet came across a tribe amongst the tribes of the Arabs, and that tribe did not entertain them. While they were in that state, the chief of that tribe was bitten by a snake (or stung by a scorpion). They said, (to the Companions of the Prophet ), “Have you got any medicine with you or anybody who can treat with Ruqya?” The Prophet’s Companions said, “You refuse to entertain us, so we will not treat (your chief) unless you pay us for it.” So they agreed to pay them a flock of sheep. One of them (the Prophet’s Companions) started reciting Sūrat Al-Fātiha and gathering his saliva and spitting it (at the snakebite). The patient got cured and his people presented the sheep to them, but they said, “We will not take it unless we ask the Prophet (whether it is lawful).” When they asked him, he smiled and said, “How do you know that Sūrat Al-Fātiha is a Ruqya? Take it (flock of sheep) and assign a share for me.” (See H. 2276)
CHAPTER. The conditions required for doing a \textit{Ruqya} with \textit{Sūrat Āl-Fātīha}.

5737. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Some of the Companions of the Prophet \( 	ext{ﷺ} \) passed by some people staying at a place where there was water, and one of those people was stung by a scorpion. A man from those staying near the water, came and said to the Companions of the Prophet \( 	ext{ﷺ} \), “Is there anyone among you who can do \textit{Ruqya} as near the water there is a person who has been stung by a scorpion.” So one of the Prophet’s Companions went to him and recited \textit{Sūrat Āl-Fātīha} for a sheep as his fees. The patient got cured and the man brought the sheep to his companions who disliked that and said, “You have taken wages for reciting Allāh’s Book.” When they arrived at Al-Madīnā, they said, “O Allāh’s Messenger, (this person) has taken wages for reciting Allāh’s Book.” On that Allāh’s Messenger \( 	ext{ﷺ} \) said, “You are most entitled to take wages for doing a \textit{Ruqya} with Allāh’s Book.”

CHAPTER. \textit{Ruqya} for an evil eye.

5738. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet \( 	ext{ﷺ} \) ordered me or somebody else to do \textit{Ruqya} (if there was some effect) from an evil eye.

5739. Narrated Umm Salama that the Prophet \( 	ext{ﷺ} \) saw in her house a girl whose face...
had a black spot. He said, “She is under the effect of an evil eye, so treat her with a Ruqya.”

(36) CHAPTER. The effect of an evil eye is a fact.

(37) CHAPTER. To treat a snakebite or a scorpion sting with a Ruqya.

5741. Narrated Al-Aswad: I asked ‘Aishah about treating poisonous stings (a snakebite or a scorpion sting) with a Ruqya. She said, “The Prophet ﷺ allowed the treatment of poisonous sting with Ruqya.”
(38) CHAPTER. The Ruqya of the Prophet ﷺ (i.e. what he used to recite while doing a Ruqya).

5742.Narrated ‘Abdul ‘Aziz: Thabit and I went to Anas bin Malik. Thabit said, “O Abu Hamza! I am sick.” On that Anas said, “Shall I treat you with the Ruqya of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?” Thabit said, “Yes,” Anas recited, “O Allah! The Lord of the people, the Remover of trouble! (Please) cure (heal) (this patient), for You are the Healer. None brings about healing but You; a healing that will leave behind no ailment.”

5743. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ used to treat some of his wives by passing his right hand over the place of ailment and used to say, “O Allah, the Lord of the people! Remove the trouble and heal the patient, for You are the Healer. No healing is of any avail but Yours; healing that will leave behind no ailment.”

5744. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to treat with a Ruqya saying, “O the Lord of the people! Remove the trouble. The cure is in Your Hands, and there is none except You who can remove it (the disease).”
5745. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to say to the patient, “In the Name of Allah. The earth of our land and the saliva of some of us cure our patient.”

5746. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger used to read in his Ruqya, “In the Name of Allah. The earth of our land and the saliva of some of us cure our patient with the permission of our Lord.”

(39) CHAPTER. An-Nafth (blowing with a slight shower of saliva) while treating with a Ruqya.

5747. Narrated Abû Qatâda: I heard the Prophet saying, “A good dream is from Allah, and a bad dream is from Satan. So if anyone of you sees (in a dream) something he dislikes, when he gets up he should blow thrice (on his left side) and seek refuge with Allah from its evil for then it will not harm him.”

(1) (H. 5745) The Prophet while reciting the Ruqya, put some of his saliva on his index finger and touched the earth with it and applied the resulting mixture to the place of the ailment.

(2) (H. 5746) See H. 5745.
Whenever Allah's Messenger \(\text{ﷺ}\) went to bed, he used to recite Surat Al-Ikhlas, Surat Al-Falaq and Surat An-Nas and then blow on his palms and pass them over his face and those parts of his body that his hands could reach. And when he fell ill, he used to order me to do like that for him.

5748. Narrated 'Aishah: Whenever Allah's Messenger \(\text{ﷺ}\) went to bed, he used to recite Surat Al-Ikhlas, Surat Al-Falaq and Surat An-Nas and then blow on his palms and pass them over his face and those parts of his body that his hands could reach. And when he fell ill, he used to order me to do like that for him.

5749. Narrated AbūSa‘īd: A group of the Companions of Allah's Messenger \(\text{ﷺ}\) proceeded on a journey till they dismounted near one of the Arab tribes and requested them to entertain them as their guests, but they (the tribe people) refused to entertain them. Then the chief of that tribe was bitten by a snake (or stung by a scorpion) and he was given all sorts of treatment, but all in vain. Some of them said, "Will you go to the group (those travellers) who have dismounted near you and see if one of them has something useful?” They came to them and said, “O the group! Our leader has been bitten by a snake (or stung by a scorpion) and we have treated him with everything but nothing benefited him. Have anyone of you anything useful?” One of them replied, “Yes, by Allâh, I know how to treat with a Ruqya. But, by Allâh, we wanted you to receive us as your guests but you refused. I will not treat your patient with a Ruqya till you fix for us something as wages.” Consequently they agreed to give those travellers a flock of sheep. The man went with them (the people of the tribe) and started spitting (on the bite) and reciting Sûrat Al-Fâtîha till the patient was healed and started walking, as if he had not been sick. When the tribe people paid them their wages they had agreed upon, some of them (the Prophet’s Companions) said, “Distribute (the sheep).” But the one who treated with the Ruqya said, “Do not do that till we go to Allâh’s Messenger and mention to him what has happened, and see what he will order us.” So they came to Allâh’s Messenger and mentioned the story to him and he said, “How do you know that Sûrat Al-Fâtîha is a Ruqya? You have done the right thing. Divide (what you have got) and assign for me a share with you.”

(40) CHAPTER. The passing of the right hand of the one who is treating with a Ruqya on the place of ailment.

5750. Narrated ‘Â’ishah: The Prophet used to treat some of his wives by passing his right hand over the place of... ailment and used to say, “O Lord of the people! Remove the trouble and bring about healing as You are the Healer. There is no healing but Your Healing, a healing that will leave no ailment.”

(41) CHAPTER. A woman may treat a man with a Ruqya.

5751. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet, during his fatal ailment used to blow (on his hands and pass them) over his body while reciting the Mu‘awwidhã (Sûrat An-Nâs and Sûrat Al-Falaq). When his disease got aggravated, I used to recite for him and blow (on his hands) and let him pass his hands over his body because of its blessing. (Ma‘mar asked Ibn Shihãb: How did he used to do Naﬁth? He said: He used to blow on his hands and then pass them over his face).

(42) CHAPTER. Whoever does not treat or get treated with a Ruqya.

5752. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet once came out to us and said, “Some nations were displayed before me. A Prophet would pass in front of me with one man, and another with two men, and another with a group of people, and another with..."
nobody with him. Then I saw a great crowd covering the horizon and I wished that they were my followers, but it was said to me, 'This is Moses and his followers.' Then it was said to me, 'Look!' I looked and saw a big gathering with a large number of people covering the horizon. It was said, "Look this way and that way." So I saw a big crowd covering the horizon. Then it was said to me, "These are your followers, and among them there are 70,000 who will enter Paradise without (being asked about their) accounts."

Then the people dispersed and the Prophet did not tell who those 70,000 were. So the Companions of the Prophet started talking about that and some of them said, "As regards us, we were born in the era of Ash-Shirk (polytheism), but then we believed in Allah and His Messenger. We think however, that these (70,000) are our offspring." That talk reached the Prophet who said, "These (70,000) are the people who do not draw an evil omen from (birds etc.) and do not get treated by branding themselves and do not treat with Ruqya, but put their trust (only) in their Lord." Then 'Ukâsha bin Mihsân got up and said, "O Allah's Messenger! Am I one of those (70,000)?" The Prophet said, "Yes." Then another person got up and said, "Am I one of them?" The Prophet said, "'Ukâsha has preceded you."

(43) CHAPTER. At-Ṭiyara (drawing an evil omen from birds, etc.)

5753. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah's Messenger said, "There is neither 'Adwā (no contagious disease is conveyed to others without Allah's permission) nor Ṭiyara, but an evil omen may be in three: a woman, a horse or an animal.”

(44) CHAPTER. Al-Fā’l (good omen).

5754. Narrated Abū Hurairah: “I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘There is no Tīyara, and the best omen is the Fā’l.’ They asked, ‘What is the Fā’l?’ He said, ‘A good word that one of you hears (and takes as a good omen).’”

5755. Narrated Abū Hurairah: “The Prophet said, ‘There is no Tīyara, and the best omen is Al-Fā’l.’” Somebody said, ‘What is Al-Fā’l, O Allah’s Messenger?’ He said, ‘A good word that one of you hears (and takes as a good omen).’”

5756. Narrated Anas: “The Prophet said, ‘No ‘Adwā (no contagious disease is conveyed to others without Allah’s Permission), nor Tīyara, but I like the good Fā’l, i.e., the good word.’”

(1) (H. 5753) Superstition is disliked in Islam, but if one should think that there are things of bad omen, one may find such bad omen in a horse that is obstinate or not used for Jihad, a woman that is sterile or discontented or impudent, a house that is not spacious or far from mosque or neighbouring a bad neighbour.”
5757. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "There is no 'Adwa', nor Tiyara, nor Hama, nor Safar."

5758. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger gave his verdict about two ladies of the Hudhail tribe who had fought each other and one of them had hit the other with a stone. The stone hit her abdomen and as she was pregnant, the blow killed the child in her womb. They both filed their case with the Prophet and he judged that the blood-money for what was in her womb, was a slave or a female slave. The guardian of the lady who was fined said, "O Allah's Messenger! Shall I be fined for a creature that has neither drunk nor eaten, neither spoke nor cried? A case like that was not punished in the days of the Anbiya."

(a) The word 'Hama' may refer to a number of old traditions which Islam has abolished. In the pre-Islamic period, Arabs used to say: "If a man is killed and not avenged, a worm comes out of his head and starts revolving around his grave and says, 'Water me! Water me!' And when the murdered man is avenged, it goes; otherwise it stays there." Such a worm was called Hama.

(b) Some say 'Hama' means an owl. People used to draw an evil omen if it perched on the house of one of them. He would say: "This portends my death, or the death of one of my relatives."

(c) Some say people used to claim that the bones of a dead person turned into a bird that could fly: and that was the Hama. But the Prophet denies all this and invites people to abandon all such superstitions.
should be nullified.” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “This is one of the brothers of foretellers(1).

5759. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Two ladies (had a fight) and one of them hit the other with a stone on the abdomen and caused her to abort. The Prophet ﷺ judged that the victim be given either a slave or a female slave (as blood-money).

5760. Narrated Ibn Shihāb: Sa‘īd bin Al-Musayyab said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ judged that in case of child killed in the womb of its mother, the offender should give the mother a slave or a female slave in recompense. The offender said, ‘How can I be fined for killing one who neither ate nor drank, neither spoke nor cried; a case like that should be denied.’ On that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘He is one of the brothers of the foretellers.’”

5761. Narrated Abū Mas‘ūd: The Prophet ﷺ forbade the utilization of the price of a dog, the earnings of prostitute and the earnings of a foreteller. (See H. 2237)

(1) (H. 5758) The Prophet ﷺ called him so because he had used rhymed speech like foretellers.
5762. Narrated 'Aishah ﺭ.ta. ﷺ: Some people asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about the foretellers. He said, “They are nothing.” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Sometimes they tell us of a thing which turns out to be true.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A jinn (devil) snatches that true word and pours it into the ear of his friend (the foreteller) (as one puts something into a bottle). The foreteller then mixes with that word one hundred lies.”

(47) CHAPTER. Magic.

And the Statement of Allah ﷺ: “But the Shayātīn (devils) disbelieved, teaching men magic and such thing that came down at Babylon to the two angels, Hārūt and Mārūt, but neither of these two (angels) taught anyone till they had said, ‘We are only for trial, so disbelieve not, (by learning this magic from us).’ And from these (angels) people learn that by which they cause separation between man and his wife, but they could not thus harm anyone except by Allah’s Leave. And they learn that which harms them and profits them not. And indeed they knew that the sayers of it (magic) would have no share in the Hereafter…” (V.2:102)

The Statement of Allâh ﷺ: "And the magician will never be successful to whatever amount (of skill) he may attain." (V.20:69)

And His Statement:

“Will you submit to magic while you see it?” (V.21:3)

And His Statement:

“…their ropes and their sticks, by their magic, appeared to him as though they moved fast…” (V.20:66)

And His Statement:

“And from the evil of those who practise witchcraft when they blow in the knots.” (V.113:4)

5763. Narrated ‘Âishah رضي الله عنها: A man called Labid bin Al-A’șam from the tribe of Bani Zuraiq worked magic on Allah’s Messenger ﷺ till Allah’s Messenger ﷺ started imagining that he had done a thing that he had not really done. One day or one night he was with us, he invoked Allah and invoked for a long period, and then said, "O ‘Aishah! Do you know that Allah has instructed me concerning the matter I have asked Him about? Two men came to me and one of them sat near my head and the other near my feet. One of them said to his companion, ‘What is the disease of this man?’ The other replied, ‘He is under the effect of magic.’ The first one asked, ‘Who has worked the magic on him?’ The other replied, ‘Labid bin Al-A’șam.’ The first one asked, ‘What material did he use?’ The other replied, ‘A comb and the hairs stuck to it and the skin of pollen of a male date palm.’ The first one asked, ‘Where is that?’ The other replied, ‘(That is) in the well of Dhawrân.’” So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ along with some of his companions went there and came back saying, “O ‘Aishah, the colour of its water is..."
like the infusion of Hinna leaves. The tops of the date-palm trees near it are like the heads of the devils.” I asked. “O Allah’s Messenger? Why did you not show it?” He said, “Since Allah cured me, I disliked to let evil spread among the people.” Then he ordered that the well be filled up with earth.

(48) CHAPTER. Shirk (i.e. joining others in worship with Allâh) and witchcraft are from the Mûbiqât (great destructive sins).

5764. Narrated Abû Hurairah Ḥiyya: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Avoid Al-Mûbiqât, i.e., Shirk with Allâh (i.e. joining others in worship with Allâh) and witchcraft.”.

(49) CHAPTER. Should a bewitched person be treated?

Qatāda said: I asked Sa‘îd bin Al-Musaiyab, “If a person is bewitched or is unable to have sexual intercourse with his wife, is it permissible to remove the magic effect or use Nashra\(^{(1)}\) (special kind of treatment)?” He said, “Yes, there is no harm in it, for it is meant for a good purpose, and that which benefits people is not forbidden.”

5765. Narrated 'Aishah: Magic was worked on Allah's Messenger so that he used to think that he had sexual relations with his wives while he actually had not. (Sufyan said: That is the hardest kind of magic as it has such an effect.) Then one day he said, "O 'Aishah! Do you know that Allah has instructed me concerning the matter I asked Him about? Two men came to me and one of them sat near my head and the other sat near my feet. The one near my head asked the other. 'What is wrong with this man?' The latter replied, 'He is under the effect of magic.' The first one asked, 'Who has worked magic on him?' The other replied, 'Labid bin Al-A'ram, a man from Banu Zuraq who was an ally of the Jews and was a hypocrite.' The first one asked, 'What material (did he use)?' The other replied, 'A comb and the hair stuck to it.' The first one asked, 'Where (is that)?' The other replied, 'In a skin of pollen of a male date-palm tree kept under a stone in the well of Darwan.' So the Prophet went to that well and took out those things and said, "That was the well which was shown to me (in a dream). Its water looked like the infusion of Hinna leaves and its date-palm trees looked like the heads of devils." The Prophet added, "Then that thing was taken out." I said (to the Prophet), "Why do you not treat yourself with Nashra?" He said, "Allah has cured me; I dislike to let evil spread among anyone of the people."

5766. Narrated 'Āishah: Magic was worked on Allah's Messenger so that he began to imagine that he had done something although he had not. One day while he was with me, he invoked Allah and invoked for a long period and then said, "O 'Āishah! Do you know that Allah has instructed me regarding the matter I asked him about?" I asked, "What is that, O Allah's Messenger?" He said, "Two men came to me; one of them sat near my head and the other sat near my feet. One of them asked his companion, 'What is the disease of this man?' The other replied, 'He is under the effect of magic.' The first one asked, 'Who has worked magic on him?' The other replied, 'Labid bin Al-A'ām, a Jew from the tribe of Banū Zuraq.' The (first one asked), 'With what has it been done?' The other replied, 'With a comb and the hair stuck to it and a skin of the pollen of a male date-palm tree.' The first one asked, 'Where is it?' The other replied, 'In the well of Dharwān.' Then the Prophet went along with some of his Companions to the well and looked at that, and there were date-palms near to it. Then he returned to me and said, "By Allah, the water of that well was (red) like the infusion of Hinna leaves, and its date-palms were like the heads of devils." I said, "O Allah's Messenger! Did you take those materials out?" He said, "No! As for me, Allah has healed me and cured me and I was afraid that (by letting it known to the people) I would spread evil among them. Then he ordered that the well be filled up with earth, and it was filled up with earth.”

(51) CHAPTER. Some eloquent speech is as effective as magic.

5767. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: Two men came from the East and addressed the people who wondered at their eloquent speeches. On that Allâh’s Messenger said, “Some eloquent speech is as effective as magic.”

5768. Narrated Sa’d: The Prophet said, “If somebody takes some  ‘Ajwa dates every morning, he will not be affected by poison or magic on that day till night.” (Another narrator said seven dates).

5769. Narrated Sa’d: I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “If somebody takes seven  ‘Ajwa dates in the morning, neither magic nor poison will hurt him that day.”

(53) CHAPTER. No Ḥāma. (1)

5770. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “No ‘Adwā (i.e. no contagious disease is conveyed to others without Allāh’s Permission); nor Safar; nor Ḥāma.” A bedouin said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What about the camels which, when on the sand (desert) look like deers, but when a mangy camel mixes with them they all get infected with mange?” On that Allāh’s Messenger said, “Then who conveyed the (mange) disease to the first (mangy) camel?”

5771. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said: The cattle (sheep, cows, camels, etc.) suffering from a disease should not be mixed up with healthy cattle, (or said) “Do not put a patient with a healthy person,” (as a precaution).

(54) CHAPTER. No ‘Adwā (no contagious disease).

(1) (Chap. 53) See Ḥadīth No.5757. Chap. 45. (F.N.)
disease is conveyed without Allâh’s Permission).

5772. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is neither ‘Adwâ nor Tiyara (1), and an evil omen is only in three: a horse, a woman and a house.” (See the footnote of Hadith No.5753)

5774. Abû Hurairah also said: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The cattle suffering from a disease should not be mixed up with healthy cattle (or said: “Do not put a patient with a healthy person as a precaution).” Abû Hurairah also said: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No ‘Adwâ.” (Cont’d. with H. 5775)

5775. A bedouin got up and said, “Don’t you see how camels on the sand look like deers but when a mangy camel mixes with them, they all get infected with mange?” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Then who conveyed the (mange) disease to the first camel?”

(1) (H. 5772) Tiyara means an evil omen see H. 5717 and its Chap. 25.
5776. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “No ‘Adwa nor Ṭiyara; but I like Fa’l.” They said, “What is the Fa’l?” He said, “A good word.” (See H. 5754)

5777. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When Khaibar was conquered, Allâh’s Messenger was presented with a poisoned (roasted) sheep. Allâh’s Messenger said, “Collect for me all the Jews present in this area.” (When they were gathered) Allâh’s Messenger said to them, “I am going to ask you about something; will you tell me the truth?” They replied, “Yes, O Abâl-Qâsim!” Allâh’s Messenger said to them, “Who is your father?” They said, “Our father is so-and-so.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “You have told a lie, for your father is so-and-so.” They said, “No doubt, you have said the truth and done the correct thing.” He again said to them, “If I ask you about something; will you tell me the truth?” They replied, “Yes, O Abâl-Qâsim! And if we should tell a lie you will know it as you have known it regarding our father.” Allâh’s Messenger then asked, “Who are the... people of the (Hell) Fire?” They replied, “We will remain in the (Hell) Fire for a while and then you (Muslims) will replace us in it.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “You will abide in it with ignominy. By Allâh, we shall never replace you in it at all.” Then he asked them again, “If I ask you something, will you tell me the truth?” They replied, “Yes.” He asked, “Have you put the poison in this roasted sheep?” They replied, “Yes.” He asked, “What made you do that?” They replied, “We intended to learn if you were a liar in which case we would be relieved from you, and if you were a Prophet then it would not harm you.” (See H. 3169)

(56) CHAPTER. The taking of poison and treating with it, or with what may be dangerous, or with an impure or polluted thing (medicine, etc.).

5778. Narrated Abû Hurairah, The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever purposely throws himself from a mountain and kills himself, will be in the (Hell) Fire falling down into it and abiding therein perpetually forever; and whoever drinks poison and kills himself with it, he will be carrying his poison in his hand and drinking it in the (Hell) Fire wherein he will abide eternally forever; and whoever kills himself with an iron weapon, will be carrying that weapon in his hand and stabbing his abdomen with it in the (Hell) Fire wherein he will abide eternally forever.”
5779. Narrated Sa'd: I heard Allâh's Messenger ﷺ saying, "Whoever takes seven 'Ajwa dates in the morning will not be affected by magic or poison on that day."

5780. Narrated Abû Tha'labâ Al-Khushâbî: The Prophet ﷺ forbade the eating of wild animals having fangs. (Az-Zuhri said: I did not hear this narration except when I went to Sham.)

5781. Al-Laith said: narrated Yûnus: I asked Ibn Shihâb, "May we perform the ablution with the milk of she-asses or drink it, or drink the bile of wild animals or urine of camels?" He replied, "The Muslims used to treat themselves with that and did not see any harm in it. As for the milk of she-asses, we have learnt that Allâh's Messenger ﷺ forbade the eating of their meat, but we have not received any information whether drinking of their milk is allowed or forbidden." As for the bile of wild animals, Ibn Shihāb said, “Abū Idrīs Al-Khulānī told me that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ forbad the eating of the flesh of every wild beast having fangs.”

(58) CHAPTER. If a housefly falls in a utensil.

5782. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If a fly falls in the vessel of any of you, let him dip all of it (into the vessel) and then throw it away, for in one of its wings there is a disease and in the other there is healing (antidote for it) i.e. the treatment for that disease.”

(1) (H. 5782) Medically it is well-known now that a fly carries some pathogens on some parts of its body as mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ (before 1400 years approx. when the humans knew very little of modern medicine). Similarly Allāh created organisms and other mechanisms which kill these pathogens, e.g., Penicillin Fungus kills pathogenic organisms like Staphylococci and others etc. Recently experiments have been done under supervision which indicate that a fly carries the disease (pathogens) plus the antidote for those pathogenic organisms. Ordinarily when a fly touches a liquid food it infects the liquid with its pathogens, so it must be dipped in order to release also the antidote for those pathogens to act as a counter balance to the pathogens. Regarding this subject I also wrote through a friend of mine to Dr. Muhammad M. El-Samahy chief of Hadith Dept. in Al-Azhar University, Cairo (Egypt), who has written an article upon this Hadith, and as regards medical aspects, he has mentioned that the microbiologists have proved that there are longitudinal yeast cells living as parasites inside the belly of the fly and these yeast cells, in order to repeat their lifecycle, protrude through respiratory tubes of the fly and if the fly is dipped in a liquid, these cells burst in the fluid and the content of those cells is an antidote for the pathogens which the fly carries.
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

“Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): Who has forbidden the adornment with clothes given by Allāh which He has produced for His slaves?” (V.7: 32)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Eat, drink, wear clothes and give alms without extravagance and without conceit.”

‘Ibn ‘Abbas said: “Eat what you wish and wear what you wish if you can avoid two things, extravagance and conceit.”

5783. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh will not look at the person who drags his garment (behind him) out of conceit.”

(2) CHAPTER. Whoever dragged his Izār (lower-halâ body garment) without conceit.

5785. Narrated Abū Bakr: The solar eclipse occurred while we were sitting with the Prophet. He got up dragging his garment (on the ground) hurriedly till he reached the mosque. The people turned (to the mosque) and he offered a two-Rak'āt Ṣalāt (prayer) whereupon the eclipse had cleared, and he faced us and said, “The sun and the moon are two signs among the signs of Allah, so if you see a thing like this (eclipse) then offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) and invoke Allah till He removes that state.” (See H. 1046)

(3) CHAPTER. To tuck up or roll up the clothes.

5786. Narrated Abū Juḥaifa: I saw Bilāl bringing an ‘Anaza (a small spear) and fixing it in the ground, and then he proclaimed the Iqāma of the Ṣalāt (prayer), and I saw Allah’s Messenger coming out, wearing a cloak with its sleeves rolled up. He then offered a two-Rak’āt (prayer) while facing the ‘Anaza, and I saw the people and animals passing in front of him beyond the ‘Anaza.

(4) CHAPTER. The part of the garment that hangs below the ankles is in the Fire.

5787. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The part of an Ḥizār which hangs below the ankles is in the Fire. [i.e. the one who wears the Ḥizār (lower-half body-cover) that hangs below the ankles (with conceit) will be in the Fire of Hell.

[See Fath Al-Bâri]

(5) CHAPTER. Whoever drags his garment out of pride and arrogance (conceit).

5788. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Allah will not look, on the Day of Resurrection, at a person who drags his Izâr (behind him) out of pride and arrogance."

5789. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ (or ‘Abul-Qâsim ﷺ) said, "While a man was walking, clad in a two-piece garment and proud of himself with his hair well-combed, suddenly Allah made him sink into the earth and he will go on sinking into it till the Day of Resurrection."

5790. Narrated ‘Abdullâh (bin ‘Umar): Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "While a man was dragging his Izâr on the ground (behind him), suddenly Allah made him sink into the earth and he will go on sinking into it till the Day of Resurrection."

(6) CHAPTER. The fringed Izār. (1)

It is reported that Az-Zuhri, Abū Bakr bin Muḥammad, Ḥamza bin Abī Uṣaid and Mu‘awiya bin ‘Abdullāh bin Ja‘far wore fringed clothes.

(1) (Chap. 6) Izār: Garment that covers the lower-half of the body.
5792. Narrated ‘Aishah: the wife of the Prophet): The wife of Rifā‘a Al-Qurazi came to Allāh’s Messenger while I was sitting, and Abū Bakr was also there. She said, “O Allāh’s Messenger I was the wife of Rifā‘a and he divorced me irrevocably. Then I married ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Az-Zubair who, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger has only something like a fringe of a garment, showing the fringe of her veil. Khālid bin Sa‘īd, who was standing at the door, for he had not been admitted, heard her statement and said, “O Abū Bakr! Why do you not stop this lady from saying such things openly before Allāh’s Messenger?” No, by Allāh, Allāh’s Messenger did nothing but smiled. Then he said to the lady, “Perhaps you want to return to Rifā‘a? That is impossible unless ‘Abdur-Rahmān consummates his marriage with you.” That became the legal way after him.

(7) CHAPTER. The Ridda’

Anas said: A bedouin pulled the Ridda’ of the Prophet.

5793. Narrated ‘Āli: The Prophet asked for his Ridda’, put it on and set out walking. Zaid bin Hāritha and I followed him till he reached the house, where Ḥamza (bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib) was present and asked for permission to enter, and they gave us permission.

(1) (Chap. 7) Ar-Ridda’ is a garment that covers the shoulders and the upper-half of the body.

(8) CHAPTER. The wearing of shirts.

And Allah said: [In the story of the Prophet Yusuf (Joseph)]:

"Go with this shirt of mine and cast it over the face of my father; he will become clear-sighted". (V.12: 93)

5794. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A man asked, "O Allah’s Messenger! What kind of clothes should a Muhrim wear?" The Prophet said, "A Muhrim should not wear a shirt, trousers, a hooded cloak, or Khuff (leather socks covering the ankles) unless he cannot get sandals, in which case he should cut the part (of the Khuff) that covers the ankles.

5796. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: When ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy (bin Salûl) died, his son came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Give me your shirt so that I may shroud my father’s body in it. And please offer a funeral Salāt (prayer) for him and invoke Allāh for his forgiveness.” The Prophet ﷺ gave him his shirt and said to him, “Inform us when you finish (and the funeral procession is ready) call us.” When he had finished, he told the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet proceeded to offer his funeral Salāt (prayer), but ‘Umar stopped him and said, “Didn’t Allāh forbid you to offer the funeral Salāt (prayer) for the hypocrites, when He said:

‘Whether you (O Muḥammad) ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not forgiveness for them; (and even) if you ask forgiveness for them seventy times, Allāh will not forgive them.’ (V.9:80)

Then there was revealed:

‘And never (O Muhammad ﷺ) offer Salāt (funeral prayer) for any of them (hypocrites) who dies, nor stand at his grave. (V.9:84)?’

Thenceforth the Prophet ﷺ did not offer funeral Salāt (prayers) for the hypocrites.

(9) CHAPTER. The Jaib (pocket) (the opening) of a shirt at the chest and other positions.

5797. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has set forth an example for a miser and a charitable person by comparing them to two men wearing two iron cloaks and their hands are raised to their breasts and collar bones. Whenever the charitable man tries to give a charitable gift, his iron cloak expands till it becomes so wide that it covers his fingertips and obliterate his tracks. And, whenever the miser wants to give a charitable gift, his cloak becomes very tight over him and every ring gets stuck to its place. Abū Hurairah added: I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ putting his finger in the (chest) pocket of his shirt like that. If you but saw him trying to... widen (the opening of his shirt) but it did not widen. (See H. 1443)

(10) CHAPTER. Whoever wore a cloak of narrow sleeves while on a journey.

5798.Narrated Al-Mughîra bin Shu‘ba: The Prophet ﷺ went to answer the call of nature, and when he returned, I met him with water and he performed the ablution while he was wearing a Shami cloak. He rinsed his mouth, put the water in his nose and blew it out, washed his face and tried to take his hands out of his sleeves, but they were too narrow, so he took out his hands from under his chest and washed them and then passed his wet hands over his head and Khuff (leather socks).

(11) CHAPTER. To wear a woollen cloak during the Ghazawît (military expedition).
5799. Narrated Al-Mughīra: One night I was with the Prophet on a journey. He asked (me), “Have you got water with you?” I replied, “Yes.” So he got down from his she-camel and went away till he disappeared in the darkness of the night. Then he came back and I poured water for him from the pot (for the ablution). He washed his face and hands while he was wearing a woollen cloak (the sleeves of which were narrow), so he could not take his arms out of it. So he took them out from underneath the cloak. Then he washed his forearms and passed his wet hands over his head. Then I tried to take off his Khuff, but he said, “Leave them, for I have performed ablution before putting them on”. And so he passed his wet hands over them.

(12) CHAPTER. Al-Qabā’.(1)

And the silken Farrūj, which is a kind of Al-Qabā’, and it is said that it has a slit at the back.

5800. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Allah’s Messenger distributed some Qabā’ but he did not give anything to Makhrama. Makhrama said (to me), “O my son! Let us go to Allah’s Messenger.” So I proceeded with him and he said, “Go in and call him for me.” So I called the Prophet for him. The Prophet came out to him, wearing one of those Qabā’ and said, (to Makhrama), “I have kept this for you.” Makhrama looked at it and said, “Makhrama is satisfied now.”

(1) (Chap. 12) Al-Qabā’ and Al-Farrūj are names of a garment with narrow sleeves and waist and a slit at the back. It used to be worn on journeys and at war.
5801. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir: A silken Farrūj was presented to Allāh’s Messenger and he put it on and offered the Salāt (prayer) in it. When he finished the Salāt (prayer), he took it off violently as if he disliked it and said, “This (garment) does not befit those who are Al-Muttaqūn.”(1)

(13) CHAPTER. Hooded cloaks.

5802. Narrated Mu’tamīr: I heard my father saying, “I saw Anas wearing a yellow hooded cloak of Khazz.”

5803. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: A man said, “0 Allāh’s Messenger! what type of clothes should a Muhrim wear?” Allāh’s Messenger replied, “Do not wear shirts, turbans, trousers, hooded cloaks or Khuff; but if someone cannot get sandals, then he can wear Khuff after cutting them short below the ankles. Do not wear clothes touched by saffron or Wars (two kinds of perfumes).” (See H. 1542)

(14) CHAPTER. Trousers.

(1) (H. 5801)‘Al-Muttaqūn: means pious and righteous persons who fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allāh much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).
5804. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said, “Whoever cannot get an Izār, can wear trousers, and whoever cannot wear sandals can wear Khuff.” (See H. 5803)

5805. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: A man got up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What do you order us to wear when we assume the state of Ihram?” The Prophet replied, “Do not wear shirts, trousers, turbans, hooded cloaks or Khuff, but if a man has no sandals, he can wear Khuff after cutting them short below the ankles; and do not wear clothes touched with (perfumes) of saffron or Wars.”

15) CHAPTER. Turbans.

5806. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “A Muhrim should not wear a shirt, a turban, trousers, hooded cloaks, a garment touched with (perfumes) of saffron or Wars, or Khuff except if one has no sandals in which case he should cut short the Khuff below the ankles.”
(16) CHAPTER. At-Taqannu' (covering the head and most of the face with a covering sheet).

Ibn `Abbas said: The Prophet ﷺ came out with his head tied with a black turban.

Anas bin Malik said: The Prophet ﷺ tied his head with a margin of a Burd (garment).

5807. Narrated `Aishah: Some Muslim men emigrated to Ethiopia whereupon Abū Bakr also prepared himself for the emigration, but the Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Wait, for I hope that Allah will allow me also to emigrate.” Abū Bakr said, “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you. Do you hope that (emigration)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” So Abū Bakr waited to accompany the Prophet ﷺ and fed two she-camels he had on the leaves of As-Samur tree regularly for four months. One day while we were sitting in our house at midday, someone said to Abū Bakr, “Here is Allah’s Messenger coming with his head and a part of his face covered with a cloth-covering at an hour he never used to come to us.” Abū Bakr said, “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you, (O Prophet)! An urgent matter must have brought you here at this hour.” The Prophet ﷺ came and asked the permission to enter, and he was allowed. The Prophet ﷺ entered and said to Abū Bakr, “Let those who are with you, go out.” Abū Bakr replied, “(There is no stranger) they are your family. Let my father be sacrificed for you, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have been allowed to leave (Makkah).” Abū Bakr said, “Shall I accompany you, O Allah’s Messenger? Let my father be sacrificed for you!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” Abū Bakr said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! Take one of these two she-camels of mine.” The Prophet said, “I will take it only after paying its price.” So we prepared their baggage and put their journey food in a leather bag and Asmâ’ bint Abî Bakr cut a piece of her girdle belt and tied the mouth of the leather bag with it. That is why she was called Dhat-an-Naqâin. Then the Prophet and Abû Bakr went to a cave in a Mountain called Thaur and remained there for three nights. ‘Abdullâh bin Abî Bakr, who was a young intelligent man, used to stay with them at night and leave before dawn so that in the morning, he would be with the Quraish at Makkah as if he had spent the night among them. If he heard of any plot contrived by the Quraish against the Prophet and Abû Bakr, he would understand it and (return to) inform them of it when it became dark. ‘Amir bin Fuhaira, the freed slave of Abû Bakr used to graze a flock of milch sheep to them when an hour had passed after the ‘Ishâ’ prayer. They would sleep soundly till ‘Amir bin Fuhaira awakened them when it was still dark. He used to do that in each of those three nights.

(17) CHAPTER. The helmet.

5808. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik
In the year of the conquest of Makkah the Prophet entered Makkah, wearing helmet on his head.

(18) CHAPTER. Al-Burūd (black decorated square garments that are worn by bedouins). And Al-Hibar (a green garment made in Yemen). And Ash-Shamla (a garment that is wrapped around the body).

Khabāb said: We complained to the Prophet (about our state) while he was leaning on his Burda.

5810. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim: Sahl bin Sa'd said, "A lady came with a Burda." Sahl then asked (the people), "Do you know what Burda is?" Somebody said, "Yes. it is a Shamla with a woven border." Sahl added, "The lady said, 'O Allâh's Messenger! I have knitted this (Burda) with my own hands for you to wear it.'" Allâh's Messenger took it and he was in need of it. Allâh's Messenger came out to us and he was wearing it as an Izār. A man from the people felt it and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Give it to me to wear.’ The Prophet ١٥ said, ‘Yes.’ Then he sat there for some time (and when he went to his house), he folded it and sent it to him. The people said to that man, ‘You have not done a right thing. You asked him for it, though you know that he does not put down anybody’s request.’ The man said, ‘By Allāh! I have only asked him so that it may be my shroud when I die.’” Sahl added, “Later it was his shroud.”

5811. Narrated Abū Hurairah ١٥: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ١٥ saying, “From among my followers, a group (of 70,000) will enter Paradise without being asked for their accounts, their faces will be shining like the moon.” ‘Ukāsha bin Miḥṣan Al-Asadi got up, lifting his covering sheet and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh for me that He may include me with them.” The Prophet ١٥ said, “O Allāh! Invoke Allāh for me that He may include me with them.” Then another man from Al-ʾAnsār got up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh for me that He may include me with them.” On that Allāh’s Messenger ١٥ said, “‘Ukāsha has preceded you.”
5812. Narrated Qatāda: I asked Anas, “What kind of clothes were most beloved to the Prophet ﷺ?” He replied, “The Ḥibara (a kind of Yemenese cloth) clothes.”

5813. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The most beloved garment to the Prophet ﷺ to wear was the Ḥibara (a kind of Yemenese cloth).

5814. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ died, he was covered with a Ḥibara Burd (green square decorated garment).

(19) CHAPTER. Al-Aksiya. (1) And Al-Khamā’īṣ.

5815, 5816. Narrated ‘Āishah and ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās: When the disease of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got aggravated, he covered his face with a Khamīṣa, but when he became short of breath, he would remove it from his face and say, “It is like that! May Allah curse the Jews and Christians because they took the graves of their Prophets as places of worship.” By that he warned his followers of imitating them, by doing that which they did.

(1) (Chap. 19) Kīsā’ (pl. Aksiya) means a square black piece of cloth of wool or fur. It is called Khamīṣa (pl. Khamā’īṣ) when it has a design.
5817. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger offered Salāt (prayer) while he was wearing a Khamīṣa of his that had printed marks. He looked at its marks, and when he finished Salāt (prayer), he said, “Take this Khamīṣa of mine to Abū Jahm, for it has just now diverted my attention from my Salāt (prayer), and bring to me the Anbijānīya (a plain thick sheet) of Abū Jahm bin Ḥudhaifa bin Ghānim who belonged to Banī ‘Adi bin Ka‘b.” (See H.752)

5818. Narrated Abū Burda: ‘Aishah brought out to us a Kīsā and an Iẓār and said, “The Prophet died while wearing these two.” (Kīsā: A square black piece of woolen cloth). (Iẓār: A sheet, cloth garment covering the lower-half of the body).

(20) CHAPTER. Ishtimāl-aş-Samma(1).

5819. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet had forbidden: (A) the Mulāmāsā and Munābadhā (bargains), (B) the offering of two Salāt (prayers), one after the morning compulsory Salāt (prayer) till the sun rises, and the other, after the ‘Aṣr prayer till the sun sets. (C) He also forbade that one should sit wearing one garment, nothing of which covers his private parts (D) and prevent them from exposure to the sky; (E) he also forbade Ishtimations as-Sammā’.”

(See H. 5820)

5820. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger forbade two ways of wearing clothes and two kinds of dealings: (A) He forbade the dealings of the Mulāmasa and the Munābda. In the Mulāmasa transaction the buyer just touches the garment he wants to buy at night or by daytime, and that touch would oblige him to buy it. In the Munābda, one man throws his garment at another and the latter throws his at the former and the barter is complete and valid without examining the two objects or being satisfied with them. (B) The two ways of wearing clothes were Ishtimations as-Sammā’, i.e., to cover one shoulder with a garment and leave the other bare; and the other way was to wrap oneself with a garment while sitting in such a way that nothing of that garment would cover one’s private parts.

(21) CHAPTER. Al-Iḥtibā’ in one garment (to sit wrapped with one garment around his back and knees).

5821. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger forbade two types of dresses: (A) To sit in an Iḥtibā’ posture in one garment, nothing of which covers his private parts; (B) to cover one side of his body with one garment and leave the other side bare. The Prophet also forbade the Mulâmasa and Munâbadha (transactions). (See H. 368)

5822. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudri: The Prophet forbade Ishtimâl-as-Sammâ’ and that a man should sit in an Ilthiba’ posture in one garment, nothing of which covers his private parts.

(22) CHAPTER. The black Ḳhâmiṣâ.

5823. Narrated Umm Khâlid bint Khâlid: The Prophet was given some clothes including a black Ḳhâmiṣa. The Prophet said, “To whom shall we give this to wear?” The people kept silent whereupon the Prophet said, “Fetch Umm Khâlid for me.” I (Umm Khâlid) was brought carried (as I was a small girl at that time). The Prophet took the Ḳhâmiṣa in his hands and made me wear it and said, “May you live so long that your dress will wear out and you will mend it many times.” On the Ḳhâmiṣa there were some green or pale designs. (The Prophet saw these designs) and said, “O Umm Khâlid! This is Sanâh.” (Sanâh is an Ethiopian word meaning beautiful).
5824. Narrated Anas: When Umm Sulaim gave birth to a child, she said to me, “O Anas! Watch this boy carefully and do not give him anything to eat or drink until you have taken him to the Prophet tomorrow morning for the Tahnik.” So the next morning I took the child to the Prophet who was sitting in a garden and was wearing a Huraihiya Khamiṣa and was branding the she-camel on which he had come during the conquest of Makkah.

(23) CHAPTER. Green clothes.

5825. Narrated 'Ikrima: Rifa'a divorced his wife whereupon 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Az-Zubair Al-Qurazi married her. 'Aishah said that the lady (came), wearing a green veil and complained to her ('Aishah) of her husband and showed her a green spot on her skin caused by beating. It was the habit of ladies to support each other, so when Allāh's Messenger came, 'Aishah said, “I have not seen the women suffering as the believing women. Look! Her skin is greener than her clothes!” When 'Abdur-Rahmān heard that his wife had gone to the Prophet, he came with his two sons from another wife. She said, “By Allāh! I have done no wrong to him, but he is impotent and is as useless to me as this,” holding and showing the fringe of her garment. 'Abdur-Rahmān said, “By Allāh, O Allāh's Messenger! She has told a lie! I am very strong and can satisfy her but she is disobedient and wants to go back to Rifa’a.” Allāh’s Messenger said, to her, “If that is your intention, then know that it is unlawful for you to re-marry Rifa’a unless ‘Abdur-Rahmān has had sexual intercourse with you.” Then the Prophet saw two boys with ‘Abdur-Rahmän and asked (him), “Are these your sons?” On that ‘Abdur-Rahmän said, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You claim what you claim (i.e., that he is impotent)? But by Allâh, these boys resemble him as a crow resembles a crow.”

(24) CHAPTER. White clothes.

5826. Narrated Sa’d: On the day of the battle of Uhud, on the right and on the left of the Prophet ﷺ were two men wearing white clothes, and I had neither seen them before, nor did I see them afterwards.

5827. Narrated Abû Dhar: I came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was wearing white clothes and sleeping. Then I went back to him again after he had got up from his sleep. He said, “Nobody says: ‘La ilâha illallâh’ (None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh), and then later on he dies while believing in that, except that he will enter Paradise.” I said, “Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft?” He said, “Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft.” I said, “Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft?” He said, “Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft.”
sexual intercourse and theft in spite of Abū Dhar’s dislikeness.”

Abū ‘Abdullāh said: This is at the time of death or before it; if one repents and regrets and says Lā ilāha illallah (None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh); he will be forgiven his sins.

(25) CHAPTER. The wearing of silk clothes by men and what is allowed thereof.

5828. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān An-Nahdī: While we were with ‘Uṭba bin Farqad at Adharbijān, there came ‘Umar’s letter indicating that Allāh’s Messenger had forbidden the use of silk except this much, then he pointed with his index and middle fingers. To our knowledge, by that he meant embroidery.

5829. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: While we were at Adharbijān, ‘Umar wrote to us: “Allāh’s Messenger forbade wearing silk except this much. Then the Prophet approximated his two fingers (index and middle fingers) (to illustrate that) to us.” Zuhair (the subnarrator) raised up his middle and index fingers.

5830. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: While we were with ‘Uṭba, ‘Umar wrote to us: “The Prophet said, ‘There is none who wears silk in this world except that he will wear nothing of it in the Hereafter.’ ” Abū ‘Uthmān pointed out with his middle and index fingers.

5831. Narrated Ibn Abī Lailā: While Ḥudhaifa was at Al-Madā’in, he asked for water whereupon the chief of the village brought him water in a silver cup. Ḥudhaifa threw it at him and said, “I have thrown it only because I have forbidden him to use it, but he does not stop using it. Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘Gold, silver, silk and Dibāj (a kind of silk) are for them (disbelievers) in this world and for you (Muslims) in the Hereafter’.”

5832. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet said, “Whoever wears silk in this world, shall not wear it in the Hereafter.”

5835. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه said, “None wears silk in this world, but he who will have no share in the Hereafter.”
(26) CHAPTER. Whoever just touches silk but does not wear it.

5836. Narrated Al-Bara': The Prophet was given a silk garment as a gift and we started touching it with our hands and admiring it. On that the Prophet said, "Do you wonder at this?" We said, "Yes." He said, "The handkerchiefs of Sa'd bin Mu'adh in Paradise are better than this."

(27) CHAPTER. The use of silk in bedding.

'Ubaida said: It is like wearing it.

5837. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet forbade us to drink out of gold and silver vessels, or eat in it, and also forbade the wearing of silk and Dibaj or sitting on it.
(28) CHAPTER. The wearing of Qassiy.

Narrated Abū Burda: I said to ‘All, “What is Qassiy?” He said, “Clothes brought to us from Sham or Egypt. It has lines like ribs and contains silk, and the ribs look like citrons. And Al-Mithara was a cushion the women used to make for their husbands.”

Yazīd said: Al-Qassiy were clothes having lines like ribs and containing silk and were brought from Egypt. Al-Mithara was made of lion skin.

5838. Narrated Ibn ‘Āzib: The Prophet ﷺ forbade us to use the red Mayāthir and to use Al-Qassiy.

(29) CHAPTER. Silk is allowed for men suffering from an itch.

5839. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ allowed Az-Zubair and ‘Abdur-Rahmān to wear silk because they were suffering from an itch.
(30) CHAPTER. Silk for women.

5840. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abī Tālib: The Prophet ﷺ gave me a silk suit. I went out wearing it, but seeing the signs of anger on his face, I tore it and distributed it among my wives.

5841. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: ‘Umar rāṣṣīni Allāh ʿllāhā saw a silk suit being sold, so he said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Why don’t you buy it so that you may wear it when delegates come to you, and also on Fridays?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “This is worn only by him who has no share in the Hereafter.” Afterwards the Prophet ﷺ sent to ‘Umar a silk suit suitable for wearing. ‘Umar said to the Prophet ﷺ, “You have given it to me to wear, yet I have heard you saying about it what you said?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I sent it to you so that you might either sell it or give it to somebody else to wear.”

5842. Narrated Anas bin Mālik that he had seen Umm Kulthūm, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, wearing a red silk garment.
5843. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: For one year I wanted to ask 'Umar about the women who helped each other against the Prophet, but I was afraid of him. One day he dismounted his riding animal and went among the trees of Arak to answer the call of nature, and when he returned, I asked him and he said, "(They were) 'Āishah and Ḥafṣa." Then he added, "We never used to give significance to ladies in the days of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, but when Islam came and Allāh mentioned their rights, we used to give them their rights but did not allow them to interfere in our affairs. Once there was some dispute between me and my wife and she answered me back in a loud voice. I said to her, 'Strange! You can retort in this way?' She said, 'Yes. Do you say this to me while your daughter annoys Allāh’s Messenger?' So I went to Ḥafṣa and said to her, 'I warn you not to disobey Allāh and His Messenger.' I first went to Ḥafṣa and then to Umm Salama and told her the same. She said to me, 'O 'Umar! It surprises me that you interfere in our affairs so much that you would poke your nose even into the affairs of Allāh’s Messenger and his wives.' So she rejected my advice. There was an Ansārī man; whenever he was absent from Allāh’s Messenger and I was present there, I used to convey to him what had happened (on that day), and when I was absent and he was present there, he used to convey to me what had happened as regards news from Allāh’s Messenger. During that time all the rulers of the nearby lands had surrendered to Allāh’s Messenger except the king of Ghassān in Shām, and we were afraid that he might attack us. All of a sudden the Ansārī man.
came and said, ‘A great event has happened!’ I asked him, ‘What is it? Has the Ghassāni (king) come?’ He said, ‘Greater than that! Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has divorced his wives!’ I went to them and found all of them weeping in their dwellings, and the Prophet ﷺ had ascended to an upper room of his. At the door of the room there was a slave to whom I went and said, “Ask the permission for me to enter. He admitted me and I entered to see the Prophet ﷺ lying on a mat that had left its imprint on his side. Under his head there was a leather pillow stuffed with palm fibres. Behold! There were some hides hanging there and some grass for tanning. Then I mentioned what I had said to Ḥafṣa and Umm Salama and what reply Umm Salama had given me. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ smiled and stayed there for twenty nine days and then came down.”

(See Hadith No.2468, Vol.3 for details)

5844. Narrated Umm Salama: One night the Prophet ﷺ woke up saying: “La ilaha illallah (None has the right to be worshipped but Allah)! How many Fitan (trials and afflictions) have been sent down tonight, and how many treasures have been sent down (disclosed)! Who will go and wake up [for Salāt (prayers)] the lady dwellers of these rooms? Many well-dressed (people) in this world, will be naked on the Day of Resurrection.”
(32) CHAPTER. What to invoke for the one who has worn a new garment.

5845. Narrated Umm Khālid bint Khālid: Some clothes were presented to Allāh’s Messenger as a gift along with a black Khamīṣa. The Prophet asked (his Companions), “To whom do you suggest we give this Khamīṣa?” The people kept quiet. Then he said, “Bring me Umm Khālid.” So I was brought to him and he dressed me with it with his own hands and said twice, “May you live so long that you will wear out many garments.” He then started looking at the embroidery of that Khamīṣa and said, “O Umm Khālid! This is Sañā!” (Sanà in Ethiopian language means beautiful).

Ishāq, a subnarrator, said: A woman of my family had told me that she had seen that Khamīṣa over Umm Khālid. (See H. 3071)

(33) CHAPTER. Men are forbidden to use saffron.

5846. Narrated Anas: The Prophet forbade men to use saffron.
(34) CHAPTER. The garment dyed with saffron.

5847. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet forbade a Muhrim to wear clothes dyed with Wars or saffron.

(35) CHAPTER. The red garment.

5848. Narrated Al-Bara’: The Prophet was of a modest height. I saw him wearing a red suit, and I did not see anything better than him.

(36) CHAPTER. The red Mithara. (a kind of silk-cushions)

5849. Narrated Al-Bara’: The Prophet ordered us to observe seven things: To visit the sick; follow funeral processions; say ‘May Allah bestow His Mercy on you,’ to the sneezer if he says ‘Praise be to Allâh!’ He forbade us to wear silk, Dibâj, Qassiy and Istabraq (various kinds of silken clothes); or to use red Mayâthir (silk-cushions). (See Hadîth No.6253)
(37) CHAPTER. The Sibtiya (shoes made of tanned leather) and other shoes

5850.Narrated Sa‘id Abū Maslama: I asked Anas (bin Mālik), “Did the Prophet use to offer the Salāt (prayers) while wearing his shoes?” He said, “Yes.”

5851. Narrated Sa‘id Al-Maqburi: ‘Ubad bin Juraij said to ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, “I see you doing four things which are not done by your friends.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “What are they, O Ibn Juraij?” He said: “I see that you do not touch except the two Yemenite corners of the Ka‘bah (while performing the Tawāf): and I see you wearing the Sibtiya shoes; and I see you dyeing (your hair) with Sufra; and I see that when you are in Makkah, the people assume the state of Ihram on seeing the crescent (on the first day of Dhul-Hijja) while you do not assume the state of Ihram till the Day of Tabia (8th Dhul-Hijja).” ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said to him, “As for the corners of the Ka‘bah, I have not seen Allāh’s Messenger touching except the two Yemenite corners. As for the Sibtiya shoes, I saw Allāh’s Messenger wearing leather shoes that had no hair, and he used to perform the ablution while wearing them. Therefore, I like to wear such shoes. As regards dyeing with Sufra, I saw Allāh’s Messenger dyeing his hair with it, so I like to dye (my hair) with it. As regards the crescent (of Dhul-Hijja), I have not seen Allāh’s Messenger assuming the state of Ihram till his she-camel set out.”

(1) (Chap. 37) Shoes made of tanned leather from which hair is removed.
5852. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade that a Muhrim should wear clothes dyed with Saffron or Wars, and said, “Whoever has no shoes can put on Khuff after cutting it below the ankles.”

5853. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “Whoever has no Izār (waistsheet), can wear trousers; and whoever has no sandals, can wear Khuff.” (but cut them short below the ankles).

(38) CHAPTER. While putting on the shoes, one should start with the right foot.

5854. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to like starting from the right in performing ablution, combing his hair and putting on his shoes.

(39) CHAPTER. Do not walk wearing one shoe only.
5855. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "None of you should walk, wearing one shoe only; he should either put on both shoes or wear no shoes whatsoever."

5856. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If you want to put on your shoes, put on the right shoe first; and if you want to take them off, take off the left one first. Let the right shoe be the first to be put on and the last to be taken off."

5857. Narrated Anas: The sandal of the Prophet ﷺ had two straps.

5858. Narrated 'Īsā bin Ţahmān: Anas bin Malik brought out for us, two sandals having two straps. Thabit Al-Banānī said, "These were the sandals of the Prophet ﷺ."

(40) CHAPTER. One should take off the left shoe first.

(41) CHAPTER. Two straps in a sandal; and whoever thinks that it is permissible to use one strap.

(42) CHAPTER. The red tent of leather.
5859. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: I came to the Prophet while he was inside a red leather tent and I saw Bilāl taking the remaining water of the ablution of the Prophet, and the people were taking of that water and rubbing it on their faces; and whoever could not get anything of it, would share the moisture of the hand of his companion (and then rub it on his face).

5860. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet called for the Anṣār and gathered them in a leather tent.

(43) CHAPTER. To sit on a Ḥaṣīr (a mat made of leaves of date-palms) or similar thing.

5861. Narrated ʿAishah: The Prophet used to construct a room with a Ḥaṣīr at night in order to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) therein, and during the day he used to spread it out and sit on it. The people started coming to the Prophet at night to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) behind him. When their number increased, the Prophet faced them and said, "O people! Take upon yourselves only those good deeds which are within your ability, for Allah does not get tired of giving reward till you get tired, and the most beloved deeds to Allah are the most regular and the constant ones even though they were few.”

(44) CHAPTER. Garments having gold buttons.

5862. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: My father, Makhrama said to me, “I have come to know that some cloaks have come to the Prophet and he is distributing them. So O my son! take me to him.” We went to the Prophet and found him in the house. My father said to me, “O my son! Call the Prophet for me.” I found it hard to do so, so I said surprisingly, “Shall I call Allah’s Messenger for you?” My father said, “O my son! He is not a tyrant.” So I called him and he came out wearing a Dibaj cloak(1) having gold buttons, and said, “O Makhrama! I kept this for you.” The Prophet then gave it to him.

(45) CHAPTER. Gold rings.

5863. Narrated Al-Bara‘ bin ‘Azib: The Prophet forbade us to use seven things: He forbade using gold rings, silk, Istabraq, Dibaj, red Mayathir, Al-Qassiy,(2) and silver utensils. He ordered us to do seven other things. To pay a visit to the sick; to follow funeral processions; to say “May Allah be Merciful to you” to a sneezer if he

(1) (H. 5862) That was either before the prohibition of the wearing of Dibaj or the Prophet was just putting that cloak on his shoulders to show it to Makhrama.

(2) (H. 5863) Istabraq and Dibaj are two kinds of silk. Mayathir are luxurious cushions. Al-Qassiy are garments decorated with silk and made in Qass, an Egyptian town.
says “Praise be to Allāh”; to return greetings; to accept invitations; to help others to fulfil their oaths; and to help the oppressed ones.

5864. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet forbade the wearing of a gold ring.

5865. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger wore a gold ring and placed its stone towards the palm of his hand. The people also started wearing gold rings like it, but when the Prophet saw them wearing such rings, he threw it away (that gold ring) and then took a ring made of silver (and wore it).”

(46) CHAPTER. Silver rings.

5866. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger wore a gold ring or a silver ring and placed its stone towards the palm of his hand and had the name 'Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh' engraved on it. The people also started wearing gold rings like it, but when the Prophet saw them wearing such rings, he threw it away (his ring) and said, "I will never wear it," and then wore a silver ring, whereupon the people too started wearing silver rings. Ibn ‘Umar added: After the Prophet, Abū Bakr wore that ring, and then ‘Umar and then ‘Uthmān wore it till it fell in the Aris well from ‘Uthmān.

(47) CHAPTER.

5867. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, Ṭab‘ī: Allāh’s Messenger wore a gold ring, then he threw it and said, “I will never wear it.” The people also threw their (gold) rings.

5868. Narrated Anas bin Mālik that he saw a silver ring on the hand of Allāh’s Messenger for one day only. Then the people had silver rings made for themselves and wore it. On that day Allāh’s Messenger threw his ring away and the people threw their rings as well. (For the details of this Hadīth, see Fath-Al-Bāri).
(48) CHAPTER. The stone of the ring.

5869.Narrated Ḥumaid: Anas was asked, “Did the Prophet wear a ring?” Anas said, “Once he delayed the ‘Isha’ prayer till midnight. Then he came, facing us... as if I am now looking at the glitter of his ring... and said, “The people have offered their Salāt (prayers) and slept but you have been in Salāt (prayer) as you have been waiting for it.”

5870. Narrated Anas: The ring of the Prophet was of silver, and its stone was of silver too.

5871. Narrated Sahl: A woman came to the Prophet and said, “I have come to present myself to you (for marriage).” She kept standing for a long period during which period the Prophet looked at her carefully. When she stayed for a long period, a man said to the Prophet ﷺ, “If you are not in need of her, then marry her to me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Have you got anything to give her (as Mahr)?” The man said, “No.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go (to your house) and search for something.” The man went and came back to say, “By Allah, I could not find anything.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go again and search for something, even if it be an iron ring.” He went again and came back saying, “No, by Allah, I could not get even an iron ring.” The man had only an Izār and had no Rīdā’ (upper garment). He said, “I will give her my Izār as Mahr.” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Your Izār? If she wears it, nothing of it will remain on you, and if you wear it nothing of it will be on her.”

The man went aside and sat down. When the Prophet ﷺ saw him leaving (after a while), he called back and asked, “How much Qur’ān do you know (by heart)?” He said, “I know such and such Surah,” naming some Surah. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I marry her to you for the amount of Qur’ān you know (by heart).”

(50) CHAPTER. To engrave a ring.

5872. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﺃس: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wanted to write a letter to a group of people or some non-Arabs. It was said to him, “They do not accept any letter unless it is stamped.” So the Prophet ﷺ had a silver ring made for himself, and on it was engraved: ‘Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allah’... as if I am now looking at the glitter of the ring on the finger (or in the palm) of the Prophet ﷺ.
5873. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger took a ring made of silver for himself and it was worn by him on his hand. Afterwards it was worn by Abü Bakr, and then by ‘Umar, and then by ‘Uthmãn till it fell in the Aris well. (On that ring) was engraved: ‘Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah.’

(51) CHAPTER. To wear the ring on the little finger.

5874. Narrated Anas: The Prophet got a ring made for himself and said, “I have got a ring made (for myself) and engraved a certain engraving on it so none of you should get such an engraving on his ring.” I saw the glitter of the ring on his little finger.

(52) CHAPTER. Taking a ring for stamping certain things or (for stamping) letters written to the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and other people.

5875. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik: When the Prophet intended to write to the Byzantines, it was said to him, “Those people do not read your letter unless it is stamped.” So the Prophet took a silver ring and got ‘Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh’ engraved on it... as if I am now looking at its glitter in his hand.

(53) CHAPTER. Keeping the stone of the ring towards the palm of the hand.

5876. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ got a ring made of gold for himself, and when he wore it, he used to turn its stone toward the palm of his hand. So the people too got gold rings made for themselves. The Prophet ﷺ then ascended the pulpit, and after glorifying and praising Allāh, he said, “I had it made for me, but now I will never wear it again.” He threw it away, and then the people threw away their rings too. (Juwairiya, a subnarrator, said: I think Anas said that the Prophet ﷺ was wearing the ring in his right hand).

(54) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “None should have the same engraving made on his ring as the engraving on my ring.”

5877. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ took a silver ring and had ‘Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh’, engraved on it. The Prophet ﷺ then said (to us), “I have a silver ring with ‘Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh’ engraved on it, so none of you should have the same engraving on his ring.”
(55) CHAPTER. Should one get the engraving of the ring done in three lines?

5878. Narrated Anas that when Abū Bakr became the caliph, he wrote a letter to him (and stamped it with the Prophet’s ring) and the engraving of the ring was in three lines: Muhammad in one line, ‘Messenger’ in another line, and ‘Allāh’ in the third line.

5879. Narrated Anas: The ring of the Prophet ﷺ was in his hand, and after him, in Abū Bakr’s hand, and then in ‘Umar’s hand after Abū Bakr. When ‘Uthmān was the caliph, once he was sitting at the well of Arīs. He removed the ring from his hand and while he was trifling with it, it dropped into the well. We kept on going to the well with ‘Uthmān for three days looking for the ring, and finally the well was drained, but the ring was not found.

(56) CHAPTER. Rings for women.

‘Āishah had gold rings.

5880. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I offered the ‘Eid prayer with the Prophet ﷺ and he offered Salāt (prayer) before the Khuṭba (religious talk). Ibn ‘Abbās added: Then the Prophet ﷺ came towards (the rows of) the women and ordered them to give alms, and the women started putting their big and small rings in the garment of Bilal.

(57) CHAPTER. The wearing of necklaces and Sikhab by the women. (Sikhab means a necklace made of the wood of certain plants).

5881. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet came out on the day of ‘Eid and offered two Rak’at Salat (prayer), and he did not pray any Rak’a before it, nor after it. Then he went towards the women and ordered them to give alms. The women started donating their ear-rings and necklaces.

(58) CHAPTER. To borrow a necklace.

5882. Narrated ‘Aishah: A necklace belonging to Asmā’ was lost, and the Prophet sent men in its search. The time for the Salat (prayer) became due and they were without ablution and they could not find water; therefore they offered Salat (prayer) without ablution. They mentioned that to the Prophet. Then Allah revealed the Verse of Tayammum. (‘Aishah added that she had borrowed (the necklace) from Asmā’).
(59) CHAPTER. Ear-rings for women.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet ordered the women to give alms, and I saw them stretching their hands towards their ears and necks (to give their necklaces and ear-rings).

5883. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: “The Prophet offered two-Rak‘at Salāt (prayer) on ‘Eid day and he did not offer any [Nawafīl Šalāt (prayer)] before or after it. He then went towards the women, and Bilāl was accompanying him, and ordered them to give alms. And so the women started giving their ear-rings, (etc.).”

(60) CHAPTER. As-Siklāb (necklace formed of a string carrying beads) for boys.

5884. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I was with Allāh’s Messenger in one of the markets of Al-Madīna. He left (the market) and so did I. Then he asked thrice, “Where is the small (child)?” Then he said, “Call Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Ali.” So Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Ali got up and started walking with a necklace (of beads) around his neck. The Prophet stretched his hand out like this, and Al-Ḥasan did the same. The Prophet embraced him and said, “O Allāh! I love him, so please love him and love those who love him.” Since Allāh’s Messenger said that, nothing has been dearer to me than Al-Ḥasan.
(61) CHAPTER. About those men who are in the similitude (assume the manners) of women, and those women who are in the similitude (assume the manners) of men.

5885. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Allâh’s Messenger cursed effeminate men [those men who are in the similitude (assume the manners) of women] and those women who are in the similitude (assume the manners) of men.

(62) CHAPTER. The dismissal of such men as are in the similitude (assume the manners) of women, from the houses.

5886. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: the Prophet cursed effeminate men [those men who are in the similitude (assume the manners) of women] and those women who assume the manners of men, and he said, “Turn them out of your houses.” The Prophet turned out such and such man, and ‘Umar turned out such and such woman.
5887. Narrated Umm Salama that once the Prophet was in her house, and an effeminate man was there too. The effeminate man said to ‘Abdullâh, (Umm Salama’s brother) “O ‘Abdullâh! If Ta‘if should be conquered tomorrow, I recommend you the daughter of Ghailân, for she is so fat that she has four curves in the front (of her belly) and eight at the back.” So the Prophet said (to his wives), “These effeminate men should not enter upon you (your houses).”

(63) CHAPTER. To cut short the moustaches.

Ibn ‘Umar used to cut his moustache so short that the whiteness of his skin (above the upper lip) was visible, and he used to cut (the hair) between his moustaches and his beard.

5888. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “To get the moustaches cut short is characteristic of Al-Fiträh.”(1)

(1) (H. 5888) ‘Al-Fiträh’ to the majority of Muslim scholars, means Allâh’s Iślämic=
5889. Narrated Ābu Ḥurayrāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Five practices are characteristics of Al-Fīṭrāh: circumcision, shaving the pubic hair, depilating the hair of armpits, clipping the nails and cutting the moustaches short.”

5890. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “To shave the pubic hair, to clip the nails and to cut the moustaches short, are characteristic of Al-Fīṭrāh (i.e. Allah’s Islamic Monotheism, see the F.N. of H. No.5588).”

5891. Narrated Ābu Ḥurayrāh: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Five practices are characteristic of Al-Fīṭrāh (i.e. Allah’s Islamic Monotheism): circumcision, shaving the pubic hair, cutting the moustaches short, clipping the nails, and depilating the hair of the armpits.”

[See the F.N. of H. No.5889].

= Monotheism and As-Sunna of the Prophet ﷺ. (Literally, it means ‘human nature’.) Religion of pure Islāmic Monotheism (i.e. worshipping none but Allah). Fītrā as a verb also means ‘to create’ – (See the Qur’ān 30:30).
5892. Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Do the opposite of what Al-Mushrikun (1) do. Grow abundantly the beards and cut the moustaches short’.” Whenever Ibn ‘Umar performed the Hajj or ‘Umra, he used to hold his beard with his hand and cut whatever remained outside his hold.

(65) CHAPTER. To leave the beard (i.e. not to cut it).

5893. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Cut the moustaches short and leave the beard (as it is).”

(66) CHAPTER. What is said about grey hair.

5894. Narrated Muhammad bin Sirin: I asked Anas, “Did the Prophet ﷺ dye his hair?” Anas replied, “The Prophet ﷺ did not have except a few grey hair.”

(1) (H. 5892) Al-Mushrikun: polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ.
5895. Narrated Thābit: Anas was asked whether the Prophet used a hair dye or not. Anas replied, “The Prophet had not enough grey hair to dye. I could even count the white grey hair of his beard if I would.”

5896. Narrated Isrā’il: ‘Uthmān bin ‘Abdullāh bin Mauhab said, “My people sent me with a bowl of water to Umm Salama.” Isrā’il approximated three fingers (indicating the small size of the container in which there was some hair of the Prophet). ‘Uthmān added, “If any person suffered from evil eye or some other disease, he would send a vessel (containing water) to Umm Salama. (1) I looked into the container (in which there was the hair of the Prophet) and saw a few red hair in it.”

5897. Narrated ‘Uthmān bin ‘Abdullāh bin Mauhab: I went to Umm Salama and she brought out for us some of the dyed hair of the Prophet.

5898. Ibn Mauhab also said that Umm Salama had shown him the red hair of the Prophet.

(1) (H. 5896) Umm Salama would dip those hair into the vessel and return it to the patient to drink that blessed water or wash himself with it, seeking to be healed. (See Fath Al-Bari)
(67) CHAPTER. The hair dye.

5899. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Jews and Christians do not dye their hair so you should do the opposite what they do."

(68) CHAPTER. The curly hair.

5900. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet was neither conspicuously tall nor short; neither very white nor tawny. His hair was neither much curled, nor very straight. Allāh sent him (as a Messenger) at the age of forty (and after that) he stayed for ten years in Makkah, and for ten more years in Al-Madīna. Allāh took him unto Him at the age of sixty, and he scarcely had twenty white hairs on his head and in his beard.

5901. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: I did not see anybody in a red cloak looking more handsome than the Prophet. Narrated Mālik: The hair of the Prophet used to hang near his shoulders. Narrated Shu’bā: The hair of the Prophet used to hang down to the earlobes.
5902. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Tonight I saw myself in a dream near the Ka’bah. I saw a whitish brown man, the handsomest of all brown men you might ever see. He had the most beautiful Limma (hair hanging down to the earlobes) you might ever see. He had combed it and it was dripping water; and he was performing the Tawaf around the Ka’bah leaning on two men or on the shoulders of two men. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ It was said, ‘Al-Messiah, the son of Maryam (Mary).’ Suddenly I saw a curly-haired man, blind in the right eye which looked like a protruding out grape. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ It was said, ‘He is Al-Masih Ad-Dajjâl.’” 5903. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The hair of the Prophet ﷺ used to hang down up to his shoulders.

5904. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The head-hair of the Prophet ﷺ used to hang down to his shoulders.

He said, “The hair of Allâh’s Messenger was neither much straight nor much curly, and it used to hang down till between his shoulders and his earlobes.

5906. Narrated Anas: The Prophet had big hands, and I have never seen anybody like him after him. The hair of the Prophet was wavy, neither curly nor straight.

5907. Narrated Anas: The Prophet had big hands and feet, and I have not seen anybody like him, neither before nor after him, and his palms were soft.

5908, 5909. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet had big feet and a good-looking face, and I have not seen anybody like him after him.

5910. Narrated Anas: The Prophet had big feet and hands.
5911, 5912. Narrated Anas or Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ had big hands and feet and I have not seen anybody like him after him.

5913. Narrated Mujāhid: We were with Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما and the people mentioned Ad-Dajjāl. Someone said, "The word 'Kāfir' (disbeliever) is written in between his (Ad-Dajjāl's) eyes." Ibn 'Abbās said, "I have not heard the Prophet ﷺ saying this, but he said, 'As regards Ibrāhīm (Abraham), he looks like your companion (i.e. the Prophet, Mūhammad ﷺ), and as regards Mūsā (Moses), he is a brown curly-haired man riding a camel reigned with a strong jute rope, as if I am now looking at him getting down in the valley and saying Labbaik'."

(69) CHAPTER. At-Talbid (to gel the hair stuck together with a sticky substance).

5914. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: I heard 'Umar ﷺ saying, "Whoever braids his hair should shave it (on finishing Ihram). You'd better not do something like Talbid". Ibn 'Umar used to say: I saw Allāh's Messenger ﷺ with his hair stuck together with gum.

5915. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: I heard Allāh's Messenger ﷺ, while he was in the state of Ihrām and his hair was stuck together with gum, saying, “Labbaik, Allāhumma Labbaik, Labbaik Lā Sharīka Laka Labbaik. Inna-l-Ḥamda Wan-Ni‘mata Laka Wal-Mulk, Lā Sharīka Lak.” He did not add anything to those words. (See Hadith No.1549, Vol.2)

5916. Narrated Ḥafṣa, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why have the people finished their Ihrām after performing the ‘Umra while you have not finished your Ihrām after your ‘Umra?” He said, “I have done Talbid (of my hair) and have decorated my Hady with garlands, so I shall not finish my Ihrām till I have slaughtered my Hady (animal for sacrifice).”

(70) CHAPTER. (Hair) parting.

5917. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ used to copy the people of the Scripture in matters in which there was no order from Allāh. The people of the Scripture used to let their hair hang down while Al-Mushrikūn used to part their hair. So the Prophet ﷺ let his hair hang down first, but later on he parted it.
5918. Narrated 'Aishah: As if I am now looking at the shine of the hair of the Prophet ἡ while he was in the state of ἡ.

(71) CHAPTER. Locks of hair.

5919.Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Once I stayed overnight in the house of my aunt Maimūna bint Al-Hārith and Allāh's Messenger ἡ was with her as it was her turn. Allāh's Messenger ἡ got up to offer the night Salah (prayer). I stood on his left but he took hold of my two locks of hair and made me stand on his right.

Narrated Abū Bishr (the above Hadīth) but he quoted: Ibn 'Abbās said, "... (took hold of) my two braids on my head.”

(72) CHAPTER. Al-Qaza’ (leaving tuft of hair here and there after shaving one’s head).

5920. Narrated 'Ubaidullāh bin Ḥafṣ that 'Umar bin Nāfi' told him that Nāfi’, Maula 'Abdullāh had heard Ibn 'Umar saying, “I heard Allāh's Messenger ἡ forbidding Al-Qaza’.” 'Ubaidullāh added: I said, “What is Al-Qaza’?” ‘Ubaidullah pointed (towards his head) to show us and added, “Nafi’ said, ‘It is when a boy has his head shaved leaving a tuft of hair here and a tuft of hair there.’ ‘Ubaidullah pointed towards his forehead and the sides of his head. ‘Ubaidullah was asked, “Does this apply to both girls and boys?” He said, “I don’t know, but Nafi’ said, ‘The boy.’ ‘Ubaidullah added, “I asked Nafi’ again, and he said, ‘As for leaving hair on the temples and the back part of the boy’s head, there is no harm, but Al-Qaza’ is to leave a tuft of hair on his forehead unshaved while there is no hair on the rest of his head, and also to leave hair on either side of his head.’”

5921. Narrated (‘Abdullah) bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade Al-Qaza’ (leaving a tuft of hair here and there after shaving one’s head).

(73) CHAPTER. The application of perfume by the wife on her husband with her own hands.

5922. Narrated ‘Aishah: I applied perfume to the Prophet with my own hands when he wanted to assume the state of Ihram, and I also perfumed him at Minä before he departed from there (to perform Tawaf-al-Ifada).
(74) CHAPTER. To apply scent to the head and beard.

5923. Narrated 'Aishah: I used to perfume Allâh's Messenger ﷺ with the best scent available till I saw the shine of the scent on his head and beard.

(75) CHAPTER. Combing one's hair.

5924. Narrated Sa'd: A man peeped into the house of the Prophet ﷺ through a hole while the Prophet ﷺ was scratching his head with a Midra (a certain kind of comb). On that the Prophet ﷺ said (to him), "If I had known that you had been looking, then I would have pierced your eye with that instrument, because the asking of permission has been ordained so that one would not see things unlawfully."

(76) CHAPTER. The combing of the hair of the husband by his menstruating wife.

5925. Narrated 'Aishah: I used to comb the hair of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ during my periods.

77—THE BOOK OF DRESS

(77) CHAPTER. To start combing the hair from the right side.

5926. Narrated 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to like to start from the right side as far as possible in combing and in performing ablution.

(78) CHAPTER. What has been mentioned about musk (a kind of perfume).

5927. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﺑ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "(Allāh said), 'Every good deed of Adam's son is for him except fasting; it is for Me, and I shall reward (the fasting person) for it.' Verily, the smell of the mouth of a fasting person is better with Allāh than the smell of musk." [See H. No.1894. Vol 2.]

(79) CHAPTER. What kind of scent is recommended.

5928. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: I used to perfume the Prophet ﷺ before his assuming the state of Ihram, with the best scent available.
(80) CHAPTER. Whoever did not refuse the scent.

5929. Narrated Thumama bin ‘Abdullah: Anas used to say that the Prophet never used to refuse scent.

(81) CHAPTER. Adh-Dharira (a kind of scent).

5930. Narrated ‘Aishah: During Hajjat-ul-Wada’, I perfumed Allâh’s Messenger with Dharira with my own hands, both on his assuming I’timâd and on finishing it.

(82) CHAPTER. Creating artificial spaces between the teeth to look beautiful.

5931. Narrated ‘Abdullah: Allâh has cursed those women who practise tattooing and those who get themselves tattooed, and those who remove their face hairs, and those who create space between their teeth artificially to look beautiful, as such women alter the features created by Allâh’s Book, i.e. His saying:
“And whatsoever the Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) gives you take it... (up to)... you abstain (from it).” (V.59:7)

(83) CHAPTER. The use of false hair.

5933. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has cursed the lady who artificially lengthens (her or someone else’s) hair, and the one who gets her hair lengthened and the one who tattoos (herself or someone else), and the one who gets herself tattooed.”

5934. Narrated ‘Aishah: An Anṣārī girl was married and she became sick and all her hair fell out. Intending to provide her with false hair, they asked the Prophet ﷺ who said, “Allāh has cursed the lady who artificially lengthens (her or someone else’s) hair and also the one who gets her hair lengthened.”
5935. Narrated 'Asma', the daughter of Abu Bakr and said, “I married my daughter (to someone) but she became sick and all her hair fell out, and (because of that) her husband does not like her. May I let her use false hair?” On that the Prophet cursed Al-Wasilah (a lady who artificially lengthens her or someone else’s hair) and Al-Mustousilah (a lady who gets her hair lengthened artificially).

5936. Narrated 'Asma', the daughter of Abu Bakr and said, “Allah’s Messenger has cursed Al-Wasilah [a lady who artificially lengthens (her or someone else’s) hair] and also Al-Mustousilah (the one who gets her hair lengthened artificially).

5937. Narrated 'Ubay’d: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah has cursed the lady who lengthens (her or someone else’s) hair artificially, and also the one who gets it lengthened, and also a lady who tattoos (herself or someone else) and also the one who gets herself tattooed.
5938. Narrated Sa'id bin Al-Musaiyab: Mu'awiya came to Al-Madina for the last time and delivered a Khutba. He took out a tuft of hair and said, “I thought that none used to do this (i.e. use false hair) except Jews.” The Prophet labelled such practice, (i.e. the use of false hair), as cheating.

(84) CHAPTER. Ladies who remove hair from the face, eye-brows etc.

5939. Narrated 'Alqama: 'Abdulläh cursed those women who practised tattooing and those who removed hair from their faces, eye-brows etc. and those who created spaces between their teeth artificially to look beautiful, as such ladies alter the features created by Allâh.

Umm Ya'qûb said, “What is that?” 'Abdulläh said, “Why should I not curse those who were cursed by Allâh’s Messenger and are referred to in Allâh’s Book?” She said to him, “By Allâh, I have read the whole Qur‘ân but I have not found such a thing.”

'Abdulläh said, “By Allâh, if you had read it (carefully) you would have found it. (Allâh says:)

‘And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) gives you take it and whatsoever he forbids you abstain (from it).’” (V.59:7)

(85) CHAPTER. The lady who lengthens hair artificially (by wearing false hair etc.).
5940. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما:  The Prophet ﷺ has cursed the lady who lengthens her hair artificially and the one who gets her hair lengthened, and also the lady who tattoos herself and the one who gets herself tattooed.

5941. Narrated Asma’: A woman asked the Prophet ﷺ saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! My daughter got measles and her hair fell out. Now that I got her married, may I let her use false hair?” He said (to her), “Allah has cursed the lady who lengthens hair artificially and the one who gets her hair lengthened artificially.”

5942. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما:  I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying (or the Prophet ﷺ said), “Allah has cursed the lady who practises tattooing and that who gets it done for herself, and also the lady who lengthens hair artificially and that who gets her hair lengthened artificially.” The Prophet ﷺ has cursed such ladies.

5943. Narrated Ibn Mas’ūd رضي الله عنه:  Allah has cursed those women who practise tattooing and those who get it done for themselves, and those who remove hair from their faces, eye-brows etc. and those who create spaces between their teeth artificially to look beautiful, and those ladies who alter the features created by Allāh. Why then shall I not curse those whom Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has cursed and who are cursed in Allāh’s Book too?

(86) CHAPTER. The woman who practises tattooing.

5944. Narrated Abū Hurairah : Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The evil eye is a fact,” and he forbade tattooing.

5945. Narrated Abū Juḥaifa : The Prophet ﷺ forbade taking the price of blood and the price of a dog, and he also forbade the one who takes (eats) Rībā (usury) the one who gives Rībā (usury) the woman who practises tattooing and the woman who gets herself tattooed.

(87) CHAPTER. The woman who gets herself tattooed.

5946. Narrated Abū Hurairah : A woman who used to practise tattooing was brought to 'Umar. 'Umar got up and said, “I beseech you by Allâh, which of you heard the Prophet saying something about tattooing?” I got up and said, “O chief of the believers! I heard something.” He said, “What did you hear?” I said, “I heard the Prophet (addressing the ladies) saying, ‘Do not practise tattooing and do not get yourselves tattooed.’”

5947. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ has cursed the lady who lengthens her or others hair artificially and that who gets her own hair lengthened in such a way, and the lady who practises tattooing and that who gets it done for herself.

5948. Narrated 'Abdullâh: Allâh has cursed those women who practise tattooing and those who get it done for themselves, and those who remove hair from their faces, eye-brows etc. and those who artificially create spaces between their teeth to look beautiful, and those women who alter the features created by Allâh. Why should I not then curse those whom Allâh's Messenger ﷺ has cursed and that is in Allâh's Book?

(88) CHAPTER. Pictures.

5949. Narrated Abû ’Talha: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Angels do not enter a house in which there is a dog or there are pictures.” [See Fath Al-Bârî for details about pictures]
(89) CHAPTER. The punishment for picture-makers on the Day of Resurrection.

5950. Narrated Muslim: We were with Masrūq at the house of Yāsar bin Numair. Masrūq saw some images (or pictures etc.) on his terrace and said, “I heard ‘Abdullāh saying that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘The people who will receive the severest punishment from Allāh will be the picture-makers’.”

5951. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Those who make these pictures will be punished on the Day of Resurrection, and it will be said to them, ‘Make alive what you have created.’”

(90) CHAPTER. The obliteration of pictures.

5952. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ never used to leave in the house anything carrying images or crosses but he obliterated it.

5953. Narrated Abū Zur‘a: I entered a house in Al-Madina with Abū Hurairah, and he saw a man making pictures at the top of the house. Abū Hurairah said, “I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying that Allāh said, ‘Who would be more unjust than the one who tries to create the like of My creatures? Let them create a grain: let them create a gnat.’” Abū Hurairah then asked for a water container and washed his arms up to his armpits. I said, “O Abū Hurairah! Is this something you have heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ!” He said, “The limit for ablution is up to the place where the ornaments will reach on the Day of Resurrection.”

(91) CHAPTER. (What about) pictures made on things that are to be trodden on (i.e., carpets, mats, etc.).

5954. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ returned from a journey when I had placed a curtain of mine having some images (or pictures etc.) over (the door of) a chamber of mine. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw it, he tore it and said, “The people who will receive the severest punishment on the Day of Resurrection will be those who try to make the like of Allāh’s creations.” So we turned it (i.e., the curtain) into one or two cushions.
5955. Narrated 'Aishah (رضي الله عنها): The Prophet ﷺ returned from a journey when I had hung a thick curtain having some images (or pictures etc.) (in front of a door). He ordered me to remove it and I removed it.

5956. 'Aishah added: The Prophet ﷺ and I used to take a bath from one container (of water).

(92) CHAPTER. Whoever disliked to sit on pictures.

5957. Narrated 'Aishah (رضي الله عنها): I purchased a cushion with pictures on it. The Prophet ﷺ (came and) stood at the door but did not enter. I said (to him), "I repent to Allah for what I have done." He said, "What is this cushion?" I said, "It is for you to sit on and recline on." He said, "The makers of these pictures will be punished on the Day of Resurrection and it will be said to them, 'Make alive what you have created.' Moreover, the angels do not enter a house where there are pictures."

5958. Narrated Abū Ṭalḥa: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Angels (of mercy) do not enter a house where there are pictures.” The subnarrator Busr added: “Then Zaid fell ill and we paid him a visit. Behold! There was hanging at his door, a curtain decorated with a picture. I said to ‘Ubaidullāh Al-Khulānī, the stepson of Māmūna, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ “Didn’t Zaid tell us about the picture the day before yesterday?” ‘Ubaidullāh said, “Didn’t you hear him saying: ‘Except a design in a garment?’”

(93) CHAPTER. It is disliked to offer ʿṢalāt (prayer) wearing clothes with pictures.

5959. Narrated Anas: ‘Āishah had a thick curtain (having pictures on it) and she screened the side of her house with it. The Prophet ﷺ said to her, “Remove it from my sight, for its pictures are still coming to my mind in my ʿṢalāt (prayers).”

(94) CHAPTER. Angels do not enter a house in which there are pictures.

5960. Narrated Sālim’s father: Once Jibrīl (Gabriel) promised to visit the Prophet ﷺ but he delayed and the Prophet ﷺ got worried about that. At last he came out and found Jibrīl (Gabriel) and complained to him of his grief (for his delay). Jibril (Gabriel) said to him, “We do not enter a place in which there is a picture or a dog.”

(95) CHAPTER. Whoever does not enter a house which has a picture in it.

5961. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I bought a cushion having pictures on it. When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saw it, he stopped at the gate and did not enter. I noticed the signs of hatred (for that) on his face. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I turn to Allah and His Messenger in repentance. What sin have I committed?” He said, “What about this cushion?” I said, “I bought it for you to sit on and recline on.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The makers of these pictures will be punished (severely) on the Day of Resurrection and it will be said to them, ‘Make alive what you have created’.” He added, “Angels do not enter a house in which there are pictures.”

(96) CHAPTER. Whoever cursed a picture-maker.

5962. Narrated Abū Juhaifa that he had bought a slave whose profession was cupping and then said: The Prophet ﷺ forbade taking the price of blood and the price of a dog and the earnings of a prostitute, and cursed the one who took or gave Riba (usury), and the lady who tattoos (herself or others) and also the one who gets herself tattooed, and the picture-maker.

(97) CHAPTER. Whoever makes a picture will be asked to put life into it on the Day of Resurrection, but he will not be able to do so.

5963. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: I heard Muhammad saying, “Whoever makes a picture in this world will be asked to put life into it on the Day of Resurrection, but he will not be able to do so.”

(98) CHAPTER. To ride behind a rider as a companion-rider on an animal.

5964. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid: Allah’s Messenger rode a donkey saddled with a saddle covered with a Fadakiya velvet sheet, and he made me ride behind him (as a companion-rider).

(1) (H. 5962) Riba: see the glossary.
(99) CHAPTER. Three (riders) on one animal.

5965. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet arrived at Makkah, the children of Bani ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib received him. He then mounted one of them in front of him and the other behind him.

5966. Narrated Ayyūb: The evil of three (persons riding one animal) was mentioned in ‘Ikrima’s presence. ‘Ikrima said, ‘Ibn ‘Abbās said, ‘(In the year of the conquest of Makkah) the Prophet came and mounted Qutham in front of him and Al-Fadl behind him, or Qutham behind him and Al-Fadl in front of him.’ Now which of them was the evil and which was the best?’ (1)

(100) CHAPTER. The mounting of the owner of animal and somebody else in front of him.

Some people said, “The owner of animal has the right to sit in front except when he permits somebody else to sit in front.”

5966. Narrated Mu‘ādh bin Jabal: While I was riding behind the Prophet, ‘Ikrima wants to refute the saying of those who claim that there is evil in having three persons on one animal.

(1) (H. 5966) ‘Ikrima wants to refute the saying of those who claim that there is evil in having three persons on one animal.
(as a companion-rider) and between me and him there was only the back of the saddle, he said, "O Mu‘ādh!" I replied, "Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger, and Sa’daik!" he said, "Do you know what is Allah’s right upon His slave?" I said, "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "Allah’s right upon His slaves is that they should worship Him (Alone) and not worship anything else besides Him." Then he proceeded for a while and then said, "O Mu‘ādh bin Jabal!" I replied, "Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger, and Sa’daik!" He said, "Do you know what is the right of the slaves upon Allah if they do that?" I replied, "Allah and His Messenger know better." He said, "The right of the slaves upon Allah is that He will not punish them (if they do that)."

(102) CHAPTER. To mount a woman behind a man who is Dha-Mahram.

5968. Narrated Anas bin Malik: We were coming from Khaibar along with Allah’s Messengerﷺ, while I was riding behind Abū Talha and he was proceeding. One of the wives of Allah’s Messengerﷺ was riding behind Allah’s Messengerﷺ, suddenly the foot of the camel slipped and I (or Abū Talha) said, “The woman!” and alighted (hurriedly). Allah’s Messengerﷺ said, “She is your mother.” So I (or Abū Talha) re-saddled the she-camel and Allah’s Messenger mounted it. When he approached or saw Al-Madina, he said, "Ayibun, tā'ibun, 'ābidun, li-Rabbina hāmidun.""(1)

(103) CHAPTER. To put one leg on the other while lying down.

5969. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm’s uncle: I saw the Prophet lying down in the mosque and placing one leg on the other.

(1) (H. 5968) “Coming back with repentance, worshipping Allāh and glorifying His Praises.”

(1) CHAPTER. Al-Birr (piety, righteousness), and As-Sila (good relations).

The Statement of Allâh (SWT):

“And We have enjoined on man to be good and dutiful to his parents…” (V.29:8)

5970. Narrated Al-Walid bin 'Aizar: I heard Abû 'Amr Ash-Shaibânî saying, “The owner of this house,” he pointed to 'Abdullâh’s house, “said, ‘I asked the Prophet ﷺ: Which deed is loved most by Allâh? He replied: To offer As-Salât (the prayers) at their early (very first) stated times. ‘Abdullâh asked: What is the next (in goodness)? The Prophet ﷺ said: To be good and dutiful to one’s parents. ‘Abdullâh asked: What is the next (in goodness)? The Prophet ﷺ said: To participate in Jihâd for Allâh’s Cause. ‘Abdullâh added: The Prophet ﷺ narrated to me these things, and if I had asked more, he would have told me more.’”

(2) CHAPTER. Who is more entitled to be treated with the best companionship?

5971. Narrated Abû Hurairah: A man came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Who is more entitled to be treated with the best companionship by me?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Your mother.” The man said,“Who is next?” The Prophet ﷺ said,“Your mother.” The man further said,“Who is next?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Your father.”
(3) CHAPTER. One should not go for Jihād (fighting in Allāh’s Cause) without the permission of the parents\(^{(1)}\).

(4) CHAPTER. A man should not abuse his parents.

5973. Narrated `Abdullāh bin `Amr: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is one of the greatest sins that a man should curse his parents.” It was asked (by the people), “O Allāh’s Messenger! How does a man curse his parents?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “The man abuses the father of another man and the latter abuses the father of the former and abuses his mother.”

\(^{(1)}\) (Ch. 3) Jihād is compulsory for the Muslim community. So a Muslim should take permission from his parents to go for it, but when an enemy of Islām attacks the Muslim rights or their country, then he does not need the permission of parents.

\(^{(2)}\) (H. 5972) i.e., “Serve your parents and do your best to satisfy their needs, for this will be a substitute for fighting in Allāh’s Cause.”
(5) CHAPTER. The invocation of the person who is dutiful to his parents is fulfilled (i.e., accepted by Allâh).

5974. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While three persons were travelling, they were overtaken by rain and they took shelter in a cave in a mountain. A big rock fell from the mountain over the mouth of the cave and blocked it. They said to each other, ‘Think of such good (righteous) deeds which you did for Allâh’s sake only, and invoke Allâh by giving reference to those deeds so that Allâh may relieve you from your difficulty.’ One of them said, ‘O Allâh! I had my parents who were very old, and I had small children for whose sake I used to work as a shepherd. When I returned to them at night and milked (the sheep), I used to start giving the milk to my parents first before giving to my children. One day, I went far away in search of a grazing place (for my sheep), and didn’t return home till late at night and found that my parents had slept. I milked (my livestock) as usual and brought the milk vessel and stood at their heads, and I disliked to wake them up from their sleep, and I also disliked to give the milk to my children before my parents, though my children were crying (from hunger) at my feet. So this state of mine, and theirs, continued till the day dawned. (O Allâh!) If You considered that I had done that only for seeking Your Pleasure, then please let there be an opening through which we can see the sky.’ So Allâh made for them an opening through which they could see the sky. Then the second person said, ‘O Allâh! I had a cousin whom I loved as much as a passionate man loves a woman. I tried to seduce her but she refused till I paid her one hundred Dinâr. So I worked hard till I collected one hundred Dinâr and went to her with that. But when I sat in between her legs (to have sexual intercourse with her), she said: O Allâh’s slave! Be afraid of Allâh! Do not deflower me except legally (by marriage contract)! So I left her. O Allâh! If You considered that I had done that only for seeking Your Pleasure, then please let the rock move a little to have a (wider) opening.’ So Allâh shifted that rock to make the opening wider for them. And the last (third) person said, ‘O Allâh! I employed a labourer for wages equal to a Faraq (a certain measure) of rice, and when he had finished his job, he demanded his wages, but when I presented his due to him, he gave it up and refused to take it. Then I kept on sowing that rice for him (several times) till I managed to buy with the price of the yield, some cows and their shepherd. Later on, the labourer came to me and said: (O Allâh’s slave!) Be afraid of Allâh, and do not be unjust to me and give me my due. I said (to him): Go and take those cows and their shepherd. So he took them and went away. (So, O Allâh!) If You considered that I had done that for seeking Your Pleasure, then please remove the remaining part of the rock.’ And so Allâh released them (from their difficulty) and the rock was removed completely from the mouth of the cave.” (See H. 2215)
(6) CHAPTER. To be undutiful to one's parents is one of the greatest sins.

This is said by Ibn `Umar on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5975. Narrated Al-Mughira: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has forbidden you:
1. to be undutiful to your mothers
2. to prevent (what you should give in charity etc.)
3. to beg of men (begging) and
4. to bury your daughters alive.

And Allāh has disliked for you:

a) Qil and Qal (sinful and useless talk, like backbiting, etc. or that you talk too much about others)

b) ask too many questions (in disputed religious matters)

c) to waste your property (by extravagance).”

5976. Narrated Abū Bakra: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said thrice, “Shall I not inform you of the biggest of the great sins?”
We said, “Yes, O Allah's Messenger.” He said, “To join partners in worship with Allāh(1) and to be undutiful to one’s parents.” The Prophet ﷺ sat up after he had been reclining and added, “And I warn you against giving lying speech and a false witness; I warn you against giving a lying speech (forged statement) and a false witness.” The Prophet ﷺ kept on saying that warning till we thought that he would not stop.

5977. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ mentioned the greatest sins or he was asked about the greatest sins.

He said, “To join partners in worship with Allah; to kill a person whom Allah has forbidden to kill; and to be undutiful or unkind to the parents.” The Prophet added, “Shall I inform you of the biggest of the great sins? That is the lying speech (forged statement) or the false witness.” Shu’ba (the subnarrator) states that most probably the Prophet said, “the false witness.”

(7) CHAPTER. To be good to a father who is a Mushrik.

5978. Narrated Asmã’ bint Abû Bakr: My mother came to me, hoping (for my favour) during the lifetime of the Prophet. I asked the Prophet, “May I treat her kindly?” He replied, “Yes.”

Ibn ‘Uyaina said, “Then Allah revealed: ‘Allah does not forbid you to deal justly and kindly with those who fought not against you on account of religion, nor drove you out of your homes.’” (V.60:8)

(8) CHAPTER. The kindness shown by a lady who has a husband, to her mother.

5979. Narrated Asmã’: “My mother who was a Mushrikah (pagan, etc.), came with her father during the period of the peace pact between the Muslims and the Quraish infidels. I went to seek the advice of the Prophet saying, “My mother has arrived and she is hoping (for my favour).” The Prophet said, “Yes, be good to your mother.”

5980. Narrated Abū Sufyān that Heraclius sent for him and said, “What did he, i.e., the Prophet order you?” I replied, “He orders us to offer Salāt (prayers); to give Sadaqa (alms, etc.); to be chaste, and to keep good relations with our relatives (1).”

(9) CHAPTER. To be good to one’s brother who is a Mushrik.

5981. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that ‘Umar’s father, seeing a silken cloak being sold, said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Buy this and wear it on Fridays and when the foreign delegates pay a visit to you.” He said, “This is worn only by that person who will have no share in the Hereafter.” Later, a few silken cloaks were given to the Prophet as a gift, and he sent one of those cloaks to ‘Umar. ‘Umar said (to the Prophet), “How can I wear it while you have said about it what you have said?” The Prophet said, “I did not give it to you to wear but to sell or to give to someone else to wear.” So ‘Umar sent it to his (Mushrik) brother who was from the inhabitants of Makkah before he ('Umar’s brother) embraced Islám.

5982. See the next Hadîth No. 5983.

5983. Narrated Abû Ayyûb Al-Ansârî: A man said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Inform me of a deed which will make me the way to enter Paradise.” The people said, “What is the matter with him? What is the matter with him?” Allâh’s Messenger said, “He has something to ask (what he needs greatly).” The Prophet said (to him), “(In order to enter Paradise) you should worship Allâh and join none in worship with Him; you should perform As-Salât (Iqâmât-as-Salât), pay the Zakât, and keep good relations with your kith and kin.” He then said, “Leave it!” (The subnarrator said, “It seems that the Prophet was riding his she-camel.”) The man must have been holding the reins of the she-camel, and when the Prophet had answered his question, he told him to leave it.)

(11) CHAPTER. The sin of Al-Qāti‘ (the person who severs the bond of kinship).

5984. Narrated Jubair bin Mut‘im that he heard the Prophet saying, “Al-Qāti‘ (the person who severs the bond of kinship) will not enter Paradise.”

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever was made wealthy because of keeping good relations with his kith and kin.

5985. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Whoever is pleased that he be granted more wealth, and that his lease of life be prolonged, then he should keep good relations with his kith and kin.”

5986. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever loves that he be granted more wealth and that his lease of life be prolonged, then he should keep good relations with his kith and kin.”

(13) CHAPTER. Allah will keep good relations with the one who will keep good relations with his kith and kin.(1)

5987. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said: “Whoever loves that he be granted more wealth and that his lease of life be prolonged, then he should keep good relations with his kith and kin.”

(1) (Ch. 13) It means: (a) to visit them, (b) to help them financially, and (c) to speak to them with good words.
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh created the creations, and when He finished from His creations, Ar-Rahm (womb) said, ‘(O Allāh) at this place I seek refuge with You from all those who sever me (i.e., sever the ties of kith and kin).’ Allāh said, ‘Yes, won’t you be pleased that I will keep good relation with the one who will keep good relation with you, and I will sever the relation with the one who will sever the relation with you.’ It said, ‘Yes, O my Lord.’ Allāh said, ‘Then that is for you.’” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ added, “Read (in the Qur’ān) if you wish, the Statement of Allāh:

5988. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The word ‘Ar-Rahm’ (womb) derives its root from Ar-Rahmān (i.e., one of the Names of Allāh) and Allāh said: ‘I will keep good relation with the one who will keep good relation with you, (womb i.e., kith and kin) and sever the relation with him who will sever the relation with you, (womb, i.e., kith and kin).”

5989. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The word ‘Ar-Rahm’ (womb) derives its root from ‘Ar-Rahmān’ (i.e., one of the Names of Allāh). So, whosoever keeps good relation with it (womb i.e., kith and kin), Allāh will keep good relation with him, and whosoever will sever it (i.e., severs his relations of kith and kin), Allāh, too, will sever His relation with him.”

(H. 5989) It means: (a) to visit them, (b) to help them financially, and (c) to speak to them with good words.
(14) CHAPTER. Ar-Rahm i.e., womb (bond of kinship) remains fresh and fruitful if one looks after it always.

5990. Narrated 'Amr bin Al-'As: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying openly, not secretly, "The family of Abū so-and-so (i.e., Ṭālib) are not among my Auliya (supporters and helpers)." 'Amr said that there was a blank space(1) in the Book of Muḥammad bin Ja'far. He ﷺ added, 'No doubt my Wali (protector) is Allāh and the righteous believing people." 'Amr bin Al-'As added, "I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, 'But they (that family) have kinship (Rahm) with me and I will be good(2) and dutiful to them.'"

(15) CHAPTER. Al-Wāsil (the one who keeps good relations with his kith and kin) is not the one who recompenses the good done to him by his relatives.

5991. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Al-Wāsil is not the one who recompenses the good done to him by his relatives, but Al-Wāsil is the one who keeps good relations with those relatives who had severed the bond of kinship with him."

(1) (H. 5990) In the place of (so-and-so).
(2) (H. 5990) It means: (a) to visit them, (b) to help them financially, and (c) to speak to them with good words.
(16) CHAPTER. Whosoever kept good relations with his kith and kin while he was a Mushrik (pagan) and then embraced Islam.

5992.Narrated Ḥākim bin Ḥizām that he said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What do you think about my good deeds which I used to do during the Period of Ignorance (i.e., before embracing Islam) like keeping good relations with my kith and kin, manumitting the slaves and giving alms, etc. Shall I receive the reward for that?” Allah’s Messenger said, “You have embraced Islam with all those good deeds which you did.”

(17) CHAPTER. Whoever allowed a small girl of another person to play with him, or kissed her or had a joke with her.

5993. Narrated Sa‘īd: Umm Khālid bin Khalīd bin Sa‘īd said, “I came to Allāh’s Messenger along with my father and I was wearing a yellow shirt. Allāh’s Messenger said, “Sanah! Sanah!” (‘Abdullāh, the subnarrator said, “It means, ‘Beautiful! Beautiful!’ in the Ethiopian language.”) Umm Khālid added, “Then I started... playing with the seal of Prophethood. My father admonished me. But Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to my father), “Leave her.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ (then addressing me) said, “May you live so long that your dress gets worn out, and you will mend it many times, and then wear another till it gets worn out (i.e., May Allâh prolong your life).” [The subnarrator ‘Abdullâh said, “That garment (which she was wearing) remained usable for a long period”].

(18) CHAPTER. To be merciful to one’s children, kiss them and embrace them.

Anas said: The Prophet ﷺ kissed and smelled (his son) Ibrâhîm.

5994. Narrated Ibn Abu Nu’m: I was present when a man asked Ibn ‘Umar about the blood of mosquitoes. Ibn ‘Umar said, “From where are you?” The man replied, “From ‘Iraq.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Look at that! He is asking me about the blood of mosquitoes while they (the Iraqis) have killed the (grand) son of the Prophet ﷺ.” (Ibn ‘Umar added): “I have heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘They (Hasan and Husain) are my two sweet-smelling flowers in this world.’”

5995. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: A lady, along with her two daughters, came to me asking me (for some alms), but she found nothing with me except one date which I gave to her and (she) divided it between her two daughters, and then she got up and went away. Then the Prophet ﷺ came in and I informed him about this story. He said, “Whoever is in charge of (put to test by) these daughters and treats them generously, then they will act as a shield for him from the (Hell) Fire.”

5996. Narrated Abū Qatāda: The Prophet ﷺ came out towards us, while carrying Umâmah, the daughter of Abu Al-‘Ās (his grand-daughter) over his shoulder. He offered Salāt (prayer), and when he wanted to bow, he put her down, and when he stood up, he lifted her up (on his shoulders).

5997. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ kissed Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali while Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥābis At-Tamimi was sitting beside him. Al-Aqra’ said, “I have ten children and I have never kissed anyone of them.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ cast a look at him and said, “Whoever is not merciful to others, will not be treated mercifully.”

5998. Narrated ‘Aishah: A bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “You (people) kiss the boys! We don’t kiss them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I cannot put mercy in your heart after Allah has taken it away from it.”
Some Saby (i.e., war prisoners, children and women only) were brought before the Prophet ﷺ and behold, a woman amongst them was milking her breasts to feed, and whenever she found a child amongst the captives, she took it over her chest and nursed it (she had lost her child but later she found him). The Prophet ﷺ said to us, “Do you think that this lady can throw her son in the fire?” We replied, “No, if she has the power not to throw it (in the fire).” The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Allah is more Merciful to His slaves than this lady to her son.”

(19) CHAPTER. Allah divided mercy into one hundred parts.

I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Allah has divided mercy into one hundred parts, and He kept ninety-nine parts with Him and sent down one part on the earth; and because of that single part, His creations are merciful to each other, so that even the mare lifts up its hoof away from its baby animal, lest it should trample on it.”
(20) CHAPTER. The killing of one's own children for the fear that they will share his meals.

6001. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: I asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Which sin is the greatest?” He said, “To set up a rival unto Allãh, though He (Alone) created you.” I said, “What next?” He said, “To kill your son lest he should share your food with you.” I further asked, “What next?” He said, “To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.” And then Allãh revealed as proof of the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “And those who invoke not any other ilãh (god) along with Allãh...” (V.25:68)

(21) CHAPTER. To take a child in one’s lap.

6002. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ took a child in his lap for Tahnik (i.e., he chewed a date in his mouth and put its juice in the mouth of the child). The child urinated on him, so he asked for water and poured it over the place of the urine.

(22) CHAPTER. Putting the child on the thigh.

6003. Narrated Usãma bin Zaid: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to put me on (one of) his thighs and put Al-‘Ijãsãn bin ‘Alt on his other thigh, and then embrace us and say, “O Allah! Please be Merciful to them, as I am merciful to them.”
(23) CHAPTER. To keep one's covenant is a part of Faith.

6004. Narrated 'Āishah: I never felt so jealous of any woman as I did of Khadija, though she had died three years before the Prophet married me, and that was because I heard him mentioning her too often, and because his Lord had ordered him to give her the glad tidings that she would have a palace in Paradise, made of Qaṣab, and because he used to slaughter a sheep and distribute its meat among her friends.

(24) CHAPTER. The superiority of the one who looks after and sustains an orphan.

6005. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: The

(1) (H. 6004) Qaṣab: See the glossary.
Prophet ﷺ said, “I and the person who looks after an orphan and provides for him, will be in Paradise like this,” putting his index and middle fingers together.

(25) CHAPTER: The one who looks after and works for a widow.

6006. Narrated Sařwān bin Sulaim: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The one who looks after and works for a widow and for a poor person, is like a warrior fighting for Allāh’s Cause, or like a person who observes Saum (fasts) during the day and offers Salāt (prayer) all the night.”

Narrated Abū Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said as above (Hadith No. 6006).

6007. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The one who looks after and works for a widow and for Al-Miskīn (a poor person) is like a warrior fighting for Allāh’s Cause.” [The subnarrator Al-Qa’nabī is not sure whether he also said this “Like the one who offers Salāt (prayer) all the night without slackness and observes Saum (fasts) continuously and never breaks his fast.”]
(27) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) being merciful to the people and to the animals.

6008. Narrated Abū Sulaimān, Mālik bin Huwairith: We came to the Prophet ﷺ and we were (a few) young men, of approximately same age, and stayed with him for twenty nights. Then he thought that we were anxious for our families, and he asked us whom we had left behind to look after our families, and we told him. He was kind-hearted and merciful, so he said, “Return to your families and teach them (religious knowledge) and order them (to do good deeds) and offer your Salah (prayers) in the way you saw me offering my Salah (prayer), and when the stated time for the Salah (prayer) becomes due, then one of you should pronounce its call (i.e., the Adhān), and the eldest of you should lead you in Salah (prayer).” (1)

6009. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While a man was walking on a road, he became very thirsty. Then he came across a well, got down into it, drank (of its water) and then came out. Meanwhile he saw a dog panting and licking mud because of excessive thirst. The man said to himself, ‘This dog is suffering from the same state of thirst as I did.’ So, he went down the well (again) and filled his shoe (with water) and held it in his mouth and watered the dog. Allah thanked him for that deed and forgave him.” The people asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Is there a reward for us in serving the animals?” He said, “(Yes) There is a reward for serving any animate (living being).”

(1) (H. 6008) See Iqamat-as-Salāt in the glossary.
6010. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger stood up for the Salāt (prayer) and we, too, stood up along with him. Then a bedouin shouted while offering Salāt (prayer), “O Allah! Bestow Your Mercy on me and Muḥammad (安宁)， and do not bestow it on anybody else along with us.” When the Prophet had finished his Salāt (prayer) with Taslim, he said to the bedouin, “You have limited (narrowed) a very vast (thing) (meaning Allah’s Mercy).”

6011. Narrated An-Nu‘mān bin Bashir: Allah’s Messenger said, “You see the believers as regards their being merciful among themselves, showing love among themselves, and being kind among themselves, resembling one body, so that, if any part of the body is not well then the whole body shares the sleeplessness (insomnia) and fever with it.”

6012. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “If any Muslim plants any plant, and a human being or an animal eats of it, he will be rewarded as if he had given that much in charity.”

6013. Narrated Jarīr bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “He who is not merciful to others, will not be treated mercifully.”
(28) CHAPTER. To recommend to be kind to one's neighbour.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“Worship Allāh and join none with Him in worship and do good to parents… (up to) … such as are proud and boastful.” (V.4:36)

6014. Narrated ‘Āishah ﷺ: The Prophet ☪ said, “Jibril (Gabriel) continued to recommend me about treating the neighbours kindly and politely, so much so that I thought he would order me to make them as my heirs.”

6015. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ☪ said, “Jibril (Gabriel) kept on recommending me about treating the neighbours kindly and politely, so much so that I thought that he would order me to make them as my heirs.”

(29) CHAPTER. The sin of that person whose neighbour does not feel safe from his evil.

6016. Narrated Abū Shuraiḥ: The Prophet ☪ said, “By Allāh, he does not... believe! By Allah, he does not believe! By Allah, he does not believe!” It was said, “Who is that, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “That person whose neighbour does not feel safe from his evil.”

(30) CHAPTER. A lady-neighbour should not degrade anything given to her by her lady-neighbour.

6017. Narrated ‘Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Muslim ladies! A lady-neighbour should not look down upon the present of her lady-neighbour even if it were the trotters of a sheep.”

(31) CHAPTER. Whosoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should not harm his neighbour.

6018. Narrated ‘Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whosoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should not harm his neighbour, and whosoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should entertain his guest generously; and whosoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should talk what is good or keep quiet (i.e., abstain from all kinds of evil and dirty talk — e.g., abusing, lying, backbiting, etc.).”
6019. Narrated Abū Shuraīh Al-‘Adawī (رضي الله عنه): My ears heard and my eyes saw the Prophet ﷺ when he spoke, “Whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should serve his neighbour generously; and whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should entertain his guest generously by giving him his reward.” It was asked, “What is his reward, O Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?” He said, “(To be entertained generously) for a day and a night with high quality of food, and the guest has the right to be entertained for three days (with ordinary food) and if he stays longer, what he will be provided with, will be regarded as Ṣadaqa (a charitable gift). And whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should talk what is good or keep quiet (i.e., abstain from all kinds of dirty and evil talks e.g., abusing, lying, backbiting, etc.).”

(32) CHAPTER. The neighbour whose gate is nearer to you has more right to receive your favours.

6020. Narrated ‘Aīshah: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have two neighbours! To whom shall I send my gifts?” He said, “To the one whose gate is nearer to you.”

(33) CHAPTER. Enjoining all that is Al-Ma‘rūf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islām has ordained) is considered as a Ṣadaqa (charitable gift).
6021. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Enjoining every kind of Al-Ma’ruf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do) is a Sadaqa.”

6022. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-Ashʿarī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “On every Muslim there is enjoined (a compulsory) Sadaqa (alm).” They (the people) asked, “If one has nothing?” He ﷺ said, “He should work with his hands so that he may benefit himself and give it in charity.” They said, “If he cannot work, or does not work?” He said, “Then he should help the oppressed unhappy person (by word or action or both).” They said, “If he does not do it?” He said, “Then he should enjoin what is good,” or said “what is Al-Ma’ruf (i.e., Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained).” They said, “If he does not do that?” He said, “Then he should refrain from Ash-Shar (doing evil — e.g., practising polytheism of different kinds and all that is evil and bad), for that will be considered for him as a Sadaqa (charity).”

(34) CHAPTER. Pleasant friendly speech.

Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A good, pleasant, friendly word is a Sadaqa.”

6023. Narrated ‘Adī bin Ḥātim: The Prophet ﷺ mentioned the (Hell) Fire and sought refuge (with Allāh) from it, and turned his face to the other side. He mentioned the (Hell) Fire again and took refuge (with Allāh) from it and turned his face to the other side. (Shu’ba, the subnarrator said, “I have no doubt that the Prophet ﷺ repeated it twice.”) The Prophet ﷺ then said, “(O people!) Save yourselves from the (Hell) Fire, even if with half of a date fruit (given in charity), and if this is not available, then (save yourselves) by saying a good, pleasant, friendly word.”

(35) CHAPTER. To be kind and lenient in all matters.

6024. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: A group of Jews entered upon the Prophet ﷺ and said, “As-Sâmū’Alaikum” (i.e., death be upon you). (1) I understood it and said, “Wa-Alaikum As-Sâmū wal-la’natu (death and the curse of Allah be upon you).” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Be calm, O ‘Aishah! Allah loves that one should be kind and lenient in all matters.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Haven’t you heard what they (the Jews) have said?” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have (already) said (to them), ‘And upon you!’”

6025. Narrated Anas bin Malik : A bedouin urinated in the mosque and the people ran to (beat) him. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not interrupt his urination (i.e., let him finish).” Then the Prophet ﷺ asked for a tumbler of water and poured the water over the place of urine.

(36) CHAPTER. The co-operation between the believers.

(1) (H. 6024) Note the similarity between “As-Salâmû’Alaikum” (i.e., peace be upon you) and “As-Sâmû’Alaikum” (i.e., death be upon you).
6026. Narrated Abu Musa: The Prophet said, “A believer to another believer is like a building whose different parts enforce each other.” The Prophet then clasped his hands with the fingers interlaced.

6027. [Abu Musa added:] (At that time) the Prophet was sitting, and a man came and begged or asked for something. The Prophet faced us and said, “Help and recommend him and you will receive the reward for it, and Allah will bring about what he will through His Prophet’s tongue.”

(37) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ:

“Whosoever intercedes for a good cause will have the reward thereof, and whosoever intercedes for an evil cause will have a share in its burden. And Allah is Ever Able to do (and also an All-Witness to) everything.” (V.4:85)

6028. Narrated Abu Musa: Whenever a beggar or a person in need came to the Prophet, the Prophet would say, “Help and recommend him, and you will receive the reward for it; and Allah will bring about what He will through His Prophet’s tongue.”

(38) CHAPTER. The Prophet was neither a Fāhish (one who speaks bad words) nor a 6029. Narrated Masrūq: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr mentioned Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying that he was neither a Fāhish nor a Mutafahhish. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr added, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘The best among you are those who have the best manners and the best character.’”

6030. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mulaika: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said that the Jews came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “As-Sāmu ‘Alaikum” (death be on you). ‘Aishah said (to them), “(Death) be on you, and may Allāh curse you and shower His Wrath upon you!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Be calm, O ‘Aishah! You should be kind and lenient, and beware of harshness and Fuhsh (i.e., bad words).” She said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Haven’t you heard what they (Jews) have said?” He said, “Haven’t you heard what I have replied back (to them)? I said the same to them, and my invocation against them will be accepted, while theirs against me will be rejected (by Allāh).”

6031. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet ﷺ was neither a Sabbāb (one who would abuse others) nor a Fāhish (one who speaks obscene evil words to make people laugh).
who speaks bad words), nor a one who would curse (others), and if he wanted to admonish anyone of us, he used to say: “What is wrong with him, his forehead be dusted!”

6032. Narrated 'Aishah: A man asked permission to enter upon the Prophet. When the Prophet saw him, he said, “What an evil brother of his tribe! And what an evil son of his tribe!” When that man sat down, the Prophet behaved with him in a nice and polite manner and was completely at ease with him. When that person had left, 'Aishah said (to the Prophet), “O Allah's Messenger! When you saw that man, you said so-and-so about him, then you showed him a kind and polite behaviour, and you enjoyed his company?” Allah's Messenger said, “O 'Aishah! Have you ever seen me speaking a bad and dirty language? (Remember that), the worst people before Allah on the Day of Resurrection will be those whom the people leave (undisturbed) to be away from their evil.”

(39) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) good character and generosity and what sort of miserliness is disliked.

Ibn 'Abbās said, “The Prophet was the most generous among the people, and he used to be more so (generous) in the month of Ramadaan.”

Abū Dhar said that when the news of the advent of the Prophet being sent (as a Messenger) reached him, he said to his brother, “Ride this valley (of Makkah) and listen to some of his speech.” When he returned, he said, “I have seen him (the Prophet ﷺ) exhorting people to virtues.”

6033. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ was the best among the people (both in looks and character) and was the most generous of them, and was the bravest of them. Once, during the night, the people of Al-Madina got afraid (of a sound). So the people went towards that sound, but the Prophet ﷺ having gone to that sound before them, met them while he was saying, “Don’t be afraid, don’t be afraid.” (At that time) he was riding a saddleless horse belonging to Abū Ṭalḥa, and he was carrying a sword slung at his neck. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I found it (the horse) like a sea, or, it is the sea indeed.”

6034. Narrated Jābir: Never was the Prophet ﷺ asked for a thing to be given for which his answer was ‘no’.

6035. Narrated Masrūq: We were sitting with ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr who was narrating to us (Hadith): He said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was neither a Fāhish(2) nor a Mutafahhish(3), and he used to say, ‘The best among you are the best in character (having good manners).’”

(1) (H. 6033) The horse was like the sea in its speed.
(2) (H. 6035) Fāhish: (i.e., one who talks evil).
(3) (H. 6035) Mutafahhish: (i.e., a person who conveys evil talk or a person who speaks obscene evil words to make people laugh).
6036. Narrated Abū Hāzim: Sahl bin Sa'd said that a woman brought a Burda (sheet) to the Prophet ﷺ. Sahl asked the people, “Do you know what is a Burda?” The people replied, “It is a Shamla, a sheet with a fringe.” That woman said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have brought it so that you may wear it.” So the Prophet ﷺ took it because he was in need of it and wore it. A man among his Companions, seeing him wearing it, said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Please give it to me to wear.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes” (and gave him that sheet). When the Prophet ﷺ left, the man was blamed by his companions who said, “It was not nice on your part to ask the Prophet for it while you know that he took it because he was in need of it, and you also know that he (the Prophet) never turns down anybody’s request that he might be asked for.” That man said, “I just wanted to have its blessings as the Prophet ﷺ had put it on, so I hoped that I might be shrouded in it.”

6037. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Time will pass rapidly, good deeds will decrease, and miserliness will be thrown (in the hearts of the people), and Al-Harj (will increase).” They asked, “What is Al-Harj?” He replied, “(It is) killing (murdering), (it is) killing (murdering).”
6038. Narrated Anas bin Malak: I served the Prophet for ten years, and he never said to me, "Uff" (a minor harsh word denoting impatience) and never blamed me by saying, "Why did you do so, or why didn’t you do so?"

(40) CHAPTER. How should a man be with his family?

6039. Narrated Al-Aswad: I asked ‘Aishah what did the Prophet use to do at home? She replied, "He used to keep himself busy serving his family and when it was time for the Salât (prayer), he would get up for Salât (prayer)."

(41) CHAPTER. Love is from Allâh.

6040. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If Allâh loves a person, He calls Jibril (Gabriel) saying: ‘Allâh loves so-and-so; O Jibril love him.’ Jibril would love him, and then Jibril would make an announcement among the residents of the heaven, ‘Allâh loves so-and-so, therefore, you should love him also.’ So, all the residents of the heavens would love him and then he is granted the pleasure of the people of the earth.” (See H. 3209)
6041. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet said, “None will have the sweetness (delight) of Faith (a) till he loves a person and loves him only for Allāh’s sake, (b) till it becomes dearer to him to be thrown in the fire than to revert to disbelief (Heathenism) after Allāh has brought him out (saved him) from it, (c) till Allāh and His Messenger (Muḥammad) become dearer to him than anything else.” (See H. 16)

6042. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Zam’a: The Prophet forbade laughing at a person who passes wind, and said, “How does anyone of you beat his wife as he beats the stallion camel and then he may embrace (sleep with) her?” And Hishām said, “As he flogs his slave”.

6043. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said at Mina, “Do you know what day is today?” They (the people) replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He said, “Today is 10th of Dhul-Hijja, the sacred (forbidden) day. Do you know what town is this?” They (the people) replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He said, “This is the sacred (forbidden) town (Makkah — a sanctuary). And do you know which month is this?” They (the people) replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He said, “This is the sacred month.” He added, “Allāh has made your blood, your properties and your honour sacred to one another (i.e., Muslims) like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this town of yours.”

[See Ḥadīth No. 1741 and 1742]

(44) CHAPTER. What is forbidden as regards calling bad names and cursing.

6044. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allāh's Messenger said, “Abusing a Muslim is Fusuq (i.e., an evil-doing), and killing him is Kufr (disbelief).”

6045. Narrated Abū Dhar that he heard the Prophet saying, “If somebody accuses another of Fusuq (by calling him ‘Fāsiq’ i.e., a wicked person) or accuses him of Kufr (disbelief), such an accusation will revert to him (i.e., the accuser) if his companion (the accused) is innocent.”
6046. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger was neither a Fâhish (one who speaks bad words) nor a Sâbbâba (one who abuses others); and he used to say while admonishing somebody, “What is wrong with him? May dust be on his forehead!”

6047. Narrated Thâbit bin A’d-Dahhâk, who was one of the companions who gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet underneath the tree (Al-Hudâibiyâ): Allâh’s Messenger said, “Whoever swears by a religion other than Islam (i.e., if somebody swears by saying that he is a non-Muslim e.g., a Jew or a Christian, etc.) in case he is telling a lie, he is really so if his oath is false, and a person is not bound to fulfil a vow about a thing which he does not possess. And whoever commits suicide with anything in this world, he will be tortured with that very thing on the Day of Resurrection; and whoever curses a believer, then it (his sin) will be as if he murdered him; and whoever accuses a believer of Kufr (disbelief), then it is as if he killed him.”

6048. Narrated Sulaimân bin Surad who was one of the Companions of the Prophet: Two men abused each other in front of the Prophet, and one of them became angry

(1) (H. 6047) e.g., if somebody vows that he will manumit the slave of so-and-so if such and such thing happens, he is not bound to fulfil such a vow because he does not have the right to oblige the master of the slave to sell his slave.
and his anger became so intense that his face became swollen and changed. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I know a word the saying of which will cause him to relax, if he does say it.” Then a man went to him and informed him of the statement of the Prophet ﷺ and said, “Seek refuge with Allâh from Satan.” On that the angry man said, “Do you find anything wrong with me? Am I insane? Go away!”

6049. Narrated ‘Ubađa bin Aṣ-Ṣâmit: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ went out to inform the people about the date of the Night of Decree (Al-Qadr).1 There happened a quarrel between two Muslim men. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I came out to inform you about the Night of Al-Qadr, but as so-and-so and so-and-so quarrelled, so the news about it had been taken away; and may be it was better for you. So, look for it in the ninth, the seventh, or the fifth (of the last ten days of Ramaḍān).”

6050. Narrated Ma’rûr: I saw Abû Dhar wearing a Burda (garment) and his slave too was wearing a Burda, so I said (to Abû Dhar), “If you take this (Burda of your slave) and wear it (along with yours), you will have a nice suit (costume) and you may give him another garment.” Abû Dhar said, “There was a quarrel between me and another man whose mother was a non-Arab and I called her bad names. The man mentioned (complained about) me to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Did you abuse so-and-so?" I said, "Yes." He said, "Did you call his mother bad names?" I said, "Yes". He said, "You still have the traits of (the Pre-Islamic Period of) Ignorance." I said, "(Do I still have ignorance) even now in my old age?"

He said, "Yes, they (slaves or servants) are your brothers, and Allah has put them under your command. So the one under whose hand Allah has put his brother, should feed him of what he eats, and dress him of what he himself dresses, and should not ask him to do a thing beyond his capacity. And if at all he asks him to do a hard task, he should help him therein."

(45) CHAPTER. What is allowed of mentioning other people, for example, describing somebody as tall or short.

And the Prophet ﷺ said, "What is Dhul-Yadain (the long-armed person) saying?"

And the nickname which is not intended for degrading somebody (but just for distinguishing him from others who have the same surname).

6051. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ led us in the Zuhr prayer, offering only two Rak’a and then (finished it) with Taslim, went out infront of the mosque and stood there, putting his hand over a piece of wood. Abû Bakr and ‘Umar were also present among the people on that day but dared not talk to him [about his Salât (prayer)]. And the hasty people went away, wondering, "Has Ās-Salât been shortened?"

Amongst the people there was a man whom the Prophet ﷺ used to call Dhul-Yadain (the long-armed). He said, "O Allah’s Prophet! Have you forgotten or has Ās-Salât (prayer) been shortened?” The Prophet said, “Neither have I forgotten, nor has it been shortened.” They (the people) said, “Surely, you have forgotten, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet said, “Dhul-Yadain has told the truth.” So the Prophet got up and offered two (more) Rak’a and finished his Salat (prayer) with Taslim. Then he said Takbir, performed a prostration of ordinary duration or longer, then he raised his head and said Takbir and performed another prostration of ordinary duration or longer, and then raised his head and said Takbir (i.e., he performed the two prostrations of Sahw, i.e., forgetfulness and finished with Taslim).”

(46) CHAPTER. Backbiting, and the Statement of Allah

“...And spy not, neither backbite one another...” (V.49:12)

6052. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Allah’s Messenger passed by two graves and said, “Both of them (persons in the grave) are being tortured, and they are not being tortured for a major sin (to avoid). This one (pointing to one grave) used not to save himself from being soiled with his urine, and the other used to go about with calumnies (among the people to rouse hostilities, e.g., one goes to a person and tells him that so-and-so says about him such-and-such evil things).” The Prophet then asked for a green branch (of a date-palm tree), split it into two pieces and planted one on each grave and said, “I hope that their torture might be lessened, till these (green branches) get dried.”

(1) (H. 6052) This action was a kind of invocation on the part of the Prophet for the deceased persons [Fath Al-Bair].
(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “The best family (house) among the Ansar”

6053. Narrated Abu Usaid As-Sa’idi: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The best family among the Ansar is the Banu An-Najjar.”

(48) CHAPTER. What is allowed as regards backbitings wicked and suspicious people.

6054. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: A man asked permission to enter upon Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Admit him. What an evil brother of his people,” or said, “a son of his people!” But when the man entered, the Prophet ﷺ spoke to him in a very polite manner. (And when that person left) I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You had said what you had said, yet you spoke to him in a very polite manner?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O ‘Aishah! The worst people are those whom the people desert, or leave in order to save themselves from their dirty language or from their transgression.”

(49) CHAPTER. An-Namima is one of the great sins. [It means to go about with calumnies (the conveyance of disagreeable false information from one person to another to create hostility between them)].

6055. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Once, the Prophet ﷺ went through the graveyards of Al-Madîna and heard the voices of two persons who were being tortured in their graves. The Prophet said, “They are being tortured (in punishment), but they are not being punished because of a major sin, yet their sins are great: One of them used not to save himself from (being soiled with) the urine, and the other used to go about with Namîmâ (calumnies).” Then the Prophet asked for a green palm-tree branch and split it into two pieces and placed one piece on each grave, saying, “I hope that their torture (punishment) might be lessened, till these (green branches) get dried.”

(50) CHAPTER. What is disliked of Namîmâ (calumnies).

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
“A slanderer, going about with calumnies.” (V.68:11)

And also the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
“Woe to every slanderer and backbiter.” (V.104:1)

‘Yahmîz’, ‘Yalmîz’ or ‘Ya’îb’, all mean the same (i.e., disgracing the person in his absence).

6056. Narrated Hudhaifa: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “A Qattât(2) will not enter Paradise.”

1) (H. 6055) See the footnote of Hadîth No. 6052.
2) (H. 6056) A Qattât is a person who conveys disagreeable, false information from one person to another with the intention of causing harm and enmity between them.
(51) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

And shun lying speech (false statements).” (V.22:30)

6057. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever does not give up lying speech, (false statements) and acting on them (i.e., telling lies), and evil deeds, and behaving in an ignorant evil way, and speaking bad words to others, then Allāh is not in need of his (fasting) leaving his food and drink.”

[See Fath Al-Bārī]

(52) CHAPTER. What is said about a double-faced person.

6058. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The worst people before Allāh on the Day of Resurrection will be the double-faced people who appear to some people with one face and to other people with another face.”

(53) CHAPTER. Whoever informs his friend what has been said about him.

6059. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd

Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ divided and distributed (the war booty). An Ansārī man said, “By Allāh! Muḥammad (ﷺ), by this distribution, did not intend to please Allāh.” So I came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and informed him about it, whereupon his face became changed with anger and he said,
“May Allāh bestow His Mercy on Musā (Moses) for he was harmed more than this, yet he remained patient.”

(54) CHAPTER. What is disliked of praising a person.

6060. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ heard a man praising another man and he was exaggerating in his praise. The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “You have destroyed, or cut the back of the man.”

6061. Narrated Abū Bakra: A man was mentioned before the Prophet ﷺ and another man praised him greatly. The Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allāh’s Mercy be on you! You have cut the neck of your friend.” The Prophet ﷺ repeated this sentence many times and said, “If it is indispensable for anyone of you to praise someone, then he should say, ‘I think that he is so-and-so,’ if he really thinks that he is such. Allāh is the One Who will take his accounts (as He knows his reality) and none can sanctify anybody before Allāh.”

(Khālīd said, “Woe to you,” instead of “Allāh’s Mercy be on you.”).

(55) CHAPTER. Whoever praises his brother with that he knows.
And Sa'd said, “I never heard the Prophet saying to anyone walking on the earth that he is from the people of Paradise except to ‘Abdullah bin Salam.”

6062. Narrated Sālim that his father said; “When Allāh’s Messenger mentioned what he mentioned about (the hanging of) the Izār (waist-sheet), Abū Bakr said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! My Izār slackens on one side (without my intention).” The Prophet said, “You are not among those (who, out of conceit, or of pride) drag their Izār behind them.”

(56) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “Verily! Allāh enjoins Al-`Adl (i.e., justice and worshipping none but Allāh Alone — Islamic Monotheism) and Al-`Ihsān [i.e., to be patient in performing your duties to Allāh, totally for Allāh’s sake and in accordance with the As-Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet in a perfect manner], and giving (help) to kith and kin (i.e., all what Allāh has ordered you to give them e.g., wealth, visiting, looking after them, or any other kind of help): and forbids Al-Fāhshā’ (i.e., all evil deeds, e.g., illegal sexual acts, disobedience of parents, polytheism, to tell lies, to give false witness, to kill a life without right), and Al-Munkar (i.e., all that is prohibited by Islamic law: polytheism of every kind, disbelief and every kind of evil deeds), and Al-Baghy (i.e., all kinds of oppression), He admonishes you, that you may take heed.” (V.16:90) own selves...” (V.10:23)

And His Statement:

“...And whoever has retaliated with the like of that which he was made to suffer, and then has again been wronged, Allâh will surely help him...” (V.22:60)

And one should give up causing evil to a Muslim or to a disbeliever.

6063. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet continued for such and such period imagining that he has slept (had sexual relations) with his wives, and in fact he did not. One day he said to me, “O ‘Aishah! Allâh has instructed me regarding a matter about which I had asked Him. There came to me two men, one of them sat near my feet and the other near my head. The one near my feet, asked the one near my head (pointing at me), ‘What is wrong with this man?’ The latter replied, ‘He is under the effect of magic.’ The first one asked, ‘Who had worked magic on him?’ The other replied, ‘Labîd bin A’sâm.’ The first one asked, ‘What material (did he use)?’ The other replied, ‘The skin of the pollen of a male date-palm tree with a comb and the hair stuck to it, kept under a stone in the well of Dharwân’.” Then the Prophet went to that well and said, “This is the same well which was shown to me (in the dream). The tops of its date-palm trees look like the heads of the Shayâtîn (devils), and its water looks like the infusion of Hînnâ leaves.” Then the Prophet ordered that those things be taken out. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why did you not treat yourself with Nashra or you don’t want to disclose?” The Prophet said, “Allâh has cured me; and I hate to spread the evil among the people.” (1)

‘Aishah added, “(The magician) Labîd bin

(1) (H. 6063) The Prophet did not want to encourage people to learn magic.
A'sam was a man from Bani Zuraiq, an ally of the Jews.” (See H. 5765)

(57) CHAPTER. Jealousy and mutual estrangement are forbidden.

And the Statement of Allah:

“...and from the evil of the envier when he envies.” (V.113:5)

6064. Narrated Abu Hurairah:

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware of suspicion, for suspicion is the worst of false tales; and do not look for others’ faults, and do not spy, and do not be jealous of one another, and do not desert (cut your relation with) one another, and do not hate one another; and O Allah’s worshippers! Be brothers (as Allah has ordered you!).”

6065. Narrated Anas bin Malik:

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not hate one another, and do not be jealous of one another; and do not desert (cut your relation with) each other, and O Allah’s worshippers! Be brothers. Lo! It is not permissible for any Muslim to desert (not talk to) his brother (Muslim) for more than three days.”

(58) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

“O you who believe! Avoid much suspicion, indeed some suspicions are sins. And spy not, neither backbite one another…” (V.49:12)
6066.Narrated Abū Hurairah
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Beware of suspicion, for suspicion is the worst of false tales; and do not look for others’ faults, and do not indulge in spying on one another, and do not practise Najsh(1), and do not be jealous of one another and do not hate one another, and do not desert (stop talking to) one another. And O Allāh’s worshippers! Be brothers!”

(59) CHAPTER. What sort of suspicion is allowed.

6067. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I do not think that so-and-so and so-and-so know anything of our religion.”

And Al-Laith said, “These two persons were among the hypocrites.”

6068. Narrated Al-Laith: ‘Āishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ entered upon me one day and said, ‘O ‘Āishah! I do not think that so-and-so and so-and-so know anything of our religion which we follow’.”

(60) CHAPTER. (It is recommended that) a believer should conceal what sins he may commit.

6069. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I

(1) (H. 6066) Najsh means to offer a high price for something in order to allure another customer who is interested in the thing.
heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “All the sins of my followers will be forgiven except those of the Mujâhirin (those who commit a sin openly or disclose their sins to the people). An example of such disclosure is that a person commits a sin at night, and though Allâh screens it from the public, then he comes in the morning and says, ‘O so-and-so, I did such and such (evil) deed yesterday,’ though he spent his night screened by his Lord (none knowing about his sin) and in the morning he removes Allâh’s Screen from himself.”

6070. Narrated Saifân bin Mafrîz: A man asked Ibn ‘Umar, “What did you hear Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying regarding An-Najwa (secret talk between Allâh and His believing worshipper on the Day of Resurrection)?” He said, “(The Prophet ﷺ said) One of you will come close to his Lord (Allâh) till He will shelter him in His Screen and say: ‘Did you commit such and such sin?’ He will say, ‘Yes.’ Then Allâh will say: ‘Did you commit such and such sin?’ He will say, ‘Yes.’ So Allâh will make him confess (all his sins) and He will say, ‘I screened them (your sins) for you in the world, and today I forgive them for you.”’

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4685]

(61) CHAPTER. Pride and arrogance.

Mujâhid said, “‘Bending his neck in pride...’ (1) (V.22:9) means he is proud of himself.” ‘Iftâhu’ means his neck.

(1) (Chap. 61) (V.22:9) Narrated Abdullah bin Mas’ûd: Allâh Messenger ﷺ said, “Whosoever has pride in his heart equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall not enter Paradise.” A person (amongst the audience) said verily a person loves that 6071. Narrated Ḥāritha bin Wahb Al-Khuzai: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Shall I inform you about the people of Paradise? They comprise every obscure, unimportant humble person, and if he takes Allāh’s Oath that he will do that thing, Allāh will fulfil his oath (by doing that). Shall I inform you about the people of the (Hell) Fire? They comprise every cruel, violent, proud and conceited person.”

6072. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Any of the female slaves of Al-Madīna could take hold of the hand of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and take him wherever she wished.(1)

(62) CHAPTER. Al-Hijra [(to desert or) cut one’s relation with another Muslim (i.e., not to speak to him on meeting him)].

The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is not lawful for a man to desert (not to speak to) his brother (on meeting him) for more than three days.”

6073, 6074, 6075. Narrated ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ that she was told that ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair (on hearing that she was selling, or giving something as a gift) said, “By Allāh, if ‘Āishah does not give up this, I will declare her incompetent to dispose of her wealth.” I said, “Did he (‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair) say so?” They (people) said, “Yes.” ‘Āishah said, “I vow to Allāh that I

=his dress should be beautiful and his shoes should be beautiful. The Prophet ﷺ remarked: Verily, Allāh is the Most Beautiful and loves beauty. Pride is to completely disregard the truth and to scorn (looking down upon) the people.” (Sahih Muslim, Book of Faith, Vol. 1, Hadith No. 164).

(1) (H. 6072) The Prophet ﷺ was the most humble person having not the least of pride, and he used to help all and was very kind to everybody.
When this desertion lasted long, ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair sought intercession with her, but she said, “By Allah, I will not accept the intercession of anyone for him, and will not commit a sin by breaking my vow.” When this state of affairs was prolonged on Ibn Az-Zubair (he felt it hard on him), he said to Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and ‘Abdur-Rahmãn bin Al-Aswad bin ‘Abd YagUth, who were from the tribe of Banî Zuhra, “I beseech you, by Allah, to let me enter upon ‘Aishah, for it is unlawful for her to vow to cut the relation with me.” So Al-Miswar and ‘Abdur-Rahmãn, wrapping their sheets around themselves, asked ‘Aishah’s permission saying, “Peace and Allah’s Mercy and Blessings be upon you! Shall we come in?” ‘Aishah said, “Come in.” They said, “All of us?” She said, “Yes, come in, all of you,” not knowing that Ibn Az-Zubair was also with them. So when they entered, Ibn Az-Zubair entered the screened place and got hold of ‘Aishah and started requesting her to excuse him, and wept. Al-Miswar and ‘Abdur-Rabman also started requesting her to speak to him and to accept his repentance. They said (to her), “The Prophet forbade what you know of deserting (not speaking to your Muslim brethren), for it is unlawful for any Muslim not to talk to his brother for more than three nights (days).” So when they increased their reminding her (of the superiority of having good relations with kith and kin, and of excusing other’s sins), and brought her down to a critical situation, she started reminding them, and wept, saying, “I have made a vow, and (the question of) vow is a difficult one.” They (Al-Miswar and ‘Abdur-Rahmãn) persisted in their appeal till she spoke with ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair and she manumitted forty slaves as an expiation for her vow. Later on, whenever she remembered her vow, she used to weep so much that her veil used to become wet with her tears.

6076. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not hate one another, nor be jealous of one another; and do not desert (cut your relation with) one another, but O Allah’s worshippers! Be brothers! And it is unlawful for a Muslim to desert his brother Muslim (and not to talk to him) for more than three nights.”

6077. Narrated Abū Ayyūb Al-Anṣārī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is not lawful for a man to desert his brother (Muslim) for more than three nights. (It is unlawful for them that) when they meet, one of them turns his face away from the other, and the other turns his face from the former; and the better of the two will be the one who greets the other first.”

(63) CHAPTER. The desertion of a sinful person (disobedient to Allah and His Messenger ﷺ).

After Ka‘b had failed to join the Prophet ﷺ (in the battle of Tabuk), he said, “The Prophet ﷺ forbade all the Muslims to speak to us.” Ka‘b mentioned fifty nights (as the period of his desertion).
6078. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "I know whether you are angry or pleased." I said, "How do you know that O Allah’s Messenger?" He said, "When you are pleased, you say, 'Yes, by the Lord of Muhammad,' but when you are angry, you say, 'No, by the Lord of Ibrāhīm (Abraham)!’" I said, "Yes, I do not leave, except your name."

(64) CHAPTER. May a person visit his friend daily, or visit him in the morning and in the evening?

6079. Narrated 'Aishah: I do not remember my parents believing in any religion other than the religion (of Islam), and there passed not a single day, without our being visited by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in the morning and in the evening. One day, while we were sitting in the house of Abū Bakr (my father) at noon, someone said, “This is Allah’s Messenger ﷺ coming at an hour at which he never used to visit us.” Abū Bakr said, “There must be something very urgent that has brought him at this hour.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have been allowed to go out (of Makkah) to migrate.”

(65) CHAPTER. The paying of a visit.

And whoever visited some people and ate in their houses.

Salmān visited Ābu Ad-Dardā’ during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and took a meal with him.

6080. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ visited a household among the Ansār, and he took a meal with them. When he intended to leave, he asked for a place in that house for him to pray. So, a mat, sprinkled with water, was put and he offered Salāt (prayer) over it, and invoked for Allāh’s Blessing upon them (his hosts).

(66) CHAPTER. Whoever spruced himself up for the delegates.

6081. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: ‘Umar saw a silken cloak over a man (for sale), so he took it to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Buy this and wear it when the delegate comes to you.” He (ﷺ) said, “The silk is worn by one who will have no share (in the Hereafter).” Some time passed after this event, and then the Prophet ﷺ sent a (similar) cloak to him. ‘Umar brought that cloak back to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “You have sent this to me, and you said about a similar one what you said?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have sent it to you so that you may get money by selling it.” Because of this, Ibn ‘Umar used to hate the silken markings on the garments.
(67) CHAPTER. The establishment of a bond of brotherhood and the conclusion of a treaty.

And Abū Juḥaifa said, "The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) established a bond of brotherhood between Salmān and Abū Ad-Dardā'.

'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Āuf said, "When we arrived at Al-Madīna, the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) established a bond of brotherhood between me and Sa'd bin Ar-Rabî'."

6082. Narrated 'Āsīm: When 'Abdur-Rahmān came to us, the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) established a bond of brotherhood between him and Sa'd bin Ar-Rabî'. Once, the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) said, "As you (O 'Abdur-Rahmān) have married, give a wedding banquet even if with one sheep."

6083. Narrated 'Āsīm: I said to Anas bin Mālik, "Did it reach you that the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) said, "There is no treaty of brotherhood in Islām?" Anas said, "The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) made a treaty (of brotherhood) between the Anṣār and the Quraish in my home."

(68) CHAPTER. (What is said about) smiling and laughing.
And Fāṭima bint ʿAbdullāh ʿAl-ʿAbdallāh said, “The Prophet ʿAl-ʿAbdallāh told me something secretly (during his fatal illness) and I laughed.”

Ibn ʿAbbās said, “Allāh is He Who makes (whom He wills) laugh and makes (whom He wills) weep.”

[See V.53:43 the Qurʾān].

6084. Narrated ʿĀṣimah bint ʿAbdullāh: Rifaʿa bint ʿAbdullāh Al-Qurāzī divorced his wife irrevocably (i.e., that divorce was the final). Later on ʿAbdur-Rāḥmān bin ʿAbdullāh Al-Zubair married her after him. She came to the Prophet ʿAbdur-Rāḥmān and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I was Rifaʿa’s wife, and he divorced me thrice, and then I was married to ʿAbdur-Rāḥmān bin ʿAbdullāh Az-Zubair, who, by Allāh has nothing with him except something like this fringe(1) O Allāh’s Messenger,” showing a fringe she had taken from her covering sheet. Abū Bakr was sitting with the Prophet ʿAbdur-Rahmān while Khālid bin ʿAbdullāh Al-ʿAs was sitting at the door of the room waiting for admission. Khālid started calling Abū Bakr, “O Abū Bakr! Why don’t you reprove this lady from what she is openly saying before Allāh’s Messenger?” Allāh’s Messenger ʿAbdur-Rahmān did nothing except smiling, and then said (to the lady), “Perhaps you want to go back to Rifaʿa? No, (it is not possible), unless and until you enjoy the sexual relation with him (ʿAbdur-Rāḥmān), and he enjoys the sexual relation with you.”

6085. Narrated ʿUmar bint ʿAbdullāh Al-Khāṭṭāb: ʿUmar bint ʿAbdullāh ʿAbdullāh Al-Khāṭṭāb asked permission of

(1) (H. 6084) He was impotent (she said so, but in fact he was not so).
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to see him while some Quraishī women were sitting with him, and they were asking him to give them more financial support while raising their voices over the voice of the Prophet ﷺ. When ‘Umar asked permission to enter, all of them hurried to screen themselves. The Prophet ﷺ admitted ‘Umar and he entered, while the Prophet ﷺ was smiling. ‘Umar said, “May Allah always keep you smiling, O Allāh’s Messenger! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am astonished at these women who were with me. As soon as they heard your voice, they hastened to screen themselves.” ‘Umar said, “You have more right that they should be afraid of you, O Allāh’s Messenger!” And then he (‘Umar) turned towards the women and said, “O enemies of your souls! You are afraid of me and not of Allāh’s Messenger?” The women replied, “Yes, for you are sterner and harsher than Allāh’s Messenger.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Ibn Al-Khattāb! By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, whenever Shaitān (Satan) sees you taking a way, he follows a way other than yours!”

6086. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was in Tā’īf (trying to conquer it), he said to his companions, “Tomorrow we will return (to Al-Madīna), if Allāh will.” Some of the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “We will not leave till we conquer it.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Therefore, be ready to
On the following day, they (Muslims) fought fiercely (with the people of Ta‘if) and suffered many wounds. Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Tomorrow we will return (to Al-Madina), if Allah will.” His Companions kept quiet this time. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ then smiled.

6087. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ:

A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “I have been ruined for I had sexual relation with my wife in Ramaḍān (while I was observing fast).” The Prophet ﷺ (in expiation) said (to him), “Manumit a slave.” The man said, “I cannot afford that.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(Then) observe Saum (fast) for two successive months (continuously).” The man said, “I cannot do that.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(Then) feed sixty Masākin (poor persons).” The man said, “I have nothing (to feed them with).” Then a big basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Where is the questioner?” Then the Prophet ﷺ gave the basket to the man and said, “Where is the questioner?” The man said, “I have nothing (to feed them with).” Then the Prophet ﷺ smiled till his premolar teeth became visible, and said, “Then (feed) your (family with it).”

[See Vol. 3, Ahādīth Nos. 1936, 1937]

6088. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ:

While I was going along with Allah’s
Messenger, who was wearing a Najrānī Burd (sheet) with a thick border, a bedouin overtook the Prophet and pulled his Rida’ (sheet) forcibly. I looked at the side of the shoulder of the Prophet and noticed that the edge of the Rida’ had left a mark on it because of the violence of his pull. The bedouin said, “O Muḥammad! Order for me some of Allah’s Property which you have.” The Prophet turned towards him, (smiled) and ordered that he be given something.

6089. Narrated Jarīr: The Prophet did not screen himself from me (had never prevented me from entering upon him) since I embraced Islam, and whenever he saw me, he would receive me with a smile.

6090. Jarīr added: Once I told him that I could not sit firm on horses. He stroke me on the chest with his hand, and said, “O Allāh! Make him firm and make him a guide and a rightly guided man.

6091. Narrated Zainab bint Umm Salama: Umm Sulaim said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Verily, Allāh is not shy of telling the truth. Is it necessary for a woman to take a bath after she has a wet dream (nocturnal sexual discharge)?” He said, “Yes, if she notices a discharge.” On that Umm Salama laughed and said, “Does a woman get a (nocturnal sexual) discharge?” He said, “How then does (her) son resemble her (his mother)?”
6092. Narrated 'Aishah : I never saw the Prophet ﷺ laughing to an extent that one could see his palate; he always used to smile only.

6093. Narrated Anas : A man came to the Prophet ﷺ on a Friday while he (the Prophet ﷺ) was delivering a Khuṭba (religious talk) at Al-Madina, and said, “There is drought (lack of rain), so please invoke your Lord to bless us with the rain.” The Prophet ﷺ looked at the sky, where no cloud could be detected. Then he invoked Allāh for rain. Clouds started gathering together and it rained till Al-Madina valleys started flowing with water. It continued raining till the next Friday. Then that man (or some other man) stood up while the Prophet ﷺ was delivering the Friday Khuṭba, and said, “We are drowned; please invoke your Lord to withhold it (rain) from us.” The Prophet ﷺ smiled and said twice or thrice, "O Allāh! (Please let it rain) round about us and not upon us." The clouds started dispersing over Al-Madina to the right and to the left, and it rained round about Al-Madina and not upon Al-Madina. Allāh showed them (the people) the miracle from Him to His Prophet ﷺ and His response to his invocation.
6094. Narrated 'Abdulläh ibn 'Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Truthfulness leads to Al-Birr (piety, righteousness, and every act of obedience to Allâh) and Al-Birr leads to Paradise. And a man keeps on telling the truth until he becomes a Siddîq (truthful person). Falsehood leads to Al-Fujûr (i.e., wickedness, evil-doing, etc.), and Al-Fujûr leads to the (Hell) Fire, and a man keeps on telling lies till he is written as a liar before Allâh."

6095. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The signs of a hypocrite are three:
1. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie,
2. Whenever he promises, he breaks his promise;
3. Whenever he is entrusted, he betrays (proves to be dishonest)." (See H. 33, 34)

6096. Narrated Samura bin Jundub: The Prophet ﷺ said, "I saw (in a dream) two men came to me." Then the Prophet ﷺ narrated the story (saying), “They said, ‘The person, the one whose cheek you saw being torn away (from the mouth to the ear) was a liar and used to tell lies and the people would report those lies on his authority till they spread (that lie) all over the world. So he will be punished like that till the Day of Resurrection.’”

(70) CHAPTER. The righteous way or guidance.

6097. Narrated Ḥudhaifa: From among the people, Ibn Umm ‘Abd greatly resembled Allah’s Messenger ☪ in solemn gait and appearance, calmness and sobriety from the time he goes out of his house till he returns to it. But we do not know how he behaves with his family when he is alone with them. (1)

6098. Narrated Ṭāriq: ‘Abdullāh said, “The best talk is Allah’s Book (the Qur’an), and the best guidance is the guidance of Muḥammad ☪.”

(71) CHAPTER. To be patient when one is harmed (by others).

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:
“...Only those who are patient shall receive their reward in full, without reckoning.”
(V.39:10)

6099. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ☪ said:

(1) (H. 6097) Whether he keeps the same way as Allāh’s Messenger ☪ or follows another way.
None is more patient than Allah against the harmful saying. He hears from the people; they ascribe a son (or offspring or children) to Him, yet He gives them health and (supplies them with) provision.”

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4482]

6100. Narrated 'Abdullah: The Prophet divided and distributed something as he used to do for some of his distributions. A man from the Ansār said, "By Allah, in this distribution the Pleasure of Allah has not been intended." I said, “I will definitely tell this to the Prophet.” So I went to him while he was sitting with his Companions and told him of it secretly. That was hard upon the Prophet and the colour of his face changed, and he became so angry that I wished I had not told him. The Prophet then said, "(Prophet) Musa (Moses) was harmed with more than this, yet he remained patient.”

(72) CHAPTER. Whoever did not admonish people in their faces (i.e., directly).

6101. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet did something and allowed the people to do it, but some people refrained from doing it. When the Prophet learned of that, he delivered a Khutba (religious talk), and after having sent praises to Allah, he said, “What is wrong with such people as refrain from doing a thing that I do? By Allah, I know Allah better than they, and I am more afraid of Him than they."

6102. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet was more shy than a virgin in her separate room. And if he saw a thing which he disliked, we would recognise that (feeling) on his face.

(73) CHAPTER. Whoever calls his brother a Kāfīr (disbeliever) without any grounds, and he does not think that he is such, then he himself is such, what he says.

6103. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “If a man says to his brother, ‘O Kāfīr (disbeliever)!’ Then surely, one of them is such (i.e., a Kāfīr).”

6104. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: If something disgraceful should be said or done before him.

(1) (H. 6102) If something disgraceful should be said or done before him.
(2) (H. 6103) If the accuser is telling the truth, then the accused person is a disbeliever, otherwise the accuser is a disbeliever, because in this case, he regards belief as disbelief.
Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone says to his brother, ‘O Kāfir (disbeliever)!’ Then surely, one of them is such.”

6105. Narrated Thābit bin Ad-Daḥḥāk: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever swears by a religion other than Islām (i.e., if he swears by saying that he is a non-Muslim in case he is telling a lie), then he is as he says if his oath is false; and whoever commits suicide with something, will be punished with the same in the (Hell) Fire; and cursing a believer is like murdering him, and whoever accuses a believer of disbelief, then it is as if he had killed him.”

(74) CHAPTER. Whoever does not consider as Kāfir the person who says that (i.e., O Kāfir), if he thinks that what he says is true, or if he is ignorant of the seriousness of such saying.

And ‘Umar said about Ḥāṭib bin Abi Balta’a. “He has done hypocrisy.” Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ said (to ‘Umar), “Who knows, perhaps Allāh has looked at the warriors of Badr and said (to them), ‘(Do whatever you like) I have forgiven you.””

[See Vol. 4, Ḥadīth No. 3007]

6106. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه : Mu‘ādh bin Jabal •الotherwise used to offer Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and then go to lead his people in Salāt (prayer). Once he led the people in Salāt (prayer) and recited Sūrat Al-Baqarah. A man left (the row of the people offering Salāt) and offered (light) Salāt (prayer) (separately) and went away. When Mu‘adh came to know about it, he said, “He (that man) is a hypocrite.” Later, that man heard what Mu‘adh said about him, so he came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We are people who work with our own hands and irrigate (our farms) with our camels. Last night Mu‘adh led us in the (night) Salāt (prayer) and he recited Sārat Al-Baqarah, so I offered my prayer separately, and because of that, he accused me of being a hypocrite.” The Prophet called Mu‘adh and said thrice, “O Mu‘adh! You are putting the people to trials? Recite, ‘Wāsh-shamsi wad-duhāhā’ (Surah No. 91) or ‘Sabbih isma Rabbikal-A‘lā’ (Surah No. 87) or the like.”(1)

6107. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever amongst you swears, (saying by error) in his oath, ‘By Al-Lāt and Al-Uzza’, then he should say, ‘Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)’; and whoever says to his companions, ‘Come let me gamble’, then he must give something in charity (as an expiation for such a sin).”

[See Hadith No. 6650]

6108. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that he found ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb in a group of people and he was swearing by his father. So Allah’s Messenger called them saying, “Verily! Allah forbids you to swear by your fathers. If one has to take an oath, he should swear by Allah or otherwise keep quiet.”

(1) (H. 6106) The Prophet recommended to Mu‘adh that he should recite short Sūrah when he is leading the people in congregation.
(75) CHAPTER. What is allowed to say when one is angry or harsh for Allah's sake.

And Allāh ṭanā said:

"[O Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ)] Strive hard against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be harsh against them..." (V. 9:73)

6109. Narrated ʿĀishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ entered upon me while there was a curtain having pictures in the house. His face became red with anger, and then he got hold of the curtain and tore it into pieces. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Such people as paint these pictures will receive the severest punishment on the Day of Resurrection.”

6110. Narrated Abū Masʿūd رضي الله عنه: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “I keep away from the morning prayer only because so-and-so person prolongs the Ṣalāt (prayer) when he leads us in it.” The narrator added: I had never seen Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ more furious in giving advice than he was on that day. He ﷺ said, “O people! There are some among you who make people dislike good deeds [Ṣalāt (prayer), etc.]. Beware! Whoever among you leads the people in Ṣalāt (prayer) should not prolong it, because among them there are the sick, the old, and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief.”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 702]

6111. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar رضي الله عنه: While the Prophet ﷺ was offering Ṣalāt (prayer), he saw sputum (on the wall) of the mosque, in the direction of the Qiblah, so he scraped it off with his hand, and the sign of disgust (was apparent from his face) and then said, “Whenever anyone of you is offering Salat (prayer), he should not spit in front of him because Allah is in front of him.” (See H. 406)

6112. Narrated Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhani: A man asked Allah’s Messenger about Al-Luqāt (a lost fallen purse or a thing picked up by somebody). The Prophet said, “You should announce it publicly for one year, and then remember and recognise the tying material of its container, and then you can spend it. If its owner came to you, then you should pay him its equivalent.” The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What about a lost sheep?” The Prophet said, “Take it, because it is for you, for your brother, or for the wolf.” The man again asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What about a lost camel?” Allah’s Messenger became angry and furious and his cheeks became red (or his face became red), and he said, “You have nothing to do with it (the camel) for it has its feet and its water container with it till it meets its owner.”

6113. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit: Allah’s Messenger made a small room (with a palm-leaf mat). Allah’s Messenger came out (of his house) and offered Salāt (prayer) in it. Some men came and joined him in his Salāt (prayer). Then again the next night they came for the Salāt (prayer), but Allah’s Messenger delayed and did not come out to them for Salāt (prayer). So, they raised their voices and knocked the door with small stones (to draw his attention). He came out to them in a state of anger, saying, "You are still insisting [on your deed, (i.e., \textit{Tarāwīḥ \ Salāt} in the mosque)] I did not come out for \textit{Salāt} (prayer) because] I thought that this \textit{Salāt} [\textit{Tarāwīḥ} (prayer)] might become obligatory on you. So you people, offer this \textit{Salāt} (prayer) at your homes, for the best \textit{Salāt} (prayer) of a person is the one which he offers at home, except the compulsory (congregational) \textit{Salāt} (prayer)." [See H. 7290]

(76) \textbf{CHAPTER}. To be cautious from being angry.

And the Statement of Allāh تعالى: "And those who avoid the greater sins\(^\text{(1)}\) and \textit{Al-Fawāḥish} (illegal sexual intercourse, etc.) and when they are angry, they forgive" (V.42:37)

And also the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: أَوْ لَمْ يَكُنْ صَنِيعُكُمْ حَتَّى يُعْطِنَّكُمْ فِي الصَّلَاةِ مُقَدَّسًا فَقُولُوا لِلَّذِينَ يُصِيبُهُمُ الْجَوَابُ إِنَّمَا يُصِيبُهُمُ الْجَوَابُ فَإِنْ خَرَّ صَلَاةُ الْمَعْلُومَةَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا زَالَ يَكُنْ صَنِيعُكُمْ حَتَّى طَفَّتَهُمُ السَّيِّبُ وَأَكَادُ يُفْلِيِّكُمْ بِالْصَّلَاةِ فِي بُوْىٍ كُمْ فَإِنْ خَرَّ صَلَاةُ الْمَعْلُومَةِ فِي بُوَىٍ إِلَّا الصَّلَاةِ التَّعْلِيمَةَ" [Rājū: 731]

\(^{(1)}\) (Ch. 76) "Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): Come, I will recite what your Lord has prohibited you from: Join not anything in worship with Him; be good and dutiful to your parents; kill not your children because of poverty — We provide sustenance for you and for them; come not near to \textit{Al-Fawāḥish} (shameful sins and illegal sexual intercourse), whether committed openly or secretly, and kill not anyone whom Allāh has forbidden, except for a just cause (according to Islamic law). This He has commanded you that you may understand. And come not near to the orphan's property, except to improve it, until he (or she) attains the age of full strength; and give full measure and full weight with justice. We burden not any person, but that which it can bear. And whenever you give your word (i.e., judge between men or give evidence), say the truth, even if a near relative is concerned, and fulfil the Covenant of Allāh. This He commands you that you may remember." [V.6:151,152] adversity, who repress anger, and who pardon men; verily, Allāh loves Al-Muhsinun (the good-doers).” (V. 3:134)

6114. Narrated Abū Hurairah : Allāh’s Messenger said, “The strong is not the one who overcomes the people by his strength, but the strong is the one who controls himself while in anger.”

6115. Narrated Sulaimān bin Ṣurad : Two men abused each other in front of the Prophet while we were sitting with him. One of the two abused his companion furiously and his face became red. The Prophet said, “I know a word (sentence) the saying of which will cause him to relax (i.e., he will calm down). Only if he says, ‘I seek refuge with Allāh from Satan, the outcast.’” So they said to that (furious) man, “Don’t you hear what the Prophet is saying?” He said, “I am not mad.” (See H. 3282, 6048)

6116. Narrated Abū Hurairah : A man said to the Prophet, “Advise me!” The Prophet said, “Do not become angry and furious.” The man asked (the same) again and again, and the Prophet said in each case, “Do not become angry and furious.”
(77) CHAPTER. Al-Ḥaya'(1)

6117. Narrated 'Imrãn bin Ḥusain: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Al-Hayã does not bring anything except good.” Thereupon Bashîr bin Ka‘b said, “It is written in the wisdom paper: ‘Al-Hayã’ leads to solemnity; Al-Hayã’ leads to tranquillity (peace of mind.).” ‘Imrãn said to him, “I am narrating to you the saying of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and you are speaking about your paper (wisdom book)?”

6118. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ passed by a man who was admonishing his brother regarding ‘Al-Hayã’ and was saying, “You are very shy, and I am afraid that it (i.e., your shyness) might harm you.” On that, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Leave him, for Al-Hayã is (a part) of Faith.” (See H. 24)

6119. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: The Prophet ﷺ was shier than a veiled virgin girl. [See Vol. 4, Hadith No.3562]

(78) CHAPTER. “And if you do not feel ashamed, then do whatever you like.”

(1) (Ch. 77) Hayã: see the glossary.
6120. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One of the (basic) sayings of the early Nubuwwah (Prophethood) which the people have got is: ‘If you do not feel ashamed, then do whatever you like.’”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3483, 3484]

6121. Narrated Umm Salama: Umm Sulaim came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Verily, Allah does not feel shy to tell the truth. If a woman gets a nocturnal sexual discharge (has a wet dream), is it necessary for her to take a bath? He replied, “Yes, if she notices a discharge.”

[See Hadith No. 130]

6122. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of a believer is like a green tree, the leaves of which do not fall.”

The people said, “It is such and such tree, it is such and such tree (i.e., they were making a guess about that tree).” I intended to say that it was the date-palm tree, but I was a young boy and felt shy (to answer). The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is the date-palm tree.” Ibn ‘Umar added, “I told that to ‘Umar who said, ‘Had you said it, I would have preferred it to such and such a thing.’”
6123. Narrated Thābit that he heard Anas saying, “A woman came to the Prophet offering herself to him in marriage, saying, “Have you got any interest in me (i.e., would you like to marry me?)” Anas’ daughter said, “How shameless that woman was!” On that Anas said, “She is better than you for, she presented herself to Allāh’s Messenger (for marriage).”

(80) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet, “Make things easy for the people and do not make things difficult for them.” And the Prophet used to love to make things light and easy for the people.

6124. Narrated Abū Mūṣa that when Allāh’s Messenger sent him and Mu‘ādhd bin Jabal to Yemen, he said to them, “Make things easy for the people (treat the people in the most agreeable easy way), and do not make things difficult for them, and give them glad tidings, and do not repel them (i.e., to make the people hate good deeds and to run away from Islam), and you should both work in cooperation and mutual understanding, obey each other.” Abū Mūṣa said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! We are in a land in which a drink named Al-Bīr is prepared from honey and another drink named Al-Mīzr is prepared from barley.” On that, Allāh’s Messenger said, “All intoxicants (i.e., all alcoholic drinks) are prohibited.”
6125. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﺭَضِيَُمُ اللٰٰهُ عَنْهُ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Make things easy for the people, and do not make it difficult for them, and make them calm (with glad tidings) and do not repel (them) (i.e. to make them hate good deeds and to run away from Islam).”

6126. Narrated ‘Aishah ﺭَضِيَُمُ اللٰٰهُ عَنْهَا: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was given the choice of one of two matters, he would choose the easier of the two, as long as it was not sinful to do so, but if it was sinful, he would not approach it. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ never took revenge over anybody for his own sake but (he did) only when Allah’s Legal Laws and Bindings were outraged, in which case he would take revenge for Allah’s sake.” [See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3560]

6127. Narrated Al-Azraq bin Qais: We were in the city of Al-Ahwāz on the bank of a river which had dried up. Then Abu Barza Al-Aslam came riding a horse and he started offering Salât (prayer) and let his horse loose. The horse ran away, so Abu Barza interrupted his Salât (prayer) and went after the horse till he caught it and brought it, and then he offered his Salât (prayer).

There was a man amongst us who was (from the Khawarij) having a different opinion. He came saying, “Look at this old man! He left his Salât (prayer) because of a horse.” On that Abu Barza came to us and said, “Since the time I left Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, nobody has admonished me; my house is very far from this place, and if I had carried on offering Salât (prayer) and left my horse, I could not have reached my house till night.” Then Abu Barza mentioned that he had been in the company of the Prophet ﷺ, and that he had seen his leniency.

6128. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A bedouin urinated in the mosque, and the people rushed to beat him. Allah's Messenger ordered them to leave him, and pour a bucket or a tumbler (full) of water over the place where he has passed urine. The Prophet then said, "You have been sent to make things easy (for the people) and you have not been sent to make things difficult for them."

(81) CHAPTER. To be cheerful with the people.

Ibn Mas'ūd said, "Mix with the people on the condition that your religion is not injured, and joke with your family."

6129. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet used to mix with us to the extent that he would say to a younger brother of mine, "O father of 'Umair! What did An-Nughair (a kind of bird) do (rhyming the words 'Umair' and 'Nughair')?"

6130. Narrated 'Aishah: I used to play with the dolls in the presence of the Prophet, and my girl friends also used to play with me. When Allāh's Messenger used to enter (my dwelling place), they used to hide themselves, but the Prophet would call them to join and play with me.

(The playing with the dolls and similar images is forbidden, but it was allowed for 'Āishah at that time, as she was a little girl, not yet reached the age of puberty.)

[See Fath Al-Bārî]

(82) CHAPTER. To be gentle and polite with the people.

It has been mentioned that Abu Ad-Dardā’ said, “We give a smile for some people while our hearts curse them.”

6131. Narrated 'Āishah: A man asked permission to see the Prophet. He said, “Let him come in. What an evil man of the tribe he is!” Or said, “What an evil brother of the tribe he is.” But when he entered, the Prophet spoke to him gently, in a polite manner. I said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger! You have said what you have said, then you spoke to him in a very gentle and polite manner?” The Prophet said, “The worst people to Allah are those whom the people leave (undisturbed) to save themselves from their dirty language.”

6132. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abū Mulaika: The Prophet was given a gift of a few silken cloaks decorated with gold buttons. He distributed them amongst some of his Companions and put aside one of them for Makhrama. When Makhrama came, the Prophet said, “I kept this for you.” (Ayyūb, the subnarrator held his garment to show how the Prophet showed the cloak to Makhrama who had something unfavourable about his temper.)
(83) CHAPTER. A believer is not to be stung twice (by something) out of one and the same hole. (1)

And Mu‘awiya said, “No one can be wise except the one with experience.”

6133. Narrated Abū Hurairah
The Prophet said, “A believer is not stung twice (by something) out of one and the same hole.”

(84) CHAPTER. The right of the guest.

6134. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr
Allah’s Messenger entered upon me and said, “Have I not been informed that you offer Ṣalāt (prayer) all the night and observe Saum (fast) the whole day?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Do not do so; offer Ṣalāt (prayer) at night and also sleep; observe Saum (fast) for a few days and give up fasting for a few days because your body has a right on you, and your eye has a right on you, and your guest has a right on you, and your wife has a right on you. I hope that you will have a long life, and it is sufficient for you to observe Saum (fast) for three days a month as the reward of a good deed is multiplied ten times, (that means), if you observed Saum

(1) (Ch. 83) A believer should be on the alert and benefit by his experience to avoid faults in future and is not deceived twice.
(fast) the whole year.” I insisted (on fasting more) so I was given a hard instruction. I said, “I can do more than that (fasting).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Observe Saum (fast) three days every week.” But as I insisted (on fasting more) so I was burdened. I said, “I can observe Saum more than that.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Observe Saum (fast) as Allâh’s Prophet Dawûd (David) used to observe Saum (fast).” I said “How was the fasting of the Prophet Dawûd?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Half of a year [i.e., he used to observe Saum (fast) on alternate days].”

85) CHAPTER. To honour one’s guest and to serve him with one’s own hands.
And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ: “(Has the story reached you) of the honoured guests [three angels; Jibrîl (Gabriel) along with another two] of Ibrâhîm (Abraham)?” (V.51:24)

6135. Narrated Abû Shurâih Al-Kabî: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whosoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day, should entertain his guest generously. The guest’s reward is: To provide him with a superior type of food for a night and a day, and a guest is to be entertained for three days, and whatever is offered beyond that, is regarded as something given in Sadaqa (charitable gift). And it is not lawful for a guest to stay with his host for such a long period so as to put him in a critical position."

Narrated Mālik similarly as above adding: "Whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day should talk what is good or keep quiet." (i.e., abstain from dirty and evil talk, and should think before uttering).

6136. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet sa said, “Whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day, should not harm his neighbour; and whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day, should entertain his guest generously and whosoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day, should talk what is good or keep quiet.”

6137. Narrated 'Uqba bin 'Āmir

We said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You send us out and it happens that we have to stay with such people as do not entertain us. What do you think about it?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to us, “If you stay with some people and they entertain you as they should for a guest, accept it; but if they do not do then you should take from them the right of the guest, which they ought to give.”
6138. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whosoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, should entertain his guest generously; and whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, should unite the bond of kinship (i.e., keep good relation with his kith and kin); and whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day, should talk what is good or keep quiet.”

(86) CHAPTER. To prepare the meals and to trouble oneself for the guest.

6139. Narrated Abu Juhaifa: The Prophet established a bond of brotherhood between Salman and Abu Ad-Darda’. Salman paid a visit to Abu Ad-Darda’ and found Umm Ad-Darda’ dressed in shabby clothes and asked her why she was in that state? She replied, “Your brother, Abu Ad-Darda’ is not interested in the luxuries of this world.” In the meantime Abu Ad-Darda’ came and prepared a meal for him (Salman), and said to him, “(Please) eat for I am fasting.” Salman said, “I am not going to eat, unless you eat (too).” So Abu Ad-Darda’ ate. When it was night, Abu Ad-Darda’ got up [for the night Salat (prayer)]. Salman said to him, “Sleep” and he slept. Again Abu Ad-Darda’ got up (for the Salat), and Salman said to him, “Sleep.” When it was the last part of the night, Salman said to him, “Get up now [for the Salat (prayer)].” So both of them offered their Salat (prayer) and Salman said to Abu Ad-Darda’, “Your Lord (Allah) has a right on you; and your ownself has a right on you; and your family has a right on you; so you should give the rights of all those who have a right on you”. Later on Abu Ad-Dardā visited the Prophet ﷺ and mentioned that to him. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Salmān has spoken the truth.”

(87) CHAPTER. What is disliked as regard anger and impatience before a guest.

6140. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakr رضي الله عنهما: Abū Bakr invited a group of people and told me, “Look after your guests.” Abū Bakr added, “I am going to visit the Prophet ﷺ, and you should finish serving them before I return.” ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, “So I went at once and served them with what was available at that time in the house and requested them to eat.” They said, “Where is the owner of the house (i.e., Abū Bakr)”? ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, “Take your meal.” They said, “We will not eat until the owner of the house comes.” ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, “Accept your meal from us, for if my father comes and finds you not having taken your meals yet, we will be blamed severely by him” but they refused to take their meals. So I was sure that my father would be angry with me. When he came, I went away (to hide myself) from him. He asked, “What have you done (about the guests)?” They informed him the whole story. Abū Bakr called, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmān!” I kept quiet. He then called again, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmān!” I kept quiet and he called again, “O ignorant (boy)! I beseech you by Allah, if you hear my voice, then come out!” I came out and said, “Please ask your guests (and do not be angry with me).” They said, “He has told the truth; he brought the meal to us.” Abū Bakr said, “As you have been waiting for me, by Allah, I will not eat of it tonight.” They said, “By Allah, we will not eat of it till you eat of it." He said, "I have never seen a night like this night in evil. What is wrong with you? Why don’t you accept your meals of hospitality from us?" (He said to me), "Bring your meal." I brought it to him, and he put his hand in it, saying, "In the Name of Allah. The first (state of fury) was because of Satan." So Abū Bakr ate and so did his guests.

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3581]

(88) CHAPTER. The saying of a guest to his host: "By Allah, I will not eat till you eat."

This is narrated by Abū Juhaifa that the Prophet ﷺ said so.

6141. Narrated ‘Abdūr-Raḥmān bin Abū Bakr رضي الله عنهما: Abū Bakr came with a guest or some guests, but he stayed late at night with the Prophet ﷺ, and when he came, my mother said (to him), "Have you been detained from your guest or guests tonight?" He said, "Have you served the supper to them?" She replied, "We presented the meal to him or to them, but he or they refused to eat." Abū Bakr became angry, rebuked me and invoked Allah to cause (my) ears to be cut and swore not to eat of it!" I hid myself, and he called me, "O ignorant (boy)!” Abū Bakr’s wife swore that she would not eat of it and so the guests or the guest swore that they would not eat of it till he (Abū Bakr) ate of it. Abū Bakr said, "All that happened was from Satan." So he asked for the meals and ate of it, and so did they. Whenever they took a handful of the meal, the meal grew (increased) from underneath more than that mouthful. He said (to his wife), "O sister of Banī Firās! What is this?" She said, "O pleasure of my eyes! The meal is now more than it had been before we started eating." So they ate of it. and sent the rest of that meal to the Prophet ﷺ. It is said that the Prophet ﷺ also ate of it.

(89) CHAPTER. To respect the old ones, and the elder one should start talking or asking.

6142, 6143. Narrated Râfi' bin Khadij and Sahl bin Abû Hathma: 'Abdullâh bin Sahl and Muḥaiyîsa bin Mas'ûd went to Khaibar and they dispersed in the gardens of the date-palm trees where 'Abdullâh bin Sahl was murdered. Then 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Sahl, Ḥuwayîya and Muḥaiyîsa, the two sons of Mas'ûd, came to the Prophet ﷺ and spoke about the case of their (murdered) friend. 'Abdur-Rahmân, who was the youngest of them all, started talking. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Let the older (among you) speak first." So they spoke about the case of their (murdered) friend. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Will fifty of you take an oath whereby you will have the right to receive the blood money of your murdered man" or said, "... your companion". They said, "O Allah's Messenger! The murder was a thing we did not witness." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then the Jews will release you from the oath, if fifty of them (the Jews) should take an oath to contradict your claim." They said, "O Allah's Messenger! They are disbelievers (and they will take a false oath)." Then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ himself paid the blood money to them.

Sahl added, "I came upon a she-camel from those camels (which was given in blood money), while I entered their stable, it hit me with its leg.”

6144. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “Inform me of a tree which resembles a Muslim, giving its fruits at every season by the permission of its Lord (Allah), and the leaves of which do not fall.” I thought of the date-palm tree, but I disliked to speak because Abū Bakr and ‘Umar were present there. When nobody spoke, the Prophet said, “It is the date-palm tree.” When I came out with my father, I said, “O father! It came to my mind that it was the date-palm tree.” He said, “What prevented you from saying it? Had you said it, it would have been more dearer to me than such and such a thing (fortune).” I said, “Nothing prevented me but the fact that neither you nor Abū Bakr spoke, so I disliked to speak (in your presence).”

(90) CHAPTER. What kinds of poetry, Rajaz(1) and Huda(2) is allowed and what kinds thereof are disliked.

And the Statement of Allāh

(1) (Ch. 90) Rajaz: name of a poetical metre.
(2) (Ch. 90) Huda’: chanting of camel-drivers, keeping time to the camels’ paces.
"As for the poets, the erring ones follow them. See you not that they speak about every subject (praising people — right or wrong) in their poetry? And that they say what they do not do. Except those who believe (in the Oneness of Allah — Islamic Monotheism), and do righteous deeds, and remember Allah much, and vindicate themselves after they have been wronged [by replying back (in poetry) to the unjust poetry (which the pagan poets utter against the Muslims)]. And those who do wrong will come to know by what overturning they will be overturned." (V.26:224-227)

And Ibn 'Abbas said, "They speak about all vague talks."

6146. Narrated Jundub: While the Prophet ﷺ was walking, a stone hit his foot and he stumbled and his toe (was injured and) bled. He then (quoting a poetic verse) said, "You are not more than a toe which has been bathed in blood in Allah's Cause."

6147. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The most true words said by a poet was the words of Labid. He said, ‘Verily, except Allāh everything is Batilu (perishable) and Umāiyya bīn Abī Aṣ-Ṣalt was about to embrace Islām.’”

[See Vol. 5, Ḥadīth No 3841]

6148. Narrated Salama bīn Al-Akwa’ : We went out with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to Khaibar and we travelled during the night. A man amongst the people said to ‘Āmir bīn Al-Akwa’, “Won’t you let us hear your poetry?” ‘Āmir was a poet, and so he got down and started (chanting Ḥudā) reciting for the people poetry that kept pace with the camel’s footsteps, saying:

“O Allāh! Without You we would not have been guided on the right path, neither would we have given in charity, nor would we have offered Ṣalāt (prayer). So please forgive us what we have committed. Let all of us be sacrificed for Your Cause (Jihād) and when we meet our enemy, make our feet firm, and bestow peace and calmness on us and if they (our enemy) will call us towards an unjust thing we will refuse. The infidels have made a hue and cry to ask others help against us”.

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Who is that driver (of the camels)?” They said, “He is ‘Āmir bīn Al-Akwa’. He said, “May Allāh bestow His Mercy on him.” A man among the people said, “Has martyrdom been granted to him, O Allāh’s Prophet! Would that you let us enjoy his company longer.” We reached (the people of) Khaibar and besieged them till we were stricken with severe hunger but Allāh helped the Muslims conquer Khaibar. In the evening of its conquest the people made many fires. Allah’s Messenger asked, “What are those fires? For what are you making fires?” They said, “For cooking meat.” He asked, “What kind of meat?” They said, “Donkeys’ meat.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Throw away the meat and break the cooking pots.” A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we throw away the meat and wash the cooking pots?” He said, “You can do that, too.” When the army files were aligned in rows (for the battle), ‘Amir’s sword was a short one, and while attacking a Jew with it in order to hit him, the sharp edge of the sword turned back and hit ‘Amir’s knee and caused him to die. When the Muslims returned (from the battle), Salama said: Allah’s Messenger saw me pale and said, “What is wrong with you?” I said, “Let my parents be sacrificed for you! The people claim that all the deeds of ‘Amir have been annulled.” The Prophet asked, “Who said so?” I replied, “So-and-so and so-and-so and so-and-so and Usaid bin Al-Huḍair Al-Anṣārī.” Then Allah’s Messenger said, “Whoever says so is telling a lie. Verily, ‘Amir will have double reward.” (While speaking) the Prophet put two of his fingers together to indicate that, and added, “He was really a hard-working man and a Mujāhid (devout fighter in Allah’s Cause) and rarely have there lived in it (i.e., Al-Madina or the battlefield) an Arab like him.”

6149. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet came to some of his wives among whom there was Umm Sulaim, and said, “May Allah be Merciful to you, O Anjasha!” Drive the camels slowly, as they are carrying glass vessels!’ (1) Abū Qilāba said, “The Prophet said a sentence (i.e., the above metaphor) which, had anyone of you said it, you would have admonished him for it.” (2) [i.e., women being compared to glass vessels]

(91) CHAPTER. Lampooning Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ).

6150. Narrated ‘Āishah RA: Hassan bin Thābit asked the permission of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to lampoon Al-Mushrikūn (in his poetry). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What about my forefathers (ancestry)?” Hassan said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “I will take you out of them as a hair is taken out of dough.”

Narrarted Hishām bin ‘Urwa that his father said, “I called Hassan with bad names in front of ‘Āishah.” She said, “Don’t call him with bad names because he used to defend Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (against Al-Mushrikūn with his poetry).”

6151. Narrated Al-Haitham bin Abū Sinān that he heard Abū Hurairah in his narration, mentioning that the Prophet ﷺ

(1) (H. 6149) Women are compared to glass vessels because of their tenderness and vulnerability.
(2) (H. 6149) Abū Qilāba means that such a metaphor was only to be accepted from an eloquent person like the Prophet ﷺ (i.e. women — as glass vessels).
said, “A Muslim brother of yours who does not say dirty words.” And by that he meant Ibn Rawāha, who (in his poetry) said: ‘We have Allāh’s Messenger with us who recites Allāh’s Book (the Noble Qur’ān) in the early morning time. He gave us guidance and light while we were blind and astray, so our hearts are sure that whatever he says, will certainly happen. He does not touch his bed at night, being busy in worshipping Allāh while Al-Mushrikuin (the pagans etc.) are sound asleep in their beds.’ ”

6152. Narrated Abū Salama bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Aṭīf that he heard Ḥassān bin Thābit Al-Ansārī asking the witness of Abū Hurairah, saying, “O Abū Hurairah! I beseech you by Allāh (to tell me). Did you hear Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying ‘O Ḥassān! Reply on behalf of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. O Allāh! Support him (Ḥassān) with the Rūḥ-ul-Qudus [i.e., angel Jibril (Gabriel)]?’” Abū Hurairah said, “Yes.”
6153. Narrated Al-Barā’ ibn ‘Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said to Ḥassān, “Lampoon them (Al-Mushrikūn — the pagans etc.) in your poetry, and Jibril (Gabriel) is with you.”

(92) CHAPTER. It is disliked for one to indulge in poetry to the extent that it diverts him from Allāh’s remembrance, and from (religious) knowledge and from (recitation of) the Qur’ān.

6154. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is better for a man to fill the inside of his body with pus than to fill it with poetry.”

6155. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is better for anyone of you that the inside of his body be filled with pus which may consume his body, than it be filled with poetry.”

(93) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: Taribat yaminuka (may your right hand be in dust)! and Agra ḥalqa. (It is just an exclamatory expression, the literal meaning of which is not meant here. It expresses disapproval.)

(1) (Ch. 93) The literal meaning of the expression is not intended. It is just an expression of exhortation, meaning, if you do not do what I tell you, you will lose great advantage and win nothing but dust.
6156. Narrated 'Āishah: Aflah, the brother of Abul-Qu'ais asked my permission to enter after the verses of Al-Hijāb (veiling of ladies) were revealed, and I said, “By Allah, I will not admit him, unless I take permission of Allah’s Messenger for it was not the brother of Abul-Qu'ais who had suckled me, but it was the wife of Abul-Qu'ais who had suckled me.” Then Allah’s Messenger entered upon me, and I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The man has not nursed me but his wife has nurssed me.” He said, “Admit him because he is your uncle (not from blood relation, but because you have been nursed by his wife), Taribat yaminuki.” ‘Urwa said, “Because of this reason, ‘Āishah used to say: Foster suckling relations render all those things (marriages etc.) illegal which are illegal because of the corresponding blood relations.”

[See Vol. 7, Hadith No. 5099]

6157. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet intended to return home after the performance of the Hajj, and he saw Ṣafiyya standing at the entrance of her tent, depressed and sad because she got her menses. The Prophet said, “Aqra halqā!” — an expression used in the Quraish dialect — “You will detain us.” The Prophet then asked (her), “Did you perform the Tawāf-al-Ifada on the day of Sacrifice (10th of Dhul-Hijja?” She said, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Then you can leave (with us).”

(94) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) “They assumed or claimed that…”

6158. Narrated Umm Hāni, the daughter of Abū Ṭalib: I visited Allah’s...
Messenger in the year of the conquest of Makkah and found him taking a bath, and his daughter, Fatima was screening him. When I greeted him, he said, "Who is it?" I replied, "I am Umm Hanî, the daughter of Abû Talib." He said, "Welcome, O Umm Hanî!" When the Prophet had finished his bath, he stood up and offered eight Rak'a of Salât (prayer) while he was wrapped in a single garment. When he had finished his Salât (prayer), I said, "O Allah's Messenger! My maternal brother assumes (or claims) that he will murder some man whom I have given shelter, i.e., so-and-so bin Hubaira." Allah's Messenger said, "O Umm Hanî! We shelter him whom you have sheltered." Umm Hanî added, "That happened in the forenoon."

(95) CHAPTER. What is said about one's saying: "Wailaka (woe to you)."

6159. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw a man driving a Badana (a camel for sacrifice) and said (to him): "Ride on it." The man said, "It is a Badana." The Prophet said, "Ride on it." The man said, "It is a Badana." The Prophet said, "Ride on it, Wailaka (woe to you)!

6160. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger saw a man driving a Badana (a camel for sacrifice) and said to him, “Ride on it.” The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! It is a Badana.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ride on it, Wailaka (woe to you!”) on the second or third time.

6161. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was on a journey and he had a black slave called Anjasha, and he was driving the camels (very fast, and there were women riding on those camels). Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Wailaka (may Allah be Merciful to you) O Anjasha! Drive slowly (the camels) with the glass vessels (women)!”

6162. Narrated Abu Bakra: A man praised another man in front of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said thrice, “Wailaka (woe to you)! You have cut the neck of your brother!” The Prophet ﷺ added, “If it is indispensable for anyone of you to praise a person, then he should say, “I think that such and such person (is so-and-so), and Allah is the One Who will take his accounts (as He knows his reality) and none can sanctify anybody before Allah (and that should be only if he knows well about that person).”

6163. Narrated Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri ﷺ: While the Prophet ﷺ was distributing (war booty etc.) one day, Dhul-Khuwaïsira, a man from the tribe of Bani Tamim, said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Act justly.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Woe to you! Who else would act justly if I did not act justly?” Umar said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Allow me to chop his neck off.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No, for he has companions (who are apparently so pious that) if anyone [of you] compares [his Salāt (prayer) with] their Salāt, he will consider his Salāt (prayer) inferior to theirs, and similarly his Saum (fasting) inferior to theirs, but they will desert Islam (go out of religion) as an arrow goes through the victim’s body (game etc.) in which case if its Nasl(1) is examined nothing will be seen thereon, and its Nady(1) is examined, nothing will be seen thereon, and if its Qudadh(1) is examined, nothing will be seen thereon, for the arrow has gone out very fast even for the excretions and blood to smear over it. Such people will come out at the time of difference among the (Muslim) people, and the sign by which they will be recognized will be a man whose one of the two hands will look like the breast of a woman or a lump of flesh moving loosely.”

Abū Sa‘īd added, “I testify that I heard that from the Prophet ﷺ and also testify that I was with ‘Alī (bin Abī Talib) when ‘Alī fought against those people. The man described by the Prophet ﷺ was searched for among the killed, and was found, and he was exactly as the Prophet ﷺ had described him.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 36101]

6164. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ:
A man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I am ruined!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Wa‘ihaka (may Allah be Merciful to you)!” The man said, “I have done sexual intercourse with my wife while observing Saum (fasts) in the month of Ramadān.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Manumit a slave.” The man said, “I cannot afford that." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then observe Saum (fast) for two successive months." The man said, "I have no strength to do so." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then feed sixty Miskin (poor persons)." The man said, "I have nothing (to feed sixty persons)."

Later a basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he said (to the man), "Take it and give it in charity." The man said, "O Allah’s Messenger! Shall I give it to people other than my family? By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, there is nobody poorer than me in the whole city of Al-Madina." The Prophet ﷺ smiled till his premolar teeth became visible, and said, "Take it." Aẓ-Ẓuhrī said (that the Prophet ﷺ said), "Wa’laka." (1)

6165. Narrated Āḇū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: A bedouin said, "O Allah’s Messenger! Inform me about the emigration." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Wa’laka (may Allah be Merciful to you)! The question of emigration is a difficult one. Have you got some camels?" The bedouin said, "Yes." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Do you pay their Zakāt?" He said, "Yes." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Go on doing like this from beyond the seas, for Allah will not let your deeds go in vain."

6166. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Wa’lakum (woe to you)! or Waihakum (may Allah be Merciful to you)!” (Shu‘ba is not sure as to which was the right word.) “Do not become disbelievers after me by cutting the necks of one another.”

6167. Narrated Anas: A bedouin came and asked the Prophet ﷺ, “O Allah’s Messenger! When will the Hour be established?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Wailaka (woe to you)! What have you prepared for it?” The bedouin said, “I have not prepared anything for it, except that I love Allah and His Messenger ﷺ.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will be with those whom you love.” We (the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ) said, “And will we, too, be so?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” So we became very glad on that day. In the meantime, a slave of Al-Mughîra passed by, and he was of the same age as I was. The Prophet said, “If this (slave) should live long, he will not reach the senile old age, but the Hour will be established.”

(96) CHAPTER. The signs of loving (others

(1) (H. 6167) The Prophet ﷺ means by the Hour here, the death of all the persons he was addressing then.
for the sake of) Allah as the Statement of Allah indicates:

"Say (O Muhammad ﷺ to mankind): If you (really) love Allah then follow me [i.e., accept Islamic Monotheism, follow the Qur’an and the Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ)]; Allah will love you..."

(V.3:31)

6168. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Everyone will be with those whom he loves.”

6169. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd ﷺ: A man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What do you say about a man who loves some people but cannot catch up with their good deeds?” Allah’s Messenger said, “Everyone will be with those whom he loves.”

(1) (H. 6169) i.e., in Paradise in spite of the fact that his good deeds, will be less than theirs.
6171. Narrated Anas bin Malik: A man asked the Prophet, “When will the Hour be established, O Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet said, “What have you prepared for it?” The man said, “I haven’t prepared for it much of Salât (prayers) or Saum (fast) or Sadaqa (charity), but I love Allah and His Messenger.” The Prophet said, “You will be with those whom you love.”

(97) CHAPTER. The saying of one man to another: Ikhsā (1)

(97) BAB. Qawl al-ragil li-l-ragil:

6172. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allah’s Messenger said to Ibn Šā‘id “I have hidden something for you in my mind; what is it?” He said, “Ad-Dukh.” (2) The Prophet said, “Ikhsā (you should be ashamed).”

(1) (Ch. 97) ‘Ikhsā’ is originally used as a word of rebuke said to a dog to dismiss something. It is also used to rebuke a person who says or does something improper by which he may incur Allah’s Wrath. It means: Stop talking and go away with shame and humiliation.

(2) (H. 6172) Ibn Šā‘id who was said to be a soothsayer, guessed part of the word which the Prophet had in mind. He said, ‘Ad-Dukh’ while it was ‘Ad-Dukhān’ i.e., smoke.
companions to Ibn Saiyyād. They found him playing with the boys in the fort or near the hillocks of Bānī Maghāla. Ibn Saiyyād was nearing his puberty at that time, and he did not notice the arrival of the Prophet till Allah’s Messenger stroked him on the back with his hand and said, “Do you testify that I am Allah’s Messenger?” Ibn Saiyyād looked at him and said, “I testify that you are the Messenger of the unlettered ones, illiterates.” (1) Then Ibn Saiyyād said to the Prophet, “Do you testify that I am Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet denied that saying, “I believe in Allah and all His Messengers,” and then said to Ibn Saiyyād, “What do you see?” Ibn Saiyyād said, “True people and liars visit me.” The Prophet said, “You have been confused as to this matter.” Allah’s Messenger added, “I have kept something for you (in my mind).” Ibn Saiyyād said, “Ad-Dukh.” The Prophet said, “Ikhsā’ (you should be ashamed) for you can not cross your limits.” ‘Umar said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allow me to chop off his neck.” Allah’s Messenger said to ‘Umar, “Should this person be him (i.e., Ad-Dajjāl) then you cannot overpower him; and should he be someone else, then it will be no use your killing him.”

6174. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar added: Later on Allah’s Messenger and Ubayy bin Ka‘b Al-Anṣārī (once again) went to the garden in which Ibn Saiyyād was present. When Allah’s Messenger entered the garden, he started hiding behind the trunks of the date-palms intending to hear something from Ibn Saiyyad before the latter could see him. Ibn Saiyyad was lying on his bed, covered with a velvet sheet from where his murmur were heard. Ibn Saiyyad’s mother saw the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Saf (the nickname of Ibn Saiyyad)! Here is Muḥammad!” Ibn Saiyyad stopped his murmuring. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If his mother had kept quiet, then I would have learnt more about him.”

(1) (H. 6173) ‘The unlettered ones’ means the Arabs.

6175. ‘Abdullāh added: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up before the people [delivering a Khutba (religious talk)], and after praising and glorifying Allāh as He deserved, he mentioned Ad-Dajjal saying, “I warn you against him, and there has been no Prophet but warned his followers against him. Nūḥ (Noah) warned his followers against him. But I am telling you about him something which no Prophet has told his people of, and that is: Know that he is blind in one eye, whereas Allāh is not so.”

(98) CHAPTER. The saying of somebody to another: Marḥaba (i.e., welcome).

And ‘Āishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ said to Fāṭima ﷺ, ‘Welcome, O my daughter!’ ” And Umm Ḥānî said, “I came to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, ‘Welcome, O Umm Hani!’”

6176. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: When the delegation of ‘Abdul-Qais came to the Prophet ﷺ, he said, “Welcome, O the delegation who have come! Neither you will have disgrace, nor you will regret.” They said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We are a group from the tribe of Ar-Rabi’a, and between you and us there is the tribe of Mu’dar and we cannot come to you except in the sacred months. So please order us to do something good (religious deeds) so that we may enter Paradise by doing that, and also that we may order our people who are behind us (whom we have left behind at home) to follow it.”

He said, “Four and four: Iqamat As-9ahii (the prayer) (1), pay the Zakât, observe Saum (fasts) in the month of Ramadân, and give one-fifth of the war booty (in Allâh’s Cause). And do not drink in (containers called) Ad-Dubba’, Al-Hantam, An-Naqir and Al-Muzaffat.”(2)

(99) CHAPTER. Calling the people by their father’s name (on the Day of Resurrection).

6177. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “For every betrayer (perfidious person), a flag will be raised on the Day of Resurrection, and it will be announced (publicly), ‘This is the betrayal (perfidy) of so-and-so, the son of so-and-so.’ ”

(1) (H. 6176) See “Iqamat-as-Salât” in the glossary.
(2) (H. 6175) These are the names of four containers in which alcoholic drinks were used to be prepared.
6178. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger said, "A flag will be fixed on the Day of Resurrection for every betrayer (perfidious person) and it will be announced (publicly in front of everybody), 'This is the betrayal (perfidy) of so-and-so, the son of so-and-so.'"

6179. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, "None of you should say 'Khabuthat nafsi', but he is recommended to say 'Laqisat nafsi'(1).

6180. Narrated Sahl (bin Hunaif): The Prophet said, "None of you should say 'Khabuthat nafsi' but he is recommended to say 'Laqisat nafsi'."

[See the footnote of Hadith No. 6179]

6181. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Allah said, 'The offspring of Adam abuses Ad-Dahr (the Time), and I am Ad-Dahr'; in My Hands (2).

(1) (H. 6179) Both expressions give the same meaning, but the first one (Khabuthat nafsi) has other meanings as well, e.g., I have become wicked. 'Laqisat nafsi' means only 'I have been overcome by nausea because of a full stomach.' This is why the Prophet recommended the last expression which has no unpleasant connotations.

(2) (H. 6181) 'I am Ad-Dahr' means; 'I am the Creator of time, and I manage the affairs= are the night and the day.”
[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4826; also see Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7491]

6182. Narrated Abū Hurairah [رضي الله عنه]:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t call the grapes Al-Karn, and don’t say ‘Khaibat-ad-Dahr’(1) for Allāh is Ad-Dahr (the Time).”

(102) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Al-Karn is only the heart of a believer(2).”

And the Prophet ﷺ also said: “The true bankrupt is only the one who will be a bankrupt on the Day of Resurrection,” and he said, “The strong person is only the one, who controls himself at the time of anger.” And also his statement: “The kingdom belongs to none but Allāh.” So the Prophet ﷺ described Allāh as the Absolute King, the Only Real King. He also mentioned about the kings (saying): “(She said:) Verily kings, when they enter a town (country), they despoil it…” (V.27:34)

6183. Narrated Abū Hurairah [رضي الله عنه]:
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, [“Do not call (or name) the grapes ‘Al-Karn’]. And they say

=of all creation including time.’ One should not attribute anything, whether cheerful or disastrous, to time, for everything is in the Hands of Allāh, and only He is the Disposer of everything.

(1) (H. 6182) ‘Khaibat-ad-Dahr’ means: ‘Frustrated be time’ ‘Allāh is the Dahr’ means Allāh is the Owner of time. He is the One who Disposes of everything, and He is the One Who Has created time.

(2) (Ch. 102) The believer’s heart is more entitled to be called Al-Karn which mean ‘the generous’.
Al-Karm (the generous), and Al-Karm is only the heart of a believer.”

(103) CHAPTER. The saying of someone (to another): “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you”.

This has been narrated by Az-Zubair that the Prophet ﷺ said so.

(104) CHAPTER. The saying of somebody (to another): “May Allah sacrifice me for you”.

And Abu Bakr said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Let our fathers and mothers be sacrificed for you.”

6185. Narrated Anas bin Malik that he and Abu Talha were coming in the company of the Prophet ﷺ (towards Al-Madina), while Sa’fiyya (the Prophet’s wife) was riding behind him on his she-camel. After they had covered a portion of the journey, suddenly the foot of the she-camel slipped and both the Prophet ﷺ and the woman (i.e., his wife, Sa’fiyya) fell down. Abu Talha jumped quickly off his camel and came to the Prophet ﷺ (saying,) “O Allah’s Messenger! Let Allah sacrifice me for you! Have you... received any injury?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No, but take care of the woman (my wife).” Abū Ṭalḥa covered his face with his garment and went towards her and threw his garment over her. Then the woman got up and Abū Ṭalḥa prepared their she-camel (by tightening its saddle, etc.) and both of them (the Prophet ﷺ and Ṣafīyya) mounted it. Then all of them proceeded and when they approached near Al-Madīna, or saw Al-Madīna, the Prophet ﷺ said, “ʿAyibūn, taʿibūn, ʿābidūn, li-Rabbīna ḥāmidūn.” [We are coming back (to Al-Madīna) with repentance, worshiping (our Lord) and glorifying His (our Lord’s) Praises.] The Prophet ﷺ continued repeating these words till he entered the city of Al-Madīna.

(105) CHAPTER. The most beloved names to Allāh عَزَّ وَجَلَّ.

6186. Narrated Jabir ibn ʿAbd Allāh: A boy was born to a man among us, and the man named him Al-Qāsim. We said to him, “We will not call you Abūl-Qāsim, nor will we respect you for that.” The Prophet ﷺ was informed about that, and he said, “Name your son ʿAbdūr-Raḥmān.”

(106) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Name yourselves by my name, but do not call yourselves by my Kunyah.”

This is narrated by Anas on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

6187. Narrated Jabir ibn ʿAbd Allāh: A man among us begot a boy whom he named Al-
Qāsīm. The people said, “We will not call him (i.e., the father) by that kunyah (Abūl-Qāsīm) till we ask the Prophet about it.” The Prophet said, “Name yourselves by my name, but do not call (yourselves) by my kunyah.”

6188. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Abūl-Qāsīm (the Prophet) said, “Name yourselves by my name, but do not call yourselves by my kunyah.”

6189. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: A man among us begot a boy whom he named Al-Qāsīm. The people said (to him), “We will not call you Abūl-Qāsīm, nor will we please you by calling you so.” The man came to the Prophet and mentioned that to him. The Prophet said to him, “Name your son ‘Abdur-Raḥmān.”

(107) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the name: Al-Hazn (literally: means hard, rough ground).

6190. Narrated Al-Musaiyyab that his father (Hazn bin Wāḥb) went to the Prophet and the Prophet asked (him), “What is your name?” He replied, “My name is Hazn.” The Prophet said, “You are Sahl.” Hazn said, “I will not change the name with which my father has named me.” Ibn Al-Musaiyyab added, “We have had roughness (in character) ever since.”

Narrated Al-Musaiyyab on the authority of his father similarly as above.

(108) CHAPTER. To change a name for another name which is better than the first.

6191. Narrated Sahl: When Al-Mundhir bin Abû Usaid was born, he was brought to the Prophet who placed him on his thigh. While Abû Usaid was sitting there, the Prophet was busy with something in his hands so Abû Usaid told someone to take his son from the thigh of the Prophet. When the Prophet finished his job (with which he was busy), he said, “Where is the boy?” Abû Usaid replied, “We have sent him home.” The Prophet said, “What is his name?” Abû Usaid said, “(His name is) so-and-so.” The Prophet said, “No, his name is Al-Mundhir.” From that day the boy was called as Al-Mundhir.

6192. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Zainab’s original name was “Barrah”(1) but it was said, “By that she is giving herself the prestige of piety.” So the Prophet changed her name to Zainab.

6193. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab that when his grandfather, Ḥazn(1) visited the Prophet(2), the Prophet(3) said (to him), “What is your name?” He said, “My name is Ḥazn.” The Prophet(4) said, “But you are Sahl.”(2) He said, “I will not change my name with which my father named me.” Ibn Al-Musaiyab added, “So we have had roughness (in character) ever since.”

(109) CHAPTER. Whoever named (his children) by the names of the Prophets.

And Anas said, “The Prophet kissed his son, Ibrāhīm.”

6194. Narrated Isma‘īl: I asked Abī ‘Aufā, “Did you see Ibrāhīm, the son of the Prophet?” He said, “Yes, but he died in his early childhood. Had there been a Prophet after Muḥammad then his son would have lived, but there is no Prophet after him.”

6195. Narrated Al-Barā’ : When Ibrāhīm(5) (the son of the Prophet)

(1) (H. 6193) ‘Hazn’ means rough, hard ground.
(2) (H. 6193) ‘Sahl’ is the opposite of ‘Ḥazn’, i.e. even, soft ground.
died, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is a wet nurse for him in Paradise.”

6196. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh Al-Ansârî: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Name yourselves after me (by my name) but do not call (yourselves) by my Kunyah(1), for I am Al-Qasim (distributor), and I distribute among you Allâh’s Blessings.” This narration has also come on the authority of Anas that the Prophet ﷺ said so.”

6197. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Name yourselves after me (by my name), but do not call yourselves by my Kunyah, and whoever sees me in a dream, he surely sees me, for Satan cannot impersonate me (appear in my figure). And whoever intentionally ascribes something to me falsely, he will surely take his place in the (Hell) Fire.” (See H. 110)

6198. Narrated Abû Müsâ: I got a son and I took him to the Prophet ﷺ who named him Ibrâhîm, and put in his mouth the juice of a date-fruit (which he himself had chewed), and invoked for Allâh’s Blessing upon him, and then gave him back to me. He was the eldest son of Abû Müsâ.

(1) (H. 6196) Al-Kunyah: See the footnote of H. 6187 and Chap. 106.
6199. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba: Solar eclipse occurred on the day of Ibrāhīm's death (the Prophet's son).

(110) CHAPTER. To name 'Al-Walid.'

6200. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When the Prophet (once) raised his head after bowing [in the Salāt (prayer)] he said, "O Allāh, save Al-Walid bin Al-Walid and Salama bin Hishām and ‘Ayyāsh bin Abū Rabī‘a and the helpless weak believers of Makkah. O Allāh, be hard on the tribe of Mudar. O Allāh, send on them (famine-drought) years like the (famine-drought) years of (the Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph)."

(111) CHAPTER. Whoever, while calling a friend, omits a letter from his name.

Abū Hurairah said, “Once the Prophet called me, ‘O Abū Hirr!’”

6201. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet: Allāh's Messenger said, “O ‘Aish! This is Jibril (Gabriel) sending his greetings to you.” I said, “Peace, and Allāh's Mercy be on him.” ‘Aishah added: The Prophet used to see things which we used not to see.

6202. Narrated Anas: Once Umm Sulaim was (with the women who were) in charge of the luggage on a journey, and Anjasha, the slave of the Prophet, was driving their camels (very fast). The Prophet said, “O Anjash! Drive slowly (the camels) with the glass vessels (i.e., ladies).”

(112) CHAPTER. A child may be given Al-Kunyah(1) and one may be given Al-Kunyah before one has children.

6203. Narrated Anas: The Prophet was the best of all the people in character. I had a brother called Abū ‘Umair, who, I think, had been newly weaned. Whenever he (that child) was brought to the Prophet, the Prophet used to say, “O Abū ‘Umair! What did An-Nughair (nightingale) do?” It was a nightingale with which he used to play. Sometimes the time of the Salât (prayer) became due while he (the Prophet) was in our house. He would order that the carpet underneath him be swept and sprayed with water, and then he would stand up [for the Salât (prayer)] and we would line up behind him, and he would lead us in Salât (prayer).

(113) CHAPTER. To be called Abū Turāb (father of dust), though one already has

(1) (Ch. 112) Kunyah: See the glossary.
another Kunyah name.

6204. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The most beloved name of ‘Ali was Abū Turāb, and he used to be pleased when we called him by it, for none named him Abū Turāb (for the first time) but the Prophet himself. Once ‘Ali got angry with (his wife) Fāṭima, and went out (of his house) and slept near a wall in the mosque. The Prophet came searching for him, and someone said, “He is there, lying near the wall.” The Prophet came to him while his back was covered with dust. The Prophet started removing the dust from his back, saying, “Get up, O Abū Turāb!”

(114) CHAPTER. The name which is most disliked by Allāh.

6205. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The most perfidious (awful) name with Allāh, on the Day of Resurrection, will be (that of) a man calling himself Malik Al-Amlāk (king of the kings).”

6206. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The most perfidious (awful) name with Allāh is (that of) a man calling himself king of kings.”

Sufyān said, “Somebody else (i.e., other than Abuz-Zinād, a subnarrator) says: What Al-Miswar said, “I heard the Prophet saying, ‘Unless the son of Abū Ṭalib wants.’”

6207. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid that Allah’s Messenger rode over a donkey covered with a Fadakiya (velvet sheet) and Usāma was riding behind him. He was going to pay a visit to Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda (who was sick) in the dwelling place of Bani Al-Ḥarīrī bin Al-Khazraj and this incident happened before the battle of Badr. They proceeded till they passed by a gathering in which ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl was present, and that was before ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy embraced Islām. In that mix-up gathering there were Muslims, Mushrik, idolaters and Jews, and among the Muslims there was ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāha. When a cloud of dust raised by (the movement of) the animal covered that gathering, ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy covered his nose with his garment and said, “Do not cover us with dust.” Allah’s Messenger greeted them, stopped, dismounted and invited them to Allah (i.e., to embrace Islām) and recited to them the Qur’ān. On that ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl said to him, “O man! There is nothing better than what you say, if it is the truth. So do not trouble us with it in our gatherings, but if somebody comes to you, relate (you tales) to him.” On that ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāha said “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger!

(1) (H. 6206) Shāhān Shāh is a Persian word bearing the same meaning. This indicates that it is forbidden to call oneself by such a name in any language.
Call on us in our gatherings, for we love that.” So the Muslims, Al-Mushrikūn and the Jews started abusing one another till they were about to fight with one another. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ kept on quietening them till all of them became quiet, and then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ rode his animal and proceeded till he entered upon Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Sa’d! Didn’t you hear what Abū Ḥubāb said?” (meaning ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy). “He said so-and-so.” Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! Excuse and forgive him, for, by Him Who revealed to you the Book, Allāh sent the Truth which was revealed to you at the time when the people of this town had decided to crown him (‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy) as their ruler. So when Allāh had prevented that with the Truth He had given you, he was choked by that, and that caused him to behave in such an impolite manner which you had noticed.” So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ excused him. (It was the custom of) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and his Companions to excuse Al-Mushrikūn and the people of the Scripture (Christians and Jews) as Allāh ordered them, and they used to be patient when annoyed (by them). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said:

“...You shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you...” (V.3:186)

Allāh also said:

“Many of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) wish that if they could turn you away as disbelievers after you have believed...” (V.2:109)

So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to apply what Allāh had ordered him by excusing them till he was allowed to fight against them. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had fought the battle of Badr and Allāh killed...
whomever He killed among the chiefs of the infidels and the nobles of Quraish, and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and his Companions had returned with victory and booty, bringing with them some of the chiefs of the infidels and the nobles of the Quraish as captives. ‘Abdullah bin Ubuyy bin Salûl and Al-Mushrikûn, (idolaters) who were with him, said, “This matter (Islaâm) has now brought out its face (triumphed), so give Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ the Bai‘a (pledge) (for embracing Islaâm).” Then they became Muslims. (See H. 4566)

6208. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Al-‘Hârith bin Naufal: ‘Abbas bin ‘Abdul-Mu’ttalib said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Did you benefit Abû Talib with anything as he used to protect and take care of you, and used to become angry for you?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, he is in a shallow place of (Hell) Fire. But for me he would have been in the lowest part of the (Hell) Fire.”

(116) CHAPTER. Al-Ma‘ârid (indirect speech) is a safe way to avoid a lie.

Anas said, “One of the sons of Abû Talha died and he asked (his wife), ‘How is the boy?' Umm Sulaim replied, ‘His breath has become quiet, and I hope that he is at rest.’ Abū Tālha thought that she was telling the truth.”

6209. Narrated Anas bin Malik

Once the Prophet was on one of his journeys, and the driver of the camels started chanting (to let the camels go fast). The Prophet said to him, “(Take care!) Drive slowly with the glass vessels, O Anjasha! Waihana (may Allāh be Merciful to you).”

6210. Narrated Anas

The Prophet was on a journey and a slave named Anjasha was chanting (singing) for the camels to let them go fast (while driving). The Prophet said, “O Anjasha, drive slowly (the camels) with the glass vessels!” Abū Qilāba said, “By the glass vessels” he meant the women (riding the camels).

6211. Narrated Anas bin Malik

The Prophet had a Hādi (a camel driver) called Anjasha, and he had a nice voice. The Prophet said to him, “(Drive) slowly, O Anjasha! Do not break the glass vessels!” And Qatada said, “(By vessels) he meant the weak women.”

6212. Narrated Anas bin Mālik

There was a state of fear in Al-Madīna.

(1) (Ch. 116) He thought that his son was well, while she meant that he was dead.
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ rode a horse belonging to Abū Ṭalḥa (in order to see the matter). The Prophet ﷺ said, “We could not see anything, and we found that horse like a sea (fast in speed).”

(117) CHAPTER. The description of something by a man as ‘nothing’ while he means that it is not true.

6213. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Some people asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about the foretellers. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “They are nothing (i.e., liars).” The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Sometimes they tell something which comes out to be true.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “That word which comes to be true is what a jinn (devil) snatches away by stealing and then pours it in the ear of his foreteller with a sound similar to the cackle of a hen, and then they add to it one hundred lies.”

(118) CHAPTER. To raise the sight towards the sky. And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “Do they not look at the camels, how they are created. And at the heaven, how it is raised?” (V.88:17,18)
And 'Aishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ raised his head (sight) towards the sky.”

6214. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullãh that he heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Then there was a pause in the revelation of the Divine Revelation to me. Then while I was walking, all of a sudden I heard a voice from the sky, and I raised my sight towards the sky and saw the same angel who had visited me in the cave of Hira’; sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth.”

“Verily! In the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day, there are indeed signs for men of understanding.” (V.3:190)

(119) CHAPTER. Whoever dipped a stick in water and mud.

6216. Narrated Abû Müsa that he was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ in one of the gardens of Al-Madîna and in the hand of the Prophet ﷺ there was a stick, and he was striking (slowly) the water and the mud with it. A man came (at the gate of the garden) and asked permission to enter. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Open the gate for him, and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise.” I went, and behold! It was Abū Bakr. So I opened the gate for him and informed him of the glad tidings of entering Paradise. Then another man came and asked permission to enter. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Open the gate for him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise.” Behold! It was ‘Umar. So I opened the gate for him and gave him the glad tidings of entering Paradise. Then another man came and asked permission to enter. The Prophet ﷺ was sitting in a leaning posture, so he sat up and said, “Open the gate for him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise with a calamity which will befall him, or which will take place.” I went, and behold! It was ‘Uthmān. So I opened the gate for him and gave him the glad tidings of entering Paradise and also informed him of what the Prophet ﷺ had said (about a calamity). ‘Uthmān said, “Allāh Alone Whose Help I seek (against that calamity).”

(120) CHAPTER. One may scrape up the ground with something in hand.

6217. Narrated ‘Ali رضي الله عنه: We were with the Prophet ﷺ in a funeral procession, and he started scraping the ground with a small stick and said, “There is none amongst you but has been assigned a place (either) in Paradise and (or) in the Hell-fire.” The people said (to him), “Should we not depend upon it?” He said, “Carry on doing (good) deeds, for everybody will find easy such deeds as will lead him to his destined place.” He then recited:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allāh and fears Him” (V.92:5)
(121) CHAPTER. The saying of Takbir [Allahu-Akbar (Allah is the Most Great)] and Tasbih [Subhän Allah (Glorified be Allah)] at the time of wonder.

6218. Narrated Umm Salama: (One night) the Prophet woke up and said, “Subhän Allah! How many treasures have been (disclosed) sent down! And how many Fitan (trials or afflictions) have been descended! Who will go and wake the sleeping lady-occupants up of these dwellings [for offering Salat (prayer)]?” (He meant by this, his wives). The Prophet added, “A well-dressed person in this world may be naked in the Hereafter.”

‘Umar said, “I asked the Prophet, ‘Have you divorced your wives?’ He said, ‘No.’ I said, ‘Allahu-Akbar!’”

6219. Narrated Safiyya bint Ḥuyai, the wife of the Prophet, that she went to Allāh’s Messenger while he was in I’tikāf (seclusion in the mosque) during the last ten nights of the month of Ramadān. She spoke to him for an hour at night and then she got up to return home. The Prophet got up to accompany her, and when they reached the gate of the mosque opposite the dwelling place of Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet, two Ansārī men passed by, and greeting Allāh’s Messenger, they quickly went ahead. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “Do not be in a hurry! She is Ṣafīyya, the daughter of Ḥuyai.” They said, “Subḥān Allāh! O Allāh’s Messenger (how dare we suspect you).” That was a great thing for both of them. The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Satan runs in the body of Ḍā‘ūd’s son (i.e., man) as his blood circulates in it, and I was afraid that he (Satan) might insert an evil thought in your hearts.”

(122) CHAPTER. It is forbidden to throw stones (with the thumb and the index or middle finger).

6220. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mughaffal Al-Muzanī: The Prophet ﷺ forbade the throwing of stones (with the thumb and the index or middle finger), and said “It neither hunts a game nor kills (or hurts) an enemy, but it gouges out an eye or breaks a tooth.”

(123) CHAPTER. To say ‘Al-Hamdu-lillāh (praise be to Allāh) on sneezing.

6221. Narrated Anas bin Mālīk: Two men sneezed before the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said to one of them, “May Allāh bestow His Mercy on you,” but he did not say that to the other. On being asked...
(why), the Prophet said, “That one praised Allâh (by saying “Al-Hamdu-lillâh” (124) CHAPTER. Tashmît (i.e., to say Yar-hamukallâh) to the sneezer if he praises Allâh (i.e., if he says, ‘Al-Hamdu-lillâh’) [(2) (Ch. 124) Yar-hamukallâh: ‘May Allâh bestow His Mercy on you’.

(2) (Ch. 124) ‘Praise be to Allâh’.

(3) (H. 6222) Dibâj and Sundus are two kinds of silk cloth. Mayâthîr are cushions made of silk cases stuffed with cotton and used on the saddle under the rider.)

6222. Narrated Al-Barâ’î: The Prophet ordered us to do seven (things) and forbade us from seven (other things): He ordered us to pay a visit to the sick; to follow funeral processions; to say: may Allâh be Merciful to you to a sneezer, if he says; praise be to Allâh; to accept invitation (to a wedding banquet); to return greetings; to help the oppressed; and to help others to fulfil their oaths (provided it was not sinful).

And he forbade us from seven (things): to wear golden rings or golden bangles, to wear silk (cloth), Dibâj, Sundus and Mayâthîr. [(3) Mayâthîr are cushions made of silk cases stuffed with cotton and used on the saddle under the rider.]

6223. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allâh likes sneezing and dislikes yawning, so if someone sneezes and then praises Allâh, then it is obligatory on every Muslim who heard him, to say: May Alläh be Merciful to you (Yar-ḥamukallâh). But as regards yawning, it is from Satan, so one must try his best to stop it as much as possible; if one says ‘Ha’ when yawning, Satan will laugh at him.”

(126) CHAPTER. When somebody sneezes, what should one say to him?

6224. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you sneezes, he should say ‘Al-Ḥamdu-lilläh’ (praise be to Alläh), and his (Muslim) brother or companion should say to him ‘Yar-ḥamukallâh’ (may Alläh bestow His Mercy on you). When the latter says ‘Yar-ḥamukallâh’, the former should say ‘Yah-dikumullah wa Yuslih balakum’ (may Alläh give you guidance and improve your condition).”

(127) CHAPTER. Tashmit (may Alläh be Merciful to you) should not be said to a sneezer if he does not say ‘Al-Ḥamdu-lilläh’ (praise be to Alläh).

6225. Narrated Anas: Two men sneezed before the Prophet and he said Tashmit to one of them, while he did not say Tashmit to the other. So that man said, “O Alläh’s Messenger! You said Tashmit to that fellow but you did not say Tashmit to me.” The Prophet said, “That man praised Alläh, but you did not praise Alläh.”
(128) CHAPTER. If someone yawns, he should put his hand over his mouth (i.e., cover his mouth).

6226. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Allah loves sneezing but dislikes yawning; so if anyone of you sneezes and then praises Allah, then it is obligatory on every Muslim who hears him (praising Allah) to say Tashmūn to him. But as regards yawning, it is from Satan, so if one of you yawns, he should try his best to stop it, for when anyone of you yawns, Satan laughs at him."
(1) CHAPTER. How the Salām (greeting) began.

6227. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allāh created Ādam in His Image(1) sixty cubits (about 30 metres) in height. When He created him, He said (to him), ‘Go and greet that group of angels sitting there, and listen what they will say in reply to you, for that will be your greeting and the greeting of your offspring.’ Ādam (went and) said ‘As-Salāmu ‘ālaikum’ (peace be upon you).’ They replied ‘As-Salāmu-‘ālaika wa Rahmatullāh’ (peace and Allāh’s Mercy be on you).’ So they increased ‘Wa Rahmatullah.’” The Prophet added, “So, whoever will enter Paradise, will be of the shape and picture of Ādam. Since then the creation of Ādam’s (offspring) (i.e., stature of human beings) is being diminished continuously up to the present time.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“O you who believe! Enter not houses other than your own... up to ...(And Allāh has knowledge of what you reveal) and what you conceal.” (V.24:27-29)

(1) ‘His Image’ means that Ādam has been bestowed with life, knowledge, power of hearing, seeing, understanding, etc., but the features etc. of Ādam are different from those of Allāh, only the names are the same, e.g., Allāh has life and knowledge and power of understanding, and Ādam also has them, but there is no comparison between the Creator and the created thing. As Allāh says in the Qur‘ān: “...There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer.” (V.42:11). Allāh also does not eat nor sleep, while Ādam used to eat and sleep. (See Fath Al-Bārī) [Vol. 6 and Vol. 13].
And Sa‘id bin Abi Ḥasan said to Al-Ḥasan, “The non-Arab women expose their chests and heads.” Al-Ḥasan said (to Sa‘id), “Avert your eyes from them, for Allah says:

And Qatada added (in the explanation of the above verse), “Guard (their modesty) against what is unlawful for them.”

And Allah also said:

“And tell the believing women to lower their gaze (from looking at forbidden things) and protect their private parts (from illegal sexual acts)...” (V.24:31)

And the dishonesty of eyes means to gaze at a forbidden thing.

And Az-Zuhri said (as regard looking at a girl who has not yet reached the age of puberty), “It is not right to look at any of those girls at whom one has a desire to look, even if she is of very young age.” And ‘Āṭa disliked to look at those slave-girls who used to be sold in Makkah unless he wanted to buy.

of Al-Faḍl and turned his face (to the other side) in order that he should not gaze at her. She said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The obligation of performing Ḥajj enjoined by Allah on His worshippers has become due (compulsory) on my father who is an old man and who cannot sit firmly on the riding animal. Will it be sufficient that I perform Ḥajj on his behalf?” He said, “Yes.”

[See Vol. 2, Ḥadīth No. 1513]

6229. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware! Avoid sitting on the roads.” They (the people) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We can’t help sitting (on the roads) as these are (our places) where we have talks.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you refuse but to sit, then pay the road its right.” They asked, “What is the right of the road, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “Lowering your gaze, refraining from harming others, returning greetings and enjoining what is Al-Ma’n (Islamic Monotheism and all that which Islam orders one to do), and forbidding what is Al-Munkar (disbelief, polytheism of all kinds and every evil deed).”

(3) CHAPTER. As-Salām is one of the Names of Allah ﷻ (Allah’s Statement): “When you are greeted with a greeting, greet in return with what is better than it, or (at least) return it equally…” (V.4:86)

6230. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Maṣ‘ūd): Whenever we offered Ṣalāt
(prayer) with the Prophet , we used to say:
\[
\text{As-Salâm} \text{ be on Allāh from His worshippers,} \\
\text{As-Salâm} \text{ be on Jibril (Gabriel),} \\ \text{As-Salâm} \text{ be on Mikãel (Michael),} \\ \text{As-Salâm} \text{ be on so-and-so. When the Prophet finished his Salāt (prayer), he faced us and said, “Allāh Himself is As-Salâm (Peace), so when one sits in the Salāt (prayer) sitting posture for At-Tahiyāt), one should say, ‘At-Tahiyātulilāhi wa-ṣalawātū, wat-taiyibātū. As-Salāmu ’alaika aiyuhan-Nabīyyu wa rāḥmatu-l-lāhi wa barakātuhu. As-Salāmu ’alāna wa ’alā ibādillah-is-sāliḥin, (1) for if he says that, it will be for all the pious slaves of Allāh in the heavens and the earth. (Then he should say), ‘Ash-hadu an lā ilāha illallāhu wa ash-hadu anna Muhammadan ’abduhū wa Rasūluhu,’ (2) and then he can choose whatever speech (i.e., invocation) he wishes.”}

[See Vol. 1, Hadīth No. 835]

(4) CHAPTER. The small number (of persons) should greet the large number (of persons).

6231. Narrated Abū Hurairah : The Prophet said, “The young should greet the old, the passerby should greet the sitting one, and the small group of persons should greet the large group of persons.”

(1) (H. 6230) All the compliments and the best regards prayers, and good things are due to Allāh; peace be on you, O Prophet, and Allāh’s Mercy and Blessings be on you. Peace be on us and on the true pious worshippers of Allāh.

(2) (H. 6230) I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh; and I testify that Muḥammad is His slave and His Messenger.
(5) CHAPTER. The riding person should greet the walking person.

6232. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The riding one should greet the walking one, and the walking one should greet the sitting one, and the small number of persons should greet the large number of persons.”

(6) CHAPTER. The walking person should greet the sitting one

6233. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The riding person should greet the walking one, and the walking one should greet the sitting one, and the small number of persons should greet the large number of persons.”

(7) CHAPTER. The younger person should greet the older one.

6234. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The younger person should greet the older one, and the walking person should greet the sitting one, and the small number of persons should greet...”
the large number of persons.”

(8) CHAPTER. To propagate As-Salām (greeting) (among the people).

6235. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib ; Allah’s Messenger ordered us to do seven (things): to visit the sick, to follow the funeral processions, to say Tashmīt(1) to a sneezer, to help the weak, to help the oppressed ones, to propagate As-Salām (greeting), and to help others to fulfil their oaths (if it is not sinful). He forbade us to drink from silver utensils, to wear gold rings, to ride on silken saddles, to wear silk clothes, Dībaj (thick silk cloth), Qassīy and Istabraq (two kinds of silk).

[See Vol. 7, Hadith No. 5635]

(9) CHAPTER. To greet those whom one knows and those whom one does not know.

6236. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr : A man asked the Prophet , “What sort of deeds or traits of Islām are good?” The Prophet said, “To feed others; and to greet those whom you know and those whom you do not know.”

(1) (H. 6235) Tashmīt means to say ‘May Allāh bestow His Mercy on you’ to a sneezer who has already said, ‘Alhamdu-lillāh (Praise be to Allāh).’
6237. Narrated Abū Ayyūb: The Prophet ﷺ said, "It is not lawful for a Muslim to desert (not to speak to) his brother Muslim for more than three days; while meeting, one turns his face to one side and the other turns his face to the other side. Lo! The better of the two is the one who starts greeting the other."

6238. Narrated Anas bin Mālik that he was a boy of ten at the time when the Prophet ﷺ emigrated to Al-Madīna. He added: I served Allah's Messenger ﷺ for ten years (the last part of his lifetime) and I know more than the people about the occasion whereupon the order of Al-Hijāb was revealed (to the Prophet ﷺ). Ubayy bin Ka'b used to ask me about it. It was revealed (for the first time) during the marriage of Allah's Messenger ﷺ with Zainab bint Jahsh. In the morning, the Prophet ﷺ was a bridegroom of her and he invited the people, who took their meals and went away, but a group of them remained with Allah's Messenger ﷺ and they prolonged their stay. Allah's Messenger ﷺ got up and went out, and I, too, went out along with him till he came to the lintel of 'Āisha's dwelling place. Allah's Messenger ﷺ thought that those people had left by then, so he returned, and I, too, returned with him till he entered upon Zainab and found that they were still sitting there and had not yet gone. The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) went out again, and so did I with him till he reached the lintel of ‘Aisha’s dwelling place, and then he thought that those people must have left by then, so he returned, and so did I with him, and found those people had gone. At that time the Divine Verse of Al-Hijab was revealed, and the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) set a screen between me and him (his family).

6239. Narrated Anas 1: When the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) married Zainab, the people came (to greet) and were offered a meal, and then they sat down (after finishing their meals) and started chatting. The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) showed as if he wanted to get up, but they did not get up. When he noticed that, he got up, and some of the people also got up and went away, while some others kept on sitting. When the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) returned to enter, he found the people still sitting, but then they got up and left. So I told the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) of their departure and he came and went in. I intended to go in but the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) put a screen between me and him, for Allāh revealed:

6240. Narrated 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet:

‘Umar bin Al-Khattab used to say to Allah’s Messenger, “Let your wives be veiled.” But Allah’s Messenger did not do so. The wives of the Prophet used to go out to answer the call of nature at night only at Al-Mana‘î. Once Sauda, the daughter of Zam’a, went out and she was a tall woman. ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab saw her while he was in a gathering, and said, “I have recognized you, O Sauda!” He said so as he was anxious for some Divine Orders regarding the Hijab (the veiling of women). So Allah, revealed the Verse of Al-Hijab (a complete body cover excluding the eyes).

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 146]

(11) CHAPTER. Asking permission (for entering is enjoined) because of looking (i.e., lest one should look at the occupants of the house who may be in a state in which they dislike to be seen by others).

6241. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: A man peeped through a round hole into the dwelling place of the Prophet while the Prophet had a Midra (an iron comb) with which he was scratching his head. The Prophet said, “Had I known you were looking (through the hole), I would have pierced your eye with it (i.e., the comb).” Verily! The order of taking permission to enter has been enjoined because of that sight (that one should not look unlawfully at the state of others).
6242. Narrated Anas bin Malik: A man peeped into a room of the Prophet. The Prophet stood up, holding an arrow head. It is as if I am just looking at him, trying to stab the man.

(12) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding the adultery of the body parts other than the private parts).

6243. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: I have not seen a thing resembling ‘lamam’ (minor sins) than what Abū Hurairah narrated from the Prophet who said “Allāh has written for Ādam’s son his share of adultery which he commits inevitably. The adultery of the eyes is the sight (to gaze at a forbidden thing), the adultery of the tongue is the (forbidden, sinful) talk, and the innerself wishes and desires; and the private parts testify all this or deny it.”

(13) CHAPTER. To greet somebody and ask permission thrice (only).

6244. Narrated Anas: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger greeted somebody, he used to greet him three times, and if he spoke a sentence, he used to repeat it thrice.

6245. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: While I was present in one of the gatherings of the Ansār, Abū Mūsā came as if he was scared, and said, “I asked permission to enter upon ‘Umar three times, but I was not given permission, so I returned.” (When ‘Umar came to know about it) he said to Abū Mūsā, “Why did you not enter?” Abū Mūsā replied, “I asked permission three times, and I was not given permission, so I returned, for Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘If anyone of you ask permission to enter thrice, and permission is not given, then he should return.”’ ‘Umar said, “By Allāh! We will ask Abū Mūsā to bring witnesses for it.” (Abū Mūsā went to a gathering of the Ansār and said), “Did anyone of you hear this from the Prophet?” Ubayy bin Ka‘b said, “By Allāh, none will go with you but the youngest of the people (as a witness).” (Abū Sa‘īd) was the youngest of them, so I went with Abū Mūsā and informed ‘Umar that the Prophet had said so.

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2062]

(14) CHAPTER. If a man is invited, should he ask permission to enter at his arrival?

Abū Hurairah said that the Prophet said, ‘If a man is invited, should he ask permission to enter at his arrival? This was his custom when he asked permission to enter. If he was not admitted after the third time, he would leave.'
said, "(The invitation) in itself is the permission for him."

6246. Narrated Abü Hurairah: I entered (the house) along with Allāh's Messenger. There he found milk in a basin. He said, "O Abü Hirr! Go and call the people of Suffa to me." I went to them and invited them. They came and asked permission to enter, and when it was given, they entered.

[For details see Hadith No. 6452]

(15) CHAPTER. To greet the boys.

6247. Narrated Anas bin Malik: that he passed by a group of boys and greeted them and said, "The Prophet used to do so."

(16) CHAPTER. The greetings of the men to the women, and of the women to the men.

6248. Narrated Abû Hâzim: Sahl said, "We used to feel happy on Friday." I asked Sahl, "Why?" He said, "There was an old woman of our acquaintance who used to send somebody to Budâ'a (Ibn Maslama said, "Budâ’a was a garden of date-palms at Al-Madîna). She used to pull out the Silq (a kind of vegetable) from its roots and put it in a cooking pot, adding some powdered barley over it (and cook it). After finishing the Jumu’ah (Friday) Salât (prayer) we used to (pass by her and) greet her, whereupon she would present us with that meal; we used to feel happy because of that. We used to have neither a midday nap, nor meals, except after the Friday (Salāt)."

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 938]

6249. Narrated 'Āishah: Allah's Messenger said, "O 'Āishah! This is Jibril (Gabriel) sending his greetings to you." I said, "Peace, and Allah's Mercy be on him (Gabriel). You see what we do not see." (She was addressing Allah's Messenger ﷺ).

(17) CHAPTER. If somebody says, "Who is that?" And the other replies, "I."

6250. Narrated Jābir: I came to the Prophet ﷺ in order to consult him regarding my father's debt. When I knocked at the door, he asked, "Who is that?" I replied, "I." He said, "I, I?" He repeated it as if he disliked it.

(18) CHAPTER. Whoever replied to a greeting by saying, "'Alaikas-Salām." (Peace be on you) (singular).

And 'Āishah said in reply to Jibril's (Gabriel) greeting "Wa 'alaihis-salām, wa rahmatullah wa barakatuhu." [Peace be upon him and Allah's Mercy and Blessings (be on him)].

And the Prophet ﷺ said, “The angels replied to Adam’s greeting to them by saying, "As-Salāmu ‘alai̇ka wa rahmatullah." (Peace and Allah's Mercy be upon you)

6251. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man entered the mosque while Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was sitting in one side of the mosque. The man offered Salāt (prayer), came, and greeted the Prophet ﷺ. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Wa ‘alaika-s-salām (returned his greeting). Go back and offer Salāt (prayer) as you have not offered Salāt (prayer) (properly).” The man returned, repeated his Salāt (prayer) came back and greeted the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Wa ‘alaikas-salām (returned his greeting). Go back and offer Salāt (prayer) again as you have not offered Salāt (prayer).” The man said at the second or third time, “O Allah’s Messenger! Kindly teach me how to offer Salāt (prayer).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “When you stand for Salāt (prayer), perform ablution properly and then face the Qiblah and say Takbir (Allahu-Akbar), and then recite what you know from the Qur'ān, and then bow with calmness till you feel at ease, then rise from bowing, till you stand straight, and then prostrate calmly (and remain in prostration) till you feel at ease, and then raise (your head) and sit with calmness till you feel at ease, and then prostrate with calmness (and remain in prostration) till you feel at ease, and then raise (your head) and sit with calmness till you feel at ease in the sitting position, and do likewise in whole of your Salāt (prayer).”

And Abū Usāmah added, “Till you stand straight.”
6252. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said (in the above narration No. 6251), “And then raise your head till you feel at ease while sitting.”

(19) CHAPTER. If one says, “So-and-so sends Salām (greetings) to you.”

6253. Narrated ‘Aishah that the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “Jibril (Gabriel) sends Salām (greetings) to you.” She replied, “Wa alaihis-salām wa rahmatullah.” (Peace and Allah’s Mercy be on him)

(20) CHAPTER. Greeting (how to greet) a mix-up gathering in which there are Muslims and Al-Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ].

6254. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: Usāma bin Zaid said, “The Prophet ﷺ rode on a donkey with a saddle, underneath which there was a thick, soft Fadakiya velvet sheet. Usāma bin Zaid was his companion rider, and he was going to pay a visit to Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda (who was sick) at the dwelling place of Bani Al-Ḥārith bin Al-Khazraj, and this incident happened before the battle of Badr. The Prophet ﷺ passed by a mix-up gathering in which there were Muslims and polytheists, idolaters, and Jews, and among them there was ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl, and there was ‘Abdullāh bin Rawâha, too. When a cloud of dust raised by the animal covered that gathering, 'Abdullâh bin Ubayy covered his nose with his Ridâ (sheet) and said (to the Prophet), 'Don’t cover us with dust.' The Prophet greeted them and then stopped, dismounted and invited them to Allâh (i.e., to embrace Islâm) and also recited to them the Qur’ân. ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy bin Salûl said, ‘O man! There is nothing better than what you say, if what you say is the truth. So do not trouble us in our gatherings. Go back to your mount (or house), and if anyone of us comes to you, relate (your tales) to him.’ On that ‘Abdullâh bin Rawâha said, ‘(O Allâh’s Messenger!) Come to us and bring it (what you want to say) in our gatherings, for we love that.’ So the Muslims, the Mushrikûn, and the Jews started quarrelling till they were about to fight and clash with one another. The Prophet kept on quietening them (till they all became quiet). He then rode his animal, and proceeded till he entered upon Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda. He said, ‘O Sa’d, didn’t you hear what Abû Ḥubâb said? (He meant ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy). He said so-and-so.’ Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Excuse and forgive him. By Allâh, Allâh has given you what He has given you. The people of this town decided to crown him (as their chief) and make him their king. But when Allâh prevented that with the Truth which He had given you, it choked him, and that was what made him behave in the way you saw him behaving.’ So the Prophet excused him.” (See H. 6207)

(21) CHAPTER. He who does not greet a person who has committed a sin, and the one who does not reply to his greetings till the evidence of his repentance becomes obvious. And up to what time limit (one should wait for) till the repentance of a sinner is known.

‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr said, “Do not greet the drunkards.”

6255.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ka‘b: I heard Ka‘b bin Mālik narrating (when he did not join the battle of Taḥyūk): Allāh’s Messenger ῥḥ forbade all the Muslims to speak to us. I would come to Allāh’s Messenger ῥḥ and greet him, and I would wonder whether the Prophet did move his lips to return my greetings or not, till fifty nights passed away. The Prophet ῥḥ then announced (to the people) Allāh’s forgiveness for us (acceptance of our repentance) at the time when he had offered the Fajr Salāt (prayer).

(22) CHAPTER. How to return the greetings of the Dhimmī (non-Muslims under the protection of a Muslim state).

6256. Narrated ‘Āishah ῥ践: A group of Jews came to Allāh’s Messenger ῥ and said, “As-Sāmu ‘alaika.” (death be on you),” and I understood it and said to them, “Alaikum As-Sāmu wal-la’natu (death and curse be on you).”(1) Allāh’s Messenger ῥḥ said, “Be calm! 0 ‘Āishah, for Allāh loves that one should be kind and lenient in all matters.” I said, “0 Allāh’s Messenger! Haven’t you heard what they have said?” Allāh’s Messenger ῥḥ said, “I have (already) said (to them), ‘Alaikum’ (upon you).”

(1) (H. 6256) Note the similarity between ‘As-Sāmu’ (death) and ‘As-Salāmu’ (peace).
6257. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar (رضي الله عنهما) : Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “When the Jews greet you, they usually say, ‘As-Sãmu ‘alaikum (death be on you),’ so you should say (in reply to them), ‘Wa ‘alaikum (and on you).’”

6258. Narrated Anas bin Malik (رضي الله عنه) : The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “If the people of the Scripture greet you, then you should say (in reply), ‘Wa ‘alaikum (and on you).’”

(23) CHAPTER. (The legal aspect of) the one who looks at a letter in order to know its written contents and the meanings of its subject which is not allowed for the Muslims to look at.

6259. Narrated 'Ali (رضي الله عنه) : Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) sent me, Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwãm and Abû Marthad Al-Ghanawi, and all of us were horsemen, and he said, “Proceed till you reach Rawdat Khãkh where there is a woman from Al-Mushrikiin [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Alläh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] carrying a letter sent by Hâṭib bin Abî Balta’a to Al-Mushrikiin (of Makkah).” So we overtook her while she was proceeding on her camel at the same place as Allah’s Messenger ﷺ told us. We said (to her), “Where is the letter which is with you?” She said, “I have no letter with me.” So we made her camel kneel down and searched her mount (baggage, etc.) but could not find anything. My two companions said, “We do not see any letter.” I said, “I know that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ did not tell a lie. By Allah, if you (the lady) do not bring out the letter, I will strip you of your clothes (in search of the letter).” When she noticed that I was serious, she put her hand into the knot of her waist sheet, for she was tying a sheet round herself, and brought out the letter. So we proceeded to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ with the letter. The Prophet ﷺ said (to Ḥāṭib), “What made you do what you have done, 0 Ḥāṭib?” Ḥāṭib replied, “I have nothing except that I believe in Allah and His Messenger, and I have not changed or altered (my religion). But I wanted to do favour to the people (Mushrikūn of Makkah) through which Allah might protect my family and my property, as there is none among your companions but has someone in Makkah through whom Allah protects his property (against harm).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ḥāṭib has told you the truth, so do not say to him (anything) but good.” ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said, “Verily he has betrayed Allah, His Messenger and the believers! Allow me to chop his neck off!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “0 ‘Umar! What do you know, perhaps Allah looked upon the Badr warriors and said, ‘Do whatever you like, for I have ordained that you will be in Paradise.’” On that ‘Umar wept and said, “Allah and His Messenger know better.”
(24) CHAPTER. How to write a letter to the people of the Scripture.

6260. Narrated Abū Sufyān bin Ḥarb that Heraclius had sent for him to come along with a group of the Quraish who were trading in Shām, and they came to him. Then Abū Sufyān mentioned the whole narration and said, "Heraclius asked for the letter of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. When the letter was read, its contents were as follows: "In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. From Muhammad, Allah’s slave and His Messenger ﷺ. Peace be upon him who follows the right path (guidance)! Amma ba’du (to proceed)…"

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 7, for details.]

(25) CHAPTER. Whose name is to be written first in a letter, i.e., the sender or the addressee?

6261. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ mentioned a person from Bani Isrā’îl who took a piece of wood, made a hole in it, and put therein one thousand Dinār and a letter from him to his friend. The Prophet ﷺ said, "(That man) cut a piece of wood and put the money inside it and wrote a letter from such and such a person to such and such a person."

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2291]
(26) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Get up for your chief!”

6262. Narrated Abû Sa'id: The people of (Banû) Quraiza agreed upon to accept the verdict of Sa'd. The Prophet ﷺ sent for him (Sa'd) and he came. The Prophet ﷺ said (to those people), “Get up for your chief”, or said, “the best among you!” Sa'd sat beside the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “These people have agreed to accept your verdict.” Sa'd said, “So I give my judgement that their warriors should be killed and their women and children should be taken as captives.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You have judged according to the King’s (Allâh’s) Judgement.

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4121]

(27) CHAPTER. Shaking hands.

Ibn Mas'ûd said, “The Prophet ﷺ taught me the Tashah-hud [i.e., compliments for Allâh while sitting in Salat (prayer)] while my hand was between his hands.” And Ka'b bin Mâlik said, “I entered the mosque and found Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sitting there. Talhâ bin 'Ubaidullâh got up and came (to me) hurriedly till he shook hands with me and congratulated me.”
6263. Narrated Qatada: I asked Anas, “Was it a custom of the Companions of the Prophet to shake hands with one another?” He said, “Yes.”

6264. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Hīshām: We were in the company of the Prophet and he was holding the hand of ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb.

(28) CHAPTER. The shaking of hands with both the hands.

And Hammād bin Zaid shook hands with Ibn Al-Mubārak, using both his hands.

6265. Narrated Ibn Mas‘ūd: Allah’s Messenger taught me the Tashah-hud as he taught me a Sūrah from the Qur’ān, while my hand was between his hands. (Tashah-hud was) all the compliments and the Ṣalāt (prayers) and the good things are due to Allāh. Peace be on you, O Prophet; and Allāh’s Mercy and Blessings be on you. Peace be on us and on the true pious slaves of Allāh, I testify that “Lā Ilāha illallāh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and I also testify that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger. [We used to recite this in the Ṣalāt (prayer)] during the lifetime of the Prophet, but when he had died, we used to say, “Peace be on the Prophet.” (See H. 831)
(29) CHAPTER. Al-Mu’ānaqa (to embrace each other by putting arms round the neck on meeting). And the saying of one man to another: “How are you this morning?”

6266.Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbas: ‘Ali bin Abi Talib came out of the house of the Prophet during his fatal illness. The people asked, “O Abû Hasan (i.e., ‘Ali)! How is the health of Allah’s Messenger this morning?” ‘Ali replied, “He has recovered with the Grace of Allah.” Al-‘Abbâs held ‘Ali by the hand and said, “Don’t you see him (he is about to die)? By Allah, within three days you will be the slave of the stick (i.e., under the command of another ruler).” By Allah, I feel that Allah’s Messenger will die from his present ailment, for I know how the faces of the offspring of ‘Abdul-Muttalib look at the time of their death. So let us go to Allah’s Messenger to ask him who will take over the caliphate. If the authority is given to us, we will know it, and if it is given to somebody else we will request him so that he may tell the new ruler to take care of us.”

‘Ali said, “By Allah! If we ask Allah’s Messenger for it (i.e., the caliphate) and he refuses, then the people will never give it to us. Besides, I will never ask Allah’s Messenger for it.”

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4447]
(30) CHAPTER. Whoever replies (on being called) saying, “Labbaik wa Sa'daik” (I respond to your call, and I am obedient to your orders).

6267. Narrated Mu'adh: While I was riding behind the Prophet as a companion rider he said, “O Mu'adh!” I replied, “Labbaik wa Sa'daik.” He repeated this call three times and then said, “Do you know what Allah's Right on His slaves is?” I replied “No.” He said, “Allah's Right on His slaves is that they should worship Him (Alone) and should not join partners in worship with Him.” He proceeded for a while and then said, “O Mu'adh!” I replied, “Labbaik wa Sa'daik.” He said, “Do you know what the right of (Allah's) slaves on Allah is, if they do that (worship Him Alone and join none in His worship)? It is that He will not punish them.” (See H. 2856)

6268. Narrated Abū Dhar: While I was walking with the Prophet at the Harra of Al-Madina in the evening, the mountain of Uhud appeared before us. The Prophet said, “O Abū Dhar! I would not like to have gold equal to Uhud (mountain) for me, unless nothing of it, not even a single Dinar remains of it with me for more than one day or three days, except that single Dinar which I will keep for repaying debts. I will spend all of it (the whole amount) among Allah's slaves like this and like this and like this.”
The Prophet pointed out with his hand to illustrate it, and then said, “O Abu Dhar!” I replied, “Labbaik wa Sa’dak, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Those who have much wealth (in this world) will be the least rewarded (in the Hereafter) except those who do like this and like this (i.e., spend their money in charity).” Then he ordered me, “Remain at your place and do not leave, O Abu Dhar, till I come back.” He went away till he disappeared from my sight. Then I heard a noise and feared that something might have happened to Allah’s Messenger, and I intended to go (to find out) but I remembered the statement of Allah’s Messenger that I should not leave my place, so I kept on waiting (and after a while the Prophet came), and I said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger, I heard a noise and I was afraid that something might have happened to you, but then I remembered your statement and stayed (there).” The Prophet said, “That was Jibril (Gabriel) who came to me and informed me that whoever among my followers died without joining others in worship with Allah, would enter Paradise.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft?” He said, “Even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse and theft.”

(31) CHAPTER. A man should not make another man get up from his (the latter’s) seat.

make another man get up from his (the latter's) seat (in a gathering) in order to sit there."

(32) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allah ﷻ): "(O you who believe!) When you are told to make room in the assemblies, (spread out and) make room..." (V.58:11)

6270. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ forbade that a man should be made to get up from his seat so that another might sit on it, but one should make room and spread out. Ibn ‘Umar disliked that a man should get up from his seat and then somebody else sit at his place.

(33) CHAPTER. Whoever got up from his gathering or his house without taking the permission of his companions, or seemed to be ready to get up that the people might get up (and leave).

6271. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ married Zainab bint Jahsh, he invited the people, who took their meals and then remained sitting and talking. The Prophet ﷺ pretended to be ready to get up, but the people did not get up. When he noticed that, he got up, and when he had got up, some of those people got up along with him and there remained three (who kept on sitting). Then the Prophet ﷺ came back and found those people still sitting. Later on those people got up and went away. So I went to the Prophet and informed him that they had left. The Prophet came, and entered (his house). I wanted to enter (along with him) but he dropped a curtain between me and him. Allah then revealed:

“O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet’s houses, unless permission is given to you... up to... Verily! With Allah that shall be an enormity.” (V.33:53)

(34) CHAPTER. Al-Iḥtibā’ with the hand, i.e., Al-Qurfusā’ (a sitting posture wherein one sits with one’s legs drawn up and wrapped in one’s garment or surrounded with one’s arms).

6272. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I saw Allah’s Messenger in the courtyard of the Ka’bah in the Iḥtibā’ posture, putting his hand round his legs like this.

(35) CHAPTER. Whoever sat in a reclining posture in the company of his companions.

Khabbāb said, “I came to the Prophet and found him reclining over his Burd (sheet) taking it as a pillow, and said to him, ‘Will you invoke Allah?’ (On that) he sat up.”

6273. Narrated Abū Bakra: Allah’s Messenger said, “Shall I inform you of the biggest of the great sins?” They said,
“Yes, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “To join partners in worship with Allah, and to be undutiful to one’s parents.” (See H. 2653)

6274. Narrated Bishr as above (Hadith No. 6273) adding: The Prophet was reclining (leaning) and then he sat up saying, “And I warn you against giving a false statement.” And he kept on saying that warning so much so that we said, “Would that he had stopped.”

(36) CHAPTER. (Regarding) the one who walks quickly for some necessity.

6275. Narrated ‘Uqba bin Al-Harith: Once the Prophet offered the ‘Aṣr prayer and then he walked quickly and entered his house.

(37) CHAPTER. The bed.

6276. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger used to offer his Salāt (prayer) (while standing) in the midst of the bed, and I used to lie in front of him, between him and the Qiblah. If I had any necessity for getting up, and I used to dislike to get up and face him [while he was in Salāt (prayer)], but I would gradually slip away from the bed.

(38) CHAPTER. Anyone for whom a cushion was put.
6277. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr: (The news of) my observing Saum (fasting) was mentioned to the Prophet. So he entered upon me and I put for him a leather cushion stuffed with palm-fibres. The Prophet sat on the floor and the cushion was between me and him. He said to me, “Isn’t it sufficient for you (that you observe fast) three days a month?” I said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! (I can observe fast more than this).” He said, “(You may observe fast) five days a month.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! (I can observe fast more than this).” He said, “(You may observe fast) seven days.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Nine.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Eleven.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger (I can observe fast more than this).” He said, “No fasting is superior to the fasting of the Prophet Dāwūd (David) which was half of a year, and he used, to observe fast on alternate days.”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 1980]

6278. Narrated Ibrahim: ‘Alaqama went to Shām and came to the mosque and offered a two Rak’a Sulāt (prayer), and invoked Allah: “0 Allah! Bless me with a (pious) good companion.” So he sat beside Abū Ad-Dardā’ who asked, “Where are you from?” He said, “From the people of Kūfa.” Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, “Wasn’t there among you a person who keeps the secrets (of the Prophet) which nobody knew except him (i.e., Hudhaifa bin Al-Yamān)? And isn’t there among you a person whom Allah gave refuge from Satan through the request (tongue) of Allah’s Messenger? (i.e., ‘Ammār). Isn’t there among you the one who used to carry the Siwāk and the cushion (or pillow) (of the Prophet ﷺ)? (i.e., Ibn Mas’ūd). How did Ibn Mas’ūd use to recite ‘By the night as it conceals (the light)’?” (Sūrah 92). ’Alqama said, “Wadh-dhakarī wal Untha. (And by male and female.)” Abū Ad-Dardā. added, “These people continued to argue with me regarding it till they were about to cause me to have doubts, although I heard it from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

(39) CHAPTER. (Mid-day nap) after Al-Jumu’ah [Friday Salāt (prayer)].

6279. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d : We used to have a midday nap and take our meals after Al-Jumu’ah [Salāt (prayer)].

(40) CHAPTER. Mid-day nap in the mosque.

6280. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d : There was no name dearer to ‘Ali than his nick-name Abū Turāb (the father of dust). He used to feel happy whenever he was called by this name. Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to the house of Fātima but did not find ‘Ali in the house. So he asked “Where is your cousin?” She replied, “There was something (a quarrel) between us whereupon he got angry with me and went out without having a midday nap in my house.” Allāh’s Messenger asked a person to look for him. That person came, and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! He (‘Ali) is sleeping in the mosque.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went there and found him lying. His Ridā’ (upper body cover-sheet) had fallen down to one side of his body, and so he was covered with dust. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ started cleaning the dust from him, saying, “Get up, O Abu Turāb! Get up, Abū Turāb!”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 441]

(41) CHAPTER. Whoever visited some people and then had a mid-day nap at their home.

6281. Narrated Thumāma: Anas said, “Umm Sulaim used to spread a leather sheet for the Prophet ﷺ and he used to take a mid-day nap on that leather sheet at her home.” Anas added, “When the Prophet ﷺ had slept, she would take some of his sweat and hair and collect it (the sweat) in a bottle and then mix it with Suk (a kind of perfume) while he was still sleeping.” When the death of Anas bin Mālik approached, he wished in his will that some of that Suk be mixed with his Hanūt (perfume for embalming the dead body), and it was mixed with his Hanūt.

6282, 6283. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went to Qubā’, he used to visit Umm Harām bint Milhān who would offer him meals; and she was the wife of ‘Ubāda bin As-Ṣāmit. One day, he went to her house and she offered him a meal, and after that he slept, and then woke up smiling. She (Umm Ḥarām) said, ‘I asked him, ‘What makes you laugh, O
Allāh’s Messenger?’ He said, ‘Some people of my followers were displayed before me as warriors, fighting for Allāh’s Cause and sailing over this sea, kings on thrones,’ or said, ‘like kings on thrones.’ (The narrator, Isḥāq is in doubt about it.) I (Umm Ḥarām) said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh that He may make me one of them.’ He invoked (Allāh) for her and then lay his head and slept again and then woke up smiling. I asked, ‘What makes you laugh, O Allāh’s Messenger?’ He said, ‘Some people of my followers were displayed before me as warriors, fighting for Allāh’s Cause and sailing over this sea, kings on the thrones,’ or said, ‘like kings on the thrones.’ I (Umm Ḥarām) said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh that He may make me one of them.’ He said, ‘You will be amongst the first ones.’ It is said that Umm Ḥarām sailed over the sea at the time of the rule of Mu‘āwiya, and on coming out of the sea, she fell down from her riding animal and died.

(42) CHAPTER. Sitting in any convenient position.

6284. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet forbade two kinds of dresses and two kinds of bargains; Ishtimāl-as-samma’1 and Al-Iḥtiibā2 in one garment with no part of it covering one’s private parts. (The two kinds of bargains were) Al-Mulāmasa3 and Al-Munābadha4.

1, 2, 3, 4 (H. 6284) For Ishtimāl-as-samma’, Al-Iḥtiibā, Al-Mulāmasa and Al-Munābadha, see the glossary.
(43) CHAPTER. Whoever has a confidential talk with somebody in front of the people and the latter does not disclose his companion's secret, but when his companion dies, he discloses it.

6285, 6286. Narrated 'Aishah, Mother of the believers: We, the wives of the Prophet were all sitting with the Prophet and none of us had left, Fatiha came walking, and by Allah, her gait was very similar to that of Allah's Messenger. When he saw her, he welcomed her, saying, "Welcome, O my daughter!" Then he made her sit on his right or his left, confided something to her, whereupon she wept bitterly. When he noticed her sorrow, he confided something more to her for the second time, and she started laughing. Only I, from among the Prophet's wives said to her, "(O Fatima), Allah's Messenger selected you from amongst us for the secret talk and still you weep?" When Allah's Messenger got up, (went away) I asked her, "What did he confide to you?" She said, "I wouldn't disclose the secret of Allah's Messenger." But when he died I asked her, "I beseech you earnestly by what right I have upon you, to tell me (that secret talk which the Prophet had with you)." She said, "As you ask me now, yes, (I will tell you)." She informed me, saying, "When he talked to me secretly the first time, he said..."
that Jibril (Gabriel) used to review the Qur'an with him once every year. He added, 'But this year he reviewed it with me twice, and therefore I think that my time of death has approached. So, be afraid of Allâh, and be patient, for I am the best predecessor for you (in the Hereafter).”

Fâtîma added, “So I wept as you (’Âishah) witnessed. And when the Prophet saw me in this sorrowful state, he confided the second secret to me saying, ‘O Fâtîma! Will you not be pleased that you will be chief of all the believing women (or chief of the women of this nation i.e., my followers?)’”

(44) CHAPTER. Al-Istilqâ’ (lying flat on the back).

6287. Narrated the uncle of ’Abbâd bin Tamîm: I saw Allâh’s Messenger lying on his back in the mosque and putting one of his legs over the other.

(45) CHAPTER. No two persons should talk secretly excluding a third person (who is present with them).

And the Statement of Allâh: "O you who believe! When you hold secret counsel, do it not for sin and wrongdoing, and disobedience towards the Messenger (Muhammad), but do it for Al-Bîr (righteousness) and Taqwa (virtues and piety); and fear Allah Whom you shall be gathered. Secret counsels (conspiracies) are only from Satan, in order that he may cause grief to the believers. But he cannot harm them in the least, except as Allâh permits, and in Allâh let the believers put their trust.” (V.58:9,10)

And also the Statement of Allâh:

“O you who believe! When you (want to) consult the Messenger (Muhammad ) in private, spend something in charity before your private consultation. That will be better and purer for you. But if you find not (the means for it), then verily, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Are you afraid of spending in charity before your private consultation (with him)? If then you do it not, and Allâh has forgiven you, then (at least) perform Șalât (prayers) (Iqâmat-as-Șalât) and give Zakât and obey Allâh (i.e., do all what Allâh and His Prophet order you to do). And Allâh is All-Aware of what you do.” (V.58:12,13)

6288. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet  said, “When three persons are together, then no two of them should hold secret counsel excluding the third person.”

6289. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet  confided to me a secret which I did not disclose to anybody after him. And Umm Sulâîm asked me (about that secret) but I did not tell her.
(47) CHAPTER. If in a gathering there are more than three persons, then there is no harm if two of them have a secret talk.

6290.Narrated ‘Abdullah: The Prophet said, “When you are three persons sitting together, then no two of you should hold secret counsel excluding the third person until you are with some other people too, for that would grieve him.”

6291. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: One day the Prophet divided and distributed something amongst the people whereupon an Ansãrî man said, “In this division Allãh’s Pleasure has not been sought.” I said, “By Allãh! I will go (and inform) the Prophet.” So I went to him while he was with a group of people, and I secretly informed him of that, whereupon he became so angry that his face became red, and he then said, “May Allãh bestow His Mercy on Mûsá (Moses) (for) he was annoyed more than that, yet he remained patient.”

(48) CHAPTER. Holding secret counsel for a long while.

6292. Narrated Anas: The Iqãma for the Šalâ (prayer) was announced while a man was talking to Allãh’s Messenger privately. He continued talking in that way till the Prophet’s Companions slept, and

(1) (H. 6291) i.e., the distribution is not fair.
afterwards the Prophet got up and offered the Salāt (prayer) with them.\(^{(1)}\)

(49) CHAPTER. Fire (lanterns, etc.) should not be kept lit in the house at bedtime.

6293. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet said, “Do not keep the fire burning in your houses when you go to bed.”

6294. Narrated Abū Mūsa: One night a house in Al-Madīna was burnt with its occupants. The Prophet spoke about them saying, “This fire is indeed your enemy, so whenever you go to bed, put it out to protect yourselves.”

6295. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger said, “(At bedtime) cover the utensils, close the doors, and put out the lights, lest a harmful animal (a mouse or a rat) may drag away the wick and thus burn the people of the house.”

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 6292) The Companions got up too, and the Prophet led them in the ‘Ishā prayer then.
(50) CHAPTER. To close the doors at night.

6296.Narrated Jâbir ١: Allâh’s Messenger ١ said, “When you intend going to bed at night, put out the lights, close the doors, tie the mouths of the water-skins, and cover your food and drinks.” Hammâm said, “I think he (the other narrator) added, ‘...even with a piece of wood across the utensil.’”

(51) CHAPTER. Circumcision at an old age, and pulling out one’s armpit hair.

6297. Narrated Abû Hurairah ١: The Prophet ١ said, “Five things are in accordance with Al-Fitrah (i.e., Allâh’s religion of Islâmic Monotheism): to be circumcised, to shave the pubic hair, to depilate (or pull out) the hair of the armpits, to cut short the moustaches, and to clip the nails.”

[See Vol. 7, Hadîth No. 5889]

6298. Narrated Abû Hurairah ١: Allâh’s Messenger ١ said, “The Prophet Ibrâhîm (Abraham) circumcised himself after he had passed the age of eighty years and he circumcised himself with an adze.”
6299. Narrated Sa‘id bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbâs was asked, “How old were you when the Prophet ﷺ died?” He replied, “At that time I had been circumcised.” At that time, people did not circumcise the boys till they attained the age of puberty.

6300. Sa‘id bin Jubair said, “Ibn ‘Abbâs said, ‘When the Prophet ﷺ died, I had already been circumcised.’”

(52) CHAPTER. Every Lahw (amusement, idle talk, etc.) or deed that diverts one from fulfilling one’s obedience (duties) towards Allâh, is Bâtil [falsehood (disbelief, etc.)].

And (what about him) who says to his companion, “Come along, let us gamble!”

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“And of mankind is he who purchases idle talks (i.e., music, singing, etc.) to mislead (men)…” (V.31:6)

6301. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever among you takes an oath wherein he says, ‘By Al-Lât and Al-‘Uzza,’ (names of two idols worshipped by Al-Mushrikûn), he should say, ‘Lâ ilâha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh).’ And whoever says to his friend, ‘Come, let us gamble!’ He should give something in charity.”

(1) (H. 6301) The expiation for swearing by other than Allâh heedlessly, is to say: ‘Lâ ilâha illallah;’ and the expiation for inviting somebody to gamble even if jokingly, is to give something in charity.
(53) CHAPTER. What has been mentioned regarding the buildings.

And Abū Hurairah said, “The Prophet said, ‘One of the portents of the Hour will be when the shepherds of livestock (camels, goats, sheep, cows, lambs, etc.) start boasting and competing with each other in the construction of higher buildings.’”

6302. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: During the lifetime of the Prophet, I built a house with my own hands so that it might protect me from the rain and shade me from the sun; and none of Allah’s creatures assisted me in building it.

6303. Narrated ‘Amr: Ibn ‘Umar said, “By Allah, I have not put a brick over a brick (i.e., constructed a building) or planted any date-palm tree since the death of the Prophet.” Sufyān (the subnarrator) said, “I told this narration (of Ibn ‘Umar) to one of his (Ibn ‘Umar’s) relatives, and he said, ‘By Allah, he did build (something).’” Sufyān added, “I said, ‘He must have said (the above narration) before he built.’”
And the Statement of Allah:

“And your Lord said, ‘Invoke Me, [i.e., believe in My Oneness (Islamic Monotheism) and ask Me for anything] I will respond to your (invocation). Verily! Those who scorn My worship [i.e., do not invoke Me, and do not believe in My Oneness (Islamic Monotheism)] they will surely enter Hell in humiliation!” (V.40:60)

(1) CHAPTER. For every Prophet there is one (special) invocation which is surely granted by Allah.

6304.Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “For every Prophet there is one special invocation (that will not be rejected) with which he appeals (to Allâh), and I want to keep such an invocation for interceding for my followers in the Hereafter.”

6305. Narrated Anas that the Prophet ﷺ said, “For every Prophet there is one (special) invocation that surely will be responded by Allâh,” (or said), “For every Prophet there was an invocation with which he appealed to Allâh, and his invocation was responded by Allâh (in his lifetime), but I kept my (this special) invocation to intercede for my followers on the Day of Resurrection.”

(2) CHAPTER. Afdal Al-Istighfâr (the best way of asking for forgiveness from Allâh).

And the Statement of Allah:

“...Ask forgiveness from your Lord. Verily, He is Oft-Forgiving; He will send rain to you in abundance and give you...”
increase in wealth and children, and bestow on you gardens and bestow on you rivers.”

(V.71:10-12)

(And also the Statement of Allāh (تَعَالَى)):

“And those who, when they have committed Fāḥishah (illegal sexual intercourse) or wronged themselves with evil, remember Allāh and ask forgiveness for their sins; — and none can forgive sins but Allāh — and do not persist in what (wrong) they have done, while they know.”

6306. Narrated Shaddād bin Aus ii (R): The Prophet ﷺ said, “The most superior way of asking for forgiveness from Allāh is:

‘Allāhumma Anta Rabbi lā ilāha illā Anta kkalaqtani wa ana ‘abduka, wa ana ‘alā ‘ahdika wa wa’dika mastaṭa’u. A’ūdhu bika min sharrī mā šana’tu, abū’u laka bini’matika ‘alaiya, wa abū’u bīdhānbi ḍaghfirli innaḥā lā yaghfirudh-dhunūba illā Anta.’”(1) The Prophet ﷺ added, “If somebody recites it during the day with firm faith in it, and dies on the same day before the evening, he will be from the people of Paradise; and if somebody recites it at night with firm faith in it, and dies before the morning, he will be from the people of Paradise.”

(1) (H. 6306) O Allāh, You are my Lord! None has the right to be worshipped but You. You created me and I am Your slave, and I am faithful to my covenant and my promise (to You) as much as I can. I seek refuge with You from all the evil I have done. I acknowledge before You all the blessings You have bestowed upon me, and I confess to You all my sins. So I entreat You to forgive my sins, for nobody can forgive sins except You.
(3) CHAPTER. The Prophet seeking of Allah’s forgiveness by daytime and at night.

6307. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, “By Allāh! I seek Allāh’s forgiveness and turn to Him in repentance for more than seventy times a day.”

(4) CHAPTER. At-Tauba (turning to Allāh in repentance).

Qatāda said, “...Turn to Allāh with sincere repentance...” (V.66:8) means true and constructive repentance.

6308. Narrated Al-Ḥārith bin Suwaid: ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd related to us two narrations: One from the Prophet and the other from himself, saying: A believer sees his sins as if he were sitting under a mountain which he is afraid, may fall on him; whereas a Fājir (wicked evil-doer) considers his sins as flies passing over his nose and he just drives them away like this.” Abū Shihāb (the subnarrator) moved his hand over his nose in illustration. (Ibn Mas‘ūd added): Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh is more pleased with the repentance of His slave than a man who encamps at a place where his life is jeopardized, but he has his riding animal carrying his food and water. He then rests his head and sleeps for a short while and wakes to find his riding animal gone. (He starts looking for it) and suffers from severe heat and thirst or what Allāh wished (him to suffer from). He then says, ‘I will go back to my place.’ He returns and sleeps again, and then (getting up), he raises his head to find his riding animal standing beside him.”
Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His slave than anyone of you is pleased with finding his camel which he had lost in a desert.”

6309. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His slave than anyone of you is pleased with finding his camel which he had lost in a desert.”

(5) CHAPTER. Lying on one’s right side.

6310. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ used to offer eleven Rak’a prayer in the late part of the night, and when dawn appeared, he would offer two Rak’a (Sunna of the Fajr) and then lie on his right side till the Mu’adhdhin came to inform him [that the Fajr compulsory congregational Šalāt (prayer) was due].
(6) CHAPTER. (The superiority of a person) who sleeps with ablution.

6311. Narrated Al-Barâ‘ bin ‘Azib: Allah’s Messenger said to me, “When you want to go to bed, perform ablution as you do for Salât (prayer), then lie down on your right side and say: ‘Allâhumma aslamtu wa‘ ilãika, wa fauwadtu amri ilaika, waljâ‘tu zahrt ilaika. Lâ maljâ‘a wa là manjâ‘a minkâ illâ ilaika. Anantu bikitâbik alladhi anzalta, wa binabiyyik-ladhi arsalta(1).’ If you should die then (after reciting this) you will die on Al-Fitrah [the religion of Islam (i.e., as a Muslim)]; so let these words be the last you say (before going to bed).” While I was memorizing it, I said, “Wa birasâfik alladhi arsalta” (in Your Messenger whom You have sent).” The Prophet said, “No, but say: ‘Wa binabiyyik-ladhi arsalta’ (in Your Prophet whom You have sent).”

(7) CHAPTER. What to say on going to bed.

6312. Narrated Hudhaifa: When the Prophet went to bed, he would say: “Bismika amâtu wa ahya,”(2) and when he got up, he would say: “Al-hamdulillâhil ladhi 6313. Narrated Al-Bará’ bin ‘Azib that the Prophet ﷺ advised a man saying, “If you intend to lie down (i.e., go to bed), say: ‘Alláhumma aslamu nafsî ilaika, wa fawwadtu amri ilaika, wa wajjahtu wajhi ilaika, waliṣ’tu zahri ilaika, raghbatan wa rahbatan ilaika. La maļjá’a wa là manjá minka illâ ilaika. Âmanatu bikiṭikal-’adhi anzalta; wa nabiyikal ladhî arsalta.’ And if you should die then (after reciting this before going to bed) you will die on Al-Fîtrah (the religion of Islâm).”

[See the footnote of Hadîth No. 6311]

(8) CHAPTER. Putting one’s right hand under one’s right cheek on sleeping.

6314. Narrated Hùdhaifa: When the Prophet ﷺ went to bed at night, he would put his hand under his cheek and then say: “Alláhumma bismika amâtu wa aḥyâ,” (2) and when he got up, he would say: “Al-hamdû lillâhil-ladhî aḥyâna ba’dâ mâ
(9) CHAPTER. Sleeping on the right side.

6315. Narrated Al-Barā' bin 'Azib رضي الله عنه: When Allah's Messenger ﷺ went to bed, he used to sleep on his right side and then say, "Allahumma aslamtu nafsi ilaika, wa wajjahtu wajhi ilaika, wa fauwadtu amrt ilaika, la maljã 'a wa lã manjã minka illã ilaika. Amantu bikitãbikal-ladhianzalta wa nabiyikal-ladhi arsalta! 2

Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Whoever recites these words (before going to bed) and dies the same night, he will die on Al-Fitrah [Islamic religion (as a Muslim)]"

(10) CHAPTER. The invocation which may be said by one who wakes up at night.

6316. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما: One night I slept at the house of Maimûna. During the night the Prophet ﷺ woke up, answered the call of nature, washed his face and hands, and then slept. He got up (at night), went to a water-skin, opened it mouth thereof and performed ablution not using much water, yet he washed all the body-parts properly and then offered the Salāt (prayer). I got up and straightened my back in order that the Prophet  might not feel that I was watching him, and then I performed the ablution, and when he got up to offer the Salāt (prayer), I stood on his left. He caught hold of my ear and brought me over to his right side. He offered thirteen Rak‘a in all and then lay down and slept till he started blowing out his breath as he used to do when he slept. In the meantime Bilāl informed the Prophet of the approaching time for the (Fajr) Salāt, and the Prophet offered the Fajr Salāt without performing new ablution. He used to say in his invocation, “Allāhumma i‘lā fi qalbī nūrān, wa fi baṣārī nūrān, wa fi sam‘ī nūrān, wa ‘an yaminī nūrān, wa ‘an yasārī nūrān, wa fawqī nūrān, wa taḥtī nūrān, wa amāmī nūrān, wa khalīfī nūrān, wa‘al‘īli nūrān.”

Kuraib (a subnarrator) said, “I have forgotten seven other words, (which the Prophet mentioned in this invocation). I met a man from the offspring of Al-‘Abbās and he narrated those seven things to me, mentionning, ‘(Let there be light in) my nerves, my flesh, my blood, my hair and my body,’ and he also mentioned two other things.”

6317. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet  got up at night to offer the night Salāt (prayer), he used to say: “Allāhumma lakal-hamdu, Anta nūr-us-

(1) (H. 6316) O Allāh! Let my heart have light, and my sight have light, and my hearing (sense) have light; and let me have light on my right, and have light on my left, and have light above me, and have light under me, and have light in front of me, and have light behind me; and let me have light.
(2) (H. 6316) The brain and the bones.
(11) CHAPTER. Saying Takbir (Allāhu Akbar) and Tasbih (Subhān Allāh) on going to bed.

6318. Narrated 'Ali: Fāṭima complained about the blisters on her hand because of using a millstone. She

(1) (H. 6317) O Allāh! All the praises and thanks be to You; You are the Light of the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them, and all the praises and thanks be to You. You are the Keeper of (One Who looks after) the heavens and the earth and whatever is in them, and all praises and thanks be to You; You are the Truth, and Your Promise is true, and Your Sayings are true, and the Meeting with You is the truth and the Paradise is the truth, and Hell is the truth, and the Hour is the truth, and the Prophets are true, and Muḥammad (Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ) is the truth. O Allāh! I submit myself to You, and I depend on You, and I believe in You, and I turn in repentance to You, and in Your Cause I fight, and with Your Orders I rule, so please forgive my past, present and my future sins and whatever I have done in secret, and whatever I have done in public. You are the One Who makes the things go before and You are the One Who delays them. None has the right to be worshipped but You (or: None has the right to be worshipped other than You).
went to ask the Prophet ﷺ for a servant, but she did not find him (at home) and had to inform ‘Aishah of her need. When he came, ‘Aishah informed him about it. ‘Ali added:

The Prophet ﷺ came to us when we had gone to our beds. When I was going to get up, he said, “Stay in your places,” and sat between us, till I felt the coolness of his feet on my chest. The Prophet then said, “Shall I not tell you of a thing which is better for you than a servant? When you (both) go to your beds, say ‘Alláhu-Akbar’ thirty-four times, and ‘Subhán Alláh’ thirty-three times, and ‘Alhamdu lilláh’ thirty-three times; for that is better for you than a servant.” [Ibn Siráh said, “‘Subhán Alláh’ (is to be said for) thirty-four times.”]

(12) CHAPTER. Taking refuge with Alláh (from evil), and the recitation (of Qur’án) before going to bed.

6319. Narrated ‘Aishah
Whenever Alláh’s Messenger ﷺ went to bed, he used to blow on his hands while reciting the Mu‘áwwidhát (i.e., Súrat Al-Falaq and Súrat An-Náṣ, No. 113 and 114) and then pass his hands over his body.

(13) CHAPTER:

6320. Narrated Abú Hurairah
The Prophet ﷺ said, “When anyone of you go to bed, he should shake out his bed with the inside of his waist sheet, for he does not know what has come on to it after him, and then he should say: 'Bismika Rabbi wada'tu janbi, wa bika arfa'uh, in amsakta našši farhamhā, wa in arsaltahā fahfazhā bimar tahfazu bihi 'ibādakas-sālihīn.'

(14) CHAPTER. Invocation in the middle of the night.

6321. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger  said, “Our Lord, the Blessed, the Superior, comes down every night on the nearest heaven to us during the last third of the night and says, ‘(Is there anyone) who invokes Me (demands anything from Me), that I may respond to his invocation. (Is there anyone) who asks Me for something that I may grant him his request? (Is there anyone) who seeks My forbearance that I may forgive him’?" (1)

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 1145]

(15) CHAPTER. What to say when going to the lavatory.

6322. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Whenever the Prophet \( \text{S.A.W.} \) went to the lavatory, he used to say: "Allāhumma inni a'ūdhu bika minal-khubthi wal-khabā'ith." (2)

(16) CHAPTER. What to say when one gets up in the morning.

(1) (H. 6321) "Sifāt Allāh" (Qualities of Allāh)

All what has been revealed in Allāh’s Book [the Qur’ān] as regard the “Sifāt”. Qualities of Allāh the Most High like His Face, Eyes, Hands, Shins, (Legs), His coming, His Istawa (rising) over His Throne and His other Qualities or all that Allāh’s Messenger \( \text{S.A.W.} \) qualified Him in the true authentic Prophet’s Ahadith (narrations) as regards His Qualities like [Nuzul], His Descent or His laughing and others, the religious scholars of the Qur’ān and the Sunna believe in these qualities of Allāh and they confirm that these are really His Qualities, without Ta’wil (interpreting their meanings into different things) or Tashbih (giving resemblance or similarity to any of the creatures) or Ta‘til (i.e., completely ignoring or denying them, i.e., there is no Face, or Eyes, or Hands, or Shins for Allāh). These Qualities befit or suit only Allāh Alone, and He does not resemble any of (His) creatures. As Allāh’s Statement (in the Qur’ān): (1) “There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer”. (V.42:11) (2) “There is none comparable unto Him.” (V.112:4)

(2) (H. 6322) ‘O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from the bad and evil things.’
If somebody recites this invocation during the night, and if he should die then, he will enter Paradise (or he will be from the people of Paradise), and if he recites it in the morning, and if he should die on the same day, he will have the same fate (i.e., will enter Paradise)."

[See Hadith No. 6306.]

6324. Narrated Hudhaifa: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ intended to go to bed, he would recite, "Bismika Allāhumma amūtu wa ahyā (With Your Name, O Allāh, I die and I live)." And when he woke up from his sleep, he would say: "Al-hamdu lil-lāhir-ladhi ahyāna ba’dā mā amātanā wa ilaihin-nushūr (All the praises and thanks be to Allāh Who has made us alive after He made us die (sleep) and unto Him is the Resurrection.)"

6325. Narrated Abū Dhar: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ lay on his bed, he used to say, "Allāhumma bismika amūtu wa ahyā," and when he woke up he would say, "Al-hamdu lil-lāhir-ladhi ahyāna ba’dā mā amātanā, wa ilaihin-nushūr."(2)

(1) (H. 6323) 'O Allāh! You are my Lord. None has the right to be worshipped but You. You created me, and I am Your slave, and I am faithful to my covenant and my promise (to You) as much as I can. I acknowledge before You, all the blessings You have bestowed upon me, and confess to You all my sins; so please forgive them, as no one can forgive sins except You. And I seek refuge in You from all the evil I have done.'

(2) (H. 6325) See Hadith 6324.

6327. Narrated ‘Āishah ra: The Verse:

“...And offer your Ṣalāt (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice...” (V.17:110) was revealed as regards invocation.

6328. Narrated ‘Abdullāh ra: We used to say in the Ṣalāt (prayer): “As-Salām be on Allāh, As-Salām be on so-and-so.” One day the Prophet ﷺ told us, “Allāh Ṭabārma ‘āmatanā ʿalayhi al-ṭūṣūr.” [锇ظ: 723] Himself is As-Salām; when anyone of you sits during his Ṣalāt (prayer) (in sitting posture), he should say: ‘At-tahiyatulillahi,’ up to ‘Aṣ-ṣāliḥin,’ (All the compliments are for Allāh... up to ... righteous people) for when he recites this then he says his Salām to all the righteous people present in the heavens and on the earth. Then he should say, ‘I testify that Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped except Allāh), and that Muḥammad is His slave and His Messenger,’ and then he can select whatever he likes to glorify (Allāh’s) praises.” [See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 831]

(18) CHAPTER. The invocation after the Ṣalāt (prayer).

6329. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The rich people have got the highest degrees of prestige and permanent pleasures (in this life and the life to come in the Hereafter).” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “How is that?” They said, “The rich offer Salāt (prayer) as we offer Salāt, and strive in Allāh’s Cause as we do, and spend from their surplus wealth in charity, while we have no wealth (to spend likewise).” He said, “Shall I not tell you a thing, which, by doing, you will catch up with those who are ahead of you and supersede those who will come after you; and nobody will be able to do such a good deed as you do except the one who does the same (deed as you do). That deed is to recite ‘Subhib Allāh’ ten times, and ‘Al-Hamdu illāh’ ten times, and ‘Allāhu Akbar’ ten times after every Ṣalāt.”
6330. Narrated Warrād, the freed slave of Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba: Al-Mughira wrote to Mu‘awiya bin Abū Sufyān that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ use to say at the end of every Salāt (prayer) after the Taslim: “Lā ilāha illallãhu wahdahu, la sharïka lahu; lahul-mulku, wa lahul-hamdu, wa Huwa ‘ala kulli shai’in Qadfr. Allahumma la mãni‘a lima a‘tita, wa la mu‘tiya lima mana‘ta, wa la yanfa‘u dhal-jaddi minkal-jaddu.” (1)

(19) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ: ‘Bārak…’

“…And invoke Allāh for them…” (V.9:103)

And whoever prefers his brother (Muslim) to himself in his invocation.

6331. Narrated Salāma bin Al-Akwa‘: We

(1) (H. 6330) None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, the One Who has no partner. All the kingdom is for Him, and all the praises are for Him, and He is Omnipotent. O Allāh! There is none who can withhold what You give, and there is no one who can give what You withhold. Hard efforts by anyone (or good luck or riches) for anything cannot benefit one against Your Will and Decisions.’
went out with the Prophet ﷺ to Khaibar. A man among the people said, “O ‘Amir! Will you please recite to us some of your poetry?” So ‘Amir got down and started chanting among them saying, “By Allah! Had it not been for Allah, we would not have been guided.” ‘Amir also said other poetic verses which I do not remember. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Who is this (camel) driver?” The people said, “He is ‘Amir bin Al-Akwa’.” He said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on him.” A man from the people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Would that you let us enjoy his company longer.”(1) When the people (Muslims) lined up, the battle started, and ‘Amir was struck with his own sword (by chance) by himself, and he died. In the evening, the people made a large number of fires (for cooking meals). Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What is this fire? What are you making the fire for?” They said, “For cooking the meat of donkeys.” He said, “Throw away what is in the pots and break the pots!” A man said, “O Allah’s Prophet! May we throw away what is in them and wash them?” He said, “Never mind, you may do so.”

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4196]

6332. Narrated Ibn Abi Aufā: Whenever a man brought his alms to the Prophet ﷺ, the Prophet ﷺ would say, “O Allâh! Bestow Your Blessing upon the family of so-and-so.” When my father came to him (with his alms), he said, “O Allâh! Bestow Your Blessings upon the family of Abî Aufā.”

(1) (H. 6331) If the Prophet ﷺ made such an invocation for somebody, it was an indication that that person would be martyred.
6333.Narrated Jarir: Allah’s Messenger said to me, “Will you relieve me from Dhul-Khalaṣa?” Dhul-Khalaṣa was a Nusub (an idol, etc.) which the people used to worship and it was called Al-Ka’bah Al-Yamaniya. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I am a man who can’t sit firm on horses.” So he stroked my chest (with his hand) and said, “O Allah! Make him firm and make him a guide and well-guided man.” So I went out with fifty (men) from my tribe of Abmas. (The subnarrator, Sufyān, quoting Jarir, perhaps said, “I went out with a group of men from my nation.”) And came to Dhul-Khalaṣa and burnt it, and then came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have not come to you till I left it like a camel with a skin disease.” The Prophet then invoked good upon Abmas and their cavalry (fighters).

[See Vol. 5, Ḥadīth No. 4357]

6334. Narrated Anas: Umm Sulaim said to the Prophet, “Anas is your servant.” The Prophet said, “O Allah! Increase his wealth and offspring, and bless (for him) whatever you give him.”

6335. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet heard a man reciting (the Qur‘ān) in the mosque. He said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on him, as he made me remember such and such Verse which I had missed in such and such Sūrah.”
6336. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet divided something (among the Muslims) and distributed the shares (of the booty). A man said, “This division has not been made to please Allãh.” When I informed the Prophet about it, he became so furious that I noticed the signs of anger on his face and he then said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on Mûsã (Moses), for he was annoyed with more than this, yet he remained patient.”

(20) CHAPTER. What rhymed prose is disapproved in invocations.

6337. Narrated ‘Ikrima: Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Preach to the people once a week, and if you won’t, then preach them twice, but if you want to preach more, then let it be three times (a week only), and do not make the people get bored with this Qur’ân. If you come to some people who are engaged in a talk, don’t start interrupting their talk by preaching, lest you should cause them to be bored. You should rather keep quiet, and if they ask you, then preach to them at the time when they are eager to hear what you say. And avoid the use of rhymed prose in invocation for I noticed that Allãh’s Messenger and his Companions always avoided it.”
(21) CHAPTER. One should appeal to Allah with determination, for nobody can force Him against His Will.

6338. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger said, “When anyone of you appeal to Allah for something, he should ask with determination and should not say, ‘O Allah, if You wish, give me’, for nobody can force Allah to do something against His Will.”

6339. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “None of you should say: ‘O Allah, forgive me if You wish; O Allah, be Merciful to me if You wish,’ but he should always appeal to Allah with determination, for nobody can force Allah to do something against His Will.”

(22) CHAPTER. One’s invocation is granted (or accepted or responded to) by Allah if one does not show impatience.

6340. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The invocation of anyone of you is granted (or accepted or responded to by Allah) if he does not show impatience (by saying, ‘I invoked Allah but my request has not been granted’).”

(23) CHAPTER. The raising of the hands on invoking (Allah).

And Abū Mūsa said, “The Prophet invoked (Allah) and raised his hands (so high... that) I saw the whiteness of his armpits.”

And Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) raised his hands and said, ‘O Allāh! I am clear of what Khālid has done.’”

6341. Narrated Anas, “The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) raised his hands (in invocation) till I saw the whiteness of his armpits.”

(24) CHAPTER. To invoke Allāh while not facing the Qiblah.

6342. Narrated Anas: While the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) was delivering a Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday, a man stood up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to bless us with rain.” (The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) invoked Allāh for rain.) So, the sky became overcast and it started raining till one could hardly reach his home. It kept on raining till the next Friday when the same man, or another man, got up and said (to the Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \)), “Invoke Allāh to withhold the rain from us, for we have been drowned (with heavy rain).” The Prophet \(\text{ﷺ} \) said, “O Allāh! Let it rain around us and not on us.” Then the clouds started dispersing around Al-Madīna and rain ceased to fall on the people of Al-Madīna.

(25) CHAPTER. To invoke Allāh while facing the Qiblah.

6343. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid: Allāh’s Messenger \(\text{ﷺ} \) went out to his Musalla (praying place) to offer the Salat (prayer) of Istisqa. He invoked Allah for rain and then faced the Qiblah and turned his Ridâ' (upper garment) inside out.

(26) CHAPTER. The invocation of the Prophet ﷺ on behalf of his servant that he may have a long life and a big fortune.

(27) CHAPTER. To invoke Allah at a time of distress.

6346. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas رضي الله عنه: None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the Most Forebearing. None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the Lord of the heavens and the earth, and the Lord of the Tremendous Throne.
Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to say at a time of distress, “La ilâha illallâhu Rabbul-'arshil-'azîm. La ilâha illallâhu Rabbus-samâwâti 'wa Rabbus-ardî. La ilâha illallâhu Rabbul- 'arshil- karîm.”

(28) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from the difficult moments of a calamity.

6347.Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to seek refuge with Allâh from the difficult moments of a calamity and from being overtaken by Ásh-Shâqa‘ (wretchedness in the Hereafter or destruction, etc.) and from being destined to an evil end, and from the malicious joy of enemies. Sufyân said, “This narration contained three items only, but I added one. I do not know which one that was.”

(29) CHAPTER. The invocation of the Prophet ﷺ, “O Allâh! (Let me join) the Highest Companions.” (See Qur’ân V.4:69)

6348. Narrated ‘Aishah: When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was healthy, he used to say, “No Prophet dies till he is shown his place in Paradise, and then he is given the option (to live or die).” So when death

(1) (H. 6346) None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, the Majestic, the Most Forebearing. None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, the Lord of the Tremendous Throne. None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, the Lord of the heavens and the Lord of the earth and the Lord of the Honourable Throne.

(2) (H. 6347) From other sources it seems that the expression ‘the malicious joy of enemies’ is the item added by Sufyân.
approached him (during his illness), and while his head was on my thigh, he became unconscious for a while, and when he recovered, he fixed his eyes on the ceiling and said, “O Allah! (Let me join) the Highest Companions.” I said, “So, he does not choose us.” Then I realized that it was the application of the statement he used to relate to us when he was healthy. So that was his last utterance (before he died), i.e., “O Allah! (Let me join) the Highest Companions.”

(30) CHAPTER. The invocation for death or life.

6349. Narrated Qais: I came to Khabbab who had been branded with seven brands(1) and he said, “Had Allah’s Messenger not forbidden us to invoke (Allah) for death, I would have invoked (Allah) for it.”

6350. Narrated Qais: I came to Khabbab who had been branded with seven brands over his abdomen, and I heard him saying, “If the Prophet had not forbidden us to invoke (Allah) for death, I would have invoked (Allah) for it.”

(1) (H. 6349) As a treatment of an ailment he was suffering from.
6351. Narrated Anas: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "None of you should long for death because of a calamity that had befallen on him, and if he cannot, but long for death, then he should say, ‘O Allah! Let me live as long as life is better for me, and take my life if death is better for me.’"

6352. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazid: My aunt took me to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! My sister’s son is sick.” So he passed his hand over my head and invoked for Allah’s Blessing upon me and then performed the ablution. I drank from the water of his ablution and I stood behind him and looked at his Khatam (the Seal of Prophethood) between his shoulders (and its size was) like the button of Al-Hajala (a big size button of a house tent).

6353. Narrated Abū ‘Aqil that his grandfather ‘Abdullāh bin Hīshām used to take him from the market, or to the market (the narrator is in doubt) and used to buy grain, and when Ibn Az-Zubair and Ibn ‘Umar met him, they would say to him, “Let us be your partners (in trading) as the Prophet ﷺ invoked for Allah’s Blessing…"
upon you.” He would then take them as partners and he would sometimes gain a whole load carried by an animal which he would send home.

6354. Narrated Maḥmūd bin Ar-Rabī’ on whose face Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had thrown water from his mouth, the water having been taken from their well while he was still a young boy (who had not yet attained the age of puberty).

6355. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Infants used to be brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he used to invoke for Allāh’s Blessings upon them. Once an infant was brought to him and it urinated on his clothes. He asked for water and poured it over the place of the urine and did not wash his clothes.

6356. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Tha’laba bin Ṣu’air whose eye Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had touched, that he had seen Sa’d bin Abi Waqqās offering one Rak‘a only for the Witr prayer.

(32) CHAPTER. ʿAṣ-Ṣalāt(1) upon the Prophet ﷺ.

(1) (Ch. 32) ‘O Allāh! Send Your (Graces, Honours, Blessings and Mercy, etc.) upon the Prophet ﷺ.’
6357. Narrated 'Abdul-Rahmân bin Abi Lailâ: Ka'b bin 'Ujra met me and said, „Shall I give you a present? Once the Prophet came to us and we said, 'O Allâh’s Messenger! We know how to greet you; but how to send Salât upon you?' He said, 'Say: Allâhumma salli 'alâ Muhammedin, wa 'alâ ali Muhammedin, kamâ sallaita 'alâ ali Ibrâhîma, innaka Hamidun Majîd. Allâhumma bârik 'alâ Muhammedin, wa 'alâ ali Muhammedin, kamâ bârakta 'alâ ali Ibrâhîma, innaka Hamidun Majîd.'”(1)

6358. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: We said, „O Allâh’s Messenger! This is (i.e., we know) the greeting to you; will you tell us how to send Salât upon you?” He said, „Say: Allâhumma salli 'alâ Muhammedin ‘abdika wa rasûlika kamâ sallaita 'alâ Ibrâhîma, wa bârik 'alâ Muhammedin wa 'alâ ali Muhammedin kamâ bârakta 'alâ Ibrâhîma wa ali Ibrâhîma.”(2)

(1) (H. 6357) ‘O Allâh! Send Your Salât (Graces, Honours, Blessings and Mercy, etc.) on Muhammed and on Muhammed’s family (or his followers) as You sent Your Salât on (Prophet) Ibrâhîm’s family (or his followers). O Allâh! Send Your Blessings on Muhammad and on Muhammad’s family (or his followers) as You sent Your Blessings on Ibrâhîm’s family. You are indeed Worthy of all praise, full of glory.’

(2) (H. 6358) ‘O Allâh! Send Your Salât (Graces, Honours, Blessings and Mercy, etc.) on Muhammad, Your slave and Your Messenger as You sent Your Salât on Ibrâhîm, and send Your Blessings on Muhammad and his family as You sent Your Blessings on (Prophet) Ibrâhîm and Ibrâhîm’s family (or his followers).’
(33) CHAPTER. Can one (ask Allah) to send \( \text{Salât} \) on anybody other than the Prophet ﷺ? And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

"...And invoke Allah for them. Verily! Your invocations are a source of security for them..." (V.9:103)

6359.Narrated Ibn Abi Aufâ: Whenever somebody brought alms to the Prophet ﷺ he used to say, "\( \text{Allâhumma salli 'alaihi} \) [O Allah! Send Your \( \text{Salát} \) (Graces and Honours, Blessings and Mercy, etc.) on him]." Once when my father brought his alms to him, he said, "O Allah! Send Your \( \text{Salât} \) on the family of Abi Aufâ."

6360. Narrated Abû Ḥumaid As-Sã‘i’di: The people said, "O Allah’s Messenger! How should we send \( \text{Salãt} \) on you?" He said, "Say: \( \text{Allâhumma salli ‘alâ Muḥammadin wa azwâjih} \) wa dhurriyathi kamâ sallaita ‘alâ ãli Ibrâhîm; wa ãrîk ‘alâ Muḥammadin wa azwâjih wa dhurriyâthi, kamâ bârakta ‘alâ ãli Ibrâhîma, innaka Ḥamîdun Majîd."(1)

(34) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: "(O Allah!) If I should harm somebody, let that be a means of purification and mercy for him."

6361. Narrated Abû Hurairah: "(H. 6360) ‘O Allah! send Your \( \text{Salât} \) on Muḥammad and his wives and his offspring as You sent Your \( \text{Salât} \) on the family of (Prophet) Ibrâhîm; and also send Your Blessings on Muḥammad and his wives and his offsprings as You sent Your Blessings on the family of Ibrâhîm. You are indeed the One Who deserves praises and glorifications.'

1. (H. 6360) ‘O Allah! send Your \( \text{Salât} \) on Muḥammad and his wives and his offspring as You sent Your \( \text{Salât} \) on the family of (Prophet) Ibrâhîm; and also send Your Blessings on Muḥammad and his wives and his offsprings as You sent Your Blessings on the family of Ibrâhîm. You are indeed the One Who deserves praises and glorifications.'
that he heard the Prophet saying, “O Allah! If I should ever abuse a believer, please let that be a means of bringing him near to You on the Day of Resurrection.”

(35) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allah from Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).

6362. Narrated Anas: Once the people started asking Allah’s Messenger questions, and they asked so many questions that he became angry and ascended the pulpit and said, “I will answer whatever questions you may ask me today.” I looked right and left and saw everyone covering his face with his garment and weeping. Behold! There was a man who, on quarrelling with the people, used to be called as a son of a person other than his father. He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who is my father?” The Prophet replied, “Your father is Hudhaifa.” And then ‘Umar got up and said, “We accept Allah as our Lord, and Islam as (our) religion, and Muhammad as (our) Messenger; and we seek refuge with Allah from Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).” Allah’s Messenger said, “I have never seen a day like today in its good and its evil for Paradise and the Hell-fire were displayed in front of me, till I saw them just beyond this wall.” Qatada, when relating this Hadith used to mention the following Verse:

“O you who believe! Ask not about things

(1) (H. 6361) This does not mean that the Prophet might abuse somebody without reason, but it means that he might abuse somebody because of his apparent behaviour while his intention was honest.
which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble...” (V.5:101)

(36) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from being overpowered by (other) men.

6363. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik:
The Prophet ﷺ said to Abû Talha, “Choose one of your boys to serve me.” So Abû Ṭalḥa took me (to serve the Prophet) by giving me a ride behind him (on his camel). So I used to serve Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. Whenever he stayed somewhere, I used to hear him saying very often, “O Allâh! I seek refuge with You (Allâh) from worries and grief, from weakness and laziness, from miserliness and cowardice, from being heavily in debt and from being overpowered by other men.” I kept on serving him till he returned from (the battle of) Khaibar. He then brought Safiyya, the daughter of Huyai whom he had got (from the booty). I saw him making a kind of cushion with a cloak or a garment for her. He then let her ride behind him. When we reached a place called A-Sahbâ’, he prepared (a special meal called) Hâs, and asked me to invite the men who (came and) ate, and that was the marriage banquet given on the consummation of his marriage to her. Then he proceeded till the mountain of Ubd appeared, whereupon he said, “This mountain loves us and we love it.” When he approached Al-Madîna, he said, “O Allâh! I make the land between its (i.e., Al-Madîna’s) two mountains a sanctuary, as the Prophet Ibrahim (Abraham) made Makkah a sanctuary. O Allâh! Bless them (the people of Al-Madîna) in their Mudd and their Šâ’ (units of measuring).”
6364. Narrated Umm Khalid: I heard the Prophet ﷺ seeking refuge with Allah from the punishment of the grave.

6365. Narrated Mu‘ab: Sa‘d used to recommend five (statements) and mentioned that the Prophet ﷺ used to recommend them. (They were:) “O Allah! I seek refuge with You from miserliness; and I seek refuge with You from cowardice; and I seek refuge with You from being sent back to senile old age; and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trial and affliction), of this world (i.e., the Fitnah of Ad-Dajjal, etc.); and I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave.”

6366. Narrated ‘Aishah: Two old ladies from among the Jewish ladies entered upon me and said, “The dead are punished in their graves,” but I thought they were telling a lie and did not believe them in the beginning. When they went away and the Prophet ﷺ entered upon me, I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Two old ladies...” and told him the whole story. He said, “They told the truth; the dead are really punished, to the extent that all the animals hear (the sound resulting from) their punishment.” Since then I always saw him seeking refuge with Allâh from the punishment of the grave in his Salât (prayers).

(38) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of life and death.

6367. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allâh’s Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from weakness, and laziness, from cowardice and from senile old age, and I seek refuge with You from the punishment of the grave, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trial and affliction etc.) of life and death.”

(39) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from all kinds of sins and from being in debt.

6368. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from laziness and from senile old age, from all kinds of sins and from being in debt; from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of the grave and from the Fitnah of Fire and from the punishment in the grave and from the Fitnah of Fire and from the evil of the Fitnah of wealth; and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah of poverty, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah of Al-Mastî Ad-Dajjal. O Allâh! Wash away my sins with the water of snow and hail, and cleanse my heart from all the sins as a white garment is cleansed from the filth, and let there be a long distance between me and my sins, as You made east and west far from each other.”

(40) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allāh from cowardice and laziness.

6369. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from worry and grief, from weakness and laziness, from cowardice and miserliness, from being heavily in debt and from being overpowered by (other) men.” [See Hadith No. 6363.]

(41) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allāh from miserliness.

6370. Narrated Muṣ'ab bin Sa'd: Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās ﷺ used to recommend these five (statements) and say that the Prophet ﷺ said so (and they are): “O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from miserliness, and I seek refuge with You from cowardice; and I seek refuge with You from being sent back to senile old age, and I seek refuge with You from the punishment in the grave.”
(42) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from senile old age.

6371. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to seek refuge with Allâh saying, “O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from laziness, and I seek refuge with You from cowardice, and I seek refuge with You from senile old age, and I seek refuge with You from miserliness.”

(43) CHAPTER. To invoke Allâh to take away epidemic and diseases.

6372. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allâh! Make us love Al-Madîna as You made us love Makkah, or more, and transfer the fever that is in it to Al-Juhfâ. O Allâh! Bless our Mudd and our Ša’ (units of measuring).”

6373. Narrated ‘Amir bin Sa’id that his father said, “In the year of Hajjat-ul-Wadâ’, the Prophet ﷺ paid me a visit while I was suffering from an ailment that had brought me on the verge of death. I said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! My sickness has reduced me to the (bad) state as you see, and I am a rich man, but have no heirs except one daughter.”
Shall I give two-third of my property in charity?’ He said, ‘No.’ I said, ‘Then half of it?’ He said, ‘Even one-third is too much, for to leave your inheritors wealthy is better than to leave them in poverty, begging from people. And (know that) whatever you spend in Allāh’s Cause, you will get reward for it, even for the morsel of food which you put in your wife’s mouth.’ I said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Will I be left behind my companions (in Makkah)?’ He said, ‘If you remain behind, whatever good deeds you will do for Allāh’s sake, will raise and upgrade you to a higher position (in Allāh’s Consideration). May be you will live longer so that some people may benefit by you, and some others may get harmed by you. O Allāh! Complete the emigration of my companions and do not turn them on their heels;’ (1) But the poor Sa’d bin Khaula (not the above mentioned Sa’d) (died in Makkah).” Allāh’s Messenger lamented (or pitied) for him as he died in Makkah.

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4409]

(44) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allāh from senile old age and from the Fitnah (trial and affliction), of this world and from the Fitnah of the Hell-fire.

6374. Narrated Sa’d: Seek refuge with Allāh by saying the words which the Prophet used to say while seeking refuge with Allāh: “O Allāh! I seek refuge with You from cowardice, and I seek refuge with You from miserliness, and I seek refuge with You from being sent back to (reaching a

(1) (H. 6373) The Prophet wished that none of the Emigrants should die somewhere other than Al-Madina, the place of their emigration.
(45) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allah from the Fitnah (trial and affliction etc.) of wealth.

6376. Narrated ‘Aisha: The Prophet (ﷺ) used to seek refuge with Allah (by saying), “O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of the Fire and from the punishment in the Fire, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah of the grave, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah of poverty, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah of Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal.”
(46) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of poverty.

6377. Narrated `Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trial and affliction, etc.) of the Fire, the punishment of the Fire, the Fitnah of the grave, punishment of the grave, and the evil of the Fitnah of wealth, and the evil of the Fitnah of poverty. O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from the evil of the Fitnah of Al-Mâshi Ad-Dajîl. O Allâh! Cleanse my heart with the water of snow and hail, and cleanse my heart from all sins as a white garment is cleansed from filth, and let there be a far away distance between me and my sins as You made the east and west far away from each other. O Allâh! I seek refuge with You from laziness, sins, and from being in debt.”

(47) CHAPTER. The invocation (to invoke Allâh) for an increase in wealth and offspring, and for Allâh’s Blessing.

6378, 6379. Narrated Umm Sulaim that she said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Anas is your servant; so please invoke for Allâh’s Blessing for him.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allâh! Increase his wealth and offspring and bless (for him) whatever You give him.”
CHAPTER. To invoke Allâh for an increase of offspring, along with His Blessings.

6380, 6381. Narrated Anas: Umm Sulaim said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Anas is your servant; so please invoke for Allâh’s Blessings for him.” He ﷺ said “O Allâh! Increase his wealth and offspring, and bless (for him) whatever You give him.”

(48) CHAPTER. The invocation on making Istikhârah (an appeal to Allâh to guide you on the right path as regards a certain matter).

6382. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet ﷺ used to teach us the Istikhârah for every matter as he used to teach us the Sûrah from the Qur’ân. (He used to say), “If anyone of you intends to do something, he should offer a two Rak’a prayer other than the obligatory Salah (prayer), and then say: ‘Allâhumma inni astakhiruka bi’ilmika, wa astaqdiruka biqudratika, wa as’aluka min fadlikal-‘azîm, fainnaka taqdiru wa lâ aqdiru, wa talaru la a’lamu, wa Anta ‘Allâmul-Ghuyûb. Allâhumma in kunta ta’lamu anna hâdhal-amra khairun li fi dinî wa ma’âshi wa ’aqibati amrî (or said: fi’ajili amrî wa ajilihi) faqdirhu li. Wa in kunta ta’lamu anna hâdhal-amra sharrun li fi dinî wa ma’âshi wa ’aqibati amrî (or said: fi’ajili amrî wa ajilihi) fasîrfhu annî was-rafî ’anhu, waqdur li al-khâira huîhu kânî, thumma ra’dînî bihi.” (1) Then he should mention his matter (need).”
(49) CHAPTER. Invoking Allâh while performing ablution.

6383. Narrated Abû Mûsâ: The Prophet ﷺ asked for some water and performed the ablution, and then raised his hands (towards the sky) and said, “O Allâh! Forgive ‘Ubaid Abi ‘Amir.” I saw the whiteness of his armpits (while he was raising his hands) and he (ﷺ) added, “O Allâh! Upgrade him over many of your human creatures on the Day of Resurrection.”

(50) CHAPTER. Invoking Allâh while ascending a high place.

6384. Narrated Abû Mûsâ: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on a journey, and whenever we ascended a high place, we used to say Takbīr (1) (in a loud voice). The Prophet ﷺ said, “O people! Be kind to yourselves, for you are not calling upon a deaf or an absent one, but you are calling an All-Hearer, and an All-Seer.” Then he came to me as I was reciting silently, “Lā hūla wa lā quwwata i/lā billāh.” He said, “O ‘Abdullāh bin Qais! Say: ‘Lā hūla wa lā quwwata i/lā billāh,’ for it is one of the treasures of Paradise.” Or he said, “Shall I tell you a word which is one of the treasures of Paradise? It is: Lā hūla wa lā quwwata i/lā billāh.” (2)

(51) CHAPTER. Invoking Allāh while going down a valley.

In this respect there is a narration from Jābir ﷺ:

(52) CHAPTER. The invocation while going on a journey or returning from a journey.

In this respect there is a narration from Anas.

6385.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ returned from a Ghazwa or Hajj or ‘Umra, he used to say, “Allāhu–Akbar”, three times whenever he went up a high place and then he used to say, “Lā ilāha illallāhu Wahdahu lā sharika lahū, lahūl–mulku wa lahu–hamdu, wa Huwa ālā kulli shai‘in Qadr. Āyibūna tā‘ibūna, ābidūna lirabbīna āhidūn. Sadaqallāhu” (1) (H. 6384) ‘Allāhu Akbar’ (Allāh is the Most Great).

(2) (H.6384) There is neither might nor power except with Allāh.
wa’dahū, wa našara ‘abdahū, wa hazamal-ahzāba Waḥdahū.”(1)

(53) CHAPTER. Invocation for a bridegroom.

6387. Narrated Jâbir: My father died and left behind seven or nine daughters, and I married a matron. The Prophet said, “Did you get married, 0 Jâbir?” I replied, “Yes.” He asked, “Is she a virgin or a matron?” I replied, “She is a matron.” He said, “Why didn’t you marry a virgin girl so that you might play with her and she make you laugh?” I said, “My father died, leaving seven or nine girls (orphans) and I did not like to bring a young girl like them, so I married a woman who can look after them.”

(1) (H. 6385) None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, the One and has no partner. To Him belongs the kingdom, and all praise be to Him, and He is Omnipotent. We are returning from our journeys with repentance and worshipping and praising our Lord. He (Allâh) has fulfilled His Promise and helped His slave, and He Alone defeated all the Confederates (of disbelievers).
He said, “May Allah bestow His Blessing on you.”

(54) CHAPTER. What one should say before having sexual intercourse with his wife.

6388. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you, when intending to have a sexual intercourse with his wife, says: ‘Bismillah, Allahumma jannibnash-shaitāna, wa jannibish-shaitāna ma razaqtana,’ (1) and if the couple are destined to have a child (out of that very sexual relation), then Satan will never be able to harm that child.”

(55) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Our Lord! Give us in this world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good and save us from this torment of the Fire!” (V.2:201)

6389. Narrated Anas: The most frequent invocation of the Prophet ﷺ was: “O Allah! Give us in this world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good, and save us from the torment of the Fire.” (V.2:201)

---

(1) (H. 6388) In the Name of Allah; O Allah! Protect us from Satan and prevent Satan from approaching the child You may bestow us with.
(56) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of the world.

6390. Narrated Sa'd bin Abi Waqqâs رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ used to teach us these words as he used to teach us the Book (the Qur'an): “O Allâh! I seek refuge with you from miserliness, and I seek refuge with You from cowardice, and I seek refuge with You from being sent back to senile old age, and I seek refuge with You from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of the world and from the punishment in the grave.”

(57) CHAPTER. To repeat the invocation.

6391. Narrated ‘Aishah ﻦزính الله ﴿: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was affected by magic, so much that he used to think that he had done something which in fact, he did not do, and he invoked his Lord (Allâh) (for a remedy). Then (one day) he said, “O ‘Aishah! Do you know that Allâh has advised me as to the problem I consulted Him about?” ‘Aishah said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What’s that?” He said, “Two men came to me and one of them sat at my head and the other at my feet, and one of them asked his companion, ‘What is wrong with this man?’ The latter replied, ‘He is under the effect of magic.’ The former asked, ‘Who has worked magic on him?’ The latter replied, ‘Labid bin Al-A’şam.’ The former asked, ‘With what did he work the magic?’ The latter replied, ‘With a comb and the hair, which are stuck to the comb, and the skin of pollen of a date-palm tree.’ The former asked, 'Where is that?' The latter replied, 'It is in Dharwân.' Dharwân was a well in the dwelling place of the (tribe of) Bani Zuraïq. Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ) went to that well and returned to ‘Aîshah, saying, "By Allâh, the water (of the well) was as red as the infusion of Hinnââ. (1) and the date-palm trees looked like the heads of devils." ‘Aîshah added, "Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ) came to me and informed me about the well. I asked the Prophet (ﷺ), 'O Allâh’s Messenger, why didn’t you take it out?' He said, 'As for me, Allâh has cured me and I hated to draw the attention of the people to such evil (which they might learn and harm others with).’"

Narrated Hishâm’s father: ‘Aîshah said, "Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ) was bewitched, so he invoked Allâh repeatedly requesting Him to cure him (from that magic)."’ Hishâm then narrated the above narration.

[See Vol. 7, Hadîth No. 5763, 5765]

(58) CHAPTER. To invoke Allâh against Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ)].

And Ibn Maṣ‘ûd said, ‘The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “O Allâh! Help me against them by sending seven years (of drought) upon them (the infidels), like the seven years (of drought) of (days of Prophet) Yusûf (Joseph).”’ He also said, “O Allâh! Destroy Abû Jahl.”

And Ibn ‘Umar said, ‘The Prophet (ﷺ) invoked Allâh in the Salât (prayer), saying, ‘O Allâh! Curse so-and-so and so-and-so, till Allâh revealed: “Not for you (O Muḥammad (ﷺ) but for Allâh) is the decision.” (V.3:128)

6392. Narrated Ibn Abî Aufâ: Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ) asked for Allâh’s

(1) (H. 6391) Al-Hinnâ: (Henna) a kind of plant used for dyeing hair.
Wrath upon the Ahzāb (Confederates), saying, “O Allāh, the Revealer of the Holy Book, and the One Swift at reckoning! Defeat the Confederates. Defeat them and shake them.”

6393. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When the Prophet迁 said, "Sami‘allāhu liman hamidah (Allāh heard him who sent his praises to Him)" in the last Rak‘a of the ‘Ishā‘ prayer, he used to invoke Allāh, saying, “O Allāh! Save ‘Aiyāsh bin Abī Rabī‘a. O Allāh! Save Al-Walid bin Al-Walid. O Allāh! Save the weak people among the believers. O Allāh! Be hard on the tribe of Muṣār. O Allāh! Inflict years of drought upon them like the years (of drought) of (the Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).”

6394. Narrated Anas迁: The Prophet迁 sent a Sarīya(1) consisting of men called Al-Qurrā’, and all of them were martyred. I had never seen the Prophet迁 so sad over anything as he was over them. So he said Qunūt [invocation in the Ṣalāt (prayer)] for one month in the Fajr prayer, invoking for Allāh’s Wrath upon the tribe of ‘Uṣaiyya and he used to say, “The people of Uṣaiyya have disobeyed Allāh and His Messenger.”

(1) (H. 6394) Sarīya: Army unit.
6395. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Jews used to greet the Prophet ﷺ by saying, “As-Sāmu ‘alaika (i.e., death be upon you),” so I understood what they said, and I said to them, ‘Alaikumus-sāmu wal-la ‘natu (i.e., death and Allah’s Curse be upon you).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Be gentle and calm, O ‘Āishah, as Allah likes gentleness in all affairs.”

I said, “O Allah’s Prophet! Didn’t you hear what they said?” He said, “Didn’t you hear me answering them back by saying, ‘Alaikum, (i.e., the same be upon you)?”

6396. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭalib: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq (the Trench). The Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allah fill their (the infidels’) graves and houses with fire, as they have kept us so busy that we could not offer the middle Salāt (prayer) till the sun had set; and that Salāt was the ‘Aṣr prayer”.

(59) CHAPTER. Invocation in favour of Al-Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ)].

6397. Narrated Abū Hurairah: At-Tufail bin ‘Amr came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The tribe of Daus has disobeyed (Allah and His Messenger) and refused (to embrace Islam), therefore, invoke Allah’s Wrath upon them.” The people thought that the Prophet would invoke Allah’s Wrath for them, but he said, “O Allah! Guide the tribe of Daus and let them come to us.”

(60) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “O Allah! Forgive my past and future sins.”

6398. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet used to invoke Allah with the following invocation: “Rabbighfirli khaṭi‘ati wa jahlī wa isrāfī fi amrī kullihī, wa mā Anta a’lamu bihi minni. Allāhumma gfrī khatayaya wa amdi wa jahlī wa jiddī; wa kālu dha/ka ‘amdi. Allāhumma gfrī ma qaddamtu wa ma akh- khartu, wa mā asrartu wa mā a’lantu. Antal-muqaddimu wa Antal-mu’akh-khiru, wa Anta ālā kulli shai’in Qadîr.”

(1) (H. 6398) ‘O my Lord! Forgive my sins and my ignorance and my exceeding the limits (i.e., all my great sins), and what You know better than I. O Allah! Forgive my mistakes, those done intentionally or out of my ignorance or (without) or with seriousness, and I confess that all such mistakes are done by me. O Allah! Forgive my sins of the past which I did openly or secretly, and also of the future. You are the One Who makes the things go ahead and You are the One Who delays them, and You are the Omnipotent.’
6399. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-Ash’āri:
The Prophet used to invoke Allāh, saying, "Allāhumma ḥafirli ḥazīlī wa jīdī, wa khata ḭuwa ‘amdī, wa kullu-dhalika ‘indi."(1)

6400. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Abūl-Qasim (the Prophet said, “On Friday there is an hour (opportune — lucky time) and if a Muslim happens to be offering Ṣalāt (prayer) and invoking Allāh for something good during that time, Allāh will surely fulfil his request.” The Prophet pointed out with his hand. We thought that he wanted to illustrate the shortness of that time.

(61) CHAPTER. To invoke Allāh during a particular time on Friday (when the invocation is accepted).

(62) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “Our invocation against the Jews will be accepted (by Allāh), but their invocations against us will not be accepted.”

6401. Narrated Ibn Abī Mulaika: ‘Āishah \(\text{رضي الله عنها}\) said, “The Jews came to the Prophet \(\text{صلى الله عليه وسلم}\) and said to him, ‘\text{ัสـَمَعُ اَلَّيْكَ (i.e., death be upon you)}.’” He replied, ‘The same on you.’” ‘Āishah said to them, “Death be upon you, and may Allah curse you and shower His Wrath upon you!” Allah’s Messenger \(\text{صلى الله عليه وسلم}\) said, “Be gentle and calm, O ‘Āishah! Be gentle and beware of being harsh and of saying evil things.” She said, “Didn’t you hear what they said?” He said, “Didn’t you hear what I replied (to them)? I have returned their statement to them, and my invocation against them will be accepted but theirs against me will not be accepted.”

(63) CHAPTER. The saying of ‘\text{أَمْنِ}’.

6402. Narrated Abū Hurairah \(\text{صَلِّى الله عليه وسلم}\): The Prophet \(\text{صَلِّى الله عليه وسلم}\) said, “When the \text{إِمَام} says ‘\text{أَمْنِ}’, then you should all say ‘\text{أَمْنِ}’, for the angels say ‘\text{أَمْنِ}’ at that time, and he whose \text{إِمَام} coincides with the ‘\text{أَمْنِ}’ of the angels, all his past sins will be forgiven.”

(64) CHAPTER. The superiority of saying, “\text{لَا يَلِهَا إِلا اللَّهُ}.”(1)

6403. Narrated Abū Hurairah \(\text{صَلِّى الله عليه وسلم}\): Allah’s Messenger \(\text{صَلِّى الله عليه وسلم}\) said, “Whoever says: \(\text{لَا يَلِهَا إِلا اللَّهُ} \text{وَحَدُّهُ} \text{لاَ شَرِيكَ لَهُ}\), 6404.Narrated ‘Amr bin Mâimûn: Whoever recites it (i.e., the invocation in the above Hadith No. 6403) ten times will be as if he manumitted one of Ismâ’îl’s descendants.

Narrated Abû Ayyûb Al-Ansârî the same Hadith from the Prophet ﷺ, saying, “(Whosoever recites it ten times) will be as if he had manumitted one of Ishmael’s (Prophet Ishmael’s) descendants.”

(65) CHAPTER. The superiority of Tasbih [i.e., saying ‘Subḥān Allāḥ’ (Glorified be Allāḥ)]. (1)

6405. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever says, ‘Subḥān Allāhī wa biḥamdihi,’ (2) one hundred times a day, will be forgiven all his sins even if they were as much as the foam of the sea.

6406. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There are two expressions which are very easy for the tongue to say, but they are very heavy in the balance, and are very dear to the Most Gracious (Allāh), and they are: ‘Subḥān Allāhil-‘Azīm’ and ‘Subḥān Allāhi wa biḥamdihi.’”

(66) CHAPTER. The superiority of Dhikr of Allāh (remembering Allāh i.e., glorifying and praising Him, etc.).

6407. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of the one who remembers (glorify the Praises of) his Lord (Allāh) in comparison to the one who does not remembers (glorify the Praises of) his Lord, is that of a living creature compared to a dead one.”

6408. Narrated Abū Hurairah: (1) (Ch. 65) I deem Allāh above all those unsuitable things ascribed to Him and free Him resembling anything whatsoever in any respect, and I glorify His Praises. (Also see glossary for Subḥān Allāh.)

(2) (H. 6405) Glorified be Allāh, the Most Great! Glorified be Allāh and Praised be He.
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah has some angels who look for those who remember (glorify the Praises of) Allah on the roads and paths. And when they find some people remembering (glorifying the Praises of) Allah, they call each other, saying, ‘Come to the object of your pursuit.’” He added, “Then the angels encircle them with their wings up to the nearest heaven to us.” He added, “[After those people remembered (glorified the Praises of) Allah, and the angels go back to Allah], their Lord asks them (those angels) — though He knows better than them — ‘What do My slaves say?’ The angels reply, ‘They say: Subhãn Allah, Allãh-u-Akbar, and Al-Hamdu-lillãh’. Allah then says, ‘Did they see Me?’ The angels reply, ‘No! By Allah, they didn’t see You.’ Allah says, ‘How it would have been if they saw me?’ The angels reply, ‘If they saw You, they would worship You more devoutly and remember You (glorify Your Praises) more deeply, and declare Your freedom from any resemblance to anything more often.’ Allah says (to the angels), ‘What do they ask Me for?’ The angels reply, ‘They ask You for Paradise.’ Allah says (to the angels), ‘Did they see it?’ The angels say, ‘No! By Allah, O Lord! They did not see it.’ Allah says, ‘How it would have been if they saw it?’ The angels say, ‘If they saw it, they would have greater covetousness for it and would seek it with greater zeal and would have greater desire for it.’ Allah says, ‘From what do they seek refuge?’ The angels reply, ‘They seek refuge from the (Hell) Fire.’ Allah says, ‘Did they see it?’ The angels say, ‘No! By Allah, O Lord! They did not see it.’ Allah says, ‘How it would have been if they saw it?’ The angels say, ‘If they saw it they would flee from it with the extreme fleeing and would have extreme fear from it.’ Then Allah says, ‘I make you witnesses that I have forgiven them.’” (Allâh’s Messenger [N.B. added:] “One of the angels would say, ‘There was so-and-so amongst them, and he was not one of them, but he had just come for some need.’ Allâh would say, ‘These are those people whose companions will not be reduced to misery.’”

(67) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the statement: ‘Ô là hâla wa, là quwwata illa billâh’ (i.e., There is neither might nor power except with Allâh).

6409. Narrated Abû Mûsa Al-Ash’ârî: The Prophet ﷺ started ascending a high place or hill. A man (amongst his companions) ascended it and shouted in a loud voice, “Ô là ilâha ilallâhu wa-Allâhu Akbar (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh; and Allâh is the Most Great).” At that time Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was riding his mule. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “You are not calling upon a deaf or an absent one.” And added, “Ô Abû Mûsa (or, Ô ‘Abdullâh)! Shall I tell you a sentence from the treasures of Paradise?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Ô là hâla wa là quwwata illa billâh.”

(68) CHAPTER. Allâh has one hundred Names less one (i.e., 99).
6410. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah has ninety-nine Names, i.e., one hundred less one, and whoever complies with (believes in) their meanings and acts accordingly, will enter Paradise; and Allah is Al-Witr (one) and loves Al-Witr.

(69) CHAPTER. Preaching at intervals.

6411. Narrated Shaqiq: While we were waiting for ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd), Yazid bin Mu‘awiya came. I said (to him), “Will you sit down?” He said, “No, but I will go into the house (of Ibn Mas‘ūd) and let your companion (Ibn Mas‘ūd) come out to you; and if he should not (come out), I will come out and sit (with you).” Then ‘Abdullāh came out, holding the hand of Yazid, addressed us saying, “I know that you are assembled here, but the reason that prevents me from coming out to you is that Allah’s Messenger used to preach us at intervals during the days, lest we should become bored.”
(i.e., the Hadith that makes the heart soft and tender by affecting the emotions and feelings of the one who hears it.)

(1) CHAPTER. Health and leisure (free time for doing good deeds). There is no life worth living except the life in the Hereafter.

6412. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, "There are two blessings which many people lose: (They are) Health and free time for doing good." (1)

6413. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, "O Allâh! There is no life worth living except the life of the Hereafter, so (please) make righteous the Anṣâr and the emigrants."

6414. Narrated Sahî bin Sa'd As-Sâ'i'di: We were in the company of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ in (the battle of) Al-Khandaq, and he was digging the trench while we were carrying the earth away. He

(1) (H. 6412) This means that many people do not use their health and free time, in gaining more and more of good deeds.
looked at us and said, “O Allāh! There is no life worth living except the life of the Hereafter, so (please) forgive the Ānṣār and the emigrants.”

(2) CHAPTER. The example of this world in contrast with the Hereafter.
And the Statement of Allāh:

“Know that the life of this world is only play and amusement, pomp and mutual boasting among you, and rivalry in respect of wealth and children. (It is) as the likeness of vegetation after rain, thereof the growth is pleasing to the tiller; afterwards it dries up and you see it turning yellow; then it becomes straw. But in the Hereafter (there is) a severe torment (for the disbelievers — evil-doers), and (there is) Forgiveness from Allāh and (His) Good Pleasure (for the believers — good-doers). And the life of this world is only a deceiving enjoyment.”

(V.57:20)

6415. Narrated Sahl: I heard the Prophet saying, “A (small) place equal to an area occupied by a whip in Paradise is better than the (whole) world and whatever is in it; and an undertaking (journey) in the forenoon or in the afternoon for Allāh’s Cause, is better than the (whole) world and whatever is in it.”

(3) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “Be in this world as if you were a stranger.”

took hold of my shoulder and said, ‘Be in this world as if you were a stranger or a traveller.’”

The subnarrator added: Ibn ‘Umar used to say, “If you survive till the evening, do not expect to be alive in the morning, and if you survive till the morning, do not expect to be alive in the evening, and take from your health for your sickness, and (take) from your life for your death.”

(4) CHAPTER. About hope and hoping too much (for long life and worldly pleasures).

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“...And whoever is removed away from the Fire and admitted to Paradise, he indeed is successful...” (V.3:185)

And also the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“(O Muhammad!) Leave them to eat and enjoy and let them be preoccupied with (false) hope. They will come to know!” (V.15:3)

And ‘Ālī bin Abī Ṭālib said, “The world is going backward and the Hereafter is coming forwards, and each of the two has its own children; so you should be the children of the Hereafter, and do not be the children of this world, for today there is action (good or bad deeds) but no accounts, and tomorrow there will be accounts, but (there will be) no deeds to be done.”

6417. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ drew a square and then drew a line in the middle of it and extended it outside the square and then drew several small lines attached to that central line, and said, “This is the human being, and this (the square) is his lease of life (his or her day of death) encircles him from all sides (or has encircled him), and this (line) which is outside (the square) is his hope, and these small lines are the calamities and troubles (which may befall him), and if one misses him, another will snap (i.e., overtake) him, and if the other misses him, a third will snap him.”

(1) (H. 6416) This means, ‘Do good deeds when you are healthy and alive before you become sick and die.’

6418. Narrated Anas bin Malik L
The Prophet ﷺ drew a few lines and said, “This is (man’s) hope, and this is the instant of his death, and while he is in this state (of hope), the nearer line (death) comes to him.”

(5) CHAPTER. If somebody reaches sixty years of age, he has no right to ask Allâh for a new lease of life (to make up for his past shortcomings), for Allâh Almighty says:
“...Did We not give you lives long enough, so that whoever would receive admonition could receive it? And the warner (of Allâh) came to you...” (V.35:37)

6419. Narrated Abû Hurairah L
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh will not accept the excuse of any person whose instant of death is delayed till he is sixty years of age.”(1)

(1) (H. 6419) Such a person will not have the right to say, “If Allâh had given me another lease of life, I would have done good deeds,” for he has been given a life long enough for him to do good deeds.
6420. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “The heart of an old man remains young in two respects, i.e., his love for the world (its wealth, amusements and luxuries) and his incessant hope.”

6421. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The son of Ādām (i.e., man) grows old and so also two (desires) grow with him, i.e., his love for wealth and (a wish for) a long life.”

(6) CHAPTER. The deed which is done seeking Allāh’s Countenance (i.e., for the sake of Allāh)

A narration related by Sa’d deals with this topic.

6422. Narrated Mahmūd bin Ar-Rabi’a: I remember that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ took water from a bucket (which was in our home used for getting water out of a well) with his mouth (and threw it on my face). (See H. 77)

6423. Narrated ‘Itbān bin Mālik Al-Anṣārī who was one of the men of the tribe of Banī Sālim: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to me and said, “None will come on the Day of Resurrection who has said: ‘La ilāha illallāh’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) sincerely, seeking Allāh’s Countenance (i.e., for Allāh’s sake only) but will be saved from Hell-fire by Allāh.”

6424. Narrated Abī Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh says, ‘I have nothing to give but Paradise as a reward to my slave, a true believer of Islamic Monotheism, who, if I cause his dear friend (or relative) to die, remains patient (and hopes for Allāh’s Reward).’”

(7) CHAPTER. The warning regarding worldly pleasures, amusements and competing against each other for the enjoyment thereof.

6425. Narrated ‘Amr bin ‘Auf, an ally of the tribe of Bani ‘Amir bin Lu’ā’i and one of those who had witnessed the battle of Badr with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāh to Bahrain to collect the Jizya (tax). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had concluded a peace treaty with the people of Bahrain and appointed Al-Alā’ bin Al-Ḥadrāmi as their chief; Abū ‘Ubaida arrived from Bahrain with the money. The Ansār heard of Abū ‘Ubaida’s arrival which coincided with the Fajr Salāt (prayer) led by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. When the Prophet ﷺ finished the Salāt (prayer) they came to him. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ smiled when he saw them and said, “I think you have heard of the arrival of Abū ‘Ubaida and that he has brought something.” They replied, “Yes, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “Have the good news, and hope for what will please you. By Allāh, I am not afraid that you will become poor, but I am afraid that worldly wealth will be given to you in abundance as it was given to those (nations) before you, and you will start competing each other for it as the previous nations competed for it, and then it will divert you (from good) as it diverted them.”

6426. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir: The Prophet ﷺ went out and offered the funeral Salāt (prayer) for the martyrs of the (battle of) Uḥud and then ascended the pulpit and said, “I am your predecessor and I am a witness against you. By Allāh, I am now looking at my Haud (Al-Kauthar) and I have been given the keys of the treasures of the earth (or he said, “the keys of the earth”). By Allāh! I am not afraid that after me you will worship others besides Allāh, but I am afraid that you will start competing for (the pleasures of) this world.”
6427. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī:

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The thing I am afraid of most for your sake is the worldly blessings which Allāh will bring forth to you.” It was said, “What are the blessings of this world?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “The pleasures of the world.” A man said, “Can the good bring forth evil?” The Prophet ﷺ kept quiet for a while till we thought that he was being inspired Divinely. Then he started removing the sweat from his forehead and said, “Where is the questioner?” That man said, “I (am present).” Abū Sa‘īd added: We thanked the man when the result (of his question) was such. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Good never brings forth but good. This wealth (of the world) is (like) green and sweet (fruit), and all the vegetation which grows on the bank of a stream either kills or nearly kills the animal that eats too much of it, except the animal that eats the Khadira (a kind of vegetation). Such an animal eats till its stomach is full and then it faces the sun and starts ruminating and then it passes out dung and urine and goes to eat again. This worldly wealth is (like) sweet (fruit), and if a person earns it (the wealth) in a legal way and spends it properly, then it is an excellent helper, and whoever earns it in an illegal way, he will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied.”

(1) One should not be greedy, for greed brings about destruction. Good itself does not produce evil; what produces evil is the wrong way we adopt in managing what is originally good.
6428. Narrated Zahdam bin Mudarrib: 'Imrân bin Ḥusain said: The Prophet said, "The best amongst you people are my contemporaries [i.e., the present (my) century (generation)] and then those who come after them [i.e., the next century (generation)]." 'Imrân added: I am not sure whether the Prophet mentioned two or three centuries generations after your present century (generation). The Prophet added, "And after them there will come people who will bear witness, though they will not be asked to give their witness; and they will be dishonest and will not be trustworthy, and they will make vows, but will not fulfil them, and fatness will appear among them."

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2651]

6429. Narrated 'Abdullâh: The Prophet said, "The best people are those of my century (generation), and then those who will come after them [the next century (generation)], and then those who will come after them [i.e., the next century (generation)], and then after them there will come people whose witness will precede their oaths, and whose oaths will precede their witness."

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2652]

6430. Narrated Qais: I heard Khabbâb, who had branded his abdomen with seven brands, (1) saying, "Had Allâh’s Messenger not forbidden us to invoke Allâh for death, I would have invoked Allâh for death. The Companions of Muhammad have left this world without taking anything of their reward in it (i.e., they will have perfect

(1) (H. 6430) Khabbâb was sick and therefore he branded his abdomen as a kind of treatment.
reward in the Hereafter), but we have collected of the worldly wealth that we cannot spend but on earth (i.e., on building houses)."

6431. Narrated Qais: I came to Khabbab while he was building a wall; and he (Khabbab) said, “Our companions who have left this world did not enjoy anything of their reward therein; while we have collected after them much wealth that we cannot spend but on earth (i.e., on building).”

6432. Narrated Khabbab: We emigrated with the Prophet ... (This narration is related in connection with emigration). (See H. 1276)

(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

11. Mankind! Verily the Promise of Allah is true. So let not this present life deceive you, and let not the chief deceiver (Satan) deceive you about Allah. Surely, Satan is an enemy to you, so take (treat) him as an enemy. He only invites his Hizb (followers) that they may become the dwellers of the Blazing Fire.” (V.35:5,6)

6433. Narrated Ibn Aban: I brought water to ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân to perform the ablution while he was sitting on his seat. He performed ablution in a perfect way and said, “I saw the Prophet performing ablution in this place and he performed it in a perfect way and said, ‘Whoever performs ablution as I have... performed this time and then proceeds to the mosque and offers a two Rak'a prayer and then sits there [waiting for the compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers)], then all his past sins will be forgiven.”

The Prophet further added, “Do not be conceited [thinking that your sins will be forgiven because of your Salāt (prayer)].” (1)

(9) CHAPTER. The righteous people will depart (die).

6434. Narrated Mirdās Al-Aslami: The Prophet said, “The righteous (pious) people will depart (die) in succession one after the other, and there will remain (on the earth) useless people like the useless husk of barley seeds or bad dates, and Allāh will not care the least for them.”

(10) CHAPTER. The Fitnah (trial and affliction) of wealth should be warded off.

And the Statement of Allāh: “Your wealth and your children are only a trial…” (V.64:15)

6435. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Perish the slave of Dinār, Dirham, Qatīfa (thick soft cloth), and Khamiṣa (a garment), (2) for if he is given, he

---

(1) (H. 6433) One should not indulge in evil deeds thinking that one’s sins will be forgiven by just doing what is mentioned in this Hadīth, for Allāh accepts the Salāt (prayer) and good deeds of righteous people only.

(2) (H. 6435) This invocation is against the one whose concern is just to amass money and enjoy the pleasures of the world.
6436.Narrated Ibn `Abbas: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “If the son of Ādam (the human being) had two valleys of money, he would wish for a third, for nothing can fill the belly of Ādam’s son except dust,\(^1\) and Allâh forgives him who (repents to Him and) begs for His pardon.”

6437.Narrated Ibn `Abbâs: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “If the son of Ādam had money equal to a valley, then he will wish for another similar to it, for nothing can fill (satisfy) the eye of Ādam’s son except dust.\(^1\) And Allâh forgives him who (repents to Him and) begs for His pardon.”

Ibn ‘Abbâs said: I do not know whether this saying was quoted from the Qur’ân or not. ‘Aţâ said, “I heard Ibn Az-Zubair saying this narration while he was on the pulpit.”

6438.Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: I heard Ibn Az-Zubair saying this narration while he was on the pulpit.

\(^1\) (H. 6436) (H. 6437): This expression is a metonymy meaning, man continues to love wealth till he dies, for then he will no longer think of collecting wealth.
at Makkah, delivering a Khutba, saying, “O men! The Prophet ﷺ used to say, ‘If the son of Ādam were given a valley of gold, he would love to have a second one; and if he were given the second one, he would love to have a third, for nothing fills the belly of Ādam’s son except dust. And Allāh forgives him who (repents to Him and) begs for His pardon.’”

6439. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If Ādam’s son had a valley full of gold, he would like to have two valleys, for nothing fills his mouth except dust.\(^1\) And Allāh forgives him who (repents to Him and) begs for His pardon.”

6440. Ubayy said, “We considered this as a saying from the Qur’ān till the Sūrah (beginning with): ‘The mutual rivalry (for piling up of worldly things) diverts you’ (V.102:1) was revealed.”

(11) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Wealth is (like) green sweet (fruit).”

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “Beautified for men is the love of things they covet: women, children…” (V.3:14)

And ‘Umar said, “O Allāh! We cannot but be happy with those things which You have made fair in our eyes. O Allah! I request You to give me power to spend all those things in the right way.”

\(^1\) (H. 6439) The idea of death in this Hadith and the few preceding ones is expressed figuratively by the idea of filling one of the parts of the human body with dust.

6441. Narrated Ḥakīm bin Hizām: I asked the Prophet for some money and he gave me, and then again I asked him and he gave me, and then again I asked him and he gave me and he then said, “This wealth is (like) green and sweet (fruit), and whoever takes it without greed, Allah will bless it for him, but whoever takes it with greed, Allah will not bless it for him, and he will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied. And the upper (giving) hand is better than the lower (taking) hand.”

(12) CHAPTER. Whatever one spends from his money (on good deeds) will be better for him (in the Hereafter).

6442. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “Who among you considers the wealth of his heirs dearer to him than his own wealth?” They (the Companions) replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! There is none among us but loves his own wealth more.” The Prophet said, “So, his wealth is whatever he spends (in Allah’s Cause) during his life (on good deeds) while the wealth of his heirs is whatever he leaves after his death.”

(1) (H. 6442) What one spends during one’s lifetime for Allah’s sake is what one really owns, because one will get permanent reward for that in the Hereafter.
(13) CHAPTER. The rich (who do not spend their wealth on good deeds) are in fact the poor (i.e., little rewarded).

And the Statement of Allāh (swt): “Whosoever desires the life of the world and its glitter; to them We shall pay in full (the wages of) their deeds therein, and they will have no diminution therein. They are those for whom there is nothing in the Hereafter but Fire; and vain are the deeds they did therein. And of no effect is that which they used to do” (V.11:15,16)

6443. Narrated Abū Dhar: Once I went out at night and found Allāh’s Messenger (pbuh) walking all alone accompanied by no human being, and I thought that perhaps he disliked that someone should accompany him. So I walked in the shade, away from the moonlight but the Prophet (pbuh) looked behind and saw me and said, “Who is that?” I replied, “Abū that?!” He said, “0 Abū Dhar, let Allāh get me sacrificed for you!” So I accompanied him for a while and then he said, “The rich are in fact the poor (i.e., little rewarded) on the Day of Resurrection except him whom Allāh gives wealth which he spends (in charity) to his right, left, front and back, and performs good deeds with it.” I walked with him a little longer. Then he said to me, “Sit down here.” So he made me sit in an open space surrounded by rocks, and said to me, “Sit here till I come back to you.” He went towards Al-Ḥarra till I could not see him, and he stayed away for a long period, and then I heard him saying, while he was coming. “Even if he had committed theft, and even if he had committed illegal sexual intercourse?” When he came, I could not remain patient and asked him, “0 Allāh’s Prophet! Let Allāh get me sacrificed for you! Whom were you speaking to by the side of...
Al-Ḥarra? I did not hear anybody responding to your talk.” He said, ‘It was Jibril (Gabriel) who appeared to me beside Al-Ḥarra and said, ‘Give the good news to your followers that whoever dies without joining others in worship with Allāh, will enter Paradise.’ I said, ‘O Jibril! Even if he had committed theft or committed illegal sexual intercourse?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘Even if he has committed theft or committed illegal sexual intercourse?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘Even if he has committed theft or committed illegal sexual intercourse?’ He said, ‘Yes.’’’

(In some copies of Sahih Al-Bukhari it is also mentioned: “Even if he has drunk alcoholic liquors.”) have gold equal to this mount of Uḥud.”

6444.Narrated Abū Dhar: While I was walking with the Prophet in the Harra of Al-Madīna, Uḥud came in sight. The Prophet said, “O Abū Dhar!” I said, “Labbaik, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “I would not like to have gold equal to this mount of Uḥud, unless nothing of it, not even a single Dinār of it remains with me for more than three days, except something which I will keep for repaying debts. I would have spent all of it (distributed it) amongst Allāh’s slaves like this and like this, and like this.” The Prophet pointed out with his hand towards his right, his left and his back (while illustrating it). He proceeded with his walk and said, “The rich are in fact the poor (i.e., little rewarded) on the Day of Resurrection except those who spend their wealth like this, and like this, and like this; to their right, left and back, but such people are few in number.” Then he said to me, “Stay at your place and do not leave it till I come back.” Then he proceeded in the darkness of the night till he went out of sight, and then I heard a loud voice, and was afraid that something might have happened to the Prophet. I intended to go to him, but I remembered what he had said to me, i.e., ‘Don’t leave your place till I come back to you,’ so I remained at my place till he came back to me. I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I heard a voice and I was afraid.” So I mentioned the whole story to him. He said, “Did you hear it?” I replied, “Yes.” He said, “It was Jibrīl (Gabriel) who came to me and said, ‘Whoever died without joining others in worship with Allāh, will enter Paradise.’ I asked (Jibrīl), ‘Even if he had committed theft or committed illegal sexual intercourse?’ Gabriel said, ‘Yes, even if he had committed theft or committed illegal sexual intercourse.’"

6445. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If I had gold equal to the mountain of Uhud, it would not please me that anything of it should remain with me after three nights (i.e., I would spend all of it in Allah’s Cause) except what I would keep for repaying debts.”

(15) CHAPTER. True riches is self-contentment.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“Do they think that We enlarge them in wealth and children... (up to) ...and they have other (evil) deeds, besides, which they are doing,” (V.23:55-63)

Ibn ‘Uyaina said, “They have not done it, but they will surely do it.”

6446. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Riches does not mean having a great amount of property, but riches is self-contentment.”

(16) CHAPTER. The superiority of being poor.

6447. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa‘idi: A man passed by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and the Prophet ﷺ asked a man sitting beside him, “What is your opinion about this (passer-by)” He replied, “This (passer-by) is from the noble class of people. By Allāh, if he should ask for a lady's hand in marriage, he ought to be given her in marriage, and if he intercedes for somebody, his intercession will be accepted." Allāh's Messenger  kept quiet, and then another man passed by and Allāh's Messenger  asked the same man (his companion) again, “What is your opinion about this (second) one?” He said, “O Allāh's Messenger! This person is one of the poor Muslims. If he should ask a lady's hand in marriage, no one will accept him, and if he intercedes for somebody, no one will accept his intercession, and if he talks, no one will listen to his talk.” Then Allāh's Messenger  said, “This (poor man) is better than such a large number of the first type (i.e., rich men) as to fill the earth.”

6448. Narrated Abū Wā’il: We paid a visit to Khabbāb who was sick, and he said, “We emigrated with the Prophet  for Allāh's sake and our wages became due on Allāh's account. Some of us died without having received anything of the wages, and one of them was Muṣʿab bin 'Umair, who was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud, leaving only one sheet (to shroud him in). If we covered his head with it, his feet became uncovered, and if we covered his feet with it, his head became uncovered. So the Prophet  ordered us to cover his head with it and to put some ḍhkhir (a kind of grass) over his feet. On the other hand, some of us have had the fruits (of our good deed) and are plucking them (in this world).”

6449. Narrated 'Imrān bin Ḥūṣain: The Prophet  said, “I looked into Paradise and found that the majority of its dwellers were the poor people, and I looked into the (Hell) Fire and found that the majority of its dwellers were women.”

6450. Narrated Anas: The Prophet did not eat at a table till he died, and he did not eat a thin, nicely baked wheat bread till he died.

6451. Narrated 'Aishah: When the Prophet died, nothing which can be eaten by a living creature was left on my shelf except some barley grain. I ate of it for a period and when I measured it, it finished.

(17) CHAPTER. How the Prophet and his Companions used to live, and how they gave up their interest in the world.

6452. Narrated Abū Hurairah: By Allāh except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, (sometimes) I used to lay (sleep) on the ground on my liver (abdomen) because of hunger, and (sometimes) I used to

(17) باب: كيف كان ي👨‍👦‍👦 الأئم الرضٍّ

452 - حدثنا أبو نعيم بن نحو
بن منصف هذا الحديث: حدثنا عمرو
بن ذر: حدثنا مjahد: أن أبا مهْرَزَة bind a stone over my belly because of hunger.

One day I sat by the way from where they (the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions) used to come out. When Abū Bakr passed by, I asked him about a Verse from Allāh’s Book and I asked him only that he might satisfy my hunger, but he passed by and did not do so. Then ‘Umar passed by me and I asked him about a Verse from Allāh’s Book, and I asked him only that he might satisfy my hunger, but he passed by without doing so. Finally Abūl-Qasim (the Prophet ﷺ) passed by me and he smiled when he saw me, for he knew what was in my heart and on my face. He said, “O Abā Hirr (Abū Hurairah)! I replied, “Labbaik, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said to me, “Follow me.” He proceeded and I followed him. Then he entered the house and I asked permission to enter and was admitted. He found milk in a bowl and said, “From where is this milk?” They said, “It has been presented to you by such and such man (or by such and such woman).” He said, “O Abā Hirr!” I said, “Labbaik, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “Go and call the people of Suffa to me”. These people of Suffa were the guests of Islām who had neither families, nor money, nor anybody to depend upon, and whenever an object of charity was brought to the Prophet ﷺ he would send it to them and would not take anything from it, and whenever any present was given to him, he used to send some for them and take some of it for himself. The order of the Prophet ﷺ upset me, and I said to myself, “How will this little milk be enough for the people of As-Suffa?” (1) I thought I was more entitled to drink from

(1) (H. 6452) They were about eighty men or more and it is a miracle (*) from Allāh to the Prophet ﷺ that a small bowl of milk (hardly one kilogram) could be sufficient for over eighty men to drink to their fill.

(*) See the Miracles from Allāh to the Prophet ﷺ in Vol. I.
that milk in order to strengthen myself, but behold! The Prophet ﷺ came to order me to give that milk to them. I wondered what will remain of that milk for me, but anyway, I could not but obey Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ, so I went to the people of As-Suffa and called them, and they came and asked the Prophet’s permission to enter. They were admitted and took their seats in the house. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Āba-Hirr!” I said, “Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Take it and give it to them.” So I took the bowl (of milk) and started giving it to one man who would drink his fill and return it to me, whereupon I would give it to another man who, in his turn, would drink his fill and return it to me, and I would then offer it to another man who would drink his fill and return it to me. Finally, after the whole group had drunk their fill, I reached the Prophet ﷺ who took the bowl and put it on his hand, looked at me and smiled and said, “O Āba-Hirr!” I replied, “Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “There remain you and I.” I said, “You have said the truth, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “Sit down and drink.” I sat down and drank. He said, “Drink,” and I drank. He kept on telling me repeatedly to drink, till I said, “No, by Allāh Who sent you with the Truth, I have no space for it (in my stomach).” He said, “Hand it over to me.” When I gave him the bowl, he praised Allāh and pronounced Allāh’s Name on it and drank the remaining milk.

6453. Narrated Sa’d: I was the first man among the Arabs to shoot an arrow for Allâh's Cause. We used to fight in Allâh's Cause while we had nothing to eat except the leaves of Al-Hubla and the Samur trees (desert trees) so that we discharged excrement like that of sheep (i.e., unmixed droppings). Today the (people of the) tribe of Bani Asad teach me the laws of Islâm. If so, then I am lost, and all my efforts of that hard time had gone in vain.

6454.Narrated 'Aishah: The family of Muhammad had never eaten wheat bread to their satisfaction for three successive days since their arrival in Al-Madîna till the death of the Prophet.

6455.Narrated 'Aishah: The family of Muhammad did not eat two meals on one day, but one of the two was of dates.

6456.Narrated 'Aishah: The bed mattress of the Prophet was made of a leather case stuffed with palm fibres.

6457.Narrated Qatâda: We used to go to Anas bin Mãlik and see his baker standing (preparing the bread). Anas said, "Eat. I have not known that the Prophet ever saw a thin well-baked loaf of bread till he died, and he never saw a roasted sheep with his eyes.”

6458. Narrated ‘Aishah that she said to ‘Urwa: “O the son of my sister! We used to see three crescents in two months, and no fire used to be made in the houses of Allâh’s Messenger (i.e., nothing used to be cooked).” ‘Urwa said, “What used to sustain you?” ‘Aishah said, “The two black things, i.e., dates and water, except that Allâh’s Messenger had neighbours from the Ansâr who had some milch she-camels, and they used to give the Prophet some milk from their house, and he used to make us drink it.”

6459. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “O Allâh! Give Qutan (provision that is sufficient to live with contentment) to the family of Muhammâd (s.a.).”
(18) CHAPTER. The adoption of a middle course (not to go to extremes), and the regularity of one’s deeds.

6461. Narrated Masraq: I asked ‘Aishah, “What deed was the most beloved to the Prophet?” She said, “The regular constant one.” I said, “At what time he use to get up at night [for the Tahajjud night Salat (prayer)]?” She said, “He used to get up on hearing (the crowing of) the cock (in the last third of the night).”

6462. Narrated ‘Aishah: The most beloved action to Allah’s Messenger was that whose doer did it continuously and regularly.

6463. Narrated Aba Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The deeds of anyone of you will not save you [from the (Hell) Fire].” They said, “Even you (will not be saved by your deeds), O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “No, even I (will not be saved) unless and until Allah protects or covers me with His Grace and His Mercy. Therefore, do good deeds properly, sincerely and moderately, and worship Allah in the forenoon and in the afternoon and during a part of the night, and Al Qasd (always adopt a middle, moderate, regular course) whereby you will reach your Al-Qasd (target i.e., Paradise).”

(1) (H. 6463) The Prophet compares the Muslim to a traveller who should not exert=
6464. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Do good deeds properly, sincerely and moderately and know that your deeds will not make you enter Paradise, and that the most beloved deeds to Allah are the most regular and constant even though it were few.”

6465. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet was asked, “What deeds are loved most by Allah?” He said, “The most regular constant deeds even though they may be few.” He added, “Take upon yourselves only those deeds which are within your ability.”

6466. Narrated ‘Alqama: I asked ‘Aishah, Mother of the believers, “O Mother of the believers! How were the deeds of the Prophet? Did he use to do extra deeds of worship on special days?” She said, “No, but his deeds were regular and constant, and who among you is able to do what the Prophet was able to do (i.e., in worshipping Allah)?”

6467. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet said, “Do good deeds properly, sincerely and moderately, and receive good =himself at the beginning of the journey for he would become too tired to reach his destination. So one should adopt a moderate way of regular and constant worshipping of Allah whereby one should reach his destination (i.e., Paradise).
news because one’s good deeds will not make him enter Paradise.” They asked, “Even you, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “Even I, unless and until Allah protects or covers me with His Pardon and His Mercy.”

6468. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Once Allah’s Messenger led us in Salāt (prayer) and then (after finishing it) ascended the pulpit and pointed with his hand towards the Qiblah of the mosque and said, “While I was leading you in Salāt (prayer), both Paradise and Hell were displayed in front of me in the direction of this wall. I had never seen a better thing (than Paradise) and a worse thing (than Hell) as I have seen today; I had never seen a better thing and a worse thing as I have seen today.”

(19) CHAPTER. Hope (that Allah will forgive one’s sins and will accept one’s good deeds) with fear (of Allah).

And Sufyān said, “There is no Verse in Qur’ān more hard on me than this one:
“O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! You have nothing (as regards guidance) till you act according to At-Taurat (the Torah) and Al-Injil (the Gospel), and what has (now) been sent down to you from your Lord (the Qur’an)…” (V.5:68)

6469. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Verily Allâh created mercy. The day He created it, He made it into one hundred parts. He withheld with Him ninety-nine parts, and sent its one part to all His creatures. Had a disbeliever known of all the mercy which is in the Hands of Allâh, he would not have lost hope of entering Paradise, and had a believer known of all the punishment which is present with Allâh, he would not have considered himself safe from the Hell-fire.”

(20) CHAPTER. Refraining patiently from doing those things which Allâh has made illegal.

And the Statement of Allâh تعالى:
“...Only those who are patient shall receive their rewards in full, without reckoning.” (V.39:10)

And ‘Umar said, “We have found that our best period of life was while we were patient.”

6470. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: Some people from the Anṣâr asked Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ (to give them something) and he gave to everyone of them who asked him until all that he had was finished. When everything was finished and he had spent all that was in his hand, he said to them,“(Know) that if I have any wealth, I will not withhold it from you (to keep for somebody else); and (know) that he who refrains from begging others (or doing prohibited deeds), Allâh will make him contented and not in need of others; and he who remains patient, Allâh will bestow patience upon him, and he who is satisfied with what he has, Allâh will make him self-sufficient. And there is no gift better and vast (you may be given) than patience.”

6471. Narrated Al-Mughîra bin Shu’ba: The Prophet used to offer Salât (prayer) so much that his feet used to become oedematous or swollen, and when he was asked as to why he prays (offers Salât) so much, he would say, “Shall I not be a thankful slave (to Allâh)?”

(21) CHAPTER. “...And whosoever puts his trust in Allâh, then He (Allâh) will suffice him...” (V.65:3)

And Ar-Rabi’ bin Khuthaim said, “...of all sorts of difficulties that might befall the people.”(1)

6472. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allâh’s Messenger said, “Seventy thousand people from among my followers will enter Paradise without accounts, and they are those who do not practise Ar-Ruqya(2) and do not see as evil omens in things, and put their trust in their Lord.”

(1) (Ch. 21) Ar-Rabi’ said this commenting on the Qur’ânic Verse: “...And whosoever fears Allâh and keeps his duty to Him, He will make a way for him to get out (from every difficulty).”
(2) (H. 6472) Ar-Ruqya: See the glossary.
6473. Narrated Warrād, the clerk of Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba: Muʿāwiyah wrote to Al-Mughira: “Write to me a narration you have heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” So Al-Mughira wrote to him: “I heard him saying the following after each Salāt (prayer): ‘Lā ilāha illallāhu Wahdahu la sharika lahu, lahul-mulku wa lahul-hamdu, wa Huwa ’ala kulli shai’in Qadir.’ (1) He used to forbid: (1) Qīl and Qāl (sinful and useless talk like backbiting, etc., or that you talk too much about others), (2) asking too many questions (in disputed religious matters), (3) wasting one’s wealth (by extravagance), (4) preventing what should be given (e.g., charity, etc.), (5) to beg of men (i.e., begging), (6) being undutiful to mothers, and (7) burying one’s daughters (alive).” (See H. 844)

(22) CHAPTER. What is disliked about Qīl and Qāl (i.e., sinful and useless talk).

(23) CHAPTER. To protect one’s tongue (from illegal talk, e.g., lying, abusing or backbiting, etc.).

(And the Prophet’s statement:) “He who

(1) (H. 6473) None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh Alone, Who has no partners. To Him belongs the kingdom (of the universe) and all praises be to Him and He is Omnipotent. believes in Allâh and the Last Day should talk what is good (sensible talk) or keep quiet.”

And the Statement of Allâh

“Not a word does he (or she) utter, but there is a watcher by him ready (to record it).” (V.50:18)

6474. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever can guarantee (the chastity of) what is between his two jawbones and what is between his two legs (i.e., his mouth, his tongue and his private parts) (1), I guarantee Paradise for him.”

6475. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day should talk what is good (sensible talk) or keep quiet: and whoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day should not harm his neighbour; and whoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day should entertain his guest generously.”

[See Hadith No. 6018.]

6476. Narrated Abû Shuraih Al-Khuzâ’î: My ears heard and my heart grasped (the statement which) the Prophet ﷺ said, “The period for keeping one’s guest is three days (and don’t forget) his reward.” It was asked, “What is his reward?” He said, “In the first night and the day he should be given a high quality of meals; and whoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day, should entertain his guest generously; and whoever believes in Allâh and the Last Day should talk what is good (sensible talk) or keep quiet.”

(1) (H. 6474) i.e., whoever protects his tongue from illegal talk (e.g., to tell lies or abusing, backbiting, etc.) and his mouth from eating and drinking of the forbidden illegal things, etc. and his private parts from illegal sexual acts.

6477. Narrated Abû Hurairah that he heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “A slave of Allâh may utter a word without thinking whether it is right or wrong, he may slip down in the Fire as far away a distance equal to that between the east.”(1)

6478. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A slave (of Allâh) may utter a word which pleases Allâh, without giving it much importance, and because of that Allâh will raise him to degrees (of reward): a slave (of Allâh) may utter a word (carelessly) which displeases Allâh, without thinking of its gravity, and because of that he will be thrown into the Hell-fire.”

(24) CHAPTER. Weeping out of fear of Allâh.

6479. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allâh will give shade to seven (types of people) under His Shade

(1) (H. 6477) In some narrations it is said, “between the east and the west.”
(on the Day of Resurrection). (1) (One of them will be) a person who remembers Allah and his eyes are then flooded with tears.”

(25) CHAPTER. To be afraid of Allah

6480. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There was a man amongst the people who had suspicion as to the righteousness of his deeds. Therefore he said to his family, ‘If I die, take me and burn my corpse and throw away my ashes into the sea on a hot (or windy) day.’ They did so, but Allah collected his ash particles and asked (him), ‘What made you do what you did?’ He replied, ‘The only thing that made me do it was that I was afraid of You.’ So Allah forgave him.”

6481. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd ibn ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ mentioned a man from the previous generation, or from the people preceding your age, whom Allah had given both wealth and children. The Prophet ﷺ said, “When the time of his death approached, he asked his children, ‘What type of father have I been to you?’ They replied, ‘You have been a good father.’ He said, ‘But he (i.e., your father) has not stored any good deeds with Allah (for the Hereafter), if he should face Allah, Allah will punish him. So listen, (O my children), when I die, burn my body till I become mere coal and then grind it into powder, and when

(1) (H. 6479) See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 660 for the seven types.
there is a stormy wind, throw me (my ashes) in it.’ So he took a firm promise from his children (to follow his instructions). And by Allāh they (his sons) did accordingly (fulfilled their promise). Then Allāh said, ‘Be’ and behold! That man was standing there! Allāh then said, ‘O my slave! What made you do what you did?’ That man said, ‘Fear of You.’ So Allāh forgave him.”

(26) CHAPTER. To give up sinful deeds.

6482. Narrated Abū Mūsā: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “My example and the example of the Message with which Allāh has sent me is like that of a man who came to some people and said, ‘I have seen with my own eyes the enemy forces, and I am a naked warner (to you) so save yourself, save yourself!” A group of them obeyed him and went out at night, slowly and stealthily and were safe, while another group did not believe him and thus the army took them in the morning and destroyed them.”

(1) (H. 6482) It was an Arabian custom that a man, on seeing the forces of the enemy, would take off his clothes and use it as a signal of warning to his people.
6483. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allāh’s Messengerﷺ saying, “My example and the example of the people is that of a man who made a fire, and when it lighted what was around it, moths and other insects started falling into the fire. The man tried (his best) to prevent them (from falling in the fire), but they overpowered him and rushed into the fire.” The Prophetﷺ added, “Now, similarly I take hold of the knots at your waist (belts) to prevent you from falling into the fire, but you insist on falling into it.”

6484. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: The Prophetﷺ said, “A Muslim is the one who avoids harming Muslims with his tongue and his hands. And a Muhājir (an Emigrant) is the one who gives up (abandons) all what Allāh has forbidden.”

(27) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophetﷺ, “If you knew that which I know, you would laugh little and weep much.”

6485. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messengerﷺ said, “If you knew that which I know, you would laugh little and weep much.”

---

(1) (H. 6483) The fire symbolizes the unlawful deeds which the Prophetﷺ warned the people.

(2) (H. 6484) The Prophetﷺ regards the one who observes the orders of religion and the Emigrant (who left Makkah for Al-Madīna for the sake of his religion) as equal in reward.
6486. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "If you knew that which I know, you would laugh little and weep much."

6487. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allâh's Messenger said, "The (Hell) Fire is surrounded by all kinds of desires and passions, while Paradise is surrounded by all kinds of disliked undesirable things."

(28) CHAPTER. The (Hell) Fire is surrounded by all kinds of desires and passions.

6488. Narrated 'Abdullâh: The Prophet said, "Paradise is nearer to any of you than the Shirâk (leather strap) of his shoe, and so is the (Hell) Fire."

(29) CHAPTER. Paradise is nearer to anyone of you than the Shirâk of his shoe, and so is the (Hell) Fire.

(1) (H. 6487) Inordinate desires and animalistic passions lead to the Fire, while self-control, perseverance, chastity and all other virtues, and the obedience to Allâh and His Messenger lead to Paradise. What leads to Hell is easy to do while what leads to Paradise is difficult to do.

(2) (Ch. 29) A leather strap.
6489. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The truest poetic verse ever said by a poet is: Indeed! Except Allāh, everything is Bātîl (i.e., perishable, etc.).” [See Fath Al-Bārî and See H. 3841]

(30) CHAPTER. One should always look at the one who is inferior (in worldly rank) to him, and should not look at the one who is superior (in worldly rank) to him.

6490. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If anyone of you looked at a person who was made superior to him in property and (in worldly rank and in good) appearance, then he should also look at the one who is inferior to him, and to whom he has been made superior.”

(31) CHAPTER. Whoever intended to do a good deed or a bad deed.

6491. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet narrating about his Lord said, “Allāh ordered (the angels appointed over you) that the good and the bad deeds be written, and He then showed (the way) how (to write). If somebody intends to do a good deed and he does not do it, then Allāh will write for him a full good deed (in his account with Him); and if he intends to do a good deed and actually does it, then Allāh will write for him (in his account) with Him (its reward equal) from ten to seven hundred times to many more times; and if somebody intended to do a bad deed and he does not do it, then Allah will write a full good deed (in his account) with Him, and if he intended to do it (a bad deed) and actually does it, then Allah will write one bad deed (in his account).”

(32) CHAPTER. What minor sins should be warded off.

6492. Narrated Ghailân: Anas said, “You people do (bad) deeds (commit sins) which seem in your eyes as tiny (minute) than hair while we used to consider those (very deeds) during the life-time of the Prophet as destructive sins.”

(33) CHAPTER. The (results of) deeds done depend upon the last actions. And that one should be afraid of it.

6493. Narrated Sa’d bin Sahl As-Sâ’idi: The Prophet looked at a man fighting against Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] and he was one of the most competent persons fighting on behalf of the Muslims. The Prophet said, “Let him who wants to look at a man from the dwellers of the (Hell) Fire look at this (man).” Another man followed him and kept on following him till he (the fighter) was injured and, seeking to die quickly, he placed the tip of the blade of his sword between his breasts and leaned over it till it passed through his shoulders (i.e., committed suicide). The Prophet added, “A person may do deeds that seem to the people as the deeds of the people of Paradise while in fact, he is from the dwellers of the (Hell) Fire; similarly a person may do deeds that seem to the people as the deeds of the people of the (Hell) Fire while in fact, he is from the dwellers of Paradise. Verily, the (results of) deeds done depend upon the last actions.” (See H. 2898)

(34) CHAPTER. Seclusion is better for a believer than to have evil companions.

6494.Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: A bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who is the best of mankind?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “A man who strives for Allah’s Cause with his life and property, and (also) a man who lives (all alone) in a mountain path among the mountain paths to worship his Lord (Allah) and save the people from his evil.”

6495. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “There will come a time upon the people when the best property of a Muslim will be sheep which he will take to the tops of mountains and to the places of rainfall; and he will run away with his religion (in order to save it) from Al-Fitan (atrocities, trials).

(35) CHAPTER. The disappearance of Al-Amānah. (1)

6496. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When Al-Amānah is lost, then wait for the Hour.” It was asked, “How will Al-Amānah be lost, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “When authority is given to those who do not deserve it, then wait for the Hour.”

6497. Narrated Ḥudhaifa b. Zīlāwî: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ narrated to us two narrations, one of which I have seen (happening) and I am waiting for the other. He narrated that (in the beginning) Al-Amānah was preserved in the roots of the hearts of men and then they learnt it from the Qur’an, and then they learnt it from the (Prophet’s) Sunna (legal ways). He also told us about its disappearance, saying, “A man will go to sleep whereupon Al-Amānah will be taken away from his heart, and only its trace will remain.”

(1) (Ch. 35) (H. 6496) (H. 6497) Al-Amānah: The trust or the moral responsibility or honesty, etc. and all the duties which Allah has ordained.
remain, resembling the traces of fire. He then will sleep whereupon the remainder of the Al-Amânah will also be taken away (from his heart) and its trace will resemble a blister which is raised over the surface of skin as an ember touches one’s foot; and in fact, this blister does not contain anything. So there will come a day when people will deal in business with each other but there will hardly be any trustworthy persons among them. Then it will be said that in such and such a tribe there is such and such person who is honest, and a man will be admired for his intelligence, good manners and strength, though indeed he will not have belief equal to a mustard seed in his heart.” The narrator added: There came upon me a time when I did not mind dealing with anyone of you, for if he was a Muslim, his religion would prevent him from cheating, and if he was a Christian, his Muslim ruler would prevent him from cheating; but today I cannot deal except with so-and-so and so-and-so.

[See Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7086]

6498. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “People are just like camels, out of one hundred, one can hardly find a single camel suitable to ride.”
(36) CHAPTER. (Worshipping Allāh in public just for) showing off; (and talking or hinting about one's own deeds of worship, or letting the people) hear (of his good deeds to win their praise) for the same purpose.

6499. Narrated Jundub: The Prophet ﷺ said, "He who lets the people hear of his good deeds intentionally, to win their praise, Allāh will let the people know his real intention (on the Day of Resurrection), and he who does good things in public to show off and to win the praise of the people, Allāh will disclose his real intention (and humiliate him)."

(37) CHAPTER. Whoever compelled himself to obey Allāh غَزَّ وَجَبَلَ

6500. Narrated Muʿādh bin Jabal: While I was riding behind the Prophet ﷺ as a companion rider and there was nothing between me and him except the back of the saddle, he ﷺ said, "O Muʿādh!" I replied, "Labbaik, O Allāh's Messenger, and Saʿdaik!" He proceeded for a while and then said, "O Muʿādh!" I said, "Labbaik O Allāh's Messenger, and Saʿdaik!" He again proceeded for a while and said, "O Muʿādh bin Jabal!" I replied, "Labbaik, O Allāh's Messenger, and Saʿdaik!" He said, "Do you know what is Allāh's Right upon His slaves?" I replied, "Allāh and His Messenger know better." He said, "Allāh's Right on His slaves is that they should worship Him and not worship anything else besides Him.” He then proceeded for a while, and again said, “O Mu‘ādh bin Jabal!” I replied, “Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger, and Sa‘daik!” He said, “Do you know what is (Allah’s) slaves’ right on Allah if they did so?” I replied, “Allah and His Messenger know better.” He said, “The right of the slaves upon Allah is that He should not punish them (if they did so).”

(38) CHAPTER. The humility or modesty or lowliness (to lower oneself).

6501. Narrated Anas: The Prophet had a she-camel called Al-‘Aḍbā’ and it was too fast to surpass in speed. There came a bedouin riding a camel of his, and that camel outstripped it (i.e., Al-‘Aḍbā’). That result was hard on the Muslims who said sorrowfully, “Al-‘Aḍbā’ has been outstripped.” Allah’s Messenger said, “It is incumbent upon Allah that nothing would be raised high in this world except that He lowers or puts it down.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 2872]

6502. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah said, 'I will declare war against him who shows hostility... to a pious worshipper of Mine. And the most beloved things with which My slave comes nearer to Me, is what I have enjoined upon him; and My slave keeps on coming closer to Me through performing Nawāfil (praying or doing extra deeds besides what is obligatory) till I love him, then I become his sense of hearing with which he hears, and his sense of sight with which he sees, and his hand with which he grips, and his leg with which he walks; and if he asks Me, I will give him, and if he asks My Protection (Refuge), I will protect him (i.e., give him My Refuge); and I do not hesitate to do anything as I hesitate to take the soul of the believer, for he hates death, and I hate to disappoint him.”

(39) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ: “I have been sent, and the Hour (is at hand) as these two (fingers).”(1)

And the Statement of Allāh علّه وسلم:
“... And the matter of the Hour is not but as a twinkling of the eye, or even nearer. Truly! Allāh is Able to do all things.” (V.16:77)

6503. Narrated Sahl: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have been sent and the Hour (is at hand) as these two,” pointing at his two fingers and projecting them out.

6504. Narrated Anas ﷺ: Allāh’s ﷺ заперия: “I have been sent as the Hour (is at hand) as these two.”

(1) (Ch. 39) This means, it will not be long before the Hour takes place. The period between the Prophet ﷺ and the coming of the Hour will not be long.
Messenger said, “I have been sent and the Hour (is at hand) as these two (fingers).”

6505. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “I have been sent and the Hour (is at hand) as these two (fingers).”

(40) CHAPTER. The rising of the sun from the west.

6506. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The Hour will not be established till the sun rises from the west, and when it rises (from the west) and the people see it, then all of them will believe (in Allah). But that will be the time when, ‘...No good it will do to a person to believe then if he believed not before.’ (V.6:158)

The Hour will be established (so suddenly); that two persons spreading a garment between them will not be able to finish their bargain, nor will they be able to fold it up. The Hour will be established while a man is carrying the milk of his she-camel, but cannot drink it; and the Hour will be established when someone is not able to prepare the tank to water his livestock from it; and the Hour will be established when some of you has raised his food to his mouth but cannot eat it.”
(41) CHAPTER. Whoever loves to meet Allâh, Allâh (too) loves to meet him.

6507. Narrated ‘Ubâdah bin As-Sâmî: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever loves to meet Allâh, Allâh (too) loves to meet him, and whoever hates to meet Allâh, Allâh (too) hates to meet him”. ‘Aishah, or some of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ said, “But we dislike death.” He said, “It is not like this, but it is meant that when the time of the death of a believer approaches, he receives the good news of Allâh’s Pleasure with him and His Blessings upon him, and so at that time nothing is dearer to him than what is in front of him. He therefore loves the Meeting with Allâh, and Allâh (too) loves the Meeting with him. But when the time of the death of a disbeliever approaches, he receives the evil news of Allâh’s Torment and His Requital, whereupon nothing is more hateful to him than what is before him. Therefore, he hates the Meeting with Allâh, and Allâh too, hates the Meeting with him.”

6508. Narrated Abû Mûsâ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever loves the Meeting with Allâh, Allâh (too), loves the Meeting with him; and whoever hates the Meeting with Allâh, Allâh (too), hates the Meeting with him.”

6509. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was in good health, he used to say, “No Prophet’s soul is ever captured unless he is shown his place in Paradise and given the option (to die or survive).” So when the death of the Prophet approached and his head was on my thigh, he became unconscious for a while and then he came to his senses and fixed his eyes on the ceiling and said, “O Allah (with) the highest companion.” I said, “Hence he is not going to choose us.” And I came to know that it was the application of the narration which he (the Prophet) used to narrate to us. And that was the last statement of the Prophet (before his death) i.e., “O Allah! With the highest companion.”

(42) CHAPTER. The stupors of death.

6510. Narrated ‘Aishah: There was a leather or wood container full of water in front of Allah’s Messenger (at the time of his death). He would put his hand into the water and rub his face with it, saying, “La ilaha illallah! No doubt, death has its stupors.” Then he raised his hand and started saying, “(O Allah!) with the highest companion” (and kept on saying it) till he expired and his hand dropped.

[See Qur’an V.4:69.]
6511.Narrated 'Āishah: Some rough bedouins used to visit the Prophet ﷺ and ask him, “When will the Hour be?” He would look at the youngest of all of them and say, “If this should live till he is very old, your Hour (the death of the people addressed) will take place.” Hishām said that he meant (by the Hour), their death.

6512. Narrated Abū Qatāda bin Rib‘ī Al-Anṣārī: A funeral procession passed by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, who said, “Relieved or relieving (from him)?” The people asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is relieved and relieving (from him)?” He said, “A believer is relieved (by death) from the troubles and hardships of the world and leaves for the Mercy of Allah, while (the death of) a wicked person relieves (saves) the people, the land, the trees, (and) the animals from him (or her) evil wicked actions.”

6513. Narrated Abū Qatāda: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Relieved or relieving from him (or her)? And a believer is relieved (by death).”

(1) (H. 6513) A dead person is either relieved from the worries and troubles of the world (if he is a believer), or relieves the people from his evil deeds (if he is wicked).
6514. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When carried to his grave, a dead person is followed by three, two of which return (after his burial) and one remains with him; his relatives, his property, and his deeds follow him; relatives and his property return back while his deeds remain with him.”

6515. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When anyone of you dies, his destination is displayed before him in the forenoon and in the afternoon, either in the (Hell) Fire or in Paradise, and it is said to him, ‘That is your place till you are resurrected and sent to it.’”

6516. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not abuse the dead, for they have discharged (met the result of) what they have done (sent forward of good or bad deeds).”

(43) CHAPTER. The blowing of the Trumpet, on the Day of Resurrection.

And Mujāhid said, “As-Ṣūr (the Trumpet) is like a horn. Zajra is Saihah (a cry).” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “An-Nāqūr is As-Ṣūr (the Horn or the Trumpet); Ar-Rajifah is the first blowing and Ar-Rādīfah is the second blowing.”
6517. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Two men, a Muslim and a Jew, abused each other. The Muslim said, “By Him Who gave superiority to Muhammad over all the people.” On that, the Jew said, “By Him Who gave superiority to Mūsā (Moses) over all the people.” The Muslim became furious at that and slapped the Jew in the face. The Jew went to Allah’s Messenger and informed him of what had happened between him and the Muslim. Allah’s Messenger said, “Don’t give me superiority over (Prophet) Müsā, for the people will fall unconscious on the Day of Resurrection (after the blowing of the Trumpet) and I will be the first to regain consciousness, and behold! Müsā will be there holding the side of (Allah’s) Throne. I will not know whether Müsā has been among those people who have become unconscious and then has regained consciousness before me, or has been among those exempted by Allah from falling unconscious.”

6518. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The people will fall down unconscious at the time they will fall down unconscious (i.e., on the Day of Resurrection), and then I will be the first man to get up, and behold! Müsā (Moses) will be there holding (Allah’s) Throne. I will not know whether he has been amongst those who have fallen unconscious.”
81 - THE BOOK OF AR-RIQĀQ (Softening of the Hearts)

(44) CHAPTER. On the Day of Resurrection, Allah will grasp (or hold) the whole (planet of) earth (in His Hand).

This narration has come from Ibn 'Umar on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

[See Fath Al-Bãri]

6519. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ:

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah will grasp (or hold) the whole (planet of) earth (in His Hand) and will roll up the heaven with His Right Hand, and then He will say, ‘I am the King! Where are the kings of the earth?’”

6520. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî ﷺ:

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The (planet of) earth will be a bread on the Day of Resurrection, and the Irresistible (Allah) will turn it with His Hand like anyone of you turns a bread with his hands while (preparing the bread) for a journey, and that bread will be the entertainment for the people of Paradise.” A man from the Jews came (to the Prophet ﷺ) and said, “May the Most Gracious (Allah) bless you, O Abûl-Qâsim! Shall I tell you of the entertainment of the people of Paradise on the Day of Resurrection?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” The Jew said, “The earth will be a bread,” as the Prophet ﷺ had said. Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ looked at us and smiled till his premolar tooth became visible. Then the Jew further said, “Shall I tell you of their Edâm or Udm (additional food taken with bread) they will have with the bread?” He added, “That will be Bālām and Nān.”(1) The people asked, “What is that?” He said, “It is an ox and a fish, and seventy thousand people will eat of the caudate lobe (i.e., extra lobe) of their livers.”

6521. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: I heard the Prophet saying, “The people will be gathered on the Day of Resurrection on reddish white land like a pure loaf of bread (made of pure fine flour)”. Sahl added: That land will have no landmarks for anybody (to make use of).

(45) CHAPTER. The gathering (on the Day of Resurrection).

6522. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The people will be gathered in three manners or ways: (The first way will be of) those who will wish or have a hope (for Paradise) and will have a fear (of punishment). (2) (The second batch will be those who will gather) riding two on a camel or three on a camel or four on a camel or ten on a camel. (The third batch) the rest of the people will be urged to gather by the Fire which will accompany them at the time of their afternoon nap and stay with them where they will spend the night, and will be with them in the morning, wherever they may be

(1) (H. 6520) ‘Bālām’ must be a Hebrew word meaning ox; and ‘Nān’ is an Arabic word meaning fish.

(2) (H. 6522) These will go to the scene of the gathering by comfortable means of conveyance, and will be provided with provisions and other facilities.

(3) (H. 6522) Either real fire or the fire of afflictions and riots that will force them to go to the place of the gathering on foot.
then, and will be with them in the afternoon, wherever they may be then.”

6523. Narrated Anas bin Malik: A man said, “O Allah’s Prophet! Will a Kafir (disbeliever) be gathered (driven prone) on his face?” The Prophet said, “Is not He Who made him walk with his legs in this world, able to make him walk on his face on the Day of Resurrection?” (Qatada, a subnarrator said: “Yes, (He can), by the Honour and Power of Our Lord.”)

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No 4760]

6524. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “You will meet Allah (while you will be) barefooted, naked, walking on feet, and uncircumcised.”

6525. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: I heard Allah’s Messenger while he was delivering a Khutba (religious talk) on a pulpit, saying, “You will meet Allah (while you will be) barefooted, naked, and uncircumcised.”

6526. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet stood up among us and addressed (saying), “You will be gathered barefooted, naked, and uncircumcised (on the Day of Resurrection) (as Allah says):

‘As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it...’ (V.21:104)

And the first human being to be dressed on the Day of Resurrection will be (the Prophet) Ibrâhim (Abraham) Al-Khalîl. Then will be brought some men of my followers who will be taken towards the left (i.e., to the Fire), and I will say: ‘O Lord! My companions.’ Whereupon Allah will say: ‘You do not know what they innovated (new things) in religion after you left them.’ I will then say as the pious slave, ‘Isa (Jesus) said, ‘And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them... (up to) the All-Wise.’” (V.5:117,118) The narrator added: Then it will be said that those people kept on turning on their heels (deserted Islam). (2)

6527. Narrated `Aishah: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “The people will be gathered barefooted, naked, and uncircumcised.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will the men and the women look at each other?” He said, “The situation will be too hard for them to pay attention to that.”

6528. Narrated ‘Abdullah: When the people will be gathered on the Day of Resurrection, they will be dressed. The most lowly dressed will be the first to be dressed.” (1) (H. 6526) Al-Khalîl: See the glossary. (2) (H. 6526) The people who act and do things in a different way to that of the Prophet (ﷺ).
While we were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ in a tent, he said, “Would it please you to be one-fourth of the people of Paradise?” We said, “Yes.” He said, “Would it please you to be one-third of the people of Paradise?” We said, “Yes.” He said, “Would it please you to be half of the people of Paradise?” We said, “Yes.” Thereupon he said, “I hope that you will be half of the people of Paradise, for none will enter Paradise except a person who is a Muslim (believer in the Oneness of Allah i.e., Islamic Monotheism), and you people, in comparison to the people who associate others in worship with Allah, are like a white hair on the skin of a black ox, or a black hair on the skin of a red ox.”

6529. Narrated Abü Hurairah ﷺ:

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The first man to be called on the Day of Resurrection will be Ādām, who will be shown his offspring, and it will be said to them, ‘This is your father, Ādām.’ Ādām will say (responding to the call), ‘Labbaik and Sa’dāik.’ Then Allah will say (to Ādām), ‘Take out of your offspring, the people of Hell.’ Ādām will say, ‘O Lord, how many should I take out?’ Allah will say, ‘Take out ninety-nine out of every hundred.’” They (the Prophet’s Companions) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If ninety-nine out of every one hundred of us are taken away, what will remain out of us?” He said, “My followers in comparison to the other nations are like a white hair on a black ox.”
6530. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: The Prophet said, “Allāh will say, ‘O Ādām!’ Ādām will reply, ‘Labbāik and Sa‘ādāik (I respond to Your Call, I am obedient to Your Orders), wal khairīt Yadaik (and all the good is in Your Hands)!’ Then Allāh will say (to Ādām), ‘Bring out the Ba‘tha (group of the people) of the Fire.’ Ādām will say, ‘What (how many) are the Ba‘tha (group of the Fire)’? Allāh will say, ‘Out of every thousand (take out) nine hundred and ninety-nine (persons).’ At that time a child will become hoary-headed, and every pregnant female will drop her load (have an abortion) and you will see mankind as if in a drunken state, yet they will not be drunken, but severe will be the Torment of Allāh.” That news distressed the Companions of the Prophet too much, and they said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who amongst us will be that man (the lucky one out of one thousand who will be saved from the Fire)?” He said, “Have the good news that one thousand will be from Yā‘jūj and Mā‘jūj (Gog and Magog people), and the one (to be saved will be) from you.” The Prophet added, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I hope that you (Muslims) will be one-third of the people of Paradise.” On that, we glorified and praised Allāh and said, “Allāhu-Akbar.” The Prophet then said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I hope that you will be half of the people of Paradise, as your (Muslims) example in comparison to the other people (non-Muslims) is like that of a white hair on the skin of a black ox, or a round hairless spot on the foreleg of a donkey."

1 (H. 6530) Yā‘jūj and Mā‘jūj (Gog and Magog people) represent a special nation from disbelievers while the men addressed by the Prophet represent all Muslims. See also Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7135.

(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah تعالى: "Think they not that they will be resurrected (for reckoning), on a Great Day. The Day when (all) mankind will stand before the Lord of Al-'Alāmin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)."

(V.83:4-6)

And Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The Verse: ‘...Then all their relations will be cut off from them.’ (V.2:166) means the relations which they used to observe in the world.”

6531. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said (regarding the Verse), “…The Day when all mankind will stand before the Lord of Al-'Alāmin (mankind, jinn and all that exists),” (V.83:6), “(That Day) they will stand, drowned in their sweat up to the middle of their ears.”

6532. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The people will sweat so profusely on the Day of Resurrection that their sweat will sink seventy cubits deep into the earth, and it will rise up, till it reaches the people’s mouths and ears.”

(48) CHAPTER. Al-Qīṣāṣ (retaliation) on the Day of Resurrection which is called Al-Hāqqa (sure reality) as there will be in it, the giving of reward and everything true.
Al-Haqqa and Al-Haqqa have the same meaning.

(The Day of Resurrection) is also called Al-Qārî‘a and Al-Ghâshiyya and As-Sâkhkha and At-Taghābun (mutual loss): The losses caused by the people of Paradise to the people of the Fire.

6533. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The cases which will be decided first (on the Day of Resurrection) will be the cases of bloodshedding.”

6534. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever has wronged his brother, should ask for his pardon (before his death), as (in the Hereafter) there will be neither a Dinar nor a Dirham. (He should secure pardon in this life) before some of his good deeds are taken and paid to his brother, or, if he has done no good deeds, some of the bad deeds of his brother are taken to be loaded on him (in the Hereafter).”

6535. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudri: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The believers, after being saved from the (Hell) Fire, will be stopped at a bridge between Paradise and Hell and mutual retaliation will be established among them regarding wrongs they have committed in the world against one another. After they are cleansed and purified (through the retaliation), they will be admitted into Paradise; and by Him in Whose Hand Muḥammad’s soul is, everyone of them will know his dwelling in Paradise better than he knew his dwelling in this world.”
(49) CHAPTER. Anybody whose account (record) is questioned will surely be punished.

6536. Narrated Ibn Abī Mulaika: ‘Āishah said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Anybody whose account (record) is questioned will surely be punished.’ I said, ‘Doesn’t Allāh say: He surely will receive an easy reckoning?, (V.84:8) The Prophet ﷺ replied, ‘This means only the presentation of the accounts.’”

6537. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “None will be called to account on the Day of Resurrection but will be ruined.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Hasn’t Allāh said: ‘Then, as for him who will be given his record in his right hand, he surely will receive an easy reckoning,” (V.84:7,8) Allāh’s Messenger said, “That (Verse) means only the presentation of the accounts, but anybody whose account (record) is questioned on the Day of Resurrection, will surely be punished.”

6538. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Prophet used to say, “A disbeliever will be brought on the Day of Resurrection and will be asked, ‘Suppose you had as much gold as to fill the earth, would you offer it to ransom yourself (from the Hell-fire)?’ He will reply, ‘Yes.’ Then it will be said to him, ‘You were asked for something easier than that (to join none in worship with Allah, i.e., to accept Islam, but you refused).’”

6539. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hatim: The Prophet said, “There will be none among you but will be talked to by Allah on the Day of Resurrection, without there being an interpreter between him and Allah. He will look and see nothing ahead of him, and then he will look (again for the second time) in front of him, and the (Hell) Fire will confront him. So, whoever among you can save himself from the Fire, should do so, even with half of a date (to give in charity).”

6540. Narrated ‘Adi bin Ḥātim: The Prophet said, “Protect yourself from the Fire.” He then turned his face aside (as if he were looking at it) and said again, “Protect yourself from the Fire,” and then turned his face aside (as if he were looking at it), and he said so for the third time till we thought he was looking at it. He then said, “Protect yourselves from the Fire, even if with half of a date, and he who hasn’t got even this, should do so by (saying) a good, pleasant word.”

(50) CHAPTER. Seventy thousand (persons) will enter Paradise without accounts.

6541. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “The people were displayed in front of me and I saw one Prophet passing by with a large group of his followers, and another Prophet passing by with only a small group of people, and another Prophet passing by with only ten (persons), and another Prophet passing by with only five (persons), and another Prophet passed by alone. And then I looked and saw a large multitude of people, so I asked Jibril (Gabriel), ‘Are these people my followers?’ He said, ‘No, but look towards the horizon.’ I looked and saw a very large multitude of people. Jibril said, ‘Those are your followers, and those seventy thousand (persons) in front of them are the ones who will neither have any reckoning of their accounts nor will receive any punishment.’ I asked, ‘Why?’ He said, ‘For they used not to treat themselves with branding...’
(cauterization) nor with Ruqya (get oneself treated by the recitation of some Verses of the Qur'an) and they used not to see evil omen in things, and they used to put their trust (only) in their Lord (Allāh).” On hearing that, ‘Ukāša bin Miḥsān got up and said (to the Prophet), “Invoke Allāh to make me one of them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allāh, make him one of them.” Then another man got up and said (to the Prophet), “Invoke Allāh to make me one of them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ukāša has preceded you.”

6542. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “From my followers there will enter Paradise without (being asked about their) accounts a group, seventy thousand in number, whose faces will shine as the moon does on a full moon night”. On hearing that, ‘Ukāša bin Miḥsān Al-Asdi got up, lifting his covering sheet, and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh that He may make me one of them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allāh, make him one of them.” Another man from the Ansar got up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to make me one of them.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “‘Ukāša has preceded you.”

6543. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Seventy thousand, or seven hundred thousand, of my followers (the narrator is in doubt as to the correct number) will enter Paradise holding each other till the first and the last of them enter Paradise at the same time, and their faces will shine like that of the moon on a full moon night."

6544.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The people of Paradise will enter Paradise, and the people of the (Hell) Fire will enter the (Hell) Fire; then a callmaker will get up (and make an announcement) among them (saying), ‘O the people of the (Hell) Fire! No death anymore! And O people of Paradise! No death (anymore) but eternity.”’"

6545. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “It will be said to the people of Paradise, ‘O people of Paradise! Eternity (for you) and no death.’ and to the people of the Fire, ‘O people of the Fire! Eternity (for you) and no death!’”

(51) CHAPTER. The description of Paradise and the Fire.

And Abū Sa’īd said, “The Prophet said, ‘The first meal which the people of Paradise will take will be the extra lobe of the liver of a fish.’”

(1) (H. 6543) They will enter as a single row, going side by side.
6546. Narrated 'Imrān: The Prophet said, "I looked into Paradise and saw that the majority of its people were the poor, and I looked into the (Hell) Fire and found that the majority of its people were women."

6547. Narrated Usāma: The Prophet said, "I stood at the gate of Paradise and saw that the majority of the people who had entered it were poor people, while the rich were forbidden (to enter along with the poor, because they were waiting the reckoning of their accounts), but the people of the Fire had been ordered to be driven to the Fire. And I stood at the gate of the Fire and found that the majority of the people entering it were women."

6548. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: 'Allah's Messenger said, "When the people of Paradise have entered Paradise and the people of the Fire (Hell) have entered the Fire, Death will be brought and will be placed between the Fire and Paradise, and then it will be slaughtered, and a call will be made (that), 'O people of Paradise, no more death! O people of the Fire, no more death!' So the people of Paradise will have happiness added to their (previous) happiness, and the people of the Fire will have sorrow added to their (previous) sorrow."
6549. Narrated Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah will say to the people of Paradise, ‘O the people of Paradise!’ They will say, ‘Labbaik, O our Lord, and Sa’daik!’ Allah will ask, ‘Are you pleased?’ They will say, ‘Why should we not be pleased since You have given us what You have not given to anyone of Your creations?’ Allah will say, ‘I will give you something better than that.’ They will reply, ‘O our Lord! And what is better than that?’ Allah will say, ‘I will bestow My Good Pleasure and Contentment upon you so that I will never be angry with you forever’.”

6550. Narrated Anas: Haritha was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Badr while he was young. His mother came to the Prophet saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! You know the relation of Haritha to me (how fond of him I was); if he is in Paradise, I will remain patient and wish for Allah’s Reward, but if he is not there, then you will see what I will do.” The Prophet replied, “May Allah be Merciful upon you! Have you gone mad? (Do you think) it is only one Paradise? There are many Paradises and he is in the (most superior) Paradise of Al-Firdaus.”
6551. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The width between the two shoulders of a Kāfīr (disbeliever) will be equal to the distance covered by a fast rider in three days.”

6552. Narrated Sahīl bin Sa’d: Allah’s Messenger said, “In Paradise there is a tree (so huge) that in its shade a rider may travel for one hundred years without being able to cross it.”

6553. Narrated Abū Sa’īd: The Prophet said, “There is a tree in Paradise (so huge) that a fast (or a trained) rider may travel for one hundred years without being able to cross it.”

6554. Narrated Sahīl bin Sa’d: Allah’s Messenger said, “Seventy thousand or seven hundred thousand of my followers will enter Paradise. (Abū Ḥāzīm, the subnarrator, is not sure as to which of the two numbers is correct.) And they will be holding on to one another, and the first of them will not enter till the last of them has entered,¹ and their faces will be like the moon on a full moon night.”

(1) (H. 6554) They will enter together in one row, walking side by side.
6555. Narrated Sahl: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people of Paradise will see the Al-Ghuraf (the lofty mansions, a superior place in Paradise) in Paradise as you see a star in the sky.”

6556. Abū Sa‘īd added, “As you see a shining star remaining in the eastern horizon and the western horizon.”

6557. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh will say to the person who will have the minimum punishment in the (Hell) Fire on the Day of Resurrection, ‘If you had things equal to whatever is on the earth, would you ransom yourself (from the punishment) with it?’ He will reply, ‘Yes.’ Allāh will say, ‘I asked you a much easier thing than this while you were in the backbone of Ādam, (and that is) not to worship others besides Me, but you refused and insisted to worship others besides Me.’”

6558. Narrated Jābir: Āmr said: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Some people will come out of the (Hell) Fire through intercession, looking like the Tha‘ārīr.” I asked Āmr, “What is Tha‘ārīr?” He said, “Ad-Daghābis,”(1) and that time he was toothless. Ḥammād added: I said to Āmr bin Dinār, “O Abū Muḥammad! Did you hear Jābir ibn ‘Abdullāh saying, ‘I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: Some people will come out of the (Hell) Fire through intercession?’ He said, ‘Yes.’

6559. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Some people will come out of the (Hell) Fire after they have received the burning touch of the Fire, changing their colour, and they will enter Paradise, and the people of Paradise will name them ‘Al-Jahannamiyin’ [the (Hell) Fire people].”

6560. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the people of Paradise have entered Paradise, and the people of the (Hell) Fire have entered the Fire, Allāh will say, ‘Take out (of the Fire) whosoever has got Faith equal to a mustard seed in his heart.’ They will come out, and by that time they would have burnt and became like coal, and then they will be thrown into the river of Al-Hayāt (life) and they will spring up just as a seed grows on the bank of a rainwater stream.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t you see that the germinating seed comes out yellow and twisted?”

6561. Narrated An-Nu‘mān: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “The person who will have the least punishment from amongst the people of (Hell) Fire on the Day of Resurrection will be a man under whose arch of the feet a smouldering ember will be placed so that his brain will boil from it.”

6562. Narrated An-Nu‘mān bin Bashir: I heard the Prophet saying, “The least punished person of the (Hell) Fire people on the Day of Resurrection will be a man under whose arch of the feet two smouldering embers will be placed, because of which his brain will boil just like Al-Mirjal (copper vessel) or a Qum-qum (narrow-necked vessel) is boiling with water.”

[See Fath Al-Bari]

6563. Narrated ‘Adī bin Ḥātim: The Prophet mentioned the Fire (Hell) and turned his face aside and asked for Allāh’s Protection from it, and then again he mentioned the Fire and turned his face aside and asked for Allāh’s Protection from it and said, “Protect yourselves from the Hell-fire, even if with half of a date-fruit, and he who cannot afford that, then (let him do so) by (saying) a good, pleasant word.”

6564. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khuḍrī: I heard Allāh’s Messenger when his uncle, Abū Ṭālib had been mentioned in his presence, saying, “May be my intercession will help him (Abū Ṭālib) on the Day of Resurrection so that he may be put in a shallow place in the Fire (Hell), with fire reaching his ankles and causing his brain to boil.”
6565. Narrated Anas (bin Malik) رضي الله عنه: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah will gather all the people on the Day of Resurrection and they will say, ‘Let us request someone to intercede for us with our Lord so that He may relieve us from this place of ours.’ Then they will go to Ādam عليه السلام and say, ‘You are the one whom Allah created with His Own Hands, and breathed in you the soul (1) which He created for you (2) and ordered the angels to prostrate to you; so please intercede for us with our Lord.’ Ādam will reply, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking,’ and will remember his sin, and will say, ‘Go to Nūḥ (Noah), the first Messenger sent by Allah.’ They will go to him and he will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking,’ and will remember his sin and say, ‘Go to Ibrāhīm (Abraham) whom Allah took as a Khālid (2).’ They will go to him (and request similarly). He will reply, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking,’ and will remember his sin and say, ‘Go to Mūsā (Moses) to whom Allah spoke directly.’ They will go to Mūsā and he will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking,’ and will remember his sin and say, ‘Go to ‘Isā (Jesus).’ They will go to him, and he will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking, go to Muhammad (ﷺ) as Allah has forgiven his past and future sins.’ They will come to me and I will ask my Lord's Permission, and when I see Him, I will fall down in prostration to Him, and He will leave me in that state as long as (He) Allah will, and then I will be addressed ‘Raise up your head (O Muhammad)! Ask, and your request will be granted; and say, and your saying will be listened to; intercede, and your intercession will be accepted.' Then I will raise my head, and I will glorify and praise my Lord with a saying (i.e., invocation) He will teach me, and then I will intercede. Allah will fix a limit for me (i.e., certain type of people for whom I may intercede), and I will take them out of the (Hell) Fire and let them enter Paradise. Then I will come back (to Allah) and fall in prostration, and will do the same for the third and fourth times till no one remains in the (Hell) Fire except those whom the Qur’an has imprisoned therein.” (The subnarrator, Qatada used to say at that point, “...those upon whom eternity (in Hell) has been imposed.”)

[See also Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4476]

6566. Narrated 'Imrân bin Husain: The Prophet said, “Some people will be taken out of the Fire (Hell) through the intercession of Muhammad, they will enter Paradise and will be called Al-Jahannamiyín [the (Hell) Fire people].”

6567. Narrated Anas: Umm Haritha came to Allah’s Messenger after Haritha had been martyred on the Day (of the battle) of Badr by an arrow thrown by an unknown person. She said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You know the position of Haritha in my heart (i.e., how dear to me he was), so if he is in Paradise, I will not weep for him, or otherwise, you will see what I will do.” The Prophet said, “Have you gone mad? (Do you think) it is only one Paradise? There are many Paradises, and he is in the (most superior) Paradise of Al-Firdaus.”
6568. The Prophet ﷺ added, “A forenoon journey or an afternoon journey in Allah’s Cause is better than the whole world and whatever is in it; and a place equal to an arrow bow of anyone of you, or a place equal to a foot in Paradise is better than the whole world and whatever is in it; and if one of the women of Paradise looked at the earth, she would fill the whole space between them (the earth and the heaven) with light, and would fill whatever is in between them with perfume, and the veil of her face is better than the whole world and whatever is in it.”

6569. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None will enter Paradise but will be shown the place he would have occupied in the (Hell) Fire if he had rejected Faith, so that he may be more thankful; and none will enter the (Hell) Fire but will be shown the place he would have occupied in Paradise if he had Faith, so that, that may be a cause of sorrow for him.”

6570. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: I asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who will be the luckiest person who will gain your intercession on the Day of Resurrection?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Abū Hurairah! I have thought that none will ask me about this Hadith before you, as I know your eagerness to (learn) the Hadith. The luckiest person who will have my intercession on the Day of Resurrection will be the one who said, ‘La ilaha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) sincerely from (the 6571. Narrated ‘Abdullãh (bin Mas'ûd): The Prophet ﷺ said, "I know the person who will be the last to come out of the (Hell) Fire, and the last to enter Paradise. He will be a man who will come out of the (Hell) Fire crawling, and Allãh will say to him, 'Go and enter Paradise.' He will go to it, but it will appear to him as if it had been filled, then he will return and say, 'O Lord, I have found it full.' Allãh will say, 'Go and enter Paradise, and you will have what equals the world and ten times as much (or, you will have as much as ten times the like of the world).’ On that, the man will say, ‘Do you mock at me (or laugh at me) though You are the King?’ I saw Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ (while saying that) smiling till his premolar teeth were apparent. It is said that, that will be the lowest degree (ranks) amongst the people of Paradise.

6572. Narrated Al-‘Abbãs رضي الله عنه: that he said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Did you benefit Abû Tâlib with anything?”

(52) CHAPTER. As-Sirât is a bridge across the Hell.
6573.Narrated Abū Hurairah:Some people said, “0 Allah's Messenger! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?” He said, “Do you crowd and squeeze each other on looking at the sun when it is not hidden by clouds?” They replied, “No, 0 Allah's Messenger.” He said, “Do you crowd and squeeze each other on looking at the moon when it is full and not hidden by clouds?” They replied, “No, 0 Allah's Messenger!” He said, “So you will see Him (your Lord) on the Day of Resurrection similarly. Allah will gather all the people and say, ‘Whoever used to worship anything should follow that thing.’ So, he who used to worship the sun, will follow it, and he who used to worship the moon will follow it, and he who used to worship false deities will follow them; and then only this nation (i.e., Muslims) will remain, including their hypocrites. Allah will come to them in a shape other than they know and will say, ‘I am your Lord.’ They will say, ‘We seek refuge with Allah from you. This is our place; (we will not follow you) till our Lord comes to us, and when our Lord comes to us, we will recognize Him.’ Then Allah will come to them in a shape they know and will say, ‘I am your Lord.’ They will say, ‘(No doubt) You are our Lord,’ and they will follow Him. Then a bridge will be laid over the (Hell) Fire.” Allah's Messenger added, “I will be the first to cross it. And the invocation of the Messengers on that Day, will be: ‘Allâhumma Sallim, Sallim (0 Allah, save us, save us!).’ And over that bridge there will be hooks similar to the thorns of As-Sa’dân. Didn’t you see the thorns of As-Sa’dân?” The Companions said, “Yes, O Allah's Messenger.” He added, “So the hooks over that bridge will be like the thorns of As-Sa’dân, except that... their greatness in size is only known to Allah. These hooks will snatch the people according to their deeds. Some people will be ruined because of their evil deeds, and some will be cut into pieces and fall down in Hell, but will be saved afterwards, when Allah has finished the judgements among His slaves, and intends to take out of the Fire whoever He wishes to take out from among those who used to testify that \textit{La ilaha illalldh} (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). He will order the angels to take them out and the angels will know them by the mark of the traces of prostration (on their foreheads) for Allah has banned the Fire to consume the traces of prostration on the body of Adam's son. So the angels will take them out, and by then they would have burnt (as coal), and then water, called \textit{Mā'ul-Ḥayāt} (water of life), will be poured on them, and they will spring out like a seed springs out on the bank of a rainwater stream, and there will remain one man who will be facing the (Hell) Fire and will say, 'O Lord! It's (Hell's) vapour has poisoned and smoked me and its flame has burnt me; please turn my face away from the Fire.' He will keep on invoking Allah till Allah says, 'If I grant you that, will you ask for another thing?' The man will say, 'No, by Your Power (Honour), I will not ask You for anything else.' Then Allah will turn his face away from the Fire. The man will say after that, 'O Lord, bring me near the gate of Paradise.' Allah will say (to him), 'Didn’t you promise not to ask for anything else? Woe to you, O son of Adam! How treacherous you are!' The man will keep on invoking Allah till Allah will say, 'If I give you that, you may ask me for something else.' The man will say, 'No, by Your Power (Honour), I will not ask for anything else.' He will give Allah his covenant and promise not to ask for anything else after that. So Allāh will bring him near to the gate of Paradise, and when he sees what is in it, he will remain silent as long as Allāh will, and then he will say, ‘O Lord! Let me enter Paradise.’ Allāh will say, ‘Didn’t you promise that you would not ask Me for anything other than that? Woe to you, O son of ʿĀdām! How treacherous you are!’ On that, the man will say, ‘O Lord! Do not make me the most wretched of Your creation,’ and will keep on invoking Allāh till Allāh will smile and when Allāh will smile, then He will allow him to enter Paradise, and when he will enter Paradise, he will be addressed, ‘Wish from so-and-so.’ He will wish till all his wishes will be fulfilled, then Allāh will say, ‘All this (i.e., what you have wished for) and as much again therewith are for you.’”

Abū Hurairah added: That man will be the last of the people of Paradise to enter (Paradise).

6574. Narrated ʿAṭā’ (while Abū Hurairah was narrating): Abū Saʿīd was sitting in the company of Abū Hurairah and he did not deny anything of his narration till he reached his saying: “All this and as much again therewith are for you.” Then Abū Saʿīd said, “I heard Allāh’s Messenger  saying, ‘This is for you and ten times as much.’” Abū Hurairah said, “In my memory it is ‘as much again therewith’.”
(53) CHAPTER. (What is said) regarding Al-Haud (the Prophet’s Tank — Al-Kauthar). (1)

And the Statement of Allah:

“Verily, We have granted you (O Muhammad) Al-Kauthar (a river in Paradise).” (V.108:1)

And ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid said that the Prophet said, “Be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud [Al-Kauthar (the Tank)].”

6575. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, “I am your predecessor at the Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar).” (1)

6576. ‘Abdullāh added: The Prophet said, “I am your predecessor at Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar), and some of you will be brought in front of me till I will see them and then they will be taken away from me and I will say, ‘O Lord, my companions!’ It will be said, ‘You do not know what they innovated (new things) in the religion after you left.’”

6577. Narrated ‘Ubaid Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “In front of you there will be (my) Haud (Al-Kauthar) as large as the distance between Jarbā and Adhrūḥ.

(1) (H.6475 and Ch. 53) Al-Haud (Tank): It is said that the water supplied to fill this Al-Haud (Tank) is from the river in Paradise named Al-Kauthar. So there are three things: Abundant good, Tank and River, all are called as Al-Kauthar. Please see Fath Al-Bari for details.
(two towns)." (See H. 6579)

6578. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The word ‘Al-Kauthar’ means the abundant good which Allāh gave to him (Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ).

Abū Bishr said: I said to Sa‘īd, “Some people claim that it (Al-Kauthar) is a river in Paradise.” Sa‘īd replied, “The river which is in Paradise is one item of that good which Allāh has bestowed upon him (Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ).” (See the footnote of H. 6575)

6579. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, “My Haud (Al-Kauthar) is (so large that it takes) a month’s journey to cross it. Its water is whiter than milk, and its smell is nicer than musk (a kind of perfume), and its drinking cups are (as numerous) as the (number of) stars of the sky; and whoever drinks from it, will never be thirsty again.”

6580. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The width of my Haud (Al-Kauthar) is equal to the distance between Aila (a town in Shām) and Ṣan‘ā’ in Yemen and it has as many (numerous) jugs (cups on it) as are the number of stars in the sky.”
6581. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “While I was walking in Paradise (on the night of Mi‘raj) (1) I saw a river, on the two banks of which there were tents made of hollow pearls. I asked, ‘What is this, O Jibril (Gabriel)?’ He said, ‘That is Al-Kauthar which your Lord has given to you.’ Behold! Its scent or its mud was the scent of musk!” (The subnarrator Hudba is in doubt as to the correct expression.)

6582. Narrated Anas (bin Malik):
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Some of my companions will come to me at Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar) and after I recognize them, they will then be taken away from me, where upon I will say, ‘My companions!’ Then it will be said, ‘You do not know what they innovated (new things) in the religion after you.’ ”

6583. Narrated Sahil bin Sa‘d:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am your predecessor (forerunner) at Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar), and whoever will pass by there, he will drink from it and whoever will drink from it, he will never be thirsty (again). There will come to me some people whom I will recognize, and they will recognize me, but a barrier will be placed between me and them.”

6584. Abū Ḥāzim added: An-Nu‘mān bin (1) (H. 6581) Mi‘raj: (See H. 349 and its Chap. 1, and also H. 3886, 3887 and their Chap. 41, 42].
Abī ‘Ayyāsh, on hearing me, said, "Did you hear this from Sahī?" I said: Yes.” He said, “I bear witness that I heard Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī saying the same, adding that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I will say: They are of me (i.e., my followers). It will be said: You do not know what they innovated (new things) in the religion after you left. I will say: Far removed, far removed (from mercy), those who changed (their religion) after me.”

6585. Narrated Abū Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection, a group of companions will come to me, but will be driven away from the Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar) and I will say, ‘O Lord (those are) my companions!’ It will be said, ‘You have no knowledge as to what they innovated after you left; they turned apostate as renegades (reverted from Islam).’”

6586. Narrated Ibn Al-Musaiyab: The Companions of the Prophet ﷺ said that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Some men from my companions will come to my Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar) and they will be driven away from it, and I will say, ‘O Lord, my companions!’ It will be said, ‘You have no knowledge of what they innovated after you left, they turned apostate as renegades (reverted from Islam).’”
6587. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “While I was sleeping, a group (of my followers were brought close to me), and when I recognized them, a man (an angel) intervened between me and them, he said (to them), ‘Come along.’ I asked, ‘Where?’ He said, ‘To the (Hell) Fire, by Allah.’ I asked, ‘What is wrong with them?’ He said, ‘They turned apostate as renegades after you left.’ Then behold! (Another) group (of my followers) were brought close to me, and when I recognized them, a man (an angel) intervened between me and them, he said to (them), ‘Come along.’ I asked, ‘Where?’ He said, ‘To the (Hell) Fire, by Allah.’ I asked, ‘What is wrong with them?’ He said, ‘They turned apostate as renegades after you left.’ So I did not see anyone of them escaping except a few who were like camels without a shepherd.”

6588. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Between my house and my pulpit there is a garden from amongst the gardens of Paradise, and my pulpit is over my Haud (Al-Kauthar).”
6589. Narrated Jundab: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “I am your predecessor at the Haud (Al-Kauthar).”

6590. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir ﷺ: Once the Prophet ﷺ went out and offered the funeral Salāt (prayers) for the martyrs of Uhud, and then went to the pulpit and said, “I will pave the way for you as your predecessor and will be a witness over you; and by Allāh, I am looking at my Haud (Al-Kauthar) just now, and the keys of the treasures of the earth (or the keys of the earth) have been given to me; and by Allâh, I am not afraid that you will worship others besides Allâh after me, but I am afraid that you will strive and struggle against each other over these treasures of the world.”

[See Vol. 2, Hadith. No. 1344]

6591. Narrated Ḥāritha bin Wahb: I heard the Prophet ﷺ mentioning the Haud (Al-Kauthar), saying, “The width of the Haud (Al-Kauthar) is equal to the distance between Al-Madīna and Ṣan‘ā’ (capital of Yemen).”
6592. حَرِيثة said that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying that his Haud (Al-Kauthar) would be as large as the distance between صَنْأَة and Al-Madīnah. Al-Mustaurid said to حَرِيثة, “Didn’t you hear him talking about (its drinking) vessels (cups)?” He said, “No.” Al-Mustaurid said, “The vessels (cups) are seen in it as (numerous as) the stars.”

6593. Narrated Ḥāṣmā’ bint Abī Bakr رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I will be standing at the Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar) so that I will see whom among you will come to me; and some people will be taken away from me, and I will say, ‘O Lord, (they are) from me and from my followers.’ Then it will be said, ‘Did you notice what they did after you? By Allah, they kept on turning on their heels (turned as renegades).’” The subnarrator, Ibn Abī Mulaika said, “O Allah, we seek refuge with You from turning on our heels, or being put to trial in our religion.”
6594. Narrated ‘Abdullãh, Allah’s Messenger, the truthful and truly inspired, said (as regard the creation of a human being), “Each one of you is put together in the womb of his mother for forty days, and then turns into a clot for an equal period (of forty days) and then turns into a piece of flesh for a similar period (of forty days) and then Allah sends an angel and orders him to write four things, i.e., his provision, his stated term to die (age), and whether he will be of the wretched or the blessed (in the Hereafter). Then the soul is breathed into him. And by Allah, a person among you (or a man) may do deeds of the people of the (Hell) Fire till there is only a cubit or an arm-length distance between him and the (Hell) Fire, but then that writing (which Allah has ordered the angel to write) precedes, and he does the deeds of the people of Paradise and enters it; and a man may do the deeds of the people of Paradise till there is only a cubit or two between him and Paradise, and then that writing precedes and he does the deeds of the people of the Fire and enters it.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3208, 3332]

6595. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet said, “Allah puts an angel in charge of the uterus and the angel says, ‘O Lord, (it is) semen! O Lord, (it is now) a clot! O Lord, (it is now) a piece of flesh.’ And then, if Allah wishes to complete its creation, the angel asks, ‘O Lord, (will it be) a male or a female? A wretched (an evildoer) or a blessed (doer of good)? How much will his provisions be? What will his age be? So all that is written while the creature is still in the mother’s womb.”

(2) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the pen has become dry (i.e., after the writing has been completed), with Allâh’s Knowledge.

And Allâh’s Statement:

“...And Allâh knowing (him as such) left him astray...” (V.45:23)

And Abû Hurairah said: The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “The pen has dried after writing what you will surely encounter.”

And Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ said: “...They are foremost in them (in good deeds, e.g., prayers, Zakât, fasts, Hajj, etc.)...” (V.23:61) means that happiness has already been foreordained for them.”

6596. Narrated ‘Imrân bin Ḥuṣain: A man said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Can the people of Paradise be known (differentiated) from the people of the (Hell) Fire?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Yes.” The man said, “Why do people (try to) do (good) deeds?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Everyone will do the deeds for which he has been created to do or he will do those deeds which will be made easy for him to do (i.e., everybody will find easy to do such deeds as will lead him to his destined place for which he has been created).”

(3) CHAPTER. It is (only) Allâh Who knows what they would have done.

6597. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ was asked about the offspring of Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ). He said, “Allāh knows what they would have done (were they to live).”

6598.Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about the offspring of Al-Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ)]. He said, “Allāh knows what they would have done (were they to live).”

6599. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No child is born but on Al-Fīrāḥ (i.e., Islāmic Faith of Monotheism), but its parents turn it into a Jew or a Christian, just as an animal gives birth, do you find among its offspring a mutilated one before you mutilate it yourself?”

6600. The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What do you think about those (of them) who die young?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh knows what they would have done (were they to live).”

(4) CHAPTER. “And the Command of Allāh is a decree determined.” (V.33: 38)

6601. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No woman should ask for the divorce of her (Muslim) sister so as to take her place, but she should marry the man (without compelling him to divorce his other wife) for she will have nothing but what Allāh has written for her.”

6602. Narrated Usāma: Once while I was with the Prophet ﷺ and Sa‘d, Ubayy bin Ka‘b and Mu‘ādh were also sitting with him, there came to him a messenger from one of his daughters, telling him that her child was on the verge of death. The Prophet ﷺ told the messenger to tell her, “It is for Allāh what He takes, and it is for Allāh what He gives, and everything has its fixed time (limit). So (she should) be patient and look forward to Allāh’s Reward.”

6603. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: That while he was sitting with the Prophet ﷺ a man from the Ansār came and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! We get slave-girls from the war captives and we love property; what do you think about coitus interruptus?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do you do that? It is better for you not to do it, for there is no living creature which Allāh has ordained to come into existence but will be created.”

6604. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet ﷺ once delivered a speech in front of us wherein he left nothing but mentioned (about) everything that would happen till the Hour. Some of us stored that in our minds and some forgot it. (After that speech) I used to see events taking place (which had been referred to in that speech) but I had forgotten them (before their occurrence). Then I would recognize such events as a man recognizes another man who has been absent and then sees and recognizes him.

6605. Narrated ‘Ali: While we were sitting with the Prophet who had a stick with which he was scraping the earth, he lowered his head and said, “There is none of you but has his place assigned either in the (Hell) Fire or in Paradise.” Thereupon a man from the people said, “Shall we not depend upon this, O Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet said, “No, but carry on and do your deeds, for everybody finds it easy to do such deeds (as will lead him to his place).” The Prophet then recited the Verse:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah...” \(92:5\)

(5) CHAPTER. The reward for one's deeds depends upon one's last action (deed).

6606. Narrated Abū Hurairah: We witnessed along with Allah’s Messenger the Khaibar (campaign). Allah’s Messenger told his companions about a man who claimed to be a Muslim, “This man is from the people of the Fire (Hell).” When the battle started, the man fought very bravely and received a great number of wounds and got crippling. On that, a man from among the Companions of the Prophet came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Do you know what the man you described as of the people of the Fire has done? He has fought very bravely for Allah’s Cause and he has received many wounds.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “But he is indeed one of the people of the Fire.” Some of the Muslims were about to have some doubt about that statement. So while the man was in that state, the pain caused by the wounds troubled him so much that he put his hand into his quiver and took out an arrow and committed suicide with it. Off went some men from the Muslims to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allah has made your statement true. So-and-so has committed suicide.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Bilal! Get up and announce in public: ‘None will enter Paradise but a believer, and Allah may support this religion (Islam) with a Fâjir (wicked man).’”

(1) (H. 6605) He meant: Shall we abandon our deeds since the fate of everybody has already been decided?

6607. Narrated Sahl (bin Sa’d): There was a man who fought most bravely of all the Muslims on behalf of the Muslims in a battle (Ghazwa) in the company of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ looked at him and said, “If anyone would like to see a man from the people of the Fire (Hell), let him look at this (man).” On that, a man from the people (Muslims) followed him, and he was in that state, i.e., fighting fiercely against Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Onens of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ)] till he was wounded, and then he hastened to end his life by placing the pointed end of his sword between his breasts (and pressed it with great force) till it came out between his shoulders. Then the man (who was watching that person) went quickly to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “I testify that you are Allâh’s Messenger!” The Prophet asked him, “Why do you say that?” He said, “You said about so-and-so, ‘If anyone would like to see a man from the people of the Fire, he should look at him, that fought most bravely of all of us on behalf of the Muslims and I knew that he would not die as a Muslim (martyr). So when he got wounded, he hastened to die and committed suicide.’” Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, “A man may do the deeds of the people of the Fire, while in fact he is one of the people of Paradise, and he may do the deeds of the people of Paradise while in fact he belongs to the people of Fire, and verily, (the rewards of) the deeds are decided by the last actions (deeds)”.

(6) CHAPTER. Man makes a vow seeking something other than what has been preordained (for him).

6608.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ forbade vowing and said, “In fact, vowing does not prevent anything, but it makes a miser to spend his property.”

6609. Narrated Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said (that Allah said), “Vowing does not bring to the son of Adam anything I have not already written in his Qadar (preordainments), but vowing is imposed on him by way of preordainment. Through vowing I make a miser spend of his wealth.”
(7) CHAPTER. Lā ḥaula wa lā quwwata illsa billāh (There is neither might nor power except with Allāh).

6610. Narrated Abū Mūsa: While we were with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in a holy battle, we never went up a hill or reached its peak or went down a valley but raised our voices with Takbir\(^{(1)}\). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came close to us and said, “O people! Don’t exert yourselves, for you are not calling a deaf or an absent one, but you call the All-Listener, the All-Seer.” The Prophet ﷺ then said, “O ‘Abdullāh bin Qais! Shall I teach you a sentence which is from the treasures of Paradise? (It is) ‘Lā ḥaula wa lā quwwata illsa billāh. (There is neither might nor power except with Allāh).’ ”

(8) CHAPTER. Al-Ma’sūm (the sinless or the saved or the protected) is the one whom Allāh protects.

‘Āṣim: (that means) Protector, Guardian, etc.

6611. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī that the Prophet ﷺ said, “No caliph is appointed but has two groups of advisors: One group advises him to do good and urges him to adopt it, and the other group advises him to do bad and urges him to adopt it; and Al-Ma’sūm (the sinless or the saved or the protected) is the one whom Allāh protects.”

\(\text{(1) (H. 6610) Saying: ‘Allāhu Akbar’ (Allāh is the Most Great).}\)
(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"And a ban is laid on every town (population) which We have destroyed that they shall not return (to this world again, nor repent to Us)." (V.21:95) "...None of your people will believe, except those who have believed, already..." (V.11:36)

"...And they will beget none but wicked disbelievers." (V.71:27)

Ibn ‘Abbâs said, "'Hirmun' in the Ethiopian language means 'it is obligatory.'"

6612. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs regarding the Verse: "And they will beget none but wicked disbelievers." (V.71:27)

Ibn 'Abbas said, "'Hirmun' in the Ethiopian language means 'it is obligatory.'"

Ibn 'Abbas said, "Hirmun' in the Ethiopian language means 'it is obligatory.'"

6613. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs regarding the Verse: "And We made not the vision which We showed you [O Muḥammad (S)] as an actual eye witness and not a dream on the night of Al-Isra', but a trial for the mankind..." (V.17:60)

(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"...And We made not the vision which We showed you [O Muḥammad (S)] as an actual eye witness and not a dream on the night of Al-Isra', but a trial for the mankind..." (V.17:60) vision which We showed you [O Muḥammad (ﷺ) as an actual eye witness and not a dream on the night of Al-Isra'] but as a trial for the mankind...” (V.17:60) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ actually saw with his own eyes the vision (all the things which were shown to him) on the night of his Al-Isrā’ (The Journey by Night) to Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem). The cursed tree which is mentioned in the Qur’ān is the tree of Az-Zaqqūm.

(11) CHAPTER. (Prophet) Ādām and Mūsā (Moses) argued with each other in front of Allāh.

6614. Narrated Abru Hurairah: the Prophet ﷺ said: “Ādām and Mūsā (Moses) argued with each other. Mūsā said to Ādām, ‘O Ādām! You are our father who disappointed us and turned us out of Paradise.’ Then Ādām said to him, ‘O Mūsā! Allāh favoured you with His Talk (talked to you directly) and He wrote [the Taurāt (Torah)] for you with His Own Hand. Do you blame me for action which Allāh had preordained for me forty years before my creation?’ So Ādām confuted Mūsā, Ādām confuted Mūsā.” The Prophet ﷺ repeated the statement three times.

(12) CHAPTER. No power can withhold what Allāh gives.

6615. Narrated Warrād, the freed slave of Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba; Muʿāwiya wrote to Al-Mughīrah: “Write to me what you heard the Prophet ﷺ saying after his Ṣalāt (prayer).” So Al-Mughīrah dictated to me and said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying after the Ṣalāt ‘Lā īlāha illsallāh’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh Alone) Who has no partner. O Allāh! None can withhold what You give, and none can give what You withhold. Hard efforts by anyone (or good luck or riches) for anything cannot benefit one against Your Will.”

(13) CHAPTER. Whoever takes refuge with Allāh from having an evil end of the worldly life and from having a bad fate.

And Allāh’s Statement: “I seek refuge with (Allāh) the Lord of the daybreak from the evil of what He has created.” (V.113:1,2)

6616. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Take refuge with Allāh from the difficult moments of a calamity etc., and from being overtaken by Ash-Shaqa (wretchedness in the Hereafter or destruction, etc.) and from being destined to an evil end, and from the malicious joy of enemies.”

[See Hadith No. 6347]

(14) CHAPTER. “...(Allāh) comes in between a person and his heart (i.e., He prevents an evil person to decide anything)…” (V.8:24)

6617. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: When taking an oath, the Prophet ﷺ very often used to say, “No, by Him Who turns the hearts.”

6618. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophetﷺ said to Ibn Saiyyad, “I have kept for you a secret.” Ibn Saiyyad said, “Ad-Dukh.”(1) The Prophet said, “Keep quiet, for you cannot go beyond your limits (or you cannot exceed what has been foreordained for you).” On that, ‘Umar said (to the Prophetﷺ), “Allow me to chop off his neck!” The Prophet said, “Leave him, for if he is he (i.e., Ad-Dajjāl), then you will not be able to overcome him, and if he is not, then you gain no good by killing him.”

(15) CHAPTER. “Say: ‘Nothing shall ever happen to us except what Allāh has ordained for us’…” (V.9:51)

Mujāhid said, “Bifātinin, Bimudillin” means: You cannot make anyone go astray except that whom Allāh has written for to go to Hell.

Qaddara-Fahada: Qaddara is written for mankind, to end as an evil doer (wretched) or to end as a doer of good (Blessed). Fahada: He (Allāh) guided the livestock (animals) for grazing, etc.

6619. Narrated ‘Āishah: I asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about the plague. He said, “That was a means of torture which Allāh used to send upon whomsoever He wished, but He made it a source of mercy for the believers, for anyone who is residing in a country in which this disease has spread, and he remains there and does not leave that country, but remains patient and hopes for Allah's Reward, and knows that nothing will befall him except what Allah has written for him, then he will get such reward as that of a martyr.”

(1) (H. 6618) ‘Ad-Dukh’ is a part of the word ‘Ad-Dukhān’, i.e., the smoke. For details see Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3055, 3056, 3057.

(16) CHAPTER. “...Never could we have found guidance, were it not that Allah had guided us...” (V.7:43)

“...If only Allah had guided me, I should indeed have been among the Al-Muttaqûn.”¹ (V.39:57)

6620.Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Azib: I saw the Prophet ﷺ on the Day of (the battle of) Al-Khandaq, carrying earth with us and saying:

“By Allah, without Allah we would not have been guided,
Neither would we have observed fasting,
Nor would we have offered Salât (prayer).
O Allah! Send down Sakîna (calmness and tranquillity, etc.) upon us
And make our feet firm when we meet (the enemy).
Al-Mushrikûn have rebelled against us,
But if they want to put us in Al-Fitnah (i.e., fight us) we will refuse (to flee).”

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4104]

¹ (Ch. 16) ‘Al-Muttaqûn’ means pious and righteous persons who fear Allah much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allah much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).
83 - THE BOOK OF OATHS AND VOWS

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “Allāh will not punish you for what is unintentional in your oaths, but He will punish you for your deliberate oaths; for its expiation (a deliberate oath) feed ten poor persons, on a scale of the average of that with which you feed your own families; or clothe them; or manumit a slave. But whosoever cannot afford (that), then he should fast for three days. That is the expiation for the oaths when you have sworn. And protect your oaths (i.e., do not swear much). Thus Allāh make clear to you His Āyāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) that you may be grateful.” (V. 5:89)

6621. Narrated ‘Āishah: Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq had never broken his oaths till Allāh revealed the expiation for the oaths. Then he said, “If I take an oath to do something and later on I find something else better than the first one, then I do what is better and make expiation for my oath.”

6622. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samura: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samura! Do not seek to be a ruler, because if you are given authority on asking for it, then you will be held responsible for it; but if you are given it without asking for it, then you will be helped in it (by Allāh); and whenever you take an oath to do something and later you find that something else is better than the first, then do the better one and make expiation for your oath.”

6623. Narrated Abū Mūsa: I went to the Prophet along with a group of Al-Ash'ariyun in order to request him to provide us with mounts. He said, “By Allah, I will not provide you with mounts; and I haven’t got anything to mount you on.” Then we stayed there as long as Allah wished us to stay, and then three very nice-looking (healthy) she-camels were brought to him and he made us ride them. When we left, we, or some of us, said, “By Allah, we will not be blessed, as we came to the Prophet asking him for mounts, and he took an oath that he would not give us any mounts but then he did gave us. So let us go back to the Prophet and remind him (of his oath).” When we returned to him (and reminded him of the fact), he said, “I did not give you mounts, but it is Allah Who gave you. By Allah, if Allah will, if I ever take an oath to do something and then I find something else better than the first, I make expiation for my oath and do the thing which is better (or do something which is better and give the expiation for my oath).”

6624. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) in the world, but (will be) foremost on the Day of Resurrection.”
6625. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ also said, “By Allah, if anyone of you insists on fulfilling an oath by which he may harm his family, he commits a sin, with Allah, greater than that of dissolving his oath and making its expiation with that which Allah has commanded.”

[See the Qur’an (V.5:89)].

6626. Narrated Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Anyone who takes an oath through which his family may be harmed, and insists on keeping it, he surely commits a sin greater (than that of dissolving his oath). He should rather compensate for that oath by making expiation.”

(2) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ:

“Wa aimullah (i.e., ‘By Allah!’).”

6627. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent an army detachment and made Usama bin Zaid its commander. Some people criticized (spoke badly of) Usama’s leadership. So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got up, saying, “If you people are criticizing Usama’s leadership, you have already criticized the leadership of his father before. But Wa aimullah (i.e., by Allah), he (i.e., Zaid) deserved the leadership, and he was one of the most beloved persons to me; and now this (his son Usama) is one of the dearest persons to me after him.”

[See Vol.5, Hadith No. 4469]
(3) CHAPTER. How did the oaths of the Prophet use to be?

Sa'd said, "The Prophet said, 'By Him in Whose Hand my soul is.'" And Abū Qatādā said that Abū Bakr said in front of the Prophet, "Lā Hindān (Then no, by Allāh)." It is also said, "Wallāhi, Billāhi, and Tallāhi (all meaning, 'By Allāh')."

6628. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The oath of the Prophet used to be: "No, by Him Who turns the hearts."

6629. Narrated Jābir bin Samura: The Prophet said, "If Caesar is ruined, there will be no Caesar after him; and if Khousrau is ruined, there will be no Khousrau after him; and, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, surely you will spend their treasures in Allāh's Cause."

6630. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh's Messenger said, "If Khousrau is ruined, there will be no Khousrau after him; and if Caesar is ruined, there will be no Caesar after him. By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad's soul is, surely you will spend their treasures in Allāh's Cause."

6631. Narrated 'Āishah: The Prophet said, "O followers of Muhammad! By Allah, if you knew what I know, you would weep much and laugh little.”

6632. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Hisham: We were with the Prophet and he was holding the hand of ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab. ‘Umar said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger! You are dearer to me than everything except my ownself.” The Prophet said, “No, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, (you will not have complete Faith) till I am dearer to you than your ownself.” Then ‘Umar said to him, “However, now, by Allah, you are dearer to me than my ownself.” The Prophet said, “Now, O ‘Umar, (now you are a believer).”

6633, 6634. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid: Two men had a dispute in the presence of Allah’s Messenger. One of them said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Judge between us according to Allah’s Laws.” The other, who was wiser, said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger! Judge between us according to Allah’s Laws and allow me to speak.” The Prophet said, “Speak.” He said, “My son was a labourer serving this (person) and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife. The people said that my son is to be stoned to death, but I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave-girl. Then I asked the learned people, who informed me that... my son should receive one hundred lashes and will be exiled for one year, and stoning will be the lot for the man’s wife.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Indeed, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allah’s Laws. As for your sheep and slave-girl, they are to be returned to you.” Then he scourged his son one hundred lashes and exiled him for one year. Then Unais Al-Aslamî was ordered to go to the wife of the second man, and if she confessed (the crime), then stone her to death. She did confess, so he stoned her to death.

6635. Narrated Abû Bakra: The Prophet said, “Do you think if the tribes of Aslam, Ghifâr, Muzaina and Juhaina are better than the tribes of Tamîm, ‘Amir bin Sa’â’a, Ghatafân and Asad, then they (the second group) are despairing and losing?” They (the Prophet’s Companions) said, “Yes, (they are).” He said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, they (the first group) are better than them (the second group).”

6636. Narrated Abû Ḥumaid As-Sâ’idi: Allah’s Messenger employed an employee (to collect Zakât). The employee returned after completing his job and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This (amount of Zakât) is for..." you, and this (other amount) was given to me as a present.’” The Prophet said to him, “Why didn’t you stay at your father’s or mother’s house and see if you would be given presents or not?” Then in the evening Allah’s Messenger got up after the Salát (prayer) and having testified that Lâ ilâha illâllâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) and praised and glorified Allah as He deserved, and said, “Now then! What about an employee whom we employed and then he comes and says, ‘This amount (of Zakât) is for you, and this (amount) was given to me as a present’? Why didn’t he stay at the house of his father and mother to see if he would be given presents or not? By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad’s soul is, none of you will steal anything of it (i.e., Zakât) but will bring it by carrying it over his neck on the Day of Resurrection. If it has been a camel, he will bring it (over his neck) while it will be grunting; and if it has been a cow, he will bring it (over his neck) while it will be mooing; and if it has been a sheep, he will bring it (over his neck) while it will be bleating.” The Prophet added, “I have conveyed (Allah’s Message to you).”

Abû Humaid said, “Then Allah’s Messenger raised his hands so high that we saw the whiteness of his armpits.”

6637. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Abûl-Qâsim (the Prophet) said, “By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad’s soul is, if you knew that which I know, you would weep much and laugh little.”
6638. Narrated Abü Dhar: I reached him (the Prophet ﷺ) while in the shade of the Ka'bah; he was saying, “They are the losers, by the Lord of the Ka'bah! They are the losers, by the Lord of the Ka'bah!” I said (to myself), “What is wrong with me? Is anything improper detected in me? What is wrong with me?” Then I sat beside him and he kept on saying his statement. I could not remain quiet, and Allah knows in what sorrowful state I was at that time. So I said, “Who are they (the losers)? Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you, O Allah’s Messenger!” He said, “They are the wealthy people, except the one who does like this; and like this, and like this (i.e., spends of his wealth in Allah’s Cause).”

6639. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “(The Prophet) Sulaiman (Solomon) once said, ‘Tonight I will sleep with ninety women, each of whom will bring forth a (would-be) cavalier, who will fight in Allah’s Cause.’” On this, his companion said to him, ‘Say: If Allah will!’ But he did not say ‘if Allah will’. Sulaiman then slept with all the women, but none of them became pregnant except one woman who later delivered a half-man (i.e., malformed baby). By Him in Whose Hand Muḥammad’s soul is, if he (Sulaiman) had said, ‘If Allah will’ (all his wives would have brought forth boys) and they would have fought in Allah’s Cause as cavaliers.”

(1) (H. 6638) Abū Dhar thought that the Prophet ﷺ had noticed something improper about him which made him say so.
6640. Narrated Al-Bara' bin 'Azib: A piece of silken cloth was given to the Prophet as a present and the people handed it over amongst themselves and were astonished at its beauty and softness. Allâh’s Messenger said, “Are you astonished at it?” They said, “Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger.” He said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, the handkerchiefs of Sa’d in Paradise are better than it.”

6641. Narrated 'Aishah: Hind bint 'Utba bin Rabi'a said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! (Before I embraced Islâm), there was no family on the surface of the earth I wish to have degraded more than I did your family. But today there is no family whom I wish to have honoured more than I did yours.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “I thought similarly; by Him in Whose Hand Muhammâd’s soul is!” Hind said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! (My husband) Abû Sufyân is a miser. Is it sinful of me to feed my children from his property?” The Prophet said, “No, if you take it for your needs what is just and reasonable.”
6642. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Mas‘ûd رضي الله عنه: While Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was sitting, reclining his back against a Yemenite leather tent, he said to his Companions, “Will you be pleased to be one-fourth of the people of Paradise?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Won’t you be pleased to be one-third of the people of Paradise?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad’s soul is, I hope that you will be half of the people of Paradise.”

6643. Narrated Abü Sa‘îd Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه: A man heard another man reciting: Sûrat Al-Ikhlãs (The Purity) “Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): ‘He is Allah, (the) One.’” (V.112:1) And he was repeating it. The next morning he came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and mentioned the whole story to him as if he regarded the recitation of that Sûrah as insufficient. On that, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is! That (Sûrah) equals one-third of the Qur‘ãn.”

6644. Narrated Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Perform the bowing and the prostration properly (with peace of mind), for, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I see you from behind my back when you bow and when you prostrate.”

6645. Narrated Anas bin Malik: An Ansārī woman came to the Prophet in the company of her children, and the Prophet said to her, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, you are the most beloved people to me!” And he repeated the statement thrice.

(4) CHAPTER. “Do not swear by your fathers.”

6646. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger met ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb while the latter was going with a group of camel-riders, and he was swearing by his father. The Prophet said, “Verily! Allah forbids you to swear by your fathers, so whoever has to take an oath, he should take the oath by the Name of Allah or keep quiet.”

6647. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard ‘Umar saying, “Allāh’s Messenger said to me, ‘Allāh forbids you to swear by your fathers.’” ‘Umar said, “By Allāh! Since I heard that from the Prophet, I have not taken such an oath, neither intentionally, nor by reporting the oath of someone else.”

6649. Narrated Zahdam: There was a relation of love and brotherhood between this tribe of Jarām and Al-Āsh’ariyān. Once we were with Abū Mūsa Al-Āsh’ārī, and then a meal containing chicken was brought to Abū Mūsa, and there was present, a man from the tribe of Tāmilāh who was of red complexion as if he were from non-Arab freed slaves. Abū Mūsa invited him to the meal. He said, “I have seen chickens eating dirty things, so I deemed it filthy and took an oath that I would never eat chicken.” On that, Abū Mūsa said, “Get up, I will narrate to you something about that. Once a group of the Āsh’ārīyān and I went to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and asked him to provide us with mounts; he said, ‘By Allah, I will never give you any mounts, nor do I have anything to mount you on.’ Then a few camels of war booty were brought to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, and he asked about us, saying, ‘Where are the Ash’ariyun?’ He then ordered five nice camels to be given to us, and when we had departed, we said, ‘What have we done? Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had taken the oath not to give us any mounts, and that he had nothing to mount us on, and later he gave us that we might ride? Did we take advantage of the fact that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had forgotten his oath? By Allâh, we will never succeed.’ So we went back to him and said to him, ‘We came to you to ask for mounts, and you took an oath that you would not give us any mounts, and that you had nothing to mount us on.’ On that he (µ.) said, ‘I did not provide you with mounts, but Allâh did. By Allâh, if I take an oath to do something, and then (later) find something else better than it, I do that which is better and make expiation for the oath.”

(5) CHAPTER. One should not swear by Al-Lât and Al-‘Uzza (idols which used to be worshipped in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance in Hijâz) or by any kind of false deities.

6650.Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Whoever swears in his oath, ‘By Al-Lât and Al-‘Uzza,’ should say, Lâ ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh); and whoever says to his friend, ‘Come, let me gamble with you,’ should give something in charity.’
(6) CHAPTER. The one who gives an oath regarding something although he has not been asked to give an oath.

6651.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ṣṣ had a gold ring made for himself (with a stone in it), and he used to wear it with the stone towards the inner part of his hand. Consequently, the people had similar rings made for themselves. Afterwards the Prophet ṣṣ sat on the pulpit and took it off, saying, “I used to wear this ring and keep its stone towards the palm of my hand.” He then threw it away and said, “By Allah, I will never wear it.” Therefore all the people threw away their rings as well.

(7) CHAPTER. Whoever swears by a religion other than Islam.

The Prophet ṣṣ said, “Whoever swears by Al-Lat and Al-‘Uzza should say, ‘La ilāha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh).” The Prophet ṣṣ did not label him as a disbeliever.

6652. Narrated Thābit bin Ad-Dalīl: The Prophet ṣṣ said, “Whoever swears by a religion other than Islām, is as he says; and whoever commits suicide with something, will be punished with the same thing in the (Hell) Fire; and cursing a believer is like murdering him; and whoever accuses a believer of disbelief, then it is as if he had killed him.”
(8) CHAPTER. One should not say:
"Whatever Allāh will and whatever you will
(will exist)." And can one say: "I am (alright) with Allāh’s Help, and then with your help."

6653. Narrated Abū Hurairah that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Allāh decided to test three Isrā'īlī persons. So, He sent an angel who came first to the leper and said, ‘(I am a traveller) who has run short of all means of living, and I have nobody to help me except Allāh, and then with your help.’” Abū Hurairah then mentioned the complete narration.

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“They swear by Allāh their strongest oaths that...” (V.24:53)

And Ibn ‘Abbās ™ said: ‘Abū
Bakr said, “By Allāh! O Allāh’s Messenger, you shall tell me of my error regarding the interpretation of the dream.” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not take an oath.”

6654. Narrated Al-Barā‘ ™: The Prophet ﷺ ordered us to help others to fulfil their oaths(1).

(1) (H. 6654) If what is requested, is not sinful to achieve.
6655. Narrated Usâma: Once a daughter of Allah’s Messenger sent a message to Allah’s Messenger while Usâma, Sa’d, and my father or Ubayy were (sitting there) with him. She said, (in the message); “My child is going to die, please come to us.” Allah’s Messenger returned the messenger and told him to convey his greetings to her, and say: “Whatever Allah takes; is for Him and whatever He gives is for Him, and everything with Him has a limited fixed term (in this world); so she should be patient and hope for Allah’s Reward.” Then she again sent for him swearing that he should come, so the Prophet got up, and so did we. When he sat there (at the house of his daughter), the child was brought to him, and he took him into his lap while the child’s breath was disturbed in his chest. The eyes of Allah’s Messenger started shedding tears. Sa’d said, “What is this, O Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet said, “This is the mercy which Allah has lodged in the hearts of whomsoever He wants of His slaves. Verily Allah is Merciful only to those of His slaves who are merciful (to others).”

6656. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Any Muslim who has lost three of his children will not be touched by the (Hell) Fire except that which will render Allah’s Oath fulfilled.”

(1) (H. 6656) Allah’s Oath alluded to here is the Qur’anic Verse: “There is not one of you but will pass over it (Hell), this is with your Lord, a Decree which must be accomplished.” (V.19:71)
6657. Narrated Ḥāritha bint Wahb: I heard the Prophet saying, “Shall I tell you of the people of Paradise? They comprise every poor, humble person, and if he swears by Allāh to do something, Allāh will fulfil it; while the people of the Fire comprise every violent, cruel arrogant person.”

6658. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ziyā: The Prophet was asked, “Who are the best people?” He replied: “The people of my century (generation), and then those who will come after them, and then those who will come after the latter; after that there will come some people whose witness will precede their oaths and their oaths will precede their witness.” Ibrahim (a subnarrator) said, “When we were young, our elder friends used to prohibit us from taking oaths by saying, ‘I bear witness by the Name of Allāh, or by the Covenant of Allāh.’”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith Nos. 2651, 2652, 2653]

6659. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Vābi: The Prophet said, “Whoever swears falsely in order to grab the property of a Muslim (or of his brother), Allāh will be angry with him when he meets Him.” Allāh then revealed in confirmation of the above statement:

“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allāh’s Covenant their oaths…” (V.3:77)

6660. Al-Ash’ath said, “This Verse (V.3:77) was revealed regarding me and a companion of mine when we had a dispute about a well.”

(12) CHAPTER. To swear by Allâh’s ‘Izza (Power and Honour), His Qualities, and His Speech.

And Ibn ‘Abbas said that the Prophet ﷺ used to say, “I seek refuge with Your ‘Izza” (i.e., with Allâh’s Power and Honour).

And Abû Hurairah said that the Prophet ﷺ said, “A man will remain between Paradise and Hell and will say, ‘O Lord! Please turn my face away from the Fire; and by Your Power and Honour, I will not ask You for anything other than that.’”

And Abû Sa‘îd said that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh said, ‘This and ten times as much are for you.’”

And (Prophet) Ayyûb said (to Allâh), “By Your Power and Honour I cannot dispense with Your Blessings.”

6661. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The (Hell) Fire will keep on saying: ‘Are there anymore (people to come)?’ Till the Lord of power and honour (Allâh) will put His Foot over it and then it will say, ‘Qat! Qat! (Sufficient! Sufficient!) By Your Power and Honour.’ And its various sides will come close to each other (i.e., it will contract).”
6662. Narrated Az-Zuhri: I heard ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair, Sa’id bin Al-Musaiyab, ‘Alqama bin Waqqas and ‘Ubaidullah narrating from ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet, the story about the liars who said what they said about her and how Allah revealed her innocence afterwards. Each one of the above four narrators narrated to me a portion of her narration. (It was said in it), “The Prophet stood up, saying, ‘Is there anyone who can relieve me from ‘Abdullah bin Ubaib?’ On that, Usaid bin Huddair got up and said to Sa’d bin ‘Ubada, La’amrullahi [By the Eternity (Ever-Living) of Allâh], we will kill him!”

(14) CHAPTER. (The Holy Verse): “Allâh will not call you to account for that which is unintentional in your oaths...” (V.2:225)

6663. Narrated ‘Aishah regarding: “Allâh will not call you to account for that which is unintentional in your oaths...” (V.2:225) This Verse was revealed concerning such statements (oath formulas) as:

“No, by Allâh!” and “Yes, by Allâh!”
(15) CHAPTER. If someone does something against his oath due to forgetfulness (should he make expiation)?

And the Statement of Allah:

"And there is no sin on you concerning that in which you made a mistake..."

(V.33:5)

And Allah said:

"[Mūsa (Moses) said (to Khidr): Call me not to account for what I forgot..."]

(V.18:73)

6664. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Allāh forgives my followers those (evil deeds) their ownselves may whisper or suggest to them as long as they do not act (on it) or speak."

6665. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ: While the Prophet was delivering a Khutba (religious talk) on the day of Nahr (i.e., 10th Dhul-Ḥijja; day of slaughtering the sacrifice), a man got up saying, "I thought, 0 Allah’s Messenger, such and such a thing was to be done before such and such a thing." Another man got up, saying, "O Allah’s Messenger! As regards these three (acts of Hajj), I thought so-and-so." The Prophet said, "Do (it now), and there is no harm, concerning all those matters on that day." And so, on that day whatever question he was asked, he said, "Do it, do it (now), and there is no harm therein." (See H. 83)

(1) (H. 6665) (A) i.e., Ramy (throwing pebbles) at the Jamra (B) Slaughtering of the Hady (animal) and (C) Shaving of the head. (See Book of Hajj, Volume 2.)
6666. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: A man said to the Prophet (while he was delivering a Khutba (religious talk) on the day of Nahr), “I have performed the Tawaf round the Ka'bah (Tawaf-al-Ifada) before the Ramy (throwing pebbles) at the Jamra.” The Prophet said, “There is no harm (therein).” Another man said, “I had my head shaved before slaughtering (the sacrifice).” The Prophet said, “There is no harm.” A third said, “I have slaughtered (the sacrifice) before the Ramy at the Jamra.” The Prophet said, “There is no harm.”

6667. Narrated Abu Hurairah: A man entered the mosque and started offering Salât (prayer) while Allah’s Messenger was sitting somewhere in the mosque. Then (after finishing the Salât) the man came to the Prophet and greeted him. The Prophet said to him, “Go back and offer Salât (prayer), for you have not offered Salât (prayer).” The man went back, and having offered Salât (prayer), he came and greeted the Prophet. The Prophet after returning his greetings said, “Go back and offer Salât (prayer), for you did not offer Salât (prayer).” On the third time the man said, “(O Allah’s Messenger!) Teach me [how to offer Salât (prayer)].” The Prophet said, “When you get up for the Salât (prayer), perform the ablution properly and then face the Qiblah and say Takbir (Allahu Akbar), and then recite of what you know of the Qur'an, and then bow, and remain in this state till you feel at rest in bowing, and then raise your head and stand straight; and then prostrate till you feel at rest in prostration, and then sit up till you feel at rest while sitting; and then prostrate again till you feel at rest in prostration; and then get up and stand straight, and do all this in all your Salāt (prayer).

6669. Narrated ʿAbū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If somebody eats something forgetfully while he is observing Saum (fasting), then he should complete his Saum, for Allāh has made him to eat and drink.”(1)

6670. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Buhainā: Once the Prophet led us in Salāt (prayer), and after finishing the first two Rakʿa, got up (instead of sitting for At-Tahiyyāt) and then carried on with the Salāt

(1) (H. 6669) His fast is valid although he has eaten or drunk something forgetfully.
(prayer). When he had finished his Salāt (prayer), the people were waiting for him to say Taslim, but before saying Taslim, he said Takbir and prostrated; then he raised his head, and again said Takbir (Allahu Akbar), and prostrated (i.e. the two prostrations of Sahw) and then raised his head and finished his Salāt with Taslim.\(^{(1)}\)

6671. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd that Allah's Prophet led them in the Zuhr Salāt (prayer) and he offered either more or less Rak'a, and it was said to him, “O Allah's Messenger! Has the Salāt (prayer) been reduced, or have you forgotten?” He asked, “What is that?” They said, “You have offered so many Rak'a.” So he performed with them two more prostrations and said, “These two prostrations are to be performed by the person who does not know whether he has offered more or less (Rak'a) in which case he should seek to follow what is right.\(^{(2)}\) And then complete the rest [of the Salāt (prayer)] and perform two extra prostrations.”

6672. Narrated Ubayy bin Ka'b that he heard Allah's Messenger saying, “[Prophet Mūsā (Moses)] said, 'Call me not to account for what I forget, and be not hard upon me for my affair (with you).’ (V.18:73) The first excuse of Mūsā was his forgetfulness.”

\(^{(2)}\) (H. 6671) i.e., he should assume that he has performed the least number of Rak'a that may occur to his mind out of uncertainty.
6673. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib that once he had a guest, so he told his family (on the day of ‘Eid-ul-Adha) that they should slaughter the animal for sacrifice before he returned from the (‘Eid) Salat (prayer) in order that their guest could take his meal. So his family slaughtered (the animal) before the Salat (prayer). Then they mentioned that event to the Prophet who ordered Al-Bara’ to slaughter another sacrifice. Al-Bara’ said to the Prophet, “I have a young milch she-goat which is better than two sheep for slaughtering.” [The subnarrator, Ibn ‘Aun used to say, “I don’t know whether the permission (to slaughter a she-goat as a sacrifice) was especially given to Al-Bara’, or if it was in general for all the Muslims.”]

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 983]

6674. Narrated Jundub: I witnessed the Prophet offering the ‘Eid prayer (and after finishing it) he delivered a Khutba and said, “Whoever has slaughtered his sacrifice [before the Salat (prayer)] should make up for it (i.e., slaughter another animal) and whoever has not slaughtered his sacrifice yet, should slaughter it by... mentioning Allah’s Name over it.”

(16) CHAPTER. Al-Ghamüs oath(1). And the Statement of Allah

“And make not your oaths, a means of deception amongst yourselves, lest a foot may slip after being firmly planted…” (V.16:94)

‘Dakhalan’ means by a plot and dishonesty.

6675. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The biggest sins are: To join others in worship with Allah; to be undutiful to one’s parents; to kill somebody unlawfully; and to take an Al-Ghamüs oath(1).”

(17) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

And also the Statement of Allah تعلى:

“And make not Allah’s (Name) an excuse in your oaths…” (V.2:224)

And also the Statement of Allah تعلى:

“And purchase not a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant. Verily! What is with Allah is better for you if you did but know.” (V.16:95)

And fulfil the Convenant of Allah (Bai’a: pledge for Islam) when you have covenanted, and break not the oaths after you have

(1) (Ch. 16) Al-Ghamüs oath is the false oath taken by somebody intentionally to mislead and cheat people. Such an oath cannot be expiated, but the one who takes it will be dipped into the Hell-fire. Hence comes the term ‘Al-Ghamüs’, meaning, ‘the dipping’.
confirmed them — and indeed you have appointed Allâh your surety…” (V.16:91)

6676. Narrated ‘Abdullah: Allâh’s Messenger  said, “If somebody is ordered (by the ruler or the judge) to take an oath, and he takes a false oath in order to grab the property of a Muslim, then he will incur Allâh’s Wrath when he will meet Him.” And Allâh revealed in its confirmation:

“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Convenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

6677. (The subnarrator added:) Al-Ash’ath bin Qais entered saying, “What did Abu ‘Abdur-Rahmân narrated to you?” They said, “So-and-so.” Al-Ash’ath said, “This Verse (V.3:77) was revealed in my connection. I had a well on the land of my cousin (and we had a dispute about it). I reported him to Allâh’s Messenger  who said (to me), ‘You should bring witnesses otherwise the oath of your opponent will render your claim invalid.’ I said, ‘Then he (my opponent) will take the oath, O Allâh’s Messenger.’ Allâh’s Messenger  said, ‘Whoever is ordered (by the ruler or the judge) to give an oath, and he takes a false oath in order to grab the property of a Muslim, then he will incur Allâh’s Wrath when he will meet Him on the Day of Resurrection.’ ” (See H. 2357)

(18) CHAPTER. To swear (to do or not to do) something which is not in one’s power (to do or not); and to swear to do an act of disobedience or to take an oath in a state of anger.
6678. Narrated Abû Mûsa: My companions sent me to the Prophet to ask him for some mounts. He said, "By Allâh! I will not mount you on anything!" When I met him, he was in an angry mood, but when I met him (again), he said, "Tell your companions that Allâh or Allâh's Messenger will provide you with mounts."

6679. Narrated Az-Zuhri: I heard 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair, Sa'îd bin Al-Musaiyab, Alqama bin Waqqâs and 'Ubaidullâh bin 'Abdullâh bin 'Uqba relating from 'Aîshah the wife of the Prophet the narration of the people (i.e., the liars) who spread the slander against her and they said what they said, and how Allâh revealed her innocence. Each of them related to me a portion of that narration. (They said that 'Aîshah said), "Then Allâh revealed the ten Verses starting with:

'Verily! Those who brought forth the slander...' (V.24:11-21) All these Verses were in proof of my innocence. Abû Bakr Aûg-Šiddîq who used to provide for Mïstâh some financial aid because of his relationship to him, said, 'By Allâh, I will never give anything to Mïstâh after what he said about 'Aîshah.'\(^1\) Then Allâh revealed:

'And let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen...\(^2\) (V.24:22)

"On that, Abû Bakr said, 'Yes, by Allâh, I like that Allâh should forgive me.' And then resumed giving Mïstâh the aid he used to give him and said, ‘By Allah! I will never withhold it from him.’”

6680. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Asḥ'arī: I went along with some men from the Ash'ariyun to Allāh’s Messenger  and it happened that I met him while he was in an angry mood. We asked him to provide us with mounts, but he swore that he would not give us any. Later on he said, “By Allah, if Allāh will, if ever I take an oath (to do something) and later on I find something else better than the first, then I do the better one and give expiation for the dissolution of my oath.”

(19) CHAPTER. If one says: “By Allāh! I will not speak today,” and then offers Salāt (prayer) or recites the Qur’ān or says, Subhān Allāh or Al-Ḥamdu lillāh or Lā ilāha illālāh, he will be (judged by Allāh) according to his intentions.(1)

And the Prophet  said, “The best things to say are four (expressions) i.e., (A) Subhān Allāh, (B) Al-Ḥamdu lillāh, (C) Lā ilāha illālāh and (D) Allāhu Akbar(2).”

And Abū Sufyān said, “The Prophet  wrote to Heraclius:

[‘O the people of the Scripture (Jews and

(1) (Ch. 19) i.e., whether he has intended by his oath not to speak absolutely or with the exclusion of Salāt (prayers) and invocations.
(2) (Ch. 19) See the glossary.
Christians)]] Come to a word that is just between us and you that we worship none but Allah...’ (V.3:64)

Mujahid said: The word referred to above is the word of piety, i.e., Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah).

6681. Narrated Al-Musaiyyab: When the death of Abū Talib approached, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came to him and said, “Say: Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), a sentence with which I will be able to defend you before Allah.”

6682. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “(There are) two expressions or utterances that are very easy for the tongue to say, and very heavy in the balance, and the most beloved to the Most Gracious (Allah). (And they are): Subḥān Allāhī wa bi-hamdihi; Subḥān Allāhīl-A‘zīm.”(1)

6683. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said a sentence and I said another. He ﷺ said, “Whoever dies while he is setting up rivals along with Allāh (i.e., worshipping others along with Allāh) shall enter the (Hell) Fire.” And I said the other: “Whoever dies while he is not setting up rivals along with Allāh (i.e., worshipping

(1) (H. 6682) “I deem Allāh above all those unsuitable things ascribed to Him and free Him from resembling anything whatsoever, and I glorify His Praises! I deem Allāh the Most Great, above all those unsuitable things ascribed to Him and free Him from resembling anything whatsoever.”
none except Allāh) shall enter Paradise.”

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4497]

(20) CHAPTER. Whoever took an oath that he would not enter upon his wife for one month and that month was of twenty-nine days.

6684. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) took an oath for abstention from his wives (for one month), and during those days he had a dislocation (sprain) of his foot. He stayed in a Mashrabah (an upper room) for twenty-nine nights and then came down. Then the people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You took an oath for abstention (from your wives) for one month.” On that he said, “A (lunar) month can be of twenty-nine days.”

(21) CHAPTER. If somebody takes an oath not to drink Nabidh (infusion of dates) and then he drinks Ti‘ā or Sakar or juice (syrup) then, in the opinion of some people, he is not regarded as having broken his oath, if, to him, such drinks are not regarded as Nabidh.

6685. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim: Sahl bin Sa‘d said, “Abū Usaid, the Companion of the Prophet (ﷺ) got married, so he invited the Prophet (ﷺ) to his wedding banquet, and the bride herself served them.” Sahl said to the people, “Do you know what drink she served him with? She infused some dates in a pot at night and the next morning she served him with the infusion.”
6686. Narrated Sauda bint Zaid bint Abbad, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: One of our sheep died and we tanned its skin and kept on infusing dates in it till it was a worn out water-skin.

(22) CHAPTER. If someone takes an oath that he will not eat Udm (cooked food-dish, meat, etc.) and then he eats dates with bread, (will his oath be regarded as dissolved)? And what sort of food is to be considered as Udm (cooked food-dish etc.)

6687. Narrated A‘ishah bint Abu Bakr: The family of (the Prophet) Muhammad ﷺ never ate wheat bread with cooked food-dish (meat, etc.) for three consecutive days to their fill, till he met Allah (i.e., till the Prophet ﷺ died).

6688. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Abū Ṭālha said to Umm Sulaim, “I heard the voice of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ rather weak, and I knew that it was because of hunger. Have you anything (to present to the Prophet ﷺ)?” She said, “Yes.” Then she took out a few loaves of barley bread and took a veil of her and wrapped the bread with a part of it and sent me to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. I went and found Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sitting in the mosque with some people. I stood up before him. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Has Abū Ṭalḥa sent you?” I said, “Yes.” Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to those who were with him, “Get up and proceed.” I went ahead of them (as their forerunner) and came to Abū Ṭalḥa and informed him about it. Abū Ṭalḥa said, “O Umm Sulaim! Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has come (with his Companions) and we have no food to feed them.” Umm Sulaim said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” So Abū Ṭalḥa went out (to receive them) till he met Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came in company with Abū Ṭalḥa and they entered the house. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Umm Sulaim! Bring whatever you have.” So she brought that (barley) brād and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered that bread to be broken into small pieces, and then Umm Sulaim poured over it some butter from a leather butter container, and then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said what Allāh wanted him to say, (i.e., invoked Allāh to bless that food). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ then said, “Admit ten men.” Abū Ṭalḥa admitted them and they ate to their fill and went out. He (ﷺ) again said, “Admit ten men.” He admitted them, and in this way all the people ate to their fill, and they were seventy or eighty men.”

6689. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb ﷺ: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “The (reward of) deeds depend upon the intentions; and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So whoever emigrates for the sake of Allāh and His Messenger, then his emigration will be considered to be for Allāh and His Messenger, and whoever emigrates for the sake of worldly gain or to marry a woman, then his emigration will be considered to be for what he emigrated for.” (1)

(24) CHAPTER. If a person gives his property in charity because of a vow and as an expiation for sins (in repentance).

6690. Narrated Ka'b bin Mālik in the last part of his narration about the three who remained behind (from the battle of Tabūk). (I said), “As a proof of my true repentance (for not joining the battle of Tabūk), I shall give up all my property for the sake of Allāh and His Messenger (as an expiation for that sin).” The Prophet ﷺ said (to me), “Keep some of your wealth, for that is better for you.”

(25) CHAPTER. If someone makes some food unlawful for himself.

(1) (H. 6689) In the Hereafter, everyone will be judged according to his intentions.
And the Statement of Allah:

"O Prophet! Why do you forbid (for yourself) that which Allah has allowed to you, seeking to please your wives?..." (V.66:1)

And also His Statement:

"O you who believe! Make not unlawful the Tayyibāt (all that is good as regards foods, deeds, beliefs, persons, things, etc.) which Allah has made lawful to you..." (V.5:87)

6691. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet used to stay (for a period) in the house of Zainab bint Jahsh (one of the wives of the Prophet), and he used to drink honey in her house. Hafsa and I decided that when the Prophet entered upon either of us, she would say: "I smell in you the bad smell of Magjāfīr (a bad smelling rasin). Have you eaten Magjāfīr?" When he entered upon one of us, she said that to him, he replied (to her), "No, but I have drunk honey in the house of Zainab bint Jahsh, and I will never drink it again." Then the following Verse was revealed:

"O Prophet! Why do you forbid (for yourself) that which Allah has allowed to you?..." (V.66:1)

(Also His Statement): "...If you two (wives of the Prophet namely 'Aishah and Hafṣa) turn in repentance to Allah..." (V.66:4)

The two were 'Aishah and Hafṣa.

And also the Statement of Allah:

"And (remember) when the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his wives (Hafṣa)..." (V.66:3) i.e., his saying, "But I have drunk honey."

Hishām said: It also meant his saying, "I will not drink anymore, and I have taken an oath, so do not inform anybody of that."
(26) CHAPTER. To fulfil one’s vow. And the Statement of Allah ﷺ:
“They (are those who) fulfil (their) vows…”
(V.76:7)

6692. Narrated Sa’īd bin Al-Ḥarīth that he heard Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ saying, “Weren’t the people forbidden to make vows? The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘A vow neither hastens nor delays anything, but by the making of vows some of the wealth of a miser is spent.’” (1)

6693. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ forbade the making of vows and said, “It (a vow) does not prevent anything (that has to take place), but the property of a miser is spent (taken out) with it.”

6694. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah says, ‘The vow does not bring about for the son of Adam anything I have not decreed for him, but his vow may coincide with what has been decided for him, and by this way I cause a miser to spend of his wealth. So he gives Me (spends in charity) for the fulfilment of what has been decreed for him what he would not give Me before but for his vow.’”

(1) (H. 6692) Miserly people do not spend willingly and without compensation in this life. So, by means of vows, they have to spend their money when their worldly wishes are fulfilled.
(27) CHAPTER. The sin of him who does not fulfil his vow.

6695. Narrated Zahdam bin Mudarrib: 'Imrân bin Ḥuṣain said, "The Prophet peace be upon him said, ‘The best of you (people) are my century (generation), then those who will come after them, and then those who will come after the second century (generation).’" 'Imrân added, "I do not remember whether he mentioned two or three centuries (generations) after his century (generation)."

The Prophet peace be upon him added, "Then will come some people who will make vows but will not fulfil them; and they will be dishonest and will not be trustworthy, and they will give their witness without being asked to give their witness, and fatness will appear among them.”

(28) CHAPTER. To vow for to be obedient to Allah.

And the Statement of Allah:

"And whatever you spend for spendings (e.g. Sadaqa—charity, etc. for Allah's Cause) or whatever vow you make..." (V.2:270)

6696. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet peace be upon him said, "Whoever vows that he will be obedient to Allah, should remain obedient to Him; and whoever made a vow that he will disobey Allah, should not disobey Him.”

(29) CHAPTER. If somebody vowed or took an oath that he would not speak to anybody, during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, and then he embraces Islam (should he fulfil his vow)?.

to perform I'tikāf for one night in Al-Masjid-al-Haram, during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (before embracing Islam)." The Prophet said, "Fulfil your vow."

(30) CHAPTER. If somebody dies without fulfilling a vow (may somebody else fulfil it on his behalf)?

Ibn 'Umar gave a verdict to a lady whose mother had died, leaving an unfulfiled vow, that she would offer Salāt (prayer) in Quba' (a mosque at Al-Madīna).

Ibn 'Umar said to the lady, "Offer Salāt (prayer) on her behalf." Ibn 'Abbas said the same.

6698. Narrated Sa'id bin 'Ubāda Al-Anṣārī that he consulted the Prophet about a vow that had been made by his mother who died without fulfilling it. The Prophet gave his verdict that he should fulfil it on her behalf. The verdict became Sunna [i.e., the Prophet's Sunna (legal way)]."

6699. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: A man came to the Prophet and said to him, "My sister vowed to perform the Hajj, but she died (before fulfilling it)." The Prophet said, "Would you not have paid her debts if she had any?" The man said, "Yes." The Prophet said, "So pay Allāh's Rights, as He is more entitled to receive His Rights."

(1) (H. 6697) I'tikāf: See the glossary.
(31) CHAPTER. To vow for something which one does not possess, and to vow for something sinful.

6700. Narrated 'Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever vowed to be obedient to Allāh, must be obedient to Him; and whoever vowed to be disobedient to Allāh, should not be disobedient to Him."

6701. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Allāh is not in need of this (man) torturing himself," when he saw the man walking between his two sons (who were supporting him).\(^{(1)}\)

6702. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ saw a man performing Ṭawāf around the Ka'bah, tied with a rope or something else (while another person was holding him). The Prophet ﷺ cut that rope off.

6703. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: While performing the Ṭawāf around the Ka'bah, the Prophet ﷺ passed by a person leading another person by a hair-rope nose-ring in his nose. The Prophet cut the hair-rope nose-ring off with his hand and ordered the man to lead him by the hand.

6704. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: While the Prophet was delivering a Khuṣba (religious talk), he saw a man standing, so he asked about that man. They (the people) said, “It is Abū Isrā’īl who has vowed that he will stand and never sit down, and he will never come in the shade, nor speak to anybody, and will observe fasting.” The Prophet said, “Order him to speak and let him come in the shade, and make him sit down, but let him complete his fast.”

(32) CHAPTER. If somebody has vowed that he will observe Ṣaum (fast) for a few successive days and then those days appear to coincide with ‘Eid-ul-Adhā or ‘Eid-ul-Fitr (should he observe fast then or make expiation, or observe fast on other days)?

6705. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: that he was asked about a man who had vowed that he would observe Ṣaum (fast) all the days of his life; then the day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā or ‘Eid-ul-Fitr came. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said: “Indeed in the Messenger of Allāh you have a good example (to follow). He did not observe fast on the day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā or the day of ‘Eid-ul-Fitr, and we do not fast on these two days.”
6706. Narrated Ziyād b. Jubayr: I was with Ibn ‘Umar when a man asked him, “I have vowed to observe fast every Tuesday or Wednesday throughout my life; and if the day of my fasting coincided with the day of Nahr (the first day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā), (what shall I do)?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allāh has ordered the vows to be fulfilled, and we are forbidden to observe fast on the day of Nahr.” The man repeated his question and Ibn ‘Umar repeated his former answer, adding nothing more.

(33) CHAPTER. Can the land, sheep, farms and one’s belongings be included in one’s vows and oaths?

And Ibn ‘Umar said: ‘Umar said to the Prophet ﷺ, “I have a piece of land better than which I never had.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you wish, you may keep this land in your custody and spend its output in charity.” And Abū Ṭalḥa said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Bairuḥa (garden) is the most beloved property to me from all my properties.” Bairuḥa’ was a garden belonging to him, situated opposite the (Prophet’s) mosque.

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4554]

6707. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: We went out in the company of Allāh’s Messenger on the day of (the battle of) Khaibar, and we did not get any gold or silver as war booty, but we got property in the form of things and clothes. Then a man, called Rifā'a bin Zaid, from the tribe of Banî Ḍubaib presented a slave named Mid'am to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ headed towards the valley of Al-Qurâ, and when he was in the valley of Al-Qurâ, an arrow thrown by an unidentified person, struck and killed Mid'am who was making a she-camel of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ kneel down. The people said, “Congratulations to him (the slave) for gaining Paradise.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No! By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, for the sheet which he stole from the war booty before its distribution on the day of Khaibar, is now burning over him.” When the people heard that, a man brought one or two Shirāk (leather straps of shoes) to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “A Shirāk of fire, or two Shirāk of fire.”
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"(Then for the) expiation (of a deliberate oath) feed ten Masākin (poor persons)...

And what the Prophet ordered when the following Verse was revealed:

"...must pay a Fidyah (ransom) of either observing Saum (fasts) (for three days) or giving Sadaqa (charity — six poor persons) or feeding or offering a sacrifice (one sheep)...

(1.2:196)

Ibn ‘Abbãs, ‘Aťã’ and ‘Ikrima said, “Whenever the word ‘or’ occurs in the Qur’ân, then the person intended has the option to fulfil any of the alternatives specified.” The Prophet gave Ka‘b the option as regards the expiation (for his oath).

6708. Narrated Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra: I came to the Prophet and he said to me, “Come near.” So I went near to him and he said, ‘Are your lice troubling you?” I replied, “Yes.” He said, "(Shave your head and) make expiation in the form of Siyâm (fasting), Sadaqa (giving in charity), or offering a sacrifice.”

(The subnarrator) Ayyùb said, “As-Siyâm (fasting) should be for three days, and the Nusuk (sacrifice) is to be of a sheep, and the Sadaqa is to be given to six poor persons.”

(2) CHAPTER. When is expiation due or obligatory upon the rich and the poor? And the Statement of Allah:

"Allah has already ordained for you (O men) the dissolution of your oaths. And Allah is your Maula (Lord, Master, Protector) and He is the All-Knower, the All-Wise.”

(V.66:2)

6709. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and said, “I am ruined!” The Prophet asked, “What is the matter with you?” He said, “I had sexual relation with my wife (while I was fasting) in Ramadān.” The Prophet said, “Have you got enough to manumit a slave?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?” The man said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you observe Saum for two successive months?” The man said, “No.” Then the Prophet said to him, “Sit down,” and he sat down. Afterwards an 'Araq, i.e., a big basket, containing dates was brought to the Prophet, and the Prophet said to him, “Take this (basket of dates) and give it in charity.” The man said, “To poorer people than us?” On that, the Prophet smiled till his premolar teeth became visible, and then told him, “Feed your family with it.”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 1936]

(3) CHAPTER. The man who helped another person in difficult circumstances to make an expiation (for the latter’s fault).

6710. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and said, “I am ruined!” The Prophet asked, “What is the matter with you?” He said, “I had sexual relation with my wife (while fasting) in Ramadān.” The Prophet said to him, “Can you afford to manumit a slave?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?” The man said, “No.” Then the Prophet said to him, “Sit down,” and he sat down. Afterwards an 'Araq, i.e., a big basket, containing dates was brought to the Prophet, and the Prophet said to him, “Take this (basket of dates) and give it in charity.” The man said, “To poorer people than us?” On that, the Prophet smiled till his premolar teeth became visible, and then told him, “Feed your family with it.”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 1936]
months?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you afford to feed sixty poor persons?” He replied in the negative. Later on, an ‘Araq (big basket) containing dates was presented to the Prophet, and the Prophet said (to him), “Take this basket and give it in charity.” The man said, “To poorer people than we! O Allāh’s Messenger? By Him who has sent you with the Truth! Indeed, there is no house in between the two mountains (of the city of Al-Madīnah) poorer than us.” So the Prophet said (to him), “Go and feed it to your family.”

(4) CHAPTER. For expiation (of one’s oath) one should feed ten poor persons no matter whether they are relatives or not.

6711. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and said, “I am ruined!” The Prophet asked, “What is the matter with you?” He said, “I had sexual relation with my wife (while I was fasting) in Ramadān.” The Prophet said to him, “Can you afford to manumit a slave?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you afford to feed sixty poor persons. He said, “I have nothing.” Later on an ‘Araq (big basket) containing dates was presented to the Prophet and the Prophet said (to him), “Take this basket and give it in charity.” The man said, “To poorer people than us? Indeed, there is nobody between its (i.e., Al-Madīnah’s) two mountains who is poorer than we.” The Prophet then said, “Take it and feed your family with it.”

(5) CHAPTER. The Sa' (measuring unit) of Al-Madina, and the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ, and his invocation for Allâh’s Blessing in it. And what the people of Al-Madina inherited of that through the generations.

6712. Narrated Al-Ju'aid bin Abdur-Rahmân: As-Sâ’ib bin Yazid said, “The Sa’ at the time of the Prophet ﷺ was equal to one Mudd plus one-third of a Mudd of your time, and then, it was increased during the caliphate of ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Azîz.”

6713. Narrated Nâfi’: Ibn ‘Umar used to give the Zakât of Ramadan (Zakat-ul-Fitr) according to the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ, the first Mudd, and he also used to give things for expiation for oaths according to the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ. Abû Qutaiba said, “Mâlik said to us, ‘Our Mudd (i.e., of Al-Madina) is better than yours and we do not see any superiority except in the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ.’ (2) Mâlik further said to me, ‘If a ruler came to you and fixed a Mudd smaller than the one of the Prophet ﷺ, by what Mudd would you measure what you give (for expiation or Zakat-ul-Fitr)?’ I replied, ‘We would give it according to the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ.’ On that, Mâlik said, ‘Then, don’t you see that we have to revert to the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ ultimately?’”

(1) (H. 6713) The other Mudd is that used by Hishâm, and it was bigger than that of the Prophet ﷺ.
(2) (H. 6713) Mâlik asserts that the Mudd of the Prophet ﷺ should be used because he invoked for Allâh’s Blessings in it, and so it is superior to any other Mudd even if it were bigger in size.
6714. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger said, “O Allah! Bestow Your Blessings on their measures, Sa’ and Mudd (i.e., of the people of Al-Madina”).

6715. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If somebody manumits a Muslim slave, Allah will save from the (Hell) Fire every part of his body for freeing the corresponding parts of the slave’s body, even his private parts (will be saved from the Fire) because of freeing the slave’s private parts.”

(7) CHAPTER. What is said about the manumission of Mudabbār(1) and Umm Walad(2) and a Mukātab(3) for expiation; and the manumission of a bastard.

Tawus said, “The manumission of a Mudabbār or an Umm Walad is sufficient (for making expiation).”

(1) (Ch. 7) A slave who is promised by his masters to be manumitted after the latter’s death.
(2) (Ch. 7) A slave-girl who has given birth to a child for her master.
(3) (Ch. 7) A slave whose master agrees to free him for paying a certain amount of money.
6716. Narrated 'Amr: Jābir said: An Ansârī man made his slave a Mudabbar and he had no property other than the slave. When the Prophet heard of that, he said (to his Companions), 'Who wants to buy him (i.e., the slave) from me?' Nu'am bin An-Naḥhām bought him for eight hundred Dirham. I heard Jābir saying, “That was a Coptic slave who died in the same year.”

CHAPTER. If someone manumits a slave, possessed by him and another person.

(8) CHAPTER. If somebody manumits a slave for expiation (for dissolving oaths etc.), (then) for whom will the slave’s WaLâ’ be?

6717. Narrated 'Āishah that she intended to buy Barîra (a slave girl) and her masters stipulated that they would have her WaLâ’. When 'Āishah mentioned that to the Prophet, he said, “Buy her, for the WaLâ’ is for the one who manumits.”

(9) CHAPTER. To say: “In shâ’ Allâh” (If Allâh will) while taking an oath.

6718. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash'ârî: I went to Allâh’s Messenger along with a group of people from (the tribe of) Al-Ash'ârî, asking for mounts. The Prophet said, “By Allâh, I will not give you anything to ride, and I have nothing to mount you

(1) (Ch. 8) WaLâ’: See the glossary.
We stayed there as long as Allah wished, and after that, some camels were brought to the Prophet and he ordered that we be given three camels. When we set out, some of us said to others, “Allah will not bless us, as we all went to Allah’s Messenger asking him for mounts, and although he had sworn that he would not give us mounts, he did give us.” So we returned to the Prophet and mentioned that to him. He said, “I have not provided you with mounts, but Allah has provided you with mounts. By Allah, if Allah will, if I ever take an oath and then see that another thing is better than the first, I make expiation for my (dissolved) oath, and do what is better and make expiation.”

6719. Narrated Hammad, the same narration as above (Hadith No. 6718): “I make expiation for my dissolved oath, and I do what is better, or do what is better and make expiation.”

6720. Narrated Abû Hurairah (The Prophet Sulaimân (Solomon) said, “Tonight I will sleep with (my) ninety wives, each of whom will beget a male child who will fight for Allah’s Cause.” On that, his companion (Sufyan said that his companion was an angel) said to him, “Say, ‘If Allah will (In šah’ Allah).’” But Sulaimân forgot (to say it). He slept with all his wives, but none of the women gave birth to a child, except one who gave birth to a half boy (malformed). Abû Hurairah added: The Prophet said, “If Sulaiman had said, ‘If Allah will’ (In šah’ Allah) he would not have been unsuccessful in his action, and would have attained what he had desired.” Once Abū Hurairah added: Allah’s Messenger said, “If he had accepted.” (1)

(10) CHAPTER. To make expiation for one’s oath before or after dissolving it.

6721. Narrated Zahdam Al-Jarmi: We were sitting with Abū Mūsa Al-Ash‘ārī, and there were ties of friendship and mutual favours between us and his tribe. His meal was presented before him and there was chicken meat in it. Among those who were present there was a man from Banī Taimillāh having a red complexion as a non-Arab freed slave, and that man did not approach the meal. Abū Mūsa said to him, “Come along! I have seen Allah’s Messenger eating of that (i.e., chicken).” The man said, “I have seen it (chickens) eating something I regarded as dirty, and so I have taken an oath that I shall never eat chicken.” Abū Mūsa said, “Come along! I will inform you about it (i.e., your oath). Once we went to Allah’s Messenger in company with a group of Ash‘ārīyūn, asking him for mounts while he was distributing some camels from the camels of Zakāt. (Ayyūb said, “I think he said that the Prophet was in an angry mood at the time.”) The Prophet said, ‘By Allah! I will not give you mounts, and I have nothing to mount you on.’ After we had left, some camels of booty were brought to Allah’s Messenger and he said, ‘Where are those Ash‘ārīyūn? Where are those Ash‘ārīyūn? So we went (to him) and he gave us five very fat good-looking camels. We mounted them and went away, and then I said to my companions, 'We went to Allâh's Messenger  to ask for mounts, but he took an oath that he would not give us mounts, and then later on he sent for us and gave us mounts; perhaps Allâh's Messenger  forgot his oath. By Allâh, we will never be successful, for we have taken advantage of the fact that Allâh's Messenger  forgot to fulfil his oath. So let us return to Allâh's Messenger  to remind him of his oath.' We returned and said, 'O Allâh's Messenger! We came to you and asked you for mounts, but you took an oath that you would not give us mounts, but later on you gave us mounts, and we thought or considered that you have forgotten your oath.' The Prophet  said, 'Depart, for Allâh has given you mounts. By Allâh, In sha Allâh (if Allâh will), if I take an oath and then later find another thing better than that, I do what is better, and make expiation for the oath.'

6722. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Samura: Allâh's Messenger  said, "(O
‘Abdur-Raḥmān! Do not seek to be a ruler, for if you are given the authority of ruling without your asking for it, then Allāh will help you; but if you are given it by your asking, then you will be held responsible for it. And if you take an oath to do something and later on find another thing better than that, then do what is better and make expiation for (the dissolution of) your oath.”
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (1):

"Allāh commands you as regards your children’s (inheritance)... (up to)... This is a Commandment from Allāh; and Allāh is Ever All-Knowing, Most Forbearing.”

(V.4:11,12)

6723. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I became sick, so Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and Abū Bakr came on foot to pay me a visit. When they came, I was unconscious. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ performed ablution and he poured over me the water of his ablution, and I came to my senses and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What shall I do regarding my property? How shall I distribute it?” The Prophet ﷺ did not reply till the Divine Verses of inheritance (Al-Fara‘id) were revealed.

(2) CHAPTER. Learning about the Laws of Inheritance (descent and distribution).

‘Uqba bin ‘Āmir said, “Learn (the Laws of Inheritance) before those who depend on Az-Zan (guessing), namely, those who base their judgement on mere presumption.”

6724. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Beware of suspicion, for it is the worst of false tales

(1) (Book 85) (H. 6723) Al-Fara‘id means the shares which are fixed for the closest relatives of the deceased. Such shares are prescribed in the Qur‘ān and it is: half, one-fourth, one-eighth, two-third, one-third, and one-sixth. (See the Qur‘ān, Sūrah 4, Verses 11, 12 & 176).
and don’t look for the other’s faults and don’t spy, and don’t hate each other, and don’t desert (cut your relations with) one another. O Allah’s slaves, be brothers!”

[See Hadith No. 6064]

(3) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Our (i.e., Messengers’) property is not to be inherited, and whatever we leave (after our death), is Sadaqa (to be spent in charity).”

6725. Narrated ʿĀishah ﷺ: Fāṭima and Al-ʿAbbās came to Abū Bakr, seeking their share from the property of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and at that time, they were asking for their land at Fadak and their share from Khaibar...........

(Contd. to No. 6726)

6726. Abū Bakr said to them, “I have heard from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘Our property is not to be inherited, and whatever we (after our death) leave is to be spent in charity, but the family of Muhammad (ﷺ) may take their provisions from this property.’” Abū Bakr added, “By Allah, I will not leave the procedure I saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ following during his lifetime concerning this property.” Therefore Fāṭima left Abū Bakr and did not speak to him till she died.

6727. Narrated ʿĀishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Our (Messengers’) property is not to be inherited, and whatever we leave, is Sadaqa (to be spent in charity in Allah’s Cause)."

6728. Narrated Malik bin ‘Aus: I went and entered upon ‘Umar, his doorman, Yarfa came saying, “‘Uthmân, ‘Abdur-Rahmân, Az-Zubair and Sa‘d are asking your permission (to see you). May I admit them?” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” So he admitted them. Then he came again and said, “May I admit ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs?” He said, “Yes.” ‘Abbâs said, “O, chief of the believers! Judge between me and this (man ‘All).” ‘Umar said, “I beseech you by Allah, by Whose Permission both the heaven and the earth exist, do you know that Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Our (the Messengers’) property is not to be inherited, and whatever we leave (after our death) is Sadaqa (to be spent in charity)?’ And by that Allah’s Messenger meant himself.” The group said, “(No doubt), he said so.” ‘Umar then faced ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs and said, “Do you both know that Allah’s Messenger said that? They replied, “(No doubt), he said so.” ‘Umar said, “So let me talk to you about this matter. Allah favoured His Messenger with something of this Faṭ‘ (i.e., booty won by the Muslims at war without fighting) which He did not give to anybody else. Allah said: ‘And what Allah gave as Faṭ‘ (booty)... (up to)... to do all thing.’ (V.59:6) And so that property was only for Allah’s Messenger. Yet, by Allah, he neither gathered that property for himself nor withheld it from you, but he gave its income to you, and distributed it among you till there remained the present property; out of which the Prophet used to spend the yearly maintenance for his family, and whatever used to remain he used to spend it where Allâh’s property is spent (i.e., in charity, etc.). Allâh’s Messenger followed that system throughout his life. Now I beseech you by Allâh, do you know all that?” They said, “Yes.” ‘Umar then said to ‘Alî and ‘Abbâs, “I beseech you by Allâh, do you know that?” Both of them said, “Yes.” ‘Umar added, “And when the Prophet died, Abû Bakr said, ‘I am the successor of Allâh’s Messenger,’ and took charge of that property and managed it in the same way as Allâh’s Messenger did. Then I took charge of this property for two years, during which I managed it as Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr did. Then you both (‘Alî and ‘Abbâs) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case. (O ‘Abbâs!) You came to me asking for your share from the property of your nephew, and this man (‘Alî) came to me, asking for the share of his wife from the property of her father. I said, ‘If you both wish, I will give that to you on that condition [i.e., that you would follow the way of the Prophet and Abû Bakr and as I (‘Umar) have done in managing it].’ Now both of you seek of me a verdict other than that? Lo! By Allâh, by Whose Permission both the heaven and the earth exist, I will not give any verdict other than that till the Hour is established. If you are unable to manage it, then return it to me, and I will be sufficient to manage it on your behalf.”
6729. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Not even a single Dinār of my property should be distributed (after my death) to my inheritors, but whatever I leave, excluding the provision for my wives and my servants, is Sadaqa (to be spent in charity).”

6730. Narrated Urwa: ‘Āishah said, “When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ died, his wives intended to send ‘Uthmān to Abū Bakr asking him for their share of the inheritance.” Then ‘Āishah said to them, “Didn't Allah’s Messenger ﷺ say, ‘Our (Messengers’) property is not to be inherited, and whatever we leave is Sadaqa (to be spent in charity).”

(4) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Whoever leaves some property (after his death), then it is for his family (inheritors).”

6731. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am more closer to the believers than their ownselves, so whoever (of them) dies while being in debt and leaves nothing for its repayment, then we are to pay his debts on his behalf; and whoever (among the believers) dies leaving some property, then that property is for his heirs.”

(5) CHAPTER. The inheritance share of the offspring from the property of their dead fathers and mothers.
And Zaid bin Thabit said, “If a man or a woman leaves as an heir, a (single) daughter, then she inherits half of the property; and if they are two daughters or more, they inherit two-thirds of the property; and if there is a son along with these daughters, then the other heirs (if there are any) are given their shares first, and what remains is to be distributed (among the daughters and the son) with the ratio of two shares for the male heir and one share each for the female heirs.”

6732. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “Give the Fara’id (the shares of the inheritance that are prescribed in the Qur’an) to those who are entitled to receive it. Then whatever remains, should be given to the closest male relative of the deceased.”

(6) CHAPTER. The inheritance of daughters (i.e., their right to inherit property).

6733. Narrated Sa‘d bin Abi Waqqas: I was stricken by an ailment that led me to the verge of death. The Prophet came to pay me a visit. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have much property and no heir except my (only) daughter. Shall I give two-third of my property in charity?” He said, “No.” I said, “Half of it?” He said, “No”. I said, “One-third of it?” He said, “(You may do so) though one-third is also too much, for it is better for you to leave your offspring wealthy than to leave them poor, asking others for help. And whatever you spend (for Allah’s sake) you will be rewarded for it, even for a morsel of food which you may put in the bowl.”

(1) (H. 6732): See the footnote of H. 6723.
mouth of your wife.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will I remain behind and fail to complete my emigration?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you are left behind after me, whatever good deeds you will do for Allah’s sake will upgrade you and raise you high. May be you will have long life so that some people may benefit by you and others (the enemies) be harmed by you.”(1) But Allah’s Messenger ﷺ felt sorry for Sa’d bin Khaula as he died in Makkah. (Sufyán, a subnarrator, said that Sa’d bin Khaula was a man from the tribe of Bani ‘Amir bin Lu’ai.)

6734. Narrated Al-Aswad bin Yazid: Mu’ádh bin Jabal came to us in Yemen as a tutor and a ruler, and we (the people of Yemen) asked him about (the distribution of the property) of a man who had died leaving a daughter and a sister. Mu’ádh gave the daughter half of the property and gave the sister the other half.

(7) CHAPTER. The inheritance of one’s grandchild if one has no child.

And Zaid said, “Grandchildren are to be considered as one’s (own) children (in the distribution of inheritance) in case none of one’s own children are alive: A grandson as a son, and granddaughter as a daughter, and they (grandsons and granddaughters) inherit (their grandparents’ property) as their own parents would (were they alive), and they prevent the sharing of the inheritance with all those relatives who would have been prevented from the same, were their parents alive. So one’s grandchild does not share the inheritance with one’s own son (if the son is alive).

(1) (H. 6733) Sa’d bin Abi Waqqás survived forty years after the death of the Prophet ﷺ, but Sa’d bin Khaula died in Makkah.

6735. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Give the Farâ’id (shares prescribed in the Qur’an) to those who are entitled to receive it; and whatever remains, should be given to the closest male relative of the deceased.”

(8) CHAPTER. The share of inheritance of one’s son’s daughter in the presence of own daughter.

6736. Narrated Huzail bin Shurahbil: Abû Müsa was asked regarding (the inheritance of) a daughter, a son's daughter, and a sister. He said, “The daughter will take half and the sister will take the half. If you go to Ibn Mas’ûd, he will tell you the same.” Ibn Mas’ûd was asked and was told of Abû Müsa’s verdict. Ibn Mas’ûd then said, “If! give the same verdict, I would stray and would not be of the rightly-guided. The verdict I will give in his case, will be the same as the Prophet ﷺ did, i.e., one-half is for the daughter, and one-sixth for the son’s daughter, i.e both shares make two-thirds of the total property; and the rest is for the sister.” Afterwards we came to Abû Müsa and informed him of Ibn Mas’ûd’s verdict, whereupon he said, “So, do not ask me for verdicts, as long as this learned man is among you.”
(9) CHAPTER. The shares of inheritance for the (living) paternal grandfather, the father and brothers of the deceased.

Abu Bakr, Ibn ‘Abbas and Ibn Az-Zubair said, “A grandfather is to be treated as a father (in the distribution of inheritance),” and Ibn ‘Abbas recited the Holy Verse:

“O children of Adam...” (V.7:26) (And in fact, by that Allah meant sons and grandsons and great-grandsons).

He also recited the Verse:

“And I have followed the religion of my fathers — Ibrāhim (Abraham), Ishāque (Isaac) and Yaqūb (Jacob)...” (V.12:38)

And it is not reported that anybody disagreed with Abu Bakr in his lifetime, although at that time there was a great number of the Companions of the Prophet. And Ibn ‘Abbas said, “My son’s son inherits my property though my own brothers don’t, and I do not inherit the property of my son’s son.” And there are different views given by ‘Umar, ‘Ali, Ibn Mas‘ūd and Zaid (as regards inheritance).

6737. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “Give the Fara‘id (the shares prescribed in the Qur’ān) to those who are entitled to receive it, and then whatever remains, should be given to the closest male relative of the deceased.”

6738. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The person about whom Allah’s Messenger said, “If I were to take a Khalil from this nation (my followers), then I would have taken him (i.e., Abu Bakr), but the Islamic Brotherhood is better (or said, ‘good’),” and regarded a grandfather as the father himself (in distribution of inheritance).

(10) CHAPTER. The inheritance of the husband along with the offspring and other relatives (of the deceased).

6739. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: (During the early days of Islam), the inheritance used to be given to one’s offspring and legacy used to bequeathed to the parents, then Allah cancelled what He wished from that order and decreed that the male should be given the equivalent of the portion of two females, and for the parents one-sixth for each of them, and for one’s wife one-eighth (if the deceased has children) and one-fourth (if he has no children), for one’s husband half (if the deceased has no children) and one-fourth (if she has children).”

(11) CHAPTER. The inheritance of a woman and a husband along with the offspring and other relatives.

6740. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger gave the judgement that a male or female slave should be given in Qisas (for an abortion case of a woman from the tribe of Bani Liyan (as blood money for the foetus), but the lady on whom the penalty had been imposed died; so the Prophet ordered that her property be inherited by her offspring and her husband and that the penalty be paid by her ‘Asaba’. (1)
(12) CHAPTER. The sisters (of the deceased) share the inheritance with the daughters (of the deceased), the sisters being treated as the ‘Aṣaba.’

6741. Narrated Al-Aswad: Mu‘ādh bin Jabal gave this verdict for us in the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. Half of the inheritance is to be given to the daughter and the other half to the sister. Sulaimān said: Mu‘ādh gave a verdict for us, but he did not mention that it was so in the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.

6742. Narrated Huzail: ‘Abdullāh said, “The judgement I will give in this matter will be like the judgement of the Prophet ﷺ, i.e., half is for the daughter and the rest of the inheritance for the sister.”

(13) CHAPTER. The inheritance of the sisters and brothers.

6743. Narrated Jābir: While I was sick, the Prophet ﷺ entered upon me and asked for some water to perform ablution, and after he had finished his ablution, he sprinkled some water of his ablution over me, whereupon I became conscious and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have sisters.” Then the Divine Verses regarding the Laws of Inheritance were revealed.

(14) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allah)

“They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: ‘Allah directs (thus) about Al-Kalālah (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs). If it is a man that dies, leaving a sister, but no child, she shall have half the inheritance. If (such a deceased was) a woman, who left no child, her brother takes her inheritance. If there are two sisters, they shall have two-thirds of the inheritance; if there are brothers and sisters, then the male will have twice the share of the female.’ (Thus) does Allah makes clear to you (His Law), lest you go astray. And Allah is the All-Knower of everything” (V.4:176)

(15) CHAPTER. Regarding the heirs of a lady who dies, leaving two cousins, one of whom is her maternal brother and the other, her husband.”

(1) (Ch. 15) The relation between the lady and the two cousins resulted from the following situation: A man married a woman and she gave birth to a son, and then he married another woman who also gave birth to a son. Then he divorced the second wife, who= ‘Ali said, “Her husband takes half of her left property, and the maternal brother one-sixth, and the rest of the property is divided equally between them.”

6745. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “I am more closer to the believers than their own selves, so whoever (among them) dies leaving some inheritance, his inheritance will be given to his ‘Asaba; and whoever dies leaving a debt, or dependants, or destitute children, then I am their supporter.”

6746. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “Give the Farā‘id (the shares of the inheritance that are prescribed in the Qur‘ān) to those who are entitled to receive it; and whatever is left should be given to the closest male relative of the deceased.”

(16) CHAPTER. (Can) kindred by blood (i.e., Dhawil-Arham) (be the heir of the deceased).

6747. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Holy Verse:

“And to everyone, We have appointed heirs…” (V.4:33)

And also:

“...To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood), give them their due portion by (Wasiya — wills)…” (V.4:33)

Consequently married her first husband’s brother and gave birth to a girl. This girl married the first son of her father’s brother who was her cousin. Then she died, leaving the two cousins as her only heirs. One of those cousins was her husband, and the other was her maternal brother.

When the emigrants came to Al-Madīna, the Ansār used to be the heir of the emigrants (and vice versa) instead of their own kindred by blood (Dhawil-Arham), and that was because of the bond of brotherhood which the Prophet ﷺ had established between them, i.e., the Ansār and the emigrants. But when the Divine Verse:

“And to everyone, We have appointed heirs…” (V.4:33) was revealed, it cancelled the other order i.e.:

“...To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood), give them their due portion (by Wasiya — wills)…” (V.4:33)

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2292]

(17) CHAPTER. The inheritance in the case of Mulâ‘ana.(1)

6748. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A man and his wife had a case of Li‘ān (or Mulâ‘ana) during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and the man denied the paternity of her child. The Prophet ﷺ gave his verdict for their separation (divorce) and then the child was regarded as belonging to the wife only.(2)

(18) CHAPTER. The child is for the owner of the bed, whether its mother was a free lady or a slave-girl.

(1) (Ch. 17) Mulâ‘ana or Li‘ān means the taking of oaths by a wife and her husband, the wife denying the charge of adultery which the husband confirms by his own oath. (See Qur’ān 24:7-10).

This chapter deals with the inheritance of the child who is born after such a situation, i.e., whose heir he would be, and who would be his heir.

(2) (H. 6748) Such a mother would inherit the share prescribed for her in the Qur’ān from her child’s inheritance and he would be her heir if she died before him.
6749. Narrated Aishah: 'Utba (bin Abi Waqqas) said to his brother Sa'd, "The son of the slave-girl of Zam'a is my son, so be his guardian." So when it was the year of the conquest of Makkah, Sa'd took that child and said, "He is my nephew, and my brother told me to be his guardian." On that, 'Abd bin Zam'a got up and said, "But the child is my brother, and the son of my father's slave-girl as he was born on his bed." So they both went to the Prophet. Sa'd said, "O Allah's Messenger! (This is) the son of my brother, and he told me to be his custodian." Then 'Abd bin Zam'a said, "(But he is) my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father, born on his bed." The Prophet said, "This child is for you, O 'Abd bin Zam'a, as the child is for the owner of the bed, and the adulterer receives the stones." He then ordered (his wife) Sauda bint Zam'a to veil herself from that boy as he noticed the boy's resemblance to 'Utba. Since then the boy never saw Sauda till he died.

6750. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "The boy is for the owner of the bed."

(19) CHAPTER. Al-Walâ' is for the manumitter.
(Regarding) the inheritance of Al-Laqqī (a small child or an insane person, who has nobody to be responsible for him).

And 'Umar said, "Al-Laqqī is a free person and not a slave."
6751. Narrated 'Aishah: I bought Barira (a female slave). The Prophet said (to me), “Buy her as Al-Walâ’ is for the manumitter. Once, she was given a sheep (in charity). The Prophet said, “It (the sheep) is Sadaqa (a thing given in charity) for her (Barira) and a gift for us.”

Al-Hakam said, “Barira’s husband was a free man.” Ibn ‘Abbas said, “When I saw him, he was a slave.”

6752. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The Walâ’ is for the manumitter (of the slave).”

(20) CHAPTER. The heir of the Sâ‘iba (a slave whose master frees him and tells him that nobody will be entitled to get his Walâ’).

6753. Narrated 'Abdullah: The Muslims did not free slaves as Sâ‘iba, but the people of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance used to do so.

6754. Narrated Al-Aswad: 'Aishah bought Barira in order to manumit her, but her masters stipulated that her Walâ’ (after her death) would be for them. 'Aishah said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have bought Barira in order to manumit her, but her masters stipulated that her Walâ’ will be for them.” The Prophet said, “Manumit her, as the Walâ’ is for the one who manumits (the... slave),” or said, “The one who pays her price.” Then ‘Aishah bought and manumitted her. After that, Barira was given the choice (by the Prophet ) (to stay with her husband or leave him). She said, “If he gave me so much, and so much (money), I would not stay with him.” (Al-Aswad added: Her husband was a free man). The subnarrator added: The series of the narrators of Al-Aswad’s statement is not authentic. The statement of Ibn ‘Abbas, i.e., ‘When I saw him he was a slave,’ is more authentic.

(21) CHAPTER. The sin of the freed slave who denies his master who has freed him.

6755. Narrated ‘Ali: “We have no Book to recite except the Book of Allah (the Qur’an) and this paper.” Then ‘Ali took out the paper, and behold! There was written in it, legal verdicts about the retaliation for wounds, the ages of the camels (to be paid as Zakāt or as blood money). In it was also written:

“Al-Madīna is a sanctuary from ‘Air (mountain) to Thaur (mountain). So whoever innovates in it an heresy (something new in religion), or commits a crime in it or gives shelter to such an innovator will incur the Curse of Allah, the angels and all the people, and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds will be accepted on the Day of Resurrection. And whoever (a freed slave) takes as his master some people other than his real masters, without the permission of his real masters, will incur the Curse of Allah, the angels and all the people, and none of his compulsory, or optional good deeds will be accepted on the Day of Resurrection. And the asylum granted by any Muslim is to be secured by all the Muslims, even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them; and whoever betrays a Muslim in this respect will incur the Curse of Allāh, the angels, and all the people, and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds will be accepted on the Day of Resurrection."

6756.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that: The Prophet forbid the selling of the Wala’ (of slaves) or giving it as a present.

(22) CHAPTER. If someone is converted to Islam through somebody else.

Al-Hasan (Al-Baṣṣīrī) did not think that the latter had the right to be the heir of the converted person.

The Prophet said, “The Wala’ is for the one who manumits (the slave).” And Tamīm Ad-Dārī is said to have narrated that the Prophet said, “The one who converts somebody to Islam is the closest of the people to the converted person, whether during his life or after his death.” The scholars differ as to the genuineness of this narration.

6757. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that ‘Aishah (Mother of the believers), intended to buy a slave-girl in order to manumit her. The slave-girl’s masters said, “We are ready to sell her to you on condition that her Wala’ should be for us.” ‘Aishah mentioned that to Allāh’s Messenger who said, “This (condition) should not prevent you from buying her, for the Wala’ is for the one who manumits (the slave).”

6758. Narrated Al-Aswad: ‘Aishah (Mother of the believers) said, “I bought Barira and her masters...”
stipulated that the Walā’ would be for them.” ‘Aishah mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, “Manumit her, as the Walā’ is for the one who gives the silver (i.e., pays the price for freeing the slave).” ‘Aishah added, “So I manumitted her”. After that, the Prophet ﷺ called her (Barira) and gave her the choice to go back to her husband or to leave him. She said, “If he gave me so much, and so much (money) I would not stay with him.” So she selected her own self (i.e., refused to go back to her husband).”

(23) CHAPTER. What a women can inherit of the Walā’.

6759. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: When ‘Aishah intended to buy Barira, she said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Barira’s masters stipulated that they will have the Walā’.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to ‘Aishah), “Buy her, as the Walā’ is for the one who manumits.”

6760. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Walā’ is for the one who gives the silver (i.e., pays the price) and does the favour (of manumission after paying the price).”

(24) CHAPTER. The freed slave belongs to the people who have freed him. And the son of the sister of some people is one of them (belongs to those people).
6761. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, "The freed slave belongs to the people who have freed him," or said something similar.

6762. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, "The son of the sister of some people is from them or from their own selves."

(25) CHAPTER. The inheritance of a captive (in the hands of the enemy).

Shuraib used to give inheritance to the captive who was in the hands of the enemy, and used to say, "He is in more need of it than anybody else."

And 'Umar bin 'Abdul-Aziz said, "Execute the will of the captive, and fulfil his order to manumit slaves and allow him to dispose of his property, and he can do with it as he wishes."

6763. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "If somebody dies (among the Muslims) leaving some property, the property will go to his heirs, and if he leaves a debt or dependants, we will take care of them."

(26) CHAPTER. Neither a Muslim can be the heir of a disbeliever, nor a disbeliever can be the heir of a Muslim. And if somebody becomes a Muslim before the property of his dead (disbeliever) relative is divided among the heirs, he will have no share.

6764. Narrated Usama bin Zaid: The Prophet said, "A Muslim cannot be the heir of a disbeliever, nor can a disbeliever be the heir of a Muslim.”

(27) CHAPTER. The Inheritance of a Christian slave and a Mukātab Christian slave.

And the sin of the person who denies being the father of his children.

(28) CHAPTER. Whoever claims that somebody is his brother or his nephew.

6765. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Sa’d bin Abi Waqqās and ‘Abd bin Zam’a had a dispute over a boy. Sa’d said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This (boy) is the son of my brother, ‘Utba bin Abi Waqqās, who told me to be his custodian as he was his son. Please notice to whom he bears affinity.” And ‘Abd bin Zam’a said, “This is my brother, O Allah’s Messenger! He was born on my father’s bed by his slave-girl.” Then the Prophet ﷺ looked at the boy and noticed evident resemblance between him and ‘Utba, so he said, “He (the boy) is for you, O ‘Abd bin Zam’a, for the boy is for the owner of the bed, and the stone is for the adulterer. Screen yourself before the boy, O Sauda bint Zam’a.” ‘Aishah added: Since then he never saw Sauda.

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever claims to be the son of a person other than his father.
6766. Narrated Sa’d: I heard the Prophet saying, “Whoever claims to be the son of a person other than his father, and he knows that, that person is not his father, then Paradise (will be) forbidden for him.”

6767. (Sa’d added:) I mentioned that to Abū Bakra, and he said, “My ears heard that, and my heart memorized it from Allâh’s Messenger.”

6768. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Do not deny your fathers (i.e., claim to be the sons of persons other than your fathers), and whoever denies his father, is charged with disbelief.”

(30) CHAPTER. If a lady claims to be the mother of a son.

6769. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “There were two women and with them were their two sons. A wolf came and took away the son of one of them. That lady said to her companion, ‘The wolf has taken your son.’ The other said, ‘But it has taken your son.’ So both of them sought the judgement of (the Prophet) Dāwūd (David) who judged that the boy should be given to the older lady. Then both of them went to (the Prophet) Sulaimān (Solomon), son of Dāwūd and informed him of the case. Sulaimān said, ‘Give me a knife so that I may cut the child into two portions and give half to each of them.”
you.' The younger lady said, 'Do not do so; may Allāh bless you! He is her child.' On that, (Prophet) Sulaimān gave the child to the younger lady." Abū Hurairah added: By Allāh! I had never heard the word ‘Sikkin’ as meaning knife, except on that day, for we used to call it ‘Mudya.’

(31) CHAPTER. The Qā‘if (one who is expert in noticing resemblance between persons belonging to the same lineage).

6770. Narrated ‘Aishah: ‘Allāh’s Messenger entered upon me in a very happy mood, with his features glittering with joy, and said, ‘O ‘Aishah! Don’t you see that Mujazziz (a Qā‘if) looked just now at Zaid bin Hāritha and Usāma bin Zaid and said, ‘These feet (or Usāma and his father) belong to each other.’ ”

[See Vol. 4, Ḥadīth No. 3555]

6771. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once Allāh’s Messenger entered upon me and he was in a very happy mood and said, “O ‘Aishah: Don’t you know that Mujazziz Al-Mudliji entered and saw Usāma and Zaid with a velvet covering on them and their heads were covered while their feet were uncovered. He said: These feet belong to each other.”

(1) (H. 6770) The Qā‘if learned through examining their feet, that they were father and son.
86 – THE BOOK OF AL-ḤUDŪD

CHAPTER. What Ḥudūd one should beware of.

(1) CHAPTER. (The crimes of) illegal sexual intercourse and the drinking of alcoholic drinks.

And Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The light of Faith is taken away from the one who commits illegal sexual intercourse.”

6772. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “When an adulterer commits illegal sexual intercourse, then he is not a believer at the time he is doing it; and when somebody drinks an alcoholic drink, then he is not a believer at the time of drinking; and when a thief steals, he is not a believer at the time when he is stealing; and when a robber robs and the people look at him, then he is not a believer at the time of doing it.” Abū Hurairah, in another narration, narrated the same from the Prophet with the exclusion of robbery.

(2) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the beating (lashing) of a drunk.

6773. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet beat a drunk with palm-leaf stalks and shoes. And Abū Bakr gave

(1) (Book 86) ‘Al-Ḥudūd’ is the plural of Hadd. Al-Ḥudūd are the limits which Allāh has set, and if somebody violates them, he is to be punished according to certain penalties prescribed by Allāh. These penalties are also called Hudūd.

(3) CHAPTER. Whoever ordered that the legal punishment was to be carried out at home.

6774. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Hârith: An-Nu'mân or the son of An-Nu'mân was brought to the Prophet on a charge of drinking intoxicating drinks. So the Prophet ordered all the men present in the house, to beat him. So all of them beat him, and I was also one of them who beat him with shoes.

(4) CHAPTER. Beating with stalks of date-palm leaves and shoes.

6775. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Hârith: An-Nu'mân or the son of An-Nu'mân was brought to the Prophet in a state of intoxication. The Prophet felt it hard (was angry) and ordered all those who were present in the house, to beat him. And they beat him with stalks of date-palm leaves and shoes, and I was among those who beat him.

6776. Narrated Anas: The Prophet lashed a drunk with stalks of date-palm leaves and shoes. And Abu Bakr gave a drunk forty lashes.

6777. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man who drank wine was brought to the Prophet. The Prophet said, “Beat him!” Abū Hurairah added, “So some of us beat him with our hands, and some with their shoes, and some with their garments (by twisting it) like a lash, and then when we finished, someone said to him, ‘May Allāh disgrace you!’ On that the Prophet said, ‘Do not say so, for you are helping Satan to overpower him.’”

6778. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭālib: I would not feel sorry for one who dies because of receiving a legal punishment, except the drunk, for if he should die (when being punished), I would give blood money to his family because no fixed punishment has been ordered by Allāh’s Messenger for the drunk.

6779. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd: We used to strike the drunks with our hands, shoes, clothes (by twisting it into the shape of lashes) during the lifetime of the Prophet, Abū Bakr and the early part of ‘Umar’s caliphate. But during the last period of ‘Umar’s caliphate, he used to give the drunk forty lashes; and when drunks became mischievous and disobedient, he used to scourge them eighty lashes.

(5) CHAPTER. Cursing is disliked against the drunkard and the fact that he is not regarded as a non-Muslim.

6780. Narrated 'Umar bin Al-Khattab: During the lifetime of the Prophet there was a man called 'Abdullah whose nickname was Donkey, and he used to make Allah's Messenger laugh. The Prophet lashed him because of drinking (alcohol). And one day he was brought to the Prophet on the same charge and was lashed. On that, a man among the people said, "O Allah, curse him! How frequently he has been brought (to the Prophet on such a charge)!" The Prophet said, "Do not curse him; for by Allah, I know he loves Allah and His Messenger."

6781. Narrated Abü Hurairah: A drunk was brought to the Prophet and he ordered him to be beaten (lashed). Some of us beat him with our hands, and some with their shoes, and some with their garments (twisted in the form of a lash). When that drunk had left, a man said, "What is wrong with him? May Allah disgrace him!" Allah's Messenger said, "Do not help Satan against your (Muslim) brother."
(6) CHAPTER. The thief while stealing.

6782. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet said, "When (a person) an adulterer commits illegal sexual intercourse, then he is not a believer at the time he is doing it; and when somebody steals, then he is not a believer at the time he is stealing."

(7) CHAPTER. (It is permissible) to curse thieves (generally) without mentioning names.

6783. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Allah curses a man who steals an egg and gets his hand cut off, or steals a rope and gets his hand cut off."

Al-A'mash said, "People used to interpret the Baida (egg) as an iron helmet, and they used to think that the rope may cost a few Dirham."

(8) CHAPTER. Al-Hudūd (legal punishment) are expiation (for the sin one has been punished for).

6784. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin As-Samit: We were with the Prophet in a gathering and he said, "Give me the Bai‘a (pledge) that you will not worship anything besides Allâh, will not steal, and will not commit illegal sexual intercourse." And then the Prophet recited the whole Verse (V.60:12). The Prophet added, "And whoever among you fulfils his pledge, his reward is with Allâh; and whoever commits something of such sins and Allâh screens him, it is up to Allâh whether to excuse or punish him.”

(9) CHAPTER. A believer is safe except if he transgresses Allâh's legal limits or takes others' rights.

6785. Narrated 'Abdullãh: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said in Hajjat-ul-Wada:

"Which month (of the year) do you think is most sacred?" The people said, "This (current) month of ours (the month of Dhul-Hijja)." He said, "Which town (country) do you think is the most sacred?" They said, "This city of ours (Makkah)." He said, "Which day do you think is the most sacred?" The people said, "This day of ours." He then said, "Allâh, the Blessed, the Supreme has made your blood, your property and your honour as sacred as this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours (and such protection cannot be slighted) except rightfully."(1) He then said thrice, "Have I conveyed Allâh’s Message (to you)?" The people answered him each time, saying, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “May Allâh be Merciful to you (or, woe on you)! Do not revert to disbelief after me by cutting the necks of each other.”

(1) (H. 6785) If somebody commits a crime, he is to be punished legally otherwise nobody and no authority can wrong him.
CHAPTER 10. To carry out the legal punishment; and to take revenge on those who transgress Allah’s limits and boundaries.

6786. Narrated 'Aishah: Whenever the Prophet was given an option between two things, he used to select the easier of the two, as long as it was not sinful; but if it was sinful, he would remain far from it. By Allah, he never took revenge for himself concerning any matter that was presented to him, but when Allah’s limits were transgressed, he would take revenge for Allah’s sake.

CHAPTER 11. To inflict the legal punishment on the noble and the weak people (impartially).

6787. Narrated 'Aishah: Usama approached the Prophet on behalf of a woman (who had committed theft). The Prophet said, “The people before you (past nations) were destroyed because they used to inflict the legal punishments on the poor and forgive the rich. By Him in Whose Hand my soul is! If Fatiema (the daughter of the Prophet) did that (i.e., stole), I would cut off her hand.”

CHAPTER 12. Intercession is not recommended in the matter of legal punishment after the case has been filed with the authorities.
86— THE BOOK OF AL-HUDÚD

6788. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Quraish people became very worried about the Makhzumiyah lady who had committed theft. They said, “Nobody can speak (in favour of the lady) to Allah’s Messenger, and nobody dares do that except Usâma who is the favourite of Allah’s Messenger.” When Usâma spoke to Allah’s Messenger about that matter, Allah’s Messenger said, “Do you intercede (with me) to violate one of the legal punishment of Allah?” Then he got up and addressed the people, saying, “O people! The nations before you went astray because if a noble person committed theft, they used to leave him, but if a weak person among them committed theft, they used to inflict the legal punishment on him. By Allah, if Fâtima, the daughter of Muhammad committed theft, Muhammad will cut off her hand!”

(13) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"Cut off (from the wrist joint) the (right) hand of the thief, male or female...." (V.5:38)

And what is the minimum theft because of which the thief’s right hand will be cut off (from the wrist joint).

And ‘Ali cut off the hand at the wrist. And Qatâda said concerning a woman who had committed theft and whose left hand had consequently been cut off: “Cut off nothing else.”(1)

6789. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet said, “The hand should be cut off for stealing something that is worth a quarter of a Dinár or more.”

(1) (Ch. 13) The right hand is actually to be cut off. But if the left hand was cut off by mistake, Qatâda thinks that the right hand should then not be cut off.
6790. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The hand of a thief should be cut off for stealing a quarter of a Dinár.”

6791. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The hand should be cut off for stealing a quarter of a Dinár.”

6792. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The hand of a thief was not cut off during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ except for stealing something equal to a shield in value.\(^{(1)}\)

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 6792) A shield was worth one Dinár at that time.
6793. Narrated 'Aishah: A thief's hand was not cut off for stealing something cheaper than a Hajafa or a Turs (two kinds of shields), each of which was worth a (respectable) price.

6794. Narrated 'Aishah: A thief's hand was not cut off for stealing something worth less than the price of a shield, whether a Turs or Hajafa (two kinds of shields), each of which was worth a (respectable) price.

6795. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirham.

6796. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirham.
6797. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه) : The Prophet ﷺ cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirham.

6798. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirham.

6799. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah curses the thief who steals an egg (or a helmet) for which his hand is to be cut off, or steals a rope, for which his hand is to be cut off.”

(14) CHAPTER. The repentance of a thief.

6800. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ cut off the hand of a lady, and that lady used to come to me, and I used to convey her message to the Prophet ﷺ, and she repented, and her repentance was sincere.

6797. حنع ابن عمر قال: قطع النبي ﷺ في مجنون تنمه ثلاثة دراهم. [راجع: 7795]

6800. حنع إسماعيل بن عبد الله قال: حنع النبي ﷺ يد سهيب، عن يوئس، عن ابن شهاب، عن عروة غنية: أن النبي ﷺ قطع يده.
6801. Narrated 'Ubâda bin As-Sâmit: I gave the Bai'a (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ with a group of people, and he said, "I take your pledge that you will not ascribe partners to Allâh, will not steal, will not commit infanticide, will not slander others by forging false statements and spreading it, and will not disobey me in ordering you Ma'ruf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam ordains). And whoever among you fulfils all these (obligations of the pledge), his reward is with Allâh. And whoever commits any of the above crimes and received his legal punishment in this world, that will be his expiation and purification. But if Allâh screens his sin, it will be up to Allâh, Who will either punish or forgive him according to His Wish."

Abû 'Abdullah said, "If a thief repents after his hand has been cut off, then his witness will be accepted. Similarly, if any person upon whom any legal punishment has been inflicted repents, his witness will be accepted."

(15) CHAPTER. The Chapter of (the punishment for) those who wage war (against Allâh and His Messenger) from the people who are disbelievers and from those who have turned renegades (converted from Islâm).

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

"The recompense of those who wage war against Allâh and His Messenger, and do mischief in the land is only that they shall be killed or crucified, or their hands and their feet be cut off on the opposite sides, or be exiled from the land…” (V.5:33)

6802. Narrated Anas Ṭh: Some people from the tribe of ‘Ukā came to the Prophet Ṭh and embraced Islam. The climate of Al-Madīna did not suit them, so the Prophet Ṭh ordered them to go to the (herd of milch) camels of charity and to drink their milk and urine (as a medicine). They did so, and after they had recovered from their ailment (became healthy) they turned renegades (reverted from Islam) and killed the shepherd of the camels and took the camels away. The Prophet Ṭh sent (some people) in their pursuit and so they were (caught and) brought, and the Prophet Ṭh ordered that their hands and legs should be cut off and their eyes should be branded with heated pieces of iron, and that their cut hands and legs should not be cauterized, till they died.

(16) CHAPTER. The Prophet Ṭh did not cauterize (the amputated limbs of) those who fought (against Allāh and His Messenger) and of those who were renegades (reverted from Islam) (therefore they bled) till they died.

6803. Narrated Anas Ṭh: The Prophet Ṭh cut off the hands and feet of the men belonging to the tribe of ‘Uraina and did not cauterize (their bleeding limbs) till they died.

(17) CHAPTER. No water was given to drink to those who turned renegades and fought (against Allāh and His Messenger), till they died.
6804. Narrated Anas: A group of people from 'Ukl (tribe) came to the Prophet and they were living with the people of As-Suffa, but they became ill as the climate of Al-Madina did not suit them, so they said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Provide us with milk.” The Prophet said, “I see no other way for you than to use the camels of Allâh’s Messenger.” So they went and drank the milk and urine of the camels (as medicine), and became healthy and fat. Then they killed the shepherd and took the camels away. When a help-seeker came to Allâh’s Messenger, he sent some men in their pursuit, and they were captured and brought before mid-day. The Prophet ordered for some iron pieces to be made red hot, and their eyes were branded with them and their hands and feet were cut off and were not cauterized. Then they were put at a place called Al-Harra, and when they asked for water to drink they were not given till they died.

Abû Qilâba said, “Those people committed theft and murder and fought against Allâh and His Messenger.”

(18) CHAPTER. The Prophet branded the eyes of those who fought (against Allâh and His Messenger).

6805. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: A group of people from 'Ukl (or 'Uraina) tribe — but I think he said that they were from 'Ukl — came to Al-Madîna and (they became ill, so) the Prophet ordered them to go to the herd of (milch) she-camels and told them to go out and drink the camels’ urine and milk (as a medicine). So they went and drank it, and when they became healthy, they killed the shepherd and drove away the camels. This news reached the Prophet.
early in the morning, so he sent (some) men in their pursuit and they were captured and brought to the Prophet before mid-day. He ordered to cut off their hands and legs and their eyes to be branded with heated iron pieces, and they were thrown at Al-Harra, and when they asked for water to drink, they were not given water.

Abū Qilāba said, “Those were the people who committed theft and murder and reverted to disbelief after being believers (Muslims), and fought against Allāh and His Messenger.”

(19) CHAPTER. The superiority of the person who leaves Al-Fawahish (all kinds of illegal sexual acts and evil deeds).

6806. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Seven (people) will be shaded by Allāh under His Shade on the Day of Resurrection when there will be no shade except His. (They will be:) (1) a just ruler, (2) a youth who has been brought up in the worship of Allāh (i.e., worships Allāh Alone, sincerely from his childhood), (3) a man who remembers Allāh in seclusion and his eyes are then flooded with tears, (4) a man whose heart is attached to mosques [offers his compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers) in the mosques], (5) two men who love each other for Allāh’s sake, (6) a man who refused the call of a charming lady of noble birth for illegal sexual intercourse with her, and he says, ‘I fear Allāh,’ and (finally), (7) a man who practises charity so (secretly) that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given (i.e., nobody knows how much he has given in charity).”

[See Hadith No. 660, 1423]
6807. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever guarantees me (the chastity of) what is between his legs (i.e., his private parts), and what is between his jaws (i.e., his mouth, his tongue) I guarantee him Paradise.” (See the footnote of H. 6474)

(20) CHAPTER. The sin of illegal sexual intercourse. And the Statement of Allāh عزّ وجل: “...Nor commit illegal sexual intercourse…” (V.25:68).

“And come not near to unlawful sexual intercourse. Verily, it is a Fahishah [i.e., anything that transgresses its limits (a great sin)], and an evil way (that leads one to Hell unless Allāh forgives him).” (V.17:32).

6808. Anas said: I will narrate to you a narration which nobody will narrate to you after me. I heard that from the Prophet ﷺ. I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “The Hour will not be established,” or said, “From among the portents of the Hour (are the following):

1. Religious knowledge will be taken away (by the death of religious scholars).
2. (Religious) ignorance will prevail.
3. Drinking of alcoholic drinks (will be very common).
4. There will be prevelence of open illegal sexual intercourse.
5. And men will decrease in number while women will increase so much so that, for fifty women there will be only one man to look after them.” (See H. 81, 1036) sexual intercourse then he is not a believer at the time of committing it; and when he steals then he is not a believer at the time of stealing; and when he drinks an alcoholic drink, then he is not a believer at the time of drinking it, and he is not a believer when he commits a murder.” ‘Ikrima said: I asked Ibn Abbãs, “How is Faith taken away from him?” He said, “Like this,” by clasping his hands and then separating them, and added, “But if he repents, Faith returns to him like this,” by clasping his hands again.

6810. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The one who commits an illegal sexual intercourse is not a believer at the time of committing illegal sexual intercourse; and a thief is not a believer at the time of committing theft; and a drinker of alcoholic drink is not a believer at the time of drinking. Yet, (the gate of) repentance is open thereafter.”

6811. Narrated ‘Abdullãh (bin Mas’ud): I said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! Which is the biggest sin?” He said, “To set up a rival unto Allah, though He Alone has created you.” I asked, “What is next (biggest sin)?” He said, “To kill your son lest he should share your food with you.” I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.” (See H. 6001)
CHAPTER 21. The Rajm (stoning to death) of a married person who commits illegal sexual intercourse.

And Al-Ḥasan said: If somebody commits illegal sexual intercourse with his sister, his punishment is the same as for any other persons who commits such a crime.

6812. Narrated Ash-Sha'bī: When ‘Ali stoned a lady to death on a Friday, he (All) said, “I have stoned her according to the Sunna (legal way) of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

6813. Narrated Ash-Shaibānī: I asked Abdullah bin Abi Aufā: “Did Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ carry out the Rajm penalty (i.e., stoning to death)?” He said, “Yes.” I said, “Before the revelation of Sūrat An-Nūr or after it?” He replied, “I don’t know.”
6814.Narrated Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh Al-Anṣārī: A man from the tribe of Bani Aslam came to Allāh’s Messenger and informed him that he had committed illegal sexual intercourse; and he bore witness four times against himself. Allāh’s Messenger ordered him to be stoned to death as he was a married person.

(22) CHAPTER. An insane male or female should not be stoned to death.

And ʿAlī said to ʿUmar, “Don’t you know that no deed, good or evil, are recorded by the pen (for the following) and are not responsible for what they do: (1)

1. An insane person till he becomes sane,
2. A child till he grows to the age of puberty,
3. A sleeping person till he wakes up.”

6815. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to Allāh’s Messenger while he was in the mosque, and he called him, saying, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet turned his face to the other side, but that man repeated his statement four times, and after he bore witness against himself four times, the Prophet called

(1) (Ch. 22): Quoted An-Nasa’i in the Book of Divorce Ch. 21. Narrated Aīshah: The Prophet said: The deeds of the following three persons are not recorded by the pen: (1) A sleeping person till he wakes up.
(2) A child till he reaches the age of puberty.
(3) An insane person till he becomes sane. [See the footnote of (V. 50:17) the Noble Qur’ān]

6816. (H. 6815 contd.) Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh said, “I was among the ones who participated in stoning him and we stoned him at the Musalla. When the stones troubled him, he fled, but we overtook him at Al-Ḥarra and stoned him to death.”

(23) CHAPTER. The stone is for a person who committed illegal sexual intercourse.

6817. Narrated ʿĀishah: Saʿd (bin Abī Waqqās) and (ʿAbd) bin Zam'a quarrelled with each other (regarding a child). The Prophet ﷺ said, “The boy is for you, OʿAbd bin Zam'a, for the boy is (for the owner) of the bed. O Sauda! Screen yourself from the boy.” The subnarrator, Al-Laith added (that the Prophet ﷺ also said), “And the stone (i.e., the punishment of stoning to death) is for the person who commits an illegal sexual intercourse.”

6818. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The boy is for (the owner of) the bed; and the stone (i.e., the punishment of stoning to death) is for the person who commits illegal sexual intercourse.”
(24) CHAPTER. The Rajm (stoning to death) at the Balāṭ (a tiled courtyard opposite the gate of the Prophet’s Mosque).

6819. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A Jew and a Jewess were brought to Allâh’s Messenger on a charge of committing an illegal sexual intercourse. The Prophet asked them, “What is the legal punishment (for this sin) in your Book (the Torah)?” They replied, “Our priests haveinnovated the punishment of blackening the faces with charcoal and Tajbiya.” (1) ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm said, “O Allâh’s Messenger, tell them to bring the Taurát (Torah).” The Taurát was brought, and then one of the Jews put his hand over the verse of the Rajm (stoning to death) and started reading what preceded and what followed it. On that, Ibn Salâm said to the Jew, “Lift up your hand.” Behold! The verse of the Rajm was under his hand. Allâh’s Messenger ordered that the two (sinners) be stoned to death, and so they were stoned. Ibn ‘Umar added: Both of them were stoned at the Balāṭ and I saw the Jew sheltering the Jewess.

(25) CHAPTER. The Rajm (stoning to death) at the Musallâ (the open place where ‘Eid prayers take place).

6820. Narrated Jâbir: A man from the tribe of Aslam came to the Prophet and confessed that he had committed an illegal sexual intercourse. The Prophet turned his face away from him till the man bore witness against himself, four times. The

(1) (H. 6819) Tajbiya means that the person (male and female) committing illegal sexual intercourse are mounted on a donkey with their faces in opposite directions, and then they are mortified in public.
Prophet said to him, “Are you mad?” He said “No.” He asked, “Are you married?” He said, “Yes.” Then the Prophet ordered that he be stoned to death, and he was stoned to death at the Musalla. When the stones troubled him, he fled, but he was caught and was stoned till he died. The Prophet spoke well of him and offered his funeral prayer.

(26) CHAPTER. If somebody commits a sin which is less than what deserves the legal punishment; and then he informs the ruler, no punishment is to be inflicted on him after his repentance to Allah if he comes to the ruler with the intention of asking for a verdict about his sin.

And ‘Aţā said, “The Prophet did not punish such a person.” Ibn Juraij said, “The Prophet did not punish a man who had sexual relations with his wife during Ramaḍān.”

And ‘Umar did not punish the person who hunted a deer while he was in the state of Ihram. A similar verdict is reported from the Prophet on the authority of Ibn Mas’ūd.

6821. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A person had sexual relation with his wife in the month of Ramaḍān (while he was observing fast), and he came to Allāh’s Messenger seeking his verdict concerning that action. The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Can you afford to manumit a slave?” The man said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Can you observe Saum (fast) for two successive months?” He said, “No.” The Prophet said, “Then feed sixty poor persons.”

6822.Narrated ‘Âishah: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ in the mosque and said, “I am burnt (ruined)! ” The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “With what (what have you done)?” He said, “I have had sexual relation with my wife in (the month of) Ramaḍān (while observing fast).” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Give in charity.” He said, “I have nothing.” The man sat down, and in the meantime there came a person driving a donkey carrying food to the Prophet ﷺ. (The subnarrator, ‘Abdur Raḥmān added: I do not know what kind of food it was). On that the Prophet ﷺ asked, “Where is the burnt person?” The man said, “Here I am.” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Take this (food) and give it in charity (to someone).” The man said, “To a poorer person than I? My family has nothing to eat.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Then eat it yourselves.”

(27) CHAPTER. If a person confesses that he has committed a sin that is punishable with one of the legal punishments but does not specify what sin it has been, can the ruler screen it for him?

6823. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
While I was with the Prophet ﷺ a man came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed a legally punishable sin; please inflict the legal punishment on me.” The Prophet ﷺ did not ask him what he had done. Then the time for As-Ṣalāt (the prayer) became due and the man offered Ṣalāt (prayer) along with the Prophet ﷺ, and when the Prophet ﷺ had finished his Ṣalāt (prayer) the man again got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed a legally punishable sin; please inflict the punishment on me according to Allah’s Laws.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Haven’t you offered Salāt (prayer) with us?” He said, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah has forgiven your sin.” Or said, “...your legally punishable sin.”

(28) CHAPTER. Can a ruler say to the one who confesses his crime of adultery, “Can’t be that you have only touched the lady or winked at her?”

6824. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: When Ma‘īz bīn Mālik came to the Prophet ﷺ (in order to confess), the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Probably you have only kissed (the lady), or winked, or looked at her?” He said, “No, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, using no euphemism, “Did you had sexual intercourse with her?” The narrator added: At that, (i.e., after his confession) the Prophet ﷺ ordered that he be stoned (to death).
(29) CHAPTER. The question of the ruler to the confessing person, “Are you married?”

6825. Narrated Abû Hurairah

A man from among the people came to Allah’s Messenger while Allah’s Messenger was sitting in the mosque, and addressed him, saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet turned his face away from him. The man came to that side to which the Prophet had turned his face, and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet turned his face to the other side, and the man came to that side, and when he confessed his sin four times, the Prophet called him and said, “Are you mad?” He said, “No, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet asked, “Are you married?” He said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger.” The Prophet said (to the people), “Take him away and stone him to death.”

6826. [H. 6825 (contd.)] Ibn Shihâb added, ‘I was told by one who heard Jâbir, that Jâbir said, ‘I was among those who stoned the man, and we stoned him at the Musâllâ, and when the stones troubled him, he jumped quickly and ran away, but we overtook him at Al-Harra and stoned him to death (there).’ ”

(30) CHAPTER. To confess being guilty of an illegal sexual intercourse.

6827, 6828. Narrated Abû Hurairah and Zaid bin Khâlid: While we were with the Prophet ﷺ, a man stood up and said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “I beseech you by Allâh, that you should judge us according to Allâh’s Laws.” Then the man’s opponent, who was wiser than him, got up saying, (to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ), “Judge us according to Allâh’s Laws, and kindly allow me (to speak).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Speak”. He said, “My son was a labourer working for this man and he committed an illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and I gave one hundred sheep and a slave as a ransom for my son’s sin. Then I asked a learned man about this case and he informed me that my son should receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for one year, and the man’s wife should be stoned to death.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge you according to the Laws of Allâh. Your one hundred sheep and the slave are to be returned to you, and your son has to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for one year. O Unais! Go to the wife of this man, and if she confesses, then stone her to death.” Unais went to her and she confessed. He then stoned her to death.

6829. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: ‘Umar said, “I am afraid that after a long time has passed, people may say, ‘We do not find the Verses of the Rajm (stoning to death) in Allâh’s Book (the Qur’ân)’, and consequently they may go astray by leaving an obligation that Allāh has revealed. Lo! I confirm that the penalty of Rajm be inflicted on him who commits illegal sexual intercourse if he is already married and the crime is proved by witnesses, or pregnancy, or confessions.” Sufyān added, “I have memorized this narration in this way.” ‘Umar added, “Surely Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ. carried out the penalty of Rajm, and so did we after him.”

(31) CHAPTER. The Rajm (stoning to death) of a married lady who has become pregnant through illegal sexual intercourse.

6830. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ṣṣ. I used to teach (the Qur’ān to) some people of the Muhājirin (emigrants), among whom there was ‘Abdūr-Rahmān bin ‘Auf. While I was in his house at Mina, and he was with ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb during ‘Umar’s last Ḥaqq, ‘Abdūr-Rahmān came to me and said, “Would that you had seen the man who came today to the Chief of the believers (‘Umar), saying, ‘O Chief of the believers! What do you think about so-and-so who says: ‘If ‘Umar should die, I will give the Bai‘a (pledge) to such-and-such person, as by Allāh, the Bai‘a to Abū Bakr was nothing but a prompt sudden action which got established afterwards.’ ‘Umar became angry and then said, ‘If Allāh will, I will stand before the people tonight and warn them against those people who want to deprive others of their rights (the question of rulership).’” ‘Abdūr-Rahmān said, “I said, ‘O Chief of the believers! Do not do that, for the season of Ḥaqq gathers the riffraff and the rabble, and it will be they who will gather around you when you stand to address the people. And I am afraid that you will get up and say something, and some people will... spread your statement and may not say what you have actually said and may not understand its meaning, and may interpret it incorrectly, so you should wait till you reach Al-Madina as it is the place of emigration and the place of Prophet's Sunna; and there you can come in touch with the learned and noble people, and tell them your ideas with confidence, and the learned people will understand your statement and put it in its proper place.' On that, 'Umar said 'By Allah! If Allah will, I will do this in the first speech I will deliver before the people in Al-Madina.'” Ibn ‘Abbās added: We reached Al-Madina by the end of the month of Dhūl-Hijja, and when it was Friday, we went quickly (to the mosque) as soon as the sun had declined, and I saw Sa‘īd bin Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufail sitting at the corner of the pulpit, and I, too, sat close to him so that my knee was touching his knee, and after a short while, ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb came out, and when I saw him coming towards us, I said to Sa‘īd bin Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufail, “Today, ‘Umar will say such a thing as he has never said since he was chosen as caliph.” Sa‘īd denied my statement with astonishment and said, “What thing do you expect ‘Umar to say the like of which he has never said before?” In the meantime, ‘Umar sat down on the pulpit and when the Muadh-dhin had finished their call for Salāt (prayer), ‘Umar stood up, and having glorified and praised Allāh, as He deserved, he said, “Amma Ba‘dū (then after), I am going to tell you something which (Allāh) has written for me to say. I do not know; perhaps it portends my death, so whoever understands and remembers it, must narrate it to the others wherever his mount takes him, but if somebody is afraid that he does not understand it, then it is unlawful for him to tell lies about me. Allah sent Muhammad with the Truth and revealed the Book (the Qur’an) to him, and among what Allah revealed, was the Verse of the Rajm (the stoning to death) of married person (male and female) who commits illegal sexual intercourse, and we did recite this Verse and understood and memorized it. Allah’s Messenger did carry out the punishment of stoning and so did we after him. I am afraid that after a long time has passed, somebody will say, ‘By Allah, we do not find the Verse of the Rajm in Allah’s Book,’ and thus they will go astray by leaving an obligation which Allah has revealed. And the punishment of the Rajm is to be inflicted to any married person (male and female) who commits illegal sexual intercourse if the required evidence is available or there is conception or confession. And then we used to recite among the Verses in Allah’s Book: ‘O people! Do not claim to be the offspring of other than your fathers, as it is disbelief on your part that you claim to be the offspring of other than your real father.’ Then Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Do not praise me excessively as (Prophet) ‘Isa bin Maryam (Jesus, son of Mary) was praised, but call me Allah’s slave and His Messenger’. (O people!) I have been informed that a speaker amongst you says, ‘By Allah, if ‘Umar should die, I will give the Bai’a (pledge) to such and such person.’ One should not deceive oneself by saying that the Bai’a given to Abū Bakr was given suddenly and it was successful. No doubt, it was like that, but Allah saved (the people) from its evil, and there is none among you who has the qualities of Abū Bakr. Remember that whoever gives the Bai’a to anybody among you without consulting the other Muslims, neither that person, nor the... person to whom the Bai'a was given are to be supported, lest they both should be killed. And no doubt, after the death of the Prophet, we were informed that the Ansār disagreed with us and gathered in the shed of Bani Sā'īda. 'Ali and Az-Zubair, and whoever was with them, opposed us, while the emigrants gathered with Abū Bakr. I said to Abū Bakr, 'Let's go to these Ansārī brothers of ours.' So we set out seeking them, and when we approached them, two of their pious men met us and informed us of the final decision of the Ansār, and said, 'O group of Muhājarīn (emigrants)! Where are you going?' We replied, 'We are going to these Ansārī brothers of ours.' They said to us, 'You shouldn't go near them. Carry out whatever we have already decided.' I said, 'By Allāh, we will go to them.' And so we proceeded until we reached them at the shed of Bani Sā'īda. Behold! There was a man sitting amongst them, wrapped in something. I asked, 'Who is that man?' They said, 'He is Sa'd bin 'Ubāda.' I asked, 'What is wrong with him?' They said, 'He is sick.' After we sat for a while, the Ansār's speaker said, 'La ilāhī a'lam (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and praising Allāh as He deserved, he added, 'Amma bālibī anīn Allah, anīn Allah.' I intended to speak as I had prepared speech which I liked and which I wanted to deliver in the presence of Abū Bakr, and I used to avoid provoking him. So, when I wanted to speak, Abū Bakr said, 'Wait a while.' I disliked to make him angry. So Abū Bakr himself gave a speech, and he was wiser and more patient than I. By Allāh, he never missed a sentence that I liked in my own prepared speech, but he said the like of it or better than it spontaneously. After a pause he said, ‘O Ansār! You deserve all (the qualities) that you have attributed to yourselves, but this question (of caliphate) is only for the Quraish as they are the best of the Arabs as regards their descent and homeland, and I am pleased to suggest that you choose either of these two men, so give the Bai’ā to either of them as you wish. And then Abū Bakr held my hand and Abū ‘Ubāda bin Al-Jarrāḥ’s hand who was sitting amongst us. I hated nothing of what he had said except that proposal, for by Allāh, I would rather have my neck chopped off as expiation for a sin than become the ruler of a nation, one of whose member is Abū Bakr, unless at the time of my death my ownself suggests something I don’t feel at present.’ And then one of the Anṣār said, ‘I am the pillar on which the camel with a skin disease (eczema) rubs itself to satisfy the itching (i.e., I am a noble), and I am as a high class palm-tree! O Quraish, there should be one ruler from us and one from you.’ Then there was a hue and cry among the gathering and their voices rose so that I was afraid there might be great disagreement, so I said, ‘O Abū Bakr! Hold your hand out.’ He held his hand out and I gave the Bai’ā to him, and then all the emigrants gave the Bai’ā and so did the Anṣār afterwards. And so we became victorious over Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda (whom Al-Anṣār wanted to make a ruler). One of the Anṣār said, ‘You have killed Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda.’ I replied, ‘Allāh has killed Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda.’’” ‘Umar added, “By Allāh, apart from the great tragedy that had happened to us (i.e.,

(1) (H. 6830) i.e., you have prevented him from being caliph.
the death of the Prophet ﷺ, there was no greater problem than the Bā’ida given to Abū Bakr because we were afraid that if we left the people, they might give the Bā’ida after us to one of their men, in which case we would have given them our consent for something against our real wish, or would have opposed them and caused great trouble. So, if any person gives the Bā’ida to somebody (to become a caliph) without consulting the other Muslims, then the one he has selected should not be given the Bā’ida lest both of them should be killed.”

(32) CHAPTER. Unmarried males and females (committing illegal sexual intercourse) should be flogged and exiled.
(And the Statement of Allāh Ta’ālā):
“The woman and the man guilty of illegal sexual intercourse, flog each of them with a hundred stripes. Let not pity withhold you in their case, in a punishment prescribed by Allāh, if you believe in Allāh and the Last Day. And let a party of the believers witness their punishment. (This punishment is for unmarried persons guilty of the above crime, but if married persons commit it, the punishment is to stone them to death, according to Allāh’s Law). The adulterer marries not but an adulteress or a Mushrikah; and the adulteress, none marries her except an adulterer or a Mushrik [and that means that the man who agrees to marry (have a sexual relation with) a Mushrikah (female polytheist, pagan or idolatress) or a prostitute, then surely, he is either an adulterer or a Mushrik (polytheist, idolater or pagan). And the woman who agrees to have a sexual relation with a Mushrik or an adulterer, then she is either a prostitute or a Mushrikah]. Such a thing is forbidden to the believers (of İslamic Monotheism).” (V.24:2,3)

Ibn ‘Uyaina said, “You should not take pity in establishing the legal punishment.”

6831.Narrated Zaid bin Khalid Al-Juhani: I heard the Prophet ordering that an unmarried person guilty of illegal sexual intercourse, be flogged one hundred stripes and be exiled for one year.

6832. Narrated Urwa bin Zubair: ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab also exiled such a person, and this Sunna (legal punishment) is still valid.

6833. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger judged that the unmarried person who was guilty of illegal sexual intercourse be exiled for one year and receive the legal punishment (i.e., be flogged with one hundred stripes).
(33) CHAPTER. Exiling the sinners and effeminate men [those men who assume the similitude (manners) of women].

6834.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet cursed the effeminate men and those women who assume the similitude (manners) of men. He also said, “Turn them out of your houses.” He turned such and such person out, and ‘Umar also turned out such and such person.

(34) CHAPTER. Whoever ordered somebody other than the ruler to carry out the legal punishment in the absence of the ruler.

6835, 6836. Narrated Abû Hurairah and Zaid bin Khalid: A bedouin came to the Prophet while he (the Prophet) was sitting, and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Give your verdict according to Allah’s Laws (in our case).” Then his opponent got up and said, “He has told the truth, O Allah’s Messenger! Decide his case according to Allah’s Laws: My son was a labourer working for this person, and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and the people told me that my son should be stoned to death, but I offered one hundred sheep and a slave-girl as a ransom for him. Then I asked the religious learned men, and they told me that my son should be flogged with one hundred stripes and be exiled for one year.” The Prophet said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allah’s Laws: The sheep and the slave-girl will be returned to you and your son will be flogged one hundred stripes and be exiled for one year. And you, O Unais! Go to the wife of this man (and if she confesses), stone her to death.” So Unais went in the morning and stoned her to death.
(after she had confessed).

(35) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Almighty:

“And whoever of you have not the means wherewith to wed free believing women, they may wed believing girls from among those (capsitives and slaves) whom their right hands possess, and Allah has full knowledge about your Faith. You are one from another. Wed them with the permission of their own folk, (Auliya — guardians or masters) and give them their Mahr according to what is reasonable; they (the above said captive and slave-girls), should be chaste, not adulterous, nor taking boyfriends. And after they have been taken in wedlock, if they commit illegal sexual intercourse, their punishment is half that for free (unmarried) women. (1) This is for him among you who is afraid of being harmed in his religion or in his body; but it is better for you that you practise self-restraint, and Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.4:25)

CHAPTER. If a lady-slave commits illegal sexual intercourse (then what is her legal punishment?)

6837, 6838. Narrated Abü Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid: The verdict of Allah’s Messenger was sought about an unmarried slave-girl guilty of illegal sexual intercourse. He replied, “If she commits illegal sexual intercourse, then flog her (fifty stripes), and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse (after that for the second time), then flog her (fifty stripes), and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse (for the third time), then flog her (fifty stripes) and sell her for even a hair rope."

Ibn Shihāb said, "I am not sure whether the Prophet ordered that she be sold after the third or fourth time of committing illegal sexual intercourse."

(36) CHAPTER. If a lady-slave commits illegal sexual intercourse then she should neither be admonished nor exiled.

6839. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "If a lady-slave commits illegal sexual intercourse and she is proved guilty of illegal sexual intercourse, then she should be flogged (fifty stripes) but she should not be admonished; and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse again, then she should be flogged again but should not be admonished, and if she commits illegal sexual intercourse for the third time then she should be sold even for a hair rope."

(37) CHAPTER. The legal regulation for non-Muslims under the protection of a Muslim state. The fact that a non-Muslim is married, is to be taken into consideration when he commits illegal sexual intercourse and is brought to the Imam (Muslim ruler).

6840. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Abi Aufa: I asked 'Abdullāh bin Abī Aufā about the Rajm (stoning to death for committing illegal sexual intercourse). He replied, "The Prophet carried out the penalty of Rajm." I asked, "Was that before or after the revelation of Sūrat An-Nūr?" He replied, "I do not know."
The Jews came to Allah’s Messenger and mentioned to him that a man and a woman among them had committed illegal sexual intercourse. Allah’s Messenger said to them, “What do you find in the Taurāt (Torah) regarding the Rajm?” They replied, “We only disgrace and flog them with stripes.” ‘Abdullāh bin Salām said to them, “You have told a lie. The penalty of Rajm is in the Taurāt (Torah).” They brought the Torah and opened it. One of them put his hand over the verse of Rajm and read what was before and after it. ‘Abdullāh bin Salām said to him, “Lift up your hand.” When he lifted it there appeared the verse of Rajm. So they said, “O Muhammad! He has said the truth, the verse of Rajm is in it (the Taurāt-Torah).” Then Allah’s Messenger ordered that the two persons (guilty of illegal sexual intercourse) be stoned to death, and so they were stoned, and I saw the man bending over the woman so as to protect her from the stones.

(38) CHAPTER. If someone accuses his wife or another person’s wife of committing illegal sexual intercourse in the presence of the ruler and the people, should the ruler send for the lady and ask her about what she has been accused of?

6842, 6843. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khalid: Two men had a dispute in the presence of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. One of them said, “Judge us according to Allâh’s Laws.” The other who was more wise said, “Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger, judge between us according to Allâh’s Laws; and allow me to speak (first).” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Speak.” He said, “My son was a labourer working for this man, and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and the people told me that my son should be stoned to death, but I have given one hundred sheep and a slave-girl as a ransom (expiation) for my son’s sin. Then I asked the religious learned people (about it), and they told me that my son should be flogged one hundred stripes and should be exiled for one year, and only the wife of this man should be stoned to death.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allâh’s Laws. O man, as for your sheep and slave-girl, they are to be returned to you.” Then the Prophet ﷺ had the man’s son flogged one hundred stripes and exiled for one year, and ordered Unais Al-Aslami to go to the wife of the other man, and if she confessed, stone her to death. She confessed and was stoned to death.

(39) CHAPTER. Whoever teaches manners to (or inflicts punishment on) his family or others without taking the ruler’s permission.

Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If one is offering Salât (prayer) and someone tries to pass in front of him, one should push him back, and if he insists on passing, one should fight with him." And Abū Sa‘īd did the same.

6844. Narrated ‘Āishah: Abū Bakr came to me while Allāh’s Messenger was sleeping with his head on my thigh. Abū Bakr said (to me), “You have detained Allāh’s Messenger and the people, and there is no water in this place.” So he admonished me and struck my flanks with his hand, and nothing could stop me from moving except the reclining of Allāh’s Messenger (on my thigh), and then Allāh revealed the Divine Verse of Tayammum (V.5:6).

6845. Narrated ‘Āishah: Abū Bakr came towards me and struck me violently with his fist and said, “You have detained the people because of your necklace.” But I remained motionless as if I was dead lest I should make Allāh’s Messenger wake up although that hit was very painful.

(40) CHAPTER. Whoever saw his wife (committing illegal sexual intercourse) with another man and killed him.

6846. Narrated Al-Mughīrā: Sa‘d bin ‘Ubāda said, “If I found a man with my wife, I would kill him with the sharp side of my sword.” When the Prophet heard that he said, “Do you wonder at Sa‘d’s sense of

(1) (Ch. 39) ‘Fight’ here means pushing away with violence.
Ghaira?\(^{(1)}\) Verily, I have more sense of Ghaira than Sa’d, and Allāh has more sense of Ghaira than me.”

(41) CHAPTER. What is said regarding At-Ta’rid (i.e., a roundabout way of saying something).

6847. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A bedouin came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “My wife has delivered a black child.”\(^{(2)}\) The Prophet said to him, “Have you got camels?” He replied, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “What colour are they?” He replied, “They are red.” The Prophet further asked, “Are any of them grey in colour?” He replied, “Yes.” The Prophet asked him, “When did that greyness come?” He said, “I think it descended from the camel’s ancestors.” Then the Prophet said (to him), “Therefore, this child of yours has most probably inherited the colour from his ancestors.”

(42) CHAPTER. What punishment may be inflicted on the person so that he may not commit the same sin again, or so that he may learn good manners.

6848. Narrated Abū Burda: The Prophet used to say, “Nobody should be flogged more than ten stripes except if he is guilty of a crime the legal punishment of which is assigned by Allāh.”

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 6846) Ghaira: See the glossary.
\(^{(2)}\) (H. 6847) The bedouin was white and by talking about his child, he hinted that his wife must have been disloyal to him.
8649. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Jâbir on the authority of others, that the Prophet ﷺ said, “No punishment exceeds the flogging of the ten stripes except if one is guilty of a crime necessitating a legal punishment prescribed by Allâh.

8650. Narrated Ābu Burda Al-Ansâri: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Do not flog anyone more than ten stripes except if he is involved in a crime necessitating Allâh’s legal punishment.”

8651. Narrated Ābu Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade Al-Wiṣâl (observing fasting continuously for more than one day without taking any meals). A man from the Muslims said, “But you do Al-Wiṣâl, O Allâh’s Messenger!” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Who among you is similar to me? I sleep and my Lord (Allâh) makes me eat and drink.” When the people refused to give up Al-Wisal, the Prophet observed fasting along with them for one day, and did not break his fast but continued his fast for another day, and when they saw the crescent, the Prophet said, “If the crescent had not appeared, I would have made you continue your fast (for a third day),” as if he wanted to punish them for they had refused to give up Al-Wisal.

6852. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Umar: Those people who used to buy foodstuff at random (without weighing or measuring it) were beaten in the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger if they sold it at the very place where they had bought it, till they carried it to their dwelling places.

6853. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger never took revenge for his ownself in any matter presented to him till Allah’s limits were exceeded, in which case he would take revenge for Allah’s sake.

(43) CHAPTER. What is the legal verdict in the case of somebody who behaves in such a suspicious and dishonest way that he may be suspected of adultery; and the case of one who accuses others of evil deeds without any evident proof.

6854. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: I witnessed the case of Li‘ân (the case of a man who charged his wife of committing illegal sexual intercourse) when I was fifteen years old. The Prophet ordered that they be divorced, and the husband said, “If I kept her, I would be a liar.” I remember that Az-Zubair also said, “(It was said) that if that women brought forth the child with such and such description, her husband would prove truthful, but if she brought it with such and such description looking like a Wahara (a red insect), he would prove untruthful.” I heard Az-Zubair also saying, “Finally she gave birth to a child of description which her husband disliked.”

6855. Narrated Al-Qãsim bin Muhammad: Ibn ‘Abbas mentioned the couple who had taken the oath of Li‘ân. ‘Abdulläh bin Shaddãd said (to him), “Was this women the same about whom Allah’s Messenger said, ‘If I were ever to stone to death any woman without witnesses. (I would have stoned that woman to death)?’” Ibn ‘Abbas replied, “No, that lady exposed herself (by her suspicious behaviour).”

6856. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Li‘ân was mentioned in the presence of the Prophet. ‘Asim bin ‘Adî said a statement about it, and when he left, a man from his tribe came to him complaining that he had seen a man with his wife. ‘Asim said, “I have been put to trial only because of my statement.” So he took the man to the

(1) (H. 6854) See Hadith No. 6748 and the chapter preceding it.
Prophet and the man told the Prophet about the incident. The man (husband) was of yellow complexion, thin, and of lank hair; while the man whom he had accused of having been with his wife was reddish brown with fat thick legs and fat body. The Prophet said, “O Allah! Reveal the truth.” Later on the lady delivered a child resembling the man whom the husband had accused of having been with her. So the Prophet made them take the oath of Li‘ân. A man said to Ibn ‘Abbas in the gathering, “Was that the same lady about whom the Prophet said, ‘If I were to stone any lady (for committing illegal sexual intercourse) to death without witnesses, I would have stoned that lady to death?’. Ibn ‘Abbas said, “No, that was another lady who used to behave in such a suspicious way among the Muslims that one might accuse her of committing illegal sexual intercourse.”

(44) CHAPTER. To accuse the chaste women.

And the Statement of Allah:
“And those who accuse chaste women, and produce not four witnesses, flog them with eighty stripes, and reject their testimony forever, they indeed are Fasiqūn (liars, rebellious, disobedient to Allāh). Except those who repent thereafter and do righteous deeds, (for such) verily, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.24:4,5)

And also the Statement of Allāh:
“Verily, those who accuse chaste women, who never even think of anything touching their chastity and are good believers, are... cursed in this life and in the Hereafter, and for them will be a great torment.” (V.24:23)

6857. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Avoid seven great destructive sins.” They (the people) asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What are they?” He said, (they are):

(1) To join partners in worship with Allāh;
(2) To practise sorcery;
(3) To kill the life which Allāh has forbidden, except for a just cause
(according to Islamic law);
(4) To eat up Ribā (usury);
(5) To eat up the property of an orphan;
(6) To show one’s back to the enemy and fleeing from the battlefield at the time of fighting;
(7) And to accuse chaste women who ever even think of anything touching their chastity and are good believers.

(45) CHAPTER. Slander the slaves
(accusing them for committing illegal sexual intercourse).

6858. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Abūl-Qasim (the Prophet ﷺ) saying, “If somebody slanders his slave (by accusing them of committing illegal sexual intercourse) and the slave is free from what he says, he (the master) will be flogged on the Day of Resurrection, unless the slave is really as he described him.”

(46) CHAPTER. Can a ruler order somebody to inflict the legal punishment on someone without himself being present?
‘Umar did so (during his caliphate).

6859, 6860. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhani: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “I beseech you by Allāh to judge between us according to Allāh’s Laws.” Then his opponent, who was wiser than he, got up and said, “He has spoken the truth. So judge between us according to Allāh’s Laws; and please allow me (to speak first), O Allāh’s Messenger.” The Prophet  said, “Speak.” He said, “My son was a labourer for the family of this man and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and I gave one hundred sheep and a slave as a ransom (expiation) (for my son), but I asked the religious learned people (regarding this case), and they informed me that my son should be flogged one hundred stripes, and be exiled for one year, and the wife of this man should be stoned (to death)”. The Prophet  said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge between you (in this case) according to Allāh’s Laws. The one hundred (sheep) and the slave shall be returned to you, and your son shall be flogged one hundred stripes and be exiled for one year. And O Unais! Go in the morning to the wife of this man and ask her, and if she confesses, stone her to death.” She confessed and he stoned her to death.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

"...And whoever kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell..."

(93:4)

6861. Narrated ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Which sin is the greatest in Allah’s consideration?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “To set up a rival unto Allah, though, He Alone created you.” The man asked, “What is (the) next (greatest sin)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “To kill your son, lest he should share your food with you.” The man said, “What is (the) next (greatest sin)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.” So Allāh revealed in confirmation of this narration:

“And those who invoke not any other ilāh (god) along with Allah nor kill such person as Allah has forbidden, except for just cause, nor commit illegal sexual intercourse – and whoever does this shall receive the punishment.” (V.25:68)

6862. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A faithful believer remains at liberty regarding his religion unless he kills somebody unlawfully.”

6863. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: One of the evil deeds with bad consequence from which there is no escape, for the one who is involved in it, is to kill someone unlawfully.

6864.Narrated ‘Abdullâh b. Zuma: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The first cases to be decided among the people (on the Day of Resurrection) will be those of bloodshed.”

6865.Narrated Al-Miqdâd bin ‘Amr Al-Kindi, an ally of Bani Zuhra who took part in the battle of Badr with the Prophet ﷺ, that he said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If I meet a disbeliever and we have a fight, and he strikes my hand with the sword and cuts it off, and then takes refuge from me under a tree, and says, ‘I have surrendered to Allah (i.e., embraced Islâm),’ should I kill him after he has said so?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not kill him.” Al-Miqdâd said, “O Allah’s Messenger! He had chopped off one of my hands and he said that after he had cut it off. Should I kill him?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not kill him, for if you kill him, he would be in the position in which you had been before you kill him (a believer), and you would be in the position in which he was before he said the sentence (a disbeliever).”

6866.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs (May Allah be pleased with him): The Prophet ﷺ said to Al-Miqdâd, “If a faithful believer conceals his Faith (Islam) from the disbelievers, and then when he declares his Islam, you kill him, (you will be sinful). Remember that you were also concealing your Faith (Islam) at Makkah before.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah
“And if anyone saved a life…” (V.5:32)

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Anyone who regards killing as prohibited except for a just cause (then it would be as if) he saved the life of all mankind.”

6867. Narrated Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None (no human being) is killed or murdered (unjustly), but a part of responsibility for the crime is laid on the first son of Ādam who started the first killing (murdering) on the earth. (It is said that he was Qābil).”

6868. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “After me (i.e., after my death), do not become disbelievers by striking (cutting) the necks of one another.”

6869. Narrated Abū Zur‘ā bin ‘Amr bin Jarir: The Prophet ﷺ said during Hajjat-ul-Wadā’, “Let the people be quiet and listen to me. After me (i.e., after my death), do not become disbelievers by striking (cutting) the necks of one another.”
870. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Al-Kabā'ir (the biggest sins) are: To join others (as partners) in worship with Allâh, to be undutiful to one's parents," or said, "to take a false oath." (The subnarrator, Shu'ba is not sure as to the correct expression the Prophet ﷺ used).

Mu'ādh said: Shu'ba said, "Al-Kabā'ir (the biggest sins) are: (1) Joining others (as partners) in worship with Allâh, (2) to take a false oath (3) and to be undutiful to one's parents," or said, "to murder (someone unlawfully)."

871. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The biggest of Al-Kabā'ir (the great sins) are: (1) To join others (as partners) in worship with Allâh, (2) to murder a human being, (3) to be undutiful to one's parents, (4) and to make a false statement," or said, "to give a false witness."

872. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid bin Hâritha: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ sent us (to fight) against Al-Ḥuraqa (one of the husbands of one of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ).
the subtribes) of Juhaina. We reached those people in the morning and defeated them. A man from the Ansâr and I chased one of their men and when we attacked him, he said, “Lā ilâha illallâh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh). The Ansâr refrained from killing him but I stabbed him with my spear till I killed him. When we reached (Al-Madina), this news reached the Prophet ﷺ. He said to me, “O Usâma! You killed him after he had said, ‘Lâ ilâha illallâh?’” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! He said so in order to save himself.” The Prophet said, “You killed him after he had said, ‘Lâ ilâha illallâh’ (None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh).” The Prophet ﷺ kept on repeating that statement till I wished I had not been a Muslim before that day.

6873. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin Aš-Šâmî: I was among those Naqib (selected leaders) who gave the Ba’i’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. We gave the Ba’i’a (pledge) that we would not join partners in worship to Allâh, would not steal, would not commit illegal sexual intercourse, would not kill a life which Allâh has forbidden, would not commit robbery, would not disobey (Allâh and His Messenger), and if we fulfilled this pledge we would have Paradise, but if we committed anyone of these (sins), then our case will be decided by Allâh.
6874. Narrated 'Abdullah: The Prophet said, “Whoever carries arms against us, is not from us.”

6875. Narrated Al-Ahnaf bin Qais: I went to help that man (i.e., 'Ali), and on the way I met Abū Bakra who asked me, “Where are you going?” I replied, “I am going to help that man.” He said, “Go back, for I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘If two Muslims meet each other with their swords, then the killer and the killed one are in the Hell Fire.’” I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! It is alright for the killer, but what about the killed one?’ He said, ‘The killed one was eager to kill his opponent.’"

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (ﷻ)“O you who believe! Al-Qisāṣ (the Law of Equality in punishment) is prescribed for you in case of murder: The free for the free, the slave for the slave, and the female for the female. But if the killer is forgiven by the brother (or the relatives) of the killed against blood-money, then adhering to it with fairness and payment of the blood-money to the heir should be made in fairness. This is an alleviation and a mercy from your Lord. So after this, whoever transgresses the limits, (i.e., kills the killer after taking the blood-money), he shall have a painful torment.” (V.2:178)
(4) CHAPTER. To question the killer till he confesses; and confession in cases where Divinely prescribed punishments are imperative.

6876.Narrated Anas bin Mālik: A Jew crushed the head of a girl between two stones, and the girl was asked, “Who has done that to you, so-and-so or so-and-so?” (Some names were mentioned for her) till the name of that Jew was mentioned (whereupon she nodded in agreement). The Jew was brought to the Prophet and the Prophet kept on questioning him till he confessed, whereupon his head was crushed with stones.

(5) CHAPTER. If someone kills (somebody) with a stone or with a stick.

6877. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: A girl wearing ornaments went out at Al-Madīna. Somebody struck her with a stone. She was brought to the Prophet while she was still alive. Allāh’s Messenger asked her, “Did such and such a person strike you?” She raised her head, denying that. He asked her a second time, saying, “Did so-and-so strike you?” She raised her head, denying that. He said for the third time, “Did so-and-so strike you?” She lowered her head, agreeing. Allāh’s Messenger then sent for the killer and killed him between two stones.

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“And We ordained therein for them: ‘Life for life, eye for eye, nose for nose, ear for ear, tooth for tooth and wounds equal for equal.' But if anyone remits the retaliation by way of charity, it shall be for him an expiation. And whosoever does not judge by that which Allâh has revealed, such are Az-Zâlimûn (polytheists, oppressors and wrongdoers - of a lesser degree).” (V.5:45)

6878.Narrated ‘Abdulláh b. ‘Ahlb: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The blood of a Muslim who confesses that Lâ ilâha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) and that ‘Îmmânu billâh (I testify that Allâh is One), cannot be shed except in three cases: (1) Life for life, (in cases of intentional murders without right, i.e., in Qiṣâs - Law of Equality in punishment); (2) a married person who commits illegal sexual intercourse, and (3) the one who turns renegade from Islîm (apostate) and leaves the group of Muslims (by innovating heresy, new ideas and new things, etc. in the Islâm religion).”

[See Fath-Al-Bârî for details].

(7) CHAPTER. Whoever punished (a killer) with a stone (in retaliation).

6879.Narrated Anas: A Jew killed a girl so that he may steal her ornaments. He struck her with a stone, and she was brought to the Prophet ﷺ while she was still alive. The Prophet ﷺ asked her, “Did such and such person strike you?” She gestured with her head, expressing denial. He asked her (naming such and such a person) for the second time, and she again gestured with her head, expressing denial. When he asked her for the third time, (naming such and such a person) she beckoned with her in the affirmative, as saying, “Yes.” So the Prophet ﷺ killed him.
(8) CHAPTER. The relative of the killed person has the right to choose one of two compensations (i.e., to have the killer killed, or to accept blood-money).

6880. Narrated Abū Hurairah: In the year of the conquest of Makkah, the tribe of Ḵuzā‘a killed a man from the tribe of Bani Laith in revenge for a killed person belonging to them in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. So Allāh’s Messenger got up saying, “Allāh held back the (army having) elephants from Makkah, but He let His Messenger and the believers overpower the infidels (of Makkah). Beware! (Makkah is a sanctuary)! Verily! Fighting in Makkah was not permitted for anybody before me, nor will it be permitted for anybody after me. It was permitted for me only for a while (an hour or so) of that day. No doubt! It is at this moment a sanctuary; its thorny shrubs should not be uprooted; its trees should not be cut down; and its Luqata (fallen things) should not be picked up except by the one who would look for its owner. And if somebody is killed, his closest relative has the right to choose one of two things, i.e., either the blood-money or retaliation by having the killer killed.” Then a man from Yemen, called Abū Shāh, stood up and said, “Write (that) for me, O Allāh’s Messenger!” Allāh’s Messenger said (to his Companions), “Write that for Abū Shāh.” Then another man from Quraish got up, saying, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Except Al-Idhkhir (a special kind of grass) as we use it in our houses and for graves.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “Except Al-Idhkhir.”

1) (H. 6880) Al-Idhkhir is permitted to be cut in Makkah.
6881. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: For the Children of Israel, the punishment for crime was Al-Qisās only (i.e., the Law of Equality in punishment) and the payment of blood-money was not permitted as an alternate. But Allāh said to this nation (Muslims):

‘O you who believe! Al-Qisās(1) (the Law of Equality in punishment) is prescribed for you in case of murder, ... (up to) ... But if the killer is forgiven by the brother (or the relatives) of the killed against blood-money...” (V.2:178)

Ibn ‘Abbás added: Forgiveness in this Verse, means to accept the blood-money in an intentional murder. Ibn ‘Abbás added: The Verse:

“... (Then adhering to it) with fairness and payment of the blood-money to the heir should be made in fairness...” (V.2:178) means that the demand should be reasonable and it is to be paid to the heir in fairness.

(9) CHAPTER. Whoever seeks to shed somebody’s blood without any right.

6882. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The most hated persons to Allāh are three: (1) A person

(1) (H. 6881) See the glossary.
who deviates from the right conduct (i.e., an evil-doer) in the Haram (sanctuaries of Makkah and Al-Madina); (2) a person who wants that the traditions of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance should remain in Islam; (3) and a person who seeks to shed somebody’s blood without any right.”

(10) CHAPTER. Excusing somebody who killed another by mistake.

6883. Narrated ‘Aishah: ‘Al-Mushrikūn were defeated on the day (of the battle) of Uhud.’

Satan shouted among the people on the day of Uhud, ‘O Allah’s worshippers! Beware of what is behind you!’ So, the front file of the army attacked the back files (mistaking them for the enemy) till they killed Al-Yamān. Hudhaifa (bin Al-Yamān) shouted, ‘My father! My father!’ But they killed him. Hudhaifa said, ‘May Allah forgive you.’

(The subnarrator added: Some of the defeated Mushrikūn fled till they reached Ta’if).

(11) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“IT IS NOT FOR A BELIEVER TO KILL A BELIEVER except (that it be) by mistake, and whosoever kills a believer by mistake, (it is ordained that) he must set free a believing slave and a compensation (blood-money i.e., Diya) be given to the deceased’s family, unless they remit it. If the deceased belonged to a people... at war with you and he was a believer; the freeing of a believing slave (is prescribed), and if he belonged to a people with whom you have a treaty of mutual alliance, compensation must be paid to his family, and a believing slave must be freed. And whoso finds this (the penance of freeing a slave) beyond his means, he must observe fast for two consecutive months in order to seek repentance from Allâh. And Allâh is ever All-Knowing, All-Wise.” (V. 4:92)

(12) CHAPTER. If a killer confesses once, he should be killed.

6884. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: A Jew crushed the head of a girl between two stones. It was said to her, “Who has done this to you, such and such person, such and such person?” When the name of the Jew was mentioned, she nodded with her head, agreeing. So the Jew was brought and he confessed. The Prophet ﷺ ordered that his head be crushed with the stones. (Hammâm said, “with two stones”.)

(13) CHAPTER. Killing a man for having killed a woman.

6885. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: The Prophet ﷺ killed a Jew for killing a girl in order to take her ornaments.
(14) CHAPTER. Al-Qīṣāṣ (Law of Equality in punishment) in cases of injury among men and women.

And religious learned people said, “A man should be killed if he has killed a woman.”

It is related that ‘Umar said, “A man should be punished with the law of Al-Qīṣāṣ for intentionally inflicting a woman with a wound or injury. Punishment may be the loss of his life or the receiving of similar wounds.”

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz, Ibrāhīm, and Abū Az-Zīnād agreed to that. The sister of Ar-Rubā‘i wounded somebody whereupon the Prophet ﷺ gave the judgement of Al-Qīṣāṣ.

6886. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: We poured medicine into the mouth of the Prophet ﷺ during his ailment. He said, “Don’t pour medicine into my mouth.” (We thought he said that) out of the aversion a patient usually has for medicines. When he improved and felt better he said, “There is none of you but will be forced to drink medicine, except Al-‘Abbās, for he did not witness your deed.”

(15) CHAPTER. Whoever took his right or retaliation from somebody without submitting the case to the ruler.

6887. Narrated Abū Hurairah that he heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but (will be) the foremost (on the Day of Resurrection).”
6888. [H. 6887 contd.] Abu Hurairah added, “If someone is peeping (looking secretly) into your house without your permission, and you throw a stone at him and destroy his eyes, there will be no sin on you.” (See H. 6902)

[See Hadith No.6241 and 6242].

(16) CHAPTER. If someone dies or is killed in a big crowd.

6890. Narrated ‘Āishah: When it was the day of (the battle of) Uhud, Al-Mushrikūn were defeated. Then Satan shouted, “0 Allah’s worshippers! Beware of what is behind you!” So, the front files attacked the back files of the army. Ḥudhaifa looked, and behold, there was his father, Al-Yamān (being attacked)! He shouted (to his companions), “0 Allah’s worshippers! My father! My father!” But by Allah, they did not stop till they killed him (i.e., Ḥudhaifa’s father). Ḥudhaifa said, “May Allah forgive you.” ‘Urwa said, “Ḥudhaifa continued asking Allah’s forgiveness for the killer of his father till he died.”

(17) CHAPTER. If someone kills himself by mistake then there is no Diya (blood-money) for him.

6891. Narrated Salama: We went out with the Prophet ﷺ to Khaibar. A man (from the Companions) said, “O ‘Amir! Let us hear some of your Ḥudā (camel-driving songs).” So he sang some of them (i.e., a lyric in harmony with the camels’ footsteps). The Prophet ﷺ said, “Who is the driver (of these camels)?” They said, “‘Āmir.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allāh bestow His Mercy on him!”(1) The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Would that you let us enjoy his company longer!” Then ‘Āmir was killed the following morning. The people said, “The good deeds of ‘Āmir are lost as he has killed himself.”(2) I returned at the time while they were talking about that. I went to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! The people claim that ‘Āmir’s good deeds are lost.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever says so is a liar, for ‘Āmir will have a double reward as he exerted himself to obey Allāh and fought in Allāh’s Cause. No other way of killing would have granted him greater reward.”

(18) CHAPTER. If somebody bites a man and has his one tooth broken.

6892. Narrated ‘Imrān bin Ḥuṣain: A man bit another man’s hand and the latter pulled his hand out of his mouth by force, causing two of his incisors (teeth) to fall out. They submitted their case to the Prophet ﷺ, who said, “One of you bit his brother as a male camel bites. (Go away), there is no Diya (blood-money) for you.”

6893. Narrated Ya’lā: I went out in one of

(1) (H.6891) The Prophet ﷺ anticipated ‘Āmir’s martyrdom.
(2) (H.6891) ‘Āmir tried to hit a Jew with his sword, but the sword accidentally turned towards himself and killed him, so he killed himself accidentally.
the Ghazwa\(^{(1)}\) and a man bit another man and as a result, an incisor tooth of the former was pulled out. The Prophet ﷺ cancelled the case.

(19) CHAPTER. Tooth for tooth.

6894. Narrated Anas ﷺ: The daughter of An-Nadr slapped a girl and broke her incisor tooth. They (the relatives of that girl), came to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave the order of Al-Qiṣāṣ (equality in punishment).

(20) CHAPTER. The Diya for (cutting) fingers.

6895. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “This and this are the same.” He meant the little finger and the thumb.\(^{(2)}\)

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: I heard the Prophet ﷺ (saying the same as above).

(21) CHAPTER. If a group of people have killed or injured one man, will all of them have to give the Diya or be punished with the law of Al-Qiṣāṣ (equality in punishment)?

Narrated Muṭṭarraf from Ash-Sha‘bī: Two men bore witness against a man whom they accused of theft. 'Ali cut off his hand. Then they brought another man and said (to 'Ali), "We have committed a mistake (by accusing the first man)." 'Ali regarded their former witness as invalid and took from them the Diya for being the cause of cutting off the hand of the first man, and said, "If I were of the opinion that you have intentionally given a false witness, I would cut off your hands."

6896. Ibn 'Umar said: A boy was assassinated. 'Umar said, "If all the people of San'a"(1) took part in the assassination I would kill them all."

Al-Mughira bin Ḥakim said that his father said, "Four persons killed a boy, and 'Umar said (as above)."

Abū Bakr, Ibn Az-Zubair, 'Ali and Suwaid bin Muqarrin gave the judgement of Al-Qiṣāṣ (equality in punishment) in cases of slapping. And 'Umar carried out Al-Qiṣāṣ for a strike with a stick. And 'Ali carried out Al-Qiṣāṣ for three lashes with a whip. And Shuraɪh carried out for one lash and for scratching.

6897. Narrated 'Aishah: We poured medicine into the mouth of Allah's Messenger during his illness, and he pointed out to us intending to say, "Don't pour medicine into my mouth." We thought that his refusal was out of the aversion a patient usually has for medicine. When he improved and felt a bit better, he said (to us), "Didn't I forbid you to pour medicine into my mouth?" We said, "We thought (you did so) because of the aversion one usually has for medicine." Allah's Messenger said,

“There is none of you but will be forced to drink medicine, and I will watch you, except Al-‘Abbās, for he did not witness this act of yours.”

(22) CHAPTER. Al-Qasāma [the oath taken by fifty people (of the defendant) regarding a murder case when no evidence is available].

Al-‘Ash’ath bin Qa‘ṣ said: The Prophet ﷺ said (to a plaintiff), “You should bring two witnesses, otherwise the defendant will be asked to take an oath (in case of denial).”

Ibn Abi Mulaika said: Mu‘āwiya didn’t carry out the penalty of Al-Qiṣāṣ١ (equality in punishment) according to Al-Qasāma.

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz wrote to ‘Adi bin Arṭāh whom he had appointed governor of Al-Baṣrah, regarding a person who has been found (murdered) near one of the houses of the oil merchants: “If the relatives of the deceased proved their claim (by presenting witnesses), (then kill the killer); otherwise, do not oppress (wrong) the people, as this case may remain pending till the Day of Resurrection.”

6898. Narrated Sahl bin Abi Ḥathma (a man from the Ansār) that a number of people from his tribe went to Khaibar and dispersed, and then they found one of them murdered. They said to the people with whom the corpse had been found, “You have killed our companion!” Those people said, “Neither have we killed him nor do we know his killer.” The bereaved group went to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We went to Khaibar and found one of us murdered.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Let the older among you come forward and speak.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said to them, “Bring your proof against the killer.” They said “We have no proof.” The Prophet said, “Then they (the defendants) will take an oath.” They said, “We do not accept the oaths of the Jews.” Allâh’s Messenger did not like that the blood-money of the killed one be lost without compensation, so he paid one hundred camels out of the camels of Zakât (to the relatives of the deceased) as Diya (blood-money).

6899. Narrated Abû Qilâba: Once ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azîz sat on his throne in the courtyard of his house so that the people might gather before him. Then he admitted them and (when they came in), he said, “What do you think of Al-Qasâma?”(1) They said, “We say that it is lawful to depend on Al-Qâsâma in Al-Qiṣâs as the previous Muslim caliphs carried out Al-Qiṣâs depending on it.” Then he said to me, “O Abû Qilâba! What do you say about it?” He let me appear before the people and I said, “O chief of the believers! You have the chiefs of the army staff and the nobles of the Arabs. If fifty of them testified that a married man had committed illegal sexual intercourse in Damascus but they had not seen him (doing so), would you stone him?” He said, “No.” I said, “If fifty of them testified that a man had committed theft in Hums, would you cut off his hand, though they did not see him?” He replied, “No.” I said, “By Allâh, Allâh’s Messenger never killed anyone except in one of the following three situations: (1) A person who killed somebody (a case of intentional murder), is to be killed (in Al-Qiṣâs), (2) a married person who committed illegal sexual intercourse, and (3) a man who fought against Allāh and His Messenger and deserted Islām and became an apostate.” Then the people said, “Didn’t Anas bin Mālik narrate that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ cut off the hands of the thieves, branded their eyes and then threw them in the sun (to die)?” I said, “I shall tell you the narration of Anas. Anas said: “Eight persons from the tribe of ‘Ukl came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and gave the Bai’a (pledge) for Islām (became Muslim). The climate of the place (Al-Madīnah) did not suit them, so they became sick and complained about that to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. He said (to them), “Won’t you go out with the shepherd of our camels and drink of the camels’ milk and urine (as medicine)?” They said, “Yes.” So they went out and drank the camels’ milk and urine, and after they became healthy, they killed the shepherd of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and took away all the camels. This news reached Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, so he sent (men) to follow their traces and they were captured and brought (to the Prophet ﷺ). He then ordered to cut their hands and feet, and their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron, and then he threw them in the sun till they died.” I said, “What can be worse than what those people did? They deserted Islām, committed murder and theft.” Then ‘Anbasa bin Sa‘īd said, “By Allāh, I never heard a narration like this of today.” I said, “O ‘Anbasa! You deny my narration?” ‘Anbasa said, “No, but you have related the narration in the way it should be related. By Allāh, these people are in welfare as long as this Sheikh (Abū Qilābā) is among them.” I added, “Indeed in this event there has been a Sunna (legal way) set by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

The narrator added: Some Ansārī people came to the Prophet ﷺ and discussed some matters with him, a man from amongst them went out and was murdered. Those people went out after him, and behold, their companion was lying in a pool of blood. They returned to Allah’s Messenger and said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger, we have found our companion who had talked with us and gone out before us, swimming in blood (killed).” Allah’s Messenger went out and asked them, “Whom do you suspect, or whom do you think has killed him?” They said, “We think that the Jews have killed him.” The Prophet sent for the Jews and asked them, “Did you kill this (person)?” They replied, “No.” He asked the Al-Ansâr, “Do you agree that I let fifty Jews take an oath that they have not killed him?” They said, “It matters little for the Jews to kill us all and then take false oaths.” He said, “Then would you like to receive the Diya after fifty of you have taken an oath (that the Jews have killed your man)”? They said, “We will not take the oath.” Then the Prophet himself paid them the Diya (blood-money).

The narrator added, “The tribe of Hudâil repudiated one of their men (for his evil conduct) in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. Then at a place called Al-Batâ’ah (near Makkah), the man attacked a Yemenite family at night to steal from them, but a man from the family noticed him and struck him with his sword and killed him. The tribe of Hudâil came and captured the Yemenite and brought him to ‘Umar, during the Hajj season and said, “He has killed our companion.” The Yemenite said, “But these people had repudiated him (i.e., their companion).” ‘Umar said, “Let fifty persons of Hudâil (tribe) swear that they had not repudiated him.” So forty-nine of them took the oath and then a person belonging to them came from Shâm and they requested him to swear similarly, but he paid one thousand Dirhams instead of taking the oath. They called another man instead of him and the new man shook hands with the brother of the deceased. Some people said, "We and those fifty men who had taken false oaths (Al-Qasama) set out, and when they reached a place called Naklah, it started raining so they entered a cave in the mountain, and the cave collapsed on those fifty men who took the false oath, and all of them died except the two persons who had shaken hands with each other. They escaped death but a stone fell on the leg of the brother of the deceased and broke it, whereupon he survived for one year and then died."

(The narrator) further said, "'Abdul Malik bin Marwan sentenced a man to death in Al-Qisas (equality in punishment) for murder, basing his judgement on Al-Qasama, but later on he regretted that judgement and ordered that the names of the fifty persons who had taken the oath (Al-Qasama), be erased from the register, and he exiled them in Shām."

(23) CHAPTER. If somebody peeps into the house of some people whereupon they poked his eye; he has no right to claim blood-money.

6900. Narrated Anas: A man peeped into one of the dwelling places of the Prophet. The Prophet got up and aimed a sharp-edged arrow head (or wooden stick) at him to poke him stealthily.
6901. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sā'idi: A man peeped through a hole in the door of Allah's Messenger's house, and at that time Allah's Messenger had a Midrā (an iron comb or bar) with which he was rubbing his head. So when Allah's Messenger saw him, he said (to him), "If I had been sure that you were looking at me (through the door), I would have poked your eye with this (sharp iron bar)." Allah's Messenger added, "The asking for permission to enter has been enjoined so that one may not look unlawfully (at what there is in the house without the permission of its people)."

6902. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ab-ul-Qāsim (the Prophet) said, "If any person peeps at you without your permission and you poke him with a stick and injure his eye, there will be no sin on you."

(24) CHAPTER. Al-'Aqila (the relatives from the father's side) who pay the Diya (blood-money).

6903. Narrated Ash-Sha'bi: I heard Abū Juhaifa saying, "I asked 'Ali, 'Have you got any Divine literature apart from the Qur'ān?' (Once he said '... apart from what the people have?') 'Ali replied, 'By Him Who made the grain split (germinate) and created the soul, we have nothing except what is in the Qur'ān and the ability (gift) of understanding Allah's Book which He may endow a man with, and we have what is written in this sheet of paper.' I asked, 'What is written in this paper?' He replied, ‘Al-‘Aql (the legal rules and regulations about Diya), about the ransom of captives, and the judgement that a Muslim should not be killed in Qisas (equality in punishment) for killing a disbeliever.' " [See Vol. 4, Hadith No.3047.]

(25) CHAPTER. The foetus (that is inside the uterus) of a (pregnant) woman.

6904. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Two women from the tribe of Hudhail (fought with each other) and one of them threw (a stone at) the other, causing her to have a miscarriage; and Allah's Messenger gave his verdict that the killer (of the foetus) should give a male or female slave (as a Diya).

6905. Narrated Hishâm's father: Al-Mughîra bin Shu'ba said: 'Umar consulted the companions about the case of a woman's abortion (caused by somebody else). Al-Mughîra said, "The Prophet gave the verdict that a male or female slave should be given (as a Diya)."

6906. [H. 6905 contd.] Umar said, "Present a witness to testify your statement, then Muḥammad bin Maslama testified that he had witnessed the Prophet giving such a verdict."
6907. Narrated Hishām’s father: ‘Umar asked the people, “Who heard the Prophet giving his verdict regarding abortions?” Al-Mughīra said, “I heard him judging that a male or female slave should be given (as a Diya).”

6908. [H. 6907 contd.] ‘Umar said, “Present a witness to testify your statement.” Muhammad bin Maslama said, “I testify that the Prophet gave such a judgement.”

6909. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger gave a verdict regarding an aborted foetus of a woman from Banū Liyān that the killer (of the foetus) should give a male or female slave (as a Diya). But the woman who was required to give the slave, died, so Allah’s Messenger gave the verdict that her inheritance be given to her children and her husband and the Diya be paid by her ‘Asaba.\(^1\)”

(1) (H.6909) ‘Asaba: Relatives from the father’s side.
6910. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Two women from Hudhail fought with each other and one of them hit the other with a stone that killed her and what was in her womb (the foetus). The relatives of the killer and the relatives of the victim submitted their case to the Prophet ﷺ who judged that the Diyā for the foetus was a male or female slave, and the Diyā for the killed woman was to be paid by the 'Asaba of the killer.

(27) CHAPTER. Whoever sought the help of a slave or a boy.

It is said that Umm Salama sent (a message) to the teacher of the school (saying), “Send me some boys to brush the wool, but do not send me a free boy.”

6911. Narrated ‘Abdul-‘Aziz: Anas said, “When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ arrived at Al-Madina, Abū Talḥa took hold of my hand and brought me to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Anas is an intelligent boy, so let him serve you.” Anas added, “So I served the Prophet ﷺ at home and on journeys; by Allah, he never said to me for anything which I did: ‘Why have you done this like this?’ or, for anything which I did not do: ‘Why have you not done this like this?’”

(28) CHAPTER. No Diya (blood-money) is to be paid in cases of mines and wells.

6912. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “There is no Diya for persons killed by animals or for the one who has been killed accidentally by falling into a well; or for the one killed in a mine. And one-fifth of Ar-Rikāz (treasures buried before the Islamic era) is to be given to the state.”

(29) CHAPTER. There is no Diya (blood-money) for the one killed by an animal unaccompanied by somebody to control it.

Ibn Sirin said: They used not to guarantee any compensation for any damage caused by an animal’s kick, but if the rider of the animal pulled the rein (causing the animal to turn and damage something with its feet), the rider is responsible.

Ḥammād said: There is no compensation for the damage caused by an animal’s kick, unless somebody has kicked (and startled) the animal.

Shuraib said: There is no compensation for damage or injury inflicted by an animal on somebody who hits it whereupon it kicks him.

And Al-Hakam and Ḥammād said: If a hirer of mounts drives a donkey mounted by a woman, and the woman falls down, then he is not charged any compensation.

And Ash-Sha’bī said: If someone drives an animal and makes it tired by driving it fast, then he is responsible for any damage it might cause; and if he drives it slowly, he is not responsible.

6913. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “There is no Diya for a person injured or killed by an animal (going about without somebody to control it) and similarly, there is no Diya for the one who falls and dies in a well, and also the one who dies in a mine. As regards the Ar-Rikaz (buried wealth), one-fifth thereof is for the state."

(30) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who killed an innocent Dhimi (a non-Muslim living in a Muslim state and enjoying the protection of Muslims).

6914.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr ibn ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, "Whoever killed a Mu’ahid (a person who is granted the pledge of protection by the Muslims) shall not smell the fragrance of Paradise though its fragrance can be smelt at a distance of forty years (of travelling)."

(31) CHAPTER. A Muslim should not be killed for killing a Kafir (disbeliever).

6915. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: I asked ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib, "Do you have anything Divine literature besides what is in the Qur’ān?" Or, as Uyaina once said, "Apart from what the people have?" ‘Alī said, "By Him Who made the grain split (germinate) and created the soul, we have nothing except what is in the Qur’ān and the ability (gift) of understanding Allāh’s Book which He may endow a man with, and we have w. at is written in this sheet of paper." I asked, "What is (written) on this paper?" He replied, "Al-‘Aql (the legal rules and regulations of Diya and the (ransom for) releasing of the captives, and the judgement that no Muslim should be killed in Al-Qisās (equality in punishment) for killing a Kafir (disbeliever)."
(32) CHAPTER. If a Muslim, being furious, slaps a Jew, (no compensation is required).

Abū Hurairah narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.

6916. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not prefer some Prophets to others.”

6917. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: A Jew, whose face had been slapped (by someone), came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Muhammad ﷺ! A man from your Ansārī companions slapped me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Call him”. They called him and the Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Why did you slap his face?” He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! While I was passing by the Jews, I heard him saying, ‘By Him Who chose Mūsā (Moses) above all the human beings.’ I said (protestingly), ‘Even above Muhammad ﷺ?’ So I became furious and slapped him.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not give me preference to other Prophets, for the people will become unconscious on the Day of Resurrection and I will be the first to regain conscious, and behold, I will find Mūsā holding one of the pillars of the Throne (of Allah). Then I will not know whether he has become conscious before me or he has been exempted because of his unconsciousness at the mountain (during his worldly life) which he received.”
(1) CHAPTER. The sin of the person who ascribes partners in worship to Allâh, and his punishment in this world and in the Hereafter.

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

"Verily! Joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zuîm (wrong) indeed..." (V.31:13)

And His Statement:

"... If you join others in worship with Allâh, (then) surely (all) your deeds will be in vain, and you will certainly be among the losers." (V.39:65)

6918. Narrated ‘Abdullah b. Maimûn: When the Verse:

“It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allâh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zuîm i.e., worshipping others besides Allâh)” (V.6:82) was revealed, it became very hard on the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ and they said, “Who among us has not confused his belief with Zuîm (wrong)?” On that, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This is not meant (by the Verse). Don’t you listen to Luqîmân’s statement:

“Verily! Joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zuîm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13)

6919. Narrated Abû Bakr S. ﷺ said, “The biggest of the great sins are: (1) To join partners in worship with Allâh, (2) to be undutiful to one’s parents, (3) and to give a false witness.” He (ﷺ) repeated it thrice, or said, “... a lying speech (a false statement),” and kept on repeating that warning till we wished he would stop saying it. (See Hadith No.5976, Vol.8).

6920. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr: A bedouin came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What are Al-Kaba’ir (the biggest sins)?” The Prophet said, “To join partners in worship with Allah.” The bedouin said, “What is next (biggest sin)?” The Prophet said, “To be undutiful to one’s parents.” The bedouin said, “What is next (biggest sin)?” The Prophet said, “To take an oath Al-Ghamûs.” The bedouin asked, “What is an oath Al-Ghamûs?” The Prophet said, “The false oath through which one deprives a Muslim of his property (unjustly).” [See Vol.8, Hadith No.6675]

6921. Narrated Ibn Mas’ûd: A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we be punished for what we did in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance?” The Prophet said, “Whoever does good in Islam will not be punished for what he did in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance; and whoever does evil in Islam will be punished for his former and later (bad deeds).”
(2) CHAPTER. The legal regulation concerning Al-Murtad and Al-Murtaddah [male and the female who reverts from Islam (apostates)].

Ibn 'Umar, Az-Zuhri and Ibrãhîm said, “A female apostate (who reverts from Islam), should be killed. And the obliging of the reverts from Islam (apostates) to repent.

Allâh said:

“How shall Allâh guide a people who disbelieved after their belief and after they bore witness that the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) is true and after clear proofs had come unto them? And Allâh guides not the people who are Zâlimûn (polytheists and wrongdoers). They are those whose recompense is that on them (rests) the Curse of Allâh, of the angels, and of all mankind. They will abide therein (Hell). Neither will their torment be (lightened) nor will it be delayed or postponed (for a while). Except for those who repent after that and do righteous deeds. Verily, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Verily, those who disbelieved after their belief and then went on increasing in their disbelief (i.e., disbelief in the Qur'ân and in Prophet Muhammad ﷺ) — never will their repentance be accepted [because they repent only by their tongues and not from their hearts]. And they are those who are astray.” (V.3: 86-90)

Allâh also said:

“O you who believe! If you obey a group of those who were given the Scripture (Jews and Christians), they would (indeed) render you disbelievers after you have believed!” (V.3:100)
Allâh also said:

"Verily, those who believe, then disbelieve, then believe (again), and (again) disbelieve, and go on increasing in disbelief; Allâh will not forgive them, nor guide them on the (Right) Way." (V.4:137)

Allâh also said:

"O you who believe! Whoever from among you turns back from his religion (Islâm), Allâh will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers...” (V.5:54)

Allâh also said:

"Whoever disbelieved in Allâh after his belief, except him who is forced thereto and whose heart is rest with Faith — but such as open their breasts to disbelief, — on them is wrath from Allâh, and theirs will be a great torment. That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allâh guides not the people who disbelieve. They are those upon whose hearts, hearing (ears) and sight (eyes) Allâh has set a seal. And they are the heedless! No doubt, in the Hereafter, they will be the losers. Then, verily! Your Lord — for those who emigrated after they had been put to trials and thereafter strove hard and fought (for the Cause of Allâh) and were patient, verily, your Lord afterward is, Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.16: 106-110)

Allâh also said:

"...And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your religion (Islâmic Monotheism) if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his religion and dies as a disbeliever, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter; and they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever.” (V.2:217)
6922. Narrated 'Ikrima: Some Zanādiqa (atheists) were brought to 'Ali; and he burnt them. The news of this event reached Ibn 'Abbas who said, "If I had been in his place, I would not have burnt them, as Allāh's Messenger forbade it, saying, 'Do not punish anybody with Allāh's punishment (fire).'' I would have killed them according to the statement of Allāh's Messenger, 'Whoever changed his Islamic religion, then kill him.'"

6923. Narrated Abū Burda: Abū Musa said, "I came to the Prophet along with two men (from the tribe of Ash'ariyūn, one on my right and the other on my left, while Allāh's Messenger was brushing his teeth (with a Siwāk), and both men asked him for some employment. The Prophet said, 'O Abū Musa, O 'Abdullah bin Qais', I said, 'By Him Who sent you with the Truth, these two men did not tell me what was in their hearts and I did not feel (realize) that they were seeking employment.' As if I were looking now at his Siwāk being drawn to a corner under his lips, and he said, 'We never (or said, 'we do not') appoint for our affairs anyone who seeks to be employed. But O Abū Musa!' or said, 'Abdullah bin Qais! Go to Yemen.' The Prophet then sent Mu'ādh bin Jabal after him and when Mu'ādh reached him, he spread out a cushion for him and requested him to get down (and sit on the cushion). Behold! There was a fettered man beside Abū Musa. Mu'ādh asked, 'Who is this (man)?' Abū Musā said, 'He was a Jew and became a Muslim and then reverted back to Judaism. Then Abū Musa requested Mu'ādh to sit down but Mu'ādh said, 'I will not sit down till he has been killed. This is the judgement of Allah and His Messenger (for such cases),' and repeated it thrice. Then Abū Mūsa ordered that the man be killed, and he was killed.” Abū Mūsa added, “Then we discussed the night (Tahajjud) prayers and one of us said, 'I offer (prayer) and sleep, and I hope that Allah will reward me for my sleep as well as for my waking up (for prayers).''

(3) CHAPTER. Killing those who refuse to fulfil the duties enjoined by Allah, and considering them as apostates.

6924. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When the Prophet ﷺ died and Abū Bakr became his successor and some of the Arabs reverted to disbelief, 'Umar said, “O Abū Bakr! How can you fight these people although Allah's Messenger said, 'I have been ordered to fight the people till they say: Ṭā lā ʾilāhā illāllah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and whoever said Ṭā lā ʾilāhā illāllah, Allah will save his property and his life from me, unless (he does something for which he receives legal punishment) justly, and his account will be with Allah'?”

6925. [H. 6924 contd.] Abū Bakr said, “By Allah! I will fight whoever differentiates between Salāt (prayers) and Zakāt; as Zakāt is the right to be taken from property (according to Allah's Orders). By Allah! If they refused to pay me even a kid they used to pay to Allah's Messenger ﷺ, I would fight with them for withholding it.” 'Umar said, “By Allah! It was nothing, but I noticed that Allah opened Abū Bakr's chest towards the decision to fight, therefore, I realized that his decision was right.”

(4) CHAPTER. If a Dhimmi or somebody else abuses the Prophet by playing upon words but not frankly, e.g., by saying, “As-Sâm ‘Alaika.”

6927. Narrated ‘Āishah: A group of Jews asked permission to visit the Prophet (and when they were admitted) they said, “As-Sâm ‘Alaika (death be upon you).” I said to them, “Nay! Death and the curse of Allah be upon you!” The Prophet said, “O ‘Āishah! Allah is Kind and Lenient and likes that one should be kind and lenient in all matters.” I said, “Haven’t you heard what they said?” He said, “I said to them, ‘Wa ‘Alaikum (and upon you).’”

5) CHAPTER.

6929. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: As if I am looking at the Prophet ﷺ while he was speaking about one of the Prophets whose people have beaten and wounded him, and he was wiping the blood off his face and saying, “O Lord! Forgive my people as they do not know.”

6) CHAPTER. Killing Al-Khawārij (some people who dissented from the religion and disagreed with the rest of the Muslims), and Al-Mulhidūn (heretical) after the establishment of firm proof against them.

And the Statement of Allāh تعالى

“And Allāh will never lead a people astray after He has guided them until He makes clear to them as to what they should avoid…” (V.9:115)

And Ibn ‘Umar used to consider them (Al-Khawārij and Al-Mulhidūn) the worst of Allāh’s creatures and said, “These people took some Verses that had been revealed concerning the disbelievers and interpreted them as describing the believers.”
6930. Narrated ‘Ali: Whenever I tell you a narration from Allâh’s Messenger by Allâh, I would rather fall down from the sky than ascribe a false statement to him, but if I tell you something between me and you (not a Hadith) then it was indeed a trick (i.e., I may say things just to cheat my enemy). No doubt I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “During the last days there will appear some young foolish people who will say the best words but their Faith will not go beyond their throats (i.e., they will have no Faith) and will go out from (leave) their religion as an arrow goes out of the game. So, wherever you find them, kill them, for whoever kills them shall have reward on the Day of Resurrection.”

6931. Narrated ‘Atâ’ bin Yasâr that they visited Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khûdri and asked him about Al-Haruriya, a certain unorthodox religious sect, “Did you hear the Prophet saying anything about them?” Abû Sa‘îd said, “I do not know what Al-Haruriya is, but I heard the Prophet saying, ‘There will appear in this nation — he did not say: From this nation — a group of people so pious apparently that you will consider your Salât (prayers) inferior to their Salât (prayer), but they will recite the Qur’ân, but it will not go beyond their throats(1), and they will go out of their religion as an arrow darts through the game, whereupon the archer may look at his arrow, its Naṣīl, its Riṣāf and its Fuqa (1) to see whether it is blood-stained or not (i.e., they will have not even a trace of Islam in them).”

6932. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar regarding Al-Ḥaruriya: The Prophet  said, “They will go out of Islam as an arrow darts out of the game’s body.”

(7) CHAPTER. Whoever gave up fighting against Al-Khawārij in order to create intimacy and so that people might not take an aversion to him.

6933. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: While the Prophet  was distributing something (2), ‘Abdullāh bin Dhl-Khuwaisira At-Tamimi came and said, “Be just, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet  said, “Woe to you! Who would be just if I were not?” ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said, “Allow me to cut off his neck!” The Prophet  said, “Leave him, for he has companions, and if you compare your Ṣalāt (prayers) with their Ṣalāt (prayer) and your Siyām (fasting) with theirs, you will look down upon your Ṣalāt (prayer) and fasting in comparison to theirs. Yet they will go out of the religion as an arrow darts through the game’s body in which case, if the Qudhādh (3) of the arrow is examined, nothing will be found on it, and when its Naṣīl (3) is examined,

(1) (H.6931) Naṣīl, Riṣāf and Fuqa are different parts of an arrow.
(2) (H.6933) That was gold sent by ‘All bin Abū Ṭalib from Yemen.
(3) (H.6933) Qudhādh, Naṣīl, Riṣāf, and Nady are different parts of an arrow.
nothing will be found on it; and when its Nady is examined, nothing will be found on it. The arrow has been too fast to be smeared by dung and blood. The sign by which these people will be recognized will be a man whose one hand (or breast) will be like the breast of a woman (or like a moving piece of flesh). These people will appear when there will be differences among the people (Muslims).” Abū Sa‘īd added: I testify that I heard this from the Prophet ﷺ and also testify that ‘Alī killed those people while I was with him. The man with the description given by the Prophet ﷺ was brought to ‘Alī. The following Verses were revealed in connection with that person (i.e., ‘Abdullāh bin Dhīl-Khuwāïsirā At-Tamīmī):

“And of them are some who accuse you (O Muhammad ﷺ) in the matter of (the distribution of) the alms…” (V.9:58)

6934. Narrated Yusair bin ‘Amr: I asked Sahl bin Hūnāif, “Did you hear the Prophet ﷺ saying anything about Al-Khawārij?” He said, “I heard him saying while pointing his hand towards ‘Irāq, ‘There will appear in it (i.e., ‘Irāq) some people who will recite the Qur’ān but it will not go beyond their throats, and they will go out (leave) ‘Īslām as an arrow darts out through the game’s body’.”

(8) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ, “The Hour will not be established till two (huge) groups fight against each other, their claim being one and the same."

6935.Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till two (huge) groups fight against each other, their claim being one and the same.”

6936.‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said: I heard Hishâm bin Al-Ḥakîm reciting Sûrat Al-Furqân during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. I listened to his recitation and noticed that he recited it in several different ways which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had not taught me. So I was about to jump over him during his Salât (prayer) but I waited till he finished his Salât (prayer) whereupon I put, either his upper garment or my upper garment around his neck and seized him by it and asked him, “Who has taught you this Sûrah?” He replied, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has taught it to me.” I said (to him), “You have told a lie! By Allah, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has taught me this Sûrah which I have heard you reciting.” So I dragged him to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger I have heard this man reciting Sûrat Al-Furqân in a way in which you have not taught me, and you did teach me Sûrat Al-Furqân.” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O ‘Umar, release him! Recite, O

(9) CHAPTER. What is said about Al-Muta’awwalûn (those who form wrong opinions of disbelief about their Muslim brothers).

(1) (Ch.8) Either of the two groups will consider (themselves) on the right and their opponents is on the wrong.
Hishām”. So Hishām recited before him in the way as I had heard him reciting. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It has been revealed like this.” Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Recite, O ‘Umar”. So I recited it. The Prophet ﷺ said, “It has been revealed like this.” And then he added, “This Qur’ān has been revealed to be recited in seven different ways, so recite it whichever way is easier for you.” [See Vol.6, Hadith No.4992] 6937. Narrated ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: When the Verse:

“It is those believe (in the Oneness of Allāh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zuilm (wrong i.e., by worshipping others besides Allāh)...” (V.6:82) was revealed, it was hard on the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ and they said, “Who among us has not wronged himself?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The meaning of the Verse is not as you think, but it is as Luqmān said to his son, (as mentioned in the Qur’ān) : ‘...O my son! Join not in worship others with Allāh. Verily! Joining others in worship with Allāh is a great Zuilm (wrong) indeed.’” (V.31:13)

6938. Narrated ‘Itbān bin Mālik رضي الله عنه: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to me in the morning, and a man among us said, “Where is Mâlik bin Ad-Dukhshun?” another man from us replied, “He is a hypocrite who does not love Allah and His Messenger.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t say like that. Haven’t you seen that he said:

Lâ ilâha illallãh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), for Allah’s sake only?” They replied, “Yes”. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Nobody will meet Allah with that saying on the Day of Resurrection, but Allah will save him from the (Hell) Fire.”

6939. Abû ‘Abdur-Rahmân and Hîbbân bin ‘Atiyya had a dispute. Abû ‘Abdur-Rahmân said to Hîbbân, “You know what made your companion (i.e., ‘Alî) dare to shed blood.” Hîbbân said, “Come on! What is that?” ‘Abdur-Rahmân said, “Something I heard him saying.” The other said, “What was it?” ‘Abdur-Rahmân said: ‘Alî said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent for me, Az-Zubair and Abû Marthâd, and all of us were cavalrymen, and said: ‘Proceed to Raudat-Ḥâjj (Abû Salama said that Abû ‘Awâna called it like this, i.e., Ḥâjj[(1)]) where there is a woman carrying a letter from Ḥâṭib bin Abî Balṭâ’a to Al-Mushrikûn (of Makkah). So bring that letter to me’. So we proceeded riding on our horses till we overtook her at the same place of which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had told us. She was travelling on her camel. In that letter Ḥâṭib had written to the Makkans about the proposed attack of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ against them. We asked her: ‘Where is the letter which is with you?’ She replied: ‘I haven’t got any letter.' So we made her camel kneel down and searched her luggage, but we did not find anything. My two companions said: ‘We do not think that she has got a letter.’ I said: ‘We know that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ has not told a lie.’ ” Then ‘Ali took an oath saying, “By Him by Whom one should swear! You shall either bring out the letter or we shall strip off your clothes (to search for the letter).” She then stretched out her hand for her girdle (round her waist) and brought out the paper (letter). They took the letter to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. ‘Umar said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! (Hâtîb) has betrayed Allâh, His Messenger and the believers; let me chop off his neck!” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Hâtîb! What obliged you to do what you have done?” Hâtîb replied, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Why (for what reason) should I not believe in Allâh and His Messenger? But I intended to do the (Makkan) people a favour by virtue of which my family and property may be protected as there is none of your companions but has some of his people (relatives) through whom Allâh protects his family and property.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He has said the truth, therefore, do not say anything to him except good.” ‘Umar again said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! He has betrayed Allâh, His Messenger and the believers; let me chop his neck off!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Isn’t he from those (who fought the battle) of Badr? And what do you know, Allâh might have looked at them (Badr warriors) and said (to them), ‘Do what you like, for I have granted you Paradise?’ ” On that, ‘Umar’s eyes became flooded with tears and he said, “Allâh and His Messenger know better.”
قال أبو عبد الله: خانه أمته، ولكن كذا قال أبو عوانة حاج حاج، ترضيته وهو موضوع وهما يقولون: خانه.
The Statement of Allāh Ta‘ālā:

“Except him who is forced thereto and whose heart is at rest with Faith, but such as open their breast to disbelief, on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment.” (V.16:106)

And His Statement:

“...Except if you indeed fear a danger from them...” (V.3:28)

And Allāh also said:

“...Verily! As for those whom the angels take (in death) while they are wrongdoing themselves (as they stayed among the disbelievers even though emigration was obligatory for them), they (angels) say (to them): ‘In what (condition) were you?’ They reply: ‘We were weak and oppressed on earth... (up to) ... And Allāh is Ever Oft-Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving.” (V.4:97-99)

And Allāh also said:

“(And what is wrong with you that you fight not in the Cause of Allāh), and for those weak, ill-treated and oppressed among men, women, and children, whose cry is: ‘Our Lord! Rescue us from this town whose people are oppressors, and raise for us from You, one who will protect, and raise for us from You, one who will help.’ ” (V.4:75)

Allāh excuses the weak who cannot refuse from leaving what Allāh has enjoined on him. The coerced person cannot be but weak and unable to refuse to do what he is ordered to do.

Al-Hasan said: At-Taqiyya (i.e., speaking against one’s own beliefs lest his opponents put him in great danger) will remain till the Day of Resurrection.” And Ibn ‘Abbās said that if the thieves compelled someone to... divorce his wife, the divorce would not be valid. And Ibn Az-Zubair, Ash-Sha'bi and Al-Hasan gave the same verdict.

The Prophet ﷺ said, “One’s deeds are to be considered according to one’s intentions.”

6940. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ used to invoke Allāh in his Ṣalāt (prayer), “O Allāh! Save ‘Ayyāsh bin Abī Rabī‘a and Salama bin Hishām and Al-Walid bin Al-Walid. O Allāh! Save the weak among the believers. O Allāh! Be hard upon the tribe of Muçlar and inflict years (of drought) upon them like the years (of drought) of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).”

(1) CHAPTER. Whoever preferred to be beaten, killed and humiliated rather than to revert to Kufr (i.e., disbelief).

6941. Narrated Anas: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever possesses the (following) three (qualities) will have the sweetness (delight) of Faith: (1) The one to whom Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ) becomes dearer than anything else; (2) Who loves a person and he loves him only for Allāh’s sake; (3) Who hates to revert to atheism (disbelief) as he hates to be thrown into the (Hell) Fire.”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 16]
6942.Narrated Qais: I heard Sa'id bin Zaid saying, “I have seen myself tied and forced by 'Umar to leave Islam (before 'Umar himself embraced Islam). And if the mountain of Uhud were to collapse for the evil which you people had done to 'Uthman, then Uhud would have the right to do so.” (See Vol. 5, Hadith No.3862)

6943. Narrated Khabbab bin Al-Arat: We complained to Allah’s Messenger (about our state) while he was leaning against his Burda (cloak) in the shade of the Ka'bah. We said, “Will you ask Allah to help us? Will you invoke Allah for us?” He said, “Among those who were before you, a (believer) used to be seized and a pit used to be dug for him and then he used to be placed in it. Then a saw used to be brought and put on his head which would be split into two halves. His flesh might be combed with iron combs and removed from his bones, yet, all that did not cause him to revert from his religion. By Allah! This religion (Islam) will be completed (and triumph) till a rider (traveller) goes from San'a' (the capital of Yemen) to Hadramout, fearing nobody except Allah and the wolf, lest it should trouble his sheep, but you are impatient.” (See Vol. 5, Hadith No.3852)

(2) CHAPTER. Selling (one’s property) under coercion or other circumstances to repay a debt or the like.

6944. Narrated Abü Hurairah: While we were in the mosque, Allah’s Messenger (came out to us and said, “Let us proceed to the Jews.” So we went along with him till we reached Bait-al-Midras [a place where the Taurât (Torah) used to be recited and all the Jews of the town used to gather]. The Prophet ﷺ stood up and addressed them, “O assembly of Jews! Embrace İslâm and you will be safe!” The Jews replied, “O Abul-Qasim! You have conveyed Allah’s Message to us.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “That is what I want (from you).” He repeated his first statement for the second time, and they said, “You have conveyed Allah’s Message, O Abul-Qasim.” Then he said it for the third time and added, “You should know that the earth belongs to Allâh and His Messenger, and I want to exile you from this land, so whoever among you owns some property can sell it, otherwise you should know that the earth belongs to Allâh and His Messenger.” (See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3167).

(3) CHAPTER. Marriage established under coercion is invalid.

(The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:) “...And force not your maids to prostitution, if they desire chastity in order that you may make a gain in the (perishable) goods of this worldly life. But if anyone compels them (to prostitution) then after such compulsion, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful (to those women, i.e., He will forgive them because they have been forced to do this evil action unwillingly).” (V.24:33)

6945. Narrated Khansa’ bint Khidâm Al-Anşâriya that her father gave her in marriage when she was a matron and she disliked that marriage. So she came and (complained) to the Prophet ﷺ, and he ﷺ declared that marriage invalid. (See Vol. 7, Hadith No. 5138)
6946.Narrated 'Aishah: I asked the Prophet, "O Allah's Messenger! Should the women be asked for their consent to their marriage?" He said, "Yes." I said, "A virgin, if asked, feels shy and keeps quiet." He said, "Her silence means her consent."

(4) CHAPTER. If someone gives a slave as a present or sold him under coercion, his deed is invalid.

And some people said, "If the buyer of the slave (sold under coercion) makes a vow involving the slave or makes the slave a Mudabbar (i.e., a slave to be freed after the death of his master), the bargain is valid.

6947. Narrated Jâbir: A man from the Anṣâr made his slave, a Mudabbar (i.e., a slave to be freed after the death of his master). And apart from that slave he did not have any other property. This news reached Allâh's Messenger and he said, "Who will buy that slave from me?" So Nu'aim bin An-Nah-hâm bought him for 800 Dirham. Jâbir added: It was a Coptic (Egyptian) slave who died that year.
5) CHAPTER. (An example of hateful compulsion (i.e., to do a thing against one's will is from being under coercion).

6948.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās regarding the Qur’ānic Verse:

“O you who believe! You are forbidden to inherit women against their will…” (V.4:19)

The custom (in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance) was that if a man died, his relatives used to have the right to inherit his wife; and if one of them wished, he could marry her, or they could marry her to somebody else, or prevent her from marrying if they wished, for they had more right to dispose of her than her own relatives. Therefore this (above mentioned) Verse was revealed concerning this matter.

6) CHAPTER. If a woman is compelled to commit illegal sexual intercourse against her will, then no legal punishment is inflicted upon her, as is indicated in the Statement of Allāh

“...But if anyone compels them (to prostitution), then after such compulsion, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful to those women, i.e., He will forgive them because they have been forced to do this evil action unwillingly.” (V.24:33)

6949. And Ṣaḥīyya bint ‘Ubaid said: “A governmental male-slave tried to seduce a slave-girl from the Khumus of the war booty till he deflowered her by force against her will; therefore 'Umar flogged him according to the law, and exiled him, but he did not flog the female slave because the male-slave had committed illegal sexual intercourse by force, against her will.'

Az-Zuhri said regarding a virgin slave-girl raped by a free man: The judge has to fine the adulterer as much money as is equal to the price of the female-slave and the adulterer has to be flogged (according to the Islamic Law); but if the slave woman is a matron, then, according to the verdict of the Imam, the adulterer is not fined but he has to receive the legal punishment (according to the Islamic Law).

6950. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "(The Prophet) Ibrahim (Abraham) migrated with his wife Sārah till he reached a town where there was a king from amongst the kings, or a tyrant from amongst the tyrants who sent a message to Ibrahim, ordering him to send Sārah to him. So when Ibrahim had sent Sārah, the tyrant got up, intending to do evil with her, but she got up and performed ablution and offered Salāt (prayer) and said, 'O Allah! I have believed in You and in Your Messenger, then do not empower this oppressor over me.' So he (the king) had an epileptic fit (or fell in a state of unconsciousness) and started moving his legs violently.

[See Vol.4, Hadith No.3363).

(7) CHAPTER. The (false) oath of a man that his companion is his brother when he fears that his companion might be killed or harmed (if he did not take such an oath).

In the same way a Muslim should protect his coerced frightened companion and fight on his behalf and not leave him to the oppressor; and if he fights for the sake of an oppressed person, he will not have to give compensation (in case he kills or injures the oppressor).

If somebody is ordered to drink wine or eat of a dead animal or sell his slave or admit to be in debt or present a gift or dissolve a contract (i.e., of marriage) or else his father or brother in Islam would be killed, he has the permission to do what he is ordered to do, for the Prophet said, “A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim.” And some people said, “If somebody is ordered to drink alcohol or eat of a dead animal or otherwise they would kill his son or father or a relative, then he should not do these things because he is not compelled by necessity.” Then this statement was contradicted by the statement, “If a person is told that his father or son would be killed if he refused to sell his slave or admit to be in debt or offer some gift, and he fulfills one of these orders, his deed will be irrevocable by Qiyas(1). Yet, following the principle of Istihsan(2), we say that any bargain, offering of a gift or any contract is invalid (when done under coercion).” Such people differentiate between a relative and other persons without confirming their opinion with anything from the Qur’an or the Sunna of the Prophet.

And the Prophet said, “Abrahim (Ibrahim) said about his wife (Sarah), “She is my sister,” i.e., his sister in Allah’s religion.” And An-Nakha’i said, “If the one who demands that his opponent take an oath which is unjust, the oath will be judged according to the intention of the one who takes it, but if the former is the wronged one, the oath will be judged according to his intentions.”

(2) (Ch.7) Istihsan: i.e., to give a verdict with a proof from one’s heart only with satisfaction and one cannot express it. (It is only Abu Hanifa and his pupils who say so, but the rest of Muslim religious scholars of Sunna, and they are the majority, do not agree to it).

6951. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim. So he should neither oppress him nor hand him over to an oppressor. And whoever fulfilled the needs of his brother, Allâh will fulfil his needs.”

6952. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Help your brother, whether he is an oppressor or an oppressed.” A man asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! I will help him if he is oppressed, but if he is an oppressor, how shall I help him?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “By preventing him from oppressing (others), for that is how to help him.”

(1) CHAPTER. Avoiding the use of tricks.
And everybody will get (the reward) according to his intention in taking oaths and other things.

6953. Narrated 'Umar bin Al-Khattab: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O people! The reward of deeds depends upon the intentions, and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So, whosoever emigrates for Allâh and His Messenger, then his emigration will be for Allâh and His Messenger, and whosoever emigrates to take worldly benefit or for a woman to marry, then his emigration will be for what he emigrated for.” (See H. 1)

(2) CHAPTER. (Tricks) in As-Salât (the prayer).

6954. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh does not accept Salât (prayer) of anyone of you if he does (small) Hadath (passes wind, etc.) till he performs the ablution (anew).”

(3) CHAPTER. (Tricks) in Zakât and (the order that) one should neither divide property into various portions nor collect various portions together in order to avoid Zakât.
6955. Narrated Anas that Abū Bakr wrote for him (regarding) Zakāt regulations which Allāh’s Messenger had made compulsory, and wrote that one should neither collect various portions (of the property) nor divide the property into various portions in order to avoid paying Zakāt.

6956. Narrated Ṭalḥa bin ʿUbaidullāh: A bedouin with unkempt hair came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Tell me what Allāh has enjoined on me as regards ʿAs-Salāt (the prayers).” The Prophet said, “You have to offer (perfectly) the five (compulsory) Salāt (prayers) (in a day and a night i.e., 24 hours), (Iqāmat-as-Salāt) except if you want to offer the Nawāfil (optional) prayers.” The bedouin said, “Tell me what Allāh has enjoined on me as regards ʿAs-Siyām (the fasting).” The Prophet said, “You have to observe fasting during the month of Ramaḍān, except if you want to offer Nawāfil fast.” The bedouin said, “Tell me what Allāh has enjoined on me as regards Zakāt.”

Allāh’s Messenger then told him the Islamic Laws and regulations whereupon the bedouin said, “By Him Who has honoured you, I will not perform any optional deeds of worship and I will not leave anything of what Allāh has enjoined on me.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “He will be successful if he has told the truth (or he will enter Paradise if he said the truth).” And some people said, “The Zakāt for one hundred and twenty camels is two Ḥiqqa, and if the Zakāt payer slaughters the camels intentionally or gives them as a present or plays some other trick in order to avoid the Zakāt, then there is no harm (in it) for him.”

(See H. 46)

6957.Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنہ : Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection, the Kanz (treasure or wealth of which Zakāt has not been paid) of anyone of you will appear in the shape of a Shuja ’ā Aqra’ (bald-headed poisonous male snake with two black spots over its eyes or two poisonous glands in its mouth and its owner will run away from it, but it will follow him and say, ‘I am your Kanz’.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “By Allah, that snake will keep on following him until he stretches out his hand and let the snake swallow it.” (See H. 1403)

6958. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ added, “If the owner of camels does not pay their Zakāt, then, on the Day of Resurrection those camels will come to him and will strike his face with their hooves.”
Some people said: Concerning a man who has camels, and is afraid that Zakāt will be due so he sells those camels for similar camels or for sheep or cows or money one day before Zakāt becomes due, in order to avoid payment of their Zakāt cunningly! “He has not to pay anything.” The same scholar said, “If one pays Zakāt of his camels one day or one year prior to the end of the year (by the end of which Zakāt becomes due), his Zakāt will be valid.”
[See Fath Al-Bari].

6959. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda Al-Anṣārī sought the verdict of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ regarding a vow made by his mother who had died before fulfilling it. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Fulfil it on her behalf.”

Some people said, “If the number of camels reaches twenty, then their owner has to pay four sheep as Zakât; and if their owner gives them as a gift or sells them in order to escape the payment of Zakât cunningly before the completion of a year, then he is not to pay anything, and if he slaughters them and then dies, then no Zakât is to be taken from his property.”

(4) CHAPTER. Tricks in marriages.

6960. Narrated ‘Abdulläh Narrated: Nāfi’ that Allah’s Messenger forbade Ash-Shighâr. I asked Nāfi’, “What is Ash-Shighâr?” He said, “It is to marry the daughter of a man and marrying one’s daughter to that man (at the same time) without Mahr (in both cases); or to marry the sister of a man and marry one’s own sister to that man without Mahr.” Some people said, “If one, by a trick, marries on the basis of Shighâr, the marriage is valid but its condition is illegal.”

The same scholar said regarding Al-Mut’a, “The marriage is invalid and its condition is illegal.”

Some others said, “The Mut’a and the Shighâr are permissible but the condition is illegal.”

6961. Narrated Muhammad bin ‘Ali: ‘Ali was told that Ibn ‘Abbâs did not see

(1) (H.6961) Al-Mut’a: See the glossary.
any harm in the Mut’a marriage. ‘Ali said, “Allāh’s Messenger forbade the Mut’a marriage on the day of the battle of Khaibar and he forbade the eating of donkey’s meat.” Some people said, “If one, by a tricky way, marries temporarily, his marriage is illegal.” Others said, “The marriage is valid but its condition is illegal.”

(5) CHAPTER. What tricks are disliked in bargains. One should not prevent others from watering their animals with the surplus of his water in order to prevent them from benefiting by the surplus grass.

6962. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “One should not prevent others from watering their animals with the surplus of his water in order to prevent them from benefiting by the surplus grass.”

(6) CHAPTER. What is hated as regards At-Tanajush\(^1\).

6963. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade the practice of An-Najsh\(^1\).

(7) CHAPTER. What is forbidden as regards cheating in bargains.

---

\(^{1}\) (Ch.6) At-Tanajush or Najsh means the trick of offering a very high price for a thing to allure somebody else to buy it although it is not worth such a high price.
Ayyūb said, “They cheat Allāh as if they were cheating a human being. It would be less repulsive for me if such people took openly what they take deceitfully.”

6964. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: A man mentioned to the Prophet ﷺ that he had always been cheated in bargains. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whenever you do bargain, say, ‘No cheating’.”

(8) CHAPTER. What is forbidden as regards the playing of tricks by the guardian of an attractive orphan-girl, and he does not pay her, her full Mahr.

6965. Narrated ‘Urwa that he asked ‘Aīshah رضي الله عنها regarding the Verse:
“If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan-girls, then marry (other) women of your choice...” (V.4:3)

‘Aīshah رضي الله عنها said, “It is about an orphan-girl under the custody of her guardian who being attracted by her wealth and beauty wants to marry her with Mahr less than other women of her status. So such guardians were forbidden to marry them unless they treat them justly by giving them their full Mahr. Then the people sought the verdict of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ for such cases, whereupon Allah revealed:
“They ask your legal instruction concerning women...” (V.4:127)

(The subnarrator then mentioned the Hadith.)

(9) CHAPTER. If somebody kidnaps a slave-girl and then claims that she is dead whereupon he is obliged by law to pay the price of the dead slave-girl, but then her master finds her (alive), then she is for him and the money is to be returned and should not be regarded as a price.

Some people said, “The slave-girl is for the kidnapper because the previous master has taken the price.” In this there is a trick for whoever desires the slave-girl of another man who refuses to sell her, so he kidnaps her and tells her master that she is dead and when her master takes her price, the kidnapper then has a legal right to have the slave-girl of somebody else. The Prophet ﷺ said, “(O Muslims!) Your properties are sacred to each other, and for every treacherous betrayer (perfidious person) there will be a flag (to expose him) on the Day of Resurrection.”

6966.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “For every treacherous betrayer (perfidious person) there will be a flag by which he will be recognized on the Day of Resurrection.”

[See Hadith No.7111].

(10) CHAPTER.

6967. Narrated Umm Salama ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am only a human being, and you people have disputes. May be someone amongst you can present his case in a more eloquent and convincing manner than the other, and I give my judgement in his favour according to what I hear. Beware! If ever I give (by error) somebody something of his brother’s right then he should not take it as I have only given him a piece of (Hell) Fire.” (See Vol.3, Hadith No.2458)

(11) CHAPTER. (To play tricks) in marriage.
6968. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “A virgin should not be married till she is asked for her consent; and the matron should not be married till she is asked whether she agrees to marry or not.” It was asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! How will she (the virgin) express her consent?” He said, “By keeping silent.”

Some people said, “If a virgin is not asked for her consent and she is not married, and then a man, by playing a trick presents two false witnesses that he has married her with her consent and the judge confirms his marriage as a true one, and the husband knows that the witnesses were false ones, then there is no harm for him to consummate his marriage with her and the marriage is regarded as valid.”

6969. Narrated Al-Qāsim: A woman from the offspring of Ja’far was afraid lest her guardian marry her (to somebody) against her will. So she sent for two elderly men from the Anṣār, ‘Abdur-Rahmān and Mujammī’, the two sons of Jariya, and they said to her, “Don’t be afraid, for Khansā’ bint Khidām was given by her father in marriage against her will, then the Prophet ﷺ cancelled that marriage.”

[See Hadith No.6945]

6970. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A lady-slave should not be given in marriage until she is... consulted, and a virgin should not be given in marriage until her permission is taken.” The people said, “How will she express her permission?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “By keeping silent (when asked her consent).”

Some people said, “If a man, by playing a trick, presents two false witnesses before the judge to testify that he has married a matron with her consent and the judge confirms his marriage, and the husband is sure that he has never married her (before), then such a marriage will be considered as a legal one and he may live with her as a husband.”

6971. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is essential to have the consent of a virgin (for the marriage). I said, “A virgin feels shy (how will she give her consent)” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Her silence means her consent.”

Some people said, “If a man falls in love with an orphan slave-girl or a virgin and she refuses (to marry him) and then he plays a trick by bringing two false witnesses to testify that he has married her, and then she attains the age of puberty and agrees to marry him and the judge accepts the false witness and the husband knows that the witnesses were false ones, he may consummate his marriage.”

(12) CHAPTER. What is hated regarding the trick played by a woman with her husband and the other wives of her husband and what was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ in this respect.

6972. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to like sweet edible things and also used to like honey, and whenever he finished the 'Asr prayer, he used to visit his wives and stay with them. Once, he visited Ḥafṣa and remained with her longer than the period he used to stay, so I enquired about it. It was said to me, "A woman from her tribe gave her a leather-skin containing honey as a present, and she gave some of it to Allāh's Messenger to drink."

I said, "By Allāh, we will play a trick on him." So I mentioned the story to Sauda (the wife of the Prophet) and said to her, "When he enters upon you, he will come near to you whereupon you should say to him, 'O Allāh's Messenger! Have you eaten Maghāfīr?' He will say, 'No.' Then you say to him, 'What is this bad smell?' And it would be very hard on Allāh's Messenger that a bad smell should be found on his body. He will say, 'Ḥafṣa has given me a drink of honey.' Then you should say to him, 'Its bees must have sucked from the Al-'Urfū'a (a foul smelling flower).'

So when the Prophet entered upon Sauda, Sauda said, "By Him except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, I was about to say to him what you had told me to say while he was still at the gate, because of fear from you. But when Allāh's Messenger came near to me, I said to him, 'O Allāh's Messenger! Have you eaten Maghāfīr?' He replied, 'No.' I said, 'What about this smell?' He said, 'Ḥafṣa has given me a drink of honey.' I said, 'Its bees must have sucked Al-'Urfū'a from.' When he entered upon me, I told him the same and when he entered upon Ṣafīyya, she, too, told him the same. So when he visited Ḥafṣa again, she said to him, "O Allāh's Messenger! Shall I give you a drink of it (honey)?” He said, “I have no desire for it.” Sauda said, “Subhān Allāh! We have deprived him of it (honey).” I said to her, “Be quiet!”

(13) CHAPTER. What is hated as regards playing tricks in order to run away from the disease of plague.

6973.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Āmir bin Rabī‘a: ‘Umar bin Al-Khāṭtāb left for Shām, and when he reached a place called Sargh, he came to know that there was an outbreak of an epidemic (of plague) in Shām. Then ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf told him that Allāh’s Messenger ḫ said, “If you hear the news of an outbreak of an epidemic (plague) in a certain place, do not enter that place; and if the epidemic (plague) breaks out in a place while you are present in it, do not leave that place to escape from the epidemic.” So ‘Umar returned from Sargh.

6974. Narrated ‘Āmir bin Sa‘d bin Abī Waqqās that he heard Usāma bin Zaid speaking to Sa‘d, saying, “Allāh’s Messenger ḫ mentioned the plague and said, ‘It is a means of punishment with which some nations were punished and some of it has remained, and it appears now and then. So whoever hears that there is an outbreak of plague in some land, he should not go to that land, and if the plague breaks out in the land where one is already present, one should not leave that land, to escape from it (plague).

(14) CHAPTER. (Tricks played in cases of) gift-giving and pre-emption.

And some people said, “If some person gave to another person one hundred Dirham or more as a gift and then that amount remained with the latter for years, and then the former took it back from the latter by means of a trick, then neither of the two persons would have to pay Zakât (of that amount). In this case the giver has gone against the orders of Allah’s Messenger [as regards (the taking back of) the gift, but he has rendered the payment of Zakât unnecessary.

6975. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The one who takes back his gift is like a dog swallowing its own vomit, and we (believers) should not act according to this bad example.”

6976. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet ﷺ has decreed that pre-emption is valid in all cases where the real estate concerned has not been divided, but if the boundaries are established and the ways are made, then there is no pre-emption. A man said, “Pre-emption is only for the neighbour,” and then he makes invalid what he has confirmed. He said, “If someone wants to buy a house and being afraid that the neighbour (of the house) may buy it through pre-emption, he buys one share out of one hundred shares of the house and then buys the rest of the house, then the neighbour can only have the right of pre-emption for the first share but not for the rest of the house; and the buyer may play such a trick in this case.”

6977. Narrated ‘Amr bin Ash-Sharid: Al-Miswar bin Makhrama came and put his hand on my shoulder and I accompanied him to Sa’d. Abū Rāfi’ said to Al-Miswar, “Won’t you order this (i.e., Sa’d) to buy my house which is in my yard?” Sa’d said, “I will not offer more than four hundred in instalments over a fixed period.” Abū Rāfi’ said, “I was offered five hundred cash but I refused. Had I not heard the Prophet saying, ‘A neighbour is more entitled to receive the care of his neighbour,’ I would not have sold it to you.” The narrator said to Sufyān: Ma’mar did not say so. Sufyān said, “But he did say so to me.”

Some people said, “If someone wants to sell a house and deprived somebody of the right of pre-emption, he has the right to play a trick to render the pre-emption invalid. And that is by giving the house to the buyer as a present and marking its boundaries and giving it to him. The buyer then gives the seller one-thousand Dirham as compensation in which case the pre-emptor...
loses his right of pre-emption."

6978. Narrated 'Amr bin Ash-Sharid:
Abū Rāfī' said that Sa'd offered him four hundred Mithqāl of gold for a house. Abū Rāfī' said, "If I had not heard Allah's Messenger saying, 'A neighbour has more right to be taken care of by his neighbour,' then I would not have given it to you." Some people said, "If one has bought a portion of a house and wants to cancel the right of preemption, he may give it as a present to his little son and he will not be obliged to take an oath."

(15) CHAPTER. The playing of tricks by an official person in order to obtain presents.

6979. Narrated Abū Humaid As-Sā'īdī:
Allāh's Messenger appointed a man called Ibn Al-Lutabiya to collect the Zakāt from Banī Sulaim's tribe. When he returned, the Prophet called him to account. He said (to the Prophet), "This is your money (collected from Zakāt), and this has been given to me as a gift." On that, Allāh's Messenger said, "Why didn't you stay in your father's and mother's house to see whether you will be given gifts or not if you are telling the truth?" Then the Prophet addressed us, and after praising and glorifying Allāh, he said, "'Ammā Ba'dū, I employ a man from among you to manage some affair of what Allâh has put under my custody, and then he comes to me and says, ‘This is your money, and this has been given to me as a gift.’ Why didn’t he stay in his father’s and mother’s home to see whether he will be given gifts or not? By Allâh, not anyone of you takes a thing unlawfully but he will meet Allâh on the Day of Resurrection, carrying that thing. I do not want to see any of you carrying a grunting camel or a mooing cow or a bleating sheep on meeting Allâh.”

Then the Prophet ﷺ raised both his hands till the whiteness of his armpits became visible, and he said, “O Allâh! Haven’t I conveyed (Your Message)?”

The narrator added: My eyes witnessed and my ears heard (that Hadîth).

6980. Narrated Abû Râfi’: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The neighbour has more right to be taken care of by his neighbour (than anyone else).” Some men said, “If one wants to buy a house for 20,000 Dirham then there is no harm to play a trick to deprive somebody of pre-emption by buying it (just on paper) with 20,000 Dirham but paying to the seller only 9,999 Dirham in cash and then agree with the seller to pay only one Dinâr in cash for the rest of the price (i.e., 10,001 Dirham). If the pre-emptor offers 20,000 Dirham for the house, he can buy it otherwise he has no right to buy it (by this trick he got out of pre-emption). If the house proves to belong to somebody else other than the seller, the buyer should take back from the seller what he has paid, i.e., 9,999 Dirham and one Dinâr, because if the house proves to belong to somebody else, so the whole bargain (deal) is unlawful. If the buyer finds a defect in the house and it does not belong to somebody other than the seller, the buyer may return it and receive 20,000 Dirham (instead of 9,999 Dirham plus one Dinár) which he actually paid.” Abū ‘Abdullāh said, “So that man allows (some people) the playing of tricks amongst the Muslims (although) the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘In dealing with Muslims one should not sell them sick (animals) or bad things or stolen things’.”

6981. Narrated ‘Amr bin Ash-Sharīd: Abū ʿĀfī sold a house to Saʿd bin Mālik for four hundred Mithqāl of gold, and said, “If I had not heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘The neighbour has more right to be taken care of by his neighbour (than anyone else),’ then I would not have sold it to you.”
(1) CHAPTER. The commencement of the Divine Revelation to Allah’s Messenger was in the form of good (righteous) dreams.

6982. Narrated ‘Aishah: The commencement of the (Divine) Revelation to Allah’s Messenger was in the form of good righteous (true) dreams which came true like bright daylight. (And then the love of seclusion was bestowed upon him). He used to go in seclusion (in the cave of) Ḥirā where he used to worship (Allah Alone) continuously for many (days and) nights. He used to take with him the journey-food for that (stay) and then come back to (his wife) Khadija to take his food likewise again (for another period to stay), till suddenly the Truth descended upon him while he was in the cave of Ḥirā. The angel came to him in it and asked him to read. The Prophet replied, “I do not know how to read.” (The Prophet added), “The angel caught me (forcefully) and pressed me so hard that I could not bear it anymore. He then released me and again asked me to read, and I replied, ‘I do not know how to read.’ Thereupon he caught me again and pressed me a second time till I could not bear it anymore. He then released me and asked me again to read, but again I replied, ‘I do not know how to read (or, what shall I read?).’ Thereupon he caught me for the third time and pressed me and then released me and said, ‘Read! In the Name of your Lord, Who has created (all that exists). Has created man from a clot. Read! And your Lord is Most Generous… upto… that which he knew not.’” (V.96:5) Then Allah’s Messenger returned with the Revelation, and with his heart beating severely till he entered upon Khadija and said, “Cover me! Cover me!” They covered him till his fear was over and then he said, “O Khadija, what is wrong with me?” Then he told her everything that had happened and said, “I fear that something may happen to me.” Khadija said, “Never! By Allah! But have the glad tidings, for by Allah, Allah will never disgrace you as you keep good relations with your kith and kin, speak the truth, help the poor and the destitute, serve your guests generously and assist the deserving, calamity-afflicted ones.” Khadija then accompanied him to (her cousin) Waraqa bin Naufal bin Asad bin ‘Abdul-Uzza bin Qusai. Waraqa was the son of her paternal uncle, i.e., her father’s brother, who during the pre-Islamic period became a Christian and used to write the Arabic writing and used to write of the Gospel in Arabic as much as Allah wished him to write. He was an old man and had lost his eyesight. Khadija said to him, “O my cousin! Listen to what your nephew has to say.” Waraqa asked, “O my nephew! What have you seen?” The Prophet described whatever he had seen. Waraqa said, “This is the same Nāmūs [i.e., Jibril (Gabriel), whom Allah had sent to Musa (Moses). I wish I were young and could live up to the time when your people would turn you out.” Allah’s Messenger asked, “Will they drive me out,” Waraqa replied in the affirmative and said: “Never did a man come with something similar to what you have brought but was treated with hostility. If I should remain alive till the day (when you will be turned out) then I would support you strongly.” But after a few days Waraqa died and the Divine Revelation was also paused for a while and the Prophet became so sad as we have heard that he intended several times to throw himself from the tops of high mountains and everytime he went up the top of a mountain in order to throw himself down, Jibril would appear before him and say, “O Muḥammad! You are indeed Allah’s Messenger in truth”, whereupon his heart would become quiet and he would calm down and would return home. And whenever the period of the coming of the Revelation used to become long, he would do as before, but when he used to reach the top of a mountain, Jibril would appear before him and say to him what he had said before.

[Ibn ‘Abbās said regarding the meaning of ‘Cleaver of the daybreak’ (V.6:96), that Al-Isbāḥ means the light of the sun during the day and the light of the moon at night].

(2) CHAPTER. The dreams of righteous people (faithful believers)

And the Statement of Allah [nejil gathering:]

“Indeed Allah shall fulfil the true vision which He showed to His Messenger [i.e., the Prophet saw a dream that he has entered Makkah along with his Companions having their (head) hair shaved and cut short] in very truth! Certainly, you shall enter Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarām if Allah wills, secure (some) having your heads shaved, and (some) having your head hair cut short, having no fear. He (Allah) knew what you knew not, and He granted besides that, a near victory. (V.48:27)

6983. Narrated Anas bin Malik [nejil gathering: Allāh’s Messenger said, “A good dream (that comes true) of a righteous man is one of forty-six parts of An-Nubuwwa (Prophethood).”]
(3) CHAPTER. Good dreams are from Allâh.

6984. Narrated Abû Qatâda: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A true good dream is from Allâh, and a bad dream is from Satan.”

6985. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you sees a dream that he likes, then it is from Allâh, and he should thank Allâh for it and narrate it to others; but if he sees something else, i.e., a dream that he dislikes, then it is from Satan, and he should seek refuge with Allâh from its evil, and he should not mention it to anybody, for it will not harm him.”

(4) CHAPTER. “A righteous good dream that comes true is one of the forty-six parts of An-Nubuwwa (Prophethood).”

6986. Narrated Abû Qatâda: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A righteous good dream that comes true is from Allâh, and a bad dream is from Satan, so if anyone of you sees a bad dream, he should seek refuge with Allâh from Satan and should spit on the left, for the bad dream will not harm him.”
6987. Narrated ʿUbāda bin As-Ṣāmit: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A (good) dream of a faithful believer is a part of the forty-six parts of An-Nubuwwa (Prophethood).”

6989. Narrated Abū Saʿīd Al-Khudrī: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “A good dream is a part of the forty-six parts of An-Nubuwwa (Prophethood).”
(5) CHAPTER. Al-Mubashshirāt (glad tidings).

(6) CHAPTER. The vision of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“(Remember) when Yūsuf (Joseph) said to his father, ‘O my father! Verily, I saw in a dream eleven stars and the sun and the moon; — I saw them prostrating themselves to me.’ He (the father) said, ‘O my son! Relate not your vision to your brothers, lest they arrange a plot against you. Verily! Shaitān (Satan) is to man an open enemy.’ Thus will your Lord choose you and teach you the interpretation of dreams (and other things) and perfect His Favour on you and on the offspring of Ya'qūb (Jacob), as He perfected it on your fathers Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and Išhāq (Isaac) aforetime! Verily, your Lord is All-Knowing, All-Wise.” (V.12: 4-6)

And also the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“...O my father! This is the interpretation of my dream aforetime. My Lord has made it come true! He was indeed good to me, when He took me out of prison and brought you (all here) out of the bedouin-life after Shaitān (Satan) had sown enmity between me and my brothers. Certainly, my Lord is the Most Courteous and Kind unto whom He wills. Truly He!
Only He is the All-Knowing, the All-Wise.
My Lord! You have indeed bestowed on me of the sovereignty, and taught me the interpretation of dreams. The (only) Creator of the heavens and the earth, You are my Wali (Protector, Helper, Supporter, Guardian, God, Lord) in this world and in the Hereafter; cause me to die (as a Muslim) (the one submitting to Your Will), and join me with the righteous.” (V.12:100,101)

(7) CHAPTER. The dream (vision) of Ibrâhim (Abraham) عليه السلام.

And the Statement of Allah تعالى:
“And, when (his son) was old enough to walk with him, he [Ibrâhim (Abraham)] said, ‘O my son! I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you (offer you in sacrifice to Allah), so look what do you think?’ He said, ‘O my father! Do that which you are commanded, In shã, Allah you shall find me of As-Sâbirün (the patient).’ Then, when they had both submitted themselves (to the Will of Allah) and he had laid him prostrate on his forehead (or on the side of his forehead for slaughter), and We called out to him, ‘O Ibrâhim! You have fulfilled the dream!”
Verily! Thús do We reward the Muhsinûn good-doers).” (V.37: 102-105)

(8) CHAPTER. If a number of persons have the same dream.

6991. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما:
Some people were shown the Night of Qadr as being in the last seven nights (of the month of Ramaän). The Prophet صلّی الله علیه الموانا ابی کعبّة:
‘Othmân ibn ‘Affân رضي الله عٰن
مُجَاهِدٌ: أَسْلَمْتُ سَلَّمََْا مَا أَيْرَاهَا بِهِ. وَنَتَّلَهُ: وَضَعَ
َحِجَّةً بِالْأَرْضِ. '
(9) CHAPTER. The dreams of prisoners, evil-doers and Mushrikūn.

The Statement of Allah:

"And there entered with him two young men in the prison. One of them said: 'Verily, I saw myself (in a dream) pressing wine.' The other said: 'Verily, I saw myself (in a dream) carrying bread on my head and birds were eating thereof.' (They said): 'Inform us of the interpretation of this. Verily, we think you are one of the Muhsinūn (doers of good).

He said: 'No food will come to you (in wakefulness or in dream) as your provision, but I will inform (in wakefulness) its interpretation before it (the food) comes. This is of that which my Lord has taught me. Verily, I have abandoned the religion of a people that believe not in Allah and are disbelievers in the Hereafter (i.e., the Kan'ānyūn of Egypt who were polytheists and used to worship sun and other false deities)."

'And I have followed the religion of my fathers, Ibrāhīm (Abraham), Ishaq (Isaac) and Ya'qūb (Jacob), and never could we attribute any partners whatsoever to Allah. This is from the Grace of Allah to us and to mankind, but most men thank not (i.e., they neither believe in Allah, nor worship Him).

'O two companions of the prison! Are many different lords (gods) better or Allah, the One, the Irresistible?'

'You do not worship besides Him but only names which you have named (forged), you and your fathers, for which Allah has sent down no authority. The command (or the judgement) is for none but Allah. He has commanded that you worship none but Him (i.e., His Monotheism), that is the (true) straight religion, but most men know not.'

'O two companions of the prison! As for one of you, he (as a servant) will pour out wine for his lord (king or master) to drink; and as for the other, he will be crucified and birds will eat from his head. Thus is the case judged concerning which you both did inquire.'

And he said to the one whom he knew to be saved: 'Mention me to your lord (i.e., your king, so as to get me out of the prison).'

But Shaitân (Satan) made him forget to mention it to his lord [or Shaitân made (Yúsuf) to forget the remembrance of his Lord (Allāh) as to ask for His Help, instead of others]. So (Yúsuf) stayed in prison a few (more) years.

And the king (of Egypt) said: 'Verily, I saw (in a dream) seven fat cows, whom seven lean ones were devouring — and seven green ears of corn, and (seven) others dry. O notables! Explain to me my dream, if it be that you can interpret dreams.'

They said: 'Mixed up false dreams, and we are not skilled in the interpretation of dreams.'

Then the man who was released (one of the two who were in prison), now at length remembered and said: 'I will tell you its interpretation, so send me forth.'

(He said): 'O Yúsuf, the man of truth! Explain to us (the dream) of seven fat cows whom seven lean ones were devouring, and of seven green ears of corn, and (seven) others dry, that I may return to the people, and that they may know.'

(Yúsuf) said: 'For seven consecutive years, you shall sow as usual and that (the harvest) which you reap you shall leave in ears, (all) — except a little of it which you may eat.'
‘Then will come after that seven hard years, which will devour what you have laid by in advance for them, (all) except a little of that which you have guarded (stored).’

‘Then thereafter will come a year in which people will have abundant rain and in which they will press (wine and oil).’

And the king said: ‘Bring him to me.’ But when the messenger came to him, (Yūsuf) said: ‘Return to your lord . . . ’” (V.12:36-50)

6992. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If I stayed in prison as long as (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph) stayed and then the messenger (1) came, I would respond to his call (to go out of the prison).”

6993. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard the Prophet saying, “Whoever sees me in a dream will see me in his wakefulness (2), and Shaitān (Satan) cannot impersonate (imitate) me in shape.”

Abū ‘Abdullāh said, “Ibn Sīrīn said, ‘Only if he sees the Prophet in his (real) shape.’” (See H. 110)

(1) (H.6992) The message of the king of Egypt came to Prophet Yūsuf (Joseph) to free him from the prison but Prophet Yūsuf refused to go out of the prison until his innocence was declared by the confession of the wife of ‘Azīz. See the Qur’ān (V.12:36-50).

(2) (H.6993) Wakefulness, i.e., in the Hereafter.
6994. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “Whoever has seen me in a dream, then no doubt, he has seen me, for Shaitan (Satan) cannot impersonate (imitate) my shape. And a (good) dream of a believer is one of the forty-six parts of An-Nubuwwa (Prophethood).”

6995. Narrated Abü Qatâda: The Prophet said, “A righteous good dream is from Allâh, and a bad dream is from Satan. So whoever has seen (in a dream) something he disliked, then he should spit without saliva, thrice on his left and seek refuge with Allâh from Satan, for it will not harm him, and Satan cannot appear in my shape.”

6996. Narrated Abü Qatâda: The Prophet said, “Whoever sees me (in a dream) then he indeed has seen the truth.”

6997. Narrated Abü Sa‘îd Al-Khûdri: The Prophet said, “Whoever sees me (in a dream) then he indeed has seen the truth, as Satan cannot appear in my shape.”
CHAPTER. Night dreams.

This has been narrated by Samura.

6998. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
The Prophet said, “I have been given the keys of eloquent speech; and given victory with awe (cast into the hearts of the enemy), and while I was sleeping last night, the keys of the treasures of the earth were brought to me till they were put in my hand.”

Abū Hurairah added: Allāh’s Messenger left (this world) and now you people are shifting those treasures from place to place.

6999. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar:
Allāh’s Messenger said, “I saw myself (in a dream) near the Ka’bah last night, and I saw a man with whitish red complexion, the best you may see amongst men of that complexion, having long hair reaching his earlobes which was the best hair of its sort, and he had combed his hair and water was dropping from it, and he was performing the Tawâf around the Ka’bah while he was leaning on two men, or on the shoulders of two men. I asked, ‘Who is this man?’ Somebody replied, ‘(He is) Messiah, son of Maryam (Mary).’ Then I saw another man with very curly hair, blind in the right eye which looked like a protruding out grape. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ Somebody replied, ‘(He is) Al-Masih-Ad-Dajjal.’”
7000. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas, about a man who came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “I was shown in a dream last night…” Then Ibn ‘Abbas mentioned the narration. (See H. 7046)

7001. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger used to visit Umm Harām bint Milhān, and she was the wife of ‘Ubāda bin A-Samīt. One day the Prophet visited her and she provided him with food and started looking for lice in his head. Then Allah’s Messenger slept and afterwards woke up smiling.

(1) (H.7001) The Prophet was very clean and he used to take a bath daily, even twice daily or more and it is not logical that he could have lice in his head. Searching for lice does not necessarily mean that there were any.
Umm Harām asked, “What makes you smile, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “Some of my followers were presented before me in my dream as fighters in Allah’s Cause, sailing in the middle of the sea like kings on the thrones, or like kings sitting on their thrones.” (The narrator Ishāq is not sure as to which expression was correct). Umm Harām added: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Invoke Allah, to make me one of them.” So Allah’s Messenger invoked Allah for her and then laid his head down (and slept again). Then he woke up smiling (again). (Umm Harām added): I said, “What makes you smile, O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “Some people of my followers were presented before me (in a dream) as fighters in Allah’s Cause.” He said the same as he had said before. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Invoke Allah to make me from them.” He said, “You are among the first ones.” Then Umm Harām sailed over the sea during the caliphate of Mu’āwiyah bin Abū Sufyān, and she fell down from her riding animal after coming ashore, and died.

(13) The dreams of women.

Narrated Khārijah bin Zaid bin Thābit: Umm Al-‘Ala’, an Anṣārī woman who had given Bai’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger ụọ told me: The Muhājirūn (emigrants) were distributed amongst us by drawing lots, and we got ‘Uthmān bin Ma’ān in our share. We made him stay with us in our house. Then he suffered from a disease which proved fatal. When he died and was given a bath and was shrouded in his clothes. Alläh’s Messenger  said, (addressing the dead body), “O Abä As-Sä‘ib! May Alläh be Merciful to you! I testify that Alläh has honoured you.” Alläh’s Messenger  said, “How do you know that Alläh has honoured him?” I replied, “Let my father be sacrificed for you, O Alläh’s Messenger! On whom else shall Alläh bestow His Honour?” Alläh’s Messenger  said, “As for him, by Alläh, death has come to him. By Alläh, I wish him all good (from Alläh). By Alläh, in spite of the fact that I am Alläh’s Messenger, I do not know what Alläh will do to me.” Umm Al-‘Alä’ added, “By Alläh, I will never attest the righteousness of anybody after that.”

7004. Narrated Az-Zuhri regarding the above narration: The Prophet  said, “I do not know what Alläh will do to him (‘Uthmän bin Maz‘ûn).” Umm Al-‘Alä’ said, “I felt very sorry for that, and then I slept and saw in a dream a flowing spring for ‘Uthmän bin Maz‘ûn, and told Alläh’s Messenger  of that, and he said, ‘That flowing spring symbolizes his good deeds.’ ”

(14) A bad dream is from Satan, and if anyone has a bad dream, then he should spit on his left and seek refuge with Alläh .

7005. Abû Qatâda Al-Anšârî, a

(H.7003) This was said by the (Prophet ) in general but he knew definitely that he will be in Paradise; or it is a mistake in the conveying of the wording of the Hadîth (See Hadîth No.7004). So one should not say about the piety of anybody and leave it for Alläh to decide about that.
Companion of the Prophet and one of his cavalrymen narrated: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “A good dream is from Allah, and a bad dream is from Satan; so, if anyone of you had a bad dream which he disliked, then he should spit on his left and seek refuge with Allah from it, for it will not harm him.”

(15) CHAPTER. The milk (seen in a dream).

7006.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “While I was sleeping, I was given a bowl full of milk (in a dream), and I drank of it (to my fill) until I noticed its wetness coming out of my nails, and then I gave the rest of it to ‘Umar.” The persons sitting around him asked, “What have you interpreted (about the dream), O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “(It is religious) knowledge.”

(16) CHAPTER. (If one sees in a dream) that milk is flowing in his limbs or nails.

7007. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, I was given a bowl full of milk (in the dream) and I drank from it (to my fill) till I noticed its wetness coming out of my limbs. Then I gave the rest of it to ‘Umar bin Al-Khattãb.” The persons sitting around him asked, “What have you interpreted (about the dream), O Allah’s Messenger?”
He said, “(It is religious) knowledge.”

7008. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khūdri: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While I was sleeping, some people were displayed before me (in a dream). They were wearing shirts, some of which were merely covering their breasts, and some a bit longer. Then there passed before me, ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb wearing a shirt he was dragging (on the ground behind him).” They (the people) asked, “What have you interpreted (about the dream), O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “The religion.”

(18) CHAPTER. What is said as regards dragging (a long shirt) on the ground in a dream.

7009. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khūdri: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “While I was sleeping, I saw (in a dream) the people being displayed before me, wearing shirts, some of which (were so short that it) reached as far as their breasts and some reached below that. Then ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb was displayed before me and he was wearing a shirt which he was dragging
They asked, “What have you interpreted (about the dream), O Allah’s Messenger?” He said, “The religion.”

(19) CHAPTER. (The seeing of) green colour in a dream, and (the seeing of) a green garden (in a dream).

7010. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubâda: I was sitting in a gathering in which there was Sa’d bin Mâlik and Ibn ‘Umar. ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm passed in front of them and they said, “This man is from the people of Paradise.” I said to ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm, “They said so-and-so.” He replied, “Subhân Allah! They ought not to have said things of which they have no knowledge, but I saw (in a dream) that a post was fixed in a green garden. At the top of the post there was a handhold and below it there was a servant. I was asked to climb (the post). So I climbed it till I caught hold of the handhold.” Then I narrated this dream to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “‘Abdullâh will die while still holding the firm reliable handhold (i.e., Islâm).”
(20) CHAPTER. Removing the veil of a woman in a dream.

7011. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, "You were shown to me twice in (my) dream. Behold, a man was carrying you in a silken piece of cloth and said to me, 'She is your wife, so uncover her,' and behold, it was you. I would then say (to myself), 'If this is from Allah, then it must happen.'"

(21) CHAPTER. The seeing of silken garments in a dream.

7012. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, "You were shown to me twice (in my dream) before I married you. I saw an angel carrying you in a silken piece of cloth, and I said to him, 'Uncover (her),' and behold, it was you. I said (to myself), 'If this is from Allah, then it must happen.' Then you were shown to me, the angel carrying you in a silken piece of cloth, and I said (to him), 'Uncover (her),' and behold, it was you. I said (to myself), 'If this is from Allah, then it must happen.'"

(22) CHAPTER. The seeing of keys in one's hand (in a dream).

7013. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, "I have..." been sent with Jawâmi‘ Al-Kalim (i.e., the shortest expression carrying the widest meanings), and I was made victorious with awe (cast into the hearts of the enemy), and while I was sleeping, (in my dream I saw) the keys of the treasures of the earth were brought to me and were put in my hand.”

Muhammad said, Jawâmi‘Al-Kalim means that Allah expresses in one or two Statements or thereabouts the numerous matters that used to be written in the books revealed before (the coming of) the Prophet ﷺ.

(23) CHAPTER. Taking hold or handhold or a ring.

7014. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm : (In a dream) I saw myself in a garden, and there was a pillar in the middle of the garden, and there was a handhold at the top of the pillar. I was asked to climb it. I said, “I cannot.” Then a servant came and lifted up my clothes and I climbed (the pillar), and then got hold of the handhold, and I woke up while still holding it. I narrated that to the Prophet ﷺ who said, “The garden symbolizes the garden of Islam, and the handhold is the firm Islâmic handhold which indicates that you will be adhering firmly to Islam until you die.”
24) CHAPTER. (To see) a pole of a tent under one's cushion or pillow (in a dream).

25) CHAPTER. (Seeing) Al-Istabraq (a kind of thick silk) (in a dream) and entering Paradise.

7015. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: I saw in a dream a piece of silken cloth in my hand, and in whatever direction in Paradise I waved it, it flew, carrying me there. I narrated this (dream) to (my sister) Hafsa.

7016. [H. 7015 contd.] And she told it to the Prophet, who said, (to Hafsa), “Indeed, your brother is a righteous man,” or, “Indeed, ‘Abdullãh is a righteous man.”

26) CHAPTER. (Seeing) oneself fettered in a dream.

7017. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “When the Day of Resurrection approaches, the dreams of a believer will hardly fail to come true, and a dream of a believer is one of the forty-six parts of An-Nubuwâ’ (Prophethood) and whatever belongs to An-Nubuwâ’ can never be false.” Muhammad bin Sirin said, “But I say this.” He said, “It used to be said, ‘There are three types of dreams: (1) The reflection of one’s thoughts and experiences one has during wakefulness, (2) what is suggested by Satan to frighten the dreamer, (3) or glad tidings from Allâh. So, if someone has a dream which he dislikes, he should not tell it to others, but get up and offer a Salât (prayer).” He added, “He (Abû Hurairah) hated to see a Ghul (i.e., iron collar around his neck in a dream) and people liked to see fetters (on their feet in a dream). The fetters on the feet symbolizes one’s constant and firm adherence to religion”. And Abû ‘Abdullâh said, “Aghlāl (plural of Ghul) are used only for necks.”

(27) CHAPTER. (Seeing) a flowing spring in a dream.

7018. Narrated Khârija bin Zaid bin Thâbit: Umm Al-‘Alâ’, an Anšârî woman who had given the Ba‘îa (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “‘Uthmân bin Ma‘zûn came in our share when the Anšâr drew lots to distribute the emigrants (to dwell) among themselves. He became sick and we looked after (nursed) him till he died. Then we shrouded him in his clothes. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to us, I (addressing the dead body) said, ‘May Allâh be Merciful to you, O Abâ As-Sâ‘îb! I testify that Allâh has honoured you.” The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘How do you know that Allâh has honoured him?’ I replied, ‘I do not know, by Allâh.’ He said, ‘As for him, death has come to him and I wish him all good from Allâh. By Allâh, though I am Allâh’s Messenger, I neither know what will happen to me \(^{(1)}\) nor to you.' Umm Al-'Alã added, 'By Allãh, I will never attest the righteousness of anybody after that.' She added, 'Later I saw in a dream, a flowing spring for 'Uthmãn. So I went to Allãh's Messenger and mentioned that to him. He said, 'That is (the symbol of) his good deeds (the reward for) which is going on for him.' ''

(28) CHAPTER. Drawing water from a well till everybody's thirst is quenched

Abû Hurairah narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.

7019. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allãh's Messenger ﷺ said, '(I saw in a dream that) while I was standing at a well and drawing water therefrom, suddenly Abû Bakr and 'Umar came to me. Abû Bakr took the bucket and drew one or two buckets (full of water), but there was weakness in his pulling, but Allãh forgave him. Then Ibn Al-Khattãb took the bucket from Abû Bakr's hand and the bucket turned into a very large one in his hand. I have never seen any strong man among the people doing such a hard job as 'Umar did, till the people drank (to their satisfaction) and watered their camels to their fill and then (after quenching their thirst) they (the camels) sat near the water.'''

(See Vol. 5, Hadith No.3664).

(29) CHAPTER. Drawing one or two buckets full of water from a well with weakness.

\(^{(1)}\) (H.7018) See the footnote of Hadith No.7003.
7020. Narrated Sālim’s father about the Prophet’s dream in which he has seen Abū Bakr and ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “I saw (in a dream) that the people had gathered. Then Abū Bakr stood up and pulled out one or two buckets full of water (from a well) and there was weakness in his pulling — may Allâh forgive him. Then Ibn Al-Khattâb stood up, and the bucket turned into a very large one and I have never seen any strong man among the people doing such a hard job. He pulled out so much water that the people drank (to their satisfaction) and watered their camels to their fill, and then (after quenching their thirst) they (the camels) sat near the water.”

7021. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself standing at a well over which there was a bucket. I pulled out from it as many buckets of water as Allâh wished, and then Ibn Abî Quhâfa (Abû Bakr) took the bucket from me and pulled out one or two full buckets, and there was weakness in his pull — may Allâh forgive him. Then the bucket turned into a very large one and ‘Umar bin Al-Khattâb took it. I have never seen any strong man among the people, drawing water with such strength as ‘Umar did, till the people drank (to their satisfaction) and watered their camels to their fill; and then (after quenching their thirst) they (the camels) sat near the water.”

(30) CHAPTER. To take rest in a dream.

7022. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself standing over a tank (well) giving water to the people to drink. Then Abû Bakr came to me and took the bucket from me in order to relieve me, and he pulled out one or two full buckets, and there was weakness in his pulling — may Allah forgive him. Then Ibn Al-Khattāb took it from him and went on drawing water till the people left (after being satisfied) while the tank was overflowing with water."

(31) CHAPTER. (Seeing) a palace in a dream.

7023. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While we were sitting with Allah’s Messenger, he said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself in Paradise. Suddenly I saw a woman performing ablution beside a palace. I asked, ‘For whom is this palace?’ They (the angels) replied, ‘It is for ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb.’

Then I remembered ‘Umar’s Ghairā(1) and went back hurriedly.” On hearing that, ‘Umar started weeping and said, ‘Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you. O Allah’s Messenger! How dare I think of my Ghairā being offended by you?’

7024. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger said, “(I saw in a dream that) I entered Paradise, and behold, there was a palace built of gold! I asked, ‘For whom is this palace?’ They (the angels) replied, ‘For a man from the Quraish.’”

(1) (H.7023) Ghairā: See the glossary.
The Prophet  added, “O Ibn Al-Khattāb! Nothing stopped me from entering it except your Ghaira.” ‘Umar said, “How dare I think of my Ghaira being offended by you, O Allāh’s Messenger?”

(32) CHAPTER. Performing ablation in a dream.

7025. Narrated Abū Hurairah  while we were sitting with Allāh’s Messenger  he said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself in Paradise, and behold, a woman was performing ablution by the side of a palace. I asked, ‘For whom is this palace?’ They (the angels) replied, ‘For ‘Umar.’ Then I remembered the Ghaira of ‘Umar and returned immediately.’ ‘Umar wept (on hearing that) and said, “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you, O Allāh’s Messenger! How dare I think of my Ghaira being offended by you.”

(33) CHAPTER. The performance of Tawāf around the Ka‘bah in a dream.

7026. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar  Allāh’s Messenger  said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself performing the Tawāf of the Ka‘bah. Behold, there I saw a whitish-red lank-haired man (holding himself) between two men with water dropping from his hair. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ The people replied, ‘He is the son of Maryam (Mary).’ Then I turned my face to see another man with red complexion, big body, curly hair, and blind in the right eye, which looked like a protruding out grape. I asked, ‘Who is he?’ They replied, ‘He is Ad-Dajjal.’ Ibn Qatari resembles him more than anybody else among the people and Ibn Qatari was a man from Bani Al-Muṣṭaliq from Khuzā‘a.’”

(34) CHAPTER. If someone gives the remaining of one’s drink to another person in a dream.

7027. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw a bowl full of milk was brought to me and I drank of it (to my fill) till I noticed its wetness flowing (in my body). Then I gave the remaining of it to ‘Umar.” They asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What have you interpreted (about the dream)?” He said, “(It is religious) knowledge.” [See Hadith No.7006]

(35) CHAPTER. The feeling of security and the disappearance of fear in dream.

7028. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Men from the Companions of Allah’s Messenger used to see dreams during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger and they used to narrate those dreams to Allah’s Messenger. Allah’s Messenger would interpret them as Allah wished him to interpret them. I was a young man and used to stay in the mosque before my wedlock. I said to myself, “If there were any good in myself, I too would see what these people see.” So, when I went to bed one night I said, “O Allah! If You see any good in me, show me a good dream.” So while I was in that state, there came to me (in a dream) two angels. In the hand of each of them, there was a mace of iron, and both of them were taking me to Hell, and I was between them, invoking Allah, ‘O Allah! I seek refuge with You from Hell.” Then I saw myself being confronted by another angel holding a mace of iron in his hand. He said to me, “Do not be afraid, you will be an excellent man if you only offer Salât (prayer) more often.” So they took me till they stopped me at the edge of Hell, and behold, it was built inside like a well and it had side posts like those of a well, and beside each post there was an angel carrying an iron mace. I saw therein many people hanging upside down with iron chains, and I recognized therein some men from the Quraish. Then (the angels) took me to the right side.

7029. [H. 7028 contd.] I narrated this dream to (my sister) Hafsa and she told it to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No doubt, ‘Abdullah is a good man.” (Naﬁ’ said, “Since then ‘Abdulrah bin ‘Umar used to offer Salât much.”
(36) CHAPTER. To be taken to the right side in a dream.

7030. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I was a young unmarried man during the lifetime of the Prophet. I used to sleep in the mosque. Anyone who had a dream, would narrate it to the Prophet. I said, “O Allah! If there is any good for me with You, then show me a dream so that Allah’s Messenger may interpret it for me.” So I slept and saw (in a dream) two angels came to me and took me along with them, and they met another angel who said to me, “Don’t be afraid, you are a good man.” They took me towards the Fire, and behold, it was built inside like a well, and therein I saw people, some of whom I recognized, and then the angels took me to the right side. In the morning, I mentioned that dream to Ḥafṣa.

7031. [H. 7030 contd.]: Ḥafṣa told me that she had mentioned it to the Prophet and he said, “‘Abdullah is a righteous man if he only offers (Tahajjud) Salāt (prayer) more at night.” (See H. 1121, 1122)

Az-Zuhrī said, “After that, ‘Abdullah used to offer Salāt more at night.”

(37) CHAPTER. (Seeing) a bowl (cup) in a dream.

7032. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw that a cup full of milk was brought to me and I drank of it and gave the remaining of it to ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb.’ They asked, ‘What have you interpreted (about the dream), O Allah’s Messenger?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘(It is religious) knowledge.’

(38) CHAPTER. If something flies in a dream.

7033. Narrated Ubaidullah bin Abdullah: I asked Ibn Abbas about the dream of Allah’s Messenger which he mentioned. (See H. 7034)

7034. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abbas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘While I was sleeping, (I saw in my dream) two golden bangles were put in my two hands, so I got scared (frightened) and disliked it, but I was given permission to blow them off, (and when I blew them) they flew away. I interpret it as a symbol of two liars who will appear.’

‘Ubaidullāh said, ‘One of them was Al-‘Anṣi who was killed by Farūz at Yemen and the other was Musailima (at Najd).’

(39) CHAPTER. If one sees (in a dream) cows being slaughtered.

7035. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I saw in a dream that I was emigrating from Makkah to a land where there were date-palm trees. I thought that it might be the land of Al-Yamama or Hajjar, but behold, it turned out to be Yathrib (i.e., Al-Madina). And I saw cows (being slaughtered) there, but the reward given by Allâh is better (than worldly benefits). Behold, those cows proved to symbolize the believers (who were killed) on the Day (of the battle) of Uhud, and the good (which I saw in the dream) was the good and the reward and the truth which Allâh bestowed upon us after the Day (of the battle) of Badr Battle, (or the battle of Uhud and that was the victory bestowed by Allâh in the battle of Khâibar and the conquest of Makkah).

(40) CHAPTER. To blow out in a dream.

7036. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but (will be) the foremost (on the Day of Resurrection).”

7037. [H. 7036 (contd.)] Allâh’s Messenger further said, “While sleeping, (I saw in my dream that) I was given the treasures of the world and two golden bangles were put in my hands, but I felt much annoyed, and those two bangles distressed me very much, but I was inspired that I should blow them off, so I blew them and they flew away. Then I interpreted that those two bangles were the liars between whom I was (i.e., the one of Śan’â and the one of Yamâma).”

(41) CHAPTER. If one sees in a dream that he takes something out of some place and places it at another place.
7038. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I saw (in a dream) a black woman with unkempt hair going out of Al-Madīna and settling at Mahyā’ā, i.e., Al-Juḥfa. I interpreted that as a symbol of epidemic of Al-Madīna being transferred to that place (Al-Juḥfa).”

(42) CHAPTER. (To see) a black woman (in a dream).

7039. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما concerning the dream of the Prophet ﷺ in Al-Madīna: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I saw (in a dream) a black woman with unkempt hair going out of Al-Madīna and settling at Mahyā’ā, I interpreted that as (a symbol of) the epidemic of Al-Madīna being transferred to Mahyā’ā, i.e., Al-Juḥfa.”

(43) CHAPTER. (Seeing) a lady with unkempt hair (in a dream).

7040. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I saw (in a dream) a black woman with unkempt hair going out of Al-Madīna and settling in Mahyā’ā. I interpreted that as (a symbol of) the epidemic of Al-Madīna being transferred to Mahyā’ā, i.e., Al-Juḥfa.”

(44) CHAPTER. (To see) a black woman (in a dream).
(44) CHAPTER. If someone waves a sword in a dream.

7041. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet said, “I saw in a dream that I waved a sword and it broke in the middle, and behold, that symbolized the casualties the believers suffered on the Day (of the battle) of Uhud. Then I waved the sword again, and it became better than it had ever been before, and behold, that symbolized the Conquest (of Makkah) which Allāh brought about and the gathering of the believers.”

(45) CHAPTER. Whoever tells a lie by narrating a dream which he did not see.

7042. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said, “Whoever claims to have seen a dream which he did not see, will be ordered to make a knot between two barley grains which he will not be able to do; and if somebody listens to the talk of some people who do not like him (to listen) or they run away from him, then molten lead will be poured into his ears on the Day of Resurrection; and whoever makes a picture, will be punished on the Day of Resurrection and will be ordered to put a soul in that picture, which he will not be able to do.”
7043. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The worst lie is that a person claims to have seen a dream which he has not seen."

(46) CHAPTER. If someone saw a bad dream which he disliked, he should not tell it to anybody, nor mention it.

7044. Narrated Abū Salama: I used to see a dream which would make me sick till I heard Abū Qatāda saying, "I, too, used to see a dream which would make me sick till I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, 'A good dream is from Allāh, so if anyone of you saw a dream which he liked, he should not tell it to anybody except to the one whom he loves, and if he saw a dream which he disliked, then he should seek refuge with Allāh from its evil and from the evil of Satan, and spit three times (on his left) and should not tell it to anybody, for it will not harm him.’”

7045. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “If anyone of you saw a dream which he liked, then that was from Allah, and he should thank Allah for it and tell it to others; but if he saw something else, i.e., a dream which he did not like, then that is from Satan and he should seek refuge with Allah from it and should not tell it to anybody, for it will not harm him.”

(47) CHAPTER. Whoever considers the interpretation of the first interpreter of one’s dream as not valid if he does not interpret it correctly.

7046. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A man came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “I saw in a dream, a cloud having shade. Butter and honey were dropping from it and I saw the people gathering it in their hands, some gathering much and some a little. And behold, there was a rope extending from the earth to the sky, and I saw that you (the Prophet) held it and went up, and then another man held it and went up and (after that) another (third) held it and went up, and then after another (fourth) man held it, but it broke and then got connected again.” Abū Bakr said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! Allow me to interpret this dream." The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Interpret it." Abū Bakr said, "The cloud with shade symbolizes Islām, and the butter and honey dropping from it, symbolizes the Qurʾān, its sweetness dropping and some people learning much of the Qurʾān and some a little. The rope which is extended from the sky to the earth is the Truth which you (the Prophet ﷺ) are following. You follow it and Allāh will raise you high with it, and then another man will follow it and he will rise up with it and another man will follow it and he will rise up with it, and then another man will follow it but it will break and then it will be connected for him and he will rise up with it. O Allāh’s Messenger! Let my father be sacrificed for you! Am I right or wrong?" The Prophet ﷺ replied, “You are right in some of it and wrong in some.” Abū Bakr said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! By Allāh, you must tell me in what I was wrong.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not swear.”

(48) CHAPTER. The interpretation of dreams after the Fajr prayer.

7047. Narrated Samura bin Jundub ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ very often used to ask his Companions, “Did anyone of you see a dream?” So dreams would be narrated to him by those whom Allāh willed to relate. One morning the Prophet ﷺ said, “Last night two persons came to me (in a dream) and woke me up and said to me, ‘Proceed!’" set out with them and we came across a man, lying down, and behold, another man was standing over his head, holding a big rock. Behold, he was throwing the rock at the man's head, injuring it. The rock rolled away and the thrower followed it and took it back. By the time he reached the man, his head returned to its normal state. The thrower then did the same as he had done before. I said to my two companions, 'Subhan Allah! Who are these two persons?' They said, 'Proceed! Proceed!' So we proceeded and came to a man lying in a prone position and another man standing over his head with an iron hook, and behold, he would put the hook in one side of the man's mouth and tear off that side of his face to the back (of the neck) and similarly tear his nose from front to back and his eye from front to back. Then he turned to the other (second) side of the man's face and did just as he had done with the first side. He hardly completed that (second) side when the first side returned to its normal state. Then he returned to it to repeat what he had done before. I said to my two companions, 'Subhan Allah! Who are these two persons?' They said to me, 'Proceed! Proceed!' So we proceeded and came across something like a Tannur (a kind of baking oven, a pit usually clay-lined for baking bread)." (Samura bin Jundub said) I think the Prophet said, "In that oven there was much noise and voices." The Prophet added, "We looked into it and found naked men and women, and behold, a flame of fire was reaching to them from underneath, and when it reached them, they cried loudly. I asked them, 'Who are these?' They said to me, 'Proceed! Proceed!' And so we proceeded and came across a river." I think he said, "... red like blood." The Prophet added, "And behold, in the river there was a man swimming, and on the bank there was a man who had collected many stones. Behold, while the man who was swimming, went near the latter, the former opened his mouth and the latter (on the bank) threw a stone into his mouth whereupon he went swimming again. Then again he (the former) would return to him (the latter) and everytime the former returned, he opened his mouth and the latter threw a stone into his mouth (and so on) the performance was repeated. I asked my two companions, ‘Who are these (two) persons?’ They replied, ‘Proceed! Proceed!’ And we proceeded till we came to a man with a repulsive appearance. The most repulsive appearance you ever saw a man having! Beside him there was a fire and he was kindling it and running around it. I asked my companions, ‘Who is this (man)?’ They said to me, ‘Proceed! Proceed!’ So we proceeded till we reached a garden of deep green dense vegetation, having all sorts of of spring colour. In the midst of the garden there was a very tall man and I could hardly see his head because of his great height, and around him there were children in such a large number as I have never seen. I said to my companions, ‘Who is this?’ They replied, ‘Proceed! Proceed!’ So we proceeded till we came to a majestic huge garden, greater and better than I have ever seen! My two companions said to me, ‘Ascend up’ and I ascended up”. The Prophet added, “So we ascended till we reached a city built of gold and silver bricks and we went to its gate and asked (the gatekeeper) to open the gate, and it was opened, and we entered the city and found in it, men with one side of their bodies as handsome as the most handsome person you have ever seen, and the other side as ugly as the ugliest person you have ever seen. My two companions ordered those men to throw themselves into the river. Behold, there was a river flowing across (the city), and its water was like milk in whiteness. Those men went and threw themselves in it and then returned to us after the ugliness (of their bodies) had disappeared and they became in the best shape.” The Prophet further added, “My two companions (angels) said to me, ‘This place is the ‘Adn Paradise, and that is your place.’ I raised up my sight, and behold, there I saw a palace like a white cloud! My two companions said to me, ‘That (palace) is your place.’ I said to them, ‘May Allah bless you both! Let me enter it.’ They replied, ‘As for now, you will not enter it, but you shall enter it (one day).’ I said to them, ‘I have seen many wonders tonight. What does all that mean which I have seen?’ They replied, ‘We will inform you: As for the first man you came upon whose head was being smashed with the rock, he symbolises the one who studies the Qur’an and then neither recites it nor acts on its orders, and sleeps, neglecting the enjoined Salah (prayers). As for the man you came upon whose sides of mouth, nostrils and eyes were torn off from front to back, he is the symbol of the man who goes out of his house in the morning and tells lies that is spreads all over the world. And those naked men and women whom you saw in a construction resembling an oven, they are the adulterers and the adulteresses, and the man whom you saw swimming in the river and given a stone to swallow, is the eater of Ribâ (usury)(1) and the ugly looking man whom you saw near the fire, kindling it and going round it, is Mâlik, the gatekeeper of Hell, and the tall man whom you saw in the garden, is Ibrâhîm (Abraham) and the children around him are those children who die with Al-Fitrâh (the Islamic Faith of

(1) (H.7047) Ribâ: See the glossary.
Monotheism).’” The narrator added: Some Muslims asked the Prophet ﷺ, “O Allah’s Messenger! What about the children of Al-Mushrikün (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ)?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “And also the children of Al-Mushrikün. The Prophet ﷺ added, “And my two companions added, ‘The men you saw half handsome and half ugly were those persons who had mixed an act that was good with another that was evil, but Allāh forgave them.’”
(1) CHAPTER. Statement of Allah (Exalted):

"And fear the Fitnah (trial and affliction) which affects not in particular (only) those among you who do wrong..." (V.8:25).

And the warning of the Prophet ﷺ against Al-Fitan.

7048. Narrated Asma': The Prophet ﷺ said, "I will be at my Haud — Tank (Al-Kauthar) waiting for whoever will come to me. Then some people will be taken away from me whereupon I will say, 'My followers!' It will be said, 'You do not know, they turned apostates as renegades (deserted their religion).'

Ibn Abi Mulaika said, "O Allah, we seek refuge with You from turning on our heels from the (Islamic) religion and from being put to trial." (See H. 6587)

7049. Narrated ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, "I am your predecessor at the Al-Haud — Tank (Al-Kauthar) and some men amongst you will be brought to me, and when I will try to hand them some water, they will be pulled away from me by force whereupon I will say, 'O Lord, my companions!' It will be said to me, 'You do not know what they did after you left, they introduced new things (heresies) in the religion after you.'"

7050, 7051. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "I am your predecessor at Al-Haud — Tank (Al-Kauthar), and whoever will come to it will drink from it; and whoever will drink from it will never become thirsty after that. There will come to me some people whom I know and they know me, and then a barrier will be set up between me and them.’”

Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khurḍī added that the Prophet ﷺ further said, “I will say those people are from me (i.e., they are my followers). It will be said, ‘You do not know what new changes and new things (heresies) they did after you.’ Then I will say, ‘Far removed (from mercy), far removed (from mercy), those who changed, did new things in (the religion) after me!’”

(2) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “After me you will see things which you will disapprove of.”

Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Zaid: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud — Tank (Al-Kauthar).”

7052. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to us, “You will see after me, selfishness (on the part of other people) and other matters that you will disapprove of.” They asked, “What do you order us to do, O Allah’s Messenger (under such circumstances)?” He said, “Pay their rights to them (to the rulers) and ask your rights from Allah.”
7053. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever disapproves of something done by his (Muslim) ruler then he should be patient, for whoever disobeys, (disunites and goes away from his) Muslim ruler even for a span will die as those who died in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (i.e., as rebellious sinners). (See Fath Al-Bārī) 7054. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever notices something which he dislikes done by his (Muslim) ruler, then he should be patient, for whoever separates (disunites) himself from the Al-Jamā‘ah (the Muslim group) [i.e., becomes separate from the company of the Muslims] even for a span and then dies, he will die as those who died in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (as rebellious sinners).

[See Fath-Al-Bārī]

7055. Narrated Junāda bin Abū Umaiyya: We entered upon ‘Ubāda bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit while he was sick. We said, “May Allāh make you good and healthy, will you tell us a Hadith you heard from the Prophet ﷺ and by which Allāh may benefit you.” He said, “The Prophet ﷺ called us and we gave him the Bai‘a (pledge) for Islām.”

7056. [H. 7055 contd.] “And among the conditions on which he took the pledge from us, was that we were to listen and obey (the orders of a Muslim ruler) both at the time when we were active and at the time when we were tired, and at our difficult time and at our ease and to be obedient to the Muslim ruler and give him his right even if he did not give us our rights, and not to fight against him unless we noticed open Kufr (disbelief) for which we would have a proof with us from Allâh.”

7057. Narrated Usaid bin Ḥudair: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You appointed such and such person and you did not appoint me?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “After me you will see rulers not giving you your right (but you should give them their right) and be patient till you meet me.”

(3) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ, “The destruction of my followers will be through the hands of foolish young men.”

7058. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard the truthful and trusted by Allâh (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) saying, “The destruction of my followers will be through the hands of young men from Quraish.”
CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Woe to the Arabs from the great evil that is nearly, approaching them.”

7059. Narrated Zainab bint Jahsh رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ got up from his sleep with a flushed red face and said, “La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). Woe to the Arabs, from the great evil that is nearly, approaching them. Today a gap has been made in the wall of Ya’juj and Ma’juj (Gog and Magog people) like this.” (Sufyân illustrated this by forming the number 90 or 100 with his fingers.) It was asked, “Shall we be destroyed, though there are righteous people among us?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, if Al-Khabath(1) increased.”

7060. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid رضي الله عنهما: Once the Prophet ﷺ stood over one of the high buildings of Al-Madîna and then said (to the people), “Do you see what I see?” They said, “No.” He said, “I see Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) falling among your houses as rain drops fall.”

(1) (H.7059) The word Al-Khabath is interpreted as illegal sexual intercourse, and illegitimate children and every kind of evil, i.e., the majority of people will indulge in evil deeds and act against Islamic law. (See Fath Al-Bâri.)
(5) CHAPTER. The appearance of Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).

7061. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Time will pass rapidly, good deeds will decrease, misfortune will be thrown (in the hearts of the people), Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) will appear and there will be much Al-Harj.” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is ‘Al-Harj?’” He said, “Killing! Killing!” [See Vol.8, Hadith No.6037]

7062, 7063. Narrated ‘Abdullâh and Abû Müsâ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Near the establishment of the Hour there will be days during which general ignorance will spread, (religious) knowledge will be taken away (vanish) and there will be much Al-Harj, and Al-Harj means killing.”

7064. Narrated Abû Mûsa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Near the establishment of the Hour

(1) (H.7061) Because of indulging in the pleasures of the world and forgetting one’s duties towards Allah.
there will be days during which (religious) knowledge will be taken away (vanish) and general ignorance will spread, and there will be Al-Harj in abundance, and Al-Harj means killing.”

7066. Narrated ‘Abdullāh ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Near the establishment of the Hour, there will be the days of Al-Harj, and the (religious) knowledge will be taken away (vanish i.e., by the death of religious scholars) and general ignorance will spread.”

Abū Mūsā said, “Al-Harj, in the Ethiopian language, means killing.”

7067. Ibn Mas‘ūd added: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “(It will be) from among the most wicked people who will be living at the time when the Hour will be established.”
(6) CHAPTER. No time will come but the time following it will be worse than it.

7068. Narrated Az-Zubair bin ‘Adi: We went to Anas bin Malik and complained about the wrong we were suffering at the hands of Al-‘Haţjaj. Anas bin Malik said, “Be patient till you meet your Lord (Allâh), for no time will come upon you but the time following it will be worse than it. I heard that from your Prophet ﷺ.”

7069. Narrated Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ woke up one night in a state of fear and said, “Subţan Allâh! How many treasures Allâh has sent down! And how many Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) have been sent down! Who will go and wake the lady dwellers (wives of the Prophet ﷺ) up of these rooms [for Salât (prayers)]? He meant his wives, so that they might offer Salât. He added, “A well-dressed (person) in this world may be naked in the Hereafter.” (See H. 115)

(7) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Whosoever takes up arms against us, is not from us.”

7070. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whosoever takes up arms against us, is not from us.”
7071. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet said, “Whosoever takes up arms against us, is not from us.”

7072. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None of you should point a weapon towards him Muslim brother, for he does not know, Satan may tempt him to hit him and thus he would fall into a pit of fire (Hell).”

7073. Narrated Sufyān: I said to ‘Amr, “O Abū Muhammad! Did you hear Jābir bin Abdullāh saying: A man carrying arrows passed through the mosque and Allāh’s Messenger said to him, ‘Hold the arrows by their heads!’ ” ‘Amr replied, “Yes.”

7074. Narrated Jābir: A man passed through the mosque and he was carrying arrows, the heads of which were exposed (protruding). The man was ordered (by the Prophet) to hold the arrows by their iron heads so that it might not scratch (injure) any Muslim.

7075. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you passed through our mosque or through our market while carrying...”
arrows, he should hold them by the (arrow) heads," or said, "... he should hold (their heads) firmly with his hand lest he should injure one of the Muslims with it."

(8) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: "Do not renegade as disbelievers after me by striking (cutting) the neck of one another."

7076. Narrated ‘Abdullãh ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Abusing a Muslim is Fусq (evil-doing) and killing him is Kufr (disbelief)."

7077. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "Do not renegade as disbelievers (revert to disbelief) after me by striking (cutting) the necks of one another."

7078. Narrated Abû Bakra: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ addressed the people saying, "Don’t you know what is the day today?" They replied, "Allâh and His Messenger know better." We thought that he might give that day another name. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Isn’t it the Day of An-Nahr (day of sacrifice)?" We replied, "Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger". He then said, "What town is this? Isn’t it the forbidden (sacred) town (Makkah)?" We replied, "Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger". He then said, "Your blood
(i.e., lives, your properties, your honours and your skins (i.e., bodies) are sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this town of yours. (Listen) Haven’t I conveyed Allah’s Message to you?” We replied, “Yes.” He said, “O Allah! Be witness (for it). So it is incumbent upon those who are present to convey it (this message of mine) to those who are absent because the informed one might comprehend what I have said better than the present audience (who will convey it to him.)”

The narrator added: In fact, it was like that. The Prophet ﷺ added, “Beware! Do not renegade as disbelievers after me by striking (cutting) the necks of one another.” [See Hadith No. 7447].

7079. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware! Do not renegade as disbelievers (revert to disbelief) after me by striking (cutting) the necks of one another.”

7080. Narrated Jarir: The Prophet ﷺ said to me during Hajjat-ul-Wada’, “Let the people keep quiet and listen.” Then he said (addressing the people), “Beware! Do not renegade as disbelievers (revert to disbelief) after me by striking (cutting) the necks of one another.”

(9) CHAPTER. There will be Fitnah (trial and affliction) during which a sitting person will be better than standing one.

7081. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There will be Fitan (trials and afflictions) (in the near future) during which a sitting person will be better than a standing one, and the standing one will be better than the walking one, and the walking one will be better than the running one; and whoever will expose himself to these Fitan they will destroy him. So whoever can find a place of protection or refuge from them, should take shelter in it.”

7082. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There will be Fitan (trials and afflictions) (in the near future) during which a sitting person will be better than a standing one, and the standing one will be better than a walking one, and the walking one will be better than a running one; and whoever will expose himself to these Fitan, they will destroy him. So whoever can find a place of protection or refuge from them, should take shelter in it.”

(10) CHAPTER. If two Muslims meet (fight) each other with their swords.

7083. Narrated Al-Hasan: (Al-Ahnaf said:) I went out carrying my arms during the nights of Al-Fitan (trial and affliction) (i.e. the war between ‘Ali and ‘Aishah) and Abû Bakra met me and asked, “Where are you going?” I replied, “I intend to help the cousin of Allah’s Messenger (i.e., ‘Ali).” Abû Bakra said, “Allah’s Messenger said, ‘If two Muslims take out their swords to fight each other, then both of them will be from the dwellers of the Hell-fire.’ It was said to the Prophet concerning the killed one: ‘It is alright for the killer but what about the killed one?’ He replied, ‘The killed one (surely) had the intention to kill his opponent.’” (See Vol. I, Hadith No.31)
(11) CHAPTER. What a Muslim should do if there is no righteous group of Muslims.

7084. Narrated Ḥudhaifa bin Al-Yamān:
The people used to ask Allāh’s Messenger about the good but I used to ask him about the evil lest I should be overtaken by it. So I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! We were living in ignorance and in an (extremely) worst atmosphere, then Allāh brought to us this good (i.e., Islām); will there be any evil after this good?” He said, “Yes.” I asked, “Will there be any good after that evil?” He replied, “Yes, but it will be tainted (not pure)”. I asked, “What will be its taint?” He replied, “(There will be) some people calling the gates of the (Hell) Fire, and whoever will respond to their call, will be thrown by them into the (Hell) Fire.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Will you describe them to us?” He said, “They will be from our own people and will speak our language.” I said, “What do you order me to do if such a state should take place in my life?” He said, “Stick to the group of Muslims and their Imām (Muslim ruler).” I said, “If there is neither a group of...
Muslims nor an Imām?’ I said, “Then turn away from all those sects even if you were to bite (eat) the roots of a tree till death overtakes you while you are in that state.”

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever disliked to increase the number of (those people who practise) Al-Fītān (trials and afflictions) and oppressions (against the believers).

7085. Narrated Abū Al-Aswād: An army unit was being recruited from the people of Al-Madinah(1) and my name was written among them. Then I met ‘Ikrima, and when I informed him about it, he discouraged me very strongly and said, “Ibn ‘Abbās told me that there were some Muslims who were with Al-Mushrikin (polytheists, pagans, idolaters and disbelievers in the Oneness Allāh and His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) to increase their number against Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (and the Muslim army)(2) So, arrows (from the Muslim army) would hit one of them and kill him or a Muslim would strike him (with his sword) and kill him. So Allāh revealed:

‘Verily! As for those whom the angels take (in death) while they are wronging themselves (as they stayed among the disbelievers), even though emigration was

(1) (H.7085) To fight the people of Shām.
(2) (H.7085) Some of those who had embraced Islam stayed in Makkah after the emigration of the Prophet ﷺ to Al-Madinah. When the Makkani Mushrikin came out to fight the Muslims of Al-Madinah, some of the Muslims of Makkah came out with them, not to fight but to mislead them. It happened that some of these were killed by the Muslim army and they died with the sin (by staying among the disbelievers).
obligatory on them), they (angels) say to them: “In what (condition) were you?” They reply: “We were weak and oppressed on the earth.” They (angels) say: “Was not the earth of Allāh spacious enough for you to emigrate therein?” Such men will find their abode in Hell — What an evil destination! …” (V.4:97) (See H. 4596)

(13) CHAPTER. If a Muslim stays among the bad people.

7086. Narrated Ḥudhayfah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ related to us two Prophetic narrations; one of which I have seen fulfilled and I am waiting for the fulfillment of the other. The Prophet ﷺ told us that Al-Amānah (the trust or moral responsibility or honesty, and all the duties which Allāh has ordained) descended in the roots of men’s hearts (from Allāh) and then they learned it from the Qur’ān and then they learned it from the Prophet’s Sunna. The Prophet ﷺ further told us how that Al-Amānah will be taken away. He said: “Man will go to sleep during which Al-Amānah will be taken away from his heart and only its trace will remain in his heart like the trace of a dark spot; then man will go to sleep, during which Al-Amānah will decrease still further, so that its trace will resemble the trace of blister as when an ember is dropped on one’s foot which would make it swell, and one would see it swollen but there would be nothing inside. People would be carrying out their trade but hardly will there he a trustworthy person. It will be said, ‘In such and such tribe there is an honest man,’ and later it will be said about a man, ‘What a wise, polite and strong man he is!’ Though he will not have Faith equal even to a mustard seed in his heart.”
Abū Hurairah added: No doubt, there came upon me a time when I did not mind dealing (bargaining) with anyone of you, for if he was a Muslim his Islam would compel him to pay me what is due to me, and if he was a Christian, the Muslim official would compel him to pay me what is due to me, but today I do not deal except with such and such person.

(14) CHAPTER. To stay (in the desert) with the bedouins during the period of Al-Fitan (trial and affliction).

7087. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa': that he visited Al-Ḥajjāj (bin Yusuf). Al-Ḥajjāj said, “O son of Al-Akwa! You have turned on your heels (i.e., deserted Islām) by staying (in the desert) with the bedouins.” Salama replied, “No, but Allāh’s Messenger allowed me to stay with the bedouin in the desert.”

Narrated Yazid bin Abī ‘Ubaid: When ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān was killed (martyred), Salama bin Al-Akwa’ went out to a place called Ar-Rabadha and married there and begot children, and he stayed there till a few nights before his death when he came to Al-Madīnā.

7088. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allāh’s Messenger said, “There will come a time when the best property of a Muslim will be sheep which he will take to the tops of mountains and the places of rainfall so as to flee with his religion from Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).”
(15) CHAPTER. To seek refuge with Allâh from Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).

7089. Narrated Anas: The people started asking the Prophet ﷺ too many questions importunately. So he ascended the pulpit and said, “You will not ask me any question but I will answer it to you.” I looked right and left, and behold, every man was covering his head with his garment and weeping. Then a man got up who, whenever quarrelling with somebody, used to be accused of not being the son of his father. He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who is my father?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Your father is Hudhaifa.” Then ‘Umar got up and said, “We accept Allâh as (our) Lord, Islam as our religion and Muhammad as (our) Messenger and we seek refuge with Allâh from the evil of Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have never seen the good and bad like on this day. No doubt, Paradise and Hell were displayed in front of me till I saw them in front of that wall.”

Qatada said: This Hadith used to be mentioned as an explanation of this Verse:

“O you who believe! Ask not about things which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble…” (V.5:101)
(16) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction) will appear from the east.”

7092. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet stood up beside the pulpit (and pointed with his finger towards the east) and said, “Al-Fitnah is there! Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction) is there, from where the side of the head of Satan comes out,” or said, “… the side of the sun…”

7093. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard Allāh’s Messenger while he was facing the east, saying, “Verily! Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction) is there (in the east), from where the side of the head of Satan comes out.”

(north)! O Allāh! Bestow Your Blessings on our Yemen.” The people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! And also on our Najd.” I think the third time the Prophet said, “There (in Najd) is the place of earthquakes and Al-Fītan (trials and afflictions) and from there comes out the side of the head of Satan.”

7095. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar came to us and we hoped that he would narrate to us a good Hadīth. But before we asked him, a man got up and said to him, “O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Narrate to us about the battles during the time of Al-Fītan (trial and affliction) as Allāh says:

‘And fight them until there is no more Fitnah (i.e. no more disbelief and worshipping of others along with Allāh, trial and afflictions).’” (V.2:193)

Ibn ‘Umar said (to the man), “Do you know what is meant by Al-Fītan? Let your mother bereave you! Muḥammad used to fight against Al-Mushrīkūn, for a Muslim was put to trial in his religion (Al-Mushrīkūn will either kill him or chain him as a captive). His fighting was not like your fighting which is carried on for the sake of ruling.”

(17) CHAPTER. Al-Fītan (trial and affliction) that will move like the waves of the sea.

Some of the learned men used to recite the following poetry at the time of Al-Fītan (trials and afflictions). Imra-ul-Qais said:

“The war at the beginning seems attractive
Moving with its beauty for every ignorant.
But when it flared strongly,
It becomes an old lady whom none accepts in marriage,
With grey hair and bad colour,
Disliked to be smelled or kissed.”

7096. Narrated Shaqiq: I heard Hudhaifa saying, “While we were sitting with ‘Umar, he said, ‘Who among you remembers the statement of the Prophet ﷺ about Al-Fitan (trial and afflictions)?’” Hudhaifa said, “The Fitnah of a man in his family, his property, his children and his neighbours are expiated by his Salât (prayers), Zakât (and charity) and enjoining Al-Ma’rûf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Allah has ordained) and forbidding Al-Munkar (polytheism, disbelief and all that Islam has forbidden).” ‘Umar said, “I do not ask you about these Al-Fitan but about that Al-Fitnah which will move like the waves of the sea.” Hudhaifa said, “Don’t worry about it, 0 chief of the believers, for there is a closed door between you and it.” ‘Umar said, “Will that door be broken or opened?” I said, “No, it will be broken.” ‘Umar said, “Then it will never be closed.” I said, “Yes.” We asked Hudhaifa, “Did ‘Umar know what that door meant?” He replied, “Yes, as I know that there will be night before tomorrow morning, that is because I narrated to him a true narration, free from errors.” We dared not ask Hudhaifa as to whom the door represented so we ordered Masrûq to ask him what does the door stand for? He replied, “‘Umar.”

7097. Narrated Abû Mûsa Al-Ash’ârî. The Prophet ﷺ went out to one of the gardens of Al-Madina for some business and I went out to follow him. When he entered the garden, I sat at its gate and said to myself, "Today I will be the gate-keeper of the Prophet though he has not ordered me." The Prophet went and finished his need and went to sit on the constructed edge of the well and uncovered his legs and hung them in the well. In the meantime Abū Bakr came and asked permission to enter. I said (to him), "Wait till I get permission for you." Abū Bakr waited outside and I went to the Prophet and said, "O Allah's Prophet! Abū Bakr asks your permission to enter." He said, "Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise." So Abū Bakr entered and sat on the right side of the Prophet and uncovered his legs and hung them in the well. Then 'Umar came and I said (to him), "Wait till I get permission for you." The Prophet said, "Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise." So 'Umar entered and sat on the left side of the Prophet and uncovered his legs and hung them in the well so that one side of the well became fully occupied and there remained no place for anyone to sit.

When 'Uthmān came and I said (to him), "Wait till I get permission for you." The Prophet said, "Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise with a calamity which will befall him." When he entered, he could not find any place to sit with them, so he went to the other edge of the well opposite them, and uncovered his legs and hung them in the well. I wished that a brother of mine would come, so I invoked Allāh for his coming.

Ibn Al-Musaiyab said, "I interpreted that (narration) as indicating their graves. The first three are together and the grave of 'Uthmān is separate from theirs."
7098. Narrated Abû Wâ’il: Someone said to Usâma, “Will you not talk to this (‘Uthmân)?” Usâma said, “I talked to him (secretly) without being the first man to open an evil door. I will never tell a ruler, who rules over two men or more, that he is good after I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘A man will be brought and put in (Hell) Fire and he will circumambulate (go round and round) in (Hell) Fire like a donkey of a (flour) grinding mill, and all the people of (Hell) Fire will gather around him and will say to him, ‘O so-and-so! Didn’t you use to order others for Al-Ma’ruf (i.e., Islâmic Monotheism and all that Islâm has ordained) and forbid from Al-Munkar (i.e., polytheism, disbelief and all that Islâm has forbidden)?’ That man will say, ‘I used to order others for Al-Ma’ruf but I myself never used to do it, and I used to forbid others from Al-Munkar (i.e. polytheism, disbelief and all that Islâm has forbidden) while I myself used to do it.’ ”

(18) CHAPTER.

7099. Narrated Abû Bakra: During the battle of Al-Jamal, Allâh benefited me with a Word (I heard from the Prophet) When the Prophet heard the news that the people of the Persia had made the daughter of Khosrau their queen (ruler), he said, “Never will succeed such a nation as makes a woman their ruler.”
7100. Narrated Abū Maryam ‘Abdullāh bin Ziyād Al-Asadi: When Ṭalḥa, Az-Zubair and ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها moved to Basrah, ‘Alī sent ‘Ammar bin Yāsir and Ḥasan bin ‘Alī who came to us at Kūfah and ascended the pulpit. Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Alī was at the top of the pulpit and ‘Ammār was below Al-Ḥasan. We all gathered before him. I heard ‘Ammār saying, ‘‘Āishah has moved to Al-Baṣrah. By Allah! She is the wife of your Prophet ﷺ in this world and in the Hereafter. But Allah has put you to test whether you obey Him (Allāh) or her (‘Āishah).’’

7101. Narrated Abū Wā’il: ‘Ammār stood on the pulpit at Kūfah and mentioned ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها and her coming (to Basrah) and said, “She is the wife of your Prophet ﷺ in this world and in the Hereafter, but you people are being put to test in this issue.”

7102, 7103, 7104. Narrated Abū Wā’il: Abū Mūsā and Abū Mas'ūd went to ‘Ammār when ‘Alī had sent him to Kūfah to exhort them to fight (on ‘Alī’s side). They said to him, “Since you have become a Muslim, we have never seen you doing a deed more criticisable to us than your haste in this matter.” ‘Ammār said, “Since you (both) became Muslims, I have never seen you doing a deed more criticisable to me than your keeping away from this matter.” Then Abū Mas'ūd provided 'Ammār and Abū Mūsa with two piece outfits to wear, and one of them went to the mosque (of Küfa).

7105, 7106, 7107. Narrated Shaqiq bin Salama: I was sitting with Abū Mas'ūd and Abū Mūsa and 'Ammār. Abū Mas'ūd said (to 'Ammār), “There is none of your companions but, if I wish, I could find fault with him except with you. Since you joined the company of the Prophet ﷺ I have never seen anything done by you more criticisable by me than your haste in this issue.” 'Ammār said, “O Abū Mas'ūd! I have never seen anything done by you or by this companion of yours (i.e., Abū Mūsa) more criticisable by me than your keeping away from this issue since the time you both joined the company of the Prophet ﷺ.” Then Abū Mas'ūd who was a rich man, said (to his servant), “O boy! Bring two suits.” Then he gave one to Abū Mūsa and the other to 'Ammār and said (to them), “Put on these suits before going for the Friday prayer.”

(19) CHAPTER. If Allāh sends a punishment upon a nation.

7108. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If Allāh sends punishment upon a nation then it befalls upon the whole population indiscriminately and then they will be resurrected (and judged) according to their deeds.”

(20) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet about Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali, “This son of mine is a chief, and Allah may make peace between two groups of Muslims through him.”

7109. Narrated Al-Hasan (Al-Baṣrī): When Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali moved with army units against Mu‘awiya, ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ said to Mu‘awiya, “I see an army that will not retreat unless and until the opposing army retreats.” Mu‘awiya said, “(If the Muslims are killed) who will look after their children?” ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ said, “I will look after them.” On that, ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amir and ‘Abdur-Rahmãn bin Samura said, “Let us meet Mu‘awiya and suggest peace.” Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣrī added: No doubt, I heard that Abû Bakra said, “Once, while the Prophet was addressing (the people), Al-Ḥasan (bin ‘Ali) came and the Prophet said, ‘This son of mine is a chief, and Allah may make peace between two groups of Muslims through him.’”
7110. Narrated Ḥarmala, Usāma’s Maulā: Usāma (bin Zaid) sent me to ‘Alī (at Kūfa) and said, “‘Alī will ask you, ‘What has prevented your companion from joining me?’ You then should say to him, ‘If you (‘Alī) were in the mouth of a lion, I would like to be with you, but in this matter I won’t take any part.’”

Ḥarmala added, “‘Alī didn’t give me anything (when I conveyed the message to him) so I went to Ḥasan, Ḥusain and Ibn Ja’far and they loaded my camels with much (wealth).”

(21) CHAPTER. If a person says something in the presence of some people and then goes out and says something different.

7111. Narrated Nāfi‘: When the people of Al-Madina dethroned Yazīd bin Mu‘āwiya, Ibn ‘Umar gathered his special friends and children and said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘A flag will be fixed for every treacherous betrayer (perfidious person) on the Day of Resurrection,’ and we have given the Bai‘a (pledge) to this person (Yazīd) in accordance with the conditions enjoined by Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ. I do not know of anything more faithless than fighting a person who has been given the Bai‘a (pledge) in accordance with the conditions enjoined by Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ; and if ever I learn that any person among you have agreed to dethrone Yazīd, by giving the Bai‘a (to somebody else) then there will be separation between him and me.”
7112. Narrated Abul-Minhâl: When Ibn Ziyâd and Marwân were in Shâm and Ibn Az-Zubair took over the authority in Makkah, and Qurra’ (the Khawârij)\(^{(1)}\) revolted in Baṣrah, I went out with my father to Abû Barza Al-Aslami till we entered upon him in his house while he was sitting in the shade of a room built of cane. So we sat with him and my father started talking to him saying, “O Abû Barza! Don’t you see in what dilemma the people has fallen?” The first thing I heard him saying was, “I seek reward from Allâh for myself because of being angry and scornful at the Quraish tribe. O you Arabs! You know very well that you were in misery and were few in number and misguided, and that Allâh has brought you out of all that with Islâm and with Muḥammad \(_{150}\) till He brought you to this state (of prosperity and happiness) which you see now; and it is this worldly wealths and pleasures which has caused mischief to appear among you. The one who is in Shâm (i.e., Marwân), by Allâh, is not fighting except for the sake of worldly gain; and those who are among you, by Allâh, are not fighting except for the sake of worldly gain; and that one who is in Makkah (i.e., Ibn Az-Zubair) by Allâh, is not fighting except for the sake of worldly gain.”

7113. Narrated Abû Wâ’il Hudhaifa bin Al-Yamân said: The hypocrites of today are worse than those of the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, because in those days, they used to do evil deeds secretly but today they do such deeds openly.

\(^{(1)}\) (H.7112) Khawârij: The people who dissented from the religion and disagreed with the rest of the Muslims.

7114. Narrated Abî Ash-Sha'shã': Hudhaifa said: In fact, it was hypocrisy that existed in the lifetime of the Prophet but today it is Kufr (disbelief) after belief.

(22) CHAPTER. The Hour will not be established until the living wish to be in the place of the dead (i.e., in the place of the people in graves).

7115. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till a man passes by a grave of somebody and says, ‘Would that I were in his place.’”

(23) CHAPTER. Time will change until idols will be worshipped.

7116. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till the buttocks of the women of the tribe of Daûs move while going round Dhul-Khalasa.”

Dhul-Khalasa was the Tâghiyah (idol) of the Daûs tribe which they used to worship in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.
7117. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The Hour will not be established till a man from (the tribe of) Qaḥṭān appears, driving the people with his stick." (1)

(24) CHAPTER. The coming of the Fire.

Anas said, "The Prophet ﷺ said, 'The first portents of the Hour will be a fire that will gather the people from the east to the west.'"

7118. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The Hour will not be established till a fire will come out of the land of Hijāz, and it will throw light on the necks of the camels at Baṣrah." (2)

7119. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Soon the river Al-Farāṭ (Euphrates) will disclose the treasure (the mountain) of gold, so whoever will be present at that time should not take anything of it.”

(In another narration) Abū Hurairah said, the Prophet ﷺ said as above and used the expression: “It (Euphrates) will uncover a

(1) (H.7117) 'Driving the people with his stick' means, ruling them with violence and oppression.

(2) (H.7118) Baṣrah is a place in Shām and this Fire did come out on the 3rd of the 6th month of the year 654 Hijra (3/6/654) near Al-Madīna. [It was, as is mentioned in this Hadith: 7118] mountain of gold (under it).”

(25) CHAPTER.

7120. Narrated Hāritha bin Wahb: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Give in charity because there will come a time on the people when a person will go out with his alms from place to place but will not find anybody to accept it.”

7121. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till:

(1) Two big groups fight each other whereupon there will be a great number of casualties on both sides and they will be following one and the same religious doctrine,

(2) About thirty Dajjal (liars) appear, and each one of them will claim that he is Allah’s Messenger,

(3) The religious knowledge is taken away (by the death of religious scholars)

(4) Earthquakes will increase in number

(5) Time will pass quickly,

(6) Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) will appear,
(7) Al-Harj (i.e., killing) will increase,
(8) Wealth will be in abundance – so abundant that a wealthy person will worry lest nobody should accept his Sadaqa, and whenever he will present it to someone, that person (to whom it will be offered) will say, ‘I am not in need of it.’
(9) The people compete with one another in constructing high buildings,
(10) A man when passing by a grave of someone will say, ‘Would that I were in his place.’
(11) And till the sun rises from the West. So when the sun will rise and the people will see it (rising from the West) they will all believe (embrace Islam) but that will be the time when (as Allah said):

“No good will it do to a person to believe then, if he believed not before, nor earned good (by performing deeds of righteousness) through his Faith…” (V.6:158)

“And the Hour will be established while two men spreading a garment in front of them but they will not be able to sell it, nor fold it up; and the Hour will be established when a man has milked his she-camel and has taken away the milk but he will not be able to drink it; and the Hour will be established before a man repairing a tank (for his livestock) is able to water (his animals) in it; and the Hour will be established when a person has raised a morsel (of food) to his mouth but will not be able to eat it.”

(26) CHAPTER. Information about Ad-Dajjal.

7122.Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba: Nobody asked the Prophet as many questions as I asked regarding Ad-Dajjal. The Prophet said to me, “What worries you about him?” I said, “Because the people say that he will have a mountain of bread and... a river of water with him (i.e., he will have abundance of food and water)". The Prophet ﷺ said, "Nay, he is much low to be allowed such a thing by Allāh (but it is only to test mankind whether they believe in Allāh or in Ad-Dajjāl)."

7123. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said (about Ad-Dajjāl) that he is one-eyed, his right eye is as if a protruding out grape.

7124. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Ad-Dajjāl will come and encamp at a place close to Al-Madīnah and then Al-Madīnah will shake thrice (i.e., there will be three earthquakes) whereupon every Kāfir (disbeliever) and hypocrite will go out (of Al-Madīnah) towards him."

7125. Narrated Abū Bakra: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The terror caused by Al-Masīḥ Ad-Dajjāl will not enter Al-Madīnah and at that time Al-Madīnah will have seven gates and there will be two angels at each gate (guarding it)."

7126. Narrated Abū Bakra [as above H.7125].
7127. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger stood up amongst the people and then praised and glorified Allah as He deserved and then he mentioned Ad-Dajjãl, saying, “I warn you of him, and there was no Prophet but warned his followers of him; but I will tell you something about him which no other Prophet has told his followers: Ad-Dajjãl is one-eyed whereas Allah is not.”

7128. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, I saw myself (in a dream) performing Ṭawfãf around the Ka’bah. Behold, I saw a reddish-white man with lank hair, and water was dropping from his head. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ They replied, ‘The son of Maryam (Mary).’ Then I turned my face, to see another man with a huge body, red complexion and curly hair, blind in one eye. His eye looked like a protruding out grape. They said (to me), ‘He is Ad-Dajjãl.’” The Prophet added, “The man he resembled most is Ibn Qatan, a man from the tribe of Khuzã’a.”
7129. Narrated 'Aishah: I heard Allah's Messenger in his Salat (prayer), seeking refuge with Allah from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of Ad-Dajjal.

7130. Narrated Ḥudhaifah: The Prophet said about Ad-Dajjal that he would have water and fire with him; (what would seem to be) fire, would be cold water and (what would seem to be) water, would be fire.

7131. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “No Prophet was sent but that he warned his followers against the one-eyed liar (Masih Ad-Dajjal). Beware! He is blind in one eye, and your Lord is not so, and there will be written between his (Masih Ad-Dajjal’s) eyes the word Kāfir (i.e., disbeliever).”

This Hadith is also quoted by Abū Hurairah and Ibn ‘Abbās.

(27) CHAPTER. Ad-Dajjal will not be able to enter Al-Madīna.

7132. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: One day Allah’s Messenger narrated to us a long narration about Ad-Dajjāl and among the things he narrated to us, was: "Ad-Dajjāl will come, and he will be forbidden to enter the mountain passes or the entrances of Al-Madina. He will encamp in one of the salt areas neighbouring Al-Madina, and there will come to him a man who will be the best or one of the best of the people. He will say, 'I testify that you are Ad-Dajjāl whose story Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has told us.' Ad-Dajjāl will say (to his audience), 'Look, if I kill this man and then give him life, will you have any doubt about my claim?' They will reply, 'No.' Then Ad-Dajjāl will kill that man and then will make him alive. The man will say, 'By Allāh, now I recognize you more than ever!' Ad-Dajjāl will then try to kill him (again) but he will not be given the power to do so.' (See H. 1882)

7133. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There are angels at the mountain passes or the entrances of Al-Madina (so that) neither plague nor Ad-Dajjāl can enter it.” (See H. 1880)

7134. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Ad-Dajjāl will come to Al-Madina and find the angels guarding it. So, if Allāh will, neither Ad-Dajjāl nor plague will be able to come near it.”
(28) CHAPTER. Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj (Gog and Magog people).

7135. Narrated Zainab bint Jahsh that one day Allah's Messengerﷺ entered upon her in a state of fear and said, “La ilaha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)! Woe to the Arabs from the great evil that has approached (them). Today a hole has been opened in the dam of Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj (Gog and Magog people) like this.” The Prophetﷺ made a circle with his index finger and thumb. Zainab bint Jahsh added: I said, “O Allah's Messenger! Shall we be destroyed though there will be righteous people among us?” The Prophetﷺ said, “Yes, if Al-Khabath(1) increased.” (See H. 7059)

7136. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophetﷺ said, “A hole has been opened in the dam of Ya'jūj and Ma'jūj (Gog and Magog people).” Wuhaib (the sub-narrator) made the number 90 (with his index finger and thumb).

(1) (H. 7135) The word Al-Khabath is interpreted as illegal sexual intercourse, and illegitimate children, and every kind of evil deed. See Fath Al-Bari.
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (swt):

"(O you who believe!) Obey Allāh and obey the Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) and those of you (Muslims) who are in authority..."

(V.4:59)

7137. Narrated Abu Hurairah (r): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever obeys me, he obeys Allāh, and whoever disobeys me, he disobeys Allāh; and whoever obeys my ruler (the ruler I appoint) he obeys me, and whoever disobeys my (appointed) ruler, he disobeys me.” (See H. 2957)

7138. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar (r): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Surely! Everyone of you is a guardian and is responsible for his charges: The imām (ruler) of the people is a guardian and is responsible for his subjects; a man is the guardian of his family (household) and is responsible for his subjects; a woman is the guardian of her husband’s home and of his children and is responsible for them; and the slave of a man is a guardian of his master’s property and is responsible for it. Surely, everyone of you is a guardian and responsible for his charges.” (See H. 893)
(2) CHAPTER. The (chief) rulers (of all Muslims must be) from the Quraish.

7139. Narrated Muhammad bin Jubair bin Mut‘îm that while he was included in a delegation of the Quraish staying with Mu‘âwiya, Mu‘âwiya heard that ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr had said that there would be a king from the Qahtân tribe, whereupon he became very angry. He stood up, and after glorifying and praising Allâh as He deserved, said, “Ammâ Ba‘dû (to proceed), I have come to know that some of you men are narrating things which are neither in Allah’s Book (the Qur‘ân), nor have been mentioned by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Such people are the ignorant among you. Beware of such vain desires that mislead those who have them. I have heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘This matter (of the caliphate) will remain with the Quraish, and none will rebel against them but Allah will throw him down on his face as long as they stick to the rules and regulations of the religion (Islâm).’”

7140. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This matter (of the caliphate) will remain with the Quraish even if only two of them were still existing.”

(1) (H.7140) The Prophet ﷺ meant (in this Hadith) that the Muslims are obliged to appoint, as their chief ruler, someone from the tribe of Quraish even if there is only one Quraishi left who is fit (as regards the Islâmic religion) for the caliphate.
(3) CHAPTER. The reward of the person who judges according to (the principles of) Al-Hikmah (wisdom i.e., Laws of Allâh's Book), as (is understood from) the Statement of Allâh (SWT):

"...And whosoever does not judge by what Allâh has revealed, (then) such (people) are Al-Fasiqân [the rebellious i.e., disobedient (of a lesser degree) to Allâh]." (V.5:47)

7141. Narrated 'Abdullâh: Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "Do not wish to be like anyone, except in two cases:

1. A man whom Allâh has given wealth and he spends it righteously (in a just and right way according to what Allâh has ordered).
2. A man whom Allâh has given Al-Hikmah (wisdom, knowledge of the Qur'ân and the Sunna — legal ways of the Prophet) and he acts according to it and teaches it to others."

7142. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "You should listen to and obey your Imam (Muslim ruler) even if he was an Ethiopian (black) slave whose head looks like a raisin."

7143. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "If somebody sees his Muslim ruler doing something he disapproves of, he should be patient, for whoever disunite from Al-Jama'ah (the Muslim group) [i.e., becomes separate from the Muslim group] even for a span and then dies, he will die as those who died in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance (as rebellious sinners).” [Fath Al-Bari]

[See Hadith No. 7053]

7144. Narrated ‘Abdullah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A Muslim has to listen to and obey (the order of his Muslim ruler) whether he likes it or not, as long as his orders involve not one in disobedience (to Allah), but if an act of disobedience (to Allah) is imposed, one should not listen to it or obey it.” [See Vol.4, Hadith No. 2955]

7145. Narrated ‘Ali رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ sent an army unit (for some campaign) and appointed a man from the Ansār as its commander and ordered them (the soldiers) to obey him. (During the campaign) he became angry with them and said, “Didn’t the Prophet ﷺ order you to obey me?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “I order you to collect wood and make a fire and then throw yourselves into it.” So they collected wood and made a fire, but when they were about to throw themselves into it they started looking at each other, and some of them said, “We followed the Prophet to escape from the (Hell) Fire. (How) should we enter it now?” So while they were in that state, the fire extinguished and their commander’s anger abated. The event was mentioned to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, “If they had entered it (the fire) they would never have come out of it, for obedience is required only in what is Al-Ma’rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained and all that is good).” [See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4340]
(5) CHAPTER. If somebody does not seek authority of ruling, then Allah will surely help him (if he is given such authority).

7146. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samura: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Do not seek to be a ruler, for if you are given authority on your demand, then you will be held responsible for it, but if you are given it without asking (for it), then you will be helped (by Allah) in it. If you ever take an oath to do something and later on you find that something else is better, then you should expiate your oath and do what is better.”

(6) CHAPTER. He who seeks to be a ruler will be held responsible for that (i.e., Allah will not help him in his duty).

7147. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samura: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Samura! Do not seek to be a ruler, for if you are given authority on your demand, you will be held responsible for it, but if you are given it without asking for it, then you will be helped (by Allah) in it. If you ever take an oath to do something and later on you find that something else is better, then do what is better and make expiation for your oath.”

(7) CHAPTER. What is disliked regarding being keen to have the authority of ruling.

7148. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “You people will be keen to have the authority of ruling which will be a thing of regret for you on the Day of Resurrection. What an excellent wet nurse it is, yet what a bad weaning one it is!"\(^{(1)}\)

7149. Narrated Abū Musa: Two men from my tribe and I entered upon the Prophet . One of two men said to the Prophet , "O Allah's Messenger! Appoint me as a governor," and so did the second. The Prophet said, "We do not assign the authority of ruling to those who ask for it, nor to those who are keen to have it."

(8) CHAPTER. If somebody is assigned the authority of ruling some people but, he does not look after them in an honest manner!

7150. Narrated Ma'qil: I heard the Prophet saying, "Any man whom Allah has given the authority of ruling some people and he does not look after them in an honest manner, will never have even the smell of Paradise."

\(^{(1)}\) (H.7148) The authority of ruling is like a wet nurse for the ruler, because it provides him with all sorts of pleasures, but as soon as he is dismissed or dies, he is weaned, i.e., deprived from all such pleasures and is taken to account.
7151. Narrated Ma'qil: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If any ruler having the authority to rule Muslim subjects dies while he is deceiving them, Allâh will forbid Paradise for him.”

(9) CHAPTER. Whoever puts the people into troubles and difficulties will be put into troubles and difficulties by Allâh.

7152. Narrated Ţârif Abû Tamîma: I saw Šafwân and Jundab and Šafwân’s companions when Jundab was advising. They said, “Did you hear something from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ?” Jundab said, “I heard him saying, ‘Whoever does a good deed in order to show off, Allâh will expose his intentions on the Day of Resurrection (before the people), and whoever puts the people into difficulties, Allâh will put him into difficulties on the Day of Resurrection.’” The people said (to Jundab), “Advise us.” He said, “The first thing of the human body to putrefy is the abdomen, so he who can eat nothing but good food (Halâl and earned lawfully) should do so, and he who does as much as he can that nothing intervenes between him and Paradise by not shedding even a handful of blood (i.e., murdering), should do so.”
(10) CHAPTER. To give judgements and legal opinions on the road.

Yahyā bin Ya'mar gave a judgement on the road; and Ash-Sha'bi gave a judgement at the gate of his house.

7153. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
While the Prophet and I were coming out of the mosque, a man met us outside the gate. The man said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! When will be the Hour?” The Prophet asked him, “What have you prepared for it?” The man became afraid and ashamed and then said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! I haven’t prepared for it much of Siyām (fasting), Salāt (prayers) or charitable gifts but I love Allah and His Messenger.” The Prophet said, “You will be with the one whom you love.”

(11) CHAPTER. It is mentioned that there was no gatekeeper for the Prophet .

7154. Narrated Thábit Al-Bunání: Anas bin Malik said to a woman of his family, “Do you know such and such a woman?” She replied, “Yes.” He said, “The Prophet passed by her while she was weeping over a grave, and he said to her, ‘Be afraid of Allah and be patient.’ The woman said (to the Prophet), ‘Go away from me, for you do..." not know my calamity.'” Anas added, “The Prophet ﷺ left her and proceeded. A man passed by her and asked her, ‘What has Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to you?’ She replied, ‘I did not recognize him.’ The man said, ‘He was Allah’s Messenger.’” Anas added, “So that woman came to the gate of the Prophet ﷺ and she did not find any gatekeeper there, and she said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, I did not recognize you!’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘No doubt, patience is at the first stroke of a calamity.’”

(12) CHAPTER. A governor (of a province, etc.,) who is under the Imam can sentence to death a person who deserves such punishment without consulting the Imam.

7155. Narrated Anas: Qais bin Sa’d was to the Prophet ﷺ like a chief police officer to an Amir (chief).

7156. Narrated Abû Musa that the Prophet ﷺ sent him and sent Mu‘adh after him (as rulers to Yemen).

7157. Narrated Abû Musa: A man embraced Islam and then reverted back to Judaism. Mu‘adh bin Jabal came and saw the man with Abû Musa. Mu‘adh asked, “What is wrong with this (man)?” Abû Musa replied, “He embraced Islām and then reverted back to Judaism.” Mu‘ādh said, “I will not sit down unless you kill him (as it is) the verdict of Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ.”

(13) CHAPTER. Can a judge give a judgement or a formal legal opinion while he is in an angry mood?

7158. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakra: Abū Bakra wrote to his son who was in Sijistān: Do not judge between two persons when you are angry, for I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “A judge should not judge between two persons while he is in an angry mood.”

7159. Narrated Abū Ma‘ṣūd Al-Anṣārī: A man came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! By Allāh, I fail to attend the morning congregational Salāt (prayer) because so-and-so (i.e., Mu‘ādh bin Jabal) prolongs the Salāt (prayer) when he leads us for it.” I had never seen the Prophet ﷺ more furious in giving advice than he was on that day. He then said, “O people! Some of you make others dislike [good deeds, i.e. Salāt (prayer) etc.]. So whoever among you leads the people in Salāt (prayer), he should shorten it (make it brief) because among them there are the old, the weak and the one who is in a state that requires urgent relief (having some urgent jobs to do).” [See Hadith Vol. 1, No. 90]
7160. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar that he had divorced his wife during her menses. 'Umar mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ. Allah's Messenger ﷺ became angry and said, "He must take her back (his wife) and keep her with him till she becomes clean from her menses and then to wait till she gets her next period and becomes clean again from it; and only then, if he wants to divorce her, he may do so."

(14) CHAPTER. Whosoever thinks that a judge can give judgements for the people according to his knowledge if he is not afraid of being suspected or blamed.

As the Prophet ﷺ said to Hind (bint 'Utba, the wife of Abu Sufyan), "Take (of your husband's wealth) what is reasonably sufficient for you and your children, and that is if the case is a well-known matter."

7161. Narrated 'Aishah: Hind bint 'Utba bin Rabia came and said, "O Allah's Messenger! By Allah, there was no family on the surface of the earth I like to see in degradation more than I did your family, but today there is no family on the surface of the earth whom I like to see honoured more than yours." Hind added, "Abu Sufyân is a miser. Is it sinful of me to feed our children from his property?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "There is no blame on you if you feed them (thereof) in a just and reasonable manner."
(15) CHAPTER. To bear witness as to the writer of a stamped letter, and to what extent it is permissible or forbidden to (bear such witness). The letter of a ruler sent to his governor, and similarly of a judge to a judge.

Some people said, “The letter of a ruler can be relied upon except in cases involving a legal punishment (prescribed by Allah).” The same people then said, “If the case involves an accidental homicide, the letter can be taken into consideration.” Because the case becomes one of money in their opinion. But the case becomes one of money only when the homicide is proved. Therefore both an accidental homicide and a premeditated murder are the same (in this respect).

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Aziz wrote (to his governor) regarding the case of a tooth that had been broken. İbrahim said, “It is permissible to depend on the letter from the judge to the judge as long as the latter knows the handwriting and the stamp of the former.

And Ash-Sha’bi used to make orders according to stamped letters including the ones sent by a judge. Ibn ‘Umar is said to have done so.

Manṣūr giving their judgements, depending on the letters of the judges without the presence of witnesses. If the person, against whom the letter is intended, claims that it is false, he is ordered to try to find a way out of it. The first person who asked for witnesses to confirm the letter of the judge was Ibn Abī Laila and Sawār bin 'Abdullāh. And Abū Nu‘āim said to us, “‘Ubaidullāh bin Muhriz said to us, ‘I brought a letter from Mūsa bin Anas (the judge of Baṣrah) after I had presented witnesses before him that such and such a person who was in Kūfa owed me such and such property. I took the letter to Al-Qāsim bin ‘Abdur-Rabman (the judge of Kūfa) who accepted it (as a valid basis for his judgement).”

Al-Ḥasan and Abū Qilāba disliked that one be a witness in the cases of a will, unless one knew what it contained, for there might be some injustice in it.

The Prophet ﷺ wrote to the Khaibar people: You should either pay the blood-money of your (murdered) companion, otherwise receive our warning of war.

Az-Zuhrī said regarding bearing witness as to the identity of a woman staying behind a curtain, “If you know her give witness otherwise don’t give witness.”

7162. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
When the Prophet ﷺ intended to write to the (rulers of) Byzantines, the people said, “They do not read a letter unless it is sealed (stamped).” Therefore the Prophet ﷺ took a silver ring, as if I am looking at its glitter now and its engraving was: Muḥammad, Messenger of Allāh.
(16) CHAPTER. When is a man entitled to be a judge?

And Al-Hasan said, “Allâh has enjoined an obligation on all the rulers that they should not follow the lust of their hearts and should not be afraid of the people and should not sell Allâh’s Verses for a low price.”

Al-Hasan then recited Allâh’s Verses:

“O Dawûd (David)! Verily! We have placed you as a successor on earth, so judge you between men in truth (and justice) and follow not your desire – for it will mislead you from the Path of Allâh. Verily! Those who wander astray from the Path of Allâh (shall) have a severe torment, because they forget the Day of Reckoning.” (V.38:26)

And then he recited:

“Verily! We did send down the Torah (to Moses); therein was guidance and light, by which the Prophets, who submitted themselves to Allâh’s Will, judged for the Jews. And the rabbis and the priests (too judged for the Jews by Taurât after those Prophets), for to them was entrusted the protection of Allâh’s Book, and they were witnesses thereto. Therefore, fear not men but fear Me (O Jews) and sell not My Verses for a miserable price. And whosoever does not judge by what Allâh has revealed, (then) such are the Kafirûn (i.e., disbelievers – of a lesser degree)…” (V.5:44)

And then he recited the Verses:

“And (remember) Dawûd (David) and Sulaimân (Solomon), when they gave judgement in the case of the field in which the sheep of certain people had pastured at night and We were witness to their judgement. And We made Sulaimân to understand (the case), and to each of them We gave Hukm (right judgement of the affairs and Prophethood); and (religious) knowledge…” (V.21:78,79)

Hasan added, “Allâh praised Sulâîmân and did not blame Dâwûd for his mistake. And if Allâh had not mentioned the case of these two persons you would have seen all the judges destroyed, but Allâh praised one for his knowledge and excused the other because he judged by what he had thought to be the fairest.”

Muzâhîm bin Zufar said, “Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azîz said to us, ‘There are five qualities (which a judge should possess), and if he does not have one of them then he has one defect; and those qualities are: He must be an intelligent, patient, honest, stern and a learned religious scholar and knowledge seeking.’”

17) CHAPTER. The salaries of rulers and those employed to administer the funds.

Shurairî, the judge, used to take a salary for his working as a judge.

‘Aîshah, wife of ‘Umar said, “A guardian can take (of the orphan’s wealth) in a reasonable and just manner according to his efforts. Abû Bakr and ‘Umar took salaries (for their jobs as caliphs).

7163. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin As-Sa’dî that when he went to ‘Umar during his caliphate, ‘Umar said to him, “Haven’t I been told that you do certain jobs for the people but when you are given payment you refuse to take it?” ‘Abdullâh said, “Yes.” ‘Umar said, “Why do you do so?” I said, “I have horses and slaves and I am living in prosperity and I wish that my payment should be kept as a charitable gift for the Muslims.” ‘Umar said, “Do not do so, for I intended to do the same as you do. Allâh’s Messenger used to give me gifts and I used to say to him, ‘Give it to a more needy one than me.’” Once he gave me some money and I said, ‘Give it to a more needy person than me,’ whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Take it and keep it in your possession and then give it in charity. Take whatever comes to you of this money while you are not keen to have it and not asking for it; otherwise (i.e., if it does not come to you) do not seek to have it yourself.’”

7164 Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar: I have heard Umar saying, “The Prophet ﷺ used to give me some money (grant) and I would say (to him), ‘Give it to a more needy one than me.’ Once he gave me some money and I said, ‘Give it to a more needy one than me.’ The Prophet ﷺ said (to me), ‘Take it and keep it in your possession and then give it in charity. Take whatever comes to you of this money while you are not keen to have it and not asking for it; take it, but you should not seek to have what you are not given.’”

(18) CHAPTER. Whoever gave judgements of Li‘ān(1) in the mosque.

And ‘Umar passed the judgement of Li‘ān near the pulpit of the Prophet ﷺ.

(1) (Ch.18) Li‘ān means taking of oaths by the husband accusing his wife of illegal sexual intercourse and by the wife defending herself. See V.24:6-9.
Shuraih Ash-Sha‘bī and Yahyā bin Ya‘mar passed judgements in the mosque. And Marwān passed the judgement that Zaid bin Thabit should take an oath near the pulpit. Al-Hasan and Zurâra bin Aufa used to pass judgements in the open space outside the mosque.

7165. Narrated Sahil bin Sa‘d: I witnessed a husband and a wife who were involved in a case of Li‘ān. Then (the judgement of) divorce was passed. I was fifteen years of age, at that time.

7166. Narrated Sahl, the brother of Banī Sā‘īda: A man from the Ansār came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “If a man finds another man sleeping with his wife, should he kill him?” That man and his wife then did Li‘ān(1) in the mosque while I was present.

9) CHAPTER. Whosoever passed a judgement in the mosque and when the actual legal punishment was to be put to action, he ordered the guilty person to be taken outside the mosque so that the punishment might be carried out.

‘Umar said (to two men), “Take him (the criminal) out of the mosque.” Then he beat him. It is said that ‘Alī said the same.

7167. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to Allah’s Messenger while he was in the mosque, and called him, saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet ﷺ turned his face to the other side, but when the man confessed the crime four times against himself, the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Are you mad?” The man said, “No.” So the Prophet ﷺ said (to his Companions), “Take him away and stone him to death.”

(1) (H.7166) Li‘ān: See the glossary.

7168. [H. 7167 contd.] Narrated Jâbir bin Abdullah: I was one of those who stoned him at the Musalla in Al-Madina. (See H. 5272)

(20) CHAPTER. The advice of the Imãm (ruler) to the litigants.

7169. Narrated Umm Salama: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I am only a human being, and you people (opponents) come to me with your cases; and it may be that one of you can present his case eloquently in a more convincing way than the other, and I give my verdict according to what I hear. So, if ever I judge (by error) and give the right of a brother to his other (brother) then he (the latter) should not take it, for I am giving him only a piece of (Hell) Fire.” [See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2458]

(21) CHAPTER. If a judge has to witness in favour of a litigant when he is a judge or he... had it before he became a judge (can he pass a judgement in his favour accordingly or should he refer the case to another judge before whom he would bear witness?).

And the judge Shuraiḥ said to a person who sought his witness, “Go to the ruler so that I may bear witness (before him) for you.”

And ‘Ikrima said, “Umar said to ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Auf, ‘If I saw a man committing illegal sexual intercourse or theft, and you were the ruler (what would you do)?’ ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, ‘I would regard your witness as equal to the witness of any other man among the Muslims.’ Umar said, ‘You have said the truth.’ Umar added, ‘If I were not afraid of the fact that people may say that ‘Umar has added to the Qur’an extra (Verses), I would have written the Verse of Ar-Rajm (stoning of married adulterers) with my own hands.’ ”

And Má‘īz confessed before the Prophet that he had committed illegal sexual intercourse, whereupon the Prophet ordered him to be stoned to death. It is not mentioned that the Prophet sought witness of those who were present there.

Hammād said “If an adulterer confesses before a ruler once only, he should be stoned to death.” But Al-Hakam said, “He must confess four times.”

7170. Narrated Abū Qatāda: Allah’s Messenger said on the Day of (the battle of) Ḥunain, “Whosoever has killed an infidel and has a proof or a witness for it, then the Saib (arms and belongings of that deceased) will be for him.” I stood up to seek a witness to testify that I had killed an infidel but I could not find any witness and then sat down. Then I thought that I should mention the case to Allah’s Messenger (and when I did so) a man from those who were sitting with him said, “The arms of the killed person he has mentioned, are with me, so please satisfy him on my behalf.” Abū Bakr said, “No, he will not give the arms to a ‘bird’ of Quraish and deprive one of Allāh’s lions of it who fights for the Cause of Allāh and His Messenger.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up and gave it to me, and I bought a garden with its price, and that was my first property which I owned through the war booty.

The people of Hijāz said, “A judge should not pass a judgement according to his knowledge, whether he was a witness at the time he was the judge or before that.” And if a litigant gives a confession in favour of his opponent in the court, in the opinion of some scholars, the judge should not pass a judgement against him till the latter calls two witnesses to witness his confession. And some people of ‘Iraq said, “A judge can pass a judgement according to what he hears or witnesses (the litigant’s confession) in the court itself, but if the confession takes place outside the court, he should not pass the judgement unless two witnesses witness the confession.” Some of them said, “A judge can pass a judgement depending on his own knowledge of the case as he is trustworthy, and that a witness is required just to reveal the truth. The judge’s knowledge is more than the witness.” Some said, “A judge can judge according to his knowledge only in cases involving property, but in other cases he cannot.” Al-Qāsim said, “A judge ought not to pass a judgement depending on his own knowledge if other people are ignorant of what he knows, although his knowledge is more than the witness of somebody else as he might expose himself to suspicion by the Muslims and cause the Muslims to have unreasonable doubt.”
7171. Narrated 'Ali bin Husain: Safiyya bint (daughter of) Huyai came to the Prophet (in the mosque) and when she returned (home) the Prophet accompanied her. It happened that two men from the Ansar passed by them and the Prophet called them saying, “She is Safiyya!”(1) Those two men said, “Subhan Allah!” The Prophet said, “Satan circulates in the human body as blood does.”

(22) CHAPTER. The order of the Wali (chief ruler) sending two Amir (governors) to one place that they should cooperate and agree with each other and should not differ with one another.

7172. Narrated Abú Burda: The Prophet sent my father and Mu'adh bin Jabal to Yemen and said (to them), “Make things easy for the people and do not put hurdles in their way, and give them glad tiding, and don’t let them have aversion (i.e., to make people to hate good deeds) and you both should work in cooperation and mutual understanding”. Abū Mūsā said to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, “In our country a special alcoholic drink called Al-Bīṭ, is prepared (for drinking).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Every intoxicant is prohibited.”

(1) (H.7171) The Prophet disliked suspicion and said, “She is Safiyya., i.e., my wife.”

(23) CHAPTER. The ruler’s acceptance of invitation.

‘Uthmān accepted the invitation of a slave of Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba.

7173. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Set free the captives and accept invitations.”

(24) CHAPTER. The gifts taken by the employees.

7174. Narrated Abū Humaid As-Sā‘īḍi: The Prophet ﷺ appointed a man from the tribe of Bani Asad, called Ibn Al-Utabiyya, to collect the Zakāt. When he returned (with the money) he said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “This is for you and this has been given to me as a gift.” The Prophet ﷺ stood up on the pulpit (Ṣuyān said he ascended the pulpit), and after glorifying and praising Allāh, he said, “What is wrong with the employee whom we send (to collect Zakāt from the public) that he returns to say, ‘This is for you and that is for me?’ Why didn’t he stay at his father’s and mother’s house to see whether he will be given gifts or not? By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, whoever takes anything illegally will bring it on the Day of Resurrection by carrying it over his neck; if it is a camel, it will be grunting; if it is a cow, it will be mooing; and if it is a sheep it will be bleating!” The Prophet ﷺ then raised both his hands till we saw the whiteness of his armpits (and he said), “No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allah’s Message?” And he repeated it three times.

(25) CHAPTER. To appoint the Maulā (freed slaves) as judges and officials.

7175. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Salim, the freed slave of Abū Ḥudhaifa used to lead in Ṣalāt (prayer) the early Muhājarūn (emigrants) and the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ in the Qubā’ mosque. Among those [who used to offer Ṣalāt (prayer) behind him] were Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, Abū Salama, and ‘Amir bin Rabī‘a.
(26) CHAPTER. The ‘Urafa’ (1) appointed to look after the people’s affairs.

7176, 7177.Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: Marwân bin Al-Ḥakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama told him that when the Muslims were permitted to set free the captives of Hawazin, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I do not know who amongst you has agreed (to it) and who has not. Go back so that your ‘Urafa’ may submit your decision to us.” So the people returned and their ‘Urafa’ talked to them and then (their ‘Urafa’) came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and told him that the people had given their consent happily and permitted (their captives to be freed).

(27) CHAPTER. What is disliked as regards praising the Sultan (ruler) (in his presence) and saying something different after leaving him.

7178. Narrated Muhammad bin Zaid bin ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Some people said to Ibn ‘Umar. “When we enter upon our ruler(s) we say in their praise what is contrary to what we say when we leave them.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “We used to consider this as hypocrisy.”

7179. Narrated ‘Abū Hurairah : Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The worst of all mankind is the double-faced one, who comes to some people with one countenance and to others, with another countenance.”

(28) CHAPTER. Passing a judgement against an absent person.

7180. Narrated ‘Ā’ishah : Hind (bint ‘Utba) said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Abū Sufyān is a miserly man and I need to take some money of his wealth.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Take reasonably what is sufficient for you and your children.”

(29) CHAPTER. Whoever is given the right of his brother (by error) through a judicial decision, then he should not take it as the judge’s judgement cannot render what is illegal, legal or what is legal, illegal.

7181. Narrated Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ heard some people quarrelling at the door of his dwelling, so he went out to them and said, “I am only a human being, and litigants with cases of dispute come to me, and someone of you may happen to be more eloquent (in presenting his case) than the other, whereby I may consider that he is truthful and pass a judgement in his favour. If ever I pass a judgement in favour of somebody whereby he takes a Muslim’s right unjustly, then whatever he takes is nothing but a piece of (Hell) Fire, and it is up to him to take or leave.”

7182. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: ‘Utba bin Abi Waqqas said to his brother Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas, “The son of the slave-girl of Zam’a is from me, so take him into your custody.” So in the year of conquest of Makkah, Sa’d took him and said, “(This is) my brother’s son whom my brother has asked me to take into my custody.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a got up before him and said, “(This is) my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father, and was born on my father’s bed.” So they both submitted their case before Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Sa’d said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This boy is the son of my brother and he entrusted him to me.” ‘Abd bin Zam’a said, “This boy is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father, and was born on the bed of my father.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The boy is for you, O ‘Abd bin Zam’a!” Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ further said, “The child is for the owner of the bed, and the stone is for the adulterer.” He then said to Sauda bint Zam’a, “Veil (screen) yourself before him,” when he saw the boy’s resemblance to ‘Utba. The boy did not see her again till he met Allah (i.e., died).
(30) CHAPTER. Judgement regarding the cases involving wells, etc.

7183. Narrated `Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If somebody on the demand of a judge takes an oath to grab (a Muslim’s) property and he is liar in what he is saying, he will meet Allâh Who will be angry with him.” So Allâh revealed:

“Verily! Those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Covenant and their oaths…” (V.3:77)

7184. [H. 7183 contd.]: Al-Ash’ath came while ‘Abdullah was narrating (this) to the people. Al-Ash’ath said, “This Verse was revealed regarding me and another man with whom I had a quarrel about a well. The Prophet ﷺ said (to me), ‘Do you have an evidence?’ I replied, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Let your opponent take an oath.’ I said, ‘I am sure he would take a (false) oath.’ Thereupon it was revealed:

‘Verily! Those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allâh’s Covenant…”’ (V.3:77)

(31) CHAPTER. To judge (all) cases involving wealth, whether it is much or little in amount, in one and the same.

And Ibn ‘Uyaina stated on the authority of Ibn Shubruma, “It is the same to judge a case involving a little or a big amount of wealth.”

7185. Narrated Umm Salama: The Prophet ﷺ heard the voices of some people quarrelling near the door of his dwelling, so he went to them and said, “I am only a human being; and litigants with cases of disputes come to me, and may be one of them presents his case eloquently in a more convincing and impressive way than the other, whereby I may consider that he is truthful and pass a judgement in his favour. So if I give a Muslim’s right to another (by mistake), then that (property) is a piece of (Hell) Fire, and it is up to him to take it or leave it.” [See also Hadith No. 7181]

(32) CHAPTER. The selling of the people’s real or personal estates by the ruler on their behalf.

The Prophet ﷺ sold a Mudabbar(1) slave of Nu‘aim bin Nahām.

7186. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet ﷺ came to know that one of his Companions had given the promise of freeing his slave after his death, but as he had no other property than that slave, the Prophet ﷺ sold that slave for 800 Dirham and sent the price to him.

(33) CHAPTER. Whoever does not care about slanders made by ignorant people against the Amirs (leaders).

7187. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent an army unit headed by Usāma bin Zaid and the people criticised his (Usāma’s) leadership. The Prophet ﷺ said (to the people), “If you are criticising his leadership now, then you used to criticise his father’s leadership before. By Allāh, he (Usāma’s father) deserved the leadership and used to be of the most beloved persons to me, and now his son (Usâma) is one of the most beloved persons to me after him.” [See Vol. 5, Hadith

No.4469]

(34) CHAPTER. The one who is the most contentious of enemies; and that is, the most quarrelsome person of the opponents.

7188. Narrated 'ÂishahRTC: Allâh's Messenger RTC said, “The most hated man (person) to Allâh, is the one who is the most quarrelsome of the opponents.” (See H. 2457)

(35) CHAPTER. If a judge passes an unjust judgement or a judgement which differs from that of the learned religious men, such a judgement is to be rejected.

7189. Narrated Ibn 'Umar RTC: The Prophet RTC sent (an army unit under the command of) Khâlid bin Al-Walid to fight against the tribe of Banî Jadhîma and those people could not express themselves by saying, “Aslâmânâ,”(1) but they said, “Sabâ'nâ! Sabâ'nâ!”(2) Khâlid kept on killing some of them and taking some others as captives, and he gave a captive to everyone of us and ordered everyone of us to kill his captive.(3) I said, “By Allâh, I shall not kill my captive and none of my companions shall kill their captives!” Then we mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said, “O Allah! I am free from what Khalid bin Al-Walid has done,” and repeated it twice.

(36) CHAPTER. The Imam (ruler) going to some people to establish peace among them.

7190. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'idi:
There was some quarrel (fighting) among Banî ‘Amr, and when this news reached the Prophet ﷺ, he offered the Zuhr prayer and went to establish peace among them. In the meantime the time of ‘Asr prayer was due, Bilal pronounced the Adhân and then the Iqâma for the Salât (prayer) and requested Abû Bakr (to lead the Salât) and Abû Bakr went forward. The Prophet ﷺ arrived while Abû Bakr was still in Salât (prayer). He entered the rows of people offering prayer till he stood behind Abû Bakr in the (first) row. The people started clapping, and it was the habit of Abû Bakr that whenever he stood for Salât (prayer), he never glanced sideways till he had finished the Salât (prayer), but when Abû Bakr observed that the clapping was not coming to an end, he looked and saw the Prophet ﷺ standing behind him. The Prophet ﷺ beckoned him to carry on by waving his hand. Abû Bakr stood there for a while, thanking Allah for the saying of the Prophet ﷺ and then he retreated, taking his steps backwards. When the Prophet ﷺ saw that, he went ahead and led the people in Salāt (prayer). When he finished the Salāt (prayer), he said, “O Abū Bakr! What prevented you from carrying on with the Salāt (prayer) after I beckoned you to do so?” Abū Bakr replied, “It does not befit the son of Abu Qahfa to lead the Prophet ﷺ in Salāt (prayer).” Then the Prophet ﷺ said to the people, “If some problem arises during Salāt (prayer), then the men should say, Subhān Allāh! and the women should clap.” [See Vol.1, Hadith No. 684]

(37) CHAPTER. It is desirable that a scribe should be honest and wise.

7191.Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: Abū Bakr sent for me, owing to the large number of casualties in the battle of Al-Yamāma, while ‘Umar was sitting with him. Abū Bakr said (to me), ‘Umar has come to me and said, “A great number of Qurra’ (those who know the Qur’an by heart) of the Qur’an were killed on the day (of the battle) of Al-Yamāma, and I am afraid that the casualties among the Qurra’ of the Qur’an may increase on other battlefields whereby a large part of the Qur’an may be lost. Therefore, I consider it advisable that you (Abū Bakr) should have the Qur’an collected.” I said, “How dare I do something which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ did not do?” ‘Umar said, “By Allah, it is something beneficial.” ‘Umar kept on pressing me for that till Allah opened my chest for that for which He had opened the chest of ‘Umar and I had in that matter the same opinion as ‘Umar had. Abū Bakr then said to me (Zaid), “You are a wise young man and we do not have any suspicion about you, and you used to write the Divine Revelation for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. So you should search for the fragmentary scripts of the Qur’an and collect it (in one Book).”

Zaid further said: By Allah, if Abu Bakr had ordered me to shift a mountain among the mountains from one place to another it would not have been heavier for me than this ordering me to collect the Qur’an. Then I said (to ‘Umar and Abu Bakr), “How can you do something which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ did not do?”

Abu Bakr said, “By Allah, it is something beneficial.” Zaid added: So he (Abu Bakr) kept on pressing me for that, until Allah opened my chest for that for which He had opened the chests of Abu Bakr and ‘Umar, and I had in that matter the same opinion as theirs. So I started compiling the Qur’an by collecting it from the leafless stalks of the date-palm tree and from the pieces of leather and hides and from the stones, and from the chests of men (who had memorized the Qur’an). I found the last Verses of Surat At-Tauba:

“Verily there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammadﷺ) from amongst yourselves...” (V.9:128,129) from Khuzaima or Abu Khuzaima and I added it to the rest of the Sūrah. The manuscripts of the Qur’an remained with Abu Bakr till Allah took him unto Him. Then it remained with ‘Umar till Allah took him unto Him, and then with Hafsa bint ‘Umar.

(38) CHAPTER. The writing of a letter by the ruler to his representatives (in the provinces), and by the judge to his workers who look after the problems of the people.

7192. Narrated Abu Laila bin ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Sahl: Sahl bin Abu Hathma and some great men of his tribe said, ‘Abdullāh bin Sahl and Muḥāyiṣa went out to Khaybar as they were struck with poverty and difficult living conditions. Then Muḥāyiṣa was informed that ‘Abdullāh had been killed and thrown in a pit or a spring. Muḥāyiṣa went to the Jews and said, “By Allāh, you have killed my companion.” The Jews said, “By Allāh, we have not killed him.” Muḥāyiṣa then came back to his people and told them the story. He, his elder brother Huwaiṣa and ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Sahl came (to the Prophet) and he who had been at Khaybar, proceeded and started to speak, but the Prophet said to Muḥāyiṣa, “The eldest! The eldest!” meaning, “Let the eldest of you speak.” So Huwaiṣa spoke first and then Muḥāyiṣa. Allāh’s Messenger said, “The Jews should either pay the blood-money of your (deceased) companion or be ready for war.” After that, Allāh’s Messenger wrote a letter to the Jews in that respect, and they wrote that they had not killed him. Then Allāh’s Messenger said to Huwaiṣa, Muḥāyiṣa and ‘Abdur-Rahmān, “Can you take an oath by which you will be entitled to take the blood-money?” They said, “No.” He said (to them), “Shall we ask the Jews to take an oath before you?” They replied, “But the Jews are not Muslims.” So Allāh’s Messenger gave them one hundred she-camels as blood-money from himself. Sahl added: When those she-camels were made to enter the house, one of them kicked me with its leg.
7193, 7194. Narrated Abu Hurairah and Zaid bin Khalid Al-Juhani: A bedouin came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Judge between us according to Allah’s Book (Laws).” His opponent stood up and said, “He said the truth, so judge between us according to Allah’s Laws.” The bedouin said, “My son was a labourer for this man and committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife. The people said to me, ‘Your son is to be stoned to death,’ so I ransomed my son for one hundred sheep and a slave-girl. Then I asked the religious learned men and they said to me, ‘Your son has to receive one hundred lashes and also one year of exile.’”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “I shall judge between you according to Allah’s Book (Laws)! As for the slave-girl and the sheep, it shall be returned to you, and your son shall receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for one year.” “O you, Unais!” the Prophet ﷺ addressed the man, “Go in the morning to the wife of this man and (if she confessed) stone her to death.” So Unais went to her the next morning (she confessed) so he stoned her to death. (See H. 6859)

(40) CHAPTER. The translators of a ruler; and is it permissible to keep one translator?

7195. Khārija bin Zaid bin Thabit said that Zaid bin Thabit said, “The Prophet ﷺ ordered me to learn the writing of the Jews. I even wrote letters for the Prophet (to the Jews) and also read their letters when they wrote to him.”

And ‘Umar said in the presence of ‘Ali, ‘Abdur-Rahmân and ‘Uthmân, “What is this woman saying?” (1) ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin Ḥātib said, “She is informing you about her companion who has committed illegal sexual intercourse with her.”

Abū Jamra said, “I was an interpreter between Ibn ‘Abbās and the people.” Some people said, “A ruler should have two interpreters.”

7196. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās that Abū Suḥāyṣ bin Ḥarb told him that Heraclius had called him along with the members of a Quraish caravan and then said to his interpreter, “Tell them that I want to ask this (Abū Suḥāyṣ) some questions, and if he tries to tell me a lie, they should contradict him.” Then Abū Suḥāyṣ mentioned the whole narration and said that Heraclius said to the interpreter, “Say to him (Abū Suḥāyṣ), ‘If what you say is true, then he (the Prophet ﷺ) will take over the place underneath my two feet.’” [See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 7, for details). [41] CHAPTER. The ruler calling his employees to account.

7197. Narrated Abū Ḥumād As-Sa‘īdī: The Prophet ﷺ employed Ibn Al-Utābiyya to collect Zakāt from Banī Sulaim, and when he returned (with the money) to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, the Prophet ﷺ called him to account, and he said, “This (amount) is for

(1) (H.7195) The woman was a non-Arab.
you, and this was given to me as a gift.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Why don’t you stay at your father’s house or your mother’s house to see whether you will be given gifts or not, if you are telling the truth?” Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ stood up and addressed the people, and after glorifying and praising Allah, he said, “Ammā Ba’dū (then after) I employ some men from among you for some job which Allah has placed in my charge, and then one of you comes to me and says, ‘This (amount) is for you and this is a gift given to me.’ Why doesn’t he stay at the house of his father or the house of his mother and see whether he will be given gifts or not, if he was telling the truth? By Allah, none of you takes anything of it (i.e., Zakāt) for himself unlawfully but he will meet Allah on the Day of Resurrection carrying it over his neck! I do not want to see any of you carrying a grunting camel or a mooing cow, or a bleating sheep on meeting Allah.” Then the Prophet ﷺ raised both his hands, till I saw the whiteness of his armpits, and said, “(No doubt)! Haven’t I conveyed Allah’s Message!”

(42) CHAPTER. The courtiers and advisers of the Imam (ruler).

7198. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah never sends a Prophet or gives the caliphate to a caliph but that he (the Prophet or the caliph) has two groups of advisers: A group advising him to do good and exhorts him to do it, and the other group advising him to do evil and exhorts him to do it. But the protected person (against such evil advisers) is the one protected by Allāh.”

(43) CHAPTER. How do the people give the Baiʻa (pledge) to the Imām (ruler)?

7199. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit: We gave the Baiʻa (pledge) to Allāh’s Messenger that we would listen to and obey him both at the time when we were active and at the time when we were tired.

7200. [H. 7199 contd.] And that we would not fight against the ruler or disobey him, and would stand firm for the truth or say the truth wherever we might be, and in the Way of Allâh we would not be afraid of the blame of the blamers.

[See Hadîth No.7213]

7201. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنهٌ: The Prophet ﷺ went out on a cold morning while the Muhãjirûn (emigrants) and the Anšâr were digging the trench. The Prophet ﷺ then said,

"O Allâh! The real goodness is the goodness of the Hereafter, so please forgive the Anšâr and the Muhãjirûn."

They replied, "We are those who have given the Ba‘î’a (pledge) to Muhammad ﷺ to observe Jihâd as long as we remain alive."

7202. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهٌ: Whenever we gave the Ba‘î’a (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ for to listen and obey, he used to say to us, “For as much as you can” (i.e., whatever is in your ability).

7203. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Dinãr: I witnessed Ibn ‘Umar when the people gathered around ‘Abdul-Mâlik. Ibn ‘Umar wrote: “I gave the Ba‘î’a (pledge) that I will listen to and obey Allâh’s slave, ‘Abdul-Mâlik, chief of the believers, according to Allâh’s Laws and the Sunna of His Messenger as much as I can; and my sons too, give the same pledge.”
7204. Narrated Jarir bin 'Abdullãh: I gave the Bai'a (pledge) to the Prophet that I would listen and obey, and he told me to add: “As much as I can, and to be sincere and true to every Muslim [i.e. order them for Al-Ma'rûf (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained) and forbid them from Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief, polytheism, and all that Islam has forbidden), and to help them and to be merciful and kind to them].” (See H. 57)

7205. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin Dinar: When the people gave the Bai’a (pledge) to ’Abdul-Malîk, 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar wrote to him: “To Allah’s slave, ‘Abdul-Malîk, chief of the believers, I gave the Bai’a that I will listen to and obey, according to Allah’s Laws and Sunna (legal ways) of His Messenger in whatever is within my ability; and my sons, too, give the same pledge.”

7206. Narrated Yazid: I said to Salama, “For what did you give the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet on the Day of Hudaibiya?” He replied, “For death.”

7207. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: The group of people whom ‘Umar had selected as candidates for the caliphate gathered and consulted each other. 'Abdur-Rahmân said to them, “I am not going to compete with you in this matter, but if you wish, I would select for you a caliph from among you.” So all of them agreed to let ‘Abdur-Rahmân decide who will be the new caliph. So when the candidates placed the case in the hands of ‘Abdur-Rahmân, the people went towards him and nobody followed the rest of the group nor obeyed any after him. So the people followed ‘Abdur-Rahmân and consulted him all those nights till there came the night we gave the Bai’a (pledge) to ‘Uthmân. Al-Miswar (bin Makhrama) added: ‘Abdur-Rahmân called on me after a portion of the night had passed and knocked on my door till I got up, and he said to me, “I see you have been sleeping! By Allâh, during the last three nights I have not slept enough. Go and call Az-Zubair and Sa’d.” So I called them for him and he consulted them and then called me saying, “Call ‘Ali for me.” I called ‘Ali and he held a private talk with him till very late at night, and then ‘Ali got up to leave having had much hope (to be chosen as a caliph) but ‘Abdur-Rahmân was afraid of something concerning ‘Ali. ‘Abdur-Rahmân then said to me, “Call ‘Uthmân for me.” I called him and he kept on speaking to him privately till the Mu’adî-dhin put an end to their talk by calling the ādhan for the Fajr prayer. When the people finished their morning Salât (prayer) and that (six men) group gathered near the pulpit, ‘Abdur-Rahmân sent for all the Muhâjîrûn (emigrants) and the Anṣâr present there, and sent for the army chief who had performed the Hajj with ‘Umar that year. When all of them had gathered, ‘Abdur-Rahmân said, “Lâ ilaha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh), then said, "Amma Ba’du, O ‘Ali, I have looked at the people’s tendencies and noticed that they do not consider anybody equal to ‘Uthmân, so you should not incur blame (by disagreeing).” Then ‘Abdur-Rahmân said (to ‘Uthmân), “I gave the Bai’a (pledge) to you on condition that you will follow Allâh’s Laws and the Sunna of Allâh’s Messenger and the legal ways of the two caliphs after him.” So ‘Abdur-Rahmân gave the Bai’a to him, and so did the people including the Muhajirûn (emigrants) and the Ansâr and the chiefs of the army staff and all the Muslims.

(44) CHAPTER. Whosoever gave the Bai’a (pledge) twice.

7208. Narrated Salama: We gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet under the tree. He said to me, “O Salama! Will you not give the Bai’a?” I replied “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have already given the Bai’a for the first time.” He said, “(Give it again) for the second time.”

(45) CHAPTER. The giving of the Bai’a (pledge) by the bedouins.

7209. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: A bedouin gave the Bai’a (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger for Islâm and the bedouin got a fever where upon he said to the Prophet "Cancel my pledge.” But the Prophet refused. He came to him (again) saying, “Cancel my pledge.” But the Prophet refused. Then he (the bedouin) left (Al-Madîna). Allâh’s Messenger said, “Al-Madina is like a pair of bellows (furnace). It cleanses its impurities and brightens and clears its good.” (See H. 7322)

(46) CHAPTER. The Bai'a (pledge) of a child.

7210. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Hishãm, who was born during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, that his mother, Zainab bint Humaid had taken him to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Take his Bai’a (pledge) (for Islam).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He (‘Abdullãh bin Hishãm) is a little child,” and passed his hand over his head and invoked Allah for him. ‘Abdullãh bin Hishãm used to slaughter one sheep as a sacrifice on behalf of all of his family.

(47) CHAPTER. Whoever gave the Bai’a (pledge) and then cancelled it.

7211. Narrated Jabîr bin ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنهما: A bedouin gave the Bai’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ for Islam. Then the bedouin got fever at Al-Madina, he came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said: “O Allah’s Messenger! Cancel my pledge.” But Allah’s Messenger ﷺ refused. Then he came to him (again) and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Cancel my pledge.” But the Prophet ﷺ refused. The bedouin finally went out (of Al-Madina) whereupon Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Al-Madina is like a pair of bellows (furnace), it cleanses its impurities and brightens and clears its good.”
(48) CHAPTER. The person who gives the Bai'a (pledge) to a man just for worldly benefits.

7212. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh's Messenger said, "There are three types of people Allāh will neither speak to them on the Day of Resurrection nor will purify them from sins, and they shall have a painful punishment. They are:

1. A man possessing superfluous water (more than he needs) on a way and he withholds it from the travellers.

2. A man who gives a Bai'a (pledge) to an Imām (ruler) and gives it only for worldly benefits; if the Imām gives him what he wants, he abides by his pledge, otherwise he does not fulfil his pledge.

3. A man who sells something to another man after the 'Asr prayer and swears by Allāh (a false oath) that he has been offered so much for it whereupon the buyer believes him and buys it although in fact, the seller has not been offered such a price." [See Vol.3, Hadith No. 2672]

(49) CHAPTER. The Bai'a (pledge) given by women.

Ibn 'Abbās narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.

7213. Narrated ‘Ubayd bin As-Sāmit: Allāh's Messenger said to us while we were in a gathering, “Give me the Bai'a (pledge) for:

1. Not to join anything in worship along with Allāh.
2. Not to steal.
3. Not to commit illegal sexual intercourse.
(4) Not to kill your children.
(5) Not to utter slander intentionally, forging falsehood or not to accuse an innocent person and to spread such an accusation among people.
(6) Not to be disobedient (when ordered) for Ma’ruf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained).

The Prophet ﷺ added, “Whoever amongst you fulfils his pledge, his reward will be with Allāh, and whoever indulges in any of those sins and receives the legal punishment in this world for that sin, then that punishment will be an expiation for that sin’, and whoever commits any of those sins and Allāh does not expose (his sin), then it is up to Allāh, if He wishes He will punish him or if He wishes, He will forgive him.” So we gave the pledge for that. [See Vol.1, Hadīth No. 18]

7214. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to take the Bai’ā (pledge) from the women by words only after reciting this Holy Verse: “... that they will not associate anything in worship with Allāh...” (V.60:12) And the hand of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not touch any woman’s hand except the hand of the woman that his right hand possessed (i.e., his captives or his lady-slaves).

7215. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyah ﷺ: We gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ and he recited to me the Verse: “...that they will not associate anything in worship with Allāh...” (V.60:12)(1) And he also

(1) (H.7215) “O Prophet! When believing women came to you to give the Bai’ā (pledge), that they will not associate anything in worship with Allāh, that they will not steal, that they will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, that they will not kill their children, that they will not utter slander, intentionally forging falsehood (i.e., by making illegal= prevented us from wailing and lamenting over the dead. A woman from us withdrew her hand and said, "Such and such a woman wailed over a dead person belonging to my family and I want to compensate her for that wailing." The Prophet did not say anything in reply and she left and returned. None of those women abided by her pledge except Umm Sulaim, Umm Al-'Alã', and the daughter of Abu Sabra, the wife of Al-Mu'ãdh, or the daughter of Abu Sabra, and the wife of Mu'ãadh.

(50) CHAPTER. Whoever violates a Bai'a (pledge).

The Statement of Allah J:

"Verily, those who give the Bai'a (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ), they are giving the Bai'a to Allah. The Hand of Allah is over their hands. Then whosoever breaks his pledge, breaks only to his own harm, and whosoever fulfil what he has covenanted with Allah, He (Allah) will bestow on him a great reward." (V.48:10)

7216. Narrated Jãbir: A bedouin came to the Prophet and said, "Please take my Bai'a (pledge) for Islam." So the Prophet took from him the Bai'a for Islam. He came the next day with a fever and said to the Prophet, 'Cancel my pledge.' But the Prophet refused. And when the bedouin went away, the Prophet said, "Al-Madina is like a pair of bellows (furnace). It cleanses its impurities and brightens and clears its good."

=children belonging to their husbands), and that they will not disobey you in any Ma'rûf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam ordains), then accept their Bai'a (pledge), and ask Alläh to forgive them. Verily Alläh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (V.60:12).

(1) (H.7215) She wanted to wail over a dead person belonging to the family of the other woman.
(51) CHAPTER. The appointment of a caliph (to succeed another).

7217. Narrated Al-Qasim bin Muhammad: ‘Aishah said, “O my head!”(1) Allah’s Messenger said, “If that (i.e., your death) should happen while I am still alive, I would ask Allah to forgive you and would invoke Allah for you.” ‘Aishah said, “O my life which is going to be lost! By Allah, I think that you wish for my death, and if that should happen then you would be busy enjoying the company of one of your wives in the last part of that day.” The Prophet said, “But I should say, ‘O my head!’ I feel like calling Abü Bakr and his son and appoint (the former as my successor) lest people should say something or wish for something.”(2) Allah will insist (on Abü Bakr becoming the caliph) and the believers will prevent (anyone else from claiming the caliphate),” or “…Allah will prevent (anyone else from claiming the caliphate) and the believers will insist (on Abü Bakr becoming the caliph).”

7218. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: It was said to ‘Umar, “Will you appoint your successor?” ‘Umar said, “If I appoint a caliph (as my successor) it is true that somebody who was better than I (i.e., Abü Bakr) did so, and if I leave the matter undecided, it is true that somebody who was better than I (i.e., Allah’s Messenger) did so.” On this, the people praised him. ‘Umar said, “People are of two kinds: Either one who is keen to take over the caliphate or one who is afraid of assuming such a responsibility. I wish I could be free from its responsibility in that I would receive neither reward nor retribution. I won’t bear the burden of the caliphate in my death as I do in my life.”

7219. Narrated Anas bin Mālik that he heard ‘Umar’s second speech he delivered when he sat on the pulpit on the day following the death of the Prophetﷺ. ‘Umar recited the ‘Tashah-hud’ while Abū Bakr was silent. ‘Umar said, “I wish that Allah’s Messengerﷺ had outlived all of us, i.e., had been the last (to die). But if Muhammadﷺ is dead, Allah nevertheless has kept the light amongst you from which you can receive the same guidance as Allah guided Muhammadﷺ with that. And Abū Bakr is the Companion of Allah’s Messengerﷺ. He is the second of the two in the cave. He is the most entitled person among the Muslims to manage your affairs. Therefore get up and give the Bai’a (pledge) to him.” Some people had already given the Bai’a (pledge) to him in the shed of Banī Sā’īda but the Bai’a given by the public was at the pulpit. I heard ‘Umar saying to Abū Bakr on that day, “Please ascend the pulpit,” and kept on urging him till he ascended the pulpit whereupon, all the people gave the Bai’a to him.

(1) (H.7218) ‘Umar refused to appoint his successor lest he should be held responsible for the mistakes in future.

(2) (H.7219) i.e., none has the right to be worshipped but Allah, and Muhammadﷺ is His slave and His Messenger.
7220. Narrated Jubair bin Mu'tim: A woman came to the Prophet ﷺ and spoke to him about something and he told her to return to him. She said, "O Allah’s Messenger! If I come and do not find you?" (As if she meant, "...if you die") The Prophet ﷺ said, "If you should not find me, then go to Abu Bakr."

7221. Narrated Tariq bin Shihab: Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه said to the delegate of Buza'ka(1), "Follow the tails of the camels till Allah shows the caliph (successor) of His Prophet ﷺ and Al Muhajirun (emigrants) something because of which you may excuse yourselves:"

CHAPTER.

7222, 7223. Narrated Jabin bin Sumur: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "There will be twelve Muslim rulers (who will rule all the Islamic world)." He then said a sentence which I did not hear. My father said that the Prophet ﷺ said, "All of them (those rulers) will be from Quraish."

(52) CHAPTER. The expulsion of quarrelsome people and people accused of

(1) (H. 7221) Buza'ka were the tribes who turned apostates after the death of the Prophet ﷺ. Some of them came to the Caliph Abu Bakr after they had regretted their dissention from Islam. 'Umar ordered them to stay in the desert taking care of their camels till he and the other Muslims decided their case.
something, from houses after having a firm proof against them.

‘Umar turned out the sister of Abū Bakr when she cried loudly over a dead person.

7224. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I intended to (or was about) to order for collecting firewood and then order someone to pronounce the Ādḥān for As-Salāt (the prayer) and then order someone to lead the people in Salāt (prayer) and then I would go from behind and burn the houses of men who did not present themselves for the (compulsory congregational) Salāt (prayer). By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is, if anyone of them had known that he could find a bone covered with good meat, or two (small) pieces of meat present in between two ribs, he would come for ‘Īshā prayer.” [See Vol. 1, Hadith No.644]

(53) CHAPTER. Is it legal for the Imām to forbid the criminals and those who commit sins to talk to or visit him, etc.?

my companions) stayed fifty nights in that state, and then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ announced Allâh's Acceptance of our repentance.” (See H. 4418)
(1) CHAPTER.

What is said regarding wishes, and whoever wished for martyrdom.

7226. Narrated Abū Hurairah

I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is! Were it not for some men who dislike to be left behind and for whom I do not have means of conveyance, I would not stay away (from any Holy Battle). I would love to be martyred in Allah’s Cause and come back to life and then get martyred and then come back to life and then get martyred and come back to life and then get martyred.” [See Hadith No. 36, 2797].

7227. Narrated Al A’raj: Abū Hurairah said, Allah’s Messenger said, “By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is, I would love to fight in Allah’s Cause and then get martyred and then come back to life and then get martyred and then come back to life and then get martyred and then come back to life.” Abū Hurairah used to repeat those words three times and I testify to it with Allah’s Oath.

(2) CHAPTER.

To wish for good.

And the statement of the Prophet: “If I had gold equal to (the mountain of) Uhud.”

7228. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet said, “If I had gold equal to (the mountain of) Uhud. I would love that, before three days had passed, not a single Dīnār thereof remained with me if I found somebody to accept it; excluding some amount that I would keep for the payment of my debts.”

(3) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “If I had formerly known what I came to know lately…”

7229. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If I had formerly known what I came to know lately, I would not have driven the Hadîd (animal for sacrifice) with me and would have finished the state of Ihrãm along with the people when they finished it.” (See H. 1785)

7230. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: We were in the company of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and we assumed the state of Ihrãm of Hajj and arrived at Makkah on the fourth of Dhul-Hijja. The Prophet ﷺ ordered us to perform the Tawâf around the Ka’bah and (Sa’y) between As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa and make it as ‘Umra, and finish the state of Ihrãm except the one who had Hady with him. None of us had the Hady with him except the Prophet ﷺ and Ťalha. ‘Ali came from Yemen and brought the Hady with him. ‘Ali said, “I had assumed the state of Ihrãm with the same intention as that with which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had assumed it.” The people said, “How can we proceed to Minã and our male organs are dribbling?”(1) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If I had formerly known what I came to know lately, I would not have brought the Hady, and had there been no Hady with me, I would have finished my Ihram.” Surâqâ (bin Mâlik) met the Prophet while he was throwing pebbles at the Jamrat-al-Aqaba, and asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! Is this (permitted) for us only?” (1) The Prophet replied, “No, it is forever.” ‘Âishah had arrived at Makkah while she was menstruating, therefore the Prophet ordered her to perform all the ceremonies of Hajj except the Tawaf around the Ka’bah, and not to perform her Salât (prayers) unless and until she became clean. When they encamped at Al-Âthâ’, ‘Âishah said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You are proceeding after performing both Hajj and Umrah while I am proceeding with Hajj only?” So the Prophet ordered ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr A-Siddîq to go with her to At-Tanîm, and so she performed the Umrah in Dhul-Hijja after the days of the Hajj.

(1) (H.7230) They meant, “How can we perform ‘Umra only and finish our state of Ihrãm and then assume the Ihrãm for Hajj and go to Minã?” On finishing the state of Ihrãm, one is allowed to have sexual relation with his wife.

(4) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “Would that so-and-so…”

7231. Narrated ‘Âishah: One night the Prophet was unable to sleep and said, “Would that a righteous man from my Companions guarded me tonight.” Suddenly we heard the clatter of arms, whereupon the Prophet said, “Who is it?” It was said, “I am Sa’d, O Allah’s Messenger! I have come to guard you.” The Prophet then slept so soundly that we heard him snoring.

Abû ‘Abdullâh said: ‘Âishah said, “Bilal...”

said, 'Would that I but stayed overnight in a valley with Idhkhir and Jalil (two kinds of aromatic grass) around me (i.e., in Makkah).’ “Then I told that to the Prophet ﷺ.

(5) CHAPTER. To wish for (learning) the Qur'an and (religious) knowledge.

7232. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Not to wish to be the like except the like of two men. A man whom Allah has given the (knowledge of the) Qur’an and he recites it during the hours of night and day, and the one who wishes says: If I were given the same as this (man) has been given, I would do what he does; and a man whom Allah has given wealth and he spends it in the just and right way, in which case the one who wishes says: If I were given the same as he has been given, I would do what he does.” [See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 5025, 5026]

(6) CHAPTER. What kind of wishing is disliked.

And wish not for the things in which Allah has made some of you excel others. For men there is a reward for what they have earned, (and likewise) for women there is a reward for what they have earned, and ask Allah of His Bounty. Surely, Allah is Ever All-Knower of everything.” (V.4:32)
7233. Narrated Anas: If I had not heard the Prophet saying, “You should not long for death,” I would have longed (for it). (See H. 5671)

7234. Narrated Qais: We went to Khabbāb bin Al-Ara’ and he had got himself branded at seven spots over his body. He said, “If Allah’s Messenger had not forbidden us to invoke Allah for death, I would have invoked for it.”

7235. Narrated Sa’d bin Ubaid, the Mawālī of ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Azhar: Allah’s Messenger said, “None of you should long for death, for if he is a good-doer, he may increase his good deeds, and if he is an evil-doer, he may stop the evil deeds and repent.”

(7) CHAPTER. The statement of a man, “Without Allah, we would not have been guided.”

7236. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azib: The Prophet was carrying earth with us on the Day (of the battle) of Al-Ahzāb (the Confederates) and I saw that the dust was covering the whiteness of his abdomen, and he (the Prophet) was saying, “(O Allah)! Without You, we would not have been guided.

Nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have offered Salāt (prayer).

So (O Allāh!) Please send Sakīna (calmness and tranquillity) upon us.

As they, (the chiefs of the enemy tribes) have rebelled against us. And if they intend afflication (i.e., want to frighten us and fight against us) then we would not (flee but withstand them)."

And the Prophet  used to raise his voice with it. [See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 4104, 4106]

(8) CHAPTER. It is disapproved to long for meeting the enemy.

This has been narrated by Abū Hurairah on the authority of the Prophet  .

7237. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aufā: Allāh’s Messenger  said, “Do not long for meeting your enemy, and ask Allāh for safety (from all sorts of evil) ” [See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3024, 3025]

(9) CHAPTER. What uses of Al-Lau(1) are allowed.

And the Statement of Allāh :

“...Would that I had strength (men) to overpower you or that I could take myself to some powerful support (to resist you).” (V.11:80)

7238. Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Muhammad: Ibn ‘Abbās mentioned the case of a couple on whom the judgement of Li‘īn(2) has been

(1) (Ch.9) Lau means: ‘It’, ‘would that’, and other expressions that would occur in the Ahadith of this chapter.

passed. ‘Abdullāh bin Shaddād said, “Was that the lady in whose case the Prophet said, ‘If I were to stone a lady to death without a proof (against her)?”’ Ibn ‘Abbās said, “No! That was concerned with a woman who, though being a Muslim, used to arouse suspicion by her outright misbehaviour.” [See Vol. 7, Hadith No. 5310]

7239. Narrated ‘Ātā’: One night – the Prophet delayed the ‘Isha’ prayer whereupon ‘Umar went to him and said, “The Salāt (prayer), O Allāh’s Messenger! The women and children have slept.” The Prophet came out with water dropping from his head, and said, “Were I not afraid that it would be hard for my followers (or for the people), I would order them to pray ‘Isha’ prayer at this time.”

(Various versions of this Hadith are given by the narrators with slight differences in expression). (See H. 571)
7240. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Were I not afraid that it would be hard on my followers, I would order them to use the Siwāk (as obligatory, for cleaning the teeth).” (See H.887)

7241. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ observed Al-Wiṣāl(1) fasting on the last days of the month. Some people did the same, and when the news reached the Prophet ﷺ, he said, “If the month had been prolonged for me, then I would have observed Al-Wiṣāl for such a long time that the most exaggerating ones among you would have given up their exaggeration. I am not like you; my Lord (Allah) makes me eat and drink (at night).” (See H. 1964, 1965)

7242. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ forbade Al-Wiṣāl. The people said (to him), “But you observe Al-Wiṣāl.” He (ﷺ) said, “Who among you is like me? During night, my Lord makes me eat and drink (at night).(2)” But when the people refused to give up Al-Wisal, he fasted Al-Wisal along with them for two days and then they saw the crescent whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, “If the crescent had not appeared I would have fasted for a longer period,” as if he intended to punish them herewith.

(1) (H.7241) Al-Wiṣāl is not to break one’s fast at sunset but continue fasting for another period which may extend for a day or two or more.

7243. Narrated Aishah ﷺ: I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the wall (outside the Ka'bah) saying, “Is it regarded as part of the Ka'bah?” He replied, “Yes.” I said, “Then why didn’t the people include it in the Ka'bah?” He said, “(Because) your people ran short of money.” I asked, “Then why is its gate so high?” He replied, “Your people did so in order to admit to it whom they would and forbid whom they would. Were your people not still close to the Period of Ignorance, and were I not afraid that their hearts might deny my action, then surely I would include the wall in the Ka'bah and make its gate touch the ground.” (See H. 1584, 1586)

7244. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “But for the emigration, I would have been one of the Ansâr; and if the people took their way in a valley (or a mountain path), I would take Ansâr’s valley or the mountain path.”
7245. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Zaid: The Prophet ﷺ said, “But for the emigration, I would have been one of the Ansâr; and if the people took their way in a valley (or a mountain path), I would take Ansâr’s valley or their mountain path.”
(1) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the acceptance of the information given by one truthful person concerning Adhān, Šalāt (prayer), Saum (fasting), and all other obligations and laws prescribed by Allāh.

The Statement of Allāh:

“And it is not (proper) for the believers to go out to fight (Jihād) all together. Of every troop of them, a party only should go forth, that they (who are left behind) may get instructions in (Islamic) religion, and that they may warn their people when they return to them, so that they may beware (of evil).”

(V. 9:122)

One man may be called Tā‘īfa (i.e., a group) as occurs in the Statement of Allāh:

“And if two parties (or groups) from among the believers fall to fighting...”

(V. 49:9) This means that even if two men fall into a quarrel, they will be regarded as meant by this Verse.

And also the Statement of Allāh:

“...If a Fasiq (liar evil person) comes to you with any news, verify it...”

(V. 49:6)

And how the Prophet sent his governors one after the other, so that if anyone of them forgets something, the other would bring him back to the right legal way (the Prophet’s Sunna).

7246. Narrated Mālik bin Al-Huwairith: We came to the Prophet , and we were young men nearly of equal ages and we stayed with him for twenty nights. Allāh’s Messenger was a very kind man and when he realized our longing for our families, he asked us about those whom we had left behind. When we informed him, he said,
“Go back to your families and stay with them and teach them (religion) and order them (to do good deeds).” The Prophet mentioned things some of which I remembered and some I did not. Then he said, “Offer Salât (prayers) as you have seen me praying, and when it is the time of As-Salât (prayer), one of you should pronounce the call (Adhân) for the Salât (prayer) and the eldest of you should lead the Salât (prayer).”

7247. Narrated Ibn Mas‘ūd: Allah’s Messenger said, “The Adhân (call for prayer) of Bilāl should not stop anyone of you from taking his Sahûr (1) for he pronounces the Adhân in order that whoever among you is offering the night prayer, may return (to eat his Sahûr), and whoever among you is sleeping, may get up, for it is not yet dawn (when it is like this).”

Yahyâ, the subnarrator stretched his two index fingers sideways. (2)

7248. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “Bilâl pronounces the Adhân at night so that you may eat and drink till Ibn Umm Maktûm pronounces the Adhân (for the Fajr prayer).”

---

(1) (H.7247) Sahûr: A meal taken late at night, before the Fajr (early morning) prayer by a person intending to observe Saum (fasting).

(2) (H.7247) Yahyâ wanted to illustrate what he meant. He showed that at the real dawn, light spread eastwards and westwards, and this is what he meant by stretching his finger sideways.
7249. Narrated 'Abdullãh: The Prophet led us in Zuhr prayer and offered five Rak'a. Somebody asked him whether "the Salât (prayer) had been increased." He (the Prophet) said, "And what is that?" They (the people) replied, "You have offered five Rak'a." Then the Prophet offered two prostrations (of Sahw) after he had finished his Salât (prayer) with the Taslim.

7250. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger finished his Salât (prayer) after offering two Rak’a only. Dhul-Yadain asked him whether "the Salât (prayer) had been reduced, or you had forgotten?" The Prophet said, "Is Dhul-Yadain speaking the truth?" The people said, "Yes." Then Allah’s Messenger stood up and performed another two Rak’a and then finished Salât (prayer) with Taslim, and then said the Takbir (Allahu Akbar) and performed a prostration similar to or longer than his ordinary prostrations; then he raised his head, said Takbir and prostrated and then raised his head (making two prostrations of Sahw).

7251. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: While the people were at Qubã’ offering the morning Salât (prayer), suddenly a person came to them saying, “Tonight, Divine Revelation has been revealed to Allah’s Messenger and he has been ordered to face the Ka’bah (in Salât); therefore you people should face it.” (At that time) there faces were towards Sham, so they turned their faces towards the Ka’bah (at Makkah).

7252. Narrated Al-Barâ’: When Allâh’s Messenger  arrived at Al-Madîna, he offered  (prayer) facing Jerusalem for sixteen or seventeen months but he wished that he would be ordered to face the Ka’bah. So Allâh revealed:

“Verily! We have seen the turning of your (Muhammad’s ) face towards the heaven. Surely, We shall turn you to a Qiblah (prayer direction) that shall please you…” (V.2:144)

Thus he was directed towards the Ka’bah. A man offered the ‘Asr prayer with the Prophet  and then went out, and passing by some people from the Ansâr, he said, “I testify that I have offered Salât (prayer) with the Prophet  and he (the Prophet  ) has offered prayers facing the Ka’bah.” Thereupon, they, who were bowing in the ‘Asr prayer, turned towards the Ka’bah.

7253. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
I used to offer drinks prepared from infused dates to Abû Ta’lîa Al-Ansârî, Abû ‘Ubâida bin Al-Jarrâh and Ubayy bin Ka’b. Then a person came to them and said, “All alcoholic drinks have been prohibited.” Abû Ta’lîa then said, “O Anas! Get up and break all these jars.” So I got up and took a mortar belonging to us, and hit the jars with its lower part till they broke.
7254. Narrated Hudhaifa: The Prophet said to the people of Najrân, "I will send to you an honest person who is really trustworthy." The Companions of the Prophet each desired to be that person, the Prophet sent Abu 'Ubaida.

7255. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "For every nation there is an Amin (honest, trustworthy person), and the Amin of this nation is Abu 'Ubaida." (See H.3744)

7256. Narrated 'Umar: There was a man from the Ansâr (who was a friend of mine). If he was not present in the company of Allah's Messenger, I used to be present with Allah's Messenger and I would tell him what I used to hear from Allah's Messenger; and when I was absent from Allah's Messenger, he used to be present with him, and he would tell me what he used to hear from Allah's Messenger.

7257. Narrated 'Ali: The Prophet sent an army and appointed a man as their commander. The man made a fire and then said (to the soldiers), "Enter it." Some of them intended to enter it while some others said, “We have run away from it [i.e., embraced Islam to save ourselves from the (Hell) Fire].” They mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ and he said about people who had intended to enter the fire, “If they had entered it, they would have remained in it till the Day of Resurrection.” Then he said to others, “No obedience for Maṣiṣya (sinful evil deeds), obedience is required only in what is Al-Ma'ruf (Islamic Monothism and all that Islam ordains, and all that is good).” (See H. 4340) 7258, 7259. Narrated Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid: Two men sued each other before the Prophet ﷺ.

7260. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While we were with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, a bedouin got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Settle my case according to Allah’s Book (Laws).” Then his opponent got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! He has said the truth! Settle his case according to Allah’s Book (Laws) and allow me to speak.”

The Prophet ﷺ said: “Speak.” He said, “My son was a labourer for this man and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death but I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave-girl. Then I asked the religious learned people and they told me that his wife should be stoned to death and my son should receive one hundred lashes and be sentenced to one year of exile.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allâh’s Book (Laws). As for the slave-girl and the sheep, they are to be returned; and as for your son, he shall receive one hundred lashes and will be exiled for one year. You, O Unais!” addressing a man from Bânî Aslâm, “Go tomorrow morning to the wife of this (man) and if she confesses, then stone her to death.” The next morning Unais went to the wife and she confessed, and he stoned her to death. (See H. 6859)

(2) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ sent Azzubayr alone to get information regarding the enemy.

7261.Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: On the Day of (the battle of) the Trench, the Prophet ﷺ called the people (to bring news about the enemy). Azzubayr responded to his call. He called them again and Azzubayr responded to his call again; then he called them for the third time and again Azzubayr responded to his call whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, “Every Prophet has his Hawâri (disciple or helper, etc.), and Azzubayr is my Hawâri.” (See H. 2846)
(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“(O you believe!) Enter not the Prophet's houses unless permission is given to you...”
(V.33:53)

If permission is given by one person, it is sufficient.

7262. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet entered a garden and told me to guard its gate. Then a man came and asked permission to enter. The Prophet said, “Permit him and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” Behold! It was Abū Bakr. Then ‘Umar came, and the Prophet said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” Then ‘Uthmān came and the Prophet said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” (See H. 3674)

7263. Narrated ‘Umar: I went to (the house of the Prophet) and behold, Allāh's Messenger was staying in a Mashruba (attic room) and a black slave of Allāh's Messenger was at the top of its stairs. I said to him, “Tell (the Prophet) that here is ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb (asking for permission to enter).” Then he (the Prophet) admitted me. (See H. 5191)
(4) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ used to send commanders and messengers one after another.

Ibn `Abbās said, “The Prophet ﷺ sent Dhiyā Al-Kalbī with a letter to the ruler of Baṣrah to give it to Caesar.”

7264. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent a letter to Khosrau and told his messenger to give it first to the ruler of Bahrain, and tell him to deliver it to Khosrau. When Khosrau had read it, he tore it into pieces. Az-Zuhri said: I think Ibn Al-Musaiyab said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ invoked Allāh to tear them (Khosrau and his followers) into pieces.”

7265. Narrated Salama bin A1-Akwa’ل: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to a man from the tribe of Al-Aslam, “Proclaim among your people (or the people) on the day of Āshūra (tenth of Muḥarram), ‘Whosoever has eaten anything should observe fast for the rest of the day; and whosoever has not eaten anything, should complete his fast.’”

(5) CHAPTER. Wasāt (the legacy —advice) of the Prophet ﷺ to the Arab delegates that they should convey the religious knowledge to those whom they had left behind.

This was narrated by Mālik bin Al-Huwairīth.

7266. Narrated Ibn `Abbās رضي الله عنهما: When the delegates of ‘Abd Al-Qais came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ, he said, "Who are the delegate?" They said, "We are from the tribe of Rabî'a." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Welcome, O the delegation, and welcome! O people! Neither you will have any disgrace nor will you regret." They said, "O Allâh's Messenger! Between us and you there are the infidels of the tribe of Mudar, so please order us to do something good (religious deeds) so that by acting on them we may enter Paradise, and that we may inform (our people) whom we have left behind." They also asked (the Prophet ﷺ) about drinks. He forbade them from four things and ordered them to do four things. He ordered them to believe in Allâh, and asked them, "Do you know what is meant by belief in Allâh?" They said, "Allâh and His Messenger know better." He said, "To testify that La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh the One), Who has no partners with Him, and that I, Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh; and to perform the prayers, Iqamat-as-Salât (1) and to pay Zakât." The narrator thinks that he also said: To observe Saum (fast) during the month of Ramadan, and to give one-fifth of the war booty (to the state). Then he forbade four (drinking utensils): Ad-Dubbâ', Al-Hantam, Al-Muzaffat and An-Naqîr; he (ﷺ) also probably said, Al-Muqaiyar (2). And then the Prophet ﷺ said, "Remember all these things by heart and preach it to those whom you have left behind." (See H. 53)

(6) CHAPTER. News reported by one woman.

7267. Narrated Tûbah Al-'Anbari: Ash-Shâ'bî asked me, "Did you notice how Al-

(2) (H. 7266) These are the utensils in which the alcoholic drinks used to be prepared.
Hasan used to narrate Hadith from the Prophet ﷺ? I stayed with Ibn ‘Umar for about two or one-and-a-half years and I did not hear him narrating anything from the Prophet ﷺ except (Hadith): He (Ibn ‘Umar) said, “Some of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, including Sa’d, were about to eat meat, but one of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ called them, saying, ‘It is the meat of a mastigure.’ The people then stopped eating it. On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Carry on eating, for it is lawful (to eat).’ Or said, ‘There is no harm in eating it, but it is not from my meals.’ ” (See H. 5391)
96—THE BOOK OF HOLDING FAST TO THE QUR’AN AND THE SUNNA

(legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ).

7268. Narrated Ṭāriq bin Shihāb: A Jew said to ‘Umar, “0, chief of the believers, if this Verse:

‘...This day, I have perfected your religion for you, completed My favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islām as your religion...’ (V.5:3) had been revealed upon us, we would have taken that day as a festival day.” ‘Umar said, “I know definitely on what day this Verse was revealed; it was revealed on the Day of ‘Arafah, (9th of Dhul-Hijja) on a Friday.” (See H. 45)

7269. Narrated Anas bin Malik that he heard ‘Umar  speaking while standing on the pulpit of the Prophet ﷺ in the morning (following the death of the Prophet ﷺ), when the people had given the Bai‘a (pledge) to Abū Bakr. He said the Tashah-hud before Abū Bakr, and added, “Ammā Ba’dū (then after), Allāh has chosen for His Messenger ﷺ what is with Him (Paradise) rather than what is with you (the world). This is that Book (the Qur’an) with which Allāh guided your Messenger ﷺ, so stick to it, for then you will be guided on the Right Path (i.e., Islām) as Allāh guided His Messenger ﷺ with it.”

Allāh! Teach him (the knowledge of) the Book (the Qur’ān).”

7271. Narrated Abūl-Minḥāl: Ābū Barzā said, “(O people!) Allāh has made you self-sufficient, or has raised you high, with Islām and with Muḥammad ﷺ.”

7272. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Dinār: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar wrote to ‘Abdul-Mālik bin Marwān, giving the Bai‘a (pledge) to him: “I give the Bai‘a to you in that I will listen and obey what is in accordance with the Laws of Allāh and the Sunna (legal ways) of His Messenger ﷺ as much as I can.”

(1) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “I have been sent with ‘Jawāmi‘ Kalim’ (the shortest expression carrying the widest meaning).”

7273. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab: Ābū Hurairah رضي الله عنه said that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have been sent with ‘Jawāmi‘-al-Kalim’ (the shortest expression with the widest meaning); and have been made victorious with awe (cast in my enemy’s hearts), and while I was sleeping, I saw that the keys of the treasures of the world were placed in my hand.” Ābū Hurairah added: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has gone, and you people are utilizing those treasures, or digging those treasures out, or said a similar sentence.

7274. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “There was no Prophet among the Prophets but was given miracles because of which people had security or had belief, but what I have been given is the Divine Revelation which Allah has revealed to me. So I hope that my followers will be more than those of any other Prophet on the Day of Resurrection.”

(2) CHAPTER. Following the Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet.

And the Statement of Allah:...And make us leaders of the Al-Muttaqin’(1) (V.25:74)

Mujahid said, “(Make us) a community that follows the righteous people who preceded us, and whom those succeeding may follow.” (Fath Al-Bari)

Ibn ‘Aun said, “(There are) three things which I love for myself and for my brothers, i.e., this Sunna (the legal way of the Prophet) which they should learn and ask about; the Qur’ân which they should understand and ask the people about; and that they should call the people except when intending to do good (for them).”

7275. Narrated Abu Wâ’il: I sat with

(1) (Ch.2) Al-Muttaqin: means pious and righteous persons who fear Allah much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allah much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained).
Shaiba in this mosque (Al-Masjid-al-Harâm), and he said, "‘Umar once sat beside me here as you are now sitting, and said, ‘I feel like distributing all the gold and silver that are in it (i.e., the Ka'bah) among the Muslims.’ I said, ‘You cannot do that.’ ‘Umar asked, ‘Why?’ I said, ‘Your two (previous) companions (the Prophet ﷺ and Abü Bakr) did not do it.’ ‘Umar said, ‘They are the two persons whom one must follow.’ ” [See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 1594]

7276. Narrated Hudhaifa: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to us, "Al-Amânah (the trust or the moral responsibility or honesty, and all the duties which Allah has ordained) descended from the heavens and settled in the roots of the hearts of men (faithful believers), and then the Qur'an was revealed and the people read the Qur'an, (and learnt it from it) and also learnt it from the Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ)."

[Both the Qur'an and As-Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ) strengthened their (the faithful believers') Al-Amânah.] (See Hadith No. 7086)

7277. Narrated ‘Abdulläh: The best talk (speech) is Allah's Book (the Qur'an), and the best (legal way for) guidance is the guidance (way) of Muhammad ﷺ, and the worst matters are the heresies (those new things which are introduced into the religion); and whatever you have been promised will surely come to pass, and you cannot escape (it). (See H. 6098)
7278, 7279. Narrated Abu Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid: "We were with the Prophet when he said (to two men): "I shall judge between you according to Allâh's Book (Laws)."

7280. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allâh's Messenger said, "All my followers will enter Paradise except those who refuse." They (the people) asked, "O Allâh's Messenger! Who will refuse?" He said, "Whoever obeys me will enter Paradise, and whoever disobeys me is the one who refuses (to enter it)."

7281. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh: Some angels came to the Prophet (Muḥammad) while he was sleeping. Some of them said, "He is sleeping." Others said, "His eyes are sleeping but his heart is awake." Then they said, "There is an example for this companion of yours." One of them said, "Then set forth an example for him." One of them said, "He is sleeping." Another said, "His eyes are sleeping but his heart is awake." Then they said, "His example is that of a man who built a house and then offered therein a banquet and sent an inviter (messenger) to invite the people. So whoever accepted the invitation of the inviter, entered the house and ate of the banquet, and whoever did not accept the invitation of the inviter, did not enter the house, nor did he eat of the banquet." Then the angels said, "Interpret this parable to him so that he may understand it." One of them said, “He is sleeping.” The others said, “His eyes are sleeping but his heart is awake.” And then they said, “The house stands for Paradise and the call-maker is Muḥammad ﷺ; and whoever obeys Muḥammad ﷺ obeys Allāh; and whoever disobeys Muḥammad, disobeys Allāh. Muḥammad ﷺ separated the people (i.e., through his message, the good is distinguished from the bad, and the believers from the disbelievers).”

7282. Narrated Hammām: Ḥudhaifa said, “O group of Al-Qurra’! (1) Follow the Straight Path, for then you have taken a great lead (and will be the leaders), but if you divert right or left, then you will go astray far away.”

7283. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “My example, and the example of what I have been sent with is that of a man who came to some people and said, ‘O people! I have seen the enemy’s army with my own eyes, and I am a plain warner; so protect yourselves!’ Then a group of his people obeyed him and fled at night proceeding stealthily till they were safe, while another group of them disbelieved him and stayed at their places till morning when the army came upon them and killed and ruined them completely. So this is the example of that

(1) (H.7282) Qurra’: Religious scholars in the knowledge of the Qur’ān and the Sunna, or those who know the Qur’ān by heart.
person who obeys me and follows that Truth which I have brought (the Qur'an and the Sunna), and the example of the one who disobeys me and disbelieves the Truth I have brought.”

7284, 7285. Narrated Abû Hurairah: When Allah’s Messenger died and Abû Bakr was elected as a caliph after him, some of the Arabs reverted to disbelief, ‘Umar said to Abû Bakr, “How dare you fight the people while Allah’s Messenger said, ‘I have been ordered to fight the people till they say: La ilaha illallah. And whoever says La ilaha illallah, saves his wealth and his life from me unless he deserves a legal punishment justly, and his account will be with Allah.’” ‘Abû Bakr said, “By Allah, I will fight him who discriminates between Zakāt and Salāt (prayers), for Zakāt is the compulsory right to be taken from the wealth. By Allah, if they refuse to give me even a tying rope which they used to give to Allah’s Messenger, I would fight them for withholding it.” ‘Umar said, “By Allah! It was nothing, except I saw that Allah had opened the chest of Abû Bakr to the fight, and I came to know for certain that, that (i.e., the decision to fight) was the truth.”

7286. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs: ‘Uyaina bin Hisn bin Hudhaifa bin Badr came and stayed (at Al-Madina) with his nephew Al-Hurr bin Qais bin Ḥīṣn, who was one of those whom ‘Umar used to keep near him, as the Qurrâ’ (learned men knowing the Qur’ān by heart) were the people of ‘Umar’s meetings and his advisors whether they were old or young. ‘Uyaina said to his nephew, “O my nephew! Have you an approach to this chief so as to get for me the permission to see him?” His nephew said, “I will get the permission for you to see him.” (Ibn ‘Abbâs added:) So he took the permission for ‘Uyaina, and when the latter entered, he said, “O the son of Al-Khaṭṭâb! By Allâh, you neither give us sufficient provision nor judge among us with justice.” On that ‘Umar became so furious that he intended to harm him. Al-Hurr, said, “O chief of the believers!” Allâh said to His Messenger ﷺ:

‘Show forgiveness, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the foolish (i.e., do not punish them)’ (V.7:199) and this person is among the foolish. By Allâh, ‘Umar did not overlook that Verse when Al-Hurr recited it before him, and ‘Umar used to observe (the orders of) Allâh’s Book strictly.” [See Vol.6, Hadîth No. 4642]

7287. Narrated Asmâ’ bint Abû Bakr رضي الله عنها: I came to ‘Âishah during the solar eclipse. The people were standing [offering Salât (prayer)] and she too, was standing and offering Salât (prayer). I asked, “What is wrong with the people?” She pointed towards the sky with her hand and said, “Subhân Allâh!” I asked her, “Is there a sign?” She nodded with her head meaning “yes.” When Allah's Messenger ﷺ finished (the Salât), he glorified and praised Allah and said, ‘There is not anything that I have not seen before but I have seen now at this place of mine, even Paradise and Hell. It has been revealed to me that you people will be put to trial, nearly like the trial of Ad-Dajjal, in your graves. As for the true believer or a Muslim (the subnarrator is not sure as to which of the two words Asmā’ had said), he will say, ‘Muḥammad ﷺ came with clear evidences and signs from Allah, and we responded to him (accepted his teachings) and believed (what he said)’. It will be said (to him) ‘Sleep in peace; we have known that you were a true believer who believed with certainty.’ As for a hypocrite or a doubtful person, (the subnarrator is not sure as to which word Asmā’ said), he will say, ‘I do not know, but I heard the people saying something and so I said the same.’” (See H. 86, and 1338)

7288. Narrated Aba Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave me (don’t ask me about things which I don’t mention or explain to you) as I leave you, for the people who were before you were ruined because of their questions and their differences over their Prophets. So, if I forbid you from doing something, then keep away from it. And if I order you to do something, then do of it as much as you can.”

(3) CHAPTER. What is disliked of asking too many questions and of troubling oneself with what does not concern one.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

(1) (H.7288) The Prophet ﷺ tells his Companions not to ask him about things which have not happened but are still hypothetical.
“...Ask not about things which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble...”
(V.5:101)

7289. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The worst in crime among the Muslims is the one who asked about something which had not been prohibited, but was prohibited because of his asking.”

7290. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: The Prophet ﷺ took a room made of date-palm leaves mats in the mosque: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ offered prayers in it for a few nights till the people gathered [to offer the night prayer (Tarâwîh) (behind him)]. Then on (the 4th) night the people did not hear his voice and they thought he had slept, so some of them started humming in order that he might come out. The Prophet ﷺ then said, “You continued doing what I saw you doing till I was afraid that this (Tarâwîh prayer) might be enjoined on you (made obligatory on you), and if it were enjoined on you, you would not continue performing it. Therefore, O people! Perform your Salât (prayers) at your homes, for the best prayer of a person is what is performed at his home except the compulsory (congregational) prayer.” (See Vol.8, Hadîth No. 6113) 7291. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash’ârî: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about things which he disliked, and when the people asked too many questions, he became angry and said, “Ask me (any question).” A man got up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Who is my father?” The Prophet replied, “Your father is Hudhaifa.” Then another man got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who is my father?” The Prophet said, “Your father is Sâlim, Maulâ the freed slave of Shaiba.” When ‘Umar saw the signs of anger on the face of Allah’s Messenger, he said “We repent to Allah.”

7292. Narrated Warrâd, the clerk of Al-Mughîrah: Mu‘âwiya wrote to Al-Mughîrah “Write to me what you have heard from Allah’s Messenger.” So he (Al-Mughîrah) wrote to him: Allah’s Prophet used to say at the end of each Salât (prayer), “La ilaha illallah wahdahu la sharika lahü, lahul-mulku wa Iahul-hamdu wa Huwa ‘ala kulli shai’in QadirAllahumma la manti’a lima a’taita, wa la mu’tiya limâ mana ‘ta, wa lã yanfa ‘u dhal-jaddi minkal-jadd.” (1) He also wrote to him that the Prophet used to forbid: (1) Qîl and Qâl (sinful and useless talk, like backbiting, or that you talk too much about others); (2) asking too many questions (in disputed religious matters); (3) and wasting one’s wealth (by extravagance); (4) and to be undutiful to one’s mother; (5) and to bury the daughters alive; (6) and to prevent your favours (benevolence) to others (i.e., not to pay the rights of others, Zakât, charity etc.); (7) and begging [to beg of men or asking others for something (except when it is unavoidable)]. (See H. 844)

(1) (H.7292) None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the Alone Who has no partner. His is the kingdom, and to Him praises must be, and He is Able to do everything. O Allah! Nobody can withhold what You give; and nobody can give what You withhold; and hard efforts by anyone (or good luck or riches) for anything can not benefit one against Your Will, and Decisions.
7293.Narrated Anas bin Malik : We were with ‘Umar and he said, “We have been forbidden to undertake a difficult task beyond our capability (i.e., to exceed the religious limits, e.g. to clean the inside of the eyes while doing ablution).”

7294. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ came out after the sun had declined and offered the Zuhr prayer (in congregation). After finishing it with Taslim, he stood on the pulpit and mentioned the Hour and mentioned there would happen great events before it. Then he said, “Whosoever wants to ask me any question, may do so, for by Allah, you will not ask me about anything but I will inform you of its answer as long as I am at this place of mine.” On this, the Ansãr wept violently, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ kept on saying, “Ask me!” Then a man got up and asked, “Where will my entrance be, 0 Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(You will go to) the Fire.” Then ‘Abdullãh bin Hudhaifa got up and asked, “Who is my father, 0 Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Your father is Hudhaifa.” The Prophet ﷺ then kept on saying (angrily), “Ask me! Ask me!” ‘Umar then knelt on his knees and said, “We accept Allah as (our) Lord and Islam as (our) religion and Muhammad ﷺ as (our) Messenger.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ became quiet when ‘Umar said that. Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, Paradise and Hell were displayed before me across this wall while I was offering Salât (prayer), and I never saw such good and evil as I have seen today.”
7295. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
A man said, “O Allah’s Prophet! Who is my father?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Your father is so-and-so.” And then the Divine Verse:

“O you who believe! Ask not about things..” (V.5:101)

7296. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “People will not stop asking questions till they say, ‘This is Allah, the Creator of everything, then who created Allah?’”

7297. Narrated Ibn Mas’ud:
I was with the Prophet ﷺ at one of the farms of Al-Madina while he was leaning on a date-palm leafstalk. He passed by a group of Jews and some of them said to the other, “Ask him (the Prophet ﷺ) about the spirit.” Some others said, “Do not ask him, lest he should tell you what you dislike.” But they went up to him and said, “O Abūl-Qāsim! Inform us about Ar-Rūḥ (the spirit).” The Prophet ﷺ stood up for a while, waiting. I realized that he was being inspired Divinely, so I kept away from him till the Inspiration was over. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “(And they ask you (O Muhammad ﷺ) concerning the Rūḥ (the spirit). Say: ‘The Rūḥ; it is one of the things, the knowledge of which is only with my Lord (Allah)…”” (V.17:85)

(This is a miracle of the Qur’an that all the scientists up till now do not know about Ar-Rūḥ (the spirit), i.e., how life comes to a body and how it goes away at its death). (See Hadith No. 125 and 4721)

(4) CHAPTER. To follow the actions of the Prophet ﷺ.

7298.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ wore a gold ring and then the people followed him and wore gold rings too. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “I had this golden ring made for myself.” He then threw it away and said, “I shall never put it on.” Thereupon the people also threw their rings away.

(5) CHAPTER. What is disliked of going deeply into and arguing about (religious) knowledge, and exaggerating in matters of religion, and of inventing heresies.

As Allāh    says:

“O people of the Scripture (Christians)! Do not exceed the limits in your religion, nor say of Allāh aught but the truth…” (V.4:171)

(1) (H.7299) Al-Wiṣāl is to observe fasting for more than one day (continuously).
not like you, for at night my Lord (Allâh) feeds me and makes me drink.” But the people did not give up Al-Wiṣâl, so the Prophet saw the crescent there when they were fasting for two days or two nights, and then they saw the crescent whereupon the Prophet said, “If the crescent had delayed, I would have continued fasting (because of you),” as if he wanted to punish them (because they had refused to give up Al-Wiṣâl).

7300. Narrated Ibrâhîm At-Taimi’s father: ‘Ali addressed us while he was standing on a brick pulpit and carrying a sword from which was hanging a scroll. He said, “By Allâh, we have no book to read except Allâh’s Book (the Qur’an) and whatever is (written) on this scroll.” And then he unrolled it, and behold, in it was written what sort of camels were to be given as blood-money, and there was also written in it: “Al-Madîna is a sanctuary from ‘Air (mountain) to such and such place, so whosoever innovates in it an heresy or commits a sin therein, he will incur the Curse of Allâh, the angels, and all the people, and Allâh will not accept his compulsory or optional good deeds.” There was also written in it: “The asylum (pledge of protection) granted by any Muslim is one and the same, (even a Muslim of the lowest status) is to be secured and respected by all the other Muslims, and whoever betrays a Muslim in this respect (by violating the pledge) will incur the Curse of Allâh, the angels, and all the people, and Allâh will not accept his compulsory or optional good deeds.” There was also written in it: “Whoever (freed slave) takes as masters other than his real masters (manumitters) without their permission will incur the Curse of Allāh, the angels, and all the people, and Allāh will not accept his compulsory or optional good deeds.” [See Vol.3, Hadith No. 1870]

7301. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet did something as it was allowed from the religious point of view but some people refrained from it. When the Prophet heard of that, he, after glorifying and praising Allāh, said, “Why do some people refrain from doing something which I do? By Allāh, I know Allāh more than they, and I am more submissive to Him than they.”

7302. Narrated Ibn Abi Mulaika: Once, the two righteous men, i.e., Abū Bakr and ‘Umar were on the verge of destruction. (And that was because:) When the delegate of Bani Tamim came to the Prophet, one of them (either Abū Bakr or ‘Umar) recommended Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥābis At-Tamimī Al-Ḥanżāli, the brother of Bani Mujāši’ (to be appointed as their chief), while the other recommended somebody else. Abū Bakr said to ‘Umar, “You intended only to oppose me.” ‘Umar said, “I did not intend to oppose you!” Then their voices grew louder in front of the Prophet whereupon there was revealed:

“O you who believe! Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet... (up to) a great reward.” (V.49:2,3)

Ibn Az-Zubair said, “Thenceforth when ‘Umar talked to the Prophet, he would talk like one who whispered a secret and would even fail to make the Prophet hear him, in which case the Prophet would ask...”
him (to repeat his words)."

7303. Narrated ‘Aishah, the Mother of believers: Allâh’s Messenger during his fatal illness said, “Order Abû Bakr to lead the people in Salât (prayer).” I said, “If Abû Bakr stood at your place, the people will not be able to hear him because of his excessive weeping, so order ‘Umar to lead the people in Salât (prayer).” He again said, “Order Abû Bakr to lead the people in Salât (prayer).” Then I said to Hafsa, “Will you say (to the Prophet), ‘If Abû Bakr stood at your place, the people will not be able to hear him because of his weeping, so order ‘Umar to lead the people in Salât (prayer)?’” Hafsa did so, whereupon Allâh’s Messenger said, “You are like the companions of Joseph (see the Qur’ân, V.12:30-32). Order Abû Bakr to lead the people in Salât (prayer).” Hafsa then said to me, “I have never received any good from you!”

7304. Narrated Sahîl bin Sa’d As-Sâ’îdî: ‘Uwaimir Al-‘Ajâlî came to ‘A‘îm bin ‘Adî and said, “If a man found another man with his wife and killed him, would you sentence the husband to death (in Al-Qisas) (i.e., equality in punishment)? O ‘A‘îm! Please ask Allâh’s Messenger about this matter on my behalf.” ‘A‘îm asked the Prophet but the Prophet disliked the question and disapproved of it. ‘A‘îm returned and informed ‘Uwaimir that the Prophet disliked that question. 'Uwaimir said, “By Allâh, I will go (personally) to the Prophet.”

‘Uwaimir came to the Prophet when Allâh had already revealed Qur’ânic Verses (in that respect) after ‘A‘îm had left (the Prophet). So the Prophet said to ‘Uwaimir, “Allâh has revealed Qur’ânic Verses regarding you and your wife.” The Prophet then called for them, and they came and carried out the order of Li‘ân, and then ‘Uwaimir said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Now if I kept her with me, I would be accused of telling a lie.” So ‘Uwaimir divorced her although the Prophet did not order him to do so. Later on this practice of divorcing became the tradition of couples involved in a case of Li‘ân. The Prophet said (to the people), “Wait for her! If she delivers a red, short (small) child like a Wahara (a short red animal), then I will be of the opinion that he (‘Uwaimir) has told a lie; but if she delivers a black big-eyed one with big buttocks, then I will be of the opinion that he has told the truth about her.” Ultimately she gave birth to a child that proved the accusation. [See Vol.6, Hadith No. 4745]

7305. Narrated Mãlik bin Aus An-Nâṣrī: I proceeded till I entered upon ‘Umar (and while I was sitting there), his gate-keeper Yarâf came to him and said, “‘Uthmân, ‘Abdur-Rahmân, Az-Zubair and Sa‘d ask your permission to come in.” ‘Umar allowed them. So they entered, greeted, and sat down. (After a while the gatekeeper came) and said, “Shall I admit ‘Alî and ‘Abbâs?” ‘Umar allowed them to enter. Al-‘Abbâs said, “O chief of the believers! Judge between me and the oppressor (‘Alî).” Then there was a dispute (regarding the property of Banî Na‘îdâr) between them.

(1) (7304) Li‘ân: See glossary.
‘Abbās and ‘Alī). ‘Uṭmān and his companions said, “O chief of the believers! Judge between them and relieve one from the other.” ‘Umar said, “Be patient! I beseech you by Allāh, with Whose Permission the heaven and the earth exist! Do you know that Allāh’s Messenger ḍ said, ‘Our property is not to be inherited, and whatever we leave is Sadaqa (to be given in charity),’ and by this Allāh’s Messenger ḍ meant himself?” On that the group said, “He verily said so.” ‘Umar then faced ‘Ali and ‘Abbās and said, “I beseech you both by Allāh, do you both know that Allāh’s Messenger ḍ said so?” They both replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar then said, “Now I am talking to you about this matter (in detail). Allāh favoured Allāh’s Messenger ḍ with some of this wealth which He did not give to anybody else, as Allāh said:

‘What Allāh gave as booty (Fai) to His Messenger (Muhammad ḍ) from them, for this you made no expedition...’ (59:6) So that property was totally meant for Allāh’s Messenger ḍ, yet he did not collect it and ignore you, nor did he withhold it with your exclusion, but he gave it to you and distributed it among you till this much of it (i.e., the property of Bani Nadir) was left behind, and the Prophet ḍ used to spend of this as the yearly expenditures of his family and then take what remained of it and spent it as he did with (other) Allāh’s Wealth. The Prophet ḍ did so during all his lifetime, and I beseech you by Allāh, do you know that?” They replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar then addressed ‘Alī and ‘Abbās, saying, “I beseech you both by Allāh, do you know that?” Both of them replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar added, “Then Allāh took His Messenger ḍ unto Him. Abū Bakr then said, ‘I am the successor of Allāh’s Messenger ḍ,’ and took over all the Prophet’s property and disposed of it in the same way as Allâh’s Messenger used to do, and you were present then.” Then he turned to ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs and said, “You both claim that Abû Bakr did so-and-so in managing the property, but Allâh knows that Abû Bakr was honest, righteous, intelligent, and a follower of what is right in managing it. Then Allâh took Abû Bakr unto Him. (After his death) I said, ‘I am the successor of Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr.’ So I took over the property for two years and managed it in the same way as Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr used to do. Then you both (‘Ali and ‘Abbâs) came to me and asked for the same thing! (O ‘Abbâs!) You came to me to ask me for your share from nephew’s property; and this (‘Ali) came to me asking for his wife’s share from her father’s property, and I said to you both, ‘If you wish, I will place it in your custody on condition that you both will manage it in the same way as Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr did and as I have been doing since I took charge of managing it; otherwise, do not speak to me anymore about it.’ Then you both said, ‘Give it to us on that (condition).’ So I gave it to you on that condition. Now I beseech you by Allâh, did I not give it to them on that condition?” The group (whom he had been addressing) replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar then addressed ‘Abbâs and ‘Ali saying, “I beseech you both by Allâh, didn’t I give you all that property on that condition?” They said, “Yes.” ‘Umar then said, “Are you now seeking a verdict from me other than that? By Him with Whose Permission the heaven and the earth exist, I will not give any verdict other than that till the Hour is established; and if you both are unable to manage this property, then you can hand it back to me, and I will be sufficient for it on your behalf.” [See
(6) CHAPTER. The sin of the person who gives refuge or helps a person who innovates an heresy (in the religion) or commits sin.

This has been narrated by ‘Ali on the authority of the Prophet.

7306. Narrated ‘Āśim: I asked Anas, “Did Allah’s Messenger made Al-Madina a sanctuary?” He replied, “Yes, (Al-Madina is a sanctuary) from such and such place to such and such place. It is forbidden to cut its trees, and whosoever innovates an heresy in it or commits a sin therein, will incur the Curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people.” Then Mūsá bin Anas told me that Anas added, “... or gives refuge to such an heretic or a sinner...” (See H. 1867 and 1870)

(7) CHAPTER. What is said against judging (in religion) made on the basis of one’s own opinion or by Qiyās (without referring to the Qur’ān or the Sunna).

(And the Statement of Allah):

(1) (Ch.7) Verdicts and judgements given by Islamic religious scholars. These are given on the following proofs respectively: (a) From the Holy Book (the Qur’ān). (b) From the Prophet’s Sunna. (c) From the unanimously accepted verdict of the Mujtahidin (independent religious scholars who do not follow anybody blindly but with proof from all over the Muslim world). (d) Qiyās, i.e., the verdict given by a Mujtahid who considered the case similar in comparison to a case judged by the Prophet. Qiyās =
“And follow not (O man, i.e., say not, or do not, or witness not) that of which you have no knowledge (e.g. one’s saying: I have seen,” while in fact he has not seen, or “I have heard”, while he has not heard)…” (V.17:36)

7307. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Allāh will not deprive you of knowledge after he has given it to you, but it will be taken away through the death of the religious learned men with their knowledge. Then there will remain ignorant people who, when consulted, will give verdicts according to their opinions whereby they will mislead others and will go astray.”

7308. Narrated Al-A’maš: I asked Abū Wā’il, “Did you witness the battle of Sīffin between ‘Alī and Mu‘āwiya?” He said, “Yes,” and added, “Then I heard Sahl bin Hunaif saying, ‘O people! Blame your personal opinions in your religion. No doubt, I remember myself on the day of

= is not to be practised except if the judgement of the case is not found in the first three proofs, (a), (b) and (c).
Abū Jandal; if I had had the power to refuse the order of Allāh’s Messenger ، I would have refused it. We have never put our swords on our shoulders to get involved in a situation that might have been horrible for us, but those swords brought us to victory and peace, except this present situation.’ ” Abū Wa’il said, “I witnessed the battle of Šiffin, and how nasty Šiffin was!” (See H. 3181)

(8) CHAPTER. Whenever the Prophet ، was asked about something regarding which no Verse was revealed, he would either say, “I do not know,” or give no reply, but he never gave a verdict based on opinion or on Qiyās, and that was because of the Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

“... (Judge between men) by that which Allāh has shown you...” (V.4:105)

And Ibn Mas‘ūd said, “The Prophet ، was asked about Ar-Rūh (the spirit) and he kept quiet till the Divine Revelation was revealed.”

7309. Narrated Jābīr bin ʿAbdullāh رضي الله عنه : I fell ill, Allāh’s Messenger and Abū Bakr came to visit me on foot. The Prophet ، came to me while I was unconscious. Allāh’s Messenger performed ablution and poured the remaining water of his ablution over me whereupon I became conscious and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger!

(1) (H.7308) Sahīl and the other Companions of the Prophet ، obeyed the Prophet ، regarding the conclusion of the Hudaibiya Treaty with Al-ʿashrīkān ، although some of them thought that it was not in the favour of the Muslims. Thus, one should not follow one’s own opinion if it disagrees with that of the Prophet ،.
96 - HOLDING FAST TO THE QUR'ÂN AND THE SUNNA

How should I spend my wealth?” Or he asked, “how should I deal with my wealth?” But the Prophet did not give me any reply till the Verse of the laws of inheritance was revealed.

(9) CHAPTER. The way the Prophet taught his followers, whether men or women, of what Allah taught him. He did not impart his own opinions, nor did he give a verdict based on Qiyas. (1)

7310. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd (Al-Khudrī): A woman came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Men (only) benefit by your teachings, so please devote to us from (some of) your time, a day on which we may come to you so that you may teach us of what Allah has taught you.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Gather on such and such a day at such and such a place.” They gathered (on the appointed day and place) and Allah’s Messenger came to them and taught them of what Allah had taught him. He then said, “No woman among you who has lost her three children (whose three children died before attaining the age of puberty) but that they will screen her from the (Hell) Fire.” A woman among them said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If she lost two children?” She repeated her question twice, whereupon the Prophet said, “Even two, even two, even two!” [See Vol.2, Hadith No. 1249 and 1250]

(1) (Ch.9) Qiyas: See the glossary.
10) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ, “A group of my followers will remain victorious in their struggle in the cause of the Truth.” Those are the religious learned men (i.e., Mujtahidun). (1)

7311. Narrated Al-Mughîrah bin Shu'ba: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A group of my followers will remain victorious (and on the Right Path) till Allâh’s Order (the Hour) comes upon them while they will still be victorious.” [See Hadith 3640, 3641, 7459]

7312. Narrated Humaid: I heard Mu'âwiya bin Abi Sufyân delivering a Khutba (religious talk). He said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘If Allâh wants to do a favour to a person, He makes him comprehend the religion [the understanding of the meanings of the Qur'an and the Sunna (legal ways) of the Prophet ﷺ]. I am only a distributor, but the grant is from Allâh.’ (2) The state of this nation (i.e., true Muslims, real followers of Islamic Monotheism) will remain good till the Hour is established, or till Allâh’s Order comes.” (3)

11) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh : “... or to cover you with confusion in party strife...” (V.6:65)

---

(1) (Ch.10) Mujtahidûn, i.e., independent religious scholars who do not follow anybody blindly but with a proof from the Qur'an or the Prophet’s Sunna or both.
(2) (H.7312) The Prophet ﷺ taught his followers whatever he received from Allâh without partiality, while it is Allâh who gives whomever He will the gift of understanding.
(3) (H.7312) This means that, till the Hour, there will be good Muslims protecting Islam against its enemies.
7313. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: When it was revealed to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ:

"Say: He has power to send torment on you from above…" (V. 6:65) He ﷺ said, "O Allāh! I seek refuge with Your Face (from that punishment)." And when it was revealed:

"…or from under your feet…" (V. 6:65) He ﷺ said, "O Allāh! I seek refuge with Your Face (from that)." And when it was revealed:

"…or to cover you with confusion in party strife, and make you to taste the violence of one another…" (V. 6:65) he ﷺ said: "These two warnings are easier (than the previous ones)."

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever compares an ambiguous situation to a clear well-defined one, both of which have already been explained by the Prophet ﷺ to make the questioner understand.

7314. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A bedouin came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “My wife has given birth to a black boy, and I suspect that he is not my child.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Have you got camels?” The bedouin said, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “What colour are they?” The bedouin said, “They are red.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Are any of them grey (in color)?” He said, “There are grey ones among them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whence do you think this colour came to them?” The bedouin said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! It resulted from hereditary disposition.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “And this (i.e., your child) has inherited his colour from his ancestors.” The Prophet ﷺ did not allow the bedouin to deny his paternity of...
7315. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: A woman came to the Prophet and said, “My mother vowed to perform the Hajj but she died before performing it. Should I perform the Hajj on her behalf?” He said, “Yes! Perform the Hajj on her behalf. See, if your mother had been in debt, would you have paid her debt?” She said, “Yes.” He said, “So you should pay what is for Him as Allâh has more right that one should fulfil one’s obligations to Him.”

(13) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding exerting oneself to find out the proper legal verdict which is in harmony with what Allâh has revealed, as Allâh says:

“... And whosoever does not judge by that which Allâh has revealed, such are Zalimün (polytheists and wrongdoers) (of a lesser degree)…” (V.5:45)

The Prophet praised the man of religious wisdom who judges by it and teaches it and does not give verdicts that are personal (opinions). And what is said about the caliphs’ consulting and asking the religious learned men.

7316. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: Allâh’s Messenger said, “Do not wish to be like somebody else (in character) except in two cases: (1) The case of a man whom Allâh has given wealth and he spends it in the right way, (2) and that of a man whom Allâh has given religious wisdom (i.e., the understanding of the meanings of the Qur’ân and the Sunna) and he gives his verdicts according to it and teaches it\(^{(1)}\) to others, i.e., religious knowledge of the Qur’an and the Sunna (Prophet’s legal ways)].

7317. Narrated Al-Mughîra bin Shu’ba:
‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb asked (the people) about the Imlâs of a woman, (i.e., a woman who has an abortion because of having been beaten on her abdomen), saying, “Who among you has heard anything about it from the Prophet ﷺ?” I said, “I did.” He said, “What is that?” I said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘Its Diya (blood-money) is either a male or a female slave’.” ‘Umar said, “Do not leave till you present witness in support of your statement.”

7318. [H. 7317 contd.] So I went out, and found Muhammad bin Maslama. I brought him, and he gave witness with me that he had heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Its Diya is either a male slave or a female slave.”

(14) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ, “Certainly you (Muslims!) will follow the ways of those who were before you (i.e., Jews and Christians).”

7319. Narrated Abu Hurairah:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till my followers copy the deeds of the previous nations and follow them very closely, span by span, and cubit by cubit (i.e., inch by inch).” It was said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Do you mean by those (nations) the Persians and the Byzantines?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Who can it be other than they?”

7320. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will follow the ways of those nations who were before you, span by span and cubit by cubit (i.e., inch by inch) so much so that even if they entered a hole of a mastigure, you would follow them.” We said, “O Allah’s Messenger! (Do you mean) the Jews and the Christians?” He said, “Whom else?” (See H. 3456)

(15) CHAPTER. The sin of the person who invites others to an evil deed or establishes a bad tradition, for Allah ﷻ says:

“...and also of the burdens of those whom they misled without knowledge…” (V.16:25)

7321. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None is killed unjustly, but the first son of Adam will have a part of its burden.” Sufyân said, “A part of its blood because he was the first to establish the tradition of murdering.”

(16) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ mentioned and recommended that the religious learned men should not differ. What common opinions the people of the two Haram (sanctuaries) of Makkah and Al-Madina had, and what places and objects of interest [in connection with the Prophet ﷺ, Muhājirūn (emigrants) and the Ansār] are present in these two cities besides the praying place of the Prophet ﷺ and his pulpit and his grave.

7322. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh As-Salami: A bedouin gave the Bai'a (pledge) for embracing Islam to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and then he got a fever in Al-Madina and came to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Cancel my pledge.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ refused to do so. The bedouin came to him again and said, “Cancel my pledge,” but he refused again, and then again, the bedouin came to him and said, “Cancel my pledge,” and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ refused. The bedouin finally went away, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Al-Madīn a is like a pair of bellows (furnace), it cleanses its impurities while it brightens and clears its good.” (See H. 7209)

7323. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهما: I used to teach the Qur’an to ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf. When ‘Umar performed his last Hajj, ‘Abdur-Rahmān said (to me) at Mina, “Would that you had seen chief of the believers today! A man came to him and said, ‘So-and-so has said, ‘If chief of the believers died, we will give the Bai’a (pledge) to such and such person.’” ‘Umar said, ‘I will get up tonight and warn those who want to usurp the people’s rights.’ I said, ‘Do not do so, for the season (of Hajj) gathers the riffraff mob who will form the majority of your audience, and I am afraid that they will not

You should wait till we reach Al-Madina, the place of emigration and the place of the Prophet's Sunna. There you will meet the Companions of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ from the Muhãjirün and the Ansãr who will understand your statement and put it in its proper place.' 'Umar said, 'By Allâh, I shall do so the first time I stand (to address the people) in Al-Madina.' When we reached Al-Madina, 'Umar (in a Friday Khutba) said, "No doubt, Allâh sent Muhammad ﷺ with the Truth and revealed to him the Book (the Qur'an, and among that which was revealed, was the Verse of Rajm (stoning the married adulterers to death)."

[See Vol.8, Hadith No. 6830]

7324. Narrated Muḥammad: We were with Abû Hurairah while he was wearing two linen garments dyed with red clay. He cleaned his nose with his garment, saying, "Bravo! Bravo! Abû Hurairah is cleaning his nose with linen! There came a time when I would fall unconscious between the pulpit of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and 'Aishah's dwelling, whereupon a passerby would come and put his foot on my neck, considering me a mad man, but in fact, I had no madness, I suffered nothing but hunger."
7325. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Ābis: Ibn ‘Abbas was asked, “Did you offer the ‘Eid prayer with the Prophet?” He said, “Yes, had it not been for my close relation to the Prophet, I would not have performed it (with him) because of being too young. The Prophet came to the place which is near the home of Kaṭhir bin Aṣ-Ṣalt and offered the ‘Eid prayer and then delivered the Khutba (religious talk). I do not remember if any Adhān or Iqāma were pronounced for the Salāt (prayer). Then the Prophet ordered (the women) to give in Sadaqa (charity), and they started stretching out their hands towards their ears and throats (giving their ornaments in charity), and the Prophet ordered Bilāl to go to them (to collect the Sadaqa), and then Bilāl returned to the Prophet.”

7326. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet used to go to the Qubā mosque, sometimes walking, sometimes riding.

7327. Narrated Hishām’s father: ‘Āishah said to ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair, “Bury me with my female companions (i.e., the wives of the Prophet) and do not bury me with the Prophet in the house, for I do not like to be regarded as sanctified (just for being buried there).”

7328. Narrated Hishām’s father: ‘Umar sent a message to ‘Āishah, saying, “Will you allow me to be buried with my two companions (the Prophet and Abū Bakr)?” She said, “Yes, by Allāh.” Though

(1) (H.7325) No Adhān or Iqāma is pronounced for the ‘Eid prayers.
it was her habit that if a man from among the Companions (of the Prophet) sent her a message asking her to allow him to be buried there, she would say, “No, by Allah, I will never give permission to anyone to be buried with them.”

7329. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger used to perform the ‘Asr prayer and after the prayer one could reach the ‘Awâlî (a place in the outskirts of Al-Madina) while the sun was still quite high.

Narrated Yûnus: The distance of the ‘Awâlî (from Al-Madina) was four or three miles.

7330. Narrated As-Sâ‘ib bin Yazîd: The Šâ (a unit of measurement) during the lifetime of the Prophet used to be equal to the one Mudd (another kind of measure), and one-third of a Mudd which we use today, but the Šâ of today has become large.(1)

7331. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allah’s Messenger said, “O Allah! Bestow Your Blessings on their measures, and bestow Your Blessings on their Šâ and Mudd.” He meant those of the people of Al-Madîna.

(1) (H.7330) During the caliphate of ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Azîz.
7332. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Jews brought a man and a woman, who had committed illegal sexual intercourse, to the Prophet and the Prophet ordered them to be stoned to death, and they were stoned to death near the mosque where the biers used to be placed.

7333. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The mountain of Ulpud came in sight of Allah’s Messenger who then said, “This is a mountain that loves us and is loved by us. O Allah! (Prophet) Ibrahim (Abraham) made Makkah a sanctuary and I make the area between its (Al-Madīna’s) two mountains a sanctuary.”

7334. Narrated Sahl: The distance between the pulpit and the wall of the mosque on the side of the Qiblah was just sufficient for a sheep to pass through.

7335. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Between my house and my pulpit there is a garden from one of the gardens of Paradise, and my pulpit is over my Haud (Al-Kauthar).”
96 - HOLDING FAST TO THE QUR’ÂN AND THE SUNNA

7336. Narrated Nāfi‘: ‘Abdullāh said, ‘The Prophet arranged for a horse race and the prepared horses were given less food for a few days before the race to win the race, and were allowed to run from Al-Ḥafīḍ to Thaniya-tul-Wadā‘, and the unprepared horses were allowed to run between Thaniya-tul-Wadā‘ and the mosque of Bāḥi Zuraiq.’ (A subnarrator said.) ‘Abdullāh was one of those who participated in that race.

7338. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd that he heard ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān delivering a Khutba on the pulpit of the Prophet.

7339. Narrated ‘Āishah: This big copper vessel used to be put for me and Allāh’s Messenger and we would take water from it together (on taking a bath).

7340. Narrated Anas: The Prophet brought the Ansār and the Quraish people into an alliance in my house at Al-Madīna.
7341. [H. 7340 contd] Anas added: And he invoked Allâh for one month against the tribe of Bani Sulaim in (the last Rak’a of each compulsory) prayer.

7342. Narrated Abû Burda: When I arrived at Al-Madina, ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm met me and said to me, “Accompany me to my house so that I may make you drink from a bowl from which Allâh’s Messenger used to drink, and that you may offer Salât (prayer) in the mosque in which the Prophet used to offer his Salât (prayer).” I accompanied him, and he made me drink Sawiq) and gave me dates to eat, and then I offered Salât (prayer) in his mosque.

7343. Narrated ‘Umar: The Prophet said to me, “Someone came to me tonight from my Lord (Allâh) while I was in the ‘Aqiq (valley),(2) and said to me, “Offer Salât (prayer) in this blessed valley and say: ‘Labbaik’ for the (performance of) ‘Umra and Hajj.”

7344. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Dînâr: Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet fixed Qarn as the Miqât (for assuming the Ihram) for the people of Najd, and Al-Jubfa for the people

---

(1) (H.7342) Sawiq: See the glossary.

of Shām, and Dhul-Hulaifa for the people of Al-Madīna." Ibn 'Umar added, “I heard this from the Prophet ﷺ, and I have been informed that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘The Mīqāt for the people of Yemen is Yalamlam.’ When ‘Irāq was mentioned, he said, “At that time it was not a Muslim country.”

7345. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): The Prophet ﷺ had a dream in the last portion of the night when he was sleeping at Dhul-Hulaifa. (In the dream) it was said to him, “You are in a blessed Bāthā’ (i.e., valley).”

(17) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ

Not for you (O Muḥammad ﷺ, but for Allāh) is the decision…” (V.3:128)

7346. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that he heard the Prophet ﷺ, after raising his head from the bowing in morning Salāt (prayer), saying, “O Allāh, our Lord! All the praises are for You.” And in the last (Rak‘a) he said, “O Allāh! Curse so-and-so and so-and-so.” And then Allāh revealed:

“Not for you (O Muḥammad ﷺ, but for Allāh) is the decision, whethr He turns in mercy to (pardon) them or punishes them, Zalīmūn (polytheists, disobedient and wrongdoers)…” (V.3:128)
(18) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...But, man is ever more quarrelsome than anything.” (V.18:54)

And also the Statement of Allāh

“And argue not with the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), unless it be in (a way) that is better...” (V.29:46)

7347. Narrated ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to him and Fatīma, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, at their house at night and said, “Won’t you offer prayers?” ‘Alī replied, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Our souls are in the Hands of Allāh, and when he wants us to get up, He makes us get up.” When ‘Alī said that to him, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ left without saying anything to him. While the Prophet ﷺ was leaving, ‘Alī heard him striking his thigh (with his hand) and saying, “But man is ever more quarrelsome than anything.” (V.18:54)

7348. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ:

While we were in the mosque, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came out and said, “Let us proceed to the Jews." So we went out with him till we came to Bait-al-Midras. The Prophet stood up there and called them, saying, "O assembly of Jews! Surrender to Allah (embrace Islam) and you will be safe!" They said, "You have conveyed Allah's Message, O Abul-Qasim." Allah's Messenger then said to them, "That is what I want; embrace Islam and you will be safe." They said, "You have conveyed Allah's Message, O Abul-Qasim." Allah's Messenger then said to them, "That is what I want," and repeated his words for the third time and added, "Know that the earth is for Allah and I want to exile you from this land, so whosoever among you has property, he should sell it, otherwise, know that the land is for Allah and His Messenger." (See H. 6944)

(19) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
"Thus We have made you [true Muslims, — real believers of Islāmic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muhammad and his Sunna (legal ways)], a just (and the best) nation..." (V.2:143)

And the order of the Prophet to the Muslims to stick to the group who are the religious learned men (knowing the Qur'ān and the Sunna).

7349. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī: Allah's Messenger said, "(Prophet) Nūḥ (Noah) will be brought (before Allah) on the Day of Resurrection, and will be asked, 'Did you convey the Message of Allah?' He will reply, 'Yes, O Lord.' And then Nūḥ's nation will be asked, 'Did he (Nūḥ) convey Allah's Message to you?' They will reply, 'No warner came to us.' Then Nūḥ will be asked, 'Who are your witnesses?' He will reply, 'My witnesses are) Muḥammad (san) and his followers.' Thereupon you (Muslims) will be brought and you will bear witness.‘ Then the Prophet (sa) recited:

“Thus We have made of you [true Muslims — real believers of Islāmic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muḥammad (sa) and his Sunna (legal ways)], a just (and the best) nation, that you be witness over the mankind, and the Messenger (Muḥammad (sa)) a witness over you...” (V.2:143) (See H. 3339 and 4487)

(20) CHAPTER. If a governor or a ruler gives a verdict based on his own opinion and the verdict proves to be wrong and disagrees with the verdict of Allāh’s Messenger (sa), but he is unaware of that; then his verdict will be rejected.

And the Prophet (sa) said, “Whoever performs a (good) deed which we have not ordered anyone to do (or is not in accord with our religion of Islāmic Monotheism) then that deed will be rejected, and will not be accepted.

[See Fath Al-Bārī]

7350, 7351. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī and Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger (sa) sent the brother of the tribe of Bani ‘Adī Al-Anṣārī as governor of Khāibar. Then the man returned, bringing Ḫanīb (a good kind of date). Allāh’s Messenger (sa) asked him, “Are all the dates of Khāibar like that?” He replied, “No, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger! We take one Sā’ of these (good) dates for two Sā’s of mixed dates.” Allāh’s Messenger (sa) then said, “Do not do so [as it is a kind of Ribā (usury)]. You should either take one Șā’ of this (kind) for one Șā’ of the other; or sell one kind and then buy with its price the other kind (of dates), and you should do the same in weighing.” [See Ribā in the glossary] (See H. 2170, 2174 and 2201)

(21) CHAPTER. The reward of the judge for giving a verdict according to the best of his knowledge and whether his verdict was right (according to Allāh or His Messenger’s verdict) or wrong (i.e., did not agree with the verdict of Allāh and His Messenger).

7352. Narrated ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ that he heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, “If a judge gives a verdict according to the best of his knowledge and his verdict is correct (i.e., agrees with Allāh and His Messenger’s verdict), he will receive a double reward, and if he gives a verdict according to the best of his knowledge and his verdict is wrong (i.e., against that of Allāh and His Messenger) even then he will get a reward.”
(22) CHAPTER. The refutation of the claim of those who say, “All the legal decisions and verdicts given by the Prophet were known (i.e., known to all people).” And the fact that some of the Companions of the Prophet did not witness certain deeds or did not hear certain sayings of the Prophet and other Islamic matters.

7353. Narrated ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umair: Abū Mūsā asked permission to enter upon ‘Umar, but seeing that he was busy, he went away. ‘Umar then said, “Didn’t I hear the voice of ‘Abdullāh bin Qais (i.e., Abū Müsa)? Allow him to come in.” He was called in and ‘Umar said to him, “What made you do what you did?” He replied, “We have been instructed thus by the Prophet.” ‘Umar said, “Bring proof (witness) for this, otherwise I will do such and such to you.” Then ‘Abdullāh bin Qais went to a gathering of the Ansār (looking for witness) who then said, “None but the youngest of us will give the witness for it.” So Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī got up and said, “We used to be instructed thus (by the Prophet).” ‘Umar said, “This order of the Prophet remained hidden from me. Business in the market kept me busy.”

7354. Narrated Al-A‘raj: Abū Hurairah said, “You people claim that Abū Hurairah narrates many narrations of Allah’s Messenger. (Anyhow) with Allah will be our appointment. I was a poor man, and used to stick to Allah’s Messenger used to stick to Allah’s Messenger and the Muhãjirün (emigrants) used to be busy trading in the markets, and the Anṣār used to be busy looking after their properties. One day, I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘Who will spread his Ridã’ (a garment covering the upper part of the body) till I finished my speech and then fold it, (i.e., wrap it over his body), in which case he will never forget anything he had heard from me.’ So I spread my garment which I was wearing; and by Him Who sent Muhammad (saw) with the Truth, ever since, I have never forgotten whatever I heard from him (the Prophet).’” [See Vol.1, Hadith No. 118 and 119.]

(23) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that if the Prophet did not disapprove of something (said or done in his presence), his silence indicated that it was permissible, but if another person faced a similar situation, his silence should not be taken as a sign of his agreement.

7355. Narrated Muḥammad bin Al-Munkadîr: I saw Jãbir bin ‘Abdullãh swearing by Allah that Ibn Saiyyâd was Dajjâl. I said to Jãbir, “How can you swear by Allah?” Jãbir said, “I have heard ‘Umar swearing by Allah regarding this matter in the presence of the Prophet and the Prophet did not disapprove of it.”

---

(1) (H.7355) Perhaps Jãbir and ‘Umar thought that Ibn Saiyyâd will be of the minor Dajjâl, who will be thirty or more according to the Prophet’s saying, and who will appear before the appearance of the real (major) Dajjâl.
(24) CHAPTER. The laws that are inferred from certain evidences and what the meaning of an evidence is, and how it is explained.

The Prophet ﷺ talked about horses and similar things, and then he was asked about donkeys, and he drew their attention to the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall see it.” (V.99:7)

And when the Prophet ﷺ was asked about (the eating of) mastigures, he replied, “I do not eat it, nor do I prohibit it.” Besides, mastigure’s meat was eaten from the table-sheet of the Prophet ﷺ, therefore Ibn ‘Abbás concluded from that, that it (i.e., mastigure’s meat) is not prohibited to eat.

7356. Narrated Abü Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Horses may be used for three purposes: For a man they may be a source of reward (in the Hereafter); for yet another, a means of protection; and for another, a source of sin. The man for whom they are a source of reward, is the one who keeps them for Jihãd in Allah’s Cause and ties them with long ropes and lets them graze in a pasture or garden. Whatever those long ropes allow them to eat of that pasture or garden, will be written as good deeds for him and if they break their ropes and run one or two mounds, then all their footsteps and dung will be written as good deeds for him, and if they pass a river and drink from it, though he has had no intention of watering them, even then, that will be written as good deeds for him. So such horses are a source of reward for that man. For the man who keeps horses for his livelihood in order not to ask others for help or beg his bread, and at the same time he does not forget Allah’s Right
(i.e., pays Zakāt) of what he earns through them and of their backs (that he presents it to be used in Jihad in Allāh’s Cause), such horses are a shelter for him (from poverty). For the man who keeps them just out of pride and for showing off, they are a source of sin.” Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was asked about donkeys. He said, “Allāh has not revealed anything to me regarding them except this comprehensive Verse:

“So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall see it. And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) shall see it.” (V.99:7,8)

7357. Narrated ‘Āishah ﷺ: A woman asked the Prophet ﷺ about the periods: How to take a bath after the periods. He said, “Take a perfumed piece of cloth and clean yourself with it.” She said, “How shall I clean myself with it, O Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Clean yourself with it.” Then I knew what Allah’s Messenger ﷺ meant. So I pulled her aside and explained it to her.

7358. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: Umm Ḥufaid bint Al-Ḥārith bin Ḥazn presented the Prophet \( ا\u061f \) with some butter, dried yoghurt and mastigures as a gift. The Prophet \( ا\u061f \) then asked for a meal (mastigures, etc. to be put) and it was eaten over his dining table-cloth, but the Prophet \( ا\u061f \) did not eat of it, as he had aversion to it. But if it had been illegal to eat, it would not have been eaten over his dining table cloth nor would he have ordered that (mastigures meat) to be eaten.

7359. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet \( ا\u061f \) said, “Whoever has eaten garlic or onion, should keep away from us, or should keep away from our mosque and should stay at his home.” Ibn Wahb said, “Once a plate-full of cooked vegetables was brought to the Prophet \( ا\u061f \) at Badr. Detecting a bad smell from it, he asked about the dish and was informed of the kind of vegetables it contained. He then said, “Bring it near,” and so it was brought near to one of his Companions who was with him. When the Prophet \( ا\u061f \) saw it, he disliked eating it and said (to his Companions), “Eat, for I talk in secret to ones whom you do not talk to.”

(1) (H.7359) The Prophet \( ا\u061f \) talks to the angels (e.g., Angel Gabriel) during the Divine Revelation. See Fath Al-Bari.
7360. Narrated Jubair bin Mut'im: A lady came to Allâh’s Messenger and she talked to him about something, and he gave her some order. She said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! If I should not find you?” He said, “If you should not find me, then go to Abû Bakr.” Ibrahim bin Sa’d said, “As if she meant the death (of the Prophet).”

7361. Narrated Humaid bin ’Abdur-Rahmân that he heard Mu‘awiya talking to a group of people from Quraish at Al-Madîna, and on mentioning Ka‘b Al-Ahãrîr, he said, “He was one of the most truthful of those who used to talk about the people of the Scripture, yet we used to detect certain faults in his information.”

7362. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) used to read the Taurât (Torah) in Hebrew and then explain it in Arabic to the Muslims. Allâh’s Messenger said (to the Muslims), “Do not believe the people of the Scripture, nor disbelieve them, but say, ‘We believe in Allâh and whatever is revealed to us, and whatever is revealed to you.’”
7363. Narrated 'Ubaidullãh: Ibn 'Abbas said, "Why do you ask the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) about anything while your Book (the Qur'an) which has been revealed to Allah's Messenger is newer and the latest? You read it pure, undistorted and unchanged, and Allah has told you that the people of the Scripture change their Scripture and distorted it, and wrote the scripture with their own hands and said, 'It is from Allah,' to sell it for a little gain. Does not the knowledge which has come to you prevent you from asking them about anything? No, by Allah, we have never seen any man from them asking you regarding what has been revealed to you!"

(26) CHAPTER. It is disliked to differ.

7364. Narrated Jundab bin 'Abdullãh: Allah's Messenger said, "Recite (and study) the Qur'an as long as your hearts are in agreement as to its interpretation and meanings, but when you have differences regarding its interpretation and meanings, then you should stop reciting it (for the time being)." [See Hadith No.5061]

7366. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: When the time of the death of the Prophet ☪ approached(1) while there were some men in the house, and among them was 'Umar bin Al-Khattâb, the Prophet ☪ said, "Come near, let me write for you a writing after which you will never go astray." 'Umar said, "The Prophet ☪ is seriously ill, and you have the Qur'an, so Allah's Book is sufficient for us." The people in the house differed and disputed. Some of them said, "Come near so that Allah's Messenger may write for you a writing after which you will not go astray," while some of them said what 'Umar said. When they differed greatly and there was a hue and cry before the Prophet ☪, he said to them, "Go away (and leave me alone)." Ibn 'Abbas used to say: It was a great disaster that their difference and noise prevented Allah's Messenger ☪ from writing that writing for them(2).

(1) (H.7366) See Volume 1, Hadith No.114.
(2) (H.7366) The fact that the Prophet ☪ did not contradict 'Umar's statement indicates that he approved of his opinion. See Vol.1, Hadith No. 114.
(27) CHAPTER. Something forbidden, by the Prophet is legally prohibited unless there is a proof that (later on) it was (made) legal. Similarly, his orders render things obligatory, as he said (to his Companions) when they finished their Ihram, "Sleep with your wives."

And Jâbir said, "The Prophet did not oblige them (to go to their wives) but he only made that legal for them." And Umm’Atiya said, "We (women) were forbidden to follow funeral processions but was not made illegal for us."

7367. Narrated ‘Atã’: I heard Jâbir bin ‘Abdullah in a gathering saying, “We, the Companions of Allah’s Messenger, assumed the state of Ihram to perform only Hajj without ‘Umra.” Jâbir added, “The Prophet arrived (at Makkah) on the fourth of Dhul-Hijja. And when we arrived (in Makkah), the Prophet ordered us to finish the state of Ihram, saying, ‘Finish your Ihram and go to your wives [i.e., now sexual relationship with wives is legal (allowed) which was forbidden due to the state of Ihram.]’ Jâbir added, “The Prophet did not oblige us (to go to our wives) but he only made that legal for us. Then he heard that we were saying, ‘When there remains only five days between us and the day of ‘Arafa he orders us to finish our Ihram by sleeping with our wives in which case we will proceed to ‘Arafa with our male organs dribbling with

(1) (Ch.27) Unless there is a proof that his order is just a recommendation.
(2) (Ch.27) He said that to confirm his order that they should finish Ihram.
Holding Fast to the Qur'an and the Sunna

7368. Narrated 'Abdullãh Al-Muzani:
The Prophet ﷺ said, "Perform (an optional) prayer before Magrib prayer." (He repeated it thrice) and the third time he said, "Whoever wants to offer it can do so." Lest the people should take it as a Sunna. [See Hadîth No.1183]

7369. (28) Chapter. The Statement of Allãh ﷺ:
(... And who (conduct) their affair by mutual consultation..." (V.42:38)
"... And consult them in the affair..." (V.3:159)

Consultation should take place before taking a decision and before the matter becomes clear, as is indicated by Allãh’s Statement:

"...Then when you have taken a decision, put your trust in Allãh..." (V.3:159)

If the Messenger ﷺ decided something, it was not permissible for any human being to suggest something other than Allâh’s Messenger’s decision. On the day of (the battle of) Uhud, the Prophet ﷺ consulted his Companions whether they should stay at Al-Madîna or go out (to meet the enemy), and they suggested that they should go out. When he had put on his armour and decided (to go out), they said, “You’d better stay.” But he did not accept their (new) opinion after he had decided (to go out) and said, “A Prophet should not put off his armour after he had put it on (for the battle) till Allâh decides the case.” The Prophet ﷺ also consulted ‘Ali and Usâma concerning the false statement the liars had made about ‘Aishah. He listened to their opinions till Qur’ânic Verses were revealed, whereupon the Prophet ﷺ flogged the slanderers and did not listen to their different opinions, but did what Allâh had ordered him to do. After the Prophet ﷺ, the Muslims used to consult the honest religious learned men in matters of law so that they might adopt the easiest of them, but if the Book (the Qur’ân) or the Sunna gave a clear, definite statement about a certain matter, they would not seek any other verdict. By that they used to adhere to the way of the Prophet ﷺ. And Abû Bakr decided to fight those who refused to pay Zakât. ‘Umar said to him, “How dare you fight them when Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘I have been ordered to fight the people till they say: Lâ ilâhâ illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh). And if they say: Lâ ilâhâ illallah, then they would save their lives and properties from me, except for Allâh’s Islamic Laws (when they deserved a legal punishment) justly?’ ” Abû Bakr said, “By Allâh, I shall fight those who have separated what Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had put together!” Finally ‘Umar yielded to Abû Bakr’s opinions, so Abû Bakr did not heed any counsel (in that matter) because he had the verdict of Allah’s Messenger concerning those people who made separation between Salát (prayer) and Zakát(1) and intended to change the religion and its laws. The Prophet said, “If someone changes his (Islamic) religion, then kill him.” The Qurrá’ (religious learned men), whether old or young, were ‘Umar’s advisors, and he used to be very cautious at the cases and matters dealt with by the Book of Allah (the Qur’án).

7369. Narrated ‘Aishah Rضي الله عنها after the slanderers had given a forged statement against her: Allah’s Messenger called ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭālib and Usáma bin Zaid when the Divine Revelation was delayed. He wanted to ask them and consult them about the question of divorcing me. Usáma gave his opinion that was based on what he knew about my innocence, but ‘Ali said, “Allah has not put restrictions on you and there are many women other than her. Furthermore you may ask the slave-girl who will tell you the truth.” So the Prophet asked Barira (my slave-girl), “Have you seen anything that may arouse your suspicion?” She replied, “I have not seen anything more than that she is a young girl who sleeps, leaving the dough of her family (unguarded) that the domestic goats come and eat it.” Then the Prophet stood on the pulpit and said, “O Muslims! Who will help me against the man who has harmed me by slandering my wife? By Allah, I know nothing about my family except good.” The narrator added: Then the Prophet mentioned the innocence of ‘Aishah. [See Hadith No.4750]

(1) (Ch.28) This indicates that when the solution of a problem is found in the Qur’án, or in the Sunna, it does not need any consultation.
7370. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ addressed the people, and after praising and glorifying Allāh, he said, “What do you suggest me regarding those people who are abusing my wife? I have never known anything bad about her.” The subnarrator ‘Urwa said: When ‘Aishah was told of the slander, she said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will you allow me to go to my parents’ home?” He allowed her and sent a slave along with her. An Ansārī man said, “Subhānaka! It is not right for us to speak about this. Subhānaka! This is a great lie!”

وعن عروة قال: لما أخبرت عائشةً بالIER قال: يا رسول الله، إنذاذ لي أن أ الطلَق إلى أهلِي؟ فأخذَلها وأرسل مَعها العلماء وقَال: رجلٌ من الأنصار: سبَحانهُ ما يكون لنا أن نتكلم بهذا، سبَحانهُ هذا بِهتناً غَيْرِيهم. [راجع: 2593]

(1) (H.7370) Subhānaka: Glorified is He (Allâh) for what they ascribe to Him.
(1) CHAPTER. What has been said about the Prophet's inviting his followers (nation) to Tauhid Allah i.e., Islamic Monotheism (worshiping none but Allah Alone).

7372. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet sent Mu’adh to Yemen, he said to him, “You are going to a nation from the people of the Scripture, so let the first thing to which you will invite them is to testify the Tauhid Allah [i.e., Lā ilaha īllallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)]. If they accept that, tell them that Allah has enjoined on them, five compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers) to be offered in one day and one night (24 hours). And if they offer their Salāt (prayer), tell them that Allah has enjoined on them Zakāt of their properties; and it is to be taken from the rich among them and given to the poor among them. And if they agree to that, then take from them Zakāt, but avoid the best property of the people.” [See Hadith No. 1395 and 4347]

(1) (Book 97) Tauhid (Islamic Monotheism): See the glossary.
7373. Narrated Mu'adh bin Jabal: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Mu'adh! Do you know what Allah's Right upon His slaves is?” I said, “Allah and His Messenger know better.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “To worship Him (Allah) Alone and to join none in worship with Him (Allah). Do you know what their right upon Him is?” I replied, “Allah and His Messenger know better.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Not to punish them (if they did so).” (See H. 2856)

7374. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī زَيْمِي: A man heard another man reciting [in the Salāt (prayers)]: (Sūrat Al-Ikhlās)

“Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): He is Allah, (the) One.” (V.112:1)

And he recited it repeatedly. When it was morning, he went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him about that as if he considered that the recitation of that Sūrah by itself was not enough. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, it is equal to one-third of the Qur‘ān.” (See H. 5013)
7375. Narrated ʿĀisha: The Prophet sent (an army unit) under the command of a man who used to lead his companions in the ʿSalāt (prayers) and would finish his recitation with: (Surat Al-Ikhlas)

“Say (O Muḥammad): He is Allāh, (the) One.” (V.112:1)

When they returned (from the battle), they mentioned that to the Prophet. He said (to them), “Ask him why he does so.” They asked him and he said, “I do so because it describes the qualities of the Most Gracious and I love to recite it (in my ʿSalāt).” The Prophet said (to them), “Tell him that Allāh loves him.”

7376. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Ḥazīm: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh will not be Merciful to those who are not merciful to mankind.”

7377. Narrated Usamah bin Zaid: We were with the Prophet when suddenly there came to him a messenger from one of his daughters who was asking him to come and see her son who was dying.
The Prophet ﷺ said (to the messenger), “Go back and tell her that: Whatever Allāh takes is for Him, and whatever He gives is for Him, and everything with Him has a limited fixed term (in this world). So order her to be patient and hope for Allāh’s Reward.” But she sent the messenger to the Prophet ﷺ again, swearing that he should come to her. So the Prophet ﷺ got up, and so did Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda and Mu‘ādh bin Jabal (and went to her). When the child was brought to the Prophet ﷺ, his breath was disturbed in his chest as if it were in a water-skin. On that the eyes of the Prophet ﷺ became flooded with tears, whereupon Sa’d said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is this?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “This is mercy which Allah has lodged in the heart of His slaves, and Allah is Merciful only to those of His slaves who are merciful (to others).” [See Hadīth No.1284]

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh 

“Verily Allāh is the MI-Provider, Owner of Power, the Most Strong.” (V.51 :58)

7378. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’arī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None is more patient than Allāh against the harmful and annoying words He hears (from the people): They ascribe a son (offspring or children) to Him, yet He bestows upon them health and provision.” (See H. 4482, and 6099)

(4) CHAPTER. The Statements of Allāh 

“(He Alone is) the All-Knower of the Unseen, and He reveals to none His Unseen.” (V.72:26)

And: “Verily, Allāh! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour…” (V.31:34)

And: “...He has sent it (the Qur’ān) down with His Knowledge…” (V.35:11)

And: “...And no female conceives or gives birth, but with His Knowledge…” (V.35:11)

And: “To Him (Alone) is referred the knowledge of the Hour.” (V.41:47)

And Yahyā said, “Allāh has knowledge of everything, whether apparent or hidden (perceivable by human being or not).”

7379. Narrated Ibn ʿUmar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The keys of the Unseen are five and none knows them but Allāh: (1) None knows what is in the womb, but Allāh; (2) None knows what will happen tomorrow, but Allāh; (3) None knows when it will rain, but Allāh; (4) None knows where he will die, but Allāh (knows that); and (5) None knows when the Hour will be established, but Allāh.” (See H. 1039, Vol. 2)

7380. Narrated Masrūq: ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها said, “If anyone tells you that Muḥammad ﷺ has seen his Lord, (Allāh) he is a liar, for Allāh says:

‘No vision can grasp Him...’ (V.6:103)

And if anyone tells you that Muḥammad ﷺ knows the Unseen, he is a liar, for Allāh says:

‘None has the knowledge of the Unseen but Allāh.’ ”
(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:

"(Allâh is He Who is) the One Free from all defects, the Giver of security..."

(V.59:23)

7381. Narrated ‘Abdullah: We used to offer prayer behind the Prophet and used to say: As-Salãmu Alallah(1). The Prophet said, “Allâh himself is As-Salâm, so you should say: ‘At-Tahiyãt lillahi was salawat wa tat-yibatu. As-Salâm ‘alaika aiyuhan-Nabîyu wa rahmatul-lahi wa barakãtuhu. As-Salâm ‘alaina wa ‘alâ ‘ibadil-lahi wà-salihin. As-hadu an lâ ilaha ilallah, wa as-hadu anna Muhammadan ‘abdûha wa Rasûluha.’ ”(2)

7382. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “On the Day of Resurrection, Allâh will grasp the whole (planet of) earth (by His Hand) and shall roll up the heaven with His Right Hand and say, ‘I am the King; where are the kings of the earth?’

(1) (H.7381) Peace be on Allâh.
(2) (H.7381) “All the (best) compliments, prayers and good things are due to Allâh. Peace be on you, O Prophet and Allâh’s Mercy and Blessings be on you. Peace be on us and on the true pious slaves of Allâh. I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and I also testify that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger.”
CHAPTER. The Statements of Allah

"And He is the All-Mighty, the All-Wise." (V.14:4), (V.16:60), (V.45:37)

And: “Glorified be your Lord, the Lord of honour and power! (He is free) from what they attribute unto Him.” (V.37:180)

And: “But honour, power, and glory belong to Allah, and to His Messenger...” (V.63:8)

And whoever swore by the ‘Izzat ( Honour and Power) of Allah and by His Qualities.

Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, (“Allah will put His Foot over Hell on the Day of Resurrection), and Hell will say, ‘Qat! Qat! (Sufficient! Sufficient!) By Your ‘Izzat (Power and Honour)! ’”

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A man who will be the last person to enter Paradise will remain between Hell and Paradise. He will say, ‘O Lord, turn my face away from the Fire! No, by Your ‘Izzat (Power and Honour), I will not ask You for anything else.’”

Abu Sa’id said: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah will say (to that man), ‘For you is that and ten times the similar of that.’” (The Prophet) Ayyub (Job) said, “By Your ‘Izzat (Power and Honour)! I cannot dispense with Your Blessings!”

7383. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet used to say, “I seek refuge (with You) by Your ‘Izzat (Honour and Power).”
“And it is He Who has created the heavens and the earth in truth...” (V.6:73)

[This Verse indicates the Name of Allāh: Al-Khāliq (The Creator)].
for You. You are the Lord of the heavens and the earth. All the praises are for You. You are the Maintainer of the heaven and the earth and whatever is in them. All the praises are for You. You are the Light of the heavens and the earth. Your Word is the Truth, and Your Promise is the Truth, and the Meeting with You is the Truth, and Paradise is the Truth, and the (Hell) Fire is the Truth, and the Hour is the Truth. O Allah! I submit myself to You, and I believe in You and I depend upon You, and I repent to You, and with You (Your Evidences) I stand against my opponents, and to You I leave the judgement (for those who refuse my message). O Allah! Forgive me my sins that I did in the past or will do in the future, and also the sins I did in secret or in public. You are my only Ilah (God Whom I worship) and there is no other Ilah (God) for me (i.e., I worship none but You)."

Narrated Sufyân (regarding the above narration) that the Prophet ﷺ added, “You are the Truth, and Your Word is the Truth.” (See H. 1120)

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah
ناماً:
“And Allah is Ever All-Hearer, All-Seer.”
(V.4:134)

‘Aishah said, “Praise is to Allah, Whose hearing power can detect all kinds of sounds.” Then Allah revealed to the Prophet ﷺ:

“Indeed! Allah has heard the statement of her (Khula bint Tha‘labah) that disputes with you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) concerning her husband (Aūs bin Aṣ-Ṣāmit)...” (V.58:1)

7386. Narrated Abū Mūsā رضي الله عنه: We were with the Prophet ﷺ on a journey, and whenever we ascended a high place, we used to say, “Allāhu Akbar.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t trouble yourselves too much! You are not calling a deaf or an absent person, but you are calling One Who hears, sees, and is (very) Near." Then he came to me while I was saying in my heart, "La hawla wa la quwwata illa billah" (there is neither might nor power but with Allah)." He said, to me, "O 'Abdullah bin Qais! Say, 'La hawla wa la quwwata illa billah', for it is a treasure from one of the treasures of Paradise." Or said, "Shall I tell you of it?" (See H. 2992, Vol. 4)

7387, 7388. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr: Abū Bakr As-Ṣiddīq said to the Prophet ﷺ, "O Allah's Messenger! Teach me an invocation with which I may invoke Allah in my Salāt (prayers)." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Say: 'O Allah! I have done great Zulm (wrong) to myself, very much, and none forgives the sins but You; so please bestow Your Forgiveness upon me. No doubt, You are the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful."

7389. Narrated 'Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Jibril (Gabriel) called me and said, 'Allah has heard the statement of your people and what they replied to you.'" (See H. 3231, Vol. 4)
(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh’s Name:

“Say: He has power to (send torment on you from above)…” (V.6:65)

7390. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh As-Salami: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to teach his Companions to perform the Salât (prayer) of Istikhâra(1) for every matter just as he used to teach them the Sûrah from the Qur’ân. He used to say, “If anyone of you intends to do something, he should offer a two Rak‘â Salât (prayer) other than the compulsory Salât (prayer), and after finishing it, he should say: ‘O Allâh! I consult You, for You have all knowledge, and appeal to You to support me with Your Power, and ask for Your Bounty, for You are Able to do things while I am not, and You know while I do not; and You are the All-Knower of the Unseen. O Allâh! If You know that this matter (name your matter) is good for me both at present and in the future, (or in my religion), in my this life and in the Hereafter, then fulfil it for me and make it easy for me, and then bestow Your Blessings on me in that matter. O Allâh! If You know that this matter is not good for me in my religion, in my this life and Hereafter (or at present, or in the future), then divert me from it and choose for me what is good wherever it may be, and make me pleased with it.’” [See Hadith No.6382, Vol. 8]

(1) (H.7390) ‘Istikhâra’ is a Salât (prayer) in which the praying person appeals to Allâh to guide him on the right way regarding a certain situation.
(11) CHAPTER. The One Who turns the hearts.

And the Statement of Allah:
“And We shall turn their hearts and their eyes…” (V.6:110)

7391. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet frequently used to swear, “No, by the One Who turns the hearts.”

(12) CHAPTER. Allah has one hundred Names less One (ninety-nine)(1).

Ibn ‘Abbãs said, “Dhul-Jalal (means, Full of Majesty) and the meaning of Al-Barr is, the Most Courteous.”

7392. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah has ninety-nine Names, one-hundred less one; and he who memorized them all by heart will enter Paradise.”(2) To count something means to know it by heart.

(1) (H.Ch.12) Imám Bukhãrî knows very well the Hadîth mentioning in detail the ninety-nine Names of Allah quoted by Tirmîdî but that Hadîth did not come up to the standard of his selection of Sahîh Al-Bukhãrî so he took Allah’s Names from the Verses of the Qur’an either as adjectives or from the verbs of the Verses or from the Prophet’s Sunna.

(2) (H.7392) Memorizing Allah’s Names means to believe in those Qualities of Allah derived from those Names and should be accompanied by good deeds which Allah’s Names inspire us to do. Just knowing Allah’s Names by heart, will not make a vicious man enter Paradise. Therefore, the word ‘memorized’ in the Hadîth means to behave in accordance with the implications of Allah’s Names.
(13) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) asking Allāh with His Names and seeking refuge with them.

7393. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When anyone of you goes to bed, he should dust it off thrice with the edge of his garment, and say: Bismika Rabī’ waḍa’tu janbī, wa bika arfa’uhu. In amsakta nafṣī foghīr lahā, wa in arsalṭāhā faḥfāzā bimā tahfāzū bihī ‘ibādakās-sāliḥīn.”

7394. Narrated Juhaifa: When the Prophet ﷺ went to bed, he used to say, “Allāhumma bismika aḥyā wa aṃūt.” And when he got up in the morning he used to say, “Allāhumma lillāhil-ladhi aḥyāna ba’damā amātana wa ilaihīn-nushūr.”

(1) (H.7393) “In Your Name O Lord, I put my side (on the bed), and in Your (Name) I will raise it. If You should capture my soul, then forgive it; and if You should release it, protect it with what You protect Your righteous slaves.”
(2) (H.7394) “O Allāh, in Your Name I live and die!”.
(3) (H.7394) “All praise be to Allāh Who has given us life after He caused us to die; and unto Him is the Resurrection.”
7395. Narrated Abû Dhar: When the Prophet went to bed at night, he used to say: “Bismika namûtu wa nahyâ.” And when he got up in the morning, he used to say, “Alhamdu lillâhî l-ladhi ahyâna ba’damâ amâtana, wa ilaihin-nushûr.” [See the footnote of Hadîth No.7394]

7396. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs R.A: Allâh’s Messenger said, “If anyone of you, when intending to have a sexual relation with his wife, says: ‘Bismillâh, Allâhumma jannibnash-Shâitân, wa jannibish-Shâitâna ma razaqtana’”, Satan would never harm that child, should it be ordained that they will have one, (because of that sexual act).”

7397. Narrated ‘Adî bin Ḥâtim: I asked the Prophet, “I send off (for a game) my trained hounds; what is your verdict concerning the game they hunt?” He said, “If you send off your trained hounds and mention the Name of Allâh, then, if they catch some game, eat (thereof). And if you hit the game with a Mi’râd (a hunting tool) and it wounds it, you can eat (it).”

(1) (H.7396) “In the Name of Allâh, O Allâh! Protect us from Satan and keep Satan away from what you will give us.”
7398. Narrated ‘Aishah: The people said to the Prophet, “O Allah’s Messenger! Here are people who have recently embraced Islam and they bring meat, and we do not know whether they had mentioned Allah’s Name while slaughtering the animals or not.” The Prophet said, “You should mention Allah’s Name and eat.”

7399. Narrated Anas: The Prophet slaughtered two rams as sacrifice and mentioned Allah’s Name and said, “Allahu Akbar (while slaughtering).”

7400. Narrated Jundab that he witnessed the Prophet on the day of Nahr (the ‘Eid of Dhul-Hijja). The Prophet offered Salāt (prayer) and then delivered a Khutba (religious talk) saying, “Whoever slaughtered his sacrifice before offering Salāt (prayer), should slaughter another animal in place of the first; and whoever has not yet slaughtered any, should slaughter a sacrifice and mention Allah’s Name while doing so.”

7401. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “Do not swear by your fathers; and whoever wants to swear should swear by Allah.”
(14) CHAPTER. What is mentioned regarding Adh-Dhät (the Self of Allah, His Qualities and His Names).

Khubaib said, “That is in Dhai-AlJlah (Allah’s Self).” So he mentioned Adh-Dhät (His Self) with the Name of Allah.

7402. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger sent ten persons (as spies) to bring the enemy’s secrets, and Khubaib Al-Ansari was one of them. ‘Ubaidullah bin ‘Iyad told me that the daughter of Al-Harith told him that when they gathered (to kill Khubaib Al-Ansari) he asked for a razor to clean his pubic region, and when they had taken him outside the sanctuary (of Makkah) in order to kill him, he said in verse: “I don’t care if I am killed as a Muslim.

On any side (of my body) I may be killed in Allah’s Cause;

For that is in Dhai-Allah” for the sake of Ilah (Allah’s Self);

And if He will, He will bestow His Blessings, upon the torn pieces of my body."

Then Ibn Al-Harith killed him. The Prophet informed his Companions of the death of those (ten men) on the very day they were killed. (See H. 3045, Vol. 4)

(15) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“He warns you against Himself (i.e., His punishment)...” (V.3:28)

And the Statement of Allah:
...You know what is in my inner-self though I do not know what is in Yours...”
(V.5:116)

7403. Narrated 'Abdullâh W: The Prophet ﷺ said, “There is none who has a greater sense of Ghaira(1) than Allah, and for that reason He has forbidden Al-Fawahish (shameful deeds and sins e.g., illegal sexual intercourse etc.). And there is none who likes to be praised more than Allah does.” [See Hadîth No. 5220, 5223, Vol. 7]

7404. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When Allah created the creation, He wrote in His Book which is with Him on the Throne — and He prescribed for Himself: ‘Verily, My Mercy has overcome My Anger.’ ” (See H. 3194, Vol.4)

7405. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah ﷻ says: ‘I am just as My slave thinks I am, (i.e., I am Able to do for him what he thinks I can do for him) and I am with him if he remembers Me. If he remembers Me in himself, I remember him in Myself; and if he remembers Me in a group of people, I remember him in a group that is better than them; and if he comes one span nearer to Me, I go one cubit nearer to him; and if he comes one cubit nearer to Me, I go a distance of two outstretched arms nearer to him; and if he comes to Me walking, I go to him running’.”

(1) (H.7403) Ghaira: jealousy as regards women, or a feeling of fury and anger when one’s honour or prestige is injured or challenged.
(16) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh
tamâli:
"...Everything will perish save His Face..." (V.28:88) [That means that Allâh will never perish].

7406. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh:
When this Verse:
"Say (O Muhammed): He has power to send torments on you from above..." (V.6:65) was revealed; the Prophet \t								said, "I take refuge with Your Face." (1)
Allâh revealed:
"... or from under your feet...." (V.6:65)
The Prophet \t then said, "I seek refuge with Your Face!" Then Allâh revealed:
"... or cover you with confusion in party-strife...." (V.6:65)
On that, the Prophet \t said, "This is easier."

(17) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh
tamâli:
"...In order that you [O Mûsâ (Moses)] may be brought up under My Eye." (2) (V.20:39)

(1) (Ch.16) All that which has been revealed in Allâh’s Book [the Qur’ân] as regards the [Siffat (صفات)] Qualities of Allâh the Most High, like His Face, Eyes, Hands, Shins (Legs), His Coming, His Rising over His Throne (Istawa) and others, or all that Allâh’s Messenger \t qualified Him in the true authentic Prophet’s Ahadîth (narrations) as regards His Qualities like [Nuzûl (نزول)], His Descent or His Laughing and others.

The religious scholars of the Qur’ân and the Sunna believe in these Qualities of Allâh and they confirm that these are really His Qualities, without [Ta’wil (تويل)] interpreting their meanings into different things, or [Tashbih (تشبيه)] giving resemblance or similarity to any of the creatures, or [Ta’lî (تعلى)] or denying them (i.e., completely ignoring i.e., there is no Face, or Eyes or Hands, or Shins for Allâh). These Qualities befit or suit only for Allâh Alone, and He does not resemble to any of (His) creatures. As Allâh’s Statement (in the Qur’ân): (1) “There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer.” (42:11). (2) “There is none comparable unto Him.” (112:4).

(2) (Ch.17) This reflects the refuting of the dogma of certain Islâmî sects, that deny that Allâh has a Face, or Eyes etc.
And also the Statement of Allāh   :
“Floating under Our Eyes (i.e., the boat of Noah)…” (V.54:14)

7407. Narrated ‘Abdullah رضٰی اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ: Ad-Dajjāl was mentioned in the presence of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh is not hidden from you; He is not one-eyed,” and pointed with his hand towards his eye, adding, “while Al-Masīh Ad-Dajjāl is blind in the right eye and his eye looks like a protruding grape.”

7408. Narrated Anas ﬂ ﻟ ﻟ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh did not send any Prophet but that he warned his nation of the one-eyed liar (Ad-Dajjāl). He is one-eyed while your Lord (Allāh) is not one-eyed. The word ‘Kāfir’ (disbeliever) is written between his two eyes.”

(18) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh   :
“He is Allāh, the Creator, the Inventor of all things, the Bestower of forms…” (V.59:24)

7409. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضٰی اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ that during the battle with Bani Al-Mustaliq they (Muslims) captured some females and intended to have sexual relation with them without impregnating them. So they asked the Prophet ﷺ about coitus interruptus. The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is better that you should not do it, for Allāh has written whom He is going to create till the Day of Resurrection.”

Qaza‘a said, “I heard Abū Sa‘īd saying that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘No soul is ordained to be created but Allah will create it.'"

(19) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"... To one whom I have created with Both My Hands..." (V.38:75)

7410. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "Allah will gather the believers on the Day of Resurrection in the same way (as they are gathered in this life), and they will say, 'Let us ask someone to intercede for us with our Lord that He may relieve us from this place of ours.' Then they will go to Adam and say, 'O Adam! Don't you see the people (i.e., their condition)? Allah created you with His Own Hands and ordered His angels to prostrate before you, and taught you the names of all the things. Please intercede for us with our Lord so that He may relieve us from this place of ours.' Adam will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking' and he will mention to them the mistakes he had committed, and add, 'But you'd better go to Nuh (Noah) as he was the first Messenger sent by Allah to the people of the earth.' They will go to Nuh (Noah) who will reply, 'I am not fit for this undertaking,' and he will mention the mistake which he made, and add, 'But you'd better go to Ibrāhim (Abraham), Khalil(1) Ar-Rahmān.' They will go to (Prophet) Ibrāhim who will reply, 'I am not fit for this undertaking,' and he will mention

(1) (H.7410) Khalil: See the glossary.
to them the mistakes he made, and add, 'But you'd better go to (Prophet) Mūsā (Moses), a slave (of Allāh) whom Allāh gave the Taurāt (Torah) and to whom He spoke directly.' They will go to (Prophet) Mūsā who will reply, 'I am not fit for this undertaking,' and he will mention to them the mistakes he made, and add, 'You'd better go to (Prophet) ‘Īsā (Jesus), Allāh's slave and His Messenger and His Word ('Be!' and he was) and a soul(1) created by Him.' They will go to Prophet ‘Īsā who will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking, but you'd better go to (Prophet) Muḥammad (安宁) whose sins of the past and the future had been forgiven (by Allāh).' So they will come to me and I will ask the permission of my Lord (Allāh), and I will be permitted (to present myself) before Him. When I see my Lord, I will fall down in (prostration) before Him and He will leave me (in prostration) as long as He wishes, and then it will be said to me, 'O Muḥammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will then raise my head and praise my Lord with certain praises which He has taught me, and then I will intercede. Allāh will allow me to intercede (for a certain kind of people) and will fix a limit, whom I will admit into Paradise. I will come back again, and when I see my Lord (again), I will fall down in prostration before Him, and He will leave me (in prostration) as long as He wishes, and then He will say, 'O Muḥammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will then praise my Lord with certain praises which He has taught me, and then I will intercede. Allāh will allow me to intercede (for a certain kind of people) and will fix a limit, to whom I will admit into Paradise, I will return again, and when I see my Lord, I will fall down (in prostration) and He will leave me (in prostration) as long as He wishes, and then He will say, 'O Muḥammad! Raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to, and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will then praise my Lord with certain praises which He has taught me, and then I will intercede. Allāh will allow me to intercede (for a certain kind of people) and will fix a limit, to whom I will admit into Paradise. I will come back and say, 'O my Lord! None remains in Hell (Fire) but those whom the Qur'ān has imprisoned therein; and for whom eternity in Hell (Fire) has become inevitable.' The Prophet ﷺ added, 'There will come out of Hell (Fire) everyone who says: 'Lā ilāha illallāh' (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and has in his heart good equal to the weight of a barley grain. Then there will come out of Hell (Fire) everyone who says: 'Lā ilāha illallāh' (1) and has in his heart good equal to the weight of a wheat grain. Then there will come out of Hell (Fire) everyone who says: 'Lā ilāha illallāh' (1) and has in his heart good equal to the weight of an atom (the smallest ant).

7411. Narrated Abū Ḥaṭārah: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, 'Allāh's Hand is full, and (its fullness) is not affected by the continuous spending, day and night.' He also said, 'Do you see what He has spent since He created the heavens and the earth? Yet all that has not decreased what is in His Hand.' He (ﷺ) also said, 'His Throne is

(1) (H.7410) 'None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh.'
over the water and in His other Hand is the Balance (of justice) and He raises and lowers (whomever He wills).” [See Hadith No. 4684, Vol. 6]

7412. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection, Allah will grasp the whole (planet of) earth by His Hand, and all the heavens in His Right, and then He will say, ‘I am the King.’”

7413. Abü Hurairah said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘... Allah will grasp the (planet) earth...’.”

7414. Narrated ‘Abdullāh ﷺ: A Jew came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Muhammad! Allah will hold the heavens on a Finger, and the mountains on a Finger, and the trees on a Finger, and all the creation on a Finger, and then He will say, ‘I am the King.’” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ smiled till his premolar teeth became visible, and then recited:

“They made not a just estimate of Allah such as is due to Him...” (V.39:67)
‘Abdullãh added: Allah’s Messenger smiled (at the Jew’s statement) expressing his wonder and believe in what was said.

7415. Narrated ‘Abdullah: A man from the people of the Scripture came to the Prophet and said, “O Abul-Qasim! Allah will hold the heavens upon a Finger, and the earth on a Finger and the land on a Finger, and all the creation on a Finger, and will say, ‘I am the King! I am the King!’” I saw the Prophet (after hearing that), smiling till his premolar teeth became visible, and he then recited:

“They made not a just estimate of Allah such as is due to Him…” (V.39:67)

(20) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet : “No person has more Ghaira than Allah.”

7416. Narrated Al-Mughîra: Sa’îd bin ‘Ubâda said, “If I saw a man with my wife, I would strike him (behead him) with the

(1) (Ch.20) Ghaira: See the footnote of H. 7403.
blade of my sword.” This news reached Allah’s Messenger ﷺ who then said, “You people are astonished at Sa’d’s Ghaira. By Allah, I have more Ghaira than him, and Allah has more Ghaira than me, and because of Allah’s Ghaira, He has made unlawful shameful deeds and sins (illegal sexual intercourse) done in open and in secret. And, there is none who likes that the people should repent to Him and beg His pardon than Allah, and for this reason He sent the warners and the Mubashshirün (givers of glad tidings). And there is none who likes to be praised more than Allah does, and for this reason, Allah promised to grant Paradise (to the doers of good).”

‘Abdul Malik said, “No person has more Ghaira than Allah.”

(21) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷻ

“Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): ‘What thing is the most great in witness?’ Say: ‘Allah...’” (V.6:19)

So Allah calls Himself a Thing. The Prophet ﷺ calls the Qur’an a Thing; and it is one of the Qualities of Allah. And Allah said:

“...Everything will perish save His Face...” (V.28:88)

7417. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The Prophet ﷺ said to a man, “Have you got anything (meaning any Surah of the Qur’an?)” The man said, “Yes, such and such Sūrah, and such and such Sūrah,” naming the Sūrah.
(22) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allâh) (V.11:7)

"...And His Throne was on the water..."

(V.27:26)

7418. Narrated ‘Imrân bin Ḥuṣain: While I was with the Prophet ﷺ, some people from Bânî Tamîm came to him. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Bâni Tamîm! Accept the glad tidings!” They said, “You have given us the good news; now give us (something).” (After a while) some Yemenites entered, and he said to them, “O the people of Yemen! Accept the glad tidings, as Bâni Tamîm have refused it.” They said, “We accept it, for we have come to you to learn the religion. So we ask you what the beginning of this universe was.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “There was Allâh and nothing else before Him, and His Throne was over the water, and He then created the heavens and the earth and wrote everything in the Book.” Then a man came to me and said, ‘O ‘Imrân! Follow your she-camel for it has run away!’ So I set out seeking it, and behold, it was beyond the mirage! By Allâh! I wished that it (my she-camel) had gone but that I had not left (the gathering).
7419. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "The Right (Hand) of Allah is full, and (its fullness) is not affected by the continuous spending, night and day. Do you see what He has spent since He created the heavens and the earth? Yet all that spending has not decreased what is in His Right Hand. His Throne is over the water and in His other Hand is the Bounty or the Power to bring about death, and He raises some people and brings others down." [See Hadith No.7411]

7420. Narrated Anas: Zaid bin Haritha came to the Prophet complaining about his wife. The Prophet kept on saying to him, "Be afraid of Allah and keep your wife." Aishah said, "If Allah's Messenger were to conceal anything (of the Qur'an), he would have concealed this Verse." Zainab used to boast before the wives of the Prophet and used to say, "You were given in marriage by your families, while I was married (to the Prophet) by Allah from over seven heavens." And Thabit recited the Verse:

"...But you did hide in yourself (i.e., what Allah has already made known to you that He will give her to you in marriage) that which Allah will make manifest, you did fear the people (i.e. their saying that Muhammad married the divorced wife of his manumitted slave)" (V.33:37) and said that this Verse was revealed in connection with Aishah, Thabit's wife (may Allah be pleased with her), saying to the Prophet, "I had hidden from you that which Allah will make manifest regarding the divorced wife of your manumitted slave." [See Hadith No.4884] with Zainab and Zaid bin Ḥāritha.”

7421. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Verse of Al-Ḥijāb (veiling of women) was revealed in connection with Zainab bint Jahsh. (On the day of her marriage with him) the Prophet gave a wedding banquet with bread and meat; and she used to boast before other wives of the Prophet and used to say, “Allāh married me (to the Prophet) in the heavens.”

7422. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “When Allāh had finished His creation, He wrote over His Throne: ‘My Mercy preceded My Anger.’” [See Hadith No. 74041]

7423. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever believes in Allāh and His Messenger, offers As-Ṣalāt (the prayers) — Iqāmat-as-Ṣalāt, and observes Saum (fasts) (the month of) Ramadān, then it is incumbent upon Allāh to admit him into Paradise, whether he emigrates for Allāh’s Cause or stays in the land where he was born.” They (the Companions of the Prophet) said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Should we not inform the people of that?” He said, “There are one hundred degrees in Paradise which Allāh has prepared for those who carry on Ḥijād in His Cause. The distance between every two degrees is like the distance between the heaven and the earth, so if you ask Allāh for anything, ask Him for the Firdaws, for it is the middle part of Paradise and the highest part of Paradise, and at its top there is the Throne of the Most Gracious (Allâh), and from it gush forth the rivers of Paradise.”

7424. Narrated Abû Dhar: I entered the mosque while Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was sitting there. When the sun had set, the Prophet ﷺ said, “O Abû Dhar! Do you know where this (sun) goes?” I said, “Allah and His Messenger know better.” He said, “It goes and asks permission to prostrate, and it is allowed, and (one day) it, as if being ordered to return whence it came, then it will rise from the west.” Then the Prophet ﷺ recited: “And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed).....(V.36 :38) as it is recited by ‘Abdullâh. (See H. 3199, Vol. 4)

7425. Narrated Zaid bin Thâbit: Abû Bakr sent for me, so I collected the Qur’ân till I found the last part of Sûrat At-Tauba with Abî Khuzaima Al-Ansâri and did not find it with anybody else. (The Verses are): “Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from amongst yourselves... (till the end of Sûrat Bard ‘a) (i.e., Sûrat At-Tauba).” (V.9:128,129)
7426. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: The Prophet used to say at the time of difficulty: “La ilāha illallahul-'Ālimul-Halim. La ilāha illallahu Rabbu-l-'Arshil-'Azim. La ilāha illallahu Rabbus-samāwāti, wa Rabbul-ard, wa Rabbul-'Arshil-Karrm.” [See Hadith No. 6345 and 6346, Vol. 8]

7427. Narrated Abū Sa'id Al-Khudri: The Prophet said, “The people will fall unconscious on the Day of Resurrection, then suddenly I will see (Prophet) Mūsā (Moses) holding one of the pillars of the Throne.”

7428. Abū Hurairah said: The Prophet said, “I will be the first person to be resurrected and will see (Prophet) Mūsā holding the Throne.”

(1) (H.7426) None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, the All-Knower, the Most Forbearing. None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, the Lord of the Tremendous Throne. None has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, the Lord of the heavens and the Lord of the earth and the Lord of the Honourable Throne.
(23) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"The angels and the Râh [Jibrîl (Gabriel)] ascend to Him..." (V.70:4)

The Statement of Allâh

"To Him ascend (all) the goodly words..." (V.35:10)

Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: When the news of the Prophet ﷺ being sent (by Allâh) (as a Messenger of Allâh) reached Abû Dhar, he said to his brother, “Try to find out the truth about that man (the Prophet ﷺ) who claims that the news comes to him from the heaven.”

7429. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “(A group of) angels stay with you at night and (another group of) angels by daytime, and both groups gather at the time of the ‘Asr and Fajr (prayers). Then those angels who have stayed with you overnight, ascend (to heaven) and Allâh asks them (about you), — and He knows everything about you — ‘In what state did you leave My slaves?’ The angels reply, ‘When we left them, they were offering Salât (prayers), and when we reached them they were offering Salât (prayer).’” (See H. 555, Vol. 1)

7430. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If somebody gives in charity something equal to a date from his honestly earned money — for nothing ascends to Allah except good — then Allah will take it in His Right (Hand) and bring it up for its owner as anyone of you brings up a baby horse, till it becomes like a mountain.”

Abū Hurairah also said: The Prophet said, “Nothing ascends to Allah except good.”

7431. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Messenger used to say at the time of difficulty, “La ilāha illallahul-Ażirul-Halim. La ilāha illallahu Rabbul- ‘Arshil-Azīm. La ilāha illallahu Rabbus-samāwāti wa Rabbul-‘Arshil-Karīm” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the All-Majestic, the Most Forebearing. None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the Lord of the Tremendous Throne. None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the Lord of the heavens and the Lord of the Honourable Throne). [See Hadith No. 6346, Vol. 8]

7432. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd, Al-Khudrī: When ‘Ali was in Yemen, he sent some gold in its ore form to the Prophet. The Prophet distributed it among Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥabīs Al-Ḥanẓalī who belonged to Bānī Mujašī, ‘Uyaina bin Badr Al-Fazārī, ‘Alqama bin ‘Ulātha Al-‘Amīrī, who belonged to the Bānī Kilāb tribe and Zaid Al-Khāil Al-Tā’ī who belonged to Bānī Nabhān. So the Quraish (emigrants) and the Ansār became angry and said, “He gives to the chiefs of Najd and leaves us!” The Prophet ᵉ said, “I just wanted to attract and unite their hearts (make them firm in Islam).” Then there came a man with sunken eyes, bulging forehead, thick beard, fat raised cheeks, and clean-shaven head, and said, “O Muḥammad! Be afraid of Allah!” The Prophet ᵉ said, “Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? He (Allah) trusts me over the people of the earth, but you do not trust me?” A man from the people (present then), who, I think, was Khālid bin Al-Walid, asked for permission to kill him, but the Prophet ᵉ prevented him. When the man went away, the Prophet ᵉ said, “Out of the offspring of this man, there will be people who will recite the Qur‘ān but it (the recitation or its meanings) will not go beyond their throats, and they will go out of Islam as an arrow goes out through the game, and they will kill the Muslims and leave the idolaters. Should I live till they appear, I would kill them as the killing of the nation of ‘Ād.” (See H. 3344, 4351)
(24) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"Some faces that Day shall be Nādirah (shining and radiant). Looking at their Lord (Allāh)." (V.75:22,23)

7434. Narrated Jarir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: We were sitting with the Prophet ﷺ and he looked at the moon on the night of the full moon and said, “You people shall see your Lord as you see this full moon, and you will have no difficulty or trouble in seeing Him, so if you can avoid missing (through sleep or business, etc.) a Salāt (prayer) before sunrise (Fajr) and a Salāt before sunset (‘Asr) you must do so.” [See Hadith No. 554, Vol. 1]

7435. Narrated Jarir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will definitely see your Lord with your own eyes.”

7436. Narrated Jarir رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came out to us on the night of the full moon and said, “You shall see your Lord on the Day of Resurrection as you see this (full moon); and you will have no difficulty in seeing Him.” (See H. 7434)
7437. Narrated ‘Atā’ bin Yazīd Al-Laithī:
On the authority of Abu Hurairah: The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?”
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you have any difficulty in seeing the moon on a full moon night?” They said, “No, O Allah’s Messenger.” He said, “Do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun when there are no clouds?” They said, “No, O Allah’s Messenger.” He said, “So you will see Him, like that. Allah will gather all the people on the Day of Resurrection, and say, ‘Whoever worshipped something (in the world) should follow (that thing),’ so, whoever worshipped the sun will follow the sun, and whoever worshipped the moon will follow the moon, and whoever used to worship certain (other false) deities, they will follow those deities. And there will remain only this nation (Muslims) along with its good people (or its hypocrites). (The subnarrator, Ibrahim is in doubt as to the exact word the Prophet ﷺ used). Allah will come to them and say, ‘I am your Lord.’ They will (deny Him and) say, ‘We will stay here till our Lord comes, for when our Lord comes, we will recognize Him.’ So Allah will come to them in His Appearance which they know, and will say, ‘I am your Lord.’ They will say, ‘You are our Lord,’ so they will follow Him. Then a bridge will be laid across Hell (Fire). I and my followers will be the first ones to go across it and none will speak on that Day except the Messengers. And the invocation of the Messengers on that Day will...
In Hell (or over the bridge) there will be hooks like the thorns of As-Sa’dan (thorny plant)." (The Prophet asked:) "Have you seen As-Sa’dan?" They replied, "Yes, O Allah’s Messenger!" He said, "So, those hooks look like the thorns of As-Sa’dan, but none knows how big they will be, except Allah. Those hooks will snap the people away according to their deeds. Some of the people will stay in Hell (be destroyed) because of their (evil) deeds, and some will be cut or torn by the hooks (and fall into Hell) and some will be punished and then relieved. When Allah will finish His Judgement among the people, He will take whomssoever He will out of Hell through His Mercy. He will then order the angels to take out of the Fire all those who used to worship none but Allah, from among those whom Allah wanted to be Merciful and those who testified (in the world) that La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). The angels will recognize them in the Fire by the marks of prostration (on their foreheads), for the Fire will eat up (burn) all the human body except the mark caused by prostration; as Allah has forbidden the Fire to eat the mark of prostration. They will come out of the (Hell) Fire completely burnt; and then the water of Al-Hayat (life) will be poured over them and they will grow under it as does a seed that comes in the mud of the torrent. Then Allah will finish the judgements among the people, and there will remain one man facing the (Hell) Fire and he will be the last person among the people of Hell to enter Paradise. He will say, ‘O my Lord! Please turn my face away from the Fire because its air has hurt me and its severe heat has burnt me.’ So he will invoke Allah in the way Allah will wish him to invoke, and then Allah will say to him, ‘If I grant you that, will you then ask for anything else? He will reply, 'No, by Your Izzat (Power, Honour) I will not ask You for anything more.' He will give his Lord whatever promises and covenants Allāh will demand. So Allāh will turn his face away from Hell (Fire). When he will face Paradise and will see it, he will remain quiet for as long as Allāh will wish him to remain quiet, then he will say, 'O my Lord! Bring me near to the gate of Paradise.' Allāh will say to him, 'Didn't you give your promises and covenants that you would never ask for anything more than what you had been given? Woe on you, O Ādām's son! How treacherous you are!' He will say, 'O my Lord,' and will keep on invoking Allāh till He will say to him, 'If I give what you are asking, will you then ask for anything else?' He will reply, 'No, by Your Izzat (Honour Power), I will not ask for anything else.' Then he will give covenants and promises to Allāh and then Allāh will bring him near to the gate of Paradise. When he stands at the gate of Paradise, Paradise will be opened and spread before him, and he will see its splendour and pleasures whereupon he will remain quiet as long as Allāh will wish him to remain quiet, and then he will say, 'O my Lord! Admit me into Paradise.' Allāh will say, 'Didn't you give your covenants and promises that you would not ask for anything more than what you had already been given?' Allāh will say, 'Woe on you, O Ādām's son! How treacherous you are!' The man will say, 'O my Lord! Do not make me the most miserable of Your creation,' and he will keep on invoking Allāh till Allāh will laugh because of his sayings, and when Allāh will laugh because of him, He will say to him, 'Enter Paradise,' and when he will enter it, Allāh will say to him, 'Wish (for anything)'. So he will ask his Lord, and he will wish for a great number of things, for Allāh Himself will remind him to wish for certain things by saying, '(Wish for) so-and-so.' When there is nothing more to wish for, Allāh will say, 'This is for you, and its equal (is for you) as well.'"

7438. ‘Āthā’ bin Yazīd added: Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī who was present with Abū Hurairah, did not deny whatever the latter said, but when Abū Hurairah said that Allāh had said, "That is for you and its equal as well," Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī said, "And ten time as much, O Abū Hurairah!"
Abū Hurairah said, "I do not remember, except his saying, 'That is for you and its equal as well.' " Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī then said, "I testify that I remember the Prophet saying, 'That is for you, and ten times as much.' " Abū Hurairah then added, "That man will be the last person of the people of Paradise to enter Paradise."
[See Vol.8, Hadith No. 6573]

7439. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: We said, "O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?" He said, "Do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun and the moon when the sky is clear?" We said, "No." He said, "So you will have no difficulty in seeing your Lord on that Day as you have no difficulty in seeing the sun and the moon (in a clear sky)." The Prophet then said, "Somebody will then announce, 'Let every nation follow what they used to worship.' So the people of the Cross will go with their Cross, and the idolaters (will go) with their idols, and the worshippers of every god (false deities) (will go) with their god, till there remain those who used to worship Allāh.
from the righteous pious ones and the mischievous evil ones, and some of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians). Then Hell will be presented before them as if it were a mirage. Then it will be said to the Jews, ‘What did you use to worship?’ They will reply, ‘We used to worship Uzair (Ezra), the son of Allah.’ It will be said to them, ‘You are liars, for Allah has neither a wife nor a son. What do you want (now)’? They will say, ‘We want You to provide us with water.’ Then it will be said to them ‘Drink,’ and they will fall down in Hell (instead). Then it will be said to the Christians, ‘What did you use to worship?’ They will reply, ‘We used to worship Masîh (Messiah), the son of Allah.’ It will be said, ‘You are liars, for Allah has neither a wife nor a son. What do you want (now)?’ They will say, ‘We want You to provide us with water.’ Then it will be said to them ‘Drink,’ and they will fall down in Hell (instead), till there remain only those who used to worship Allah (Alone), the righteous pious ones and the mischievous evil ones. It will be said to them, ‘What keeps you here when all the people have gone?’ They will say, ‘We left them (in the world) when we were in greater need of them than we are today, we heard the call of one proclaiming: Let every nation follow what they used to worship,’ and now we are waiting for our Lord. Then the All-Mighty will come to them in a shape other than the one which they saw the first time, and He will say, ‘I am your Lord,’ and they will say, ‘You are our Lord.’ And none will speak to Him then but the Prophets, and then it will be said to them, ‘Do you know any sign by which you can recognize Him?’ They will say, ‘The Shin,’ and so Allah will then uncover His Shin, whereupon, every believer will prostrate before Him and there will remain those who used to prostrate before Him just for showing off and for gaining good reputation. One of such will try to prostrate but his back (bones) will become a single (vertebra) bone (like one piece of a wood and they will not be able to prostrate). Then the bridge will be brought and laid across Hell.”

We, the Companions of the Prophet said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is the bridge?”

He said, “It is a slippery (bridge) on which there are clamps and (hooks like) a thorny seed that is wide at one side and narrow at the other and has thorns with bent ends. Such a thorny seed is found in Najd and is called As-Sa’dân. Some of the believers will cross the bridge as quickly as the wink of an eye, some others as quick as lightning, or a strong wind, or fast horses or she-camels. So, some will be safe without any harm; some will be safe after receiving some scratches, and some will fall down into Hell (Fire). The last person will cross as if being dragged (over the bridge).” The Prophet added, “You (Muslims) cannot be more pressing in claiming from me a right that has been clearly proved to be yours than the believers in interceding with All-Mighty for their (Muslim) brothers on that Day, when they see themselves safe. They will say, ‘O Allah! Save our brothers (for they) used to offer Salât (prayer) with us, observe Saum (fasting) with us and also do good deeds with us.’ Allah will say, ‘Go and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find Faith equal to the weight of one (gold) Dinâr.’ Allah will forbid the Fire to burn the faces of those sinners. They will go to them and find some of them in Hell (Fire) up to their feet, and some up to the middle of their legs. So they will take out those whom they will recognize and then they will return, and Allah will say (to them), ‘Go and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find Faith equal to the weight of half Dinár.' They will take out whomsoever they will recognize and return, and then Allâh will say, ‘Go and take out (of Hell) anyone in whose heart you find Faith equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant)’. And so they will take out all those whom they will recognize.” Abû Sa‘îd said: If you do not believe me then read the Holy Verse:

“Surely! Allâh wrongs not even of the weight of an atom (or a small ant), but if there is any good (done), He doubles it…” (V.4:40)

The Prophet ﷺ added, “Then the Prophets, angels and the believers will intercede, and (last of all) the All-Mighty (Allâh) will say, ‘Now remains My intercession. He will then hold a handful of the Fire from which He will take out some people whose bodies have been burnt, and they will be thrown into a river at the entrance of Paradise, called the Water of Life. They will grow on its banks, as a seed carried by the torrent grows. You have noticed how it grows beside a rock or beside a tree, and how the side facing the sun is usually green while the side facing the shade is white. Those people will come out (of the River of Life) like pearls, and they will have (golden) necklaces, and then they will enter Paradise whereupon the people of Paradise will say, ‘These are the people emancipated by the Most Gracious. He has admitted them into Paradise, without (them) having done any good deed, and without sending forth any good (for themselves).’ Then it will be said to them, ‘For you is what you have seen and its equivalent as well.’”

7440. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The believers will be kept (waiting) on the Day of Resurrection so long that they will become worried and say, 'Let us ask somebody to intercede for us with our Lord so that He may relieve us from our place.' Then they will go to Ādām, the father of the people. Allāh created you with His Own Hand and made you reside in His Paradise and ordered His angels to prostrate before you, and taught you the names of all things. Will you intercede for us with your Lord so that He may relieve us from this place of ours?' Ādām will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking.' He will mention his mistakes he had committed, i.e., his eating of the tree, though he had been forbidden to do so. He will add, 'Go to (Prophet) Nūh (Noah), the first Prophet sent by Allāh to the people of the earth.' The people will go to Nūh (Noah) who will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking.' He will mention his mistake which he had done, i.e., his asking his Lord without knowledge.' He will say (to them), 'Go to (Prophet) Ibrāhīm (Abraham), Khalīl Ar-Rahmān.' They will go to Ibrāhīm who will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking.' He would mention three words by which he told a lie, and say (to them), 'Go to (Prophet) Mūsā (Moses), a slave whom Allāh gave the Taurāt (Torah) and to whom He spoke directly, and brought near Him, for conversation.' They will go to (Prophet) Mūsā (Moses) who will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking.' He will mention his mistake he made, i.e., killing a person, and will say (to them), 'Go to (Prophet) ʿĪsā (Jesus), Allāh’s slave and His Messenger, and a soul(2) created by Him and His Word.' (‘Bel!’ and he was.) They will go to Prophet ʿĪsā who will say, 'I am not fit for this undertaking but you’d better go to (Prophet) Ādām, 'Abdu Allāh’s slave and His Messenger, and a soul (1) created by Him and His Word.'

Muḥammad, the slave (of Allāh) whose all the past, present and future sins have been forgiven by Allāh.' So they will come to me, and I will ask my Lord's Permission to enter His House and then I will be permitted. When I will see Him, I will fall down in prostration before Him, and He will leave me (in prostration) as long as He will, and then He will say, 'O Muḥammad, lift up your head and speak, for you will be listened to, and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted, and ask (for anything) for it will be granted.' Then I will raise my head and glorify my Lord with certain praises which He has taught me. Allāh will put a limit for me (to intercede for a certain kind of people). I will take them out and make them enter Paradise.'

(Qatāda said: I heard Anas saying that), the Prophet  said, "I will go and take them out of Hell (Fire) and let them enter Paradise, and then I will return and ask my Lord for permission to enter His House and I will be permitted. When I will see Him, I will fall down in prostration before Him and He will leave me in prostration as long as He will let me (in that state), and then He will say, 'O Muhammad, raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to, and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted, and ask, your request will be granted.' " The Prophet  added, "So I will raise my head and glorify and praise Him as He has taught me. Then I will intercede and He will put a limit for me (to intercede for a certain kind of people). I will take them out and let them enter Paradise.'

(Qatāda added: I heard Anas saying that) the Prophet  said, "I will go and take them out of Hell (Fire) and let them enter Paradise, and I will return for the third time and will ask my Lord for permission to enter His House, and I will be allowed to enter. When I will see Him, I will fall down in prostration before Him, and will remain in prostration as long as He will, and then He will say, 'Raise your head, O Muḥammad, and speak, for you will be listened to, and intercede for your intercession will be accepted, and ask, for your request will be granted.' So I will raise my head and praise Allāh as He has taught me and then I will intercede and He will put a limit for me (to intercede for a certain kind of people). I will take them out and let them enter Paradise.' (Qatāda said: I heard Anas saying that) the Prophet ﷺ said, "So I will go and take them out of Hell (Fire) and let them enter Paradise, till none will remain in the (Hell) Fire except those whom the Qurʾan will imprison (i.e., those who are destined for eternal life in the Fire)." The narrator then recited the Verse:

"...It may be that your Lord will raise you to Maqām Mahmūd (a station of praise and glory (i.e., the honour of intercession on the Day of Resurrection)." (V.17:79)

The narrator added: This is the Maqām Mahmūd which Allāh has promised to your Prophet ﷺ.

[See Hadith No. 7410].

7441. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent for the Ansār and gathered them in a tent and said to them, “Be patient till you meet Allāh and His Messenger, and I will be on Al-Haud (Al-Kauṭhār).” (See H. 3793)
7442. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Whenever the Prophet offered his Tahajjud prayer, he would say, “O Allah, our Lord! All the praises are for You; You are the Maintainer of the heavens and the earth. All the praises are for You; You are the Rabb (Lord) of the heavens and the earth and whatever is therein. All the praises are for You; You are the Light of the heavens and the earth and whatever is therein. You are the Truth, and Your Word is the Truth, and Your Promise is the Truth, and the Meeting with You is the Truth, and Paradise is the Truth, and the (Hell) Fire is the Truth. O Allah! I submit myself to You, and believe in You, and I put my trust in You (solely depend upon you). And to You I complain of my opponents and with Your Evidence I argue. So please forgive the sins which I have done in the past or I will do in the future, and also those (sins) which I did in secret or in public, and that which You know better than I. None has the right to be worshipped but You.”

[See Hadith No. 7499].

7443. Narrated ‘Adi bin Ḥātim: Allāh’s Messenger said, “There will be none among you but his Lord (Allāh) will speak to him, and there will be neither any interpreter nor any screen between them to screen.”

(See H. 1413, 3595)
7444. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Qais: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Two Paradises of silver and all the utensils and whatever therein is of silver; and two Paradises of gold, and its utensils and whatever therein is of gold, and there will be nothing to prevent the people from seeing their Lord (Allah ﷻ) except the Cover of Majesty over His Face in the 'Adn Paradise."

7445. Narrated 'Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever takes a false oath to deprive a Muslim of his property unlawfully, will meet Allah Who will be angry with him."

Then the Prophet ﷺ recited the Verse:

"Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah's Covenant and their oaths, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter (Paradise). Neither will Allah speak to them nor look at them..." (V.3:77)

7446. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "(There are) three (types of persons to whom) Allah will neither speak to them on the Day of Resurrection, nor look at them. (They are): (1) a man who takes a false oath that he has been offered for a commodity a price greater than what he has actually been offered; (2) and a man who takes a false oath after the ‘Aṣr (prayer) in order to grab the property of a Muslim through it; (3) and a man who forbids others to use the remaining surplus water. To such a man Allāh will say on the Day of Resurrection, ‘Today I withhold My Blessings from you as you withheld the surplus water which your hands did not create’. (See H. 2358, Vol. 3)

7447. Narrated Abū Bakra: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Time has come back to its original state which it had when Allāh created the heavens and the earth, (1) the year is of twelve months, of which four are sacred; and out of these four) three are in succession, namely, Dhul-Qa‘da, Dhul-Hijja and Muḥarram, and (the fourth one) Rajab Muṣ�lar which is between Jumād (Ath-Thānī) and Sha‘bān.” The Prophet ﷺ then asked us, “Which month is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He kept quiet so long that we thought he might call it by another name. Then, he said, “Isn’t it Dhul-Hijja?” We said, “Yes.” He asked, “What town is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” Then he kept quiet so long that we thought he might call it by another name. He then said, “Isn’t it the (sacred) town (Makkah)”? We said, “Yes.” He asked, “What is the day today?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” Then he kept quiet so long that we thought he might call it by another name. Then he said, “Isn’t it the day of An-Nahr

1. (H.7447) Al-Mushrikūn of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance used to shift the sacredness of one month to another, and sometimes they regarded the years as consisting of 13 or even 14 months. When Islām came, it cancelled that practice and fixed the number of months and specified which months were sacred.
(slaughtering of sacrifices)?” We said, “Yes.” Then he said, “Your blood (lives), your properties,” (the subnarrator Muḥammad said: I think he also said: “... and your honour”) are sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours. You shall meet your Lord (Allāh) and He will ask you about your deeds. Beware! Don’t go astray after me by striking (cutting) the necks of one another. Verily, it is incumbent upon those who are present to inform it (this message) to those who are absent, for perhaps the informed one might comprehend it (understand it) better than some of the present audience.” (Whenever the subnarrator Muḥammad mentioned that statement, he would say, “The Prophet said the truth.”) And then the Prophet added, “No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you! No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allāh’s Message to you?”

[See Hadith No. 7078].

(25) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the Statement of Allāh:

"...Surely, Allāh’s Mercy is (ever) near unto the good-doers.” (V.7:56)

7448. Narrated Usāma: A son of one of the daughters of the Prophet was dying, so she sent a messenger to call the Prophet. He sent (her a message), “Whatever Allāh takes, is for Him, and whatever He gives, is for Him (too), and everything has a limited fixed term (in this world) so she should be patient and hope for Allāh’s reward.” She then sent for him again, swearing that he should come. Allāh’s Messenger got up, and so did Mu‘ādh bin Jabal, Ubayy bin Ka‘b and ‘Ubud bin As-Ṣāmit. When he entered (the house), they gave the child to Allāh’s Messenger while its breath was disturbed... in his chest. (The subnarrator said: I think he said, “. as if it was a water-skin.”) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ started weeping whereupon Sa’d bin ‘Ubadah said, “Do you weep?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh is Merciful only to those of His slaves who are merciful (to others).”

7449. Narrated Abû Hurairah : The Prophet ﷺ said, “Paradise and Hell (Fire) quarrelled in the presence of their Lord (Allâh). Paradise said, ‘O Lord! What is wrong with me that only the poor and humble people enter me?’ Hell (Fire) said, ‘I have been favoured with the arrogant people.’ So Allâh said to Paradise, ‘You are My Mercy,’ and said to Hell, ‘You are My punishment which I inflict upon whom I wish, and I shall fill both of you.’ ”

The Prophet added, “As for Paradise, (it will be filled with good people) because Allâh does not wrong any of His created things, and He creates for Hell (Fire) whomsoever He will, and they will be thrown into it, and it will say thrice, ‘Is there any more, till Allâh (will put) His Foot over it and it will become full and its sides will come close to each other and it will say, ‘Qa! Qa! Qa!' (Enough! Enough! Enough!).’”

7450. Narrated Anas : The Prophet ﷺ said, “Some people will be scorched by Hell (Fire) as a punishment for sins they have committed, and then Allâh will admit them into Paradise by the grant of His Mercy. These people will be called Al-Jahannamiyun (the people of Hell)."

(26) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (عَلَيْهِ اِلْحَمْدُ، وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ مِنَ الْقَبْلَ) "Verily, Allâh grasps the heavens and the earth lest they move away from their places..." (V.35:41)

7451. Narrated 'Abdullâh the Jewish rabbi came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and said, "O Muhammad (ﷺ)! Allâh will put the heavens on one Finger and the earth on one Finger, and the trees and the rivers on one Finger, and the rest of the creation on one Finger, and then will say, pointing out with His Hand, 'I am the King.' " On that Allâh's Messenger ﷺ smiled and recited: "They made not a just estimate of Allâh such as is due to Him..." (V.39:67)

(27) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding the creation of the heavens and the earth and other created beings.
All that is the work of the Lord and outcome of His Order. So He is the Lord with His Qualities and His Actions, and His Order; and He is the Creator and the Maker, and He is not created. And whatever exists through His Action, Command, creating and making is something done, created and made.

7452. Narrated Ibn `Abbās: Once I stayed overnight at the house of (my aunt) Maimūna (the wife of the Prophet) while the Prophet was with her, to see how was the night Salāt (prayer) of Allāh’s Messenger. Allah’s Messenger talked to his wife for a while and then slept. When it was the last third of the night (or part of it), the Prophet got up and looked towards the sky and recited the Verse:

“Verily, in the creation of the heavens and the earth...(up to His Statement) there are indeed signs for the men of understanding.” (V.3:190)

Then he got up and performed the ablution, brushed his teeth and offered eleven Rak’a. Then Bilāl pronounced the Adhān for As-Salāt whereupon the Prophet offered a two Rak’a (Sunna) prayer and went out to lead the people in Fajr (morning compulsory congregational) Salāt (prayer).

(28) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allāh): “And, verily, Our Word has gone forth of old for Our slaves — the Messengers”. (V.37:171)

7453. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “When Allāh created the creations, He wrote with Him on His Throne: ‘My Mercy has preceded My Anger.’"
7454.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, the true and truly inspired, narrated to us, “The creation of everyone of you (starts with the process of collecting the material for his body) within forty days and forty nights in the womb of his mother. Then he becomes a clot of thick blood for a similar period (40 days) and then he becomes like a piece of flesh for a similar period. Then an angel is sent to him (by Allāh) and the angel is allowed (ordered) to write four things (for the new creature); his livelihood, his (date of) death, his deeds, and whether he will be a wretched one or a blessed one (in the Hereafter) and then the soul is breathed into him. So, one of you may do (good) deeds, characteristic of the people of Paradise so much that there is nothing except a cubit between him and Paradise but then what has been written for him decides his behaviour and he starts doing (evil) deeds characteristic of the people of Hell (Fire) and (ultimately) enters Hell (Fire); and one of you may do (evil) deeds, characteristic of the people of Hell (Fire) so much so that there is nothing except a cubit between him and Hell (Fire), then what has been written for him decides his behaviour and he starts doing (good) deeds characteristic of the people of Paradise and (ultimately) enters Paradise.”

[See Hadith No. 3208, Vol. 4]

7455. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Jibril (Gabriel), what prevents you from visiting us more often than you do?” Then this Verse was revealed:

“And we (angels) descend not except by the Command of your Lord (O Muhammad ﷺ). To Him belongs what is before us and what is behind us…” (V.19:64)

So this was the answer to Muḥammad ﷺ.

7456. Narrated ʿAbdullāh: While I was walking with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in one of the fields of Al-Madīnah and he was walking leaning on a stick, he passed by a group of Jews. Some of them said to the others, “Ask him (the Prophet ﷺ) about the Rūḥ (spirit).” Others said, “Do not ask him.” But they asked him and he stood leaning on the stick and I was standing behind him and I thought that he was being inspired Divinely. Then he said, “And they ask you (Muḥammad ﷺ) concerning the Rūḥ (the spirit) say: ‘The Rūḥ, its knowledge is with My Lord. And of knowledge you (mankind) have been given only a little.’” (V.17:85)

On that some of the Jews said to the others, “Didn’t we tell you not to ask?” [See Hadīth No. 125, 4721].

7457. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh guarantees to the person who carries out Jihād for His Cause, and nothing compelled him to go out but the Jihād in His Cause, and belief in His Words (i.e. in Allāh’s religion of Islamic Monotheism), that He will either admit him into Paradise (martyrdom) or return him, with his reward or the booty he has earned, to his residence from where he went out.”

[See Hadith No. 7463]

7458. Narrated Abu Músá: A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked, “A man fights for pride and haughtiness, another fights for bravery, and another fights for showing off; which of these (cases) is in Allah’s Cause?”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The one who fights that Allah’s Word (i.e. Allah’s religion of Islamic Monotheism) should be superior, fights in Allah’s Cause.” [See Hadith No. 2810, Vol. 4]

(29) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ: “Verily! Our Word unto a thing when We intend it…” (V.16:40)

7459. Narrated Al-Mughíra bin Shu’bá: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Some people from my followers will remain victorious (and on the right path) till Allah’s Order (the Hour) is established.” [See Hadith No. 7311]

[Also See Hadith No. 3640, Vol. 4]

7460. Narrated Mu’áwiya: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “A group of my followers will keep on following Allah’s Orders strictly [i.e., will remain obedient to Allah’s Orders following strictly the Qur’án and the Prophets Sunna — legal ways] and they will not be harmed by those who will belie (disbelieve) them or desert (stand against) them till Allah’s Order (the Hour) will come while they will be in that state.” [See Hadith No. 3641, Vol. 4]
7461. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet stood before Musailima (the liar) who was sitting with his companions then, and said to him, “If you ask me for this piece (of palm-leaf stalk), even then I would not give it to you. You cannot avoid what Allah has ordained for you, and if you turn away from Islam, Allah will surely ruin you!”
(See H. 3620, 3621, Vol. 4)

7462. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd: While I was walking in company with the Prophet, in one of the fields of Al-Madîna, the Prophet was reclining on a stick which he carried with him. We passed by a group of Jews. Some of them said to the others, “Ask him about the روح (the spirit)”. The others said, “Do not ask him, lest he would say something that you hate.” Some of them said, “We will ask him.” So a man from among them stood up and said, “O Abû-Qasîm! What is the روح?” The Prophet kept quiet and I knew that he was being inspired Divinely. Then he said:-

“And they ask you (O Muḥammad) concerning the روح (the spirit), say: The روح (the spirit) is one of the things the knowledge of which is only with my Lord. And of knowledge you (mankind) have given only a little.” (V.17:85)
The Statement of Allah

“Say: (O Muhammad to mankind): If the sea were ink for (writing) the Words of my Lord, surely the sea would be exhausted before the Words of my Lord would be finished, even if we brought (another sea) like it, for its aid.” (V.18:109)

(And his Statement:) “And if all the trees on earth were pens and the sea (were ink wherewith to write), with seven seas behind it to add to its (supply), yet the Words of Allāh would not be exhausted…” (V.31:27)

(And His Statement:) “Indeed, your Lord is Allāh, Who created the heavens and the earth in six Days and then He rose over (Istawa) the Throne (really in a manner that suits His Majesty). He brings the night as a cover over the day, seeking it rapidly, and (He created) the sun, the moon and the stars subjected to His Command. Surely, His is the creation and commandment. Blessed be Allāh, the Lord of the ‘Ālāmin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)!” (V.7:54)

7463. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh guarantees (the person who carries out Jihad in His Cause, and nothing compelled him to go out but Jihad in His Cause and the belief in His Word (i.e. in Allāh’s religion of Islamic Monotheism) that He will either admit him into Paradise (martyrdom) or return him to his residence from where he started, with reward or booty he has earned.”
(31) CHAPTER. (Allah’s) Wish and Will.

And the Statement of Allah:
“You give the kingdom to whom You will…” (V.3:26)

“And never say of anything, ‘I shall do such and such a thing tomorrow. Except (with the saying): ‘If Allah will’…!’” (V.18:23,24)

“Verily! You (O Muhammad) guide not whom you like, but Allah guides whom He wills…” (V.28:56)

Sa’id bin Al-Musaiyab said: My father said, “This Verse was revealed in connection with An Talib.”

“...Allah intends for you ease, and He does not want to make things difficult for you…” (V.2:185)

7464. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger said, “Whenever anyone of you invoke Allah for something, he should be firm in his asking, and he should not say: ‘If You wish, give me...’ for none can compel Allah to do something against His Will.”

7465. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abi Talib that one night Allah’s Messenger visited him and Fatiha, the daughter of Allah’s Messenger and said to them, “Don’t you (both) offer (Tahajjud) prayer?” ‘Ali added: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Our souls are in the Hands of Allah and when He wants us to get up (for prayer) He will make us get up.” When I said so the Prophet left us without saying anything, and I heard that he was hitting his thigh and saying, “...But man is ever more quarrelsome than anything.” (V.18:54) [See Vol.2, Hadith No. 1127]
97 - THE BOOK OF TAUHID

7466. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "The example of a believer is that of a fresh tender green plant, the leaves of which move in whatever direction the wind forces them to move and when the wind becomes still, it stands straight again. Such is the similitude of the believer. He is disturbed by calamities (but he remains patient till Allāh removes his difficulties). And the example of a disbeliever is that of a pine tree (which remains) hard and straight till Allāh cuts (breaks) it down when He wills." [See Hadith No. 5644, Vol. 7]

7467. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar رضي الله عنهما: I heard Allāh's Messenger ﷺ, while he was standing on the pulpit, saying, "The remaining period of your stay (on the earth) in comparison to the nations before you, is like the period between the 'Asr prayer and sunset. The people of the Taurāt (Torah) were given the Torah and they acted upon it till midday, and then they were worn out and were given for their labour, one Qirāt each. Then the people of the Injeel (Gospel) were given the Injeel and they acted upon it till the time of the 'Asr prayer, and then they were worn out and were given (for their labour), one Qirāt each. Then you people were given the Qurān and you acted upon it till sunset and so you were given two Qirāt each (double the reward of the previous nations).” Then the people of the Taurât (Torah) said, ‘O our Lord! These people have done a little labour (much less than we) but have taken a greater reward.’ Allâh said, ‘Have I withheld anything from your reward?’ They said, ‘No.’ Then Allâh said, ‘That is My Favour which I bestow on whom I wish.’”

7468. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin As-Samit: I, along with a group of people, gave the Bai’ã (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger roads He said, “I take your pledge on the condition that:

(1) You will not join anything in worship with Allâh.
(2) You will not steal.
(3) You will not commit illegal sexual intercourse.
(4) You will not kill your offspring (lest they share with you in your food).
(5) You will not slander.
(6) And you will not disobey me when I order you for Ma’rûf (Islamic Monotheism, and all that Islâm ordains). Whosoever among you will abide by his pledge, his reward will be with Allâh, and whosoever commits any of those sins and receives the punishment in this world, that punishment will be an expiation for his sins and purification; but if Allâh screens him, then it will be up to Allâh, to punish him if He will or excuse Him, if He will.” [See Hadith No.7213]

7469. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Prophet Sulaimân (Solomon) who had sixty wives, once said, “Tonight I will have sexual relation (sleep) with all my wives so that each of them will... become pregnant and bring forth (a boy who will grow into) a cavalier and will fight in Allâh's Cause.” So he slept with his wives and none of them (conceived and) delivered (a child) except one who brought a half boy (deformed). Allâh's Prophet ﷺ said, “If Sulaimân (had said; 'If Allâh Will,' then each of those women would have given birth to a (would-be) cavalier to fight in Allâh's Cause.” (See Hadith No.2819, Vol.4).

7470. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs ﷺ: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ entered upon a sick bedouin whom he went to visit and said to him, “Don’t worry, Tahûr (i.e., your illness will be a means of cleansing of your sins), if Allâh will.” The bedouin said, “Tahûr! No, but it is a fever that is burning in the body of an old man and it will take him to his grave.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then it is so.”

7471. Narrated Abû Qatâda: When the people slept so late that they did not offer the (morning) Salât (prayer), the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh captured your souls (made you sleep) when He willed, and returned them (to your bodies) when He willed.” So the people got up and went to answer the call of nature, performed ablution, till the sun had risen and it had become white (shining brightly), then the Prophet ﷺ got up and offered the Salât (prayer).

7472. Narrated Abû Hurairah: "A man from the Muslims and a man from the Jews quarrelled, and the Muslim said,
“By Him Who gave superiority to Muḥammad ☪ over all the people!” The Jew said, “By Him Who gave superiority to Mūsa (Moses) over all the people!” On that the Muslim lifted his hand and slapped the Jew. The Jew went to Allāh’s Messenger ☪ and informed him of all that had happened between him and the Muslim. The Prophet ☪ said, “Do not give me superiority over Mūsa, for the people will fall unconscious on the Day of Resurrection, I will be the first to regain consciousness and behold, Mūsa will be standing there, holding the side of the Throne. I will not know whether he has been one of those who have fallen unconscious and then regained consciousness before me, or if he has been one of those exempted by Allāh (from falling unconscious).” [See Hadith No. 6517, Vol. 8]

7473. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ☪: Allāh’s Messenger ☪ said, “Ad-Dajjāl will come to Al-Madīnā and find the angels guarding it. If Allāh will, neither Ad-Dajjāl nor plague will be able to come near it.” (See H. 1881, Vol. 3)
7474. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “For every Prophet there is one (special) invocation which is definitely fulfilled by Allah, and I wish, if Allah will, to keep my that (special) invocation as to be the intercession for my followers on the Day of Resurrection.”

7475. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, I saw myself (in a dream) standing by a well. I drew from it as much water as Allah wished me to draw, and then Ibn Abu Quhafa (Abu Bakr) took the bucket from me and drew one or two buckets, and there was weakness in his drawing — may Allah forgive him! Then ‘Umar took the bucket which turned into something like a big drum in his hands. I had never seen a powerful man among the people working as perfectly and vigorously as he did. (He drew so much water that) the people drank to their satisfaction and watered their camels that knelt down there.” [See Hadith No. 3664, Vo. 5]

7476. Narrated Abu Musa: Whenever a beggar or a person in need of something came to the Prophet, he used to say (to his Companions), “Intercede (for him) and you will be rewarded for that, and Allah will fulfil what He will through His Messenger’s tongue.”

7477. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None of you should...”
سُمِّعْ أُبا هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «لا يَقُولُ أَحَدُكُمُ: الْلَّهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي إِنِّي سَيْنُتْ، ارْجِحْي إِنْ شَاءَتْ، ارْجِحْي إِنْ شَاءَتْ.» وَلَيْغَرُّ مَسَاءَتَهُ، إِنَّهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاء، لَا مُكَرَّرٌ لَّهُ. [راجع: 33:29]

7478. نARRATED IBN ‘ABBÁS that he differed with Al-Hurr bin Qais bin Ḥiṣn Al-Fażārī about the companion of (Prophet) Mūsā (Moses), (i.e., whether he was Khīḍr or not). Ubayy bin Ka’b Al-Anṣārī passed by them and Ibn ‘Abbās called him saying, ‘My friend (Hurr) and I have differed about (Prophet) Mūsā’s companion whom Mūsā (Moses) asked the way to meet. “Did you hear Allah’s Messenger mentioning anything about him?” Ubayy said, “Yes, I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “While Mūsā was sitting in the company of some Isrā’elites a man came to him and asked, ‘Do you know someone who is more learned than you?’ Mūsā said, ‘No.’ So Allah sent the Divine Revelation to Mūsā:

‘Yes, Our slave, Khīḍr is more learned than you.’ Mūsā (Moses) asked Allah how to meet him (Khīḍr). So Allah made the fish as a sign for him and it was said to him, ‘When you lose the fish, go back (to the place where you lose it) and you will meet him.’ So Mūsā went on looking for the sign of the fish in the sea. The boy-servant of Mūsā (who was accompanying him) said to him, ‘Do you remember (what happened) when we betook ourselves to the rock? I did indeed forget (to tell you about) the fish. None but Shaitān (Satan) made me forget to remember (to tell you about) it.’ (V.18:63) Mūsā said: ‘That is what we have been seeking.’ So they went back retracing their footsteps. (V.18:64). So they both found Khidr (there) and then happened what Allah mentioned about them (in the Qur'an)!” [See Surah 18, Verses 60 to 82 in the Qur'an].

7479. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If Allah will, tomorrow we will encamp in Khāf Bani Kināna, the place where Al-Mushrikūn took the oath of Kufr (disbelief) against the Prophet ﷺ. (i.e., to be loyal to heathenism by boycotting Bani Hāshim) He meant Al-Muhassab. [See Hadith No. 1589, Vol. 2]

7480. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ beseiged the people of Ta‘if, but he did not conquer it. He said, “Tomorrow, if Allah will, we will return home.” On this the Muslims said, “How should we return without conquering it?” He said, “Then carry on fighting tomorrow.” The next day many of them were injured. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If Allah will, we will return home tomorrow.” It seemed that, that statement pleased them whereupon Allah’s Messenger ﷺ smiled.
(32) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

``Intercession with Him profits not, except for him whom He permits. So much so that when fear is banished from their (angels') hearts, they (angels) say, 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They say, 'The truth. And He is the Most High, the Most Great.' "

(V.34:23)

Allâh does not say, "What is it that your Lord created?" (1)

Allâh also said:
``...Who is he that can intercede with Him except with His Permission." (V.2:255)

And Masrûq said that Ibn Mas'ûd said, "When Allâh speaks the revelation, the inhabitants of the heavens hear something (and become scared) and when that fear is banished from their hearts and the Voice of Allâh quietened, they come to know that, that was true and just, whereupon they call (each other saying), 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They say, 'The truth.' "

(V.34:23)

Narrated 'Abdullâh bin Unais: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "Allâh will gather the people and call them with a Voice which will be heard by those who will be far away and those who will be near, by saying, 'I am the King; I am the Daiyan.' " (2)

7481.Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "When Allâh ordains something on the heaven the angels beat with their wings in obedience to His Statement which sounds like that of a chain dragged over a rock. His Statement: "...So much so

(1) (Ch.32) Some sects such as Mu'tazila and others, believe that the Qur'ân is created, but Bukhâri and the Muslims of the first three centuries of Isâm believe that the Qur'ân is a Quality of Allâh (like seeing, hearing, knowing) and not created. So Bukhâri refuted the dogma of Mu'tazila and others.

(2) (Ch.32) The Daiyan means the One Who judges people for their deeds after calling them to account.
that when fear is banished from their (angels') hearts, they (angels) say, 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They reply, '(He has said) the Truth. And He is the Most High, the Most Great.'” (V.34:23)

7482. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah never listens to anything as He listens to the Prophet ﷺ reciting the Qur’ān in a pleasant, attractive, audible sweet-sounding voice.” A companion of Abū Hurairah said, “He means, reciting the Qur’ān aloud.” (See H. 7544 and H. 5023, Vol. 6)
7483. Narrated Abu Sa‘id Al-Khudri: The Prophet said “Allāh will say (on the Day of Resurrection), ‘O Adam!’ Adam will reply, ‘Labbaik wa sa’dai!’ Then a loud voice will be heard (saying) ‘Allāh commands you to take out Ba’th (the group, or the mission, etc.) of the Hell (Fire) from your offspring.’”

7484. Narrated ‘Āishah: I never felt so jealous of any woman as I felt of Khadija (the wife of the Prophet), for Allāh ordered him (the Prophet) to give Khadija the glad tidings of a palace in Paradise (for her). (See H. 3816, Vol. 5)

(33) CHAPTER. The Talk of the Lord with Jibril (Gabriel) and Allāh’s Call for the angels.

And Ma’mar said, “The Verse:
‘And Verily! you (O Muhammad) are being taught the Qur’ān from the One, All-Wise, All-Knowing.’ (V.27:6) means the Qur’ān is being given to you and you are receiving it.”

And similar to that is:
“Then Ādam received from his Lord Words…” (V.2:37)

7485. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “If Allāh loves a person, He calls Jibril (Gabriel), saying, ‘Allāh loves so-and-so, O Jibril love him.’ So Jibril would love him and then Jibril would make an announcement in the heavens: ‘Allāh has loved so-and-so therefore you should love him also.’ So all the dwellers of the heavens would love him, and then he is granted the pleasure of the people on the earth.” [See Ḥadīth No. 6040, Vol. 8]

7486. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “There are angels coming to you in succession at night, and others during the day; and they all gather at the time of ‘Asr and Fajr Salāt (prayers). Then the angels who have stayed with you overnight ascend (to the heaven) and He (Allāh) asks them, though He perfectly knows their affairs, ‘In what state have you left my slaves?’ They say, ‘When we left them, they were offering Salāt (prayers) and when we came to them they were offering Salāt.’”

7487. Narrated Abū Dhar: The Prophet said, “Jibril (Gabriel) came to me and gave me the glad tidings that anyone who died without worshipping anything besides Allah, would enter Paradise. I asked (Jibril), ‘Even if he committed theft, and even if he committed illegal sexual intercourse?’ He said, ‘(Yes), even if he committed theft, and even if he committed illegal sexual intercourse.’”

(34) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...He (Allāh) has sent it (the Qur’ān) down with His Knowledge, and the angels bear witness...” (V.4:166)
7488. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O so-and-so, whenever you go to your bed (for sleeping) say, ‘O Allâh! I have submitted myself to You and have turned my face towards You, and leave all my affairs to You and depend on You and put my trust in You; expecting Your Reward and fearing Your punishment. There is neither fleeing from You nor refuge but with You. I believe in the Book (the Qur’ân) which You have revealed and in Your Prophet (Muhammad ﷺ) whom You have sent.’ If you then die on that night, then you will die on Al-Fitrîh — Islâmic Monotheism (as a Muslim), and if you wake alive in the morning, then you will receive the reward.” [See Hadîth No. 6311, Vol. 8]

7489. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Abî Aufâ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said on the Day of (the battle of) Al-Ahzâb (the Confederates), “O Allâh! The Revealer of the Holy Book, the Quick Taker of Accounts! Defeat Al-Ahzâb (the Confederates) and shake them.”

7490. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs (regarding the Verse):

“...And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice...” (V.17:110)

This Verse was revealed while Allâh’s
Messenger would be hiding himself in Makkah, and when he raised his voice while reciting the Qur’an, Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad) would hear him and abuse the Qur’an and its Revealer and to the one who brought it. So Allah Ta’âlá said:

"...And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice...” (V.17:110)

That is, ‘Do not say your Salât (prayer) so loudly that Al-Mushrikûn should hear you, nor say it in such a low tone that your companions do not hear you.’ But seek a middle course between those (extremes), i.e., let your companions hear, so that they may learn it from you, and do not recite it (the Qur’an) loudly (so that Al-Mushrikûn should hear it and abuse it, etc.).

(35) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Ta’âlá:

“...They want to change Allah's Words...” (V.48:15)

“Verily! This (the Qur’an) is the Word, that separates (the truth from falsehood and commands strict legal laws for mankind to cut the roots of evil). And it is not a thing for amusement.” (V.86:13,14)

7491. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah said: ‘The son of Adam annoys Me by abusing Ad-Dahr’ (Time), for I am Ad-Dahr; in My Hands are all things and I cause the revolution of night and day.’” [See Hadith No. 6181 and 4826]
7492. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allah said: ‘As-Saum (the fasting) is for Me and I will give the reward for it, as he (the one who observes the fast) leaves his sexual desire, food and drink for My sake. Fasting is a screen (from Hell) and there are two pleasures for a person observing Saum, one at the time of (breaking his fast), and the other at the time when he will meet his Lord.

And the smell coming from the mouth of a fasting person is better with Allah than the smell of musk.” [See Hadith No. 1904, Vol. 3]

7493. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Once while (Prophet) Ayyūb (Job) was taking a bath in a naked state, suddenly a great number of gold locusts started falling upon him and he started collecting them in his clothes. His Lord (Allah) called him, ‘0 Ayyūb! Didn’t I make you rich enough to dispense with what you see now?’ Ayyūb said, ‘Yes, 0 Lord! But I cannot dispense with Your Blessings.’” [See H. 279, Vol. 1]

7494. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Every night when it is the last third of the night, our Lord, the Superior, the Blessed, descends to the nearest heaven and says: ‘Is there anyone to invoke Me that I may respond to his invocation? Is there anyone to ask Me so that I may grant him his request? Is there anyone asking My Forgiveness so that I may forgive him?’” [See Hadith No. 1145, Vol. 2]
7495. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but will be the foremost on the Day of Resurrection.”

7496. [H. 7495 contd.]: The narrators of this Hadith said: “Allah said (to man), ‘Spend (in charity), for then I will compensate you (generously).’”

7497. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said that Jibril (Gabriel) said, “Here is Khadija coming to you with a dish of food or a tumbler containing something to drink. Convey to her a greeting from her Lord (Allah) and give her the glad tidings that she will have a palace in Paradise built of Qasab(1) wherein there will be neither any noise nor any fatigue (trouble).” [See Hadith No. 3820, Vol. 5]

7498. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allah said, ‘I have prepared for My righteous slaves (such excellent things) as no eye has ever seen, nor an ear has ever heard nor a human heart can ever think of.’” (See H. 3244, Vol. 4)

7499. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Whenever the Prophet offered the Tahajjud prayer (night prayer), he used to say, “O Allah! All the praises are for You; You are the Light of the heavens and the earth. And all the praises are for You; You are the Maintainer of the heavens and the earth. All the praises are for You; You are the Rabb (Lord) of the heavens and the earth and whatever is therein. You are the Truth, and Your Promise is the Truth, and Your Word (Speech) is the Truth, and the Meeting with You is the Truth, and Paradise is the Truth and Hell (Fire) is the Truth and all the Prophets are the Truth and the Hour is the Truth. O Allah! I submit myself to You, and believe in You, and depend upon You, and repent to You, and in Your Cause I fight and with Your Orders I rule. So please forgive my past, present and future sins and those sins; which I did in secret or in public. It is You Whom I worship. None has the right to be worshipped but You.”

(1) (H.7497) Qasab: See the glossary.

7500. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair, Sa’id bin Al-Musaiyab, Alqama bin Waqqas and ‘Ubaidullah bin ‘Abdullah regarding the forged statement against ‘Aishah the wife of the Prophet when the slanderers said what they said and Allah revealed her innocence: ‘Aishah the wife of the Prophet said, “But by Allah. I did not think that Allah, (to confirm my innocence) would reveal Divine Revelation which would be recited, for I consider myself too unimportant to be talked about by Allah through Divine Revelation revealed for recitation, but I hoped that Allah’s Messenger might have a dream in which Allah would reveal my innocence. So Allah revealed:

‘Verily! Those who brought forth the slander (against ‘Aishah the wife of the Prophet) are a group among you...’ (The ten Verses in Sūrat An-Nūr) (V.24:11-20)

7501. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah says, ‘If My slave intends to do a bad deed then (O angels) do not write it unless he does it; if he does it, then write it as it is, but if he refrains from doing it for My sake, then write it as a good deed (in his account). (On the other hand) if he intends to do a good deed, but does not do it, then write a good deed (in his account), and if he does it, then write it for him (in his account) as ten good deeds, up to seven hundred times.’ ” (See H. 6491, Vol.8)

7502. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Allah created the creation, and when He finished from His creation, the Rāḥm (womb) got up, and Allah said (to it), ‘Stop! What do you want?’ It said, ‘At this place I seek refuge with You from all those who sever me (i.e. sever the ties of kinship.)’ Allah said: ‘Would you be pleased that I will keep good relation with the one who will keep good relation with you, and I will sever the relation with the one who will sever the relation with you.’ It said: ‘Yes, O my Lord.’ Allah said (to it), ‘That is for you.’ ”

And then Abū Hurairah recited the Verse:
“Would you then, if you were given the authority, do mischief in the land, and sever your ties of kinship?” (V.47:22)

7503. Narrated Zaid bin Khālid: It rained and the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh said, ‘Some of ‘Ibâdî (My slaves) have become disbelievers in Me, and some others, believers in Me’” [See Hadith No. 1038, Vol. 2]

7504. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allâh said, ‘If My slave loves the Meeting with Me, I too love the Meeting with him; and if he dislikes the Meeting with Me, I too dislike the Meeting with him.’” [See Hadith No. 6507, Vol. 8]

7505. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allâh said, ‘I am to my slave as he thinks of Me, (i.e., I am Able to do for him what he thinks I can do for him).’” [See Hadith No. 7405]

7506. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A man who never did any good deed, said that if he died, his family should burn him and throw half the ashes of his burnt body in the earth and the other half in the sea, for by Allâh, if Allâh should get hold of him, He would inflict such punishment on him as He would not inflict on anybody among the people. But Allâh ordered the sea to collect what was in it (of his ashes) and similarly ordered the earth to collect what was in it (of his ashes). Then Allah said (to the recreated man), 'Why did you do so?' The man replied, 'For being afraid of You, and You know it (very well).’ So Allah forgave him.”

7507.Narrated Abû Hurairah ﺔ: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “If somebody commits a sin and then says, ‘O my Lord! I have sinned, please forgive me!’ and, his Lord says, ‘My slave has known that he has a Lord Who forgives sins and punishes for it, I therefore have forgiven my slave (his sins).’ Then he remains without committing any sin for a while and then again commits another sin and says, ‘O my Lord, I have committed another sin, please forgive me,’ and Allah says, ‘My slave has known that he has a Lord Who forgives sins and punishes for it, I therefore have forgiven my slave (his sin).’ Then he remains without committing any sin for a while and then commits another sin (for the third time) and says, ‘O my Lord, I have committed another sin, please forgive me,’ and Allah says, ‘My slave has known that he has a Lord Who forgives sins and punishes for it, I therefore have forgiven My slave (his sin), he can do whatever he likes.’ ”

(1) (H.7507) Allah will forgive one’s sins if one repents and does not commit the same sin again.
 Narrated Abu Sa'id: The Prophet mentioned a man from the people of the past or those who preceded you. The Prophet said a sentence meaning: Allah had given him wealth and children. When his death approached, he said to his sons, "What kind of father have I been to you?" They replied, "You have been a good father." He told them that he had not presented any good deed before Allah, and if Allah should get hold of him He would punish him. "So look!" he added, "When I die, burn me, and when I turn into coal, crush me, and when there comes a windy day, scatter my ashes in the wind." The Prophet added, "Then by Allah, he took a firm promise from his children to do so, and they did so. (They burnt him after his death) and threw his ashes on a windy day. Then Allah commanded to his ashes. 'Be!', and behold! He became a man, standing! Allah said, 'O My slave! What made you do what you did?' He replied, 'For fear of you.' Nothing saved him then but Allah's Mercy. (So Allah forgave him)."
(36) CHAPTER. The Talk of the Lord to the Prophets and others on the Day of Resurrection.

7509. Narrated Anas: I heard the Prophet saying, "On the Day of Resurrection, I will intercede and say, 'O my Lord! Admit into Paradise (even) those who have Faith equal to a mustard seed in their hearts.' Such people will enter Paradise, and then I will say, ('O Allah) admit into Paradise (even) those who have the least amount of Faith in their hearts.' Anas then said: As if I were just now looking at the fingers of Allah's Messenger. (1)

7510. Narrated Ma'bad bin Hilāl Al-Anazi: We, i.e., some people from Baṣrah gathered and went to Anas bin Malik, and we went in company with Thābit Al-Bunānī so that he might ask him about the 'Hadith of Intercession' on our behalf. Behold, Anas was in his palace, and our arrival coincided with his Duhā prayer. We asked permission to enter and he admitted us while he was sitting on his bed. We said to Thābit, "Do not ask him about anything else first but the 'Hadith of Intercession.'" He said, "O Abū Ḥamza! These are your brethren from Baṣrah coming to ask you about the Hadith of Intercession." Anas then said: Muhammad said, "On the Day of

Resurrection the people will surge like waves on one another, and then they will come to Adam and say, ‘Please intercede for us with your Lord.' He will say, ‘I am not fit for that but you’d better go to (Prophet) Ibrahim (Abraham) as he is the Khalił of the Most Gracious (Allah).’ They will go to Ibrahim and he will say, ‘I am not fit for that, but you’d better go to (Prophet) Musa (Moses) as he is the one to whom Allah spoke directly.’ So they will go to Musa and he will say, ‘I am not fit for that, but you’d better go to ‘Isa (Jesus) as he is a soul created by Allah and His Word.’ (‘Be!’ —and he was). They will go to ‘Isa and he will say, ‘I am not fit for that, but you’d better go to (Prophet) Muhammad.’ They would come to me and I would say, ‘I am for that.’ Then I will ask for my Lord’s Permission, and it will be given, and then He will reveal me to praise Him with such praises as I do not know now. So I will praise Him with those praises and will fall down prostrate before Him. Then it will be said, ‘O Muhammad, raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.’ I will say, ‘O Lord! My followers! My followers!’ And then it will be said, ‘Go and take out of Hell (Fire) all those who have Faith in their hearts equal to the weight of a barley grain.’ I will go and do so and return to praise Him with the same praises, and fall down (prostrate) before Him. Then it will be said, ‘O Muhammad, raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.’ I will say, ‘O Lord, My followers! My followers!’ It will be said, ‘Go and take out of it all those who have Faith in their hearts equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant) or a mustard seed.' I will go and do so and return to praise Him with the same praises, and fall down in prostration before Him. It will be said, 'O, Muḥammad, raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to, and ask, for you will be granted (your request); and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will say, 'O Lord! My followers! My followers!' Then He will say, 'Go and take out (all those) in whose hearts there is Faith even to the lightest, lightest mustard seed. (Take them) out of the Fire.' I will go and do so.'

When we left Anas, I said to some of my companions, "Let's pass by Al-Hasan who is hiding himself in the house of Abī Khalīfa and request him to tell us what Anas bin Mālik has told us." So we went to him and we greeted him and he admitted us. We said to him, "O Abū Sa'īd! We came to you from your brother Anas bin Mālik and he related to us a Ḥadīth about the intercession the like of which I have never heard." He said, "What is that?" Then we told him of the Ḥadīth and said, "He stopped at this point (of the Ḥadīth)." He said, "What then?" We said, "He did not add anything to that." He said, "Anas related the Ḥadīth to me twenty years ago when he was a young fellow. I don't know whether he forgot or if he did not like to let you depend on what he might have said." We said, "O Abū Sa'īd! Let us know that." He smiled and said, "Man was created hasty. I did not mention that, but that I wanted to inform you of it. Anas told me the same as he told you and said that the Prophet added, 'I will then return for a fourth time and praise Him similarly and prostrate before Him and it will be said, 'O Muḥammad, raise your head and speak, for you will be listened to; and ask, for you will be granted (your request), and intercede, for your intercession will be accepted.' I will say, 'O Lord allow me to intercede for whoever said ‘La ilaha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah).’ Then Allah will say, ‘By My Power, and My Majesty, and by My Supremacy, and by My Greatness, I will take out of Hell (fire) whoever said, ‘La ilaha illallah’. ”

7511. Narrated ‘Abdullah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The person who will be the last one to enter Paradise and the last to come out of Hell (Fire) will be a man who will come out crawling, and his Lord will say to him, ‘Enter Paradise.’ He will reply, ‘O Lord, Paradise is full.’ Allah will give him the same order thrice, and each time the man will give Him the same reply, i.e., ‘Paradise is full.’ Thereupon Allah will say (to him), ‘Ten times of the world is for you.’ ”

7512. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hātim: Allah’s Messenger said, “There will be none among you but his Lord will talk to him, and there will be no interpreter between him and Allah. He will look to his right and see nothing but his deeds which he has sent forward, and will look to his left and see nothing but his deeds which he has sent forward, and will look in front of him and see nothing but the (Hell) Fire facing him. So save yourself from the (Hell) Fire even with half a date (given in charity).”

Al-A’mash said: ‘Amr bin Murra said, Khaithama narrated the same and added, 7513. Narrated `Abdullãh from the Jews: A priest from the Jews came (to the Prophet ) and said, “On the Day of Resurrection, Allah will place all the heavens on one Finger, and the earths on one Finger, and the waters and the land on one Finger, and all the creation on one Finger, and then He will shake them and say, ‘I am the King! I am the King!’ ” I saw the Prophet smiling till his premolar teeth became visible expressing his amazement and his belief in what he had said. Then the Prophet recited:

“They made not a just estimate of Allah such as is due to Him... (up to) ... High is He above all that they associate as partners with Him!” (V.39:67) (See H. 4811, Vol. 6)

7514. Narrated Safwan bin Muhriz: A man asked Ibn `Umar, “What have you heard from Allah’s Messenger regarding An-Najwa?”(1) He said, “Everyone of you will come close to his Lord, Who will screen him from the people and say to him, ‘Did you do such and such (a deed)?’ He will reply, ‘Yes.’ Then Allah will say, ‘Did you do such and such (a deed)?’ He will reply, ‘Yes.’ So Allah will question him and make him confess, and then Allah will say, ‘I screened your sins in the world and forgive them for you today.’”

[See Hadith Nos. 2441, 6070, 4685]

7515. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Ādam and Mūsā (Moses) debated with each other and Mūsā said, ‘You are Ādam who turned out your offspring from Paradise.’ Ādam said, ‘You are Mūsā whom Allāh chose for His Message and for His direct Talk, yet you blame me for a matter which had been ordained for me even before my creation?’ Thus Ādam overcame Mūsā.”
(See H. 3409, Vol. 4)

7516. Narrated Anas: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The believers will be assembled on the Day of Resurrection and they will say, ‘Let us look for someone to intercede for us with our Lord so that He may relieve us from this place of ours.’ So they will go to Ādam and say, ‘You are Ādam, the father of mankind, and Allāh created you with His Own Hands and ordered the angels to prostrate before you, and He taught you the names of all things; so please intercede for us with our Lord so that He may relieve... us.' ʿĀdām will say to them, ‘I am not fit for that,’ and then he will mention to them his mistake which he committed.’

7517. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The night Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was taken for a journey from the sacred mosque (of Makkah) Al-Kaʾbah (Al-Masjid-al-Haram), three persons (angels) came to him (in a dream) while he was sleeping in Al-Masjid-al-Harām before the Divine Revelation was revealed to him. One of them (angels) said, "Which of them is he?" The middle (second) angel said, "He is the best of them." The last (third) angel said, "Take the best of them." Only that much happened on that night and he did not see them till they came on another night, i.e., after the Divine Revelation was revealed to him. (Fath-Al-Bārī) The Prophet saw them, his eyes were asleep but his heart was not and so is the case with the Prophets: Their eyes sleep while their hearts do not sleep. So those angels did not talk to him till they carried him and placed him beside the well of Zam-zam. From among them Jibrīl (Gabriel) took charge of him. Jibrīl (Gabriel) cut open (the part of his body) between his throat and the middle of his chest (heart) and took all the contents out of his chest and abdomen and then washed it with Zam-zam water with his own hands till he cleansed the inside of his body, and then a gold tray containing a gold bowl, full of belief and wisdom was brought and then Jibrīl (Gabriel) stuffed his chest and throat (blood vessels) with it and then closed it (the chest). He then ascended with him to the sky, and when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ entered it then He said: "This is what He undertook for you in the earth, so today I take away from you one of the duties that I imposed on you in the earth, and today I pay you a recompense from an excellent recompense."

(H.7517) The Prophet ﷺ was sleeping beside two other persons. So the angels appearing to him in his dream wondered which of them was the Prophet ﷺ. Those two persons were his uncle Ḥāmza bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib and his cousin Jaʿfar bin Abī Ṭālib.
the heaven of the world and knocked on one of its doors. The dwellers of the heaven asked, “Who is it?” He said, “Jibril (Gabriel).” They said, “Who is accompanying you?” He said, “Muhammad.” They said, “Has he been called?” He said, “Yes.” They said, “He is welcome.” So the dwellers of the heaven became pleased with his arrival, and they did not know what Allah wants from the Prophet (ﷺ) to do on earth unless Allah informed them. The Prophet met Adam over the nearest heaven. Jibril (Gabriel) said to the Prophet, “He is your father; greet him.” The Prophet greeted him and Adam returned his greeting and said, “Welcome, O my son! What a good son you are!” Behold, the Prophet saw two flowing rivers, while he was in the nearest heaven. He asked, “What are these two rivers, O Jibril (Gabriel)?” Jibril (Gabriel) said, “These are the sources of the Nile and the Euphrates.” Then Jibril (Gabriel) took him around that heaven and behold, he saw another river at the bank of which there was a palace built of pearls and emerald. He put his hand into the river and found its mud like musk Adhfīr. He asked, “What is this, O Jibril (Gabriel)?” Jibril (Gabriel) said, “This is Al-Kauthar which your Lord has kept for you.” Then Jibril (Gabriel) ascended (with him) to the second heaven and the angels asked the same questions as those on the first heaven, i.e., “Who is it?” Jibril (Gabriel) replied, “Jibril (Gabriel).” They asked, “Who is accompanying you?” He said, “Muhammad.” They asked, “Has he been sent for?” He said, “Yes.” Then they said, “He is welcome.” Then he Jibril (Gabriel) ascended with the Prophet to the third heaven, and the angels said the same as the angels of the first and the second heavens had said. Then he ascended with him to the fourth heaven and they said the same; and then he ascended with him to the fifth heaven and they said the same; and then he ascended with him to the sixth heaven and they said the same; then he ascended with him to the seventh heaven and they said the same. On each heaven there were Prophets whose names he had mentioned and of whom I remember Idris on the second heaven. Harûn (Aaron) on the fourth heaven, another Prophet whose name I don’t remember, on the fifth heaven, Ibrâhim (Abraham) on the sixth heaven and Mûsa (Moses) on the seventh heaven because of his privilege of talking to Allâh directly. Mûsa said (to Allâh), “O Lord! I thought that none would be raised up above me.” But Jibrîl (Gabriel) ascended with him (the Prophet) for a distance above that, the distance of which only Allâh knows, till he reached the Lote-tree of the utmost boundary (beyond which none may pass) and then the Irresistible, the Lord of Honour and Majesty approached and came closer till he [Jibrîl (Gabriel)] was about two bow lengths or (even) nearer. [It is said that it was Jibrîl (Gabriel) who approached and came closer to the Prophet—Fath Al-Bûrî]. Among the things which Allâh revealed to him then, were fifty Salât (prayers) enjoined on his followers in a day and a night. Then the Prophet ﷺ descended till he met Mûsa, and then Mûsa stopped him and asked, “O Muhammad! What did your Lord enjoin upon you?” The Prophet replied, “He enjoined upon me to perform fifty Salât (prayers) in a day and a night.” Mûsa said, “Your followers cannot do that. Go back so that your Lord may reduce it for you and for them.” So the Prophet ﷺ turned to Jibrîl (Gabriel) as if he wanted to consult him about that issue. Jibril (Gabriel) told him of his opinion, saying, “Yes, if you wish.” So ascended with him [Jibril (Gabriel)] to the Irresistible and said while he was in his place, “O Lord, please lighten our burden as my followers cannot do that.” So Allāh deducted for him ten Ṣalāt (prayers) whereupon he returned to Moses who stopped him again and kept on sending him back to his Lord till the enjoined Ṣalāt (prayers) were reduced to only five Ṣalāt (prayers). Then Mūsā stopped him when the Ṣalāt (prayers) had been reduced to five and said, “O Muhammad! By Allāh! I tried to persuade my nation, Bānī Isrā’ēl to do less than this, but they could not do it and gave it up. However, your followers are weaker in body, heart, sight and hearing, so return to your Lord so that He may lighten your burden.” The Prophet ﷺ turned towards Jibril (Gabriel) for advice and Jibril (Gabriel) did not disapprove of that. So he ascended with him for the fifth time. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Lord, my followers are weak in their bodies, hearts, hearing and constitution, so lighten our burden.” On that the Irresistible said, “O Muhammad!” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “Labbaik wa Sa’dāik.” Allāh said, “The Word that comes from Me does not change, so it will be as I enjoined on you in the Mother of the Book.” Allāh added, “Every good deed will be rewarded as ten times so it is fifty Ṣalāt (prayers) in the Mother of the Book (in reward) but you are to perform only five (in practise).” The Prophet ﷺ returned to Moses who asked, “What have you done?” He said, “He has lightened our burden: He has given us for every good deed a tenfold reward.” Mūsā said, “By Allāh! I tried to make Bānī Isrā’ēl observe less than that, but they gave it up. So go back to your Lord that He may lighten your burden further.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Musa by Allah, I feel shy of returning too many times to my Lord.” On that Jibril (Gabriel) said, “Descend in Allah’s Name.” The Prophet \(\text{سال الله عليه وسلم} \) then woke while he was in the Al-Masjid-al-Haram (at Makkah). (See H. 3207, Vol.4) (38) CHAPTER. The Talk of the Lord to the people of Paradise.

7518. Narrated Abu Sa‘id Al-Khudri: The Prophet \(\text{سال الله عليه وسلم} \) said, “Allah will say to the people of Paradise, ‘O the people of Paradise!’ They will say, ‘Labbaik, O our Lord, and Sa‘daik, and all the good is in Your Hands!’ Allah will say, ‘Are you pleased and satisfied?’ They will say, ‘Why shouldn’t we be pleased and satisfied, O our Lord as You have given us what you have not given to any of Your created beings?’ He will say, ‘Shall I not give you something, better than that?’ They will say, ‘O our Lord! What else could be better than that?’ He will say, ‘I bestow My Pleasure on you and will never be angry with you after that.’”

7519. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Once the Prophet \(\text{سال الله عليه وسلم} \) was preaching while a bedouin was sitting there. The Prophet \(\text{سال الله عليه وسلم} \) said, “A man from among the people of Paradise will request Allah to allow him to cultivate the land. Allah will say to him, ‘Haven’t you got whatever you desire?’ He will reply, ‘Yes, but I like to cultivate the land.’ (Allah will permit him and) he will sow the seeds, and within seconds the plants will grow and ripen and (the yield) will be harvested and piled in heaps like mountains. On that Allāh will say (to him), ‘Take, here you are, O son of Ādam, for nothing satisfies you.’” On that the bedouin said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Such man must be either from Qurāish or from Ansār, for they are farmers while we are not.” On that Allāh’s Messenger smiled.

(39) CHAPTER. Allāh remembers His slaves by commanding them (to do something) and His slaves remember Him by invoking Him and begging Him humbly, and spreading His Message among the people as the Statement of Allāh (And His Statement):

“Therefore remember Me (by praying glorifying). I will remember you…” (V.2:152)

“And recite to them the news of Nūh (Noah). When he said to his people: ‘O my people! If my stay (with you), and my reminding (you) of the Al-Ayat (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of Allāh, is hard on you, then I put my trust in Allāh. So devise your plot, you and your partners, and let not your plot be in doubt for you. Then pass your sentence on me and give me no respite. But if you turn away (from accepting my doctrine of Islamic Monotheism, i.e., to worship none but Allāh), then no reward have I asked of you, my reward is only from Allāh, and I have been commanded to be one of the Muslims (those who submit to Allāh’s Will).” (V.10:71,72)
And Mujahid said regarding the Verse:

“And if anyone of Al-Mushrikün (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) seeks your protection (asylum), then grant him protection, so that he may hear the Word of Allah (the Qur'an).” (V.9:6)

(40) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah تعالى:

“...Then do not set up rivals unto Allah (in worship) while you know (that He Alone has the right to be worshipped).” (V.2:22)

And also the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“...And you set up rivals (in worship) with Him? That is the Lord of the 'Alamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists).’ (V.41:9)

And His Statement:

“And indeed it has been revealed to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) as it was to those (Allah's Messengers) before you: If you join others in worship with Allah, (then) surely (all) your deeds will be in vain, and you will certainly be among the losers. Nay! But worship Allah (Alone and none else), and be among the grateful.” (V.39:65,66)

And His Statement:

“...And those who invoke not any other ilâh (god) along with Allah...” (V.25:68)

(Commenting on these Verses):

“And most of them believe not in Allah except that they attribute partners (unto Him).” (V.12:106) And:

“And verily, if you ask them: ‘Who created the heavens and the earth?’ Surely they will say: ‘Allah...’ ” (V.39:38)

‘Ikrima said, “That is their Faith, yet they worship other than Allah.”

And what is said regarding the deeds of the people and their earnings as this Statement of Allah ﷻ indicates:
“...He has created everything, and has measured it exactly according to its due measurements.” (V.25:2)

And Mujähid said, “The angels do not descend except with the Truth, means (they descend) either with the Message or with the punishment.”

“That He may ask the truthfuls (Allâh’s Messengers and His Prophets) about their truth (i.e., the conveyance of Allâh’s Message that which they were charged with)...” (V.33:8) means to ask the Messengers those who preach and convey Allâh’s Message.

“...And surely, We will guard it (the Qur’ân), (from corruption).” (V.15:9) means: ‘guard it from Our (side)’.

“Allâh has sent down the best statement, a Book (this Qur’ân)...” (V.39:23)

“...And (those who) believed therein...” (V.39:33) means: the believer, who on the Day of Resurrection, will say, ‘That is what you gave me (O my Lord); I acted upon whatever was in it.’

7520. Narrated ‘Abdullah: I asked Allâh’s Messenger “What is the greatest sin with Allâh?” He said, “To set up a rival unto Allâh though He Alone created you.” I said, “That is indeed a great sin.” Then I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To kill your son lest he should share your food with you.” I further asked, “What is next?” He said, “To commit illegal intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.” [See Hadîth No.4477, Vol. 6]

(41) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“The Book of the Statements of Allâh

...And you have not been hiding yourselves, lest your ears, and your eyes and your skins testify against you, but you thought that Allâh knew not much of what you were doing.” (V.41:22)

7521. Narrated ‘Abdullâh : Two person of Bani Thaqif and one from Quraish (or two persons from Quraish and one from Bani Thaqif) who had fat bellies but little wisdom, met near the Ka’bah. One of them said, “Did you see that Allâh hears what we say?” The other said, “He hears us if we speak aloud, but He does not hear if we speak in stealthy quietness (softly).” The third fellow said, “If He hears when we speak aloud, then He surely hears us if we speak in stealthy quietness (softly).” So Allâh revealed the Verse:

“And you have not been hiding against yourselves, lest your ears, and your eyes, and your skins testify against you…” (V.41:22)

(42) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh : “...Every day He is (engaged) in some affair (such as giving honour to some, disgrace to some, life to some, death to some, etc.)!” (V.55:29)

“Comes not unto them an admonition (a chapter from the Qur’ân) from their Lord as a recent revelation, but they listen to it while they play.” (V.21:2)

And the Statement of Allâh : “...It may be that Allâh will afterward bring some new thing to pass.” (V.65:1)

And the process of introducing new things by Allâh does not resemble the process carried on by the created things, as Allâh says:

“...There is nothing like Him and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer.” (V.42:11)

And Ibn Mas‘ūd said that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh may bring forth new things in His Orders as He will, and one of the new things He brought forth was His Order that you should not talk (to others) while offering ṣalāt (prayer).”

7522. Narrated ‘Ikrima: Ibn ‘Abbās زرعة بن عبد الله said, “How can you ask the people of the Scriptures about their Books while you have Allāh’s Book (the Qur’ān) which is the most recent of the Books revealed by Allāh, and you read it in its pure undistorted form?”

7523. Narrated ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Abdullāh: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās said, “O the group of Muslims! How can you ask the people of the Scriptures about anything while your Book (the Qur’ān) which Allāh has revealed to your Prophet ﷺ contains the most recent news from Allāh and is pure and undistorted? Allāh has told you that the people of the Scriptures have changed some of Allāh’s Books and distorted it and wrote something with their own hands and said, ‘This is from Allāh’, so as to have a minor gain for it. Won’t the knowledge that has come to you stop you from asking them? No, by Allāh, we have never seen a man from them asking you about that (the Book, Al-Qur’ān) which has been revealed to you.”
(43) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur'ân, O Muḥammad) to make haste therewith." (V.75:16) And the Prophet did that at the time of the revelation of the Divine Revelation.

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Allâh said, 'I am with My slave whenever he remembers Me, and moves his lips with My remembrance.'"

7524. Narrated Mûsâ bin Abu 'Aishah: Sa'id bin Jubair reported from Ibn 'Abbâs (regarding the explanation of the Verse: "Do not move your tongue concerning (the Qur'ân O Muḥammad) to make haste therewith. He said, "The Prophet used to undergo great difficulty in receiving the Divine Revelation and used to move his lips." Ibn 'Abbâs said (to Sa'id), "I move them (my lips) as Allâh's Messenger used to move his lips." And Sa'id said (to me), "I move my lips as I saw Ibn 'Abbâs moving his lips," and then he moved his lips. So Allâh revealed:

"Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur'ân, O Muḥammad) to make haste therewith. It is for Us to collect it and give you (O Muḥammad) the ability to recite it. And when We have recited it to you [O Muḥammad through Jibrîl (Gabriel)], then follow you its (the Qur'ân) recital." (V.75:16-18)

This means, "You should listen to it and keep quiet and then it is upon Us to make you recite it."

The narrator added, "So Allâh's Messenger used to listen whenever Jibrîl (Gabriel) came to him, and when Jibrîl left, the Prophet would recite the Qur'ân as Jibrîl had recited it to him."
(44) CHAPTER. the Statement of Alläh

And whether you keep your talk secret or disclose it. Verily, He is the All-Knower of what is in the breasts (of men). Should not He Who has created know? And He is the Most Kind and Courteous (to His slaves), All-Aware (of everything)." (V.67:13,14)

7525. Narrated Ibn 'Ahhãs regarding the explanation of the Verse:

...And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud, nor in a low voice." (V.17:110) This Verse was revealed while Alläh's Messenger was hiding himself at Makkah. At that time, when he led his Companions in Salât (prayer), he used to raise his voice while reciting the Qur'an; and if Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Alläh and in His Messenger Muhammad) heard him, they would abuse the Qur'an, its Revealer, and the one who brought it. So Alläh said to His Prophet, ...offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud, ...nor in a low voice, ...but follow a way between." (V.17:110)

7526. Narrated 'Aishah: The Verse:

...And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice..." (V.17:110) was revealed in connection with the invocations.

7527. Narrated Abû Salama: Abû Hurairah said, “Alläh's Messenger said, ‘Whoever does not recite the Qur'an in a nice voice is not from us.”
And others said, that means to recite it aloud.

(45) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “A man whom Allah gave the knowledge of the Qur’ān and he reads it [in Ṣalāt (prayer)] during the hours of the night and the day; and another man says, ‘If I have been given what this man has been given, I would do the same as he is doing.’” So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ showed that his reciting the Qur’ān in Ṣalāt is his action.

And Allah said:

“And among His Signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the difference of your languages and colours...” (V.30:22)

And Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: “And do good that you may be successful.” (V.22:77)

7528. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not wish to be the like of except the like of two (persons): A man whom Allah has given the (knowledge of the) Qur’ān and he recites it during the hours of the night and the hours of the day, in which case one may say, ‘If I were given the same as this man has been given, I would do the same as he is doing.’

The other is a man whom Allah has given wealth and he spends it righteously (i.e., according to what Allah has ordained, in a just and right way), in which case one may say, ‘If I were given the same as he has been given, I would do the same as he is doing.’”

7529. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not wish to be the like of except the like of two (persons): A man whom Allah has given (the knowledge of) the Qur’ān and he recites it during some hours of the night and some hours of the day; and a man whom Allāh has given wealth and he spends it (in Allāh’s Cause) during the hours of the night and during the hours of the day.”

(46) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

And Az-Zuhri said: The Message is from Allāh and its preaching to the people is incumbent upon Allāh’s Messenger and it is our duty to surrender.

Allāh said:

“... [He (Allāh) protects them (the Messengers)] till He sees that they (the Messengers) have conveyed the Messages of their Lord (Allāh).” (V.72:28)

When Ka‘b bin Malik failed to follow the Prophet (during the battle of Tabūk), Allāh said:

“... Do deeds! Allāh will see your deeds, and (so will) His Messenger. and the believers...” (V.9:105)

‘Aīshah said: Whenever you appreciate the good deed of a person, you should say, “...Do deeds! Allāh will see your deeds, and (so will) His Messenger and the believers...” (V.9:105) and you should not hasten to praise anyone (for doing what seems to be a good deed).

Ma'mar said: (The Statement of Allah), “That Book means this Qur'an, which is a guidance to those who are Al-Muttaqun: [pious and righteous persons who fear Allah much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden) and love Allah much (perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained]).

7530. Narrated Al-Mughira: Our Prophet ﷺ has informed us our Lord’s Message that whosoever of us is martyred, will go to Paradise.

7531. Narrated 'Aishah: Whosoever tells you that the Prophet ﷺ concealed something of the Divine Revelation, do not believe him, for Allah ﻋﺎﻟِم said:

“O Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ)! Proclaim (the Message) which has been sent down to you from your Lord. And if you do not, then you have not conveyed His Message…” (V.5:67)
7532. Narrated 'Abdullãh ibn 'Amr: A man said, "O Allah's Messenger! What is the greatest sin with Allah?" The Prophet said, "To set up rivals unto Allah though He (Alone) created you." That man said, "What is next?" The Prophet said, "To kill your son lest he should share your food with you." The man said, "What is next?" The Prophet said, "To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour." Then Allah revealed in confirmation of that:

"And those who invoke not any other ilãh (god) along with Allah, nor kill such life as Allah has forbidden except for just cause, nor commit illegal sexual intercourse — and whoever does this shall receive the punishment..." (V.25:68)

(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"...Say (O Muhammad): Bring here the Taurãt (Torah) and recite it..." (V.3:93)

And the statement of the Prophet: "The people of the Taurãt (Torah) were given the Taurãt and they acted on it; and the people of the Injeel (Gospel) were given the Injeel and they acted on it; and you were given the Qur'an and you acted on it."

And Abû Razîn said: 'They recited it' means, 'They followed it (the Qur'an) and acted on it as is required.' 'Nobody can touch,' means: 'nobody enjoys it and benefits by it except those who believe in it (i.e., the Qur'an). And no one carries (acts on) it properly except a true believer as Allah says:

"The likeness of those who were entrusted with the (obligation of the) Taurāt (Torah), (i.e., to obey its orders and to practise its legal laws), but who subsequently failed in those (obligations), is as the likeness of a donkey who carries huge burdens of books (but understands nothing from them). How bad is the example (or the likeness) of the people who deny the Al-Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of Allah. And Allah guides not the people who are Zālimūn (disbelievers, polytheists, wrongdoers, etc.).

And the Prophet called Islām, Belief and As-Salāt (the prayers) as a deed and actions.

Abū Hurairah said: The Prophet said to Bilāl, "Tell me the best deed you have done in Islām." Bilāl said, "The best deed, which I think to be the best, is, that whenever I perform the ablution, I offer a (two Rak'a) Salāt (prayer)." The Prophet was asked, "Which deed is the best?" He replied, "Belief in Allah and His Messenger, and then Jihad, and then Al-Hajj Al-Mabrūr (properly performed Hajj in accordance with the Prophet's Sunna)."

7533. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger said, "Your stay (in this world) in comparison to the stay of the nations preceding you, is like the period between 'Asr prayer and the sunset (in comparison to a whole day). The people of the Taurāt (Torah) were given the Taurāt and they acted on it till mid day and then they were unable to carry on. And they were given (a reward equal to) one Qirāt each. Then the people of the Injeel (Gospel) were given the Injeel and they acted on it till 'Asr prayer and..."
then they were unable to carry on, so they were given (a reward equal to) one Qur’āt each. Then you were given the Qur’ān and you acted on it till sunset, therefore you were given (a reward equal to) two Qur’āt each. On that, the people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians) said, ‘These people (Muslims) did less work than what we did but they took a bigger reward.’ Allāh said (to them), ‘Have I done any wrong (injustice) to you as regards your rights?’ They said, ‘No.’ Then Allāh said, ‘That is My Blessing which I grant to whomsoever I will.’”

(48) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ called Ās-Salāt (the prayer) a deed and said, “Whoever does not recite Al-Fātiha of the Book (i.e., Sūrat Al-Fātiha) in his Salāt then his Salāt (prayer) is invalid. (See H. 756, Vol. 1)

7534. Narrated Ibn Mas’ūd: A man asked the Prophet ﷺ “What deeds are the best?” The Prophet ﷺ said: “To perform the Salāt (prayers) at their early stated fixed times(1), to be good and dutiful to one’s own parents, and to participate in Jihād in Allāh’s Cause.” (See Hadith No. 527, Vol. 1)

(49) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh عَزَّ وَجَلَّ

“Verily, man (disbeliever) was created very impatient. Irritable (discontented) when evil touches him. And niggardly when good touches him.” (V.70: 19-21)

7535. Narrated Al-Ḥasan: ‘Amr bin Taghlib said, “Some wealth was given to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave it to some people and withheld it from some others. Then he came to know that they (the latter) were dissatisfied. So the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I give to one man and leave (do not give) another, and the one to whom I do not give is dearer to me than the one to whom I give. I give to some people because of the impatience and discontent present in their hearts, and leave other people because of the content and goodness Allāh has bestowed on them, and one of them is ‘Amr bin Taghlib.’” ‘Amr bin Taghlib said, “The sentence which Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said in my favour is dearer to me than the possession of nice red camels.”

(50) CHAPTER. What the Prophet ﷺ mentioned and narrated of his Lord’s Sayings.

7536. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “My Lord says, ‘If My slave comes nearer to me a span, I go nearer to him a cubit; and if he comes nearer to Me a cubit, I go nearer to him the span of (two) outstretched arms; and if he comes to Me walking, I go to him running.’” (See H.7405)

7537. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Perhaps the Prophet ﷺ mentioned the following (as Allāh’s Saying): “If My slave comes nearer to Me a span, I go nearer to him a cubit; and if he comes nearer to Me a cubit, I go nearer to him the span of two outstretched arms.” [See Hadith No. 7405]

7538. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said that your Lord said, “Every (sinful) deed can he expiated; and As-Saum (the fasting) is for Me; so I will give the reward for it; and the smell which comes out of the mouth of a fasting person, is better with Allāh than the smell of musk.” [See Hadith No. 7492]

7539. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said that his Lord (Allāh) said: “It does not befit a slave that he should say that he is better than (Prophet) Yūnus (Jonah) bin Matta.”

7540. Narrated Shu‘ba: Mu‘āwiya bin Qurra reported that ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Mughaffal Al-Muzanī said, “I saw Allāh’s Messenger on the day of the conquest of Makkah, riding his she-camel and reciting Sūrat Al-Fath (Sūrah No.48) or part of Sūrat
Al-Fath. He recited it in a vibrating and pleasant voice. Then Mu‘awiyah recited as ‘Abdullãh bin Mughaffal had done and said, "Were I not afraid that the people would crowd around me, I would surely recite in a vibrating pleasant voice as Ibn Mughaffal did, imitating the Prophet ﷺ.” I asked Mu‘awiyah, “How did he recite in that tone?” He said thrice, “A, A, A.”

(51) CHAPTER. What is allowed as regards the interpretation of the Taurât (Torah) and other Holy Books (revealed by Allâh) in Arabic and in other languages as Allâh says:

“...Bring here the Taurât (Torah) and recite it if you are truthful.” (V.3:93)

7541. And Ibn ‘Abbãs narrated: Abû Sufyân bin Harb told me that Heraclius called for his translator and then asked for the letter of the Prophet ﷺ, and the former read it (thus):

“In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Merciful. (This letter is) from Muhammad bin Abdullãh, Allah’s Messenger, to Heraclius. “...O people of the Scripture and Christians: Come to a word that is just between us and you that we worship none but Allâh...” (V.3:64)

7542. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The people of the Scripture used to read the Taurât (Torah) in Hebrew and explain it to the Muslims in Arabic. Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not believe the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), and do not disbelieve them, but say, ‘We believe in Allâh and in what has been sent down to us...’” (V.3:84)
7543. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: A Jew and Jewess were brought to the Prophet on a charge of committing an illegal sexual intercourse. The Prophet asked the Jews, “What do you (usually) do with them?” They said, “We blacken their faces and disgrace them.”(1) He said, “Bring here the Taurât (Torah) and recite it, if you are truthful.” They (fetched it and) came and asked a one-eyed man to recite. He went on reciting till he reached a portion on which he put his hand. The Prophet said, “Lift up your hand!” He lifted his hand up and behold, there appeared the verse of Ar-Rajm (stoning of the adulterers to death). Then he said, “O Muhammad! They should be stoned to death but we conceal this Divine Law among ourselves.” Then the Prophet ordered that the two sinners be stoned to death and they were stoned to death; and I saw the man protecting the woman from the stones. [See Hadith No. 6819]

(52) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “A person who is perfect in reciting and memorizing the Qur’ân will be with the honourable, pious and just scribes (in heaven),” and, “Adorn the Qur’ân by reciting it with your (pleasant) voices.”

7544. Narrated Abû Hurairah: that he heard the Prophet saying, “Allâh does not listen to anything as He listens to the recitation of the Qur’ân by a Prophet who

(1) (H.7543) By mounting them on a donkey, their backs facing each other, and then parading them in the markets.
recites it in attractive audible sweet sounding voice.” (See H. 7482)

7545. Narrated 'Aishah (when the slanderers said what they said about her): I went to my bed knowing at that time that I was innocent and that Allah would reveal my innocence, but by Allah, I never thought that Allah would reveal in my favour a revelation which would be recited, for I considered myself too unimportant to be talked about by Allah in the Divine Revelation that was to be recited. So Allah revealed the ten Verses (of Sūrat An-Nūr):

“Verily! Those who brought forth the slander...” (V.24: 11-20).

7546. Narrated Al-Bara’: I heard the Prophet  reciting Sūrat At-Tin waz-Zaitūn (By the fig and the olive) in the ‘Ishā’ prayer and I have never heard anybody with a better voice or recitation than his.

7547. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet  while hiding himself in Makkah and used to recite the (Qur’ān) in a loud voice. When Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) heard him they would abuse the Qurʾān and the one who brought it, so Allāh ﷻ said to His Prophet ﷺ:

“...And offer your Ṣalāt (prayer) neither aloud, nor in a low voice...” (V.17:110)

7548. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿAbdur-Rahmān that Abū Saʿīd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه said to him, “I see that you like sheep and the desert, so when you are looking after your sheep or when you are in the desert and want to pronounce the Adhān, raise your voice, for no jinn, human being or any other things hear the Muʿādh-dhīn’s voice but will be a witness for him on the Day of Resurrection.” Abū Saʿīd added, “I heard this from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

7549. Narrated ʿAishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to recite the Qurʾān with his head in my lap while I used to be in my periods (having menses).

(53) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷻ

“...So, recite as much of the Qurʾān as may be easy for you...” (V.73:20)

7550. Narrated ʿUmar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه: I heard Ḥishām bin Ḥakīm ﷺ reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, I listened to his recitation and noticed that he was reciting in several different ways which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had not taught me. I was about to jump over him while he was still in Salāt (prayer), but I waited patiently and when he finished his Salāt (prayer), I put his upper garment round his neck (and pulled him) and said, “Who taught you this (Sūrah) which I have heard you reciting?” Hishām said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ taught it to me.” I said, “You are telling a lie, for he taught it to me in a way different from the way you have recited it!” Then I started leading (dragged) him to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “I heard this man reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān in a way that you have not taught me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(O ‘Umar) release him! Recite, O Hishām.” Hishām recited in the way I heard him reciting. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It was revealed like this.” Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Recite, O ‘Umar!” I recited in the way he had taught me, whereupon he said, “It was revealed like this,” and added, “This Qurān has been revealed to be recited in seven different ways, so recite of it whichever (way) is easier for you (or read as much of it as may be easy for you).” [See Hādhā No. 4992, Vol. 6]

(54) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah warna:
“And We have indeed made the Qurān easy to understand and remember…” (V.54:17)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Everybody will find easy to do such deeds as will lead him to his destined place for which he has been created.”

Al-Warrāq said: “The Statement of Allāh

“And We have indeed made the Qur’ān easy to understand and remember, then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)” (V.54:17) means: ‘Is there any knowledge-seeker who would benefit by it?’

Messenger! Why should a doer (a person) try to do good deeds?”(1) The Prophet ﷺ said, “Everybody will find easy to do such deeds as will lead him to his destined place for which he has been created.”

7552. Narrated ‘A l i: While the Prophet ﷺ was in a funeral procession, he took a stick and started scraping the earth with it and said, “There is none of you but has his place assigned either in Hell or in Paradise.” They (the people) said, “Shall we not depend upon that (and give up doing deeds)?” He said, “Carry on doing (good deeds) for everybody will find it easy to do such deeds as will lead him to his destined place for which he has been created.”

(And then the Prophet ﷺ recited the Verse):

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allāh and fears Him.”

(V.92:5)

(55) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“Nay! This is a Glorious Qur’ān. (Inscribed) in Al-Lauḥ Al-Mahfūẓ (The Preserved Tablet).” (V.85: 21,22)

(1) (H.7551) The questioner means: Why should people try to do good deeds since everybody has already been predestined for Paradise or Hell.
7553. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When Allah had created the creation, He wrote a Book (kept) with Him (and in the Book it was also written): ‘My Mercy has overcome…’ or the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘…has preceded My Anger.’ And that Book is with Him on the Throne.” [See Hadith No. 3194; also see Hadith No. 7453]

7554. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Before Allah created the creations, He wrote a Book (wherein He has written): ‘My Mercy has preceded my Anger.’ And that is written with Him over the Throne.” (See H. 3194, Vol.4)
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﺃ淡水

"While Allâh has created you and what you make!" (V.37:96)

"Verily, We have created all things with Qadar (Divine Pre-ordainments of all things before their creation, as written in the Book of Decrees)." (V.54:49)

It will be said to the painters of pictures:

"Make alive what you have created."

(And the Statement of Allâh ﺃ淡水)

"Indeed your Lord is Allâh, Who created the heavens and the earth in Six Days and then He rose over (Istawa) the Throne (really in a manner that suits His Majesty). He brings the night as a cover over the day, seeking it rapidly, and (He created) the sun, the moon, and the stars subjected to His Command. Surely, His is the creation and commandment. Blessed be Allâh, the Lord of the 'Álamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)!" (V.7:54)

Ibn ‘Uyaina said, “Allâh shows the difference between creating and commanding when He said, ‘Surely! His is the creation and the commandment’. " (V.7:54)

The Prophet ﷺ called ‘Belief’ as action (deeds).

Abû Dhar and Abû Hurairah رضي الله عنهما said: The Prophet ﷺ was asked, “What deeds are the best?” He said, “To believe in Allâh and to fight in His Cause (Jihâd),” and recited:

“A reward for what they used to do.” (V.56:24)

The delegates of ‘Abdul-Qais said to the Prophet ﷺ: “Order us to do religious deeds by which we may enter Paradise.” So he ordered them to have faith (in Allah) and to testify that La ilaha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and that Muhammad ﷺ is His Messenger), to offer Salât (prayers) Iqâmat-as-Salât, and to pay Zakât. Thus he regarded all these things as deeds.

7555. Narrated Zahdam: There were good relations and brotherhood between this tribe of Jarm and (the tribe of) Ash’âriyun. Once, while we were sitting with Abû Mûsa Al-Ash’ari, there was brought to him a meal which contained chicken meat, and there was sitting beside him, a man from the tribe of Bani Taimilah who looked like one of the Mawâlî. Abû Mûsa invited the man to eat but the man said, “I have seen chicken eating some dirty things, and I have taken an oath not to eat chicken.” Abû Mûsa said to him, “Come along, let me tell you something in this regard. Once I went to the Prophet ﷺ in the company of a group of Al-Ash’âriyun and asked him to provide us with some mounts. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘By Allah, I will not mount you on anything; besides I do not have anything to mount you on.’ Then a few camels were brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he asked about us, saying, ‘Where are the group of Ash’âriyun?’ So he ordered for five fat camels to be given to us and then we set out. We said, ‘What have we done? Allah’s Messenger ﷺ took an oath that he would not give anything to ride and that he had nothing for us to ride, yet he provided us with mounts. We made Allah’s Messenger ﷺ forget his oath! By Allah, we will never be successful.’ So we returned to him and reminded him of his oath. He said, ‘I have not provided you with the mount, but Allâh has done so. By Allâh, I may take an oath to do something but on finding something else which is better, I do that which is better and make the expiation for my oath.' " (See H.3133, Vol. 4)

7556. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The delegate of ‘Abdul-Qais came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, Al-Mushriktin (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) of the tribe of Mu‘âdar intervene between you and us, therefore, we cannot come to you except in the sacred months (of Hajj). So please order us to do something good (religious deeds) by which we may enter Paradise (by acting on them), and we may inform our people whom we have left behind to observe it.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I order you to do four things and forbid you from four things: I order you to believe in Allâh Alone. Do you know what is meant by belief in Allâh Alone? It is to testify that La ilâha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh), (2) Iqâmât-as-Salât, (3) to pay the Zakât and (4) to give Al-Khumus (one-fifth of the war booty) (in Allâh’s Cause). And I forbid you four things: (Do not drink alcoholic drinks) Ad-Dubbâ’, An-Naqlîr, (pitched water-skins), Az-Zûrîf Al-Muzaffat and Al-Hantam (names of utensils used for the preparation of alcoholic drinks).” [See Hadîth No. 53, Vol. 1]

7557. Narrated ‘Âishah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The painter of these pictures will be punished on the Day of

(1) (H.7556) See Iqâmât-as-Salât in the glossary.
Resurrection, and it will be said to them, ‘Make alive what you have created.’"

7558. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The painters of these pictures will be punished on the Day of Resurrection, and it will be said to them, ‘Make alive what you have created.’”

7559. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Allāh said, ‘Who are most unjust than those who try to create something like My creation? I challenge them to create even a smallest thing; a wheat grain or a barley grain.’”

(57) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur’ān by an impious person or a hypocrite; and the fact that their voices and recitation do not exceed their throats (i.e., do not benefit them).

7560. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of a believer who recites the Qur’ān (but acts on its orders) is that of a citron (a citrus fruit) which is good in taste and good in smell. And the believer who does not recite the Qur’ān (but acts on its orders) is like a date which has a good taste but no smell. And the example of Al-Fājir (an impious person) who recites the Qur’ān (but does not act on its orders) is that of Ar-Rihāna (an aromatic plant) which smells good but is bitter in taste. And the example of Al-Fājir (an impious person) who does not recite the Qur’ān (nor acts on its orders) is that of a colocynth which is bitter in taste and has no smell.” (See H.5020, Vol.6)

7561. Narrated ‘Āishah: Some people asked the Prophet regarding the foreteller. He said, “They are nothing.” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Some of their talks come true.” The Prophet said, “That word which happens to be true is what a jinn (devil) snatches away by stealth (from the heaven) and pours it in the ears of his friend (the foreteller) with a sound like the cackling of a hen. The foreteller then mixes with that word, one hundred lies.”

7562. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet said, “There will emerge from the east some people who will recite the Qur’ān but it will not exceed their throats, and who will go out of (renounce) the religion (Islām) as an arrow passes through the game, and they will never come back to it unless the arrow comes back to the... middle of the bow (by itself) (i.e., they will never come back to the fold of Islam).” The people asked, “What will their signs be?” He said, “Their sign will be the habit of shaving (of their beards and their heads).” [See Fath Al-Bari]

(58) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“And We shall set up Balances of justice on the Day of Resurrection…” (V.21:47)

The deeds and the statement of Adam’s offspring will be weighed.

7563. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, “(There are) two expressions (sayings) which are dear to the Most Gracious (Allâh) and very easy for the tongue to say, but very heavy in weight in the balance. They are:

‘Subhân Allâhi wa bihamdihi’ and ‘Subhân Allâhi – ‘Azîm’.”(1) [See Hadîth No. 6406 and 6682, Vol. 8]

(1) (H.7563) ‘Glorified be Allâh and praised be He,’ ‘Glorified be Allâh, the Most Great.’

I deem Allâh above all those unsuitable things ascribed to Him, and free Him from resembling anything whatsoever and I glorify His Praises! I deem Allâh, the Most Great above all those unsuitable things ascribed to Him and free Him from resembling anything whatsoever.

Ramal : (الرمل) Fast walking accompanied by the movements of the arms and legs to show one’s physical strength. This is to be observed in the first three rounds of the Tawâf around the Ka‘bah, and is to be done by the men only and not by the women.

Ramy : (الرمي) The throwing of pebbles at the Jimar at Mina.
Appendix I

Riba

Usury, which is of two major kinds: (a) Riba Nasī'a, i.e. interest on lent money; (b) Riba Fādī, i.e. taking a superior thing of the same kind of goods by giving more of the same kind of goods of inferior quality, e.g., dates of superior quality for dates of inferior quality in greater amount. Islam strictly forbids all kinds of usury.

Ridd

A piece of cloth (sheet etc.) worn around the upper part of the body.

Rikāz

Buried wealth.

Rāḥ-ullāh

According to the early religious scholars from among the Companions of the Prophet  صلى الله عليه وسلم and their students and the Mujtahīdīn, there is a rule to distinguish between the two nouns in the genitive construction:

(A) When one of the two nouns is Allāh, and the other is a person or a thing, e.g., (i) Allāh's House (Bait-ullāh بيت الله), (ii) Allāh's Messenger; (iii) Allāh's slave ('Abdullāh عبد الله); (iv) Allāh's spirit (Rāḥ-ullāh روح الله) etc.

The rule of the above words is that the second noun, e.g., House, Messenger, slave, spirit, etc. is created by Allāh and is honourable with Him and similarly Allāh's spirit may be understood as the spirit of Allāh, in fact, it is a soul created by Allāh, i.e. 'Iesa (Jesus), and it was His Word: “Be!” — and he was created (like the creation of Adam).

(B) But when one of the two is Allāh and the second is neither a person nor a thing, then it is not a created thing but is a quality of Allāh, e.g., (i) Allāh's Knowledge ('Ilmullāh علم الله); (ii) Allāh's Life (Havatullāh حياة الله); (iii) Allāh's Statement (Kalāmulldh كلام الله); (iv) Allāh's Self (Dhātullāh ذات الله) etc.

Raḥba

It is the house which is gifted to someone for lifetime only to live at, and not as a belonging.

Ar-Raḥqa

Divine Speech—recited as a means of curing disease. It is a kind of treatment, i.e. to recite Sūrat Al-Fātiha or any other Sūrah of the Qur'ān and then blow one's breath with saliva over a sick person's body-part.

Sīr

Tashahhūd : (التشهيد) The recitation of the invocation: At-tahiyyātā littāhi... (up to) ... wa ash-hadu anna Muḥammadan Rasūl-ullāhi. while in Qu‘ūd.
i.e. sitting posture in Salât (prayer). [See Sahîh Al-Bukhârî, Hadîth No. 831, and it also means: to testify Lâ ilâha illallâh wa anna Muhammadun Rasûl Allâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh).

Taslîm: On finishing the Salât (prayer), one turns one's face to the right and then to the left saying, Assalamu 'Alaikum wa Rahmaatullâhî (Peace and Mercy of Allâh be on you), and this action is called Taslîm.

Tauhîd (Islamic: توحيد) Tauhîd means declaring Allâh to be the only God. It has three aspects:

(A) Oneness of the Lordship of Allâh; Tauhîd-ar-Rubûbiyya: To believe that there is only one Lord for all the universe, and He is its Creator, Organizer, Planner, Sustainer, and the Giver of security, and that is Allâh.

(B) Oneness of the worship of Allâh; Tauhîd-al-'Ilâhiyya: To believe that none has the right to be worshipped [e.g. praying, invoking, asking for help (from the unseen), swearing, slaughtering sacrifices, giving charity, fasting, pilgrimage], but Allâh.

(C) Oneness of the Names and the Qualities of Allâh; Tauhîd-al-'Asmâ' was-Sâfîa: To believe that: (i) we must not name or qualify Allâh except with what He or His Messenger has named or qualified Him; (ii) none can be named or qualified with the Names or Qualifications of Allâh; e.g. Al-Karîm; (iii) we must believe in all the Qualities of Allâh has stated in His Book (the Qur'ân) or mentioned through His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) without changing their meaning or ignoring them completely or twisting the meanings or giving resemblance to any of the created things; e.g. Allâh is present over His Throne as mentioned in the Qur'ân. (V.20: 5): “The Most Gracious (i.e., Allâh) rose over (Istawa) the (Mighty) Throne” over the seventh heaven; and He comes down over the first (nearest) heaven (to us) during the day of 'Arafah (Hajj, i.e. 9th Dhul-Hijja) and also during the last third part of the night, as mentioned by the Prophet صلی الله علیه و سلم, but He is with us by His Knowledge, not by His Personal Self (Bi-Dhâthihî). “There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer.” (The Qur'ân, V. 42:11).

This Noble Verse proves the quality of hearing and the quality of sight for Allâh without likening it (or giving resemblance) to others; and likewise He also says: “To one whom I have created with Both My Hands,” (V. 38:75); and He also says: “The Hand of Allâh is over their hands.” (V. 48:10, the Qur'ân). This confirms two Hands for Allâh, but there is no similarity for them.

This is the Faith of all true believers, and was the Faith of all the Appendix I

Prophets of Allah from Nūh (Noah), Ibrāhīm (Abraham), Mūsā (Moses) and 'Īsā (Jesus) till the last of the Prophets, Muhammad ﷺ. It is not like as some people think that Allah is present everywhere, here, there and even inside the breasts of men.

These three aspects of Tauhid are included in the meanings of Lā ilāha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah).

It is also essential to follow Allah's Messenger Muhammad ﷺ: Wajib Al-Itibā' and it is a part of Tauhid-ul-Ulāhiyya. This is included in the meaning: “I testify that Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah” and this means, “None has the right to be followed after Allah's Book (the Qur'an), but Allah's Messenger.” [See the Qur'an (V. 59:7) and (V. 3:31)].

Tawāf: The circumambulation of the Ka'bah.

Tawāf-al-Ifāda: The circumambulation of the Ka'bah by the pilgrims after they come from Mina on the tenth day of Dhul-Hijja. This Tawāf is one of the essential ceremonies (Ruku) of the Hajj.

APPENDIX II

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

WHY ALLAH SENT PROPHETS AND MESSENGERS

Ever since people innovated the dogma of Shirk (i.e. joining others in worship along with Allah), Allah had been sending Prophets and Messengers to His devotees in order to invite them to the worship of Allah and Allah Alone, to order them not to ascribe partners unto Him and bring them out of the darkness of polytheism into the light of Monotheism. All the Prophets preached Tauhīd (i.e. Monotheism, the Belief in the Oneness of Allah, the Glorious, the Elevated). The following Verses from the Noble Qurʾān illustrate this fact:

“Indeed We sent Nūh (Noah) to his people, and he said: 'O my people! Worship Allah! You have no other Ilāh (God) but Him. (La ilaha illallāh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). Certainly, I fear for you the torment of a great Day!’” (V. 7:59).

“And to ʿĀd (people, We sent) their brother Hūd. He said: 'O my people! Worship Allah! You have no other Ilāh (God) but Him. (La ilaha illallāh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). Will you not fear (Allah)?’” (V. 7:65).

“And to (the people of) Madyan (Midian), (We sent) their brother Shuʿaib. He said: 'O my people! Worship Allah! You have no other Ilāh (God) but Him. (La ilaha illallāh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). Verily, a clear proof (sign) from your Lord has come unto you, so give full measure and full weight and wrong not men in their things, and do not make mischief on the earth after it has been set in order, that will be better for you, if you are believers.’” (V. 7:85)

“And to Thamūd (people, We sent) their brother Salih. He said: 'O my people! Worship Allah! You have no other Ilāh (God) but Him. (La ilaha illallāh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allah).’” (V. 7:73).

“And verily, We have sent among every Ummah (community, nation) a Messenger (proclaiming): Worship Allah (Alone) and avoid (or keep away from) Tāghūt[1] (all false deities i.e. do not worship Tāghūt besides Allah).” (V. 16:36).

---

[1] The word Tāghūt covers a wide range of meanings: It means anything i.e., all the false deities worshipped other than the Real God (Allah). It may be Satan, devils, idols, stones,
Appendix II — Why Allâh sent Prophets and Messengers

Every Prophet was sent unto his own nation for their guidance, but the Message of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was general for all mankind and jinn. As in Surat Al-A‘râf (Allâh addresses His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم):

"Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘O mankind: Verily, I am sent to you all as the Messenger of Allâh.’" (V. 7:158).

So the aim of sending these Prophets and Messengers to men and jinn was only that they should worship Allâh Alone, as Allâh تعالى said:

“And I (Allâh) created not the jinn and men except they should worship Me (Alone)” The Qur’ân (V. 51:56).

And to worship Allâh means to obey Him and to do all He has ordained, — and to fear Him by abstaining from all He has forbidden.

Then those who will obey Allâh will be rewarded in Paradise, and those who will disobey Him will be punished in the Hell-fire.

Sun, stars, angels human beings e.g. ‘Îsa (Jesus), Messenger of Allâh, who were falsely worshipped and taken as Tâghût. Likewise saints, graves, rulers, leaders, are falsely worshipped, and wrongly followed.
TAUHID — (ISLAMIC MONOTHEISM)

Tauhid (Islamic Monotheism) has three aspects:

(A) Oneness of the Lordship of Allah;

Tauhīd-ar-Rubūbiyya: To believe that there is only one Lord for all the universe and He is, its Creator, Organizer, Planner, Sustainer, and the Giver of security, and that is Allah.

(B) Oneness of the worship of Allah;

Tauhīd-al-Ulūhiyya: To believe that none has the right to be worshipped (e.g. praying, invoking, asking for help from the unseen, swearing, slaughtering sacrifices, giving charity, fasting, pilgrimage) but Allah.

(C) Oneness of the Names and the Qualities of Allah:

Tauhīd-al-Asmā was-Sifāt: To believe that:

(i) We must not name or qualify Allah except with what He or His Messenger has named or qualified Him;

(ii) None can be named or qualified with the Names or Qualifications of Allah; e.g. Al-Karīm;

(iii) We must believe in all the Qualities of Allah which Allah has stated in His Book (the Qur'ān) or mentioned through His Messenger (Muhammad) without changing their meaning or ignoring them completely or twisting the meanings or likening them (giving resemblance) to any of the created things e.g. Allah is present over His Throne as mentioned in the Qur'ān (V. 20:5):

"The Most Gracious (Allah) rose over (Istawa) the (Mighty) Throne (in a manner that suits His Majesty)," over the seventh heaven; and He comes down over the first (nearest) heaven to us during the last third part of every night and also on the day of 'Arafah (Hajj, i.e. the 9th of Dhul-Hijja), as mentioned by the Prophet, but He is with us by His Knowledge, not by His Personal-Self (Bi-Dhātihi).

Also Allah says:

"There is nothing like unto Him and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer" (V.42:11).

This Noble Verse proves the quality of hearing and the quality of sight for Allah without likening it (or giving resemblance) to any of the created things, and likewise He also says:

"To one whom I have created with Both My Hands," (V.38:75);
Appendix II — Tauhîd (Islamic Monotheism)

And He also says:

“The Hand of Allâh is over their hands.” (V.48:10).

This confirms two Hands for Allâh, but there is no similarity for them. This is the Belief of all true believers, and was the Belief of all the Prophets of Allâh, from Nûh (Noah), Ibrâhîm (Abraham), Mûsâ (Moses) and ‘Îsâ (Jesus) till the last of the Prophets, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. (It is not as some people think that Allâh is present everywhere — here, there and even inside the breasts of men).

These three aspects of Tauhîd are included in the meaning of Lâ ilâha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh).

It is also essential to follow Allâh’s Messenger, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم: Wujûb al-Ittibâ’ and it is a part of Tauhîd-al-Ulîhiyya.

This is included in the meaning, “I testify that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allâh’s Messenger,” and this means, “None has the right to be followed after Allâh’s Book (the Qur’ân), but Allâh’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.”

Allâh says:

“And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) gives you, take it, and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it).”

(V.59:7)

And also Allâh says:

“Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to mankind), ‘If you (really) love Allâh then follow me [i.e. accept Islâmic Monotheism, follow the Qur’ân and the Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم)], Allâh will love you and forgive you of your sins.’ ”

(V.3:31)
I have noticed that most of mankind, who embrace Islam, do not understand the reality of the meaning of the first fundamental principle of Islam, i.e. Lâ ilâha il-lah, Muhammad-ur-Rasûl Allâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh). So I consider it essential to explain something of the meanings of this great principle in some detail:

Lâ ilâha il-lah, Muhammad-ur-Rasûl Allâh

“None has the right to be worshipped but Allâh... and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh” has three aspects: a, b, and c.

a. It is that, you have to pledge a covenant with (Allâh), the Creator of the heavens and earth, the Ruler of all that exists, the Lord of Majesty and Highness, on four points (or conditions):

Point 1: A confession with your heart that the Creator (of everything) is Allâh; it is that you have to say: “I testify that the Creator of all the universe including the stars, the planets, the sun, the moon, the heavens, the earth with all its known and unknown forms of life, is Allâh. He is the Organizer and Planner of all its affairs. It is He Who gives life and death, and He (i.e. Allâh Alone) is the Sustainer, and the Giver of security.” And this is called (your confession for the) “Oneness of the Lordship of Allâh,” — Tauhid-ar-Rubûbiyya.

Point II: A confession with your heart that: “I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh Alone.” The word “Worship” (i.e. ‘Ibâdah) carries a great number of meanings in the Islamic terminology: it conveys that all kinds of worship are meant for Allâh Alone and none else, whether it be an angel, Messenger, Prophet ‘Îsâ (Jesus) – son of Maryam (Mary), ‘Uzair (Ezra), Muhammad, saint, idol, the sun, the moon and all other kinds of false deities. So pray to none but Allâh, invoke none but Allâh, ask for help from none (unseen) but Allâh, swear by none but Allâh, offer an animal as sacrifice to none but Allâh,...etc, and that means, — all that Allâh and His Messenger Muhammad...
Appendix II — Shahada (Confession of a Muslim) order you to do, (in the Qur’ân and in the Sunna (legal ways of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) you must do, and all that Allâh and His Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم forbid you, you must not do. And this is called (your confession for the) “Oneness of the worship of Allâh,” — Tawhid-al-Ulhâhiyya. And that you (mankind) worship none but Allâh.

Point III: A confession with your heart that: “O Allâh! I testify that all the best of names and the most perfect qualities with which You have named or qualified Yourself in Your Book (i.e. the Qur’ân) or as Your Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has named or qualified You with his statement, I believe that all those (names and qualities) are for You without changing their meanings or neglecting them completely or likening them (giving resemblance) to others.” As Allâh says:

“There is nothing like unto Him and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seeer.” (V.42:11).

This Noble Verse confirms the quality of hearing and the quality of sight for Allâh without likening them (giving resemblance) to others, and He also says:

“To one whom I have created with Both My Hands,” (V.38:75)

and He also says:

“The Hand of Allâh is over their hands.” (V.48:10)

This confirms two Hands for Allâh, but there is no similarity for them. Similarly Allâh says:

“The Most Gracious (Allâh) rose over (Istawa) the (Mighty) Throne.” (V.20:5).

So He rose over the Throne really in a manner that suits His Majesty. And Allâh is over His Throne over the seventh heaven, as the slave-girl pointed towards the heavens, when Allâh’s Messenger (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) asked her as to where Allâh is. He only comes down over the first (nearest) heaven to us during the last third part of every night and also on the day of ‘Arafah (Hajj, i.e. the 9th of Dhul-Hijja), as mentioned by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but He is with us by His Knowledge only, not by His Personal-Self (Bi-Dhâthi). It is not as some people say that Allâh is present everywhere — here, there, and even inside the breasts of men. He sees and hears all that we do or utter. And this is called (your confession for the) “Oneness of the Names and Qualities of Allâh” — Tawhid-al-Asmâ was-Sifât and this is the right Belief, the Belief which was followed by the Messengers of Allâh [from Nûh (Noah), Ibrâhîm (Abraham), Mûsa (Moses), Dâwûd (David), Sulaimân (Solomon), ‘îsâ...
Appendix II —

Shahada (Confession of a Muslim)

(Confession of Jesus to Muhammad and the Companions of Prophet Muhammad and the righteous followers of these Messengers)

Point IV: A confession with your heart: “O Allâh! I testify that Muhammad is Your Messenger.” That means that none has the right to be followed after Allâh, but Prophet Muhammad as he is the last of His Messengers. As Allâh says:

“Muhammad is not the father of any man among you, but he is the Messenger of Allâh and the last (end) of the Prophets. And Allâh is Ever All-Aware of everything.” (V.33:40).

“And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad) gives you, take it and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain from it,”(V.59:7).

And Allâh says:

“Say (O Muhammad to mankind): ‘If you (really) love Allâh, then follow me (i.e. accept Islamic Monotheism, follow the Qur’ân and the Sunna).’ ” (V.3:31)

As for others than Muhammad, their statements are to be taken or rejected as to whether these are in accordance with Allâh’s Book (i.e. the Qur’ân) and with the Sunna (legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements) of the Prophet or not. As the Divine Revelation has stopped after the death of Prophet Muhammad and it will not resume except at the time of the Descent of ‘Îsá (Jesus) — son of Maryam (Mary) and he (i.e. Jesus) will rule with justice according to the Islamic laws, during the last days of the world as it has been mentioned in the authentic Hadith (i.e. narration of Prophet Muhammad). (Sahih-Al-Bukhari, Hadith No. 2222).

b. It is essential to utter: Lâ ilâha illallâh, Muhammad-ur-Rasûl Allâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh.) As it has come in the statement of Prophet Muhammad to his uncle Abû Tâlib at the time of the latter’s death: “O uncle, if you utter it (Lâ ilâha illallâh, Muhammad-ur-Rasûl Allâh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh), then I shall be able to argue on your behalf before Allâh, on the Day of Resurrection.” Similarly, when Abû Dhar Al-Ghifârî embraced Islam, he went to Al-Masjid-al-Harûm and he proclaimed it loudly in front of the Quraish infidels until he was beaten severely.
c. It is essential that the limbs and all the other parts and organs of one's body testify to it, and this is very important as regards its meaning (i.e., the meaning of Lā ilâha illallâh Muhammad-ur-Rasul Allâh — none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh). So whoever has confessed this (to his Lord), he shall not commit sins like robbing, killing, stealing, illegal sexual intercourse, eating pig meat, drinking alcoholic beverages, taking undue advantage of orphan's property, cheating in trade, bribery and earning money through illegal means, telling lies, backbiting etc., or otherwise the limbs and all the other parts and organs of his body will testify against him that he was a liar in his words which he pledged to Allâh. In case he commits the above sins, he should know that it is a sin that obliges him to repent to Allâh, and ask His forgiveness, as (his) body parts (i.e. skin, private parts, hands, tongue, ears, etc.) will testify to the above mentioned crimes (i.e. actions) against himself on the Day of Resurrection.

And with the confession of this great sentence (i.e. principle) a person enters in the fold of the Islamic religion accordingly, it is essential for him to believe in all the Messengers of Allâh and not to differentiate between them. As it is mentioned in His Book, Allâh says:

"Do then those who disbelieve think that they can take My slaves (i.e. the angels; Allâh's Messengers; 'Isâ (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary), etc.) as Auliyâ' (lords, gods, protectors) besides Me? Verily, We have prepared Hell as an entertainment for the disbelievers (in the Oneness of Allâh — Islamic Monotheism).

"Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): 'Shall We tell you about the greatest losers in respect of (their) deeds?' Those whose efforts have been wasted in this life, while they thought they were acquiring good by their deeds! They are those who deny the Ayât (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of their Lord and the Meeting with Him (in the Hereafter). So their works are in vain, and on the Day of Resurrection, We shall not give them any weight. That shall be their recompense, Hell; because they disbelieved and took My Ayât (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, revelations, etc.) and My Messengers by way of jest and mockery. Verily! Those who believe (in the Oneness of Allâh — Islamic Monotheism), and do righteous deeds, shall have the Gardens of Al-Firdaus (Paradise) for their entertainment. Wherein they shall dwell (forever). No desire will they have to be removed therefrom. Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to mankind): If the sea were ink for (writing) the Words of my Lord, surely the sea would be exhausted, before the Words of my Lord would be finished even if we brought (another sea) like it for its aid. Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): I am only a man like you, it has been revealed to me that your Ilâh (God) is One Ilâh (God, — i.e. Allâh). So whoever hopes for the Meeting with his Lord, let him work righteousness and associate none as a partner in the worship of his Lord.” (V. 18:102-110).

This introduction is necessary for anyone who wishes to embrace Islam. After this confession he (or she) should take a bath (i.e. Ghusl) and then offer a two Rak'at prayer, and act upon the five principles of Islam, as narrated by Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما in the Book, Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadith No.8:

Narrated ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said: Islam is based on the following five (principles):

1. To testify Lâ ilâha illallâh wa anna Muhammad-ur-Rasul Allâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh).
2. To perform (Iqâmat) As-Salât.
3. To pay Zakât
4. To perform Hajj (i.e. pilgrimage to Makkah).
5. To observe Saum (fast) during the month of Ramadân.

and must believe in the six articles of Faith, i.e. to believe in:

(1) Allâh, (2) His angels, (3) His Messengers, (4) His revealed Books, (5) the Day of Resurrection, and (6) Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments i.e. whatever Allâh has ordained must come to pass)

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The acceptance of the righteous deeds depends on the following two basic conditions which must be fulfilled:

(1) The intentions while doing such deeds must be totally for Allâh’s sake only without any show-off or gaining praise or fame, etc.

(2) Such a deed must be performed in accordance with the Sunna (legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements) of Allâh’s Messenger Muhammad ﷺ, the last (end) of all the Prophets and the Messengers ﷺ.
Salvation of all mankind from the greatest sin against Allâh

I consider it essential to mention here some details of the greatest sin which will not be forgiven by Allâh. This unpardonable sin is Shirk Shirk implies ascribing partners to Allâh or ascribing divine attributes to others besides Allâh and believing that the source of power, harm and blessings comes from others besides Allâh.

Almighty Allâh says:

"Verily, Allâh forgives not that partners should be ascribed to Him in worship, but He forgives except that (anything else) to whom He pleases; and whoever ascribes partners to Allâh in worship, has indeed invented a tremendous sin." (V. 4:48).

Almighty Allâh says:

"Then when the Trumpet is blown, there will be no kinship among them on that Day, nor will they ask of one another.

"Then those whose scales (of good deeds) are heavy, — these! they are the successful.

"And those whose scales (of good deeds) are light, — they are those who lose their own selves; in Hell will they abide."

"The Fire will burn their faces, and they will grin with displaced lips (disfigured)."

"(It will be said) 'Were not My Verses (this Qur'ân) recited to you and then you used to deny them?'

"They will say: 'Our Lord! Our wretchedness overcame us and we were an erring people."

"Our Lord! Bring us out of this; if ever we return (to evil) then indeed we shall be Zâlimûn (polytheists, oppressors, unjust, and wrongdoers).'

"He (Allâh) will say: 'Remain you in it with ignominy! And speak you not to Me!" (V. 23:101-108).

"And whoever invokes (or worships) besides Allâh, any other îlâh (god), of whom he has no proof, then his reckoning is only with his Lord. Surely! Al-Kafirûn (disbelievers in Allâh and in the Oneness of Allâh, polytheists, pagans, idolaters) will not be successful." (V.23:117).
ASH-SHIRK
POLYTHEISM AND ITS VARIOUS MANIFESTATIONS

Definition: Shirk basically is polytheism, i.e., the worship of others along with Allâh. It also implies attributing Divine attributes to any other besides Allâh. It particularly implies associating partners in worship with Allâh or believing that the source of power, harm or blessings is from others besides Allâh.

Types: There are three types of Shirk, namely:

1. Ash-Shirk-al-Akbar, i.e. major Shirk
2. Ash-Shirk-al-Asghar, i.e. minor Shirk
3. Ash-Shirk-al-Khafi, i.e. inconspicuous Shirk.

Manifestations: (1) Ash-Shirk-al-Akbar (The major Shirk): The major and serious polytheistic form has four aspects:

(a) Shirk-ad-Du‘â, i.e. invocation. This aspect implies invoking, supplicating or praying to other deities besides Allâh.

Almighty Allâh says:

“And when they embark on a ship they invoke Allâh, making their Faith pure for Him only, but when He brings them safely to land, behold, they give a share of their worship to others,” (V.29:65)

(b) Shirk-an-Niyyah wal-Irâdah wal-Qasd. This aspect implies intentions, purpose and determination in acts of worship or religious deeds not for the sake of Allâh but directed towards other deities.

Almighty Allâh says:

“Whosoever desires the life of the world and its glitter, to them We shall pay in full (the wages of) their deeds therein, and they will have no diminution therein. They are those for whom there is nothing in the Hereafter but Fire; and vain are the deeds they did therein. And of no effect is that which they used to do.” (V. 11:15,16)

(c) Shirk-at-Tâ‘ah. This aspect implies rendering obedience to any authority against the Order of Allâh.

Almighty Allâh says:

“They (Jews and Christians) took their rabbis and their monks to be their lords besides Allâh (by obeying them in things which they made lawful or unlawful according to their own desires without being ordered by Allâh), and (they also took as their lord) Messiah, son of Maryam (Mary), while they (Jews and Christians) were commanded (in the Torah and the Gospel) to worship none but One Ilâh (God i.e. Allâh), Lâ ilâha illâ Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). Praise and Glory is to Him (far above is He) from having the partners they associate (with Him).” (V.9:31).

Once, while Allâh’s Messenger was reciting the above Verse, ‘Adî bin Hâtim said, “O Allâh’s Prophet! They do not worship them (rabbis and monks).” Allâh’s Messenger said, “They certainly do. They (i.e. rabbis and monks) made legal things illegal, and illegal things legal, and they (i.e. Jews and Christians) followed them; and by doing so they really worshipped them.”(Narrated by Ahmad, At-Tirmidhi, and Ibn Jarir). (Tafsir At-Tabari, Vol.10).

(d) Shirk-al-Mahabbah. This implies showing the love which is due to Allâh Alone to others than Him.

Almighty Allâh says:

“And of mankind are some who take (for worship) others besides Allâh as rivals (to Allâh). They love them as they love Allâh. But those who believe, love Allâh more (than anything else). If only those who do wrong could see, when they will see the torment, that all power belongs to Allâh and that Allâh is Severe in punishment.” (V. 2:165)

(2) Ash-Shirk-al-Asghar—Ar-Riyâ’ (The minor Shirk, i.e. acts performed to show off). Any act of worship or any religious deed done in order to gain praise, fame or for worldly benefit, falls under this category.

Almighty Allâh says:

“Say (O Muhammad ) : ‘I am only a man like you, it has been revealed to me that your Ilâh (God) is One Ilâh (God — i.e. Allâh). So whoever hopes for the Meeting with his Lord, let him work righteousness and associate none as a partner in the worship of his Lord.’ ” (V. 18:110)

(3) Ash-Shirk-al-Khafi (The inconspicuous Shirk). This type implies being inwardly dissatisfied with the inevitable condition that has been ordained for one by Allâh; conscientiously lamenting that had you done or not done such and such or had you approached such and such you would have had a better status, etc.

The Noble Prophet Muhammad said:

“Ash-Shirk-al-Khafi in the Muslim nation is more inconspicuous than the creeping of a black ant on black rock in the pitch-darkness of the night.” And this inconspicuous Shirk is expiated by saying thrice the following sentences every day: “O Allâh! I take Your refuge from that I should ascribe anything as partner in Your worship, being conscious of that, and I beg Your pardon for that sin which I am not aware of.”
AL-KUFR
DISBELIEF AND ITS VARIOUS MANIFESTATIONS

Kufr is basically disbelief in any of the articles of Faith in Islam.

The articles of Faith are: To believe in —

1. Allâh,
2. His angels,
3. His Messengers,
4. His revealed Books,
5. The Day of Resurrection, and
6. Al-Qadar, Divine Preordainments (i.e. whatever Allâh has ordained must come to pass).

There are two aspects of disbelief:

1. The major disbelief (Al-Kufr-al-Akbar): This aspect excludes one completely from the fold of Islam. There are five types (of this major disbelief):

   a) Kufr-at-Takdhîb. This implies disbelieving the Divine truth or denying of any of the articles of Faith.

   Almighty Allâh says:

   "Then who does more wrong than one who utters a lie against Allâh and denies the truth [this Qur’ân, the Prophet (Muhammad صلی الله عليه وسلم), the Islamic Monotheism], when it comes to him. Is there not in Hell an abode for the disbelievers?" (V. 39:32)

   b) Kufr-al-Ibâ’ wat-Takabbur ma‘at-Tasdiq. This implies rejection and arrogance to submit to Allâh’s Commandments after conviction of their truth.

   Almighty Allâh says:

   “And (remember) when We said to the angels: ‘Prostrate yourself before Adam.’ And they prostrated except Iblis, he refused and was proud and was one of the disbelievers (disobedient to Allâh).” (V. 2:34).

   c) Kufr-ash-Shakk waz-Zann. This implies doubting or lacking of conviction in the six articles of Faith.

   Almighty Allâh says:
“And he went into his garden while in a state (of pride and disbelief) unjust to himself. He said: ‘I think not that this will ever perish. And I think not the Hour will ever come, and if indeed I am brought back to my Lord (on the Day of Resurrection) I surely shall find better than this when I return to Him.’ His companion said to him during the talk with him: ‘Do you disbelieve in Him Who created you out of dust (i.e. your father Adam), then out of Nutfah (mixed semen drops of male and female discharge), then fashioned you into a man? But as for my part (I believe) that He is Allâh, my Lord, and none shall I associate as partner with my Lord.’ ” (V.18:35-38)

(d) Kufr-al-I’râd. This implies turning away from the truth knowingly or deviating from the obvious signs which Allâh has revealed.

Almighty Allâh says:

“We created not the heavens and the earth and all that is between them except with truth and for an appointed term. But those who disbelieve turn away from that whereof they are warned.” (V.46:3)

(c) Kufr-an-Nifâq. This implies hypocritical disbelief.

Almighty Allâh says:

“They have made their oaths a screen (for their hypocrisy). Thus they hinder (men) from the path of Allâh. Verily, evil is what they used to do. That is because they believed, then disbelieved, therefore their hearts are sealed, so they understand not.” (V.63:2-3)

(2) The minor disbelief (Al-Kufr-al-Asghar): This aspect of disbelief does not exclude one from the fold of Islam. It is also termed Kufrân-Ni’mah. This implies disbelief manifesting itself in ungratefulness for Allâh’s Blessings or Favours.

Almighty Allâh says:

‘And Allâh puts forward the example of a township (Makkah), that dwelt secure and well-content; its provision coming to it in abundance from every place, but it (its people) denied the Favours of Allâh (with ungratefulness). So Allâh made it taste extreme of hunger (famine) and fear, because of that (evil, i.e. denying Prophet Muhammad صلی الله عليه وسلم) which they (its people) used to do.” (V.16:112).
Hypocrisy is of two types, namely:

(A) Hypocrisy in Belief.

(B) Hypocrisy in deeds and actions.

(A) Hypocrisy in Belief

There are six aspects of hypocrisy in Belief:

1. To belie the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ).
2. To belie some of all that was brought by the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ). (e.g. the Qur’ân, the Sunnah, laws and principles of Islam).
3. To hate the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ).
4. To hate some of all that was brought by the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ). (e.g. Islamic Monotheism, etc.
5. To feel happy at the disgrace of or setback for the religion of Allâh’s Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ).
6. To dislike that the religion of Allâh’s Messenger (Islamic Monotheism) becomes victorious (not being pleased at the victory of Islâm).

A person having these six types (of hypocrisy) will be in the lowest depths (grade) of the Fire (Hell). (See V. 4: 145).

(B) Hypocrisy in deeds and actions

There are five aspects of hypocrisy in deeds and actions, and their proof is from the statement of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ: The signs of a hypocrite are these:

1. Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie.
2. Whenever he promises, he always breaks it (his promise).
3. If you trust him, he proves to be dishonest (if you keep something as trust with him, he will not return it).
4. And in another narration of the Prophet ﷺ: Whenever he quarrels, he behaves in a very imprudent, evil, insulting manner.
5. Whenever he makes a covenant, he proves himself treacherous.

BIBLICAL EVIDENCE OF JESUS BEING A SERVANT OF GOD AND HAVING NO SHARE IN DIVINITY

INTRODUCTION
All praise is to the One to Whom all dignity, honour and glory are due; the Unique with perfect attributes, Who begets not, nor is He begotten. He has no equal but He is the Almighty, Omnipotent. He sent His Messengers and Prophets to guide humanity towards Monotheism; to worship Him Alone, the only One Worthy of worship, and to warn them of the eternal dire consequences of polytheism, associating partners with One Allâh and the worship of creatures. Peace and Blessings of Allâh be upon all the Prophets and Messengers, especially on Muhammad, the last of the Prophets, and on all who follow him in righteousness until the Day of Recompense.

JESUS AND THE DEVIL IN THE BIBLE
In the New Testament of the Bible, in the fourth chapter of the Gospel according to Matthew, the sixth and seventh verses clearly indicate that Jesus is an obedient mortal and God is the Master and Lord according to his saying in the seventh verse:

"It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord, thy God."

In this chapter we read that the Devil actually carried the Messiah, and took him from place to place. How can the Devil carry God? Glory be to Allâh: He is above such blasphemy! Then the Devil orders him to prostrate before him and worship him, even tempting him with worldly possessions. How can the Devil even dare such an audacity with God? When the Devil wanted Jesus to comply with his orders, he (Jesus) replied by saying that it was written (in the previous Books):

"Thou shalt worship the Lord, thy God; And Him only shalt thou serve."—Matthew 4:10.

CHILDREN OF GOD
Jesus never called himself Son of God as far as I know — but he used to call himself the ‘Son of Man’ (Mark 2:10) although he heard himself being called by that name he did not object — as assumed in the Bible — and did not consider the title exclusively for him.

According to the Biblical term in the Old and New Testaments, every God-fearing righteous person is called ‘Son of God’. In Matthew 5:9 we read:

“Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall be called the children of God.”

In Matthew 5:45 —

“That ye may be children of your Father which is in heaven...”

GOD THE FATHER

In Matthew 5:48 —

“Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.”

In Matthew 6:1 —

“... otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.”

Matthew 7:21 —

“Not every one that sayeth unto me (Jesus), Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doeth the will of my Father, which is in heaven.”

N.B. The word ‘Lord’ here was translated as Rabb in the Arabic version of the Bible so that people may be convinced that Jesus is God! But if one studies the rest of the verse, one will note that the verse bears testimony to the subservience (to God’s Will) of the Messiah (Jesus). Therefore the correct translation should be:

“Not every one that sayeth to me, O my Master, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.”

It is obvious from the above readings from the Bible that the term ‘Father’ is used for God in numerous places in the Bible. It is never used exclusively for Jesus.

Matthew 11:25 —
“At that time Jesus answered and said, ‘I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent and has revealed them unto babes.’”

JESUS THE WORSHIPPER

Matthew 14:23 —

“And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray....."

I say: If Jesus is God or a part of God then why did he pray? In fact, prayer is always from a submitting, needy and dependent one for the Mercy of Almighty Allâh as mentioned in the Qur’ân:

“O mankind! it is you who stand in need of Allâh but Allâh is Rich (Free of all wants and needs), Worthy of all praise” (V.35:15).

And in (V.19:93) of Qur’ân:-

“There is none in the heavens and the earth but comes unto the Most Gracious (Allâh) as a slave.”

A BIBLICAL STORY

Matthew 15:22-28 —

“And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts and cried unto him, saying, ‘Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David: my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.’ But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying; ‘Send her away, for she crieth after us.’ But he answered and said, ‘I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.’

Then came she and worshipped him, saying, ‘Lord, help me.’ But he answered and said, ‘It is not meet to take the children’s bread and to cast it to dogs.’

And she said, ‘Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.’

Then Jesus answered and said unto her, ‘O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.’ ”

In this story about a woman from Canaan there are noteworthy points:

(1) Lack of mercy and love charged against Jesus (if the incident is reported correctly).
(2) Degraded discrimination in regard to the uplifting of his tribe and not for the others.

(3) Tribal pride of descendence and prejudice against others and calling them dogs.

(4) An ignorant polytheist woman debated with him and won him over.

JESUS: A PROPHET OF ALLÂH.

Matthew 19:16-17 —

"And behold, one came and said unto him, 'Good master, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?' And he said unto him, 'Why callest thou me good? (There is) none good but one, (i.e.) God, but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.'"

In the above verses we note this acknowledgment of his submissiveness (to Allâh's Will).

Matthew 21:45-46 —

"And when the chief priests and pharisees had heard his parable, they perceived that he spoke of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude because they took him for a Prophet."

Here it is proved that all those who believed in Jesus during his lifetime did not believe in him being God or the Son of God or one in the doctrine of Trinity; but they believed in him as being a Prophet only. This is indeed one of the strongest points of evidence against those who believe in the Divinity of Jesus (Incarnation of God) if only they pondered.

JESUS: A SERVANT OF ALLÂH.

Matthew 23:8 —

"But be not ye called rabbi: for one is your master, even Jesus, and all ye are brethren."

Here it is clearly proved that Jesus was servant of Allâh, and that there is only One Master and He is Allâh. In the Arabic version of the Bible this verse has been translated so that Jesus is meant to be the master whereas the English rendering is nearer the original sense.

Matthew 23:9 —

"And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father which is in heaven."
From this you will note that fatherhood and sonship is meant to be the relationship between the Lord and His servants: it is meant in a general sense and not specifically for Jesus.

Matthew 24:36 —

"But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only."

This is a definite proof that the Final Hour is unknown to any but Allâh, thus Jesus' knowledge is imperfect like all other men; Allâh Alone is All-Knowing, Omniscient.

Matthew 26:39 —

"And he (Jesus) went a little farther, and fell on his face and prayed, saying, 'O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt.'"

We note here that the person speaking is unaware of Allâh's Will and realizes the fact that he is a servant of Allâh. He (Allâh) Alone can cause the change.

THE COMPILATION OF THE BIBLE

Matthew 27:7-8 —

"And they took counsel and bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called the Field of Blood, unto this day."

From these verses we understand that the Bible (the New Testament) was not written during Jesus' lifetime but long after the occurrence of the events described, having been retained in the memory of the people.

Matthew 27:46 —

"And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, 'Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? (My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?)'"

This is according to their (Christians') assumption that Jesus cried in a loud voice saying the above words while he was being crucified. This is a great insult as such words could only come from unbelievers in Allâh. Further, it is incredible that such words should come out from a Prophet of Allâh because Allâh never breaks His Promise and His Prophets never complained against His Promise.

JESUS: PREACHER OF MONOTHEISM (TAUHID)

In John 17:3 —
"And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent."

In Mark 12:28-30 —

"And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, 'Which is the first commandment of all?' And Jesus answered him: 'The first of all the commandments is; hear O Israel, the Lord thy God is One Lord: and thou shalt love the Lord, thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.' "

in Mark 12:32 —

"And the scribe said unto him, 'Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is One God: and there is none other but He.' "

in Mark 12:34 —

"...he (Jesus) said unto him, 'Thou art not far from the kingdom of God...'

in these verses, Jesus (peace be upon him) himself had testified that Allāh is the One God, there is none other than Him, and that whoever believes in His Oneness, he is near the Kingdom of Allāh. Therefore whoever associates partners with Allāh or believes in the Trinity is far away from the Kingdom of Allāh, and whoever is far away from the Kingdom of Allāh he is the enemy of Allāh.

in Matthew 24:36 —

"But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of the heaven, but my Father only."

I say. A similar text was quoted from Matthew which is exactly as proclaimed by the Qur’ān in that none knows when the Hour will come except Allāh. This establishes the fact that Jesus was subservient to Allāh and that he had no share in Divinity: that he was an incarnation of God, was an innovation by the people of Canaan.

in John 20:14 —

"Jesus said unto her, 'Mary'. She turned herself, and sayeth unto him, 'Rabboni'; which is to say, Master. Jesus saith unto her, 'Touch me not: For I am not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.' Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she has seen the Lord, and that He had spoken these things unto her.”

In the above narrative Jesus clearly testified that Allâh is his God and their God, making no difference between him and them in the worship of the One Allâh. Whoever believes that Jesus is God has indeed blasphemed against Allâh and betrayed Jesus and all the Prophets and Messengers of Allâh.

BIBLICAL PROPHECY ON THE ADVENT OF MUHAMMAD (peace be upon him  صلى الله عليه وسلم)

John 14:15-16 —

“If you love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father and He shall give you another Comforter that he may abide with you forever.”

Muslim theologians have said that “another Comforter” is Muhammad, the Messenger of Allâh; and him to “abide forever” means the perpetuity of his laws and way of life (Shari‘ah) and the Book (Qur’ân) which was revealed to him.

John 15:26-27 —

“But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.”

John 16:5-8 —

“But now I go my way to Him that sent me and none of you asketh me ‘Whither goest thou?’ But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and approve righteousness and judgment.”

John 16:12-14 —

“I have yet many things to say unto you, but you cannot bear them now. How be it when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak; and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and he shall shew it unto you.”
Appendix II — Jesus and Muhammad in the Bible and the Qur'ān

John 16:16 —

“A little while and ye shall not see me: and again a little while, ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.”

Muslim theologians have stated that the person who is described by Jesus to come after him — in the above verses — does not comply with any other person but Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم the Messenger of Allāh. This ‘person’ whom Jesus prophesied will come after him is called in the Bible ‘Parqaleeta’ This word was deleted by later interpreters and translators and changed at times to ‘Spirit of Truth’, and at other times, to ‘Comforter’ and sometimes to ‘Holy Spirit’. The original word is Greek and its meaning is ‘one whom people praise exceedingly.’ The sense of the word is applicable to the word ‘Muhammad’ (in Arabic).

FINALITY OF PROOFS ON THE FABRICATION OF THE STORY OF THE CROSS

(1) The Bible testifies to the fact that Jesus was known among the Jews; he used to preach and deliver sermons in the Temple of Solomon in Jerusalem. It was therefore, unnecessary to hire a Jew for thirty pieces of silver to direct them to him as related in Matthew.

(2) It is related that one of the twelve disciples named Judas Iscariot was hired to direct the Jews to Jesus. They then sentenced him after which Judas was greatly ashamed and dissociated himself from their act and then committed suicide. All this took place within twenty-four hours. The contradictions are obvious.

(3) The clearest proof which alone is sufficient to discredit this story is when the Jews passed the sentence of death against Jesus and intended to get the approval of the governor, Pontius Pilate.

Matthew 27:11-14 —

‘And Jesus stood before the governor: The governor asked him, saying, ‘Art thou the king of the Jews!’ And Jesus said unto him, ‘Thou sayest’: And when he was accused of (by) the chief priests and elders he answered nothing. Then said Pilate unto him, ‘Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?’ And he answered him never (to) a word...”

The Christians will interpret the above verse to mean that Jesus wanted to die on the Cross for the redemption of mankind and for the forgiveness of their sins. If so, then why did he ask to turn away that cup from him (i.e. death)? Why did he cry out while on the Cross (as they assume): “O Lord, why hast Thou forsaken me?” How could he have remained silent when the truth was being challenged? He was known for his soul-inspiring sermons challenging the learned Jewish rabbis. No sane person can believe in this. If the story of the Cross is disproved then the very foundation on which Christianity is based, will be demolished.

Muslims believe that Jesus was not crucified by the Jews as revealed in the Holy Qur’an by Allâh in a crystal clear manner: V. 4:157,158.—

“And because of their saying (in boast): ‘We killed Messiah Jesus, son of Mary, the Messenger of Allâh’; — but they killed him not, nor crucified him, but the resemblance of Jesus was put over another man (and they killed that man), and those who differ therein are full of doubts. They have no (certain) knowledge, they follow nothing but conjecture. For surely, they killed him not (i.e., Jesus, son of Mary). But Allâh raised him (Jesus) up (with his body and soul) unto Himself (and he is in the heavens). . . And Allâh is Ever All-Powerful, All-Wise.”

The Jews themselves, together with the entire Christian world, believe that he was crucified. As proofs against their views and to prove the truth of the Muslim verdict through the Bible, I prepared the following set of questions based on the Book of Matthew in the New Testament of the Bible. (Chapters 26 and 27):

1. Did those who captured Jesus (according to their assumption) know him in person? or did they not know him?
Matthew testifies that they did not know him.

2. Was it during the day or night that he was captured?
Matthew says — it was during the night.

3. Who was the one that directed them to him?
Matthew says: He was one of his twelve disciples called Judas Iscariot.

4. Did he direct them free of charge or for a fixed reward which they specified, for him?
Matthew says: He directed them to him for a fixed reward of thirty pieces of silver.

5. What was the condition of Jesus during that night?
Matthew says: He was fearful and prostrated in prayer saying: “O God, if it is possible for You to let this cup pass from me, then let it pass.” It is incredible that such words could come from a believer in God, let alone a
Appendix II — Jesus and Muhammad in the Bible and the Qur’ân

Prophet of God, because all believers believe that God has power over all things.

(6) What was the condition of his eleven disciples?
Matthew says: Sleep overcame them that night together with their teacher (according to their assumption) out of fear.

(7) Was Jesus contented with their condition?
Matthew says (verses 40-46): He was not satisfied. He used to come to them to wake them up saying: “Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing but the flesh is weak.” Then he would come again to find them asleep and he would again wake them up and say the same thing. This weakness could not have been spoken of righteous pupils even if they were pupils of an ordinary pious teacher, let alone the disciples of Jesus, son of Mary.

(8) Did they help him when those ruffians captured him?
Matthew says: They forsook him and fled.

(9) Did Jesus have confidence in his disciples that night?
Matthew says: Jesus informed them that they will all forsake him. Then Jesus said unto them: “Verily I say unto thee that this night before the cock crows, thou shalt deny me — thrice.” Peter said unto him, “Although I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee.” Likewise also said all the disciples. And so it happened.

(10) How did those ruffians capture him?
Matthew says: They came to him with swords and staves after they were directed to him by a Jew, then they captured him as described in verse 57:

“And they that had laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the elders were assembled.”

There they passed the sentence of death on him. The ruffians then took him away, spat on his face and struck him with their hands after which they stripped him of his clothes and clad him in scarlet robes, then placed a crown of thorns on his head and took him about, teasing and mocking him. They said to him: ‘You are the king of Israel according to your claim.’ They severely degraded him.

(11) Who finally decided to pass the death sentence against him?
Matthew says: He was Pontius Pilate, a Greek Roman, who was at that time the governor of Palestine.
(12) When the ruffians brought that man before the governor and informed him that the priest of the Jews passed the sentence of death by crucifixion according to their law (Torah), did he believe in them without investigation?

Matthew says: He did not believe them but asked that man: “Is it true what they have said?” He remained silent. The question was repeated and he continued to remain silent. He remained silent in view of the truth; it was essential for him even if he was not a Prophet to clarify the truth and deny the false accusation of the Jews. The governor's wife went to the governor and she said to him: “Have thou nothing to do with that just man? for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.”

The Bible states that Jesus delivered lengthy speeches to the Jews rebuking and warning them which amounted to defaming them. Then why was he silent that day? The governor's intention for asking him was to stand for the truth.

(13) How was he crucified according to their assumption?

Matthew says: They crucified him between two thieves both of whom abused him by saying to him, “If you are truthful then save yourself.”

(14) This was a great calamity. What did he say while on the cross (according to their assumption)?

Matthew says (27:46):

Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? (that is to say,) my God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?”

This is a blatant declaration of disbelief according to all theological authorities. Whoever relates it to a Prophet is a disbeliever according to the revealed religions.

Almighty Allâh, in the Qur‘ân warns, the Jews and the Christians against their blasphemy: that Jesus is an incarnation of God (Allâh) or the son of God (Allâh) or in rejecting him totally; and that they must believe in him as a Messenger of Allâh only:

“And there is none of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) but must believe in him (Jesus, son of Mary, as only a Messenger of Allâh and a human being) before his (Jesus عليه السلام or a Jew’s or a Christian’s) death (at the time of the appearance of the angel of death). And on the Day of Resurrection, he (Jesus) will be a witness against them.” (V.4:159).
APPENDIX-III

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

THE CALL TO JIHĀD
(HOLY FIGHTING FOR ALLĀH’S CAUSE)
IN THE QUR’ĀN

Praise is too Allah who has ordained Al-Jihād (the holy fighting for Allāh’s Cause):

1. With the heart (intentions or feelings).
2. With the hand (weapons, etc.).
3. With the tongue (speeches, etc., in the Cause of Allāh)

Allāh has rewarded the one who performs it with lofty dwellings in the Gardens (of Paradise).

I testify that there is none who has the right to be worshipped but Allāh Alone and He has no partners (with Him). I (also) testify that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger, the one sent by Allāh as a mercy for the ‘Alamin (man and jinn); the one commanded by Allāh to fight against the Mushrikins (and all those who ascribe partners with Allāh). He fought for Allāh’s Cause with all his power and ability — may Allāh’s Peace and Blessings be upon him, upon his followers and upon his Companions who believed in him, and honoured him, helped him and followed the light (the Qur’ān) and his As-Sunna (the legal ways, orders, acts of worship, statements) which was revealed to him...those who emigrated and fought in the Cause of Allāh with their wealth and their lives, they were the supreme conquerors and the masters.

It is well-known how the Messenger was fighting against the Mushrikūn (and all those who ascribe partners with Allāh) since Allāh the Most Respectful, the All-Majestic sent him and honoured him with the Messengership till Allāh caused him to die and selected for him what was with Him (Paradise and all that is good).

The Prophet used to visit the people in their gatherings during the Hajj and Umrah season and other occasions (too). He used to go to their market places, recite the Qur’ān, invite them to Allāh, the Most Respectful, the All-Majestic. He used to say, “Who will give me a safe shelter, and who will support me till I convey the Message of my Lord (Allāh) in return for having Paradise.” But he would not find anyone to support him or to give him a safe shelter.

Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم carried on his mission of inviting people to Allâh (Islamic Religion) and persevered in his mission of invitation for 13 years in spite of the harm and injuries (which he suffered), and he used to forgive the ignorant... in order that Allâh’s Proof be established against the disbelievers and that His Promise (be fulfilled to them which He assured them with His Statement):

“And We never punish until We have sent a Messenger (to give warning).” (V.17:15).

The people continued in their transgression and they did not take guidance from the manifest proof. The people of Quraish oppressed and harmed all those who followed him (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), put them to trials and afflictions in order to keep them away from their religion (Islam), even to the extent that they exiled them from their homeland; some of them fled to Ethiopia, some went to Al-Madîna (Al-Munawwara) and some remained patient (at Makkah) in spite of the harm they suffered; by being imprisoned, made to suffer from hunger and thirst and by being beaten (in a horrible manner) ... so much so that some of them were not able to sit straight from the severity (of the injuries) sustained from the beatings.

They used to tie a rope around the neck of Bilâl (may Allâh be pleased with him) and give the end of that rope in the hands of boys to play and drag him through the pathways of Makkah ... And what Yâsir’s family suffered from the torment was beyond what a normal human being can endure.

The people of Quraish harmed Allâh’s Messenger (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) (too). They besieged him in Ash-Shi’b. Once ‘Uqbah bin Abî Mu’ait tried to strangle him and he kept on squeezing the Prophet’s clothes round his neck till the eyes of the Prophet bulged out, and Abû Bakr rushed at ‘Uqbah and released the Prophet from him and said, “Would you kill a man because he says: My Lord is Allah?”

Abî Jahî also tried to kill the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم while the latter was in prostration praying in the Al-Masjid-al-Harâm, he carried a huge stone to throw it on the Prophet’s head. But when he (Abî Jahî) tried to throw it he turned on his heels frightened saying: “I am being prevented from going near to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم by a huge stallion camel intending to swallow me.”

And when Allâh wanted to reveal His religion (Islam) and to fulfil His Promise and to make His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the Most High ordered him to emigrate to Al-Madîna. So he stayed there and Allâh supported him with His Victory and with His slaves, the faithful believers—the Islamic army unit composed of different sorts of people (black, white, and red). They strove hard for him with all their efforts, and preferred his love to the love of (their) fathers, offspring and wives.
Appendix III — The Call to Jihâd (Holy fighting for Allah’s Cause)

Muhammad ﷺ was dearer to the believers than their own selves. The (pagan) Arabs and Jews had formed a united front against them (Muhammad ﷺ and his followers) and had put up all their efforts of enmity, standing and fighting against them ... and (in fact) they shouted against them from every corner. Then, at that time Allah permitted them (Muhammad ﷺ and his followers) to fight but He did not make it obligatory. He said:

“Permission to fight is given to those (i.e. believers against disbelievers) who are fighting them (and) because they (believers) have been wronged, and surely Allah is Able to give them (believers) victory.” (V.22:39).

“Those who have been expelled from their homes unjustly only because they said: Our Lord is Allah.” (V.22:40).

The above Verses clearly state that Allah ﷻ is Able to give victory to His worshippers (the believers) without fighting, but Allah wants from His worshippers obedience with all their efforts as it is evident from the following Divine Verses:

“So when you meet (in fight ... Jihâd in Allah’s Cause) those who disbelieve smite at their necks till when you have killed and wounded many of them, then bind a bond firmly (on them, i.e. take them as captives). Thereafter (is the time) either for generosity (i.e. free them without ransom) or ransom (according to what benefits Islam), until war lays down its burden. Thus [you are ordered by Allah to continue in carrying out Jihâd against the disbelievers till they embrace Islam (i.e. are saved from the punishment in the Hell-fire) or at least come under your protection] but if it had been Allah’s Will, He Himself could certainly have punished them (without you). But (He lets you fight) in order to test you, some with others. But those who are killed in the way of Allah, He will never let their deeds be lost.

“He will guide them and set right their state.

“And admit them to Paradise which He has made known to them (i.e. they will know their places in Paradise better than they used to know their homes in this world).” (V.47:4,5,6).

Then after that He made fighting (Jihâd) obligatory against all those who fight you (Muslims); not against those who didn’t fight you. So Allah ordered:

“And fight in the way of Allah those who fight you...” (V.2:190).

Then Allah ﷻ revealed in Sûrat At-Taubah (Bara’ah) (Repentance, IX) the order to discard (all) the obligations (covenants, etc.) and commanded the Muslims to fight against all the Mushrikûn as well as against the people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians) if they do not embrace Islam, till they pay the Jizy whole (a tax levied on the non-Muslims who do not embrace Islam and are under the protection of an Islamic government) with willing submission and feel themselves subdued (as it is revealed in the Verse 9:29). So Muslims were not permitted to abandon “the fighting” against them (Pagans, Jews and Christians) and to reconcile with them and to suspend hostilities against them for an unlimited period while they are strong and are able to fight against them (non-Muslims).

As it is now obvious, at first “the fighting” was forbidden, then it was permitted and after that it was made obligatory — (1) against them who start “the fighting” against you (Muslims)... (2) and against all those who worship others along with Allāh... as mentioned in Sūrat Al-Baqarah (II), Āl-Imrān (III) and At-Taubah (IX)... and other Sūrahs (Chapters of the Qur’ān).

Allāh made the fighting (Jihād) obligatory for the Muslims and gave importance to the subject-matter of Jihād in all the Surah (Chapters of the Qur’ān) which were revealed (at Al-Madinah) as in Allāh’s Statement:

“March forth whether you are light (being healthy, young and wealthy) or heavy (being ill, old and poor), and strive hard with your wealth and your lives in the Cause of Allāh. This is better for you if you but knew.” (V.9:41).

And He (Allāh) said:

“Jihād (holy fighting in Allāh’s Cause) is ordained for you (Muslims) though you dislike it, and it may be that you dislike a thing which is good for you and that you like a thing which is bad for you. Allāh knows but you do not know.” (V.2:216)

Fighting, even though by its nature is disliked by the human soul because of the liability, of being killed, or being taken as a captive, or being injured, with the wasting of the wealth, the damage to the industries, the destruction of the country, the spreading of fear and awe in the souls and the (possibility) of being exiled from one’s homeland. Allāh had made ready an immensely good reward that cannot be imagined by a human soul.

‘Ikrimah (a religious scholar) said: At first Muslims disliked it (Jihād), but later they loved it and said: “We listen and obey.” And that is because the submission to the order to fight means hardship, but if the reward is made known it becomes clear to compare the hardship involved and its reward.

The Verses of the Qur’ān and the Sunna (the Prophet’s legal ways, orders) exhort Muslims greatly to take part in Jihād and have made quite clear its rewards, and praised greatly those who perform Jihād (the holy fighting in Allāh’s Cause) and explained to them various kinds of honours which they will receive from their Lord (Allāh). This is because they — Mujāhidīn are Allāh’s troops. Allāh will establish His religion (Islām), through them (Mujāhidīn). He will repel the might of His enemies, and through them He will protect Islām and guard the religion safely.

And it is they (Mujāhidīn) who fight against the enemies of Allāh in order that the worship should be all for Allāh (Alone and not for any other deity) and that the Word of Allâh (i.e. none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh and His religion Islam) should be superior. Allâh has made them (Mujâhidûn) partners in reward along with all those who guard Islam with their weapons, along with their good deeds which they performed even if they sleep in their homes.

And the Law-Giver (Allâh) has made one who leads another to do a deed equal to the doer of the deed himself both in reward (for a good deed) and in punishment (for a crime). So the inviter to a good deed and the inviter to an evil deed both will have a reward (good or bad) equal to the reward of the one who has done that deed.

And sufficient is Allâh’s Statement in this matter:

"O you who believe! Shall I guide you to a commerce that will save you from a painful torment?" (V.61:10)

After this Verse was revealed the souls became filled with the yearning for this profitable commerce which Allâh, the Lord of ‘Âlamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists), the All-Knower, the All-Wise Himself directed the people towards; Allâh says:

“That you believe in Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad صلی الله علیه و وسلم ) and that you strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh with your wealth and your lives...” (V.61:11)

Allâh further says:

“That will be better for you if you but know.” (V.61:11)

i.e. Jihâd (holy fighting in Allâh’s Cause) is better for you than your staying (back at home). Regarding the reward Allâh says:

“(If you do so) He will forgive you your sins, and admit you into Gardens under which rivers flow and pleasant dwellings in Gardens of Eternity (‘Âdn Paradise) — that is indeed the great success.” (V.61:12).

So it was as if they (the souls) said (as regards the above Verse): This is for us in the Hereafter and there is nothing for us in this world. Then Allâh said:

“And also (He will give you) another (blessing) which you love, — help from Allâh (against your enemies) and a near victory. And give glad tidings (O Muhammad صلی الله علیه و وسلم ) to the believers.” (V.61:13).

Good-gracious (indeed) how beautiful are these Words (of Allâh) and how they appeal to human hearts. How great is the attraction for them and how they lead one towards one’s Lord (Allâh). How soothing are they for the hearts of every lover of good. How great is the contentment of the heart and a happy life when one understands their meaning. We supplicate Allâh to bestow upon us His Blessings.

And Allâh says:
"Do you consider the providing of drinking water to pilgrims and the maintenance of Al-Masjid-al-Haram (at Makkah) as equal to the worth of those who believe in Allâh and the Last Day, and strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh? They are not equal before Allâh! And Allâh guides not those people who are the Zalimûn (polytheists and wrong-doers).” (V.9:19).

"Those who believed (in the Oneness of Allâh — Islamic Monotheism) and emigrated and strove hard and fought in Allâh’s Cause with their wealth and their lives are far higher in degree with Allâh. They are the successful.” (V.9:20).

"Their Lord gives them glad tidings of mercy from Him, and His being pleased (with them) and of Gardens (Paradise) for them wherein are everlasting delights.” (V.9:21).

“They will dwell therein forever. Verily, with Allâh is a great reward.” (V.9:22).

In the above Verses Allâh the Most High, Who is above all that they ascribe to Him, informs that those who maintain Al-Masjid-al-Haram (at Makkah) [and their maintenance of the mosque means to do I'tikâf in it, the Tawâf (circumambulation) of the Ka'bah, and the offering of Salât (prayers) in it, etc.] mentioned in the above said Verse — and those who provide drinking water to the pilgrims are not equal to those who did Jihâd in Allâh’s Cause. Allâh informed that the believers who fight in Allâh’s Cause (Mujahidûn) are far superior in grades before Him and it is they who will be successful.

And they are the ones who have received the glad tidings of: (1) His Mercy. (2) His being pleased with them, (3) and Gardens (Paradise).

Hence Allâh denied the equality between the Mujahidûn (those who fight in Allâh’s Cause) and those who maintain the Al-Masjid-al-Haram (at Makkah) along with the various kinds of worship, in spite of His praising those who maintain the mosques in His Statement:

“The Mosques of Allâh shall be maintained only by those who believe in Allâh and the Last Day, perform Iqâmât-as-Salât, and give Zakât and fear none but Allâh. It is they who are expected to be on true guidance.” (V.9:18).

So it is they (above said people) who are called by Allâh as “the maintainers of the mosques” — And in spite of all this, still the people who do Jihâd are far superior in grade than them (maintainers of the mosques) before Allâh.

Allâh says:

“Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) except those who are disabled (by injury, or are blind, or lame, etc.) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh with their wealth and their lives. Allâh has preferred in grades those who strive hard and fight with their wealth and lives above those who sit (at home). Unto each Allâh has promised good (Paradise), but Allâh has preferred those who strive hard and fight, above those who sit (at home) by a huge reward.” (V.4:95).

“Degrees of (higher) grades from Him, and forgiveness and mercy. And Allâh is Ever Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.4:96).

Allâh (the All-Mighty) denied the equality between the believers who sit (at home) and join not in Jihâd — and the Mujâhidân (those who fight in Allâh’s Cause), — then He mentioned the superiority of the Mujâhidân over those (believers) who sit (at home) by a grade and then later on mentioned their (Mujâhidân’s) superiority over them (believers who sit at home) by degrees of grades.

Ibn Zaid (a religious scholar) said: The degrees of grades with which Allâh (the All-Mighty) preferred the Mujâhidân over those (believers) who sit (at home) are seven and these Allâh (the All-Mighty) mentioned in His Statement:

“... That is because they suffer neither thirst, nor fatigue, nor hunger in the Cause of Allâh (the All-Mighty), nor they take any step to raise the anger of disbelievers nor inflict any injury upon an enemy, but is written to their credit as a deed of righteousness. Surely Allâh (the All-Mighty) loses not the reward of the Muhsinîn.” (V.9:120)

These are five — then Allâh (the All-Mighty) says:

“Nor do they spend anything (in Allâh’s Cause) — small or great, — nor cross a valley, but is written to their credit...” (V.9:121).

So these are two bringing the total to seven.

Ibn Qayyim after mentioning the statement of Ibn Zaid said: True! Indeed the degrees of grades mentioned are reported in Sahih Al-Bukhari:

Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever believes in Allâh and His Messenger, performs Igâmat-as-Salât and observes Saum (fasts) in the month of Ramadân, then it will be a promise binding upon Allâh to admit him to Paradise no matter whether he fights in Allâh’s Cause or remains in the land where he is born.” The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we inform the people of this good news?” He ﷺ said, “Paradise has one hundred grades which Allâh (the All-Mighty) has reserved for the Mujâhidân who fight in His Cause, and the distance between each of the two grades is like the distance between the heaven and the earth. So, when you ask Allâh (for something), ask for Al-Firdauv which is the middle (best) and highest part of Paradise.” [The subnarrator added, “I think the Prophet ﷺ also said: ‘Above it (i.e. Al-Firdaus) is the Throne of the Gracious (i.e. Allâh), and from it originate the rivers of Paradise.’”] (Hadîth No.2790).

Ibn Qayyim said as regards the Statement of Allâh (the All-Mighty) :-
“Verily, Allah has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties; for (the price) that theirs shall be the Paradise. They fight in Allah’s Cause, so they kill (others) and are killed. It is a promise in truth which is binding on Him in the Torah and the Gospel and the Qur’ân. And who is truer to his covenant than Allah? Then rejoice in the bargain which you have concluded. That is the supreme success.” (V.9:111).

So Allah (سُوء١) has put Paradise as the price of the believers and their properties, so if they sacrifice their lives and properties for His Cause, then they deserve the prize (Paradise) and the bargain which they concluded with Him. He reassured them with a number of assurances:

1. Allah informed the believers with the word of emphasis: “Surely.”
2. By using the past tense which denotes that the thing has already happened, and was confirmed and it remained as it was.
3. Moreover, He took upon Himself the responsibility of this convenant as He Himself bought the deal.
4. He informed that He has promised to give this price (Paradise) and shall neither break His Promise, nor shall neglect it.
5. The Arabic word ‘ālā used in this Divine Verse denotes obligation to convey to His worshippers that it is a binding on Him.
6. He confirmed that it is indeed a binding on Him.
7. He has informed that it (this bargain) is written in the Best Books revealed from the heavens (i.e. the Torah, the Gospel, the Qur’ân).
8. He used the interrogative form to emphasize the fact that there is none Truer to his convenant than Him (Allah).
9. He the Glorified, the Most High ordered them to receive the glad tidings of this contract (bargain) and give the good news to one another regarding a contract which has been ratified and has come to stay and admits of no choice or abro 1tionS.
10. He informed them of a truly sure news that there is a supreme success in the bargain (contract) which they have concluded. And bargain here means the thing which they shall receive with this price (their lives and properties) is Paradise.

And His (Allah’s) Statement “Bargain which you have concluded” i.e. the price with which you have exchanged the deal, Allah the Glorified mentioned the kinds of people who have concluded this contract (deal) and not any other (as mentioned in His Statement):

“(The believers whose lives Allah has purchased are) those who turn to Allah in repentance (from polytheism and hypocrisy), who worship (Him), who praise (Him), who observe Sawm (fast) (or go out in Allah’s Cause), who bow down [in Salât (prayer)], who prostrate themselves [in Salât (prayer)), who enjoin (on people) \textit{Al-Ma'\textsuperscript{r}uf} (i.e. Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam has ordained) and forbid (people) from \textit{Al-Munkar} (i.e. disbelief, polytheism of all kinds and all that Islam has forbidden), and who observe the limits set by Allah (do all that Allah has ordained and abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which Allah has forbidden). And give glad tidings to the believers.” (V.9:112)

And sufficient is this excellence — (for a \textit{Mujahid} which he will receive) honour and high degrees of grade — along with other things which Allah has made clear in the Qur'\text{\textae}n: about the description of the reward of \textit{Mujahid\textae}n, their magnificent state, moving of feelings and sentiments, the demanding of sacrifice in the cause of inviting others to Islam, to put strength and courage in the souls and to urge them to go forward and be stable and firm, and Allah will grant them victory and support them with the angels, as it is evident from the Statement of Allah:

“\textit{Remember} when you (Muhammad \\textsuperscript{ صلى الله عليه وسلم }) said to the believers: ‘Is it not enough for you that your Lord (Allah) should help you with three thousand angels sent down?’ Yes, if you hold on to patience and piety and the enemy comes rushing at you; your Lord will help you with five thousand angels having marks (of distinction). Allah made it not but as a message of good news for you and as an assurance to your hearts, and there is no victory except from Allah the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.” (V.3:124, 125, 126).

“So do not become weak (against your enemy), nor be sad and you will be superior (in victory) if you are indeed (true) believers. If a wound (and killing) has touched you, be sure a similar wound (and killing) has touched the others. And so are the days (good and not so good) We give to men by turns, that Allah may test those who believe, and that He may take martyrs from among you. And Allah likes not the \textit{Zalim\textae}n (polytheists and wrongdoers). And that Allah may test (or purify) the believers (from sins) and destroy the disbelievers. Do you think that you will enter Paradise before Allah tests those of you who fought (in His Cause) and (also) tests those who are patient?” (V.3:139, 140, 141, 142).

And Allah informed about those who are martyred in His way. They are alive and that they are with their Lord Allah finding what they wish of provisions and their faces are delighted with glad tidings. As Allah \\textsuperscript{ تعالى} says:

“Think not of those who are killed in the way of Allah as dead. Nay, they are alive with their Lord and they have provision.

“They rejoice in what Allah has bestowed upon them of His Bounty, rejoicing for the sake of those who have not yet joined them, but are left behind (not yet martyred) that on them no fear shall come, nor shall they grieve.
"They rejoice in a grace and a bounty from Allah and that Allah will not waste the reward of the believers.

"Those who answered (the Call of) Allah and the Messenger (Muhammad صلی الله علیه و وسلم) after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allah, there is a great reward." (V.3:169-172)

And He (Allah) says:

"Those who believe, fight in the Cause of Allah, and those who disbelieve, fight in the cause of Tāghīt (Satan). So fight you against the friends of Satan; ever feeble indeed is the plot of Satan." (V.4:76).

"Then fight, (O Muhammad صلی الله علیه و وسلم), in the Cause of Allah, you are not tasked (held responsible) except for yourself, and incite the believers (to fight along with you), it may be that Allah will restrain the evil might of the disbelievers. And Allah is Stronger in might and Stronger in punishing." (V.4:84).

And He (Allah) says:

"Let those (believers) who sell the life of this world for the Hereafter, fight in the Cause of Allah; and whoso fights in the Cause of Allah and is killed or gets victory, We shall bestow on him a great reward." (V.4:74).

And so on — there are other similar Verses (in the Qur’an) — besides these.

Think deeply, dear brother in Islam, how Allah encourages the spirit to make His Word superior and to protect the weak, and to rescue the oppressed ones.

Also think deeply how Jihād is connected with Salāt (prayers) and Saum (fasting). It is made obvious that Jihād is similar to both of them, and all the three (Jihād, Salāt and Saum) are ordained (by Allah) for the believers.

See how Allah has encouraged the cowardly men to plunge themselves into the battles, to face death with an open heart, and to run madly for it (Jihād) with great encouragement, showing clearly to them that death will certainly overtake them, and in case they die as Mujāhidūn (Martyrs) they will be compensated for their worldly life with a mighty compensation and they will not be dealt with unjustly in the very least.

Jihād is a great deed indeed and there is no deed whose reward or blessing is as that of it, and for this reason, it is the best thing that one can volunteer for. All the Muslim religious scholars, unanimously agree that Jihād is superior to Hajj and ‘Umra (pilgrimage) and also superior to non-obligatory Salāt (prayer) and Saum (fasting) as mentioned in the Qur’an and Prophet’s Sunna. It is obvious that the benefits of Jihād for us are extensive and comprehensive; it (Jihād) includes all kinds of worship both hidden and open, it also includes (a great) love for Allah and it shows one’s sincerity to Him and it also shows one’s trust in Him, and it indicates the handing over of one’s soul and property to Him — it

(Jihād) shows one’s patience, one’s devotion to Islām, one’s remembrance to Allāh and there are other kinds of good deeds which are present in Jihād and are not present in any other act of worship.

For these above mentioned degrees of grades of various kinds of worship one should race for Jihād. It is confirmed in the two authentic books (of Hadīth). Narrated Abū Hurairah (may Allāh be pleased with him): I heard Allāh’s Messenger saying: “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is! Were it not for some men amongst the believers who dislike to be left behind me, and whom I cannot provide with means of conveyance, I would certainly never remain behind any Sariyyah (army unit) going out for Jihād in Allāh’s Cause. By Him in Whose Hand my life is! I would love to be martyred in Allāh’s Cause and then come back to life and then be martyred and then come back to life again and then be martyred and then come back to life again and then be martyred.” (Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadīth No. 2797).

So the Prophet, through his ways of life, his firmness, his courage, and his patience has deeply encouraged the Mujāhidān for Allāh’s Cause.

He informed them the immediate and deferred reward of Jihād for them, and how different kinds of evils Allāh repels with it; and what a great honour, power, dignity and high grade is obtained through it and he has placed Jihād at the top in Islām. The Prophet says:

“Paradise has one hundred grades, the distance between each of the two grades is like the distance between the heaven and the earth, and these grades Allāh has reserved for the Mujāhidān who fight in His Cause” [as mentioned in the two authentic Books (Al-Bukhāri and Muslim)]. [See Sahih Al-Bukhari, Hadīth No. 2790].

It is narrated in Sahih Al-Bukhāri, Allāh’s Messenger said:

“Anyone whose both feet get covered with dust in Allāh’s Cause will not be touched by the Hell-fire.” (Hadīth No. 2811).

It is also narrated in the two books (Al-Bukhāri and Muslim):

A man said, “O Messenger of Allāh! Inform me of a thing that is equal to Jihād (in Allāh’s Cause)!” Allāh’s Messenger said, “You cannot (do that).” The man said, “Inform me of that.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “Can you observe Sawm (fast) continuously without eating or drinking (at all) and stand continuously in Salāt (prayer) from the time the Mujāhidān go out for Jihād (till the time they return back home)?” The man replied, “No.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “That is (the thing) which is equal to Jihād.”

Likewise Allāh’s Messenger said:
1. The souls of the martyrs are in the green birds dwelling in Paradise wherever they like.
2. That all their sins and faults are forgiven.
3. That each of them can intercede with Allah for seventy of his family members.
4. That he will come secure on the Day of Resurrection from the great terror.
5. That he will not feel the agonies and distress of death.
6. That he will not be horrified by the (great) Gathering (on the Day of Resurrection).
7. That he does not feel the pain of “the killing” except like that of a pinch.

And how many agonies and distresses are there for a person who dies on his bed — and a standing (praying) or a sleeping person in Jihad is better than a fasting or standing (praying) person not in Jihad — and whosoever acted as a guard or escort in Allah’s Cause, his eyes will never witness the Fire (Hell) and that a day spent while one is in Jihad for Allah’s Cause is better than the world and whatsoever is in it.

If one has understood (all) that, then Allah has reproached those who remained behind from Allah’s Messenger during the battle of Tabuk (i.e. they did not join in it) — they who cling heavily to the luxuries of this world — they who lagged behind from hastening onwards to march forth (for the battle of Tabuk) — Allah says:

“O you who believe! What is the matter with you, that when you are asked to march forth in the Cause of Allah (i.e. go for Jihad), you cling heavily to the earth? Are you pleased with the life of this world rather than the Hereafter? But little is the enjoyment of the life of this world as compared to the Hereafter.” (V.9:38).

Similarly Allah disapproved of those who abandoned Jihad (i.e. they did not go for Jihad) and attributed to them hypocrisy and disease in their hearts, and threatened (all) those who remain behind from Jihad and sit (at home) with horrible punishment. He (Allah) referred to them with the most ugly descriptions, rebuked them for their cowardice and spoke against them (about their weakness and their remaining behind) as He said:

“If you march not forth, He will punish you with a painful torment and will replace you by another people and you cannot harm Him at all, and Allah is Able to do all things.” (V.9:39).

And there are many Verses of the Qur’an besides this Verse (that threaten the Muslim nation if they give up Jihad).
Appendix III — The Call to Jihād (Holy fighting for Allah’s Cause)

And you will not find any organization past or present, religious or non-religious as regards (Jihād and military) (ordering) the whole nation to march forth and mobilize all of them into active military service as a single row for Jihād in Allāh’s Cause so as to make superior the Word of Allāh (i.e. none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), as you will find in the Islāmic Religion and its teachings.

The Qur’ān and As-Sunnah (the legal ways of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) have clearly given (wonderful explanation for) every act concerning Jihād. The Book has distributed its different actions and its great number of responsibilities on its special units a most accurate distribution that excels above all the modern organizations and the military teachings. And in fact these modern organizations and military teachings are only a small portion (drop) of the military laws of the Qur’ān and As-Sunna.

The Verses of Qur’ān and As-Sunna of Allāh’s Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم are both flooded with these high meanings, calling with eloquent phrases in a crystal clear way.

The Muslims were ordered to take all precautions against the enemies of Allāh جل وجل and to get ready against them with all they can of power — because that is the first step for Jihād (fighting) and the supreme way for the defence. To get ready (for Jihād) includes various kinds of preparations and weapons [tanks, missiles, artillery, aeroplanes (air force), ships (navy), etc, and the training of the soldiers in these weapons] are all included under (the meaning) of the word “force (i.e. land-force, navy and air-force).” And to look after (take care of) the permanent forces as well as the stationed forces similar to looking after the mobile forces. And to take care of the army in peace-time as well as during war-time.

The foundation of the military spirit as they say is: obedience and military discipline. Allāh جل وجل has mentioned the two elements of this foundation in the two following Verses of His Book (the Qur’ān).

As to the obedience, Allāh جل وجل says:

“Those who believe say: ‘Why is not a Sûrah (Chapter of the Qur’ān) sent down (for us)?’ But when a decisive Sûrah (explaining things) is sent down, and fighting (Jihād — holy fighting in Allāh’s Cause) is mentioned (i.e. ordained) therein, you will see those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy) looking at you with a look of one fainting to death. But it was better for them (hypocrites to listen to Allāh and to obey Him). Obedience (to Allāh) and good words (were better for them).” (V.47:20,21).

And as to the military discipline, Allāh جل وجل said in Sûrah As-Saff (Rows or Ranks):
"Verily! Allâh loves those who fight in His Cause in rows (ranks) as if they were a solid structure." (V.61:4).

Similarly the Islamic armed forces are exhorted to give their Rai‘a (pledge) to listen and obey, both in hard times and in ease, and in what they like and in what they dislike. Allâh says:

"Verily, those who give the Bai‘a (pledge) to you (O Muhammad), are in fact giving the Bai‘ah (pledge) to Allâh." (V.48:10).

And Allâh praised those who are true to (their) covenant and who fulfill their covenant by His Statement:

"Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allâh, [i.e. they have gone out for Jihâd (holy fighting), and showed not their backs to the disbelievers], of them some have fulfilled their obligations, (i.e. have been martyred) and some still are waiting, but they have never changed [i.e. they never proved treacherous to their covenant which they concluded with Allâh] in the least." (V.33:23).

And He ordered the believers to take a firm stand against the enemy when they (believers) meet their force, and to remember Allâh (much) at the time of horror, as He said:

"O you who believe! When you meet (an enemy) force take a firm stand against them and remember the Name of Allâh much (both with tongue and mind), so that you may be successful." (V.8:45).

And He (Allâh) encouraged the Mujâhidân in His Cause to take a firm stand without any (kind) of fear and to display true bravery (against the enemy) from the start of the battle to the end — as He said:

"So when you meet (in fight — Jihâd in Allâh’s Cause) those who disbelieve, smite at their necks till you have killed and wounded many of them, then bind a bond firmly (on them i.e. take them as captives). Thereafter (is the time for) either generosity (i.e. free them without ransom) or ransom (according to what benefits Islam), until war lays down its burdens..." (V.47:4)

"And don’t be weak in the pursuit of the enemy; if you are suffering (hardships) then surely they (too) are suffering (hardships) as you are suffering, but you have a hope from Allâh (for the reward i.e. Paradise) that for which they hope not; and Allâh is Ever All-Knowing, All-Wise." (V.4:104).

"And many a Prophet (i.e. many from amongst the Prophets) fought (in Allâh’s Cause) and along with them (fought) large bands of religious learned men. But they never lost heart for that which did befall them in Allâh’s way, nor did they weaken, nor degrade themselves. And Allâh loves the patient." (V.3:146).
Similarly, He ordered (the Mujahidin) to have confidence, to keep their composure and to expel (from their minds) all wrong conceptions, weakness and sadness — as He said:

“So do not become weak (against your enemy), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory), if you are indeed (true) believers.” (V.3:139).

And Allah informed that He has given a guarantee of victory to those who will defend Allah’s religion (true Islam). And there is no consideration for the number of men or for the equipment with weapons but (the most important thing) is: true faith in Allah and that the victory is (always) from Allah — as Allah said:

“If Allah helps you, none can overcome you; and if He forsakes you, who is there after Him that can help you? And in Allah (Alone) let believers put their trust.” (V.3:160)

“How often a small group overcame a mighty host by Allah’s leave? And Allah is with the patient.” (V.2:249)

“O you who believe! If you help (in the cause of) Allah, He will help you and make your foothold firm.” (V.47:7)

“And, verily Our Word has gone forth of old for Our slaves, — Messengers, that they verily would be made triumphant. And that Our hosts, they verily would be victors.” (V.37:171-173)

“... And (as for) the believers it was incumbent upon Us to help (them).” (V.30:47)

Similarly the Qur’an points out the well-known fact that the battle is by turns, (one) day (victory) is for you — (the other) day (victory) is for others — as Allah said:

“If a wound (and killing) has touched you, be sure a similar wound (and killing) has touched the others. And so are the days (good and not so good), that We give to men by turns...” (V.3:140).

And He made “the mutual consultation” as one of the legal foundations in order to make an exact decision, particularly in important matters like Jihad and dealing with enemies, etc. and He praised His believers — slaves for this quality by His Statement:

“... And who (conduct) their affairs by mutual consultation.” (V.42:38).

And in spite of the perfection of the intelligence of Allah’s Messenger and along with his being helped by Divine Inspiration still Allah ordered him (saying):

“... And consult them in the affairs...” (V.3:159)

So that his followers may follow his example after him.

Similarly the Qur’an warned (the believers) from committing sins (both in open and in secret) small sins or great sins... and He informed them that Allah’s Help does not descend upon the disobedient sinners:
Appendix III — The Call to Jihād (Holy fighting for Allah’s Cause)

"Those of you who turned back on the day, the two hosts met (i.e. battle of Uhud), it was Satan who caused them to backslide (run away from the battlefield) because of some (sins) they had earned..." (V.8:15).

Allāh has absolutely forbidden any dispute on any matter concerning the fighting (battle) and to be always in complete agreement with one another, and informed them that the dispute is the reason for failure and the cause of the strength and kingdom:

"... And do not dispute (with one another) lest you lose your strength and be patient. Surely Allāh is with those who are patient." (V.8:46)

And to beware of fleeing from the enemy during the battle, and it is one of the biggest sins and those who commit it are tormented with grave punishments:

"O you who believe! When you meet these who fight, never turn your backs to them." (V.8:15)

"And whosoever turns his back to them on that day — unless it be a stratagem of war, or to retreat to a troop (of his own) — he indeed has drawn upon himself the wrath of Allāh. And his abode is Hell, worst indeed is that destination!" (V.8:16)

Allāh forbid Ḥulul (stealing from the war booty before its distribution) i.e. the taking (a part) of war booty illegally, and warned the Muslims with an extreme warning. And a person who takes it, shall bring it forth (on the Day of Resurrection) carrying it over his back and neck, being tortured by its heavy burden and weight, terrified with its voice, rebuked for his dishonesty in front of all the witnesses.

"It is not for any Prophet to take illegally a part of booty (Ghulul), and whosoever deceives his companions as regards the booty, he shall bring forth on the Day of Resurrection that which he took (illegally). Then every person shall be paid in full what he has earned, and they shall not be dealt with unjustly." (V.3:161)

Similarly one should be cautious, not to fight (with the intention) to show off, or for good reputation or for dignity, or for pride and haughtiness, or for the clamour (noise) of nationalism and for false-forged slogans. Whenever the Messenger Ṣallallāhu 'Alayhi wa Sallam appointed a Commander-in-Chief for an army unit, he used to advise him specially to be afraid and dutiful to Allāh, and to be good to those Muslims who were accompanying him. He then used to say (to that Commander):

"Invade in the Name of Allāh and for the Cause of Allāh and kill those who disbelieve in Allāh. Invade and do not press heavily by exceeding the limits, and do not betray, and do not kill children...."
Appendix III — The Call to Jihâd (Holy fighting for Allah’s Cause)

And he (the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to say to his companions when they intended invasion:

“Proceed in the Name of Allah and and for Allah and upon the religion of Allah’s Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم: Do not kill the very old or a child or a woman and do not press heavily by exceeding the limits. Collect the (war) booty, reconcile, and do good as Allah loves the good-doers.”

For that, the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and those who believed in him were tried with fair trials (martyrdom or mighty reward) to make victorious this religion (Islam) and to invite others to it (Islam). So Allah assisted them with victory and sent down upon them tranquillity and helped them with angels and united their hearts and cast terror into the hearts of their enemies.

So they fought in the Cause of Allah (for) Islamic Faith (worshipping none but Allah Alone) and sincerely (for Allah’s sake) and to make victorious Allah’s religion till it becomes superior over all religions, and mankind is brought out — (1) from darkness into the light, (2) from the worshipping of men to the worshipping of Allah Alone (the only true God), (3) from the narrowness of the world to its wideness (ease) and (4) from the injustices of the religions to the justice of Islam. They knew well that Allah has guaranteed them victory and promised them that they will he the conquerors. So they were sure of Allah’s Support, and of his Messenger’s promise and considered the matter easy with a small or great (number) and thought little of the fears and dangers. They remembered the Statement of Allah تعالى:

“If Allah helps you, none can overcome you ...” (V.3:160)

And that they are troops of Allah تعالى, and that they are fighting in Allah’s Cause, and surely Allah تعالى will help and support them and will defeat their enemies, as their enemies fight for the cause of Satan.

Here is the example of ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه, as he consulted his companions regarding sending troops to ‘Iraq (for participating in the battle of Nahâwand). ‘Ali bin Abû Talib رضي الله عنه said to him (‘Umar): “O Chief of the believers! This matter cannot be ‘victory or defeat’ because of a great number, or a small number but it is His (Allah’s) religion which He has made superior and His troops which he has honoured and supported (them) with the angels till it reached far as it has reached. We have been promised (victory) by Allah, and Allah fulfills His Promise and supports His troops.”

And here is the example of Khâlid bin Walid رضي الله عنه as he came from ‘Iraq, a man from the Arab Christians said to Khâlid: “How great is the number of Romans and how small is the number of Muslims?” Khâlid replied: “Woe to you! Do you make me afraid of the Romans?... But the greatness of the troops is with victory and the smallness of the troops is with defeat, not with the number of men, by Allah I wish if the red ones (i.e. the camels and the horses) are cured from their journey hurts, I will proceed to attack them (Romans) even if their number is doubled. (The hoofs of his horse had chafed and received injuries during its return form ‘Irāq to Al-Madinah).”

They used to endanger their lives, used to do wonders and extraordinary deeds being sure of Allah’s Help, depending upon His Promise as it happened in the Islamic army under the command of Sa’d bin Abī Waqqās. He stood in front of the town of Al-Madyan and could not find any ship or boat (it became completely impossible for him to find anything of that sort) and the water of the river Tigris increased tremendously with overflooding and it overthrew its foam from excessive water in it. Sa’d addressed the troops over its bank (saying): “I have resolved to cross this sea (great river) in order to assault them (the enemy).” They (the people) replied: “May Allah direct us and you to follow the right path. So please do it.” Then he (Sa’d) rushed heedlessly into the (river) Tigris with his horse and all his troops too rushed heedlessly into it (Tigris) and not a single man was left behind; so they marched over it as if they were marching over the surface of the earth, till they filled it (the space) between its two banks and one could not see the water surface from the cavalry and the foot-soldiers. The people spoke to one another over the surface of water as they used to speak to one another over the land surface. So when the Persians saw them they said: Diwana... Diwana, (i.e. mad people... mad people). By Allah! You are not fighting against human beings, but against jinn.” On that Sa’d started saying: “Allah is Sufficient for us. He is the Best Disposer (for our affairs): by Allah! Surely Allah will give victory to His friends; verily, Allah will make superior His religion, and verily Allah will defeat His enemy. as long as there are neither adulterers nor those who commit (similar) sins in the army (Sa’d’s troops), then the good deeds will overcome the evil.”

Yes! They (the Muslims) used to be afraid of: (1) their sins, and (2) disobedience of Allah. more than they used to be afraid of their enemy or their enemy’s great number and mighty weapons, as we find ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab saying: (in his letter to the Commander Sa’d bin Abū Waqqās when he sent him for the conquest of Persia):

“... Then after, I order you and all the troops that are along with you to be obedient to Allah in all circumstances as this (being obedient to Allah) is better than the weapons against the enemy and a strong stratagem (device) in the war. I order you and the soldiers who are with you to be more cautious and afraid of your own crimes and sins (and not to commit them) than your enemy, as the crimes and sins of the soldiers are more dangerous to them than their enemy. The Muslims are victorious only because their enemies are disobedient to Allah and had it not been so, we have no power over them, because neither our number is equal to their number, nor our weapons are like theirs. If we commit crimes and sins as they do, then they (our enemies) will have superiority over us in power. And if we will not gain victory over them by our merits, we do not overpower them by our strength. And you should also know that in this marching of yours (for Allah’s Cause) there are guards (angels) upon you from Allah (to watch you), and they know all that you do. So be shy of them and do not commit Allah’s disobedience (crimes and sins) while you are going in Allah’s Cause and do not say: ‘Our enemy is worse than us, so they will not overpower us.’ Perhaps some people who are worse than the others may overpower the others as the (disbelievers) Magians overpowered the Children of Israel when they (the latter) involved themselves with Allah’s disobedience (crimes and sins). So they (disbelievers, Magians) entered the very innermost parts of their homes and it was a promise (completely) fulfilled. And ask Allah the assistance over your own selves, (to save you from crimes and sins) just as you ask Allah that, both for you and for us.”

So the Muslim warriors (Al-Mujâhidûn) strictly followed what this rightly guided caliph ‘Umar had mentioned (as above). And they (Mujâhidûn) were as they were described by a Roman to a Roman Chief: (he said): “I have come to you from men, very precise in their manners; they ride swift race-horses, during the night they worship (Allah Alone) in seclusion, during the day they are cavaliers, if you speak to your companions something, your friend will not understand anything from you because of the high tone of their voices while reciting the Qur’ân and the mentioning of Allah much.” So he (the Roman Chief) looked at his companions and said: “It has come to you from them that over which you have no power.”

And here is the story of ‘Uqbah bin Nâfi’: He (‘Uqbah) intended to take a place (town) in Africa, so as to be a place for the Muslim army and to protect their families and properties from revolt against them by the natives of the country. So he betook himself to the place of Al-Qairawan, and it was a muddy place, full of every kind of beasts of prey (lions, tigers, leopards, etc.) and snakes..., etc. So he (‘Uqbah) invoked Allah, and Allah answered to his invocation, he then said: “O snakes and wild beasts of prey! We are the companions of Allah’s Messenger (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), go away from us as we are landing here, and afterwards if we find any (of you wild beasts and snakes) we will kill you.” So the people saw that day, the (wild) animals and snakes carrying their young ones, shifting from that place... And a great number of natives (Al-Barbar) saw (all) that and embraced Islam.

And when the term (time limit) was prolonged for the Muslims and their hearts were hardened and they forgot their religion and became ignorant of the fact (that for what purpose) Allah has sent and chosen them from among the great number of mankind and from the great number of nations of the earth... Allah said:

“You [true believers in Islâmic Monotheism, and real followers of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, and his Sunnah (legal ways)] are the best of peoples ever raised up for mankind, you enjoin Al-Ma'řuf (i.e. Islāmic Monotheism and all that Islām has ordained) and forbid what is Al-Munkar (polytheism, disbelief and all that Islām has forbidden), and you believe in Allāh...” (V.3:110)

So (today) they (Muslims) are leading a life of the one who knows not any Prophet, nor believes in any Divine Message or Divine Inspiration, nor expects any reckoning nor is afraid of the Hereafter. They (Muslims) resemble the pre-Islāmic ignorant nations, against whom they used to fight in the past. They have turned on their heels (back) as apostates from Islām, they have imitated them (ignorant nations) in their civilization, in their social affairs, in their political affairs, in their character and in the pleasures of their lives. They (Muslims) also imitated them in many other things because of which Allāh hated and forsook them. He (Allāh) put them (Muslims) into trials under the effects of (1) Western civilization (2) and the Eastern Communist propaganda. So their land became “a free wealth” with no protector, their kingdom became a victim for every beast of prey and a food (nourishment) for every eater, and the meaning of the statement of the Prophet (Muhammad صلی الله عليه وسلم) became apparent:

“It is expected that the nations will call other nations to share them against you (Muslims) as the eaters call each other to eat from the food in front of them in a large wooden plate.” A person asked the Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم: “Will that happen because of our small number on that day?” The Prophet said: “Nay! Your number (will be) great, but you will be rubbish like the rubbish of flood-water. And certainly Allāh will remove from the hearts of enemies ‘the fear from you’ and surely He (Allāh) will throw Wahn in your hearts.” A person asked: “What is Wahn, 0 Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet صلی الله عليه وسلم said, “Wahn is to love (this) world and to hate death.”

The Prophet also said:

“If you: (1) practiced Bai'a Al-‘Inah (i.e. selling goods to a person for a certain price and then buying them back from him for a far less price), (2) and followed the tails of the cows (i.e. indulged in agriculture and became contented with it) (3) and deserted the Jihād (holy fighting) in Allāh’s Cause, Allāh will cover you with humiliation and it will not be removed till you return back to your religion.” (Abū Dāwūd).

And now they (Muslims) have deserted the Jihād and asked help from (their) enemies and protection from the disbelievers, begging them; turning towards them, expecting good from them. So they (Muslims) have become mean, despised before Allāh in spite of their Islāmic names and in spite of the presence of righteous pious persons amongst them and in spite of the fact that some of the religious laws, signs and ceremonies are practiced in their countries.

One of the orientalists said: “When the Muslims turned away from their religious teachings and became ignorant of its wisdom and its laws, and deviated towards the contradictory (man-made) laws taken from the opinions of men, there spread in them immorality of character, falsehood, hypocrisy, ill-will and hatefulness increased in them. Their unity disintegrated and they became ignorant of their present and future state and became unaware of what will harm them or will benefit them. They have become contented with the life in which they eat, drink, sleep, and compete not with others in superiority.” All this is a visible fact, which every true believer feels, and which every enthusiastic person (about his religion) observes in every community (nation) that gives up Al-Jihād and is grossed: (1) in a luxurious life, (2) in the worshipping of wealth and (3) in the love of this world.
Appendix III — The Call to Jihād (Holy fighting for Allah’s Cause)

History informs us: What the most wretched (Al-Maghool and At-Tātār) did to the Muslims? That which will sadden the hearts and will make the eyes shed tears...

Ibn Al-Athīr said: “I remained for many years, avoiding the mentioning of this accident because of its great magnitude, disliking to speak about it, so that I put a foot forward and another backward and thought deeply, who is there who can write the wailing and crying of the Muslims and who is there on whom it is easy to mention that ... would that my mother had not begotten me... would that I had been dead before this, and had been forgotten and out of sight... This job (work) includes the mentioning of the great event and the severe calamity which made the days and the nights extremely hard and bitter that no similar calamity will happen and that did befall (cover) the mankind and particularly the Muslims.” Ibn Al-Athīr then mentioned the weaknesses of the Muslims and the victory of their enemies over them... he said: “A woman from (the Tātār) entered a house and killed a group of its dwellers and they thought her to be a man... one of them (the Tātār) entered a street in which there were one hundred men and he went on killing them one by one, till he killed them all, and not even a single man (out of the hundred) raised his hand against him (the Tātār) to harm him... and humiliation was put over the men... so they did not defend themselves neither little nor more. We take refuge with Allāh from being defeated (by the enemy).” Ibn Al-Athīr further said: “One of the Tātārs got hold of a man and he (the Tātār) could not find any (weapon) to kill him, so he told the man: “Put your head over this stone and do not move (keep it on)”... and so the man put his head over the stone and remained there till the same man came with a sword and killed him... and there were many similar incidents”...

So it is absolutely obligatory upon the Islāmic nation, and particularly upon the religious scholars and the rulers from them to be obedient to Allāh, fear Him and to be dutiful to Him and to settle the matters of differences amongst themselves and to propagate “The invitation to this religion (Islām) to others, publish its good aspects, and instruct (teach) the people its (Islām’s) laws and Hikmah (the Qur’ān and Sunna) as did the Muslim nobles of early days.” They (Muslim nobles of early days) strove hard in Allāh’s Cause as they ought to have striven with sincerity and with all their efforts that His (Allāh’s) Name should be superior... They stood... inviting people to Allâh’s religion (Islâm), explained to them the good aspects and the excellence of Islâm... and that was the reason their kingdom was extended and their countries expanded, and they subjected others to its (Islâm’s) teachings. But before long their descendants deviated from the Right Path, tore themselves into pieces after they were one united entity, they doubted the Truth, so, for them the path was separated and they became as groups (and sects) having different (views and) opinions opposing each other in their aims... So how can they be elevated?... How can there be any progress or priority possible for them while they are following the disbelieving nations, they drag along behind them, pursue their ways and footsteps and imitate their actions, small or great.

They judge their people with the contradictory (man-made) laws which conflict and clash with the Islâmic laws, which were the origin of their honour and pride and in which was their peace and steadfastness. Allâh says:

“Do they then seek the judgment of (the Days of) Ignorance. And who is better in judgement than Allâh for a people who have firm Faith?” (V.5:50).

We beseech Allâh to make victorious His religion (Islâm) and to make superior His Words and to lead all the Muslims to that in which His Pleasure is — Amin.
